IV. Open Forum

Monica Rios – UT Athletics: Thanks so much for coming to the game tonight,

V. Guests

Sarah Payton, Chris Wilson – Mobile Campus: Thank you so much for having us here tonight, we have been working very hard on getting students good discounts to merchants around town, the discount program will utilize text messaging to get in touch with groups about discounts or information that is pertinent to various organizations, text messaging coupons are sold to vendors around the area, this is a permission based program, we anticipate getting good discounts just for enrolling in the program

Rugoff: Will you have the opportunity for students to request certain vendors

Wilson: Certainly, those ideas are very powerful

Alamanza: How do you redeem them?

Wilson: Just show them your phone. You can request more, but right now, the maximum is two per day. This is totally free for students.

Sanchez: Is there a way for students that don't have text messages to get the discounts?

Wilson: Yes, through the website and email. The benefit of having it through text messages is that it is a direct message.

Scroggins: Do you solicit email or phones to other companies?

Wilson: Absolutely not. This program has been very well received at the University of Florida. Over 4,000 students are enrolled. Expirations will vary by vendor

Sarah Payton: We will be employing numerous students to promote the program and have various plans for promotion of the program on campus and in the Austin area, our phone number is 472-text and representatives can be reached there at any time, email cgains@mobilecampus.com
