Dear Dr. Wilbur:

The reference on the chemical composition of concholin which you gave me recently seems to have been lost. So would you please have the kindness to send it to me again? I have looked up the following reference: Roche, Ranson, & Eysseric - Lafon, 1951, Sur la composition des scleroproteines des coquilles des mollusques (conchiolines): Soc. de Biologie Comptes Rendus des Seances, Paris, v. 145, no. 19-20, pp. 1474-1477. Recently Prof. Gregoire sent me several of his excellent papers on the submicroscopic structure of conchiolin.

With best regards.

Sincerely yours ,

H. B. Stenzel
