Dear Miss Kober:

We appreciate your writing ot us as fully as you did on August 2nd concerning your crossing in the QUEEN ELIZABETH, and we regret that you consider that nothing would be served by giving our representative an opportunity to discuss the matter further with you.

We are extremely concerned to know that your trip with us was so unsatisfactory to you, and we hope that we may have an opportunity sometime in the future to carry you under more favorable circumstances.

We are sending a copy of your letter to our principals abroad, in the hope that with the additional information you have given to us, we may have a better opportunity of instituting a proper investigation.

We should like to take this opportunity of again thanking you for your consideration in writing to us.

Yours very truly,

CUNARD WHITE STAR LIMITED
