Dear Dr. Stenzel:

While going through some of our crustacean remains and checking your identifications, I find that we are missing some specimens. As I have misplaced the correspondence, I am not sure whether you kept some for later identification and description, or whether we have lost them in the drawers somewhere. Would you please drop me a card so I'll know whether to look or wait?

Once again, many thanks for your kindness in identifying our specimens for us.

Sincerely yours,

J. R. Macdonald
