Dear Dr. Stenzel,
I did not know of your operation until yesterday, when by chance I ran into Mrs. Brick Elliott at the doctor's office. I am very sorry indeed that you had to have one; it was bound to take strength and energy that you need for other purposes.
But I am delighted beyond measure that you have gotten along so well, and hope that it will not be long until you are better than new.

Sincerely,
Mary Grace Adkins
