

A group of sketches made by architecture students and compiled by Raymond Everett and Samuel Gideon. Mr. Gideon was also responsible for securing the series of paintings used throughout the book.

These are not represented as the best pictures of the group, but they do represent the fine work being done in the Department of Architecture.

original possibly in →
SOASW Drawer 4
1938 "Statues in Room"
Donald White
□ use this or any of those located?

