Mr. H. B. Stenzel,
College Station, Texas.

Dear Mr. Stenzel:

While in town yesterday I sent the parcel of books, excerpts, separates, etc to you by express. As there was no difference in charges or service rendered by the express company, the parcel was sent to you collect so that you could see just what the charges were.

The amount of the books as per your offer totals $11.80. The list is returned to you for your checking when the books arrive.

I will be pleased to receive any land shells collected alive in your region and in return give you marine shells. I have but few land shells from your great state.

Very truly yours,

Ralph H. Jackson
