

21.6.42 - No. 16

Air Ministry News Service

Air Ministry Bulletin No. 7340

ENEAY SUPPLY SHIP ATTACKED

A bright flash was observed and debris was thrown into the air when a Hudson of a Coastal Command Canadian Squadron attacked a medium sized cargo vessel off Texel during the night.

The enemy supply ship was sailing in convoy with two other vessels when the Hudson saw its target in the moonlight and made a bear attack.

The rear-gunner estimated at least two hits amid-ships. Some flak was encountered but the Hudson returned undamaged.