Greetings!

Feminist Action Project will meet this Wednesday at 7:30 in the Gender and Sexuality Center: Serving Women and LGBTQA Communities (SAC 2.112). Join us as we discuss and plan for various events this year. Possible events to be discussed:

§ Feminism is for Every(bady) (focus on feminism affecting everyone for different reasons and highlight the men/males who are also part of the movement)

§ Gender equality/Gender Justice

§ Intercisim

§ Ableism

§ Specific Events highlighting feminism in different cultures

§ Media representation / Body Image- Miss Representation film

§ Chalkboard Project (On chalkboards with FAP logo, write why feminism is important and post pictures on Facebook

§ “What does a feminist look like?” Open frame where people can take pictures

§ History and current events concerning women’s issues and voting.

§ Debate Watch Party/Teach-In

If you have any questions or suggestions, please feel free to stop by the GSC and see Liz, Noreen, or Joyce or contact us at feministactionproject@gmail.com

Posted by Feminist Action Project at 12:12 PM