Current investigation is directed at establishing extent of CISPES support of terrorism in El Salvador, and potential of committing terrorist operations in the United States. May provide valuable insight into such contacts, as well as identification of individuals supporting terrorism.