W. LEE O'DANIEL

GOVERNOR W. LEE O'DANIEL

To the 1939 CACTUS:

By representing the lives, the hopes, and the plans of nearly eleven thousand students, the 1939 CACTUS symbolizes Texas of the future.

This CACTUS, which portrays so vividly the life of University men and women, reveals a living picture of the Texas that will be. It is a State possessing resourcefulness, courage, and, above all, ambition.

Your great University will breed the ambition, courage, and resourcefulness that will be so essential in building a Greater Texas. It is within your power to fashion out of this vast domain of natural wealth an agricultural and industrial State unrivaled in all the world.

That is your heritage; it has come from those who carved our civilization from a bleak wilderness. They have given you the courage to carry the Torch higher. Your University has fortified you with Knowledge and Wisdom.

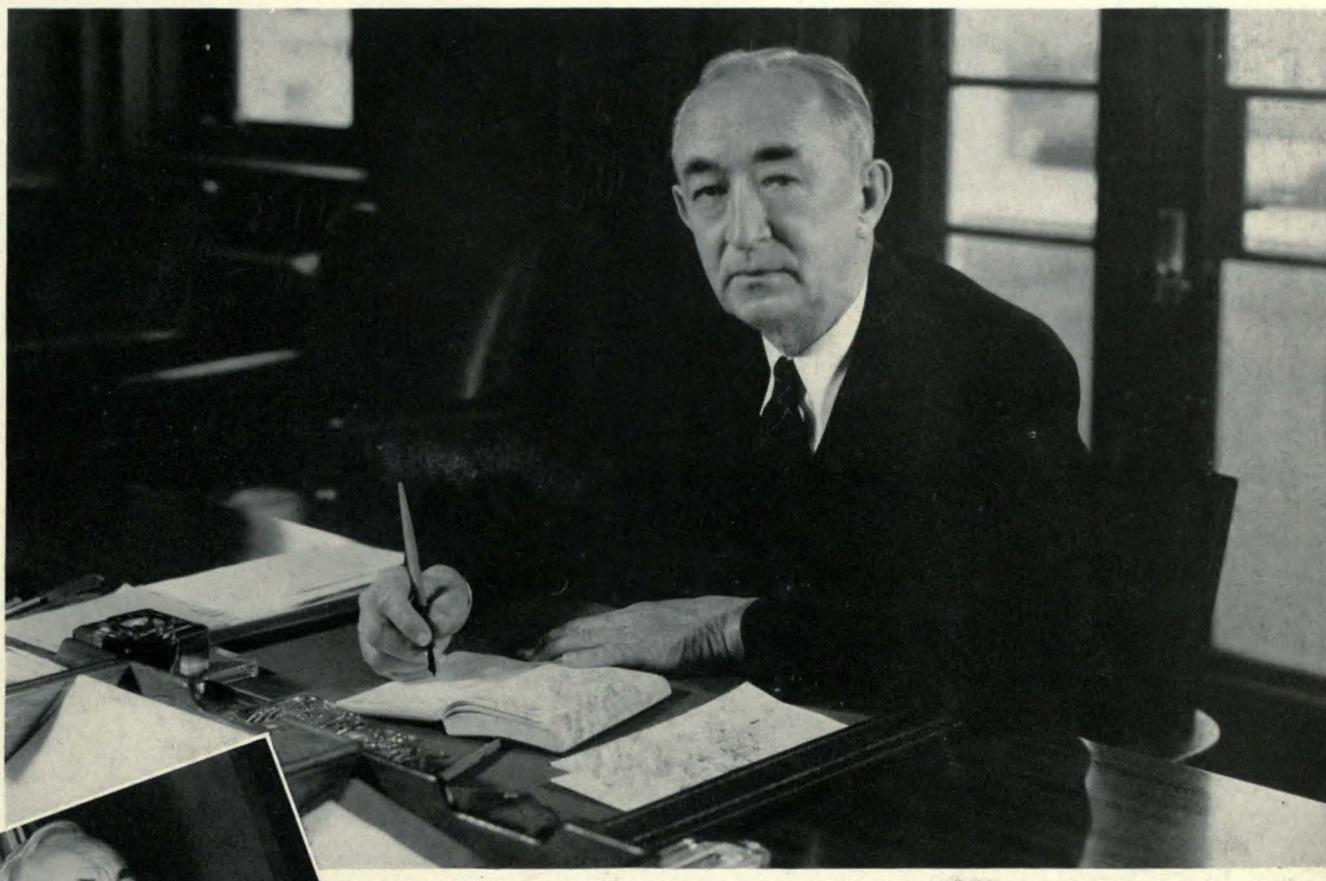

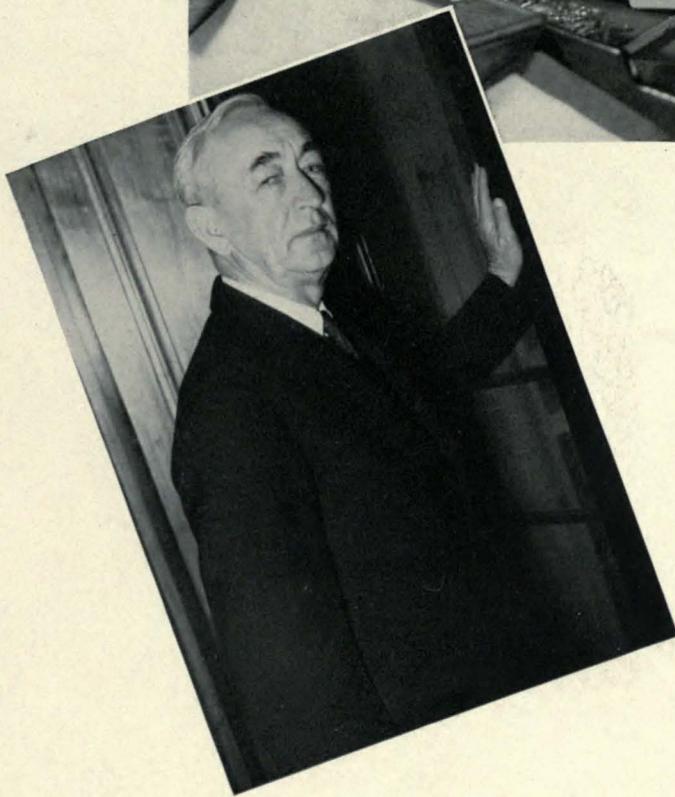

When the future of Texas is placed in the hands of University men and women, Texans need not fear its fulfillment.

Sincerely,

Governor

J. W. CALHOUN

PRESIDENT J. W. CALHOUN

TO THE STUDENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS:

It is a commonplace to call your attention to the fact that you are most fortunate in being citizens of the United States of America in the year 1939. Few people on this distracted earth are so lucky. If you lived in the parts of the world where most white people live, where those nearest to you by blood and culture dwell, you would not even have the privilege of choosing whether you would go to college. Your parents would not be free to decide whether they would send you. That would be decided by the state and usually would depend on the social stratum in which your birth had placed you.

It is no merit of yours that you were born in Texas instead of Europe. That piece of good fortune just came to you providentially. But since you are in Texas and at The University of Texas, you can show that you appreciate the country of your birth and can justify your presence in this institution by preparing for useful citizenship and admirable living.

It sounds like bombast to say that we live in the greatest country on earth, but it is the simple truth. The Country, the State, The University of Texas are all your good fortune. Remember this when there is a temptation to speak slightlyingly of your country, your State, your school. Think of the hundreds of thousands who have no country, no state, no school and of the millions of others who, having them, have still no liberty.

Very sincerely yours,

J. W. Calhoun,
President

President-Elect HOMER P. RAINNEY

DR. HOMER PRICE RAINNEY, President-Elect of The University of Texas

DR. HOMER PRICE RAINNEY, director of the American Youth Commission, has been appointed President of The University of Texas by the Board of Regents. He will take office on June 1. J. W. Calhoun has been serving as President Ad Interim since the death of President H. Y. Benedict on May 10, 1937.

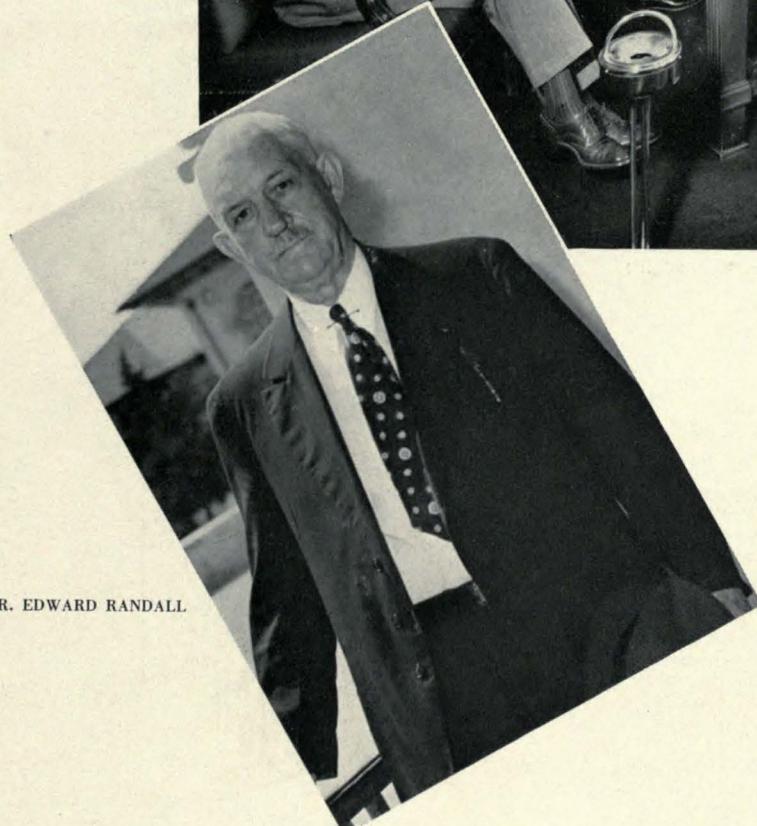

Dr. Rainey is a native Texan and is a graduate of Austin College at Sherman. He took graduate work at the University of Chicago. He has been a member of the faculties of the University of Chicago, the University of Minnesota, the University of Oregon, and was for a summer term a member of The University of Texas faculty.

Prior to his appointment as director of the American Youth Commission in 1935, Dr. Rainey was for four years president of Bucknell University in Lewisburg, Pennsylvania. The American Youth Commission is a non-governmental agency working under the supervision of the American Council on Education. As director of the Commission, Dr. Rainey has conducted extensive research programs on the problems of youth.

BOARD OF REGENTS

DR. EDWARD RANDALL

THE BOARD OF REGENTS, consisting of nine members appointed in groups of three every two years by the Governor with the consent and approval of the State Senate, is the governing body of the University. Fourteen standing committees work continually on various phases of University administration.

The retiring chairman of the Board is Dr. Edward Randall of Galveston, distinguished member of the medical profession and administrator of the famous Sealy-Smith Foundation. Other members are Major J. R. Parten of Houston, newly elected chairman of the Board and chairman of the legislative committee; Mrs. I. D. Fairchild of Lufkin, gracious and capable supervisor of University building activities, and promoter of the fine arts program and cultural activities; H. J. Lutcher Stark of Orange, Texas, educational program leader, member of the General Development Board and chairman of the auditing and the complaints and grievances committees of the Board.

Leslie Waggener of Dallas, son of the first president of the University, is chairman of the finance committee; H. H. Weinert of Seguin, lawyer, banker, farmer, oil man, and civic leader is chairman of the athletics committee and the museum committee; Senator E. J. Blackert of Victoria is chairman of the public relations committee and Dr. K. H. Aynesworth of Waco is chairman of the library committee of the Board, and a successful physician; Dr. George Morgan of San Angelo, prominent geologist and holder of a Doctor of Philosophy degree, supervises the management and development of the 2,000,000 acre University land endowment.

PRESIDENT'S STAFF

THE PRESIDENT'S STAFF and the service it performs may rightfully be called the switch-box of the Main University. All personal contact work with regard to the instructors, the professors, the officers, and the Regents of the University is handled through this office.

It is only natural that the detailed work of the President's staff should be closely tied to the work of the office of Leo C. Haynes, Secretary of the Board of Regents. The three women who constantly strive to keep the activities of both offices running smoothly are Mrs. Frances Little McMath, secretary to the President; Mrs. Billy Ruth Rubottom, assistant to the secretary to the President; and Miss Florence Backstrom, assistant to the secretary of the Board of Regents.

LEO C. HAYNES

COMPTROLLER'S STAFF

GEORGE STEPHENS, SIMMONS, NELLIE HARRISON, MAEBESS
MATTHEWS, FANNIE DAVIS.

C. D. SIMMONS

THE COMPTROLLER, custodian of all property belonging to the Main University, carries on with the help of his staff, the business management of the University. C. D. Simmons is acting Comptroller.

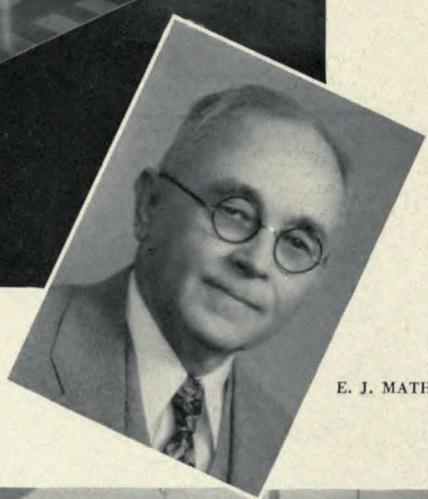

Duties of his office, as designated by the Board of Regents, include all business operations not specifically assigned to some other office, and supervision over the accounting and auditing office of the University. All general supplies and materials used in the Main University, except the few purchases assigned to particular officers, are supervised, subject to state law, by the Comptroller. Also, he supervises minor improvements and repairs of the buildings and grounds.

The Comptroller, with the advice and direction of the finance committee of the Board of Regents, invests the trusts and endowment funds in the possession of the University, manages the State and privately donated endowment lands and attends to the leasing and renting of these properties as well as their upkeep.

ALL THE LULUS are back in town and all the Joes are there to meet them. Some arrive on trains (unpaid adv.), some in cars like the lady in the dark cheaters, and some just arrive like the unlucky lad in the two, too, too disconsolate poses in the middle of the page. When the migration is all over, there are approximately 10,000 bright and eager youths in Austin . . . . Almost at once sororities begin to fete their newly-arriving rushees. At the top of the page, Tri Deltas are seen, or rather caught, by a snooping photographer as they smile happily over something in fancy glasses. We assume for now that it is coffee . . . . At the new Chi Omega manse four charming young ladies pause to pose despite the more important business of the afternoon . . . . Afternoon finds A.D.Pis lolling coyly and prettily before a mantle of cups about which the rushees are doubtless being carefully instructed . . . . The curtain rises next on a stage tastefully set at the Pi Phi house for a little night charming. It's hard to say whether the charmers or the charmed are the more charming. Anyway, who are we to say?

CAME THE DAWN, and here the Tri Deltas are up again—still drinking coffee, too. Idanell Brill, the rested-and-luscious-looking blonde, seems to be telling fortunes in the coffee grounds of the lassie on her right. Probably insidiously telling her she's destined to wear the crescent and stars . . . . The boys have not been idle all this time either. At the Kappa Sigma house Rushees Fred Flato, athlete, and Will Perry, scholar, express justified distrust of our photographer's motives. Rush Captain Bill Deaderick (definitely one of the better boys) smiles confidently . . . . Notice the purposeful looks on the faces, handsome faces, too, of the Betas as Tommy Taylor edifies the group with a nifty from the periodical files and Bob Doherty and J. B. Griffith close in on their victim . . . . Before a spacious fireplace, Delta Gammas are genteelly amused at the dramatic expression assumed by the pretty little lady on the end . . . . Phi Delt, Friars, Joe Greenhill and Ben Powell, bend an appraising eye on a very intricate pool maneuver as Rushee Bill Kennedy watches speculatively . . . . The coffee in the Kappa Kappa Gamma picture at the bottom of the page has already been drunk. Auban Adele Tenison thought it was swell—imagine feeling as happy as that! It's only fair to tell you that most of the lovely girls in this picture are already key-carriers . . . .

SEPTEMBER 13 - SEPTEMBER 15

FLASH—back to the boys

—Rushee Steve Blount gets the benefit of flashing smiles from fine fellows Dub Yarborough and Al Martin over at the Chi Phi house. Dick Rolle and Doug Clemons seem to be getting the job done, too . . . . The Sigma Nus took some of their best prospects and retired to the cellar (Rock Room to you!) Prize Rushee Albert McDavid saw the light and took the vows. Congratulations! The kegs are used only for tables . . . . The Five Horsemen of Delta Tau Delta, Harry Reading, Jack Sims, Dub Singleton, Tom Law, and Joe Wilson, demonstrate their infallible technique. It functions not only with rushees! . . . . Although our photographer didn't get up in time for it, the girls drank coffee this morning, too. By afternoon they were all grouped nicely around like the comely lassies at the Alpha Xi Delta house. Under the fancy hat in the foreground is a cutie in an utterly charming pose . . . . At the ATO house we see assembled some more Good Joes and rushees. Among the Good Joes are Charlie Cappel and Lew Borden. Among the rushees are Barry Rudd and Amon Carter, Jr. The heat has driven all to their shirtsleeves . . . .

WELL, here we have Thursday morning—Sigma Nu Tommy Taylor and Rushee Forrest Allen seem to be enjoying themselves despite the fact that this is the third day of Rush Week for boys . . . . Herbie (Robert Benchley) Clarkson appears in a short one-picture skit entitled "How To Enjoy Rush Week" and shows us in a symbolic photo what all the boys would rather be doing . . . . At the Alpha Phi house the gals are tripping lightly and fantastically as the shades of night are falling. We'd like to cut in on these lassies . . . . A glance at the middle of the page reveals Mary Anna Morton and Anne Campbell and a bevy of other beautiful rushees turning their devastating smiles on the lucky cameraman. Such an assemblage of pulchritude! . . . . By the way, where was that coffee this morning? Oh well, never mind, who wants coffee when the Pi Phis have assembled their loveliest and fetchinest to turn their thousand-watt smiles on Lila Stone Buckaloo, the rushee that beautiful Jeanne Richey has a firm grip on . . . .

SEPTEMBER 13 - SEPTEMBER 15

A SEA of fine feminine faces expresses everything from perplexity to boredom as the girls gather in Hogg Memorial Auditorium to direct their destinies. Everybody seems at ease despite the tenseness of the situation . . . . Their decisions made, the girls rush happily, like the four smiling maidens at the top of the page, out into the warm night air and their new life at The University of Texas. A moment that comes but once in a lifetime is over. Tempus fugit . . . . Since the trying days of Rush Week are over, celebrations are in order. Off to a flying start are Billy Steele, Florence Thompson, John Floeter, and Frank Keith—a lovely lady and gentlemen . . . . Coming out of Hogg after signifying their choices, the boys don't look as carefree as the girls. Everything from sophistication to fatigue is shown here as the lads file slowly out . . . . At the Tower a tableful of happy faces testifies to the jollity of the occasion. Lovely Emily Marshall seems especially delighted . . . .

DID YOU EVER see a freshman orientating? Well, here you have them. At the top of the page, Dean V. I. Moore, beloved of all students, gives a brunette lad a few pointers on something or other . . . As the pre-school fun draws rapidly to a close, the shadow of education falls over everything. An inquisitive and comely miss calls at a campus booth for her registration card. Let's hope she doesn't have to get up at 8 A. M. and register. Horrors! . . . Banked around by imposing-looking files, Professor Paul J. Thompson advises an orientating student about her courses. Newcomers do better in their work when started out on the right foot . . . One of the first things the ambitious freshman must learn is the noble art of playing bridge in the Texas Union. This quartet seems engrossed in their game . . . Assembled in the Union for a freshman party, the boys turn obligingly to the camera while being exhorted over the sound system . . .

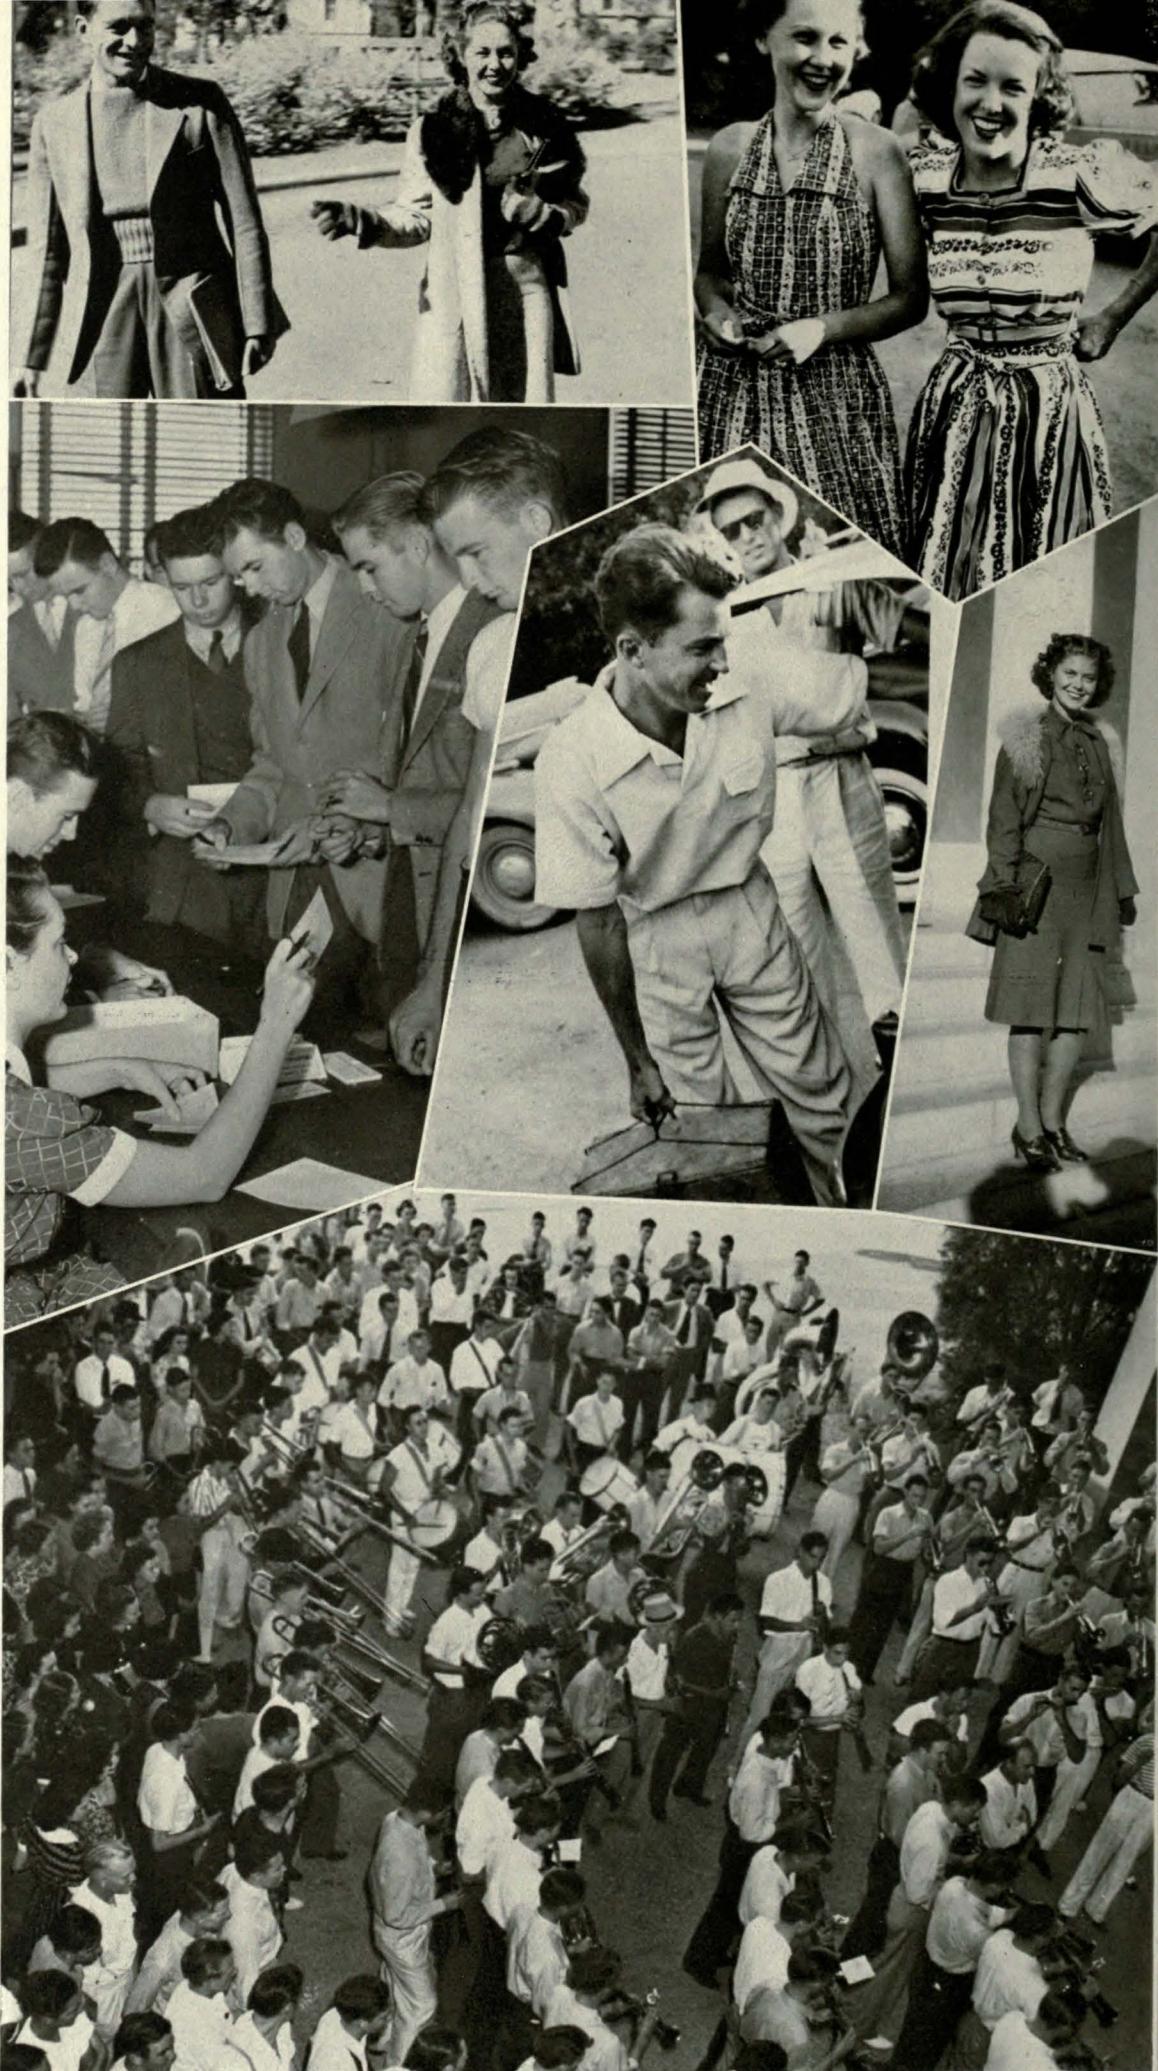

SEPTEMBER 16 - SEPTEMBER 20

LIKE CATTLE through a chute, registering students on registration day are whipped through Gregory Gymnasium and past a battery of sectionizers where they are directed into the correct sections for their courses. Here we see two perplexed ladies probably trying to figure out how they ever got put into those horrible 8 o'clock sections . . . Some day some one should erect a monument to the sectionizers who yearly smile pleasantly on student after student and do their part amiably and efficiently to make registration as painless as possible. Even on the hottest days and after reasoning long hours with baffled registerers, they seem to maintain an unruffled and sympathetic mien . . . Even over the mass of students in search of the elusive education, the great god, Mammon, watches with a careful and impersonal eye. Here at a long table we see countless checks scorching the woodwork. Payment of fees signifies the end of registration and seems almost welcome to the weary matriculator . . . As soon as he reserves his copy of The CACTUS he can go get a coke.

SEPTEMBER 16 - SEPTEMBER 20

NOW THAT REGISTRATION IS OVER, some students go to class like better-boy Harry Quin and beau-u-tiful Eloise DuBois (who seem to like the idea); others go on picnics like the smiling peasant girls, Jean Sanders and Mary Lewis Scott who obviously aren't doing a lick of work) and their gallant escorts, mess-boy Sam Cappel and Safari Jeff Copeland, the lucky dogs . . . What's this? We thought we were through with people registering. Well, these weary matriculators, reluctantly parting with their checks are late-comers. Let that be a lesson to you! From now on maybe you'll get here on time! . . . Coming happily from class as college gets under way (it's really the Texas Union) is Ann Painter—she of the fetching smile and lovely curls. Note the stack of books and the studious look . . . In the fall a young student's fancy turns eagerly to thoughts of football. The band, surrounded by a mob of cheering enthusiasts, blows lustily and expertly at the pre-Kansas pep rally . . .

SEPTEMBER 21 - SEPTEMBER 24

THEN COMES that night of nights—PLEDGE NIGHT! Apparently enjoying the Pledge Night German immensely are vivacious Alice Ann Nitschke and Clyde Logue, who sway gracefully to the swing strains of peppery Joe Reichman and his group of madmen . . . Ahhhh! All slicked out in shimmering satin are the Zeta Tau Alpha lovelies. Even Pledge Night German would be enjoyable with one of these pledges . . . Joe Belden and Helen Huff seem to have plenty of room—wonder of wonders at a P. N. German. Maybe the photographer has scared the dancers away . . . A flash back to the afternoon's game—partially filled stands at Kansas indicate that not many loyal Longhorn supporters had the requisite coin to follow their warriors . . . Pledge Night again—The night shall be filled with beautiful gals, as exemplified by the bevy of Pi Phi pledges standing like fauns in the spacious Pi Phi garden. To look at the happy faces in these pictures, one would never guess the drama, struggle, heartbreak, and joy that has passed in the last week . . .

CHEER LEADER PRESLEY

WERLEIN, taking charge of a riotous pep rally, exhorts the assembled multitudes to choose by their applause two girl yell leaders from a luscious group of prospects. Responding nobly, the throng chose two of the peppiest aspirants — Glenn Appling, the lovely on the left end, and Doris Billings, the lassie fourth from end . . . Then, down in the middle of the page, we see Coach Dana X. Bible, looking like Paul White-man, as he introduces to the assembled cheering students the individual members of the football team . . . When this huge and successful pre-L. S. U. rally was over, six of the happiest people there got together and smiled simultaneously into the camera — Clifford and Lansing Thorne, George E. Hurt, Presley Werlein, Doris Billings, and Glenn Appling . . . The two charming Kappas near the top of the page are Anne Baker, president, and Sarah Wilburn. The notebooks that each clutches firmly seem to indicate that they are going to class . . . Pauline Gill and Jane Arnold, using the same one-note-book-in-arm formation, set off purposefully to make some lucky professor's class enjoyable . . . On the Kappa front porch are the new pledges who are being royally entertained by their happy sistern . . .

SEPTEMBER 25 - OCTOBER 1

THE DAY AT LAST! Determined Longhorns are ready to pounce on a suitable helmet in preparation for the L. S. U. fray. Whatta day! The stands are playing, the band is packed—not a cloud in the sky. Wish you could all be here, folks . . . Watch out! There's that pass! Beefus Bryan draws back for a mighty heave which was completed before the camera could be snapped again . . . Tommy Cook, forgetting a very exciting play, turns into the sun and the camera at the same time . . . Let's hope beautiful Mary Lewis Scott put her hat on that way to keep the vicious sun out of her pretty eyes . . . Dorothy Ball looks sweet despite the terrible heat and glare . . . By this time the stands have retreated behind a battery of dark glasses, hats, newspapers, etc. Will Perry seems to have the idea . . . Fan mah brow and pass me a julip, Rastus! . . . Some sun-heckled lad, closely followed by The University of Texas, is vitally interested in that last minute play . . . At the bottom of the page, the Longhorn Band does some expert tooting to the pleasure of the assembled onlookers . . .

BRRRR! Here's Monday again. Funny how the days glide by. Monday or not, though, there's life on the old campus yet. A jolly group of cos and eds in penny-pitching line-up taunt the cameraman . . . Behind the scenes—Professor Lucien LaCoste pores over what looks like a portable beer-cooler but which really is a gravity meter. How's gravity today, Prof? . . . Maxine Dietzel, sending a record-breaking smile toward us, idles prettily somewhere or other. Arise, ye knaves, and help the lady select a killer-diller disc . . . Men and women may come and men and women may go, but you can't get a coke in the Fountain Room for nothing. Ye who enter these portals abandon all loose change. Let's hope you are lucky enough to have with you as cute a girl as this handsome lad has . . . What's this? Where are all the books, girls? Oh, so you have been studying in the Library and just dashed out for a bit of refreshment. Hurry up or you'll be late for that Chuck Wagon date . . . And so to class! Two worshippers at the altar of knowledge trudge, books in hand (as few as possible), to some rapidly-filling classroom . . . The mighty men of Kappa Sigma feel the call of the wild and murmur Mother Nature's Lullaby in the shell-like ears of the University's most beautiful girls . . .

OCTOBER 2 - OCTOBER 8

OFF to the famous and infamous Oklahoma-Texas football classic. Nice to have known you, boys. Have fun and remember the boys back home . . . On the train Bully Gilstrap looks contented and utterly at home . . . A very absorbing game of bridge or pinochle or something whiles away the trip for Dallas-bound sports' lovers and pleasure-seekers . . . Glenn Appling puts umph in a lusty Texas cheer. Don't you wish you could jump like that? You did a swell job, Glenn! . . . Grinding out a few hard-earned yards is some enterprising Oklahoma back. Judging from the resolute and earnest expression on the Texan in the foreground, however, you can bet the ball-carrier is about to bite the sod . . . Ho, ho! What's this? Behold yon white-capped, thirst-quenching, heavenly brew. Seize yo'self a flagon, whisk in a little salt, and quaff off a liter or so . . . Now that the starter is down and out of the way, let's get on to the real fun. Here's a little whoopee being raised somewhere or other. Note the glazed, pleasure-seeking look on the face behind the horn. Looks like a helluva good party . . . Jack Busby embodies the spirit of the O. U. week-end in a hi-de-ho pose. If you weren't there, Jack, old fellow, you should have been . . . Truck on down! . . .

DRIFT ON, DREAM ON!

The week-end is over, but the malady lingers on. Wheels, Austin-bound, whirl busily under you, but you care not. Bacchus rides with you; Morpheus has slugged you. Drift on, dream on—sleep in the new week! . . . Well, boys and girls, school again! Monday is always with us. Scintillating Doris McReynolds, a lovely addition to anybody's class, glides toward the Main Building with Nashe Phillips . . . Charles Taylor leaves the campus with a gracious smile . . . On top of the Home Economics Building, Jeannette Dickson sits coyly giving her notes that last minute lookover . . . John Crabb and Shirley Kerr walking into the shadows. Looks like you charmed John into carrying your books, Shirley, or did you have any? . . . Pledging eternal friendship or something in front of the Main Building are the Marys Hearne and Armstrong . . . Merle Callaway, Rosemary Scott, and Stancie Whitner, a trio of cuties, exchange pleasantries before resigning themselves to class . . . Intramural athlete G. D. Hinson looks over the situation and seems pleased . . . Staley Hawkins rips up the H<sub>2</sub>O at Lake Austin in a rented speedboat. How about a ride, pal? . . . Cowboy Dick Kleberg appears pleasantly occupied with canoeing . . .

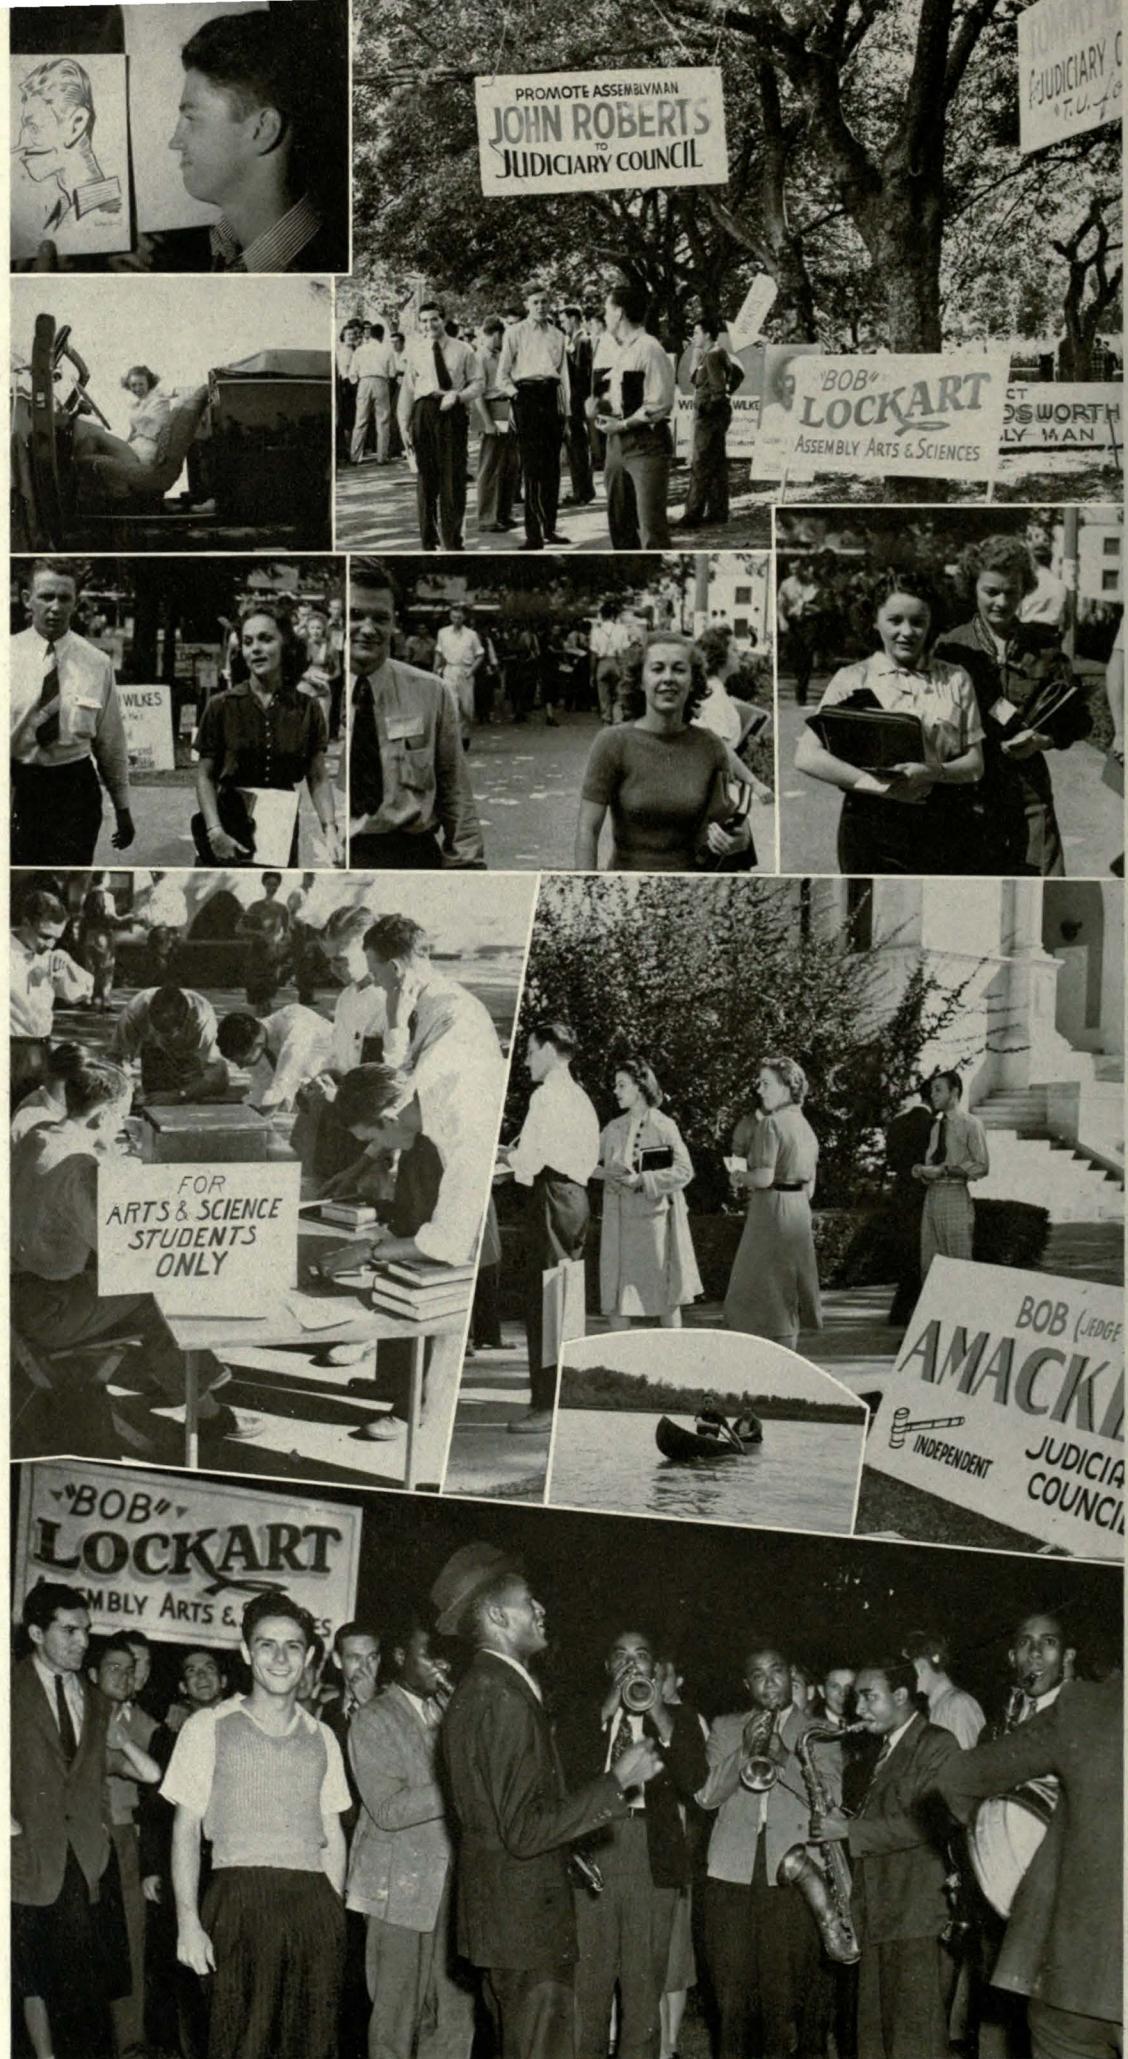

OCTOBER 9 - OCTOBER 15

AT THE Journalism

Jamboree Adolph Kiefer, with the Beechnut smile, proposes to Jane Elledge while her fiance, Bill Newkirk referees. Bill's grin seems to indicate that everything is according to Marquis of Queensbury rules . . . Out of the darkness into the light—Bob Lockart and John Hicks seem to be glad they are coming from where they are coming from and going where they are going . . . Clinging tenaciously to that last delicious morsel, Margie Medley glides gracefully out of some building or other . . . Ahha! Looks like a called meeting of the Lotus Eaters' Club. Don't disturb yourselves, folks! . . . An exciting moment at the Arkansas game. Somebody from Arkansas has the ball and various Texas players are in hot pursuit of him. The weather is still awful . . . And here's a chummy night scene. A charming foursome out for a lot of fun! Is everybody happy? . . . Jane Stroud smiles hospitably—beautiful girl, beautiful dress, good party—what more could one want . . . A good picture of a couple of good people. Helen Rathbone (what beautiful brown eyes you have!) and Earl White and their shadows . . . Idanell Brill, Sweetheart of the University, is all wrapped up in her work. Let Dub Singleton imagine himself in the shiny shoes of I. E. Clark . . .

WALTER "BOY" HASSKARL views skeptically an artful caricature of himself . . . The open door policy, eh? Let's leap behind the wheel and drive madly off with fetching (and we do mean fetching) Jane Bickler . . . Election day at last! Students gang noisily around the ballot boxes to exercise their franchise. Notice all the enticing billboards . . . Luscious Mary Nell Sharp and John Armstrong are fatigued and perplexed respectively upon coming from a tough exam. How could a mean old professor give you anything but a great big A, darling? . . . Unperturbed by election day excitement, Mary Nell Gilmore (another charming Mary Nell) and Freddie Chambers idle toward class . . . Jerry Owens and Cissie Wheat, as indicated by the stack of books, are off to several classes . . . Voting, voting, voting — everywhere people voting! Here Arts and Science students are signifying their choices . . . Students innocently entering the campus are pounced upon immediately by persuasive and charming canvassers . . . What's this? Bobby Lockart again. Luck to you! The dusky gents with the instruments are giving out a hot number on a successful serenade. Get in the groove, boys! . . . Inset: And here is the law of gravity being rudely defied. Andy Carter, the genial gentleman in the stern of the canoe is being held up by his own imagination . . .

OCTOBER 16 - OCTOBER 22

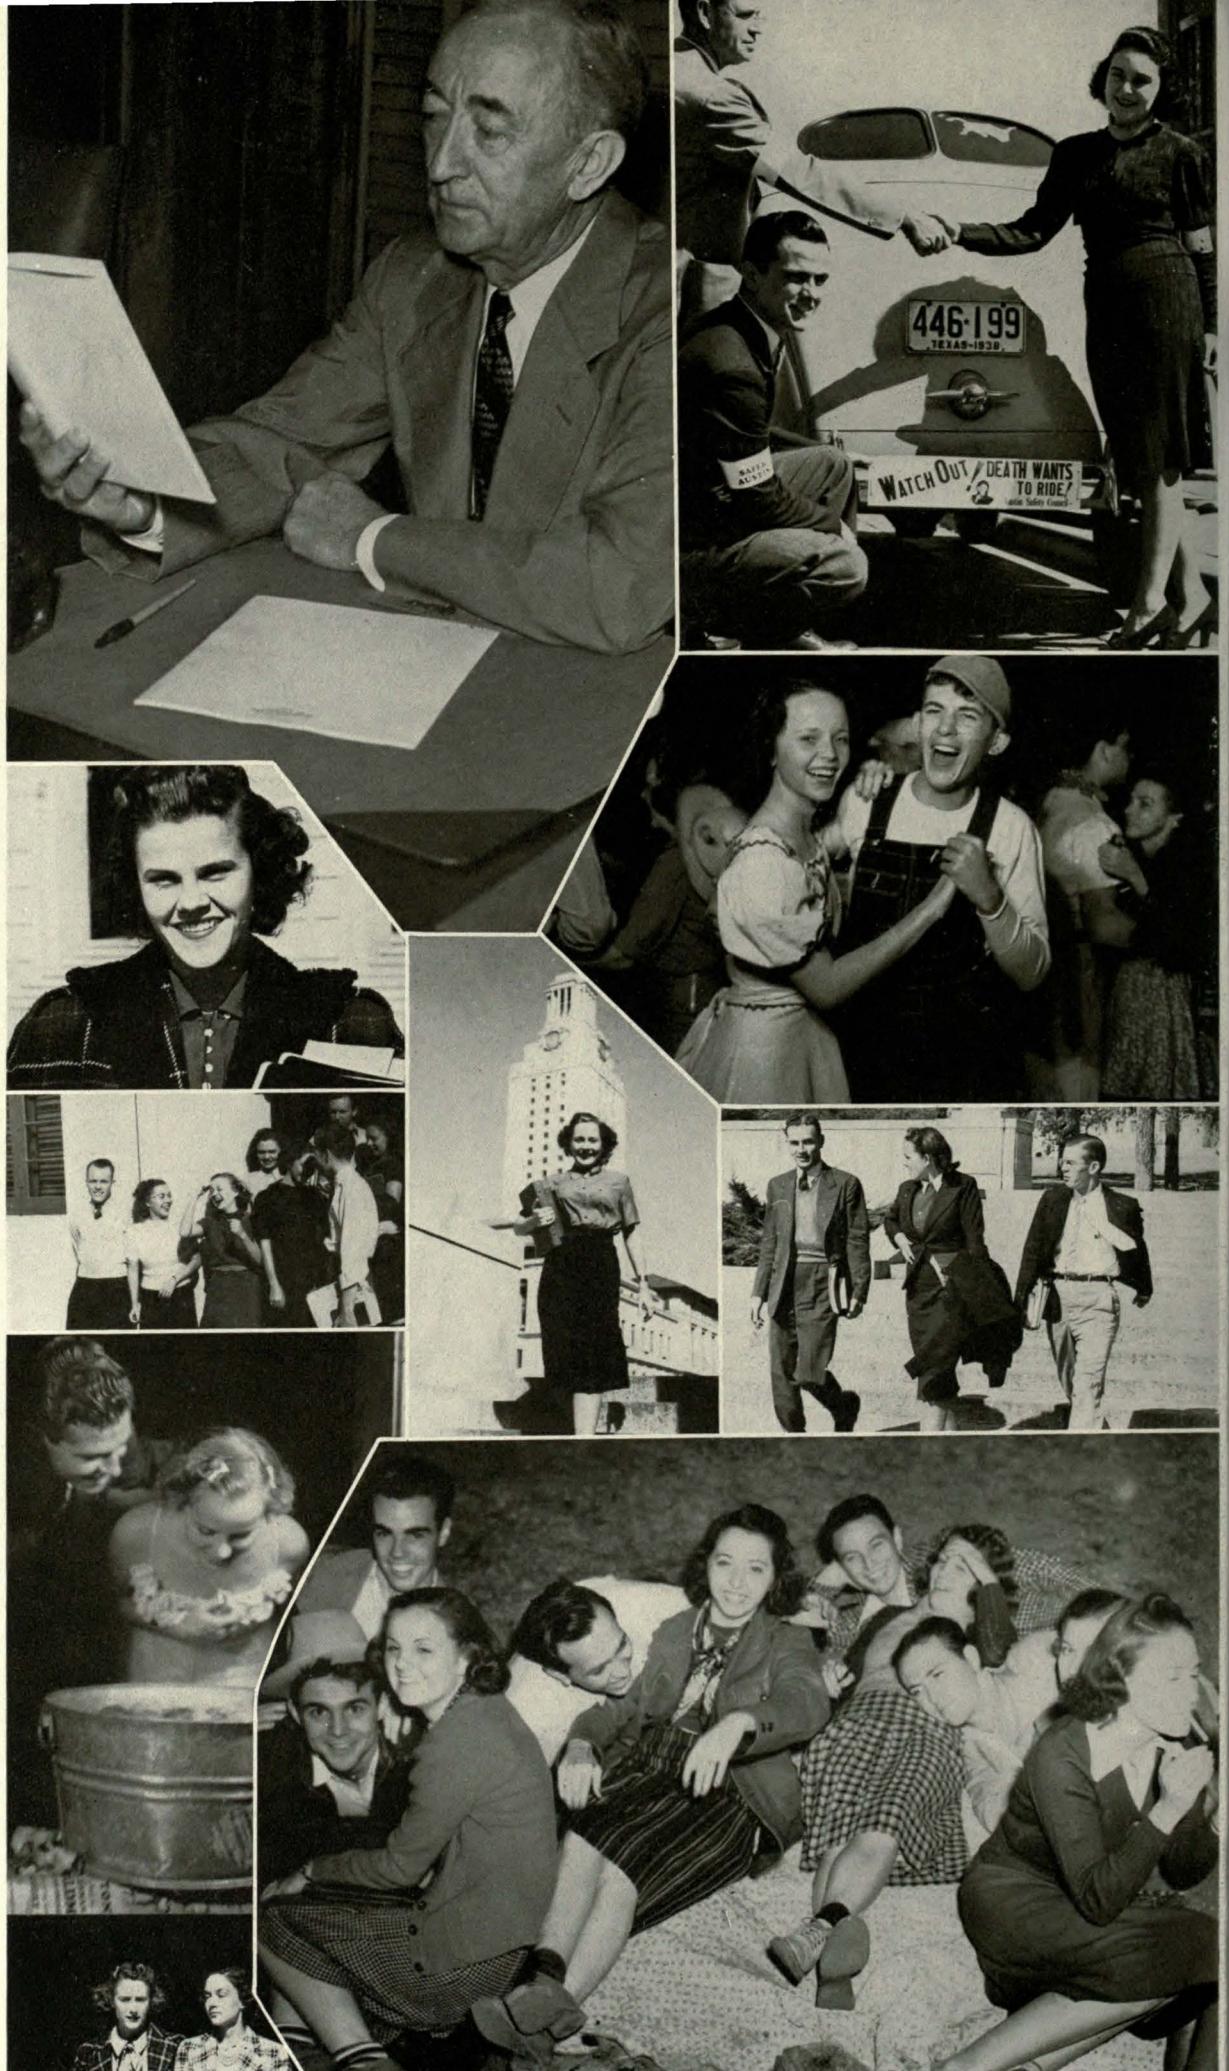

ALL THE BOYS AND GALS that couldn't make it down to Houston for the Rice game stayed at home and had much fun, too. Here they are congregated in the Texas Union treading a measure to the sweet swing of Clyde Mitchell's orchestra. Grab yourself a partner and let's go! . . . Well, well, the bell must have rung. Here are some eager students surging out of the Union and rushing to lectures, labs, etc. ad infinitum. Discernible in a snappy fur creation is Jetty DeLong . . . In the checked coat and cute smile is Marion Schneider . . . Dub Singleton, legal volumes firmly in hand, has undoubtedly been extending his knowledge of the law over a coke in the Chuck Wagon. Don't be late to class, judge! . . . A vision of quiet loveliness, Jeanette Russell charms us with a smile as delicate as the flower in her hair . . . High Worthy Nutt, Cissie Wheat, gives us a worthy smile and shows how a representative Nutt puts life in the party . . . Ready for the night's frolic and fun are Dorothy Turner and Adele Richards, two beautiful lassies. Between them we see that suave and gracious couple, Margaret Leachman and Barry Rudd . . . And here's an exclusive action shot of the Rice game that many students journeyed many miles to witness . . . The pulchritude behind the sweet smiles belongs, of course, to Clissy Smith and Kay Kleberg, who, with huge armfuls of thick tomes, are classward bound.

PRESIDENT ad interim

J. W. Calhoun, starts the week off right by celebrating his sixty-seventh birthday. Many happy returns of the day, Mr. Calhoun . . . The safety campaign gets off to a flying start as Loraine Fraser has the first sign put on her car. The lucky man shaking Lorry's hand is Police Chief Thorp. Pleased over the whole thing is Pat O'Daniel . . . At the Phi Delt party there's a lot of fine farm fun being had by all. A co-ed, in bucolic garb, is having the time of her life . . . Well, well, here's school again. Class is always with us. The pretty smile belongs to Christine Stone . . . In the hilarious Chuck Wagon crowd you, of course, recognize the pleasing countenances of Mary Nell Gilmore, Cissie Ligon, Mary Brownlee, Dorothy Schneider, Eloise DuBois (we see youoo) and Joe Wilson . . . Tripping vivaciously down the steps toward that Thursday class is bright-eyed, smiling Auban Adele Tenison . . . That happy and attractive trio seem to be hurrying to get to an 8 o'clock on time . . . In celebration of Hallowe'en a couple, at least, of rollicking parties were thrown. At the ATO function a lot of good-natured apple-bobbing is going on. An unbiased observer might even go so far as to say that the pretty little lady is about to get ducked . . . Thursday night finds the Fort Worth Club on a picnic. Looks like fun. Keeping a watchful eye on the proceedings is gambler-coated Bert Phillips, prexy.

SATURDAY NIGHT is always a time for fun and frolic. The enjoyment of the students on this particular Saturday is photographically expressed by the various shots of the German and other parties. At the joyous Kappa Alpha function the camera catches Arabella Wofford with a wistful looking gentleman, who, upon closer inspection, we find to be none other than Betterboy Suttles, Harvey to you . . . At the same party, Pauline Gill is trying to look tough, but Reagan Cartwright and Bill Clements don't seem to mind a bit. Come on, Pauline, we know you are only kidding . . . Then skipping down to the bottom of the page, we catch Mary Casey smiling sweetly as Dick Lucas does a snappy rendition of the "Sugar Blues" on a horn . . . Reading last week's funnies just to get up to date are Elizabeth Sharp, Mary Jane Potter, Jeff Copeland, and Cornelia Merriman. Moral: Be sure to keep plenty of funny papers on hand, boys . . . Despite the 'orrible 'eat sports-loving spectators at the Smoo game are very much interested in what is going on. Note dark glasses, sunshades, and towels around heads . . . Apparently amused about the whole situation is Merrill Winsett, one of the many disguised behind smoked cheaters . . . All in all, everybody seems to be having a fine time. One sees happy faces everywhere. Helen Rathbone and Evelyn Wilie are smiling very prettily and happily. Perhaps every one is pleased over the prospect of tearing up cards after using them in a number of deft card tricks.

CAMERA! LIGHTS! ACTION!

Before your wonderstruck eyes is unreeled a tense moment from the Curtain Club's exciting November production, "Idiot's Delight." Consensus of opinion is that this was a most interesting and exciting drama . . . Down in the middle of the page we have Bob Doherty in a typical pose. Red is giving her that old Doherty telephone technique that always succeeds . . . Here's that long awaited shot! Don't tell a soul. Two earnest U.T. students are caught studying—Franklin Jones and Carliss Morris . . . The hand and paddle are almost quicker than the eye. Tommy Taylor performs a difficult shot on the ping pong court and takes it all out on his tongue . . . Here you have a very inside photo of Glenn Appling putting the finishing touches on that dazzling blonde beauty of hers. The Zetas might find her close to the University's heart . . . The happily smiling O'Daniel boys surround Dorothy Schneider as they wend their way classward. What was the story about the O'Daniels and two SAE's at a picture show? . . . And here's a Bastrop house party group. Everybody seems to be waiting for Harvey Weil to finish that funny paper . . . Mary Denman holds a group of admirers spellbound . . . Jack Phillips, Charles Schmidt, and Park Tunnell, classes over, homeward wend their weary way.

NOVEMBER 1 - NOVEMBER 5

A BEAUTIFUL CELEBRITY comes to town to lecture in Hogg Memorial Auditorium. Elissa Landi is greeted at the train by Pat Moreland, Mildred Clopton, Hazel O'Quinn, and Clifford Snowden . . . Gordon George registers annoyance at being disturbed at his morning ablutions . . . Betty Trammell, with one of the most genuine and charming smiles you ever saw, stands proudly in the midst of some lovely Kappa pledges . . . Bet this is the first time you ever saw so many beautiful girls in one group. If you have your pencil and paper handy, take down these names: Elizabeth Baugh, Mary Hurlbut, Jane Blumberg, Katherine Schlafli, and Jane Stroud . . . For an afternoon's sport, how about a good exciting intramural contest? Dekes, fraternity softball champions, are playing the Independent champions in the University finals . . . And more intramurals—when the Kappa Sigs played the Deltas in touch football, they were cheered on by these competent and inspired cheerers . . . Eloise DuBois seems to have the situation well in hand . . . Watching the Longhorns and the Bears tear at each other horn and claw is a goodly crowd. Dark glasses and sun-protectors are still much in evidence. Will winter never come? . . . The crowd sits transfixed as a racing Bear snatches a pass out of the thin air over the Texas goal line. Bubba Karkowski, abbot of Friars, is registering delight at a snappy Longhorn play . . .

AND HERE we have something in the nature of Art and Beauty. From the picture it is obvious that the time is 3:33 and that Sue Joe Roberts is a pretty girl . . . Hike, signals 1,2,3—the Phi Gam touch football team lines up for a swift play . . . "Jocund day stands tiptoe on the rosy hilltops," and Hal Woodward stands tiptoe before his trusty shaving mirror . . . The bell rings and three lovelies rush out of the Union and beat the sidewalks to class . . . Wait a minute, Connie Gossett, go straight home and get your books. Maybe with that smile, though, you won't need any . . . Why the serious expressions, fellow students? What if the quiz was a little harder than you anticipated? . . . Wait up for us, girls! The owners of these beautiful smiles are Jean Tulloss, Carolyn Barwise, Doraine Geiger, and Margie Ann Lyle . . . On November 11, students were treated to an excellent production of "Bury the Dead." Filing out of Hogg Auditorium after the show are a mob of appreciative students . . . Guess what! This is somebody standing on something or other and looking at something or other around Marshall Ford Dam or something . . . Dean Ira Hildebrand of the Law School reflects in his expression the sorrow of all law students upon hearing of his resignation after thirty-one years of service on the law faculty, fourteen of which were spent as Dean. Dean Hildebrand's resignation becomes effective August 31, 1939 . . .

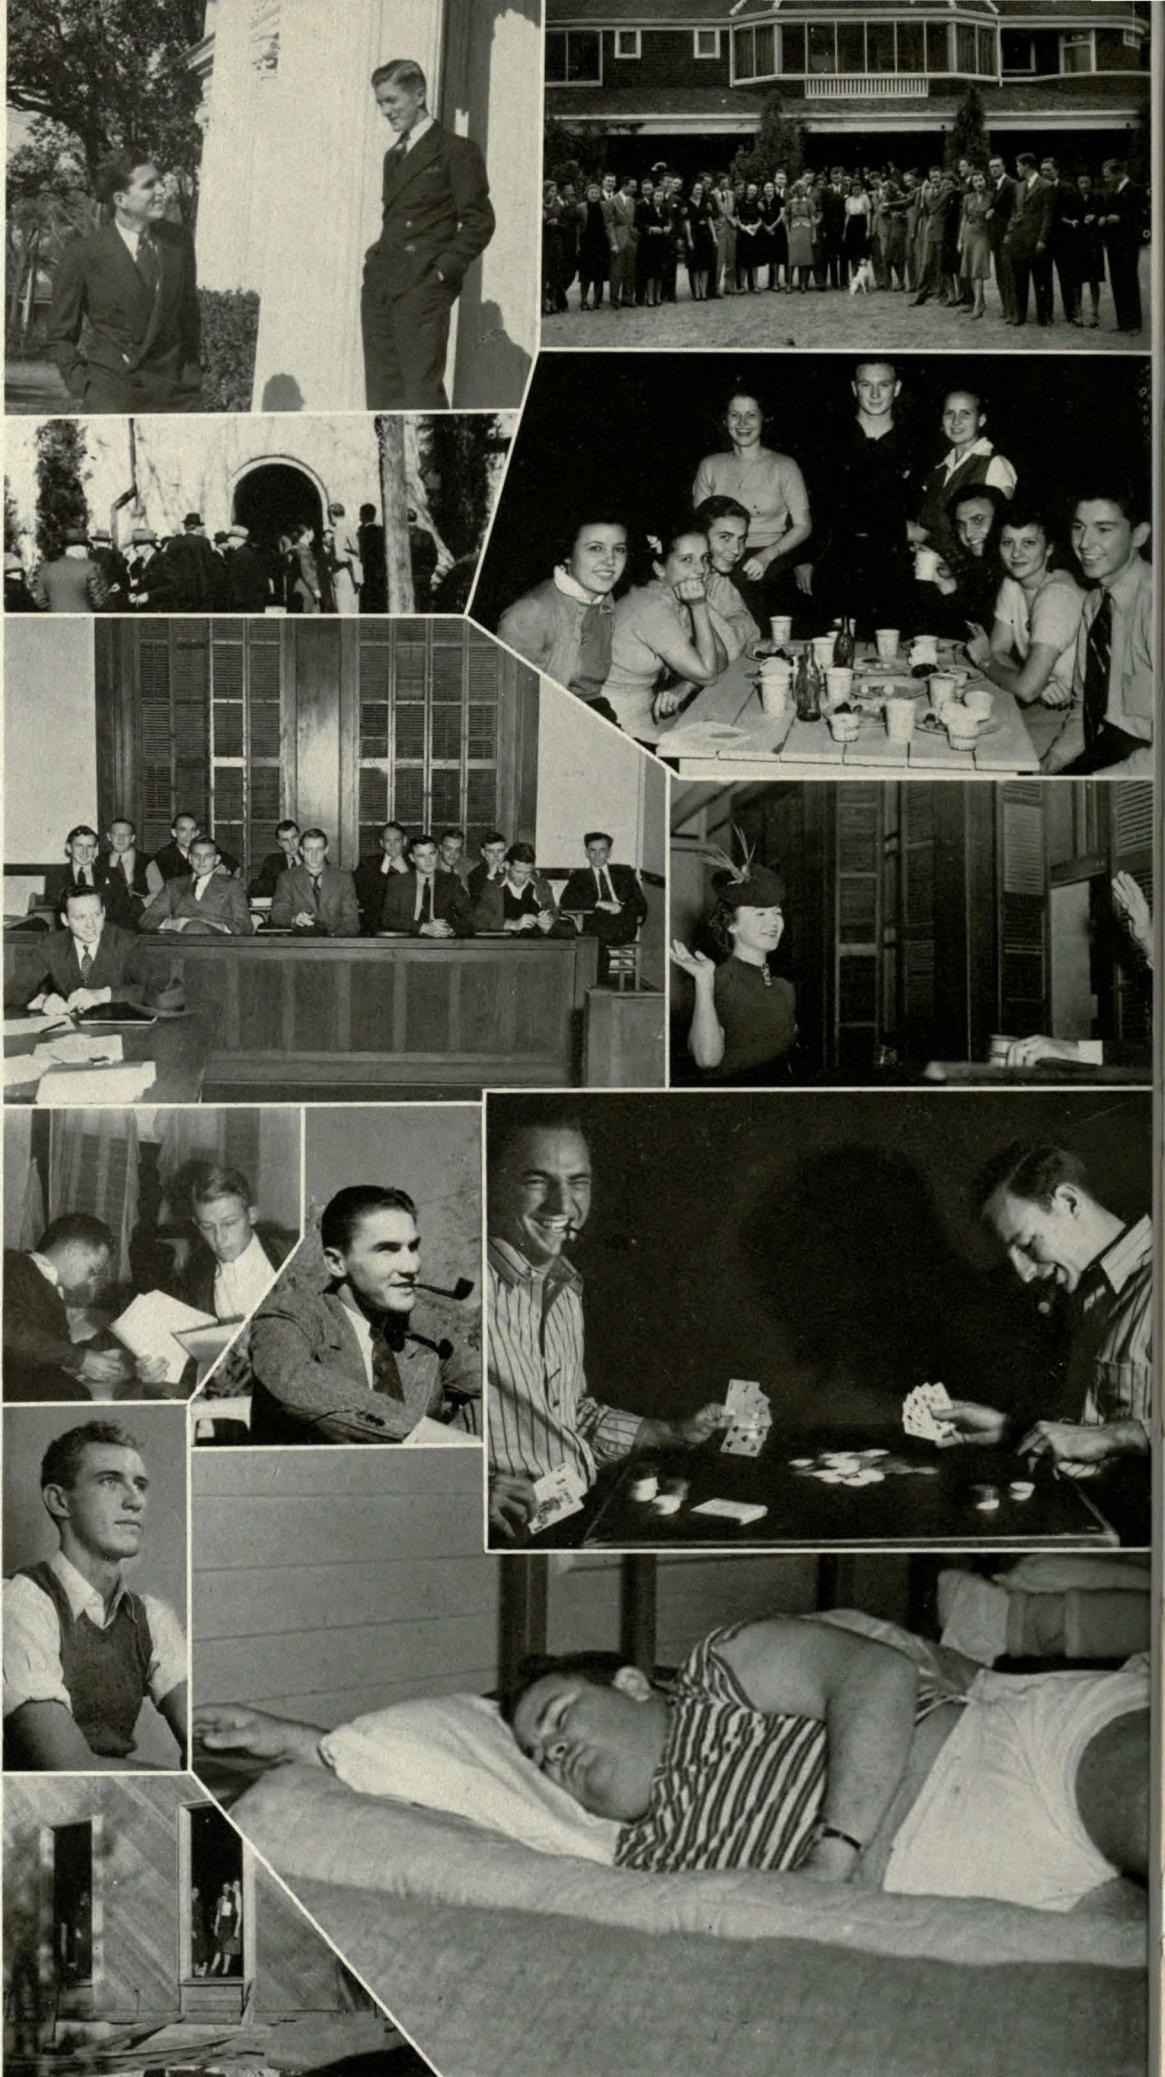

NOVEMBER 6 - NOVEMBER 12

No MATTER what one does college always starts again the next day (with some obvious exceptions, such as Sunday, holidays, etc.) Happy and cheerful as they swish to lecture are Betty Ruth Curtis, Minnie K. Holmes, and La Verne Bryson . . . Jules Constantin cocks a suspicious eye at the cameraman as Jimmy Craig and Bill Farrar devote themselves earnestly to the important business of destroying the evening victuals . . . With a determined do-or-die look this earnest student strides grimly from class . . . Margaret Murray, beautifully gowned in a sleek creation, is torn between two ardent swains . . . Now for some football photos—A husky Longhorn goes into the air to snare a pass that netted Texas six points. Nice work! . . . After looking at this picture of a line plunge in the T.C.U. game, maybe you'll get some idea of the exertion, brawn, and muscle that goes into each play . . . At the German, Roy Pennycuick enjoys dancing with a gracious and lovely partner . . . Saturday night finds Bill Tidemann concentrating on an involved billiard shot . . . Laden with all sorts of profound-looking texts, Margaret Staniforth, smiling demurely, is off to make some class hour brighter and happier . . . And here are those joy-and-spirit spreading cheer leaders. This time they're riding high down the streets of Fort Worth . . . Melvin Martindale entertains an appreciative audience with a novel hat-and-jig dance . . .

NOVEMBER 6 - NOVEMBER 12

AH! Ye Dayye of Reste,
Peace, and Quiette, and Pietye!
Before Sunday dinner Dred Wood and Bob Martin exchange pleasantries on the Phi Gam front stoop . . . The Chi Phi lads have assembled a classy group to break bread with them this Sabbath.
Practically all your friends and sweethearts are in this picture . . .
Students on Sunday make their way to various Austin churches
according to their denominations or interests . . . Cool zephyrs caress the velvety cheeks of Sunday night-under-the-stars-east-of-the-sun-west-of-Barton's-Springs diners . . .
Twelve good men and true await with appropriate sobriety the trying of the case of State
v. Nichols in Hildebrand District Court . . . Jeanne Richey is duly sworn in as a witness in the same case . . . Applying themselves assiduously to the arduous task of accumulating knowledge (studying) are Bill Rutledge and Hal
Woodward . . . Pleased with life and contented for the nonce, Jack Benda surveys the contemporary scene . . . A daring expose of the clandestine crookery that goes on even when one is gambling with oneself. This moral monster artfully cheats himself when he isn't looking . . . Bill Farrar looks bravely into the future and reflects great depth of character and nobility of spirit . . . A venturesome band of Kappas explore their new mansion-in-the-making . . . Over the radio comes the eerie, terrifying news-flash of the Martian invasion. Here's Andy
Carter beside himself with excitement.

NOVEMBER 13 - NOVEMBER 19

HEIGH HO! HEIGH HO!

It's off to play we go. The Wesley Foundation roars off for a gala picnic . . . Between classes charming Sue Spivey dashes off either some homework or some notes to her thousands of admirers . . . Beautifying Littlefield front steps are three cheery smiles belonging to Martha Ann Kessler, Rebecca Abney and Jacqueline Hood. Good afternoon, ladies! . . . One, two, button your shoe; three, four, don't get sore; five, six, pick up sticks; seven, eight, partner's late; nine, ten, cuss him again. Sheffy Mahan runs through his nursery rhymes while tying his golf shoe . . . Roy Bronson and Buddy Schoellkopf rest momentarily on the intramural greensward before plunging fiercely into the thick of some touch football game . . . Chees, guy, get a load of dis jane! Yair! And just lamp dat tough she's wit. Chees! Virginia Moore and Charles DeLancey guzzle something in beer mugs at the Chi Phi Bowery party . . . Cupie Jones and Ramsey Moore are enjoying the drollery of Everett Shirley at the Deke function . . . Dorothy Ball reflects the fun to be had at an ATO party as she smiles prettily and heartily . . . At the Engineers' dance a couple dance soulfully to the blue strains of African music . . . To the smooth rhythms of Frankie Trumbauer, Sam Lee and Mary Louise Williamson swing and sway . . . Also swinging and talking and laughing and having a swell time are Jimmy Watson and Mary Jo McAngus . . . Sonny Potter casts a supervising and artistic eye on Val Jean Aldred's art work. At the Deke formal one must look one's best, which in this particular case is simply stunning . . . Lending distinction to the rooters at a lively touch football game are cheerers Margaret Bachtel and Jack Linthicum . . .

HERE we have the gala A. & M. rally in front of the Main Building on Tuesday . . . Yea, Longhorns! . . . Like the spirit of every student the bonfire roars and crackles in the night. With every spit and flame it croaks, "Beat A. & M., Beat A. & M." . . . Jack Rhodes, captain for the A. & M. game, gives assurance at the final rally that the Longhorns will win . . . The student body, resolute and determined, has gathered in Gregory Gymnasium for its pre-game show of spirit. Cheering and yelling, students urge the Longhorns on to victory . . . The old tradition that Texas has never been defeated in Memorial Stadium must not fall . . . Come on, Longhorns! The A. & M. twelfth man roars in on the train. The farmers came in like lions and went out on the lam . . . Everywhere the University has sprung to life as the day of the game approaches, and its pulse beats with the monotonous refrain, "Beat A. & M., Beat A. & M." . . . And so it came to pass . . . Turning to other aspects of University life, we see the Dekes working up an enormous appetite for Sunday dinner by dashing circularly on the front lawn . . . Leaving the Alpha Phi house for church are Chuck Clark, Doris Carrothers, Ruth Stuart, and E. T. Summers . . . Now that church is over, the sun is shining, the birds are twittering, and Helen Patton and Cecelia Jane Metzger stroll slowly home . . .

NOVEMBER 20 - NOVEMBER 26

HERE are some more Aggies arriving by train. Confidently they expect an A. & M. victory. Pax vobiscum . . . Down the street the Aggies parade. Bands are blaring, flags are flying, and every minute the historic struggle draws higher . . . Into the valley of defeat marched the six hundred or seven hundred or some number . . . The game is at hand at last! Into the air goes the fatal coin, spinning, spinning. Faces are tense with excitement as the silver comes whirling down . . . Up in the stands a battery of dark glasses obscures a battery of smiling faces. The Longhorns are ploughing steadily toward the Aggie goal . . . More interested and ardent watchers. Hello, there, Mary Priscilla Goodrich and Olive Thomas! The lovely lady in the smoked cheaters is meditating seriously over the strategy of that last play. What's the verdict? . . . A tense moment on the field—the Longhorns take to the air in their march to the Aggie goal . . . And here's a close-up action shot of a Longhorn power play. Inspired by the united spirit of the University students, the Longhorn team plays the best game of its career. For a hard-fought, clean-cut, well-played game on Thanksgiving Day, the Longhorn team and Coach Dana X. Bible deservedly won the applause and acclaim of everyone . . . After the game comes the Thanksgiving Ball celebrating the victory. To the solid swing of Anson Weeks couples glide rhythmically over the floor of Gregory Gymnasium . . .

AND so it came to pass that the holidays came. And all the students did go somewhere, and they did take off in their dream ship, as in the picture at the bottom of the page. And it also came to pass that the holidays came to pass . . . Returning to the Forty Acres becomes a pleasure, however, if one can witness such things as the lively deck tennis game that Jane Brainard and Eloise DuBois are playing at the top of the page . . . In front of the sorority house, Buzz Weill, Tootsie Jacobs, Sonia Goldstein, and Golda Wertheimer are evidently having much fun . . . In the cool grey dawn, Ruth Kokernot hurries off to class . . . There's nothing like a good sturdy piano to hide under. When the gals begin throwing things, Jean Chilton takes to cover under the old clavichord. It must be horrible, though, to dodge under some furniture and find a candid camera fiend lying in wait for you . . . Got any lawns you want raked? Here are probably some of the most charming lawn-rakers you ever saw. Marjorie Bowen and Boots Riedel say "Leave it to us!" . . . Monday morning always comes and that old cold shower is all that stands between the Bacchus-beat stude and OBLIVION. Morpheus reluctantly releases his lethal hold on a nude . . . The Ballet Caravan danced to a large and appreciative audience in Gregory Gymnasium on December 2. Especially appreciated was the Filling Station Ballet . . . There are approximately 384 teeth, barring accidents and abnormalities, in this picture just waiting to sink in the evening viuctuals. The owners of these lovely incisors are the comely residents of S. R. D. Nothing like a good solid meal after a day of cutting class . . . And here we have some more S. R. Dieties. This little gathering of pulchritude might pretty accurately be diagnosed as a bull session . . .

HERE we have a Saturday night University broadcast in Hogg Memorial Auditorium. Two talented performers are caught by the camera as they whip off a few witticisms before the mike . . . Just below are more radio artists amusedly reading their scripts. Perhaps the villain is just now stalking in. Heh, heh, heh! . . . The lovely back belongs to a little lady at the Alpha Xi Delta dance who is either (1) playing hide-and-seek (2) mad and petulant (3) blowing her nose (4) crying or (5) bashful . . . At the German Saturday night we find many couples treading a measure while lights are low. Some are whispering sweet nothings, some converse spiritedly, and some dance for the joy of dancing . . . Resting after a swift round of tennis, Mary Jane Potter looks glamorous and displays a very attractive set of limbs. Let's hope her sets of tennis are as good . . . Tripping lightly down the steps are Mary Paul, Mary Lou Hunter, and Betty Lundberg. Looks like they are running out to greet the postman . . . A burst of activity on the KA front porch shows Dick Lucas and R. B. Baldwin reading notices from the Dean's office, Gus Wright telling them how to get out of the whole mess, and Bob Vaughan counting his change . . . Shelley Blount sits dreamily and happily waiting for some one or some thing. Wish that smile of welcome was for us . . .

AN ACTION SHOT of a touch football game shows various people running in various directions for various reasons. Somebody is going to throw a pass to somebody in a minute . . . Jimmy Newman gives us an infectious victory smile after a Sigma Nu intramural victory . . . Herbie Clarkson seems to be trying to get a new angle on things. His charming companion, as every one can see is Cissie Ligon . . . Paus-ing on the sidelines of the same football contest, Emily Marshall turns her pretty blue eyes on the camera . . . Coming out of the Commons at the top of the page are Jean Scales and Itasca Stewart . . . Before the performance of "The Fortune Teller" by the University Light Opera Company, one of the participants carefully adjusts his make-up. Just a touch of sideburn here and there and lo! we have a gypsy . . . And now we see a lovely lady putting on the camouflage. With the performance about to start, an actress puts on the finishing touches . . . The finale! Grouped colorfully on the stage is the entire cast at the conclusion of a very entertaining and amusing production of "The Fortune Teller" . . . Bonnie Ruth Taylor, capable actress and songstress is snapped in a coy pose after the show. Congratulations on a fine performance, Bonnie Ruth . . . Two pictures and five charming girls—as you no doubt recognized, they are Dorothy Lehrer, Ann Ward, Sylvia Riner, Janet Daniels, and Sally Duncan. They all seem very happy . . . Well, well, what have we here? Could this be Staley behind the broad and wholesome smile? Begad and begorra, it is! . . .

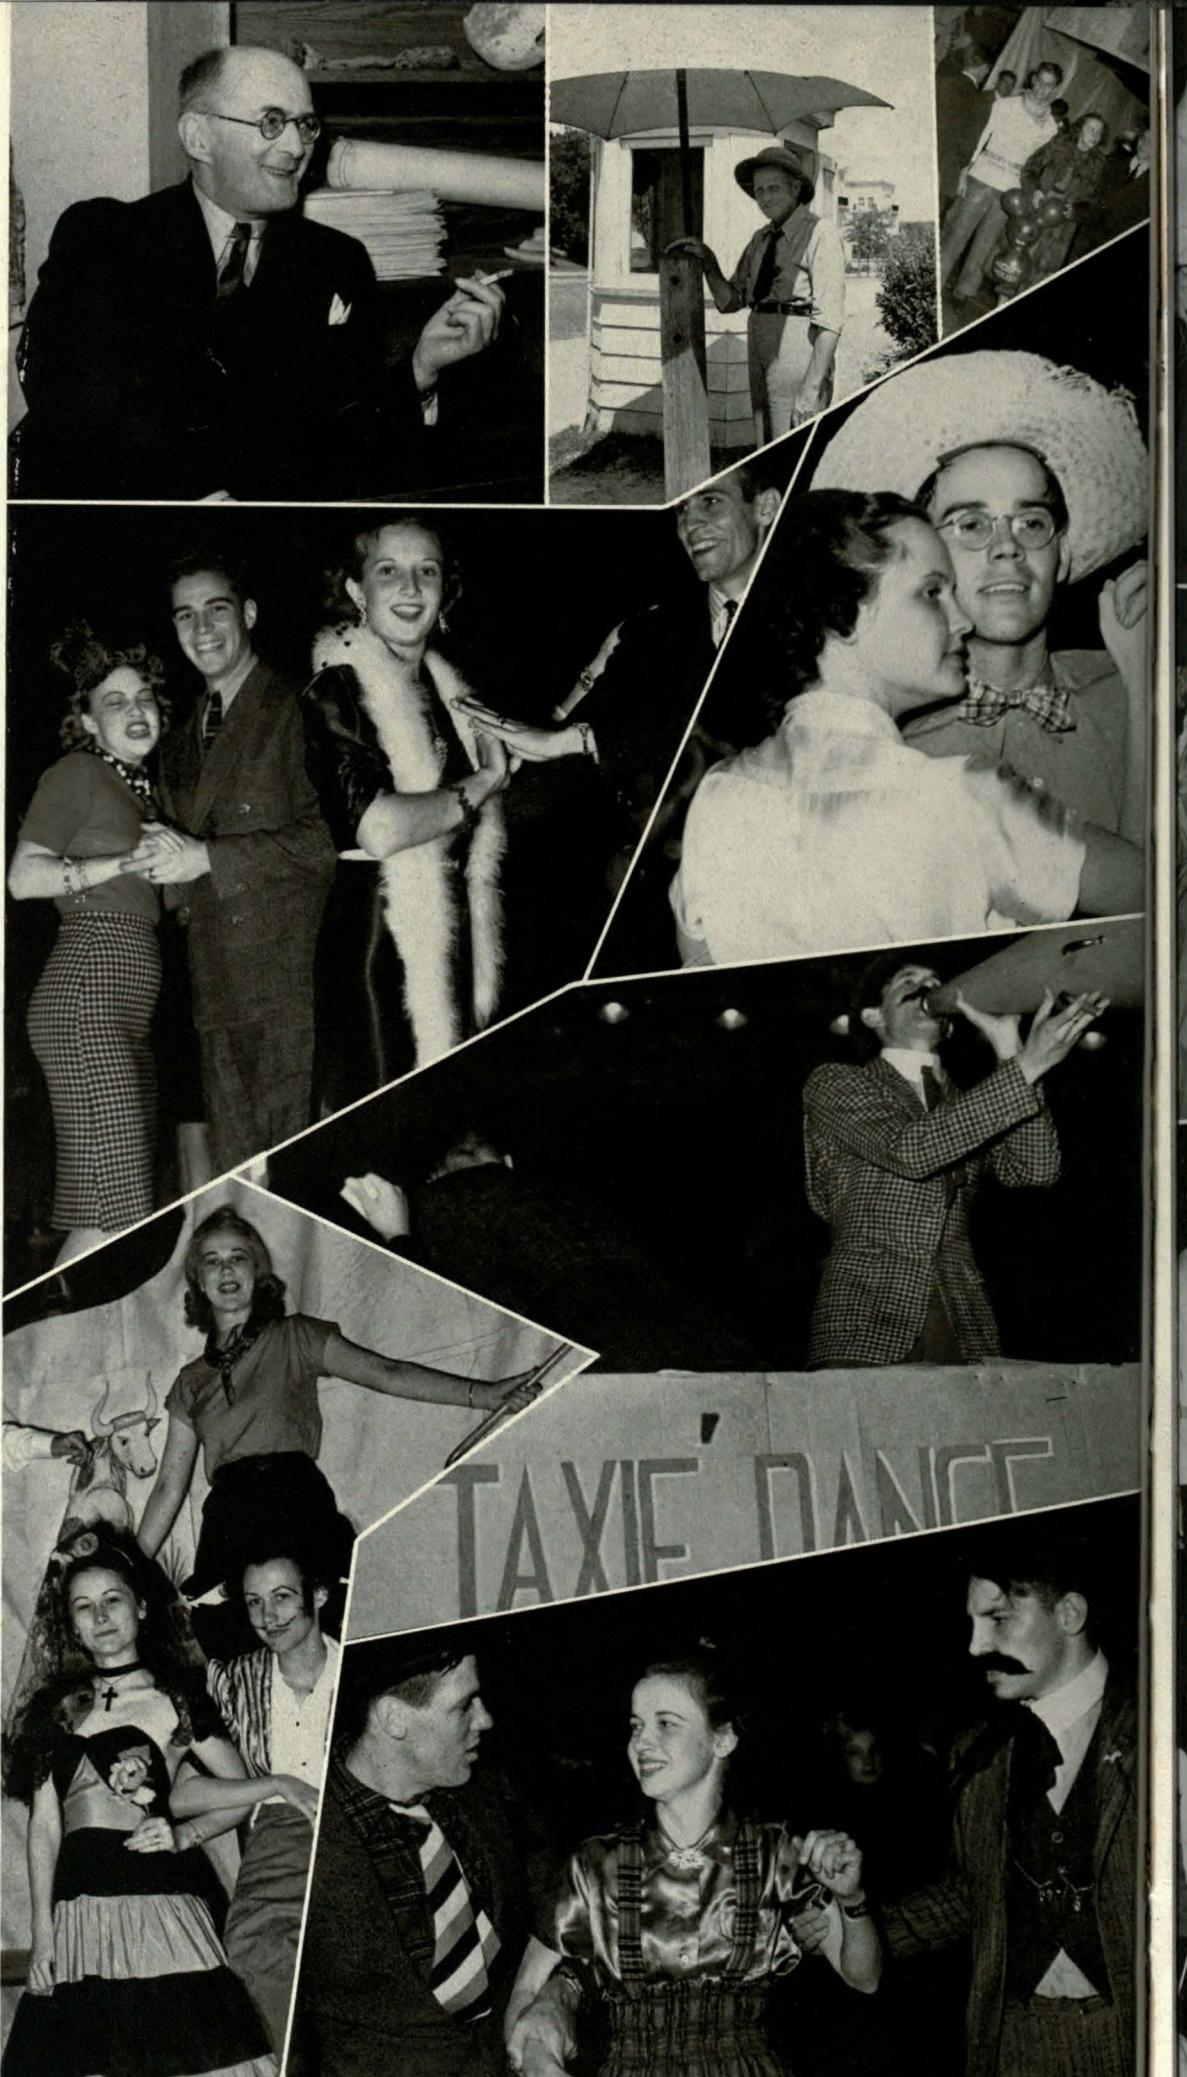

DECEMBER 4 - DECEMBER 10

How's THIS for excitement? A glance at the odd angle on the railroad car to the right should prove to you that something's screwy some place . . . As a matter of fact, as the previous photo shows, a rather nasty train wreck occurred on December 8 about fifteen miles out of Austin. Fortunately, most of the damage was to the cars only . . . To the scene of the catastrophe sped a number of adventure-seeking students. The quintet gathered on the barren flats is composed of George Graham, Joyce Zapp, Frank Howard, Buck Herndon, and Carter McGregor . . . Came the week-end. Hooray! Direct now your appreciative gaze, dear reader, to the lovely porcelain figure of Katherine Odell in the shiny black and her serious-looking escort. These two made the A. D. Pi dance a very enjoyable place to be . . . Next we see a gay scene at the Women's Dormitories Formal. The little lady with the beautiful flower in her hair seems to be having one whale of a good time . . . Flash! Back to the A. D. Pi dance—To this business of having his handsome countenance snapped Johnny Shepherd seems to say: "Confidentially, it's awful!" Take your eye off the birdie, Johnny, and concentrate on those two beautiful girls with you . . . An All-University German livens the Saturday night of the dance-lovers in the next picture . . . At the Kappa Tea Dance great fun was had by all. Anne Baker, president, turns on that sweet and inimitable smile as she and Jimmy Smyth sway to the rhythm of George Hamilton and his Music Box Music . . . To prove that he knows a pretty girl when he sees one, Walter Mathis cuts in on Eva Keller, charming and nimble-footed pledge from San Antonio . . . At the Alpha Phi Tea Dance, a gala function, Betty Johnson smiles happily as she and her partner pause momentarily to greet the cameraman . . .

A DISTINGUISHED VISITOR on the campus was Dr. Bronislaw Malinowski, noted anthropologist. As the camera clicks, he enjoys a cigarette and a chat . . . Ye who want to enter here abandon all hope—such is the motto of B. B. Neans, veteran gatekeeper for the University campus, as he artfully and efficiently segregates the sheep from the goats among would-be enterers . . . Come one! Come all! The Varsity Carnival is now under way. The taxi-dance, naturally one of the biggest attractions, boasts such beauties as Glenn Appling . . . Ah yes! And Connie Delavan, who seems to have her heart in her work. Breathes there a man with soul so dead who says this ain't worth at least a dime? . . . Luring the lucky dancers to the scene of the fun is this loud-coated barker, complete with cigar and megaphone, not to mention a wooly mustache . . . This is no bull, folks—Alpha Chi Omega dramatized successfully and riotously the sad, sad story of "Ferdinand." Three of the cast relax after a hard session of histrionics . . . And here's a tense little scene entitled "Two Gents in Two Doibies and a Loidy." Isn't she cute and aren't they mean and meaningful-looking? Tsk! . . . In the uppermost corner of the page carnival-goers Boy Hasskarl, Kathryn Owens, and Pat Daniels pause for a snapshot. Hi, folks!

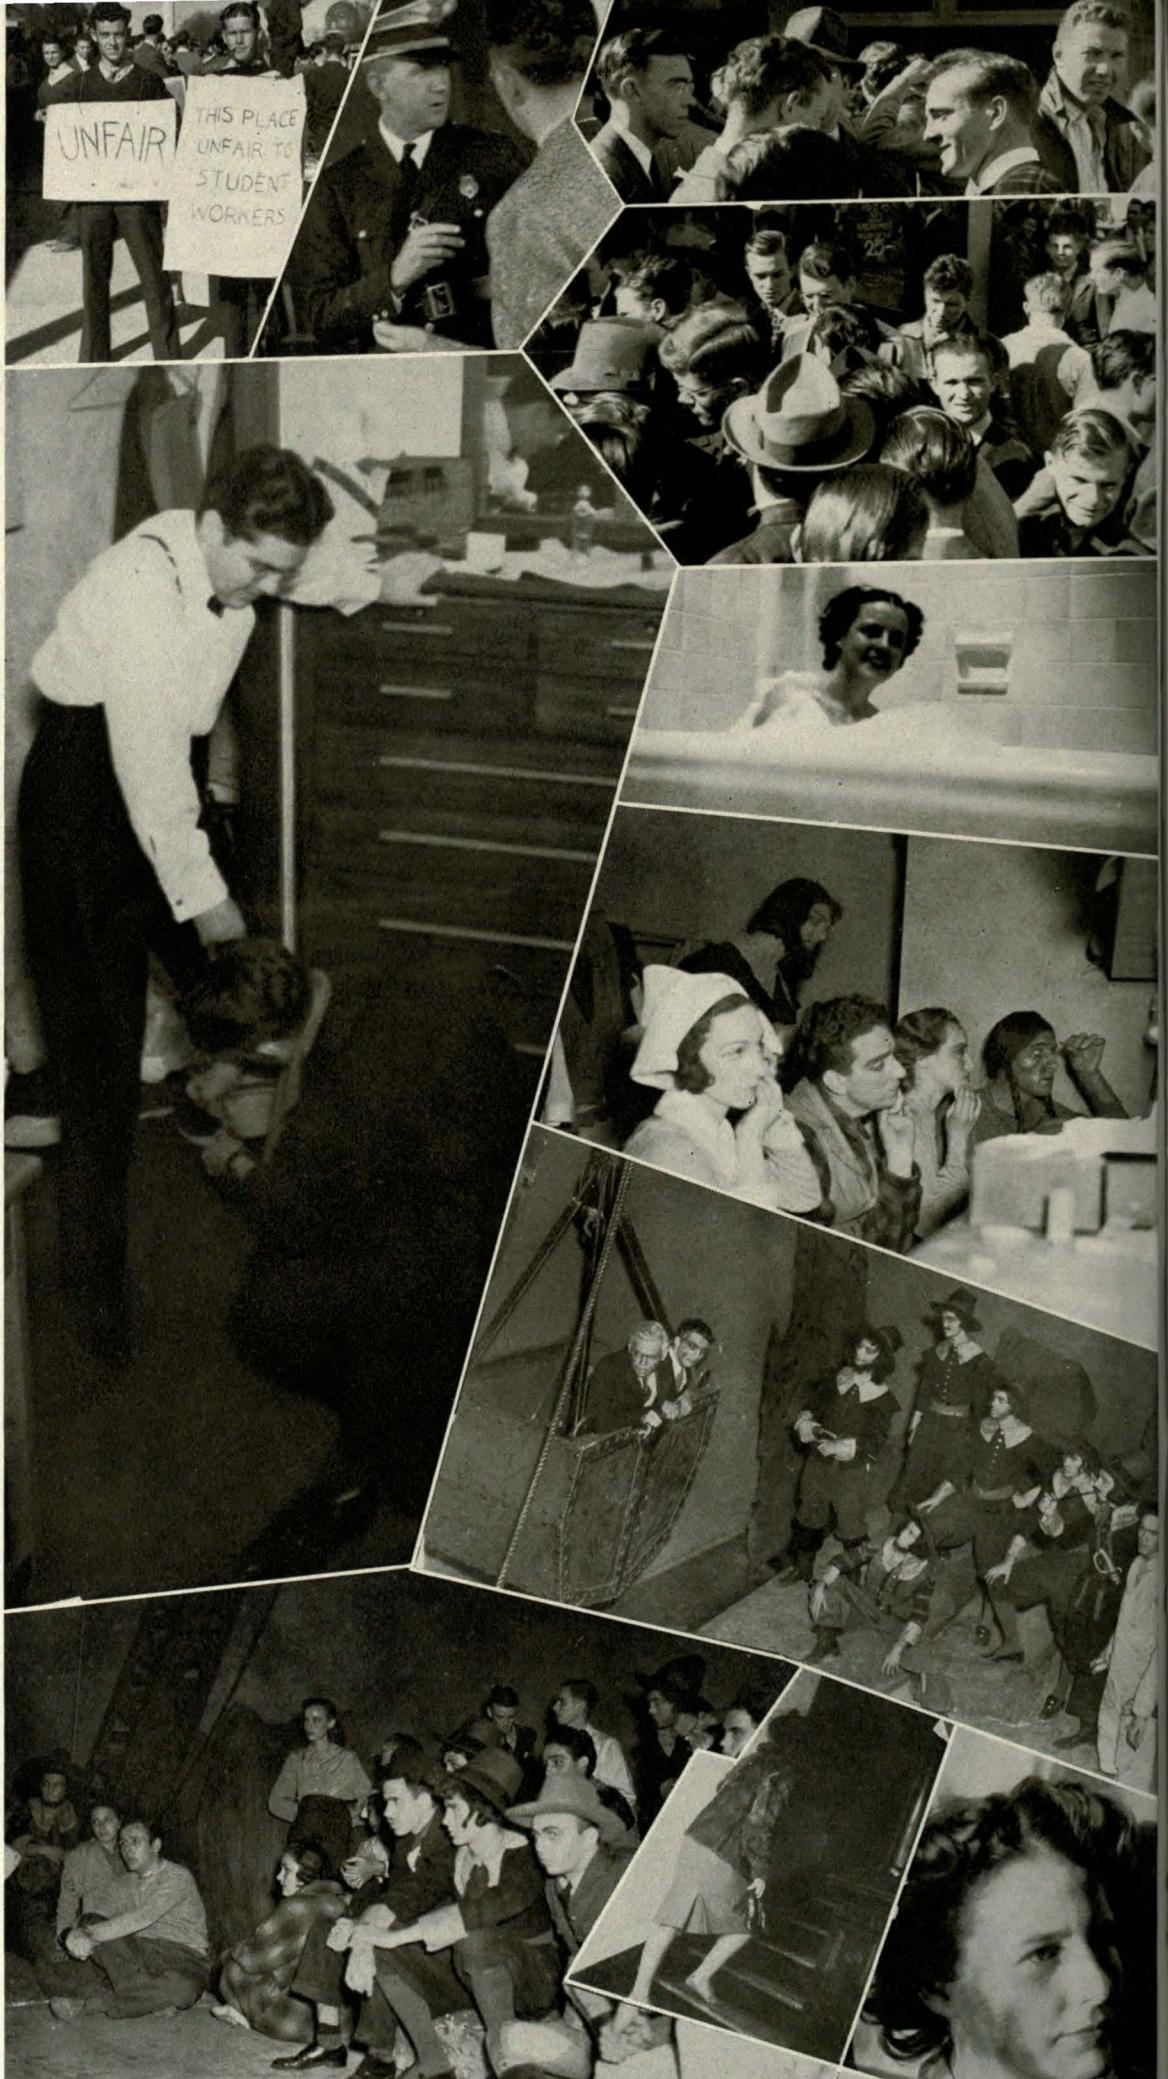

DECEMBER 11 - DECEMBER 13

THE ABLEST ACTORS and scenario writers of Kappa Sigma combined their talents to produce an hilarious presentation of "Ferdinand the Bull." For just this once Ferdinand, played by Walter Woodul, looks tough, while the proud matador stands proudly by . . . Behind the wire are three Zeta Tau Alpha lovelies who, whenever the target in front of them was struck by an accurately hurled baseball, fell over in the hay as shown in the middle of the page. This is a good game in any man's language, and, as might be expected, was very popular throughout the evening . . . Do you believe in signs? Take a look at the few displayed here advertising a humorous and lucrative sideshow. Step right up, ladies and gentlemen! . . . In the choruses of some of the shows were such devastating cuties as the two with the gent in the checkered shirt. What a thrill! No wonder tickets sold like hotcakes . . . Station G.I.N., illegally operated by Delta Tau Delta and Chi Phi, broadcast all the latest radio entertainment. Oh yea! . . . Wanna buy a duck? Beefus Bryan and Catherine Ewing, proudly display the one they won at the Deke ring toss . . . Harpo Marx, late of Hollywood, etc., was seen in the Pi Kappa Alpha satire . . . Madame Tell-u-Ski, an inscrutable and enigmatic look on her face, poses outside the Phi Mu booth . . . Bob Park, Eva Keller, and Henry Taliaferro are all enjoying each other's company—with good reason, too . . . For the very entertaining floor show, Bonnie Ruth Taylor sang well and beautifully . . .

WHAT'S THIS? Dissension in the ranks! Striking waiters in front of an eating establishment display their typical signs... There was quite a little furore until the law, represented by the nice-looking fellow in the fancy cap, came on the scene. Then there was more furore. Since all these entertaining goings-on were on the Drag, many students were fortunate enough to witness them... Then with a slight sliding sound, as the crowd held its breath, Pat Daniels, the roving reporter and editor of "The Daily Texan," arrived. As luck would have it, he was just in time to scoop Pat Daniels, editor of The Daily Texan, a rival sheet. Ta, da, da, da, da... The crowd displays amusement at the whole spectacle and is glad to have some valid excuse not to study... Jesse Milam, with a little expert aid, shows how a gentleman slips easily into his evening attire. What do you say we make a night of it, eh, Jesse?... You aren't even safe from candid camera fiends in the bawth these days, girls. This lovely, ebon-haired, sudsy creature is Emalynn Smith... To entertain the Forty Acres royally the Curtain Club produced High Tor. An able cast is seen in the dressing room putting the finishing touches on the make-up... A tense moment—two of the characters go for a ride in a steam shovel. The serious and attentive looks on the faces of the rest of the cast testifies to the gravity of the occasion... Sneak, sneak, sneak—So! You thought you could get away with coming in at this hour, eh!! Jo Anne Pittenger demonstrates the correct technique for that late and dramatic entrance... Scottie Beasley looks bravely into the future as the shadows slide playfully over her cheek...

THE WEEK-END comes again and along with it some very enjoyable parties. Having fun at the Pi Phi Tea Dance are Ned Sweeney, Emily Marshall, Baby Sister Hayter, and Ben White. The pleasure reflected by these happy countenances testifies to the success of the dance . . . Nancy Filgo, Freddie Roe, Jodie Trigg, and Billy Steel, good people all, pause to smile for the camera at the Phi Gam open house, another very fine function . . . Caught in a tete-a-tete at the Pi Phi dance are Betty Blankenbeckler, beautiful lady, and Howard Williams, member of Cowboys and a Goodfellow from last year. Howard seems to be his usual entertaining self . . . Mary Nancy McElhannon seems to be getting the benefit of a multitude of sweet nothings from her ardent swain, as she sways to the strains of Don Bestor and his Orchestra at the Pi Phi party . . . Jeanne Richey, lovely as the flowers on her shoulder, turns the old personality on for us at the Chi Phi Formal. The handsome young man on whom she has such a firm grip is Beau Goddard . . . Just below is a happy-looking trio at the same function. Ruth Collins, the pretty little lady with the flower in her hair, has a flashing smile . . . By cracky, hyar's two shots of the hilarious Prather Hall Barn Dance. Colorful costumes and gaiety reigned supreme on this joyous occasion . . .

17 DECEMBER 14 - DECEMBER 17

JINGLE BELLS, jingle bells, Christmas is in the air! With Christmas comes a round of Christmas parties as students get in shape for the holidays. At the Tri Delt Christmas Party we see, among others in an animated and interesting conversation, Barbara Kelly, Virginia Moore, Sally Lipscomb, Charles DeLancey, and John McCully . . . The five nominees in the University Ugly Man contest all get together for a camera-breaker. They are George Mandoki, Dub Singleton, Tom Wetherly, Davy Crockett, and Sam Butler. Deke's Sam Butler, nephew of Smedley Butler, is the lucky King Ug . . . A gala crowd assembled for the Charity Ball, a very fine affair as the couple in the foreground can tell you . . . A lucky newsreel cameraman visited the campus and got a huge ovation. If it is beautiful girls he is looking for, he has certainly found them. Just a good example of the good old U.T. pulchritude . . . Opening a Christmas package Jackie Rayburn discovers something that evokes enthusiastic laughter . . . Santa Claus Carter at the KA party smiles benignly . . . Leaning on the rail and expressing facially their enjoyment of the party are a host of beautiful and handsome guests . . . Other revellers are busy choosing a tasty morsel from the bountiful buffet. Select for us a heaping platter of goodies, Beautiful One . . . Heigh ho! Heigh ho! It's off to home we go. Put in a couple of gallons of gas, twenty-five suitcases, and a couple of pretty girls, and away we go. Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year . . .

DECEMBER 18 - DECEMBER 22

NOW THAT EVERY ONE is back from a fine Christmas frolic, we can all settle down to the old routine again. One of the pleasanter parts of the old routine is eating, a hallowed old Anglo-Saxon pastime. A joyous group around the SRDinner table smiles in anticipation of the impending edibles . . . Another dearly loved part of the old routine is sitting, a sport that has been popular since the days of Beowulf and is becoming more popular every day. Three different postures, together with the correct disinterested facial expressions are demonstrated by the lads on the Kappa Sig couch . . . The gentleman on the right swings a mean Intramural protest . . . A new pastime gaining rapidly in favor but which will never displace eating and sitting is Chinese Checkers which J. C. McKinney, Eugenia Lee, Ruth Gribble, Janice Owen, Hazel Scott, Frances Heard, and Lois Douglas will be glad to show you how to play . . . At Halsted House Carol Hollister, Tella Price, and Nancy Cooper go about their domestic duties with alacrity . . . A little routine that is popular at certain periods of the year is study, as shown by Al Tatum and Rod Russ . . . Some of the daily activity in a Co-op house is demonstrated by Dwight Norris and William Hoot. More power to you! . . . Frank Smith and Sears McGee in a couple of conventional study positions . . . He who labs last may get to use some of his predecessors experience. Jo Jones and partner are hard at work . . . Dick Thornton, Charles DeLancey, Doris Dickinson, and Bub Yeager in another popular sport—conversation or shooting the bull . . . A trio of outdoor lovers get in some last minute study before that quiz . . . In Hogg Memorial Auditorium on January 6, music lovers were privileged to hear Jascha Heifitz, master of the violin. In this photographic study, Mr. Heifitz expresses the soul and feeling that characterizes his playing . . .

IN HOGG MEMORIAL

Auditorium on the nights of January 10, 11, and 12, Theta Sigma Phi, national honorary and professional journalism fraternity for women, presented "Time Staggers On," representative of the best entertainment on the campus. This year's presentation was the third annual one. The charming assemblage in the first picture is from the Light Opera "Viennese Nights" number . . . Exhibiting a remarkable co-ordination of mind and muscle, the Bronze Act poises symmetrically . . . Chile Lipscomb and Bobby McKinley put on a comedy tumbling act that was a riot . . . Kicking up their heels are the lovely members of the chorus of the "Blue Serenade" number . . . The Co-ed Trio cluster around the lucky microphone to render a snappy song to the great enjoyment of the audience. The combination of beauty and music is irresistible . . . Yoo hoo! O, boys! Clad in the spinach are the dainty lads of the football team as they appeared in the Hawaiian number . . . Again the beauties of the "Blue Serenade," this time in a still life pose . . . Gene Hemmle and Bonnie Ruth Taylor smile appreciatively at the enthusiastic round of applause that followed their number . . . Just a babe in arms—Chile Lipscomb and Bobby McKinley again . . . A member of the cast gets the finishing touches of her make-up applied with an expert touch . . . Two beautiful girls and a big tough football player from Hades. With two lovely lassies like these beside him, old demonpuss should feel much, much happier than he looks . . .

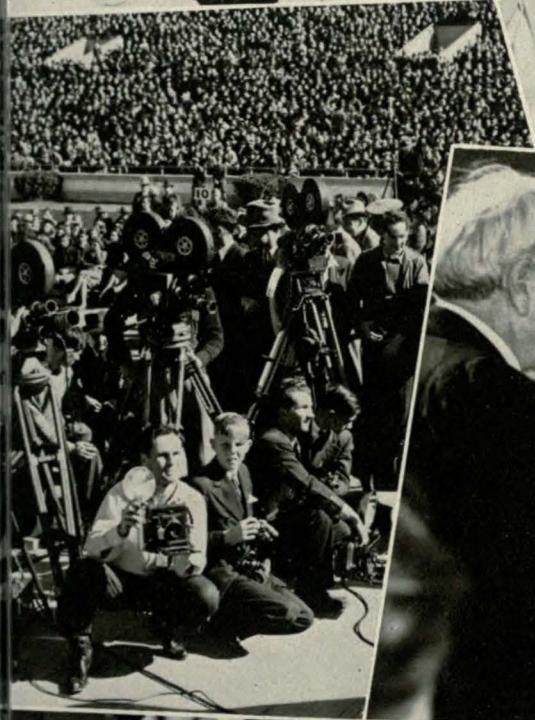

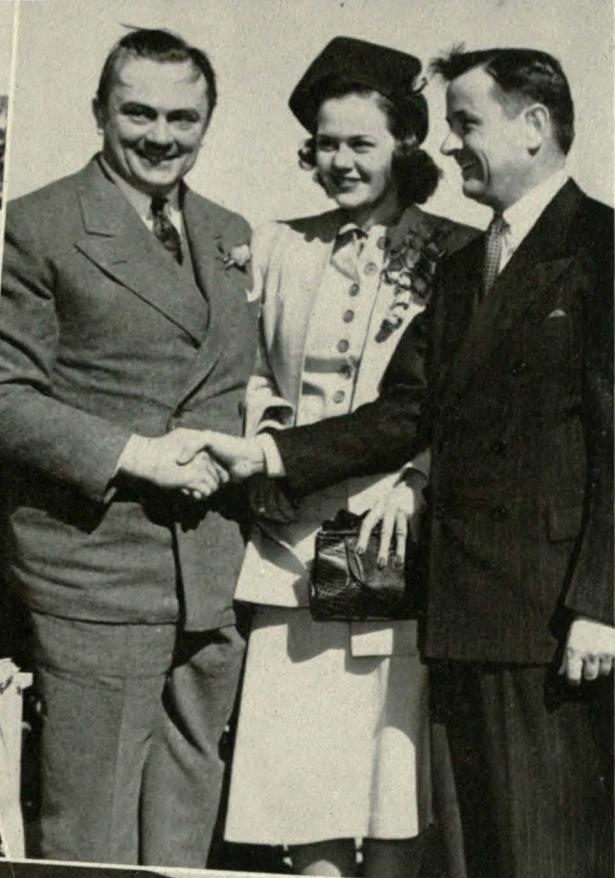

JANUARY 8 - JANUARY 14

AND NOW, ladies and gentlemen, we have something never before attempted in stage, screen, or yearbook—a daring exposé of the way the University student lives during the days preceding Exams. This page alone is worth the price of the whole book (No remarks, please.) . . . Picture A, in this analysis, shows The Breakfast-Studier, one of a small group who likes to do his studying while he eats. This is all very well if one just eats often enough . . . Picture B is of a very rare species—The Corridor-Crammer. Members of this group seem to think better on their feet with their backs to the wall. Whether there is anything symbolic or atavistic in this nobody knows. This species is rapidly becoming extinct, as its members are constantly being trampled in a corridor stampede . . . Picture C shows the conventional Desk-Drudge, a group to which three-fourths of all students belong. The particular member in this photo is in research formation, a maneuver which invariably results in the progression of the book you want to the bottom of the stack . . . Picture D shows students trying to write down what they thought they just learned . . . Picture E shows a couple more Breakfast-Studiers, a group that has already been commented on . . . Picture F is of the interesting Lounge-Learner, positions A and B. One starts out in position A, shown on the right, and gradually progresses to position B and comfortable oblivion. Members of this group are probably the healthiest on the campus . . . Picture G shows the Fountain-Room Philosopher, a group that is becoming more prevalent every day. By studying in this manner one can work in a maximum of side comments about spring styles, the boy friend, etc. Recommended for between class studying . . . Picture H illustrates a method of studying that makes the most of everything the University has to offer. Students learn the value of co-operation and mutual helpfulness . . . Then we have more people trying to prove that they should remain at dear old U.T. . . . The Arkansas basketball game presented a thrill a minute. Yea, Longhorns! . . .

THE INAUGURATION OF W. Lee O'Daniel as Governor of Texas afforded Austin and its environs, not to mention the rest of Texas, a great deal of excitement and celebration. Governor O'Daniel, Mrs. O'Daniel, and their daughter, Molly, are seen here in a group picture . . . Every one from business man to farmer attended the inauguration. Two typical spectators are caught as they attentively watch the proceedings . . . Molly O'Daniel demonstrates one of her favorite indoor sports—bannister-sliding. The Governor's Mansion is purported to afford very excellent equipment for this activity . . . Down Congress Avenue toward the Capitol proceeds the inaugural parade. Note the avid spectators thronging the streets . . . The Governor and his Hillbilly Band, which stood him in such good stead in the old campaigning days, swing out with a rhythmic and tuneful selection. Come in on the downbeat, boys . . . From the air Memorial Stadium looks like an ant-hill during the ceremony. The immense crowd present can be seen at once in this picture. Even on the field itself there are quite a number of people . . . Demonstrating his famous slogan, Governor O'Daniel and family say, "Pass the biscuits, Pappy." Looks like this tasty batch is going to be on the house—a flash back to the days when knighthood was in flour . . .

ON THE inaugural platform, the First Family of Texas poses for the battery of newsreel cameramen shown below. In the picture are Mrs. O'Daniel, Governor O'Daniel, Molly, Pat, and Mike. All express their happiness with becoming smiles . . . Outgoing Governor Allred congratulates Governor O'Daniel as Molly, smiling joyfully, looks on. The reins of government change hands. Tempus fugit . . . In the foreground of the battery of newsreel cameras is Amon Carter, Jr., camera in hand, ready to snap every event of note. Nice work, Amon . . . Chief Justice Cureton of the Texas Supreme Court gives Governor-elect O'Daniel the oath of office. Perhaps, as Governor-elect O'Daniel recites this impressive oath, he is visualizing in his distant gaze the great empire at the head of which he now stands. From the cattle ranches of the Southwest and the orchards of the Rio Grande Valley to the commercial centers of the North and from the rich oil lands of the East to the vast sheep ranches of the West, Texas is a great state in every sense of the word. Its boundaries encircle a little of everything from hell to heaven. To be Governor of so great a state is no small task . . . From far and near came people from all walks of life to witness the inauguration of their Governor. The two ladies express pride and pleasure at the proceedings. The old gentleman is inscrutable but evidently approves. The Eyes of Texas are all on Governor O'Daniel . . .

ON JANUARY 29 in Hogg Auditorium, Walter Giesecking, famous pianist, played a vigorous and distinguished concert . . . Sarita, Spanish dancer extraordinary, swayed rhythmically to exotic dance music in Gregory Gymnasium on February 2. The audience appreciated thoroughly her beautiful performance . . . Back in the groove again. On Saturday, February 4, spring football training began. Yea, Longhorns! . . . Behind the counter are those second semester registerers. There seems to be quite a clamor to get in the old institution . . . Raymond Goodman experimentally swings a golf stick on the Phi Sigma Delta front terrace. Bet that last swing was good for at least 200 yards, eh, Cheevo? . . . Polo season is here at last! Margaret Barron shows the correct technique for beautiful ladies on horseback . . . Dorothy Ball and Margaret Bachtel are two lovely reasons to stand outdoors and chat. Looks like they are soon to grace some classroom . . . Helen Butler ripples over the keys for Sunny Murphey and Catherine Cade, an appreciative audience . . . Spring! Ah, Spring! Bootsie Trigg and Spring! With the zephyrs frisking through her hair, Bootsie, lovely girl that she is, warms our hearts with that sweet smile of hers . . . Joe Wilson, Cissie Ligon, Mary Nell Gilmore, and Walter Babel outside the Commons . . . And who are these people so wrapped up in each other? Unfortunately the young lady didn't enroll for the second semester. Names and addresses of these lucky individuals will be sent on request. Please enclose fifty cents in stamps for return postage . . . On the Alpha Phi front porch are Betty Johnson, Cathryn Long, Virginia Freeman, Mary Ann Lennox, Rosemary Scott, Jane Pace, Lucille Plumb, and Ruth Stuart . . .

JANUARY 29 - FEBRUARY 4

COACH OF THE U. T. swimming team is handsome Tex Robertson. Here he poses for a moment beside the pool . . . Adolph Kiefer, ace Longhorn swimmer gets a toe-lock on the starting stand and tenses himself for the race. Good going, Adolph! . . . Lois Sager, U.T.'s most beautiful cup-presenter, tenders a symmetrical statuette to U.T.'s handsomest athlete, Bob Tarlton, who is seen smiling triumphantly below after he has received his prize. Congratulations, Bob! Let's hope Hollywood hears of this . . . Porky Williams in the riotous clown act drags a colleague out of the pool feet first. Porky is modeling one of the new 1939 bathing suits and demonstrating the correct procedure for removing your mother-in-law from any pool . . . Adolph Kiefer demonstrates his record-breaking backstroke. With a swish of his arm, Adolph slips through the water with the greatest of ease. Poised alligator-like on the diving board, Ralph Flanagan, another record-breaker, looks inquisitively into the camera. Congratulations to you, too, Ralph . . . Professor S. L. Brown shows his uncanny mathematics machine to the newsreel cameraman and an admiring group of onlookers. The machine, resembling a backgammon board, figures something or other out. Looks like a good thing to have along on a quiz.

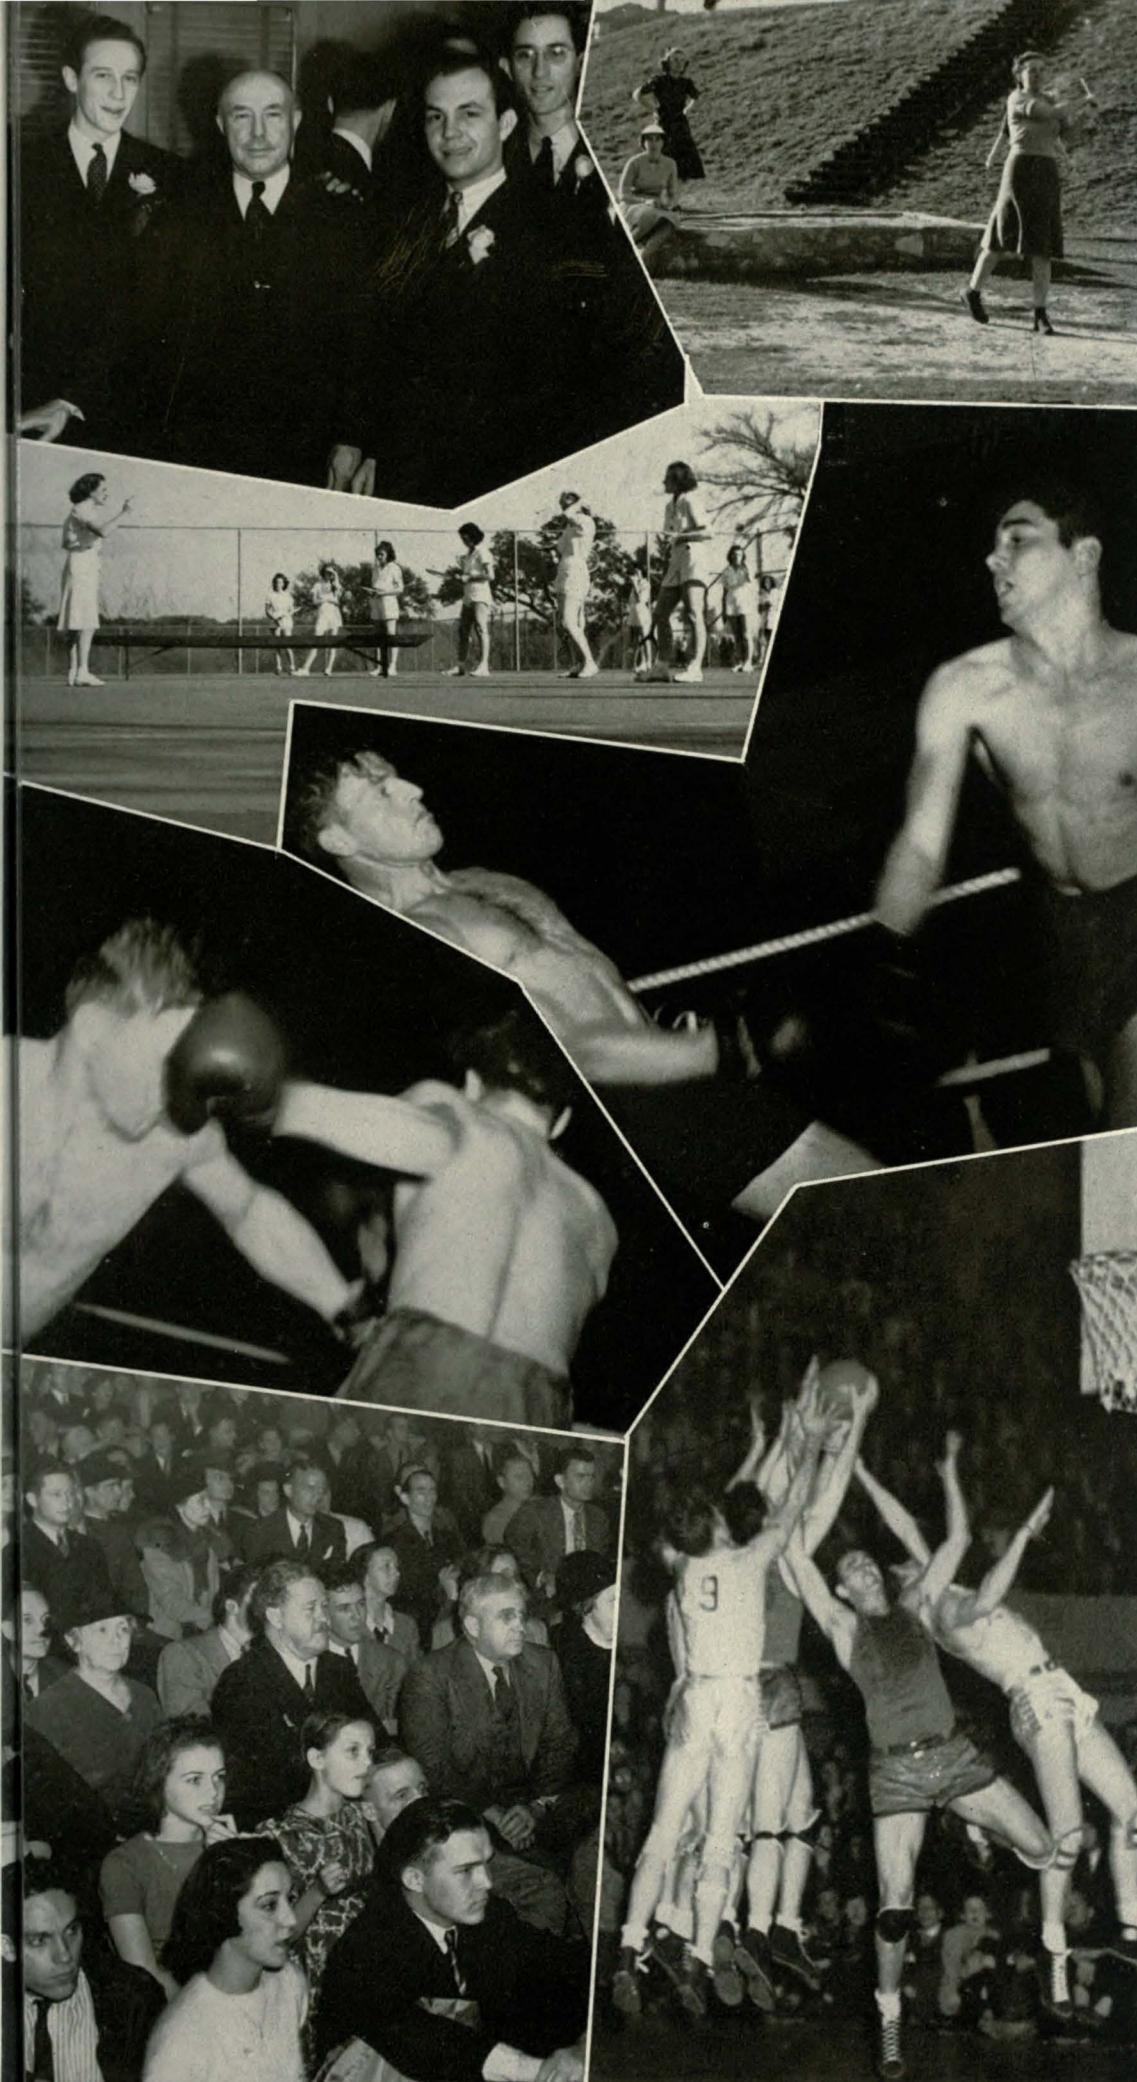

FEBRUARY 5 - FEBRUARY 11

MARION CARNES beats out a daily ditty on the carillon bells in the tower to put everybody in a good mood for lunch . . . In the sleek open job at the airport are Dodo Schreiner, Bootsie Trigg, Dorothy Jones, and Mary Nancy McElhannon . . . At the Phi Gam open house Betty Jean Lytle gracefully sips punch while Bill Fraser looks seriously on the whole procedure . . . Mary Lewis Scott, at the same party, turns her flashing smile on Ed Cornwell, one of the better boys . . . Aroused from a lovely dream, Sleeping Beauty looks up like a startled faun . . . Jimmy Valentine, he of the fine tenor voice, chats with Maxine Dietzel, she of the charming and vivacious personality . . . George Nalle and Ria Cortes take a little time out on the back steps to teach Rover or Bowzer some clever tricks or something . . . The serious and expressive countenance behind the cigar stub belongs to Bob Northcutt, who seems to be observing something rather closely . . . Roland Chatham settles down for a little serious studying—maybe . . . Surprised by the camera flash is pretty Anne Baker. Exotic Nancy Filgo, in a lovely white dress, entertains David Bland, a scholar and a gentleman, with her conversation . . . Dorothy Anne Dooley and Eloise DuBois somewhere doing something . . . Adjusting her dark glasses, Jean Scales prepares for a dash from the Commons to class . . . Mary Lou Hunter and Mary Paul set out for college one bright and happy morn . . .

FEBRUARY 5 - FEBRUARY 11

TAU DELTA PHIS are the proud owners of a new house. At their house-warming, Dean Parlin is an honored guest. Attendance at such functions as this gives Dean Parlin the familiarity with student life and problems, that enables him to understand and solve student problems and to make and hold a multitude of student friendships . . . Turning to girls' sports now, we see the follow through of a satisfying drive down the fairway during the tryouts for women's golf . . . Girls trying out for Racquet Club are receiving a few last minute instructions before settling the whole thing in court. May the best girl win! . . . Oops! Did you run into something, pal? The gentleman on the left is about to become supine as the result of a rather nasty blow from the gentleman on the right. Scene from the Golden Glove matches . . . And here we have a close-up of some one whose countenance is obscured by a glove. Happy landing with that haymaker! These boys are really tearing after each other . . . At the decisive S.M.U.-Texas basketball game, six thousand spectators watched excitedly as the Longhorns fought their way to victory . . . Despite all the people in this picture there is only one foot on the floor. Texas and S.M.U. men struggle for the ball in an exciting moment of play . . .

11 FEBRUARY 12 - FEBRUARY 18

AT 10:15 o'CLOCK every night the Texan News Broadcast brings to the students the news of the day on the campus. These two pictures show you how it's all done. In the first scene Margrette Garrison shuffles through some papers. Next you see a broadcast in progress with Murray Moffatt reading and Ben Kaplan standing by . . . Modeling in the Helping Hand Style Show are three U.T. lovelies: Mary Katherine Scofield, Virginia Ford, and Ann Painter. Mary Katherine is showing a beautiful white creation, made of something or other; Virginia Ford shows a chic dress with hat to match and leopard skin for the arm; Ann Painter wears a cunning hat at a 45 degree angle with veil to match . . . A lively bridge game keeps these Gamma Phi Betas smiling. What system are you using, girls? . . . Carter McGregor engrossed in the funnies . . . A vivacious tumbling act keeps the spectators entertained between halves at the Baylor game . . . Looks like a goal! A tense moment at the Baylor game . . . To the Longhorn basketball team—congratulations on a successful and entertaining season! . . . And now for some of the University's better people at play. Lois Sager, again, with that charming smile. The handsome lad is John Roberts, chairman-elect of the Judiciary Council . . . Then Tom Wheat and Dorothy Perkins, two welcome additions to any party . . . And Connie Delavan and Jimmy Windham, a beautiful lass and a fine fellow . . .

GENE COMER, voted UT's best-dressed girl, shows us two of the ensembles that helped her win this honor. First she appears in a lovely white evening gown and seems ready to glide out on the dance floor. Then, clad in a snappy suit, she indicates her readiness to go to the game . . . On Wednesday, February 22, the Pasquier Trio entertained a large audience in Hogg Memorial Auditorium with a delightful concert. Here they are shown as they appeared on the stage during the performance . . . In a classic pose, Lucille Marshall, Duchess to the Galveston Mardi Gras, reflects the poise and gracious sobriety requisite to fill such a position . . . On Monday, February 20, the Alpha Chi Omegas moved into their new home on the corner of Wichita and Twenty-sixth Streets. The house is a handsome, rambling structure that seems to combine comfort with beauty and, as can be seen from the pictures, is furnished to provide the maximum of efficiency and comfort. The desks provide a place for two girls to study with their books within easy reach. On the sleeping porch the girls make good use of the beds for a combination reading, eating, and bull session. If the walls only had ears we could tell you what they are saying. Home, Sweet Home . . .

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 24,
was the night of the annual Junior Prom, a function to which the girls of the Junior Class escort the girls of the Senior Class. This reverse party, which the gals seem to enjoy very much, has been occurring once a year since 1910. A general shot of the dance shows that a goodly crowd is in attendance this year, as usual . . . Frances Cooper, dressed as Martha Washington, courtseys for Elizabeth Swift, dressed as George. These girls are president of the Senior and Junior class respectively . . . A variety of costumes, representing a variety of characters, lend color and distinction to the occasion . . . A little outdoor chat session with Elizabeth Lawson, Billie Hyer, Beverly Boison, Margaret Burt, and Edith Fox . . . Gazing triumphantly on a newly-acquired cup are Cora Lee Barnes and Elizabeth Baugh . . . Amon Carter, Jr., picnics in the great outdoors . . . Representatives of the House of Cooley and the House of Robinson (Helen to you) set out resolutely to class. Lurking in the shadows may be Sam Cruse . . . One of the thrills in the thrill-a-minute Rice-Texas basketball game is shown here as members of both teams go into the air to get possession of the ball . . .

FEBRUARY 19 - FEBRUARY 25

INITIATION of twenty-three new members into The University of Texas Cowboys gave rise to a little good-natured tobacco-chewing as the sun was setting in the Golden West. In the center photo, Roger Sullivan, J. B. Griffith, Kenny Ford, and Morgan Nesbitt portray various degrees of concentration on the task at hand while Charles Prothro stands conveniently near with his trusty package of Beechnut (no adv.) . . . Nothing like an afternoon of cool relaxation at the bridge table say Frances Dilley, Thad Grundy, Gordon Broyles, and Jean Edge . . . In front of the Theta house probably waiting to mob the lucky mailman, are Martha Louise Bell, Kathryn Roach, Evelyn Storm, Dorothy Ann Dooley . . . Taking a moment's respite on the comfortable Alpha Chi Omega sofa are Doris Ann Daniel, Ruth Thomas, Maxine Blackmar, and Lucille Bodine . . . The next two pictures, a study in beautiful girls coming out of various shaped doors, shows Mary Townsend, Ann Ward, and Dorothy Lehrer, and Cissie Wheat and Margie Medley . . . Surrounded in his busy office, where for many months he has executed faithfully and efficiently the manifold duties of his position, President John Connally of the Students' Association is interrogated upon the subject of his retirement. Forced to retire so that he may have time to pursue his studies more diligently, John is nevertheless able to smile good-naturedly about it all. Congratulations on a successful and commendable year, John . . . An innovation at the University Germans are the tables seen in the last two pictures on this page. Creating an atmosphere and adding greatly to the enjoyment of the dancers, these tables were welcomed by student revellers.

IN MARCH Dr. Frank Guy Armitage, in his lecture on "Dickens and His Queer Folk," dons the guise of the despicable Scrooge and grinds out: "If I could work my will, every idiot who goes about with 'Merry Christmas' on his lips should be boiled with his own pudding." . . . It was indeed a night of fun and frolic as the Phi Gams gave their annual Costume Formal, presenting this year "The Parade of the Romancers." Seen in the two pictures are Dred Wood and Betty Jane Cunningham as Captain John Smith and Pocahontas; Bob Martin and Mary Lewis Scott as De-Lesseps and Eugenia, Mary Cox and Tommy Quick as Lil Abner and Daisy Mae, and Dorothy Marks and Hilliard Thomas as Louis XIV and Madame Du-Barry . . . The U.T. basketball team, having cleaned up the Southwest Conference, leaves for California and new fields to conquer. From front to back we see Moers, Nelms, Hull, Wiggins, King, Spears, Finley, Granville, Roach, Cooley, Tate, Haupt, Schwartz, Kelley, and Gray. Good luck, boys! . . . Came Fite Nite and with it the graceful fencing matches and the groaning wrestling bouts. Both, with other entertaining events, helped to keep a huge crowd amused for hours . . . Receiving his trophy the same night, is Dick Kleberg, one of the better boys and golfer. The cup is for intramural golf . . . Expressions at the Pre-Med Banquet seem to indicate that the speaker has just cracked a good physiological joke . . .

MARCH 12 - MARCH 16

NOMINEES for Sweetheart of the School of Business Administration are the Misses Weinert, Dumble, Embry, Byrne, and Chandler. Of these, Geraldine Chandler, the charming lassie on the right end, was finally chosen Sweetheart . . . At the B. B. A. Banquet, Dr. J. C. Dolley, first-rate professor and classroom entertainer, takes pleasure in presenting something or other to the victorious and happy Miss Chandler. Congratulations! Geraldine! . . . Table set for action at the B. B. A. Banquet . . . Looking like Anthony delivering his famous speech beginning "I come not to praise Caesar but to bury him," Pat O'Keefe poses on a balcony. The alluring lady is, of course, Idanell Brill, Sweetheart of the University. Looking very serious about it all is Prentice Hill, artist and expert set-designer. These three are some of the Curtain Club's most valuable members, the Club being now in the production of the O'Neill super-spectacle, "Marco Millions" . . . Getting a new angle on life are June Adams and Ann Wilkins, leervy parapet-sitters . . . Carolyn Sue Barwise, Catherine McDonald, and Ruth Land are all looking in different directions for something—a hornet, maybe . . . The cozy group before the fireplace consists of Charline Yaeger, Elizabeth Lawson, Marjorie Bowen, Edith Fox, and Margaret Burt . . . Man the switches, men, "Marco Millions" is now in progress—behind the scenes at the Curtain Club production . . . Betty Trammell and Al Wadsworth out somewhere or other. Judging from all the tracks behind them, one might even say somebody has been spinning his wheels . . . Surrounded by a row of handsome cups and a pretty girl, Julian Meer smiles his appreciation of the whole situation.

CLOSE YOUR EYES, fellows; now, open them. Three guesses. It's not Palm Beach; it's not Galveston; and it's not the Rockettes. In fact, it's the posture contest. The three winners, Glenn Appling, Ruth Spargo, and Jane Loomis show the girls here how to sit, stand, and walk down stairs. All are fine upstanding young women. Sitting prettily on the bench is Glenn; standing by the stairs are Jane and Ruth and coming down the stairs so gracefully are all three . . . Jerry Paul gives us the old victory smile as she battles her opponent to defeat in a swift round of Ping Pong. Don't be too hard, Jerry; let her get a couple of points . . . Gathered around the festive board are the Gamma Phi Beta maidens actively engaged in getting their ratio of vitamins and calories . . . Ramsey Moore is getting ready to take a mean cut at the ball. Unless we miss our guess, that ball is about to go for a long ride. Just ask the Dekes . . . And now for a couple of nights of partying and fun. First we see a jolly foursome in the Country Club at the fine Phi Delta Theta Formal . . . Then, at the Federated Clubs Building, we see the sextet from Kappa Sigma, six handsome people from among the many enjoying dancing to the music of Nick Stuart and his Orchestra . . . Saturday night finds the SAE's expressing sartorially their suppressed desires at their merry Suppressed Desire Party . .

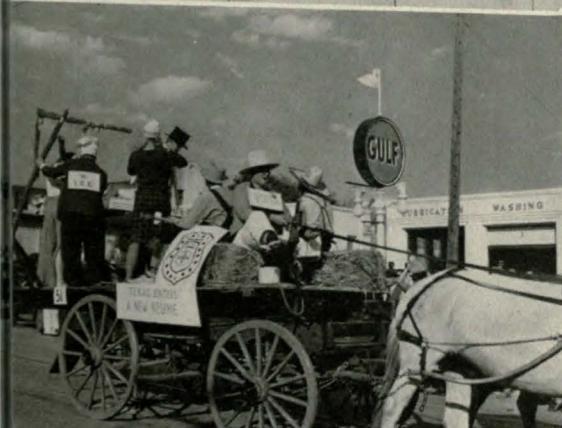

MARCH 17 - MARCH 25

THE WEEK-END to end all week-ends! The busiest seventy-two hours in the school year! The Round-Up Week-end. To get everything off to a flying start, Dr. Homer Price Rainey, soon to become President of the University, is introduced to a cheering mob of students at 10:45 Friday morning. The students feel that in Dr. Rainey they will have a capable and well-liked President, a man who can ably fill the shoes of his predecessor, the beloved Dr. H. Y. Benedict—which is about the highest praise a President could receive. Standing to the left of Dr. Rainey as he addresses the assembled students is Stan Neely, who succeeded to the presidency of the Students' Association, a position left vacant by the resignation of John Connally. One of the best-liked students at the University, Stan is to be congratulated for his efficient and well-managed completion of the presidential term . . . Friday afternoon brought the Round-Up Parade—the spectacle of the age. Inset is the Deke float with Earl White, Tommy Cook, Earl Jones, and Tex Elliott . . . Then comes the KA float, winner of the Most Humorous award . . . The Sweetheart float with the five Sweetheart nominees . . . Alpha Tau Omega cleverly mimics the Sweetheart float with its Five Fine Fillies entry—depicting an hilarious bawth scene is the SPE float . . .

THE EYES OF TEXAS ARE UPON YOU

THE UNION

MARCH 26 - APRIL 1

AND STILL THEY COME!

Winner of the cup for the Best All-Around Float is the Phi Gamma Delta entry, beautifully and classically done. The three silvered figures, representing successively the college graduate, the American doughboy, and the crippled veteran selling flowers, are done by L. E. Guillot, Barney Hopkins, and Bert Phillips. Congratulations! . . . A closer shot of the Sweetheart float. Such beautiful girls. My! My! The closer the better . . . Symbolizing the desire of Texas to go places in football next year is the Chi Phi entry, a skilfully executed and cleverly thought out float . . . A general view of the parade gives some idea of its tremendous length and pretentiousness. Wending for several miles down the street and making its serpentine way down town and past the judges stand on the Austin Hotel balcony, the parade resembles a huge, varicolored reptile. The popularity of the spectacle is shown by the huge and enthusiastic crowds lining the sides of the streets . . . A colorful welcome is given Dr. Rainey by the Sigma Chi float with its miniature tower and covered wagon, reflecting the progress of Texas. The foregoing are but a few of the beautiful, humorous, educational, and unique floats which make up the Round-Up Parade . . .

AND HERE we have, believe it or not, some more parade. The same one, too. Helen Robinson and a bevy of other members-elect of Ownooch tramp for miles in black gowns . . . Luckier are the members of Orange Jackets who get to ride in snappy open cars, as shown in these exclusive Dissociated Press photos . . . Ann Painter, with an Hawaiian whatchamacallit (bet you can't spell it, either. Lucky to spell Hawaiian) around her neck, lends her beauty to the Alpha Phi float . . . More island magic—Babs Rathbone and Eva Keller decorate effectively the Kappa Hawaiian number . . . Candid shot of some feminine spectators . . . Friday night and the Round-Up Revue occurred simultaneously as was planned. One of the highlights of the Revue is the presentation of the Bluebonnet Belle nominees, some of UT's fairest flowers, a small group of whom are seen clustered together like choir-girls . . . Jean Granberry, chosen Sweetheart of the University, steps happily out on the stage amid thunderous applause . . . Later she receives deserved congratulations from Gene Hurt, president of the Glee Club, and others. Accept, please, our congratulations amid the thousands of others . . . Assembled before your astounded eyes are the young ladies who, by popular vote, are the most beautiful in the schools of the Southwest Conference. Jean Granberry, the four other Texas nominees, Connie Delavan, Eloise DuBois, Marjorie Osborne, and Helen Rathbone, and the Sweethearts of the other Universities and Colleges . . . Such pulchritude! . . .

M A R C H 26 - A P R I L 1

AND NOW we meet informally Sweetheart Jean Granberry and nominees Marjorie Osborne and Helen Rathbone. Charmed, I'm sure . . . Four visiting Sweethearts turn a battery of smiles on the camera that are enough to make a man's heart melt within him. Ain't Texas a wonderful place in which to live . . . Watch where you are putting that shot, my friend. Let's hope you are putting it somewhere way to hell-and-gone out on the field. This scene and those following show contestants at the famed Texas Relays, Round-Up Saturday . . . Jud Atchison flies through the air to take the broad jump title. Nice going, Jud . . . There's bars on them thar posts, and here's a man that can really get over them. Exciting moment in the life of a high jumper . . . The end of a long grind. These lads show at the finish the strain they have been under for the last few moments. This finish isn't exactly photo, but it's close for a long race . . . Hurdlers here step high and set their eyes on their goal. For the next few seconds life will be just one thing after another . . . And here we have what appears to be a dash finish. All these lads are putting everything they have in that last second drive. All the foregoing events occurred before a huge crowd in Memorial Stadium.

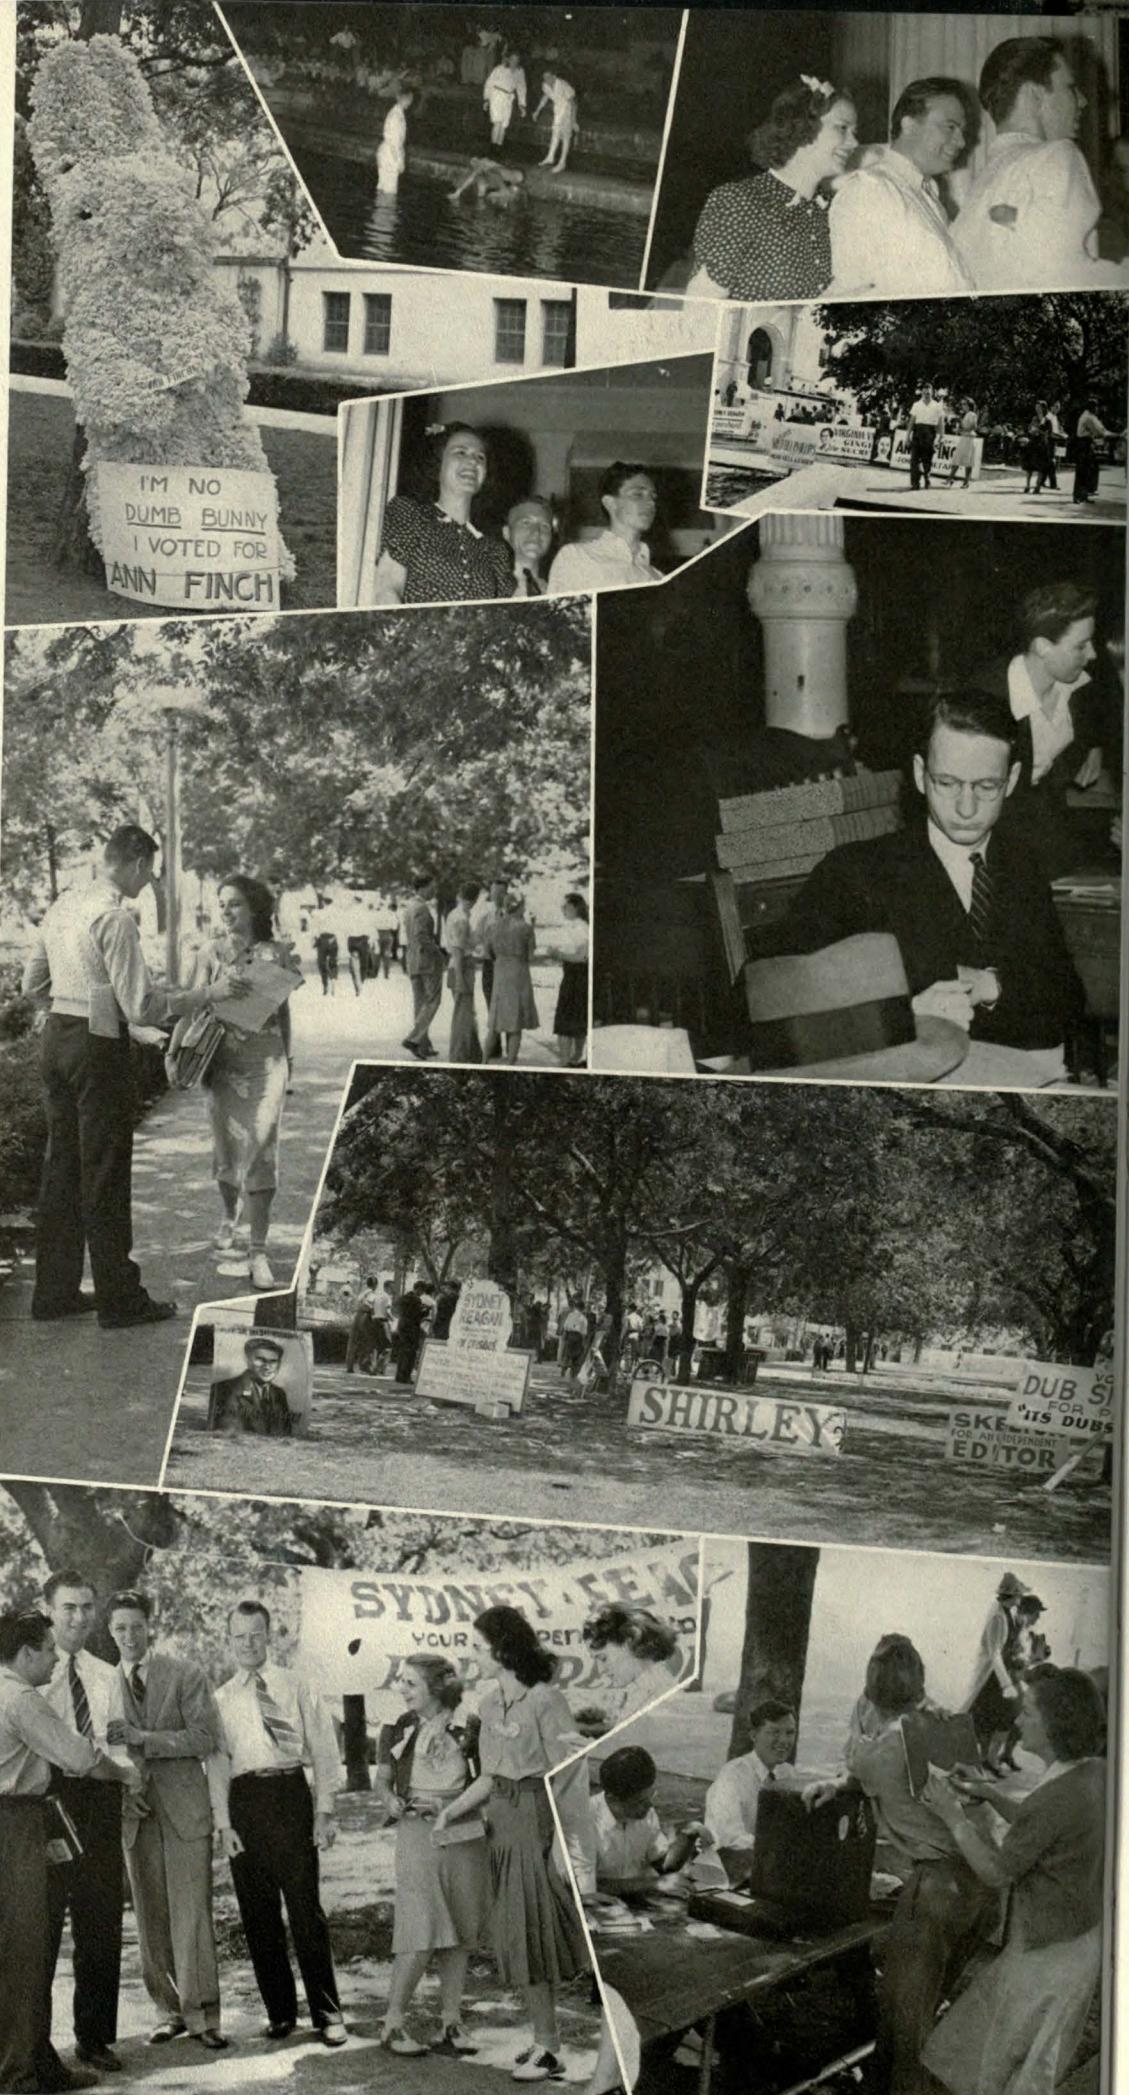

AT THE OPENING of the Texas Relays, Cowboys escort visiting Sweethearts and nominees for Queen of the Relays into the stadium. Joe Wilson, foreman-elect of the Cowboys, leads the march . . . Sweethearts and nominees cluster around the lucky Dr. Rainey as the proceedings get under way . . . Dr. Rainey crowns Queen Granberry of the Texas Relays . . . And seals it with a kiss. Such goings-on! This is absolutely the only picture taken of this momentous moment and will soon become a collectors item. Save your Cactus, folks, and someday it will be worth millions . . . Saturday night the Cowboys hold their annual Dinner Dance in honor of the visiting Sweethearts and the Texas Sweetheart and nominees. First, we have Miss Martha Cecil Graves of T. C. U. and escort . . . Then, looking very regal, is Edyth McDonald, Sweetheart of Baylor. The handsome lad nervously fingering his tie is Frank Conley . . . Ann Hughston of S. M. U. smiles at the camera from under a big flower. Looking off in the distance is Roger Sullivan . . . Apparently very delighted about the whole thing is Mary Lucille Stevens of Rice. Wallace Lawson is delighted that she's delighted. We are all delighted that they are both delighted . . .

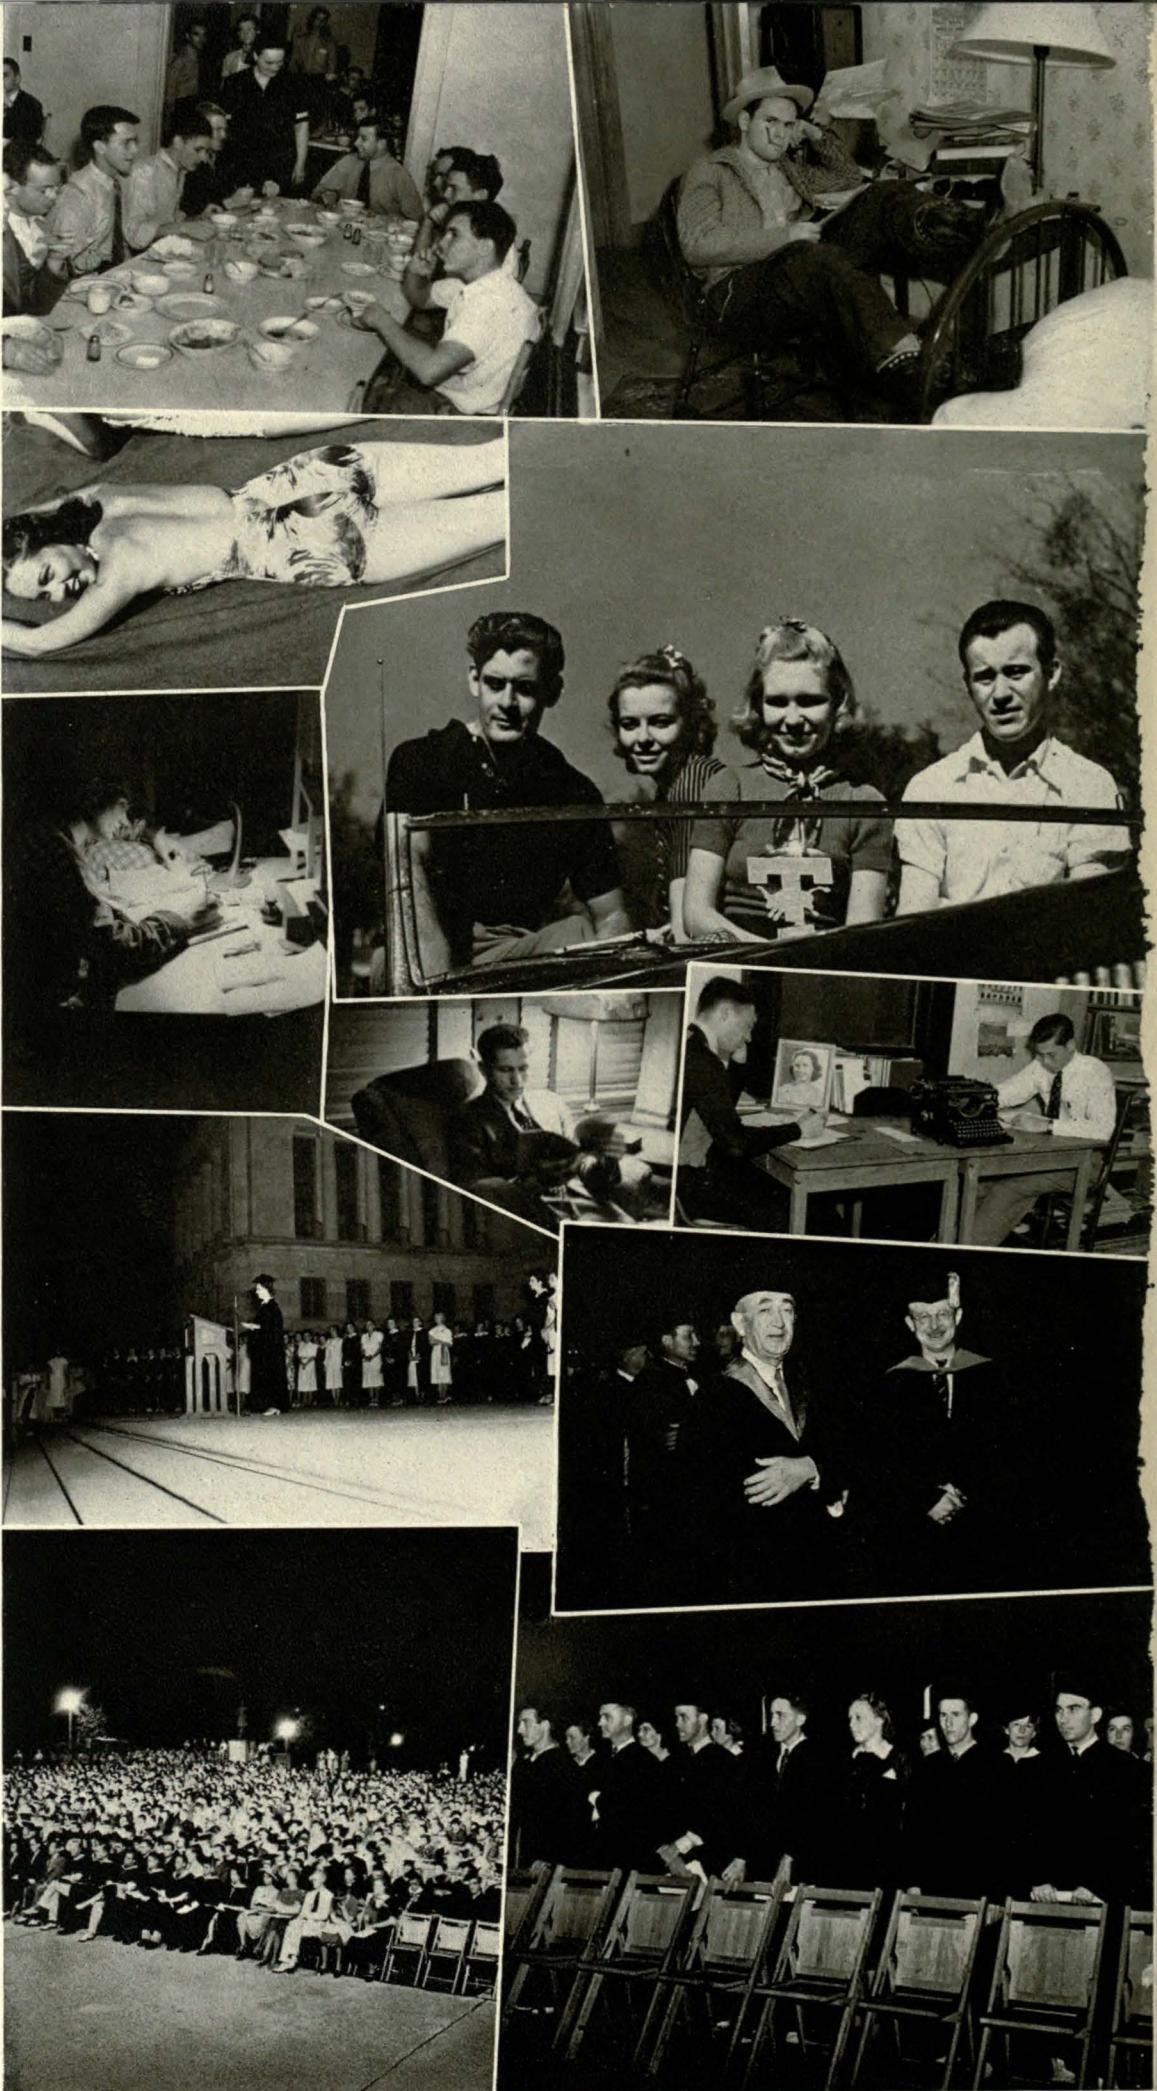

M A R C H 26 - A P R I L 1

OH, TO BE somewhere or other now that spring elections are here. Say, buddy, how about votin' for Joe Schmaltz for Chief Campusbum? How about it, huh? And then we have those endless signs, some clever, some just signs. Of the former variety is this Anne Finch rabbit . . . The candidates for office are given a close-up view of the bottom of Memorial Fountain. Every candidate should know every inch of his campus . . . Storming the Governor's Mansion the same night, perhaps to capture another candidate, are some fun-loving students . . . Molly smiles gleefully at the whole thing . . . Demonstrating the correct stance and approach for soliciting a strange girl to vote for your candidate is this enterprising lad. It's often advantageous to get in a good word for yourself, too, like: Whatta ya doin' tonight, babe! . . . Sydney Reagan, victorious presidential candidate, reflects the sobriety inherent in his office . . . Signs, signs, everywhere, and no chance for a body to think. Take a gander at all these billboards cluttering up the greensward . . . Here we have a battery of vote-getters. Standing on a busy campus walk are Jimmy Windham, Dub Singleton, and Joe Wilson. The beautiful lady vote-getters are Lucile Campbell, Maggie Whisenant, and Dodo Schreiner . . . The ballot box at last. Perhaps we can cast our vote and get out of all this. One vote for Joe Schmaltz!

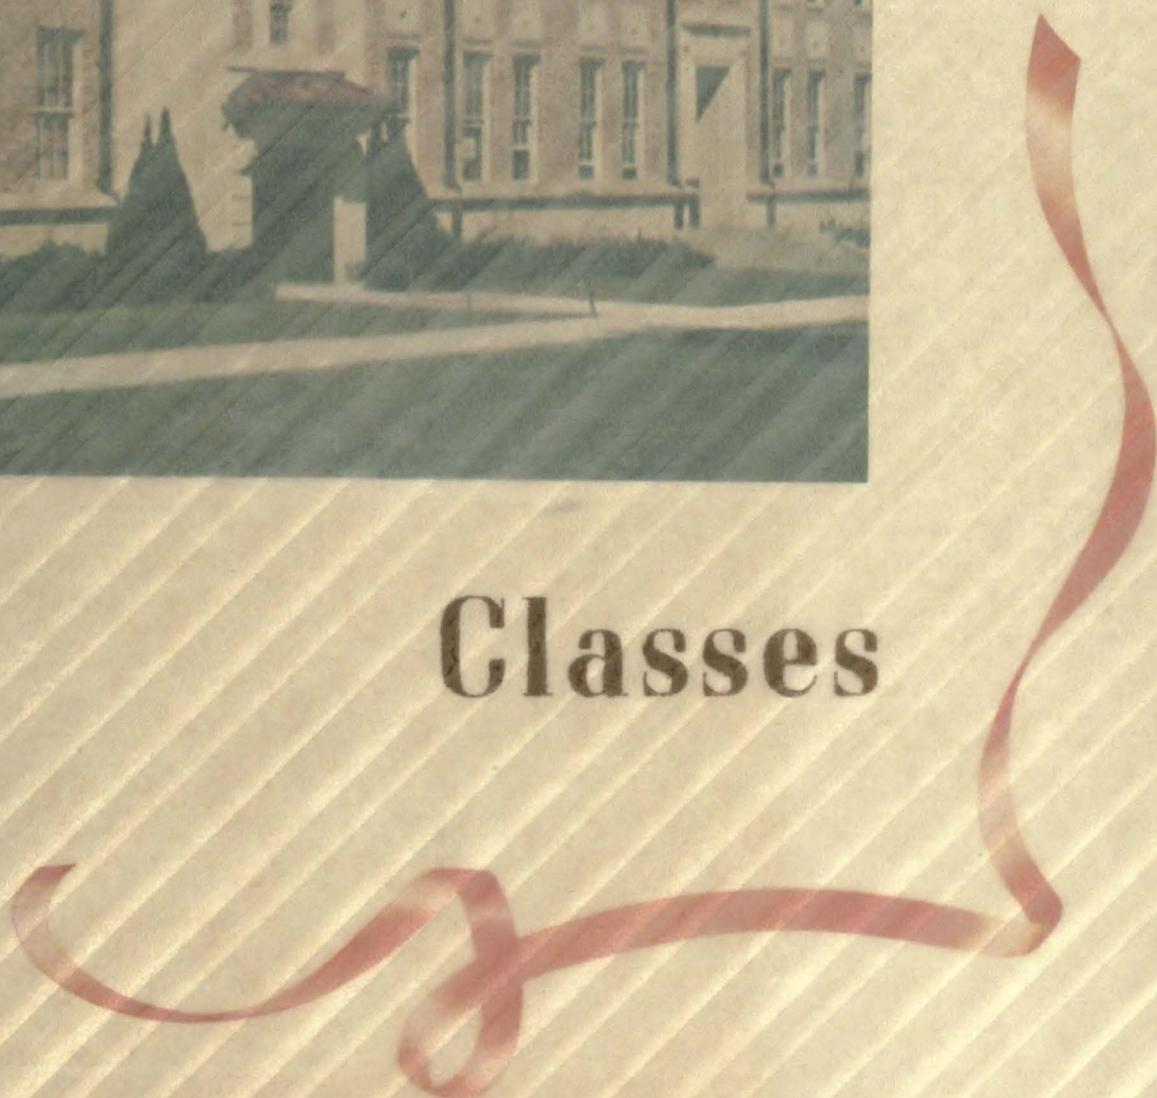

BET you'd never guess who this is. Well, you poor dope, just to keep you from beating your brains out on the sidewalk, we'll tell you. It's none other than Ann Painter, comely mermaid . . . More guessing games! You get at least five guesses on this one. Clue: Her first name is Mary, her second name has only two letters, and her last name is Scotch. (She's not Mary Whitehorse, either!) Also, she is pretty, and vivacious, and Phi Beta Kappa . . . Now here's a picnic that is a picnic. Porky Williams, Walter Gillis, Fred Strong, Pat Holloway, Prescott Allen, Mrs. Bill Newkirk, Bob Eckhart, and Ed Gardner show us how it's done. Here's mud in your eye . . . Ray Grasty and Tookie Hilliard get caught by the roving lens . . . From these next shots even a groundhog can tell that spring (Ahhhhh!) is definitely here. Amid the confusion of pictures we see Lois Crow, Anida Chumley, Mary Nell Gilmore in the chummy circle; and sunbaking are Arch Scurlock and Connie Gossett; and smiling behind the cheaters is Frances Utley . . . Clyde Logue pits brain and muscle against the intricacies of an outboard motor. Right now it looks as if he has the situation well under control . . .

ENTHUSIASTICALLY putting away the evening victuals are the boys at Unit I Co-op House. Looks like plenty of healthy appetites here . . . Amon Carter, Jr., photographer extraordinary, tries to study with his boots on. If Amon is as good with the pen and pencil as he is with the camera, he has nothing to worry about . . . Even with spring finals almost at hand, Dorothy Schneider just can't make it home to study. Lying out in the bright sunshine is just too much fun . . . Out for fresh air are Ralph Flanagan, Norma Hodge, Margie Wilson, and Johnny Musselman . . . An intense figure in pajamas, symbolic of all students trying to master their courses before finals, sits silently at his desk writing, writing, writing, as the tower clock tolls three-bongggg, bongggg, bongggg . . . Francis Winter still likes his magazine and his easy chair better than his trusty textbook . . . Getting in a few good licks at Shangriha are John Street and Elmo Fisher. Good luck, fellers . . . Night scene at Swing-Out, annual ceremony . . . Then comes the night of nights, the turning point in the lives of a select number of students—graduation! J. W. Calhoun, President Ad Interim, appears on the graduation scene . . . For the last time as students of Texas, these gowned figures stand. Who knows what thoughts, what memories are crowding through their minds. Tonight they are together as they have been for one, two, three, or four years; tomorrow they will be gone, perhaps never to meet again. As the years roll by in their minds, let us hope that there are many pleasant scenes there, scenes that have made life richer and fuller and that will linger forever in their memories. It is the sunset of college days; the sunrise of a new life. May there be not one among you who goes out without The University of Texas stamped indelibly on his heart . . . Adios, amigos, hasta la vista . . .

ATHLETIC COUNCIL

J. C. DOLLEY

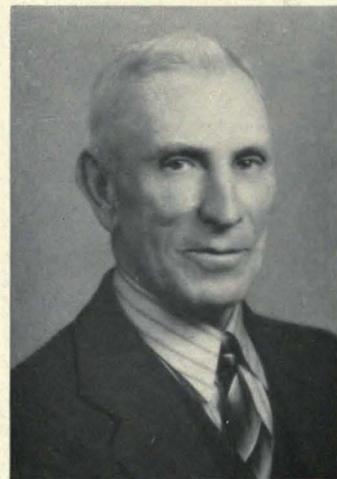

THE ATHLETIC COUNCIL is the executive body for all intercollegiate sports at the University. The Council is composed of three faculty members, one ex-student, and one student. J. C. Dolley, professor of banking and investments, is chairman, and the other faculty members are Read Granberry, professor of electrical engineering, and A. E. Cooper, professor of applied mathematics.

Stanley Eugene Neely, the student member of the Council, was appointed by the Students' Assembly. W. H. Richardson represents the ex-students. Dana X. Bible, athletic director and head football coach, and Edwin W. Olle, business manager of intercollegiate athletics, attend the Council meetings.

COACHING STAFF

DANA X. BIBLE

W. J. DISCH

D. A. PENICK

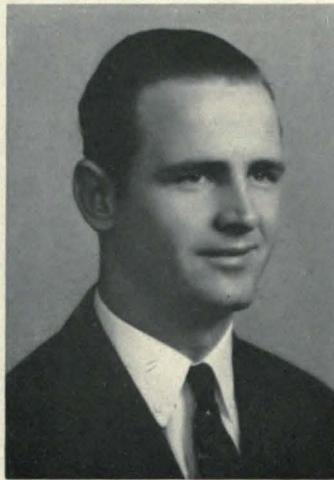

DANA X. BIBLE, athletic director and head football coach, is considered one of the top ranking mentors in the nation. He piled up an enviable list of victories at Nebraska and at Texas A. & M. College. Although his first two years at the University have not been in accord with his previous record, there is plenty of reason to hope that the next few years will see more victories added to his long list.

Coach Bible has been greatly handicapped by a lack of experienced players and by a lack of reserve strength. However, the Bible plan of encouraging high school athletes to come to Texas is scheduled to relieve the situation. The large freshman squad proves that the plan is already working.

Blair Cherry, former coach of Amarillo teams, and H. C. (Bully) Gilstrap, former Longhorn lineman and coach of Schreiner Institute, are the assistant football coaches. While at Amarillo, Cherry coached his team to the high school state championship. Gilstrap's Schreiner teams also won a long string of junior college championships.

Edwin B. Price, freshman football coach, seems to be a triple threat man. He also coaches freshman basketball and baseball.

TEXAS LONGHORNS

JACK GRAY

HARVEY PENICK

CLYDE LITTLEFIELD

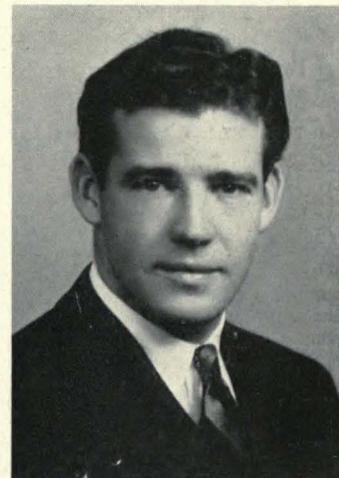

W. J. (Uncle Billy) DISCH, the "grand old man" of the Longhorn diamond, has long dominated baseball in the Southwest Conference. Uncle Billy came to the University back in the dim days when baseball was getting its start in Southwestern colleges. Since then he has coached Longhorn teams to nineteen Southwest Conference championships.

D. A. PENICK is recognized nationally as one of the very best tennis coaches in the country. In his career he has developed not only outstanding players but several intercollegiate champions. Coach Penick's teams have never failed to win a title, either singles or doubles, in the Southwest Conference competition.

CLYDE LITTLEFIELD, track coach and "B" football coach, is rated as one of the top track mentors and has made a name for himself as being one who produces championship teams. His trackmen have taken fourteen Southwest titles, including six consecutive flags since 1932.

JACK GRAY, a former star Longhorn cageman who received All-American rating, directs the basketball aspirations of the University. Gray was appointed basketball coach immediately after his graduation from the University and this year, his third, the Longhorns won the Southwest Conference title.

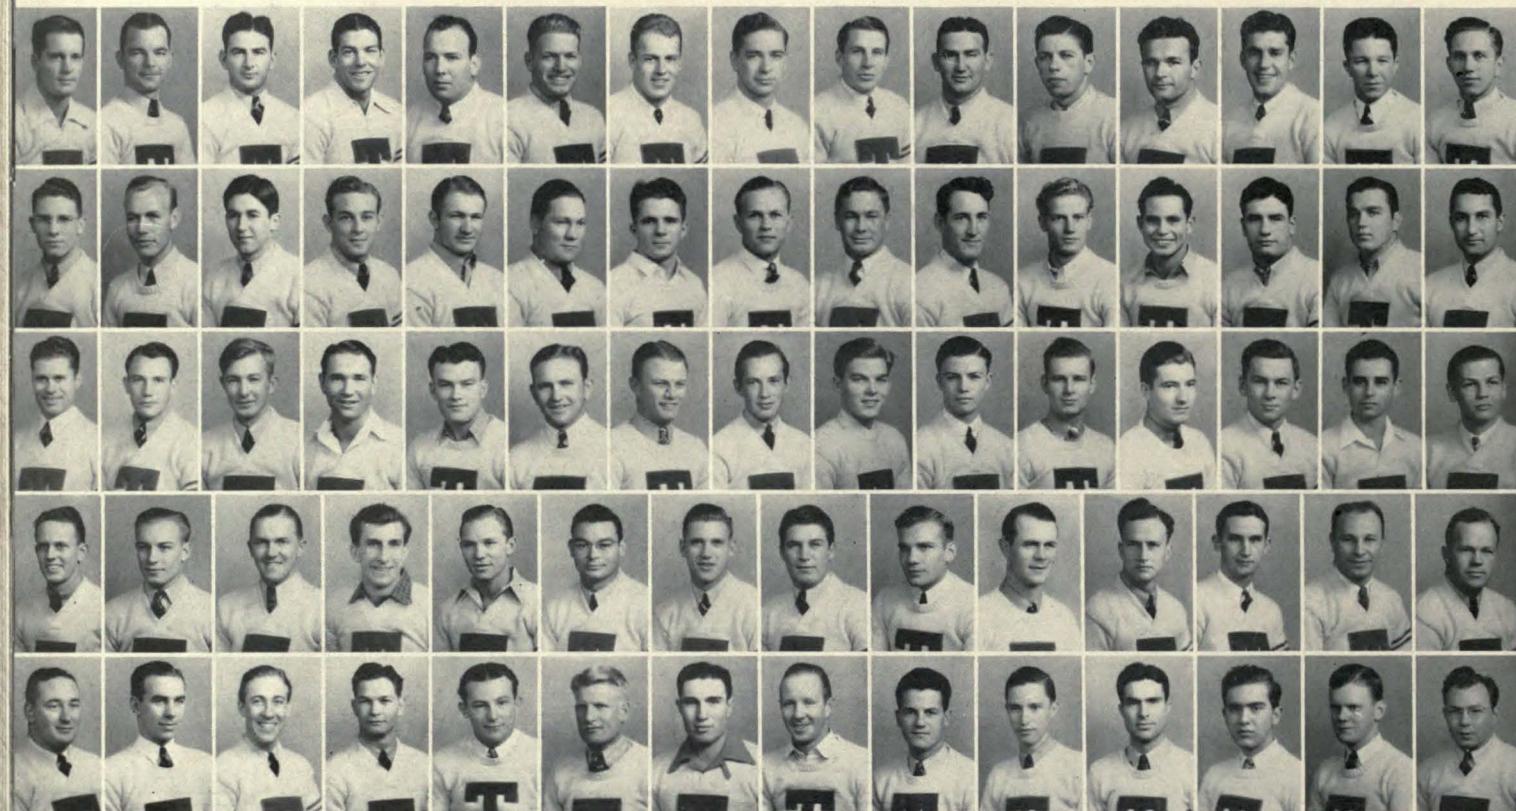

J. T. (Tex) ROBERTSON, swimming coach, has done much to get swimming recognized as one of the big events on the sports calendar of the University. His coaching ability has brought a number of the best mermen in the United States to Texas. The Longhorns regularly win the Southwest Conference title.

J. T. (TEX) ROBERTSON

HARVEY PENICK, golf professional at the Austin Country Club and coach of the Longhorn golf team, has directed the careers of a number of nationally ranking stars. His teams have won their share of the Conference titles and have placed high in the National Intercollegiate Meet each year.

WALLACE DUNK LAWSON

COMPOSED OF LETTERMEN on all varsity athletic teams, the T Association conducted a full year of activities for the first time in several years. The Association, headed by Harris Van Zandt, was reorganized near the end of the 1937-1938 term. Wallace Lawson was elected president the following September. With Homecoming activities for the Thanksgiving A. & M. game the first big problem for the group, the T men served as hosts at a reception and luncheon for the Alumni lettermen returning for the game. Stanley Neely, as social chairman, made arrangements for a dance held at the Austin Country Club in the early spring. The Association entered a float in the Round-Up parade. The year's activities were concluded late in May with a special meeting during which the new lettermen for spring sports were initiated into the group.

Season Review

The Southwest Conference is fast becoming one of the truly great football circles in America because of its type of play. Since the days of Texas' own Bohn Hilliard, the Southwest has been noted for its speedy backs and "sling shot" forward passers. And 1938 did not let this reputation fall. Quick stepping speedsters like Gilly Davis and Beefus Bryan of Texas, Bill Patterson of Baylor, and Dick Todd of Texas A. & M. are looked upon as tops among the broken field runners of the country.

Nowhere in the nation is the passing of little Davey O'Brien of T.C.U. equaled. His eagle eye and unfailing aim led his team to victory in the Sugar Bowl and brought to T.C.U. the ranking of the greatest team in the country. The short, quick passes and laterals puzzled the opponents of the Southwest in intersectional games.

The University of Texas upheld the laurels of the Southwest in its intersectional game with Kansas, losing by a slim one-point margin. Texas Christian beat the best teams in the country, all of which shows that the Southwest is the conference to look to when choosing the teams for the post-season games next year.

The competition in the Southwest is the greatest of any conference. Because of this competition, serious upsets are not infrequent. When the Longhorns defeated the Texas A. & M. Aggies, it was looked upon by some as an upset; but others respected it as a typical Southwest Conference game full of thrills and excitement up to the final gun.

Pre-Conference Games

UNIVERSITY OF KANSAS

THE LONGHORNS began their 1938 season on September 24 with a thrill-packed battle with the University of Kansas in Lawrence. Although the Longhorns came out on the short end of a 19-18 score, their last period rally brought thrills and chills to everyone. The Jayhawkers scored twice in the first quarter, but failed to convert both times. Their third counter came in the second period, and the kick by Gibbons was good.

Led by John Peterson, Wally Lawson, and Beefus Bryan, the Longhorns came back in the third period with a typical Southwest Conference aerial attack. Bryan passed to Peterson for the first touchdown; Lawson hit the line for the second, and Lawson passed to Bobby Moers for the third tally. All conversions failed leaving the final score: Kansas 19, Texas 18.

LOUISIANA STATE UNIVERSITY

The second game of the season was played in Texas Memorial Stadium on October 1 with Louisiana State University. The Longhorns were defeated to the tune of 20 to 0. Little Gilly Davis was the undisputed star for the Longhorns, and he had the Tigers watching his every move. The first half was slow, and the Longhorns seemed to be keeping up with the boys from Louisiana; but the second half the smaller Texas team fell under the pressure of L. S. U.'s supreme reserve power. Sophomore Mike Sweeney was the best end on the field, and Bouncing Bobby Moers turned in another fine performance.

UNIVERSITY OF OKLAHOMA

The Oklahoma game in Dallas on October 8 was the Longhorn's last pre-Conference game, and again a stubborn forward wall proved too much for the Steer offense. Oklahoma won 13 to 0. The best offensive threat of the Longhorns was a pass from Bullet Gray to Bryan who lateraled to Peterson. This attempt netted forty-one yards, but further damage was stopped by the incompletion of three passes. Roy Baines, Park Myers and Jack Rhodes played nicely in the line, and Moers did fine defensive work in the backfield.

THEY . . . Stand Out

ROBERT ROY BAINES—Roy played center and was captain of the Longhorns in the Arkansas game. He blocked the kick in the A. & M. game that gave Texas a one-point victory.

JACK WESLEY BOYER—right halfback from Fort Worth and captain in the T. C. U. game. Wes stood out in the S. M. U. and Kansas games.

JOE WILSON ROACH—left end from Decatur and captain in the Baylor game. Joe's best playing was in the A. & M. game.

WILLIAM (BILL) FORNEY—quarterback from Valparaiso, Indiana, and captain for the S. M. U. game. Bill played best in the Baylor and A. & M. games.

CHARLES RICHARD NAISER—right guard from El Campo and captain of the Rice game. Charlie was also outstanding in the L. S. U. and S. M. U. games.

JACKSON (JACK) RHODES—Texas' All-Conference left guard from Lexington and captain of the A. & M. game. Jack was one of Texas' outstanding players in every game.

BERNARD (BERNIE) ESUNAS—right tackle from Dallas and captain of the Oklahoma game. Bernie was outstanding in the Rice and L. S. U. games.

WALLACE (WALLIE) LAWSON—fullback from Cleburne and captain in the L. S. U. game. Wallie stood out in the Rice and A. & M. games.

LEO JOHN PETERSON—right end from Amarillo and captain in the Kansas game. Johnny also stood out in the Arkansas and T. C. U. games.

B. F. (BEEFUS) BRYAN—left halfback from Richmond and kicker for the Longhorns. Beefus played well in the A. & M. and S. M. U. games.

EDWARD GILMORE (GILLY) DAVIS—fast running halfback from San Benito. Gilly stood out in the L. S. U. and Oklahoma games.

THEY . . . Stand Out

GLENN JACKSON—big center from Corpus Christi. Glenn's best playing was in the A. & M. and Baylor games.

LEWIS (BULLET) GRAY—halfback from Gorman. Bullet was spark-plug for the Longhorns in the Kansas game.

PARK LESLIE MYERS—left tackle from Austin and co-captain for 1939. Park stood out in the L. S. U. and Rice games.

ROBERT (BOBBY) MOERS—fast halfback from Houston, great defensive player. Bobby stood out in the Oklahoma and L. S. U. games.

NED McDONALD—end from Houston and co-captain for 1939. Ned played nicely in the Rice and A. & M. games.

MICHAEL (MIKE) SWEENEY—left end from Amarillo and great prospect for 1939. Mike was star for the Longhorns in the L. S. U. and S. M. U. games.

NELSON PUETT—fleet-footed back from Fentress. Nelson was star of the A. & M. game, making the Longhorns' touchdown.

WILLIAM (BILL) KILMAN—right tackle from Fort Worth. Bill played very well in the S. M. U. and Baylor games.

DON WILLIAMS—left tackle from Amarillo. Don was outstanding in the Baylor and T. C. U. games and was a great all round offensive and defensive player.

JOHN GILL—quarterback from Amarillo. John played a good defensive game against Oklahoma.

TED ROOSEVELT DAWSON—guard from Hondo. Ted stood out in the games with T. C. U. and S. M. U.

SHELBY OHELLO BUCK—sophomore end from Morton. Big Shelby played well in the Oklahoma and T. C. U. games.

KELSO DABNEY—Kelso did a fine job managing the Longhorns all year long.

A Day with Bible

DANA X. BIBLE, athletic director and head football coach of the University, starts a typical day by discussing his plans for the team with Weldon Hart, publicity director for University athletics. The information to be released about the Longhorns' progress is usually decided upon over a cup of coffee.

After reading the paper and going over his morning mail, COACH BIBLE dictates a few letters to his secretary. Plenty of letters from prospective grid stars find their way to the Coach's desk and each must have its individual answer. The many other duties that belong to an athletic director must be crowded into these morning hours.

One of those prospective grid stars, a high school senior, visits the campus and COACH BIBLE puts the Bible plan to work. He shows the boy around the campus and gives special attention to athletic trophy rooms which contain cups won by many famous Longhorn teams of the past.

Then comes the football business. COACH BIBLE calls his class of football players together and gives them a lecture on plays and formations for the next game. Blackboard talks are important to good football playing.

A Day with Bible

COACH BIBLE shows the team pictures of the last game. Motion pictures are made of all the games and are then shown in slow motion to the players. The Coach, in this way, can point out the errors and the good plays made by the individuals. It is a big help in teaching the game.

After the blackboard talks and the motion pictures comes the time to actually run through the plays they have been discussing. COACH BIBLE sits on the bench surrounded by a group of players waiting their turn. All are intently watching the activities that are taking place on the field.

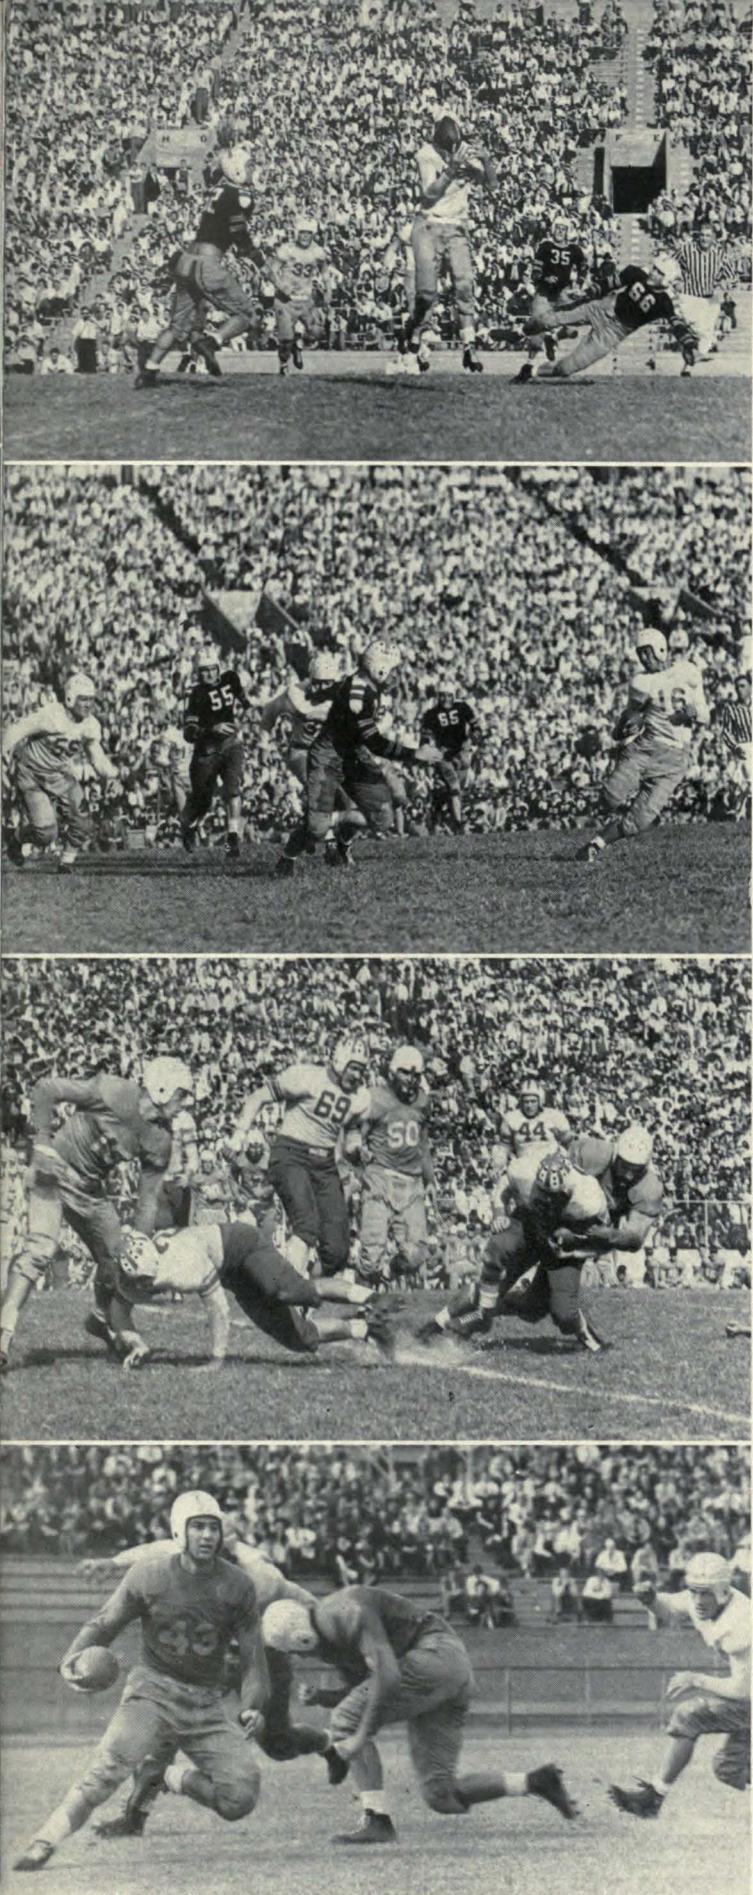

COACH BIBLE moves out to the field to point out the mistakes the team was making on that last play. The football heroes of Saturday must absorb a lot of punishment during the week in order to have the plays down perfectly. Any small mistake will probably ruin the carefully laid plans.

Then comes Saturday and COACH BIBLE again sits on the bench, this time surrounded by substitutes who are eager to try out what they have learned against a real foe. The smile on the Coach's face indicates that all is going well.

Conference Games

ARKANSAS

IN THEIR FIRST Conference game the Longhorns suffered their worst defeat in forty-five years, receiving a 45-to-6 setback from the University of Arkansas on October 15 in Little Rock. However, the Longhorns drew first blood; they made their first score of the Conference on a spectacular play by John Peterson. Peterson blocked a Razorback punt on the Texas 40-yard line and galloped 60 yards to a touchdown. Before the end of the first period, the Razorbacks had scored and kicked goal, and the lead was theirs for keeps. The Porkers scored three times in the second quarter and two times in the third. The Longhorns tightened their defense and held the Arkansas boys scoreless in the last period. Jack Rhodes, hefty left guard, did a good job for Texas and broke up some fast plays. Peterson and Roy Baines also did good work in the line.

RICE

ON OCTOBER 22 in Houston a much improved Texas team went on the field against the Rice Owls only to be edged out in the last two minutes of play by a score of 13 to 6. A strong Texas line held the much favored Owls to a single score until the last two minutes when Scat Sullivan broke the 6-to-6 deadlock with his scoring plunge from the 2-foot line. Starting off early, the Longhorns worked the ball past midfield in the first quarter, and Wally Lawson shot a 31-yard pass to Bullet Gray for the opening touchdown. Big Ernie Lain passed to Cordill for the Owls' first tally. The Texas guards were the bulwark of a defense that was the best Texas showed all year. Jack Rhodes, aided by Charlie Naiser, stopped Rice backs time and time again as he turned in one of the best games of his career.

SOUTHERN METHODIST

ON OCTOBER 29 for the sixth straight time the Longhorns failed to convert, and consequently lost their sixth straight game. It was S.M.U., playing in Memorial Stadium, that capitalized on the inaccuracy of the Longhorns' placekickers to win 7 to 6. The Mustangs gained the lead in the second quarter on a pass and successful conversion. But Game Captain Bill Forney almost brought the game out of the fire when he intercepted Ray Mallouf's pass on the 15-yard line and raced across the goal-line. Beefus Bryan's kick was wide, leaving the score 7 to 6 in favor of the Ponies. In the Texas line it was Rhodes and Don Williams who stood out in both offense and defense. In the backfield it was Forney and Wes Boyer who turned in the best performances.

BAYLOR

BULLET BILL PATTERSON led the Baylor Bears to a 14-to-3 victory over the Longhorns in Austin on November 5, after the Longhorns had held a 3-to-0 lead for two quarters. The fans were amazed when Lawson elected to try a field goal with a strong wind in his face. However, the kick was good, and the Longhorns were in the lead. Once again the fans were thrilled when Wes Boyer almost got away on an off tackle play that was finally stopped by the Baylor secondary. The Bears scored twice on the same pass play from Patterson to Boyd. This combination proved too much for the Longhorn defense which seemed to melt under Patterson's uncanny accuracy. Standouts for Texas were as usual Rhodes and Naiser in the line and Wally Lawson in the backfield.

TEXAS CHRISTIAN

THE LONGHORNS fell victim of diminutive Davy O'Brien's passes in Fort Worth on November 12. T.C.U. won easily by a score of 28 to 6. The Longhorn defense stiffened and stopped the Frog running attack very nicely. John Peterson and Don Williams rushed O'Brien quickly and made him work fast. Peterson also led the way for the Longhorns' lone tally by intercepting an attempted lateral. A pass brought the ball to the 2-yard line and Gilly Davis plunged over for the touchdown. The excellent line backing of Glenn Jackson and Bill Forney was a big factor in the inability of the Frogs to gain through the line. Davis reeled off some nice gains for the Longhorns, and right tackle Bernie Esunas turned in a good defensive game.

TEXAS A. & M.

IT IS WRITTEN in the books of football destiny that the mighty maroon warriors of Texas A. & M. shall not trample the Orange and White of Texas on the Longhorns' own field. Thursday, November 24, 1938, proved this to be true, for the shattered forces of Dana Bible rallied for two glorious hours and accomplished the impossible, Texas 7, Texas A. & M., 6! The Longhorn defense was working perfectly and the men were all fighting their hardest. When Kimbrough, Todd or some other Aggie back cracked into the line, somebody else met him. Many times it was Bernie Esunas, playing by far the greatest game of his career, who stopped the big boys. But it was good old Roy Baines who dashed through and blocked the kick that gave Texas the victory. Texas' victory march started 46 yards from home. Wally Lawson ripped through the Aggie line twice to the 30-yard line and Bryan swung around end to the 17. Lawson gave the ball to Puett who went to the 3-yard line and over for the score on the following play. Lawson's kick was good and the score was 7 to 0. The Aggies scored near the end of the game on a punt blocked behind the goal-line.

THE LARGEST and most promising group of freshmen in many years answered the summons to start football practice shortly after school opened. Ed Price, freshman coach, had twelve complete teams to send against the Varsity in practice sessions.

The freshmen played three games, winning two, and the rest of the time they spent learning the plays of Conference foes to use in scrimmage with the Varsity. The Yearlings defeated Seguin Lutheran College 20 to 3 and lost to the Rice Slimes by the narrow score of 3 to 0. The third game was played against the freshmen from Texas A. & M. on Wednesday before the big Varsity game and was won by the same score as the Varsity game, 7 to 6.

A real upset, that caused considerable speculating as to next year's team, was the Yearling-Varsity game which the Yearlings won by a score of 13 to 12. This game and the many practice sessions as well as the three games with outsiders revealed many prospective Varsity players for next year's team.

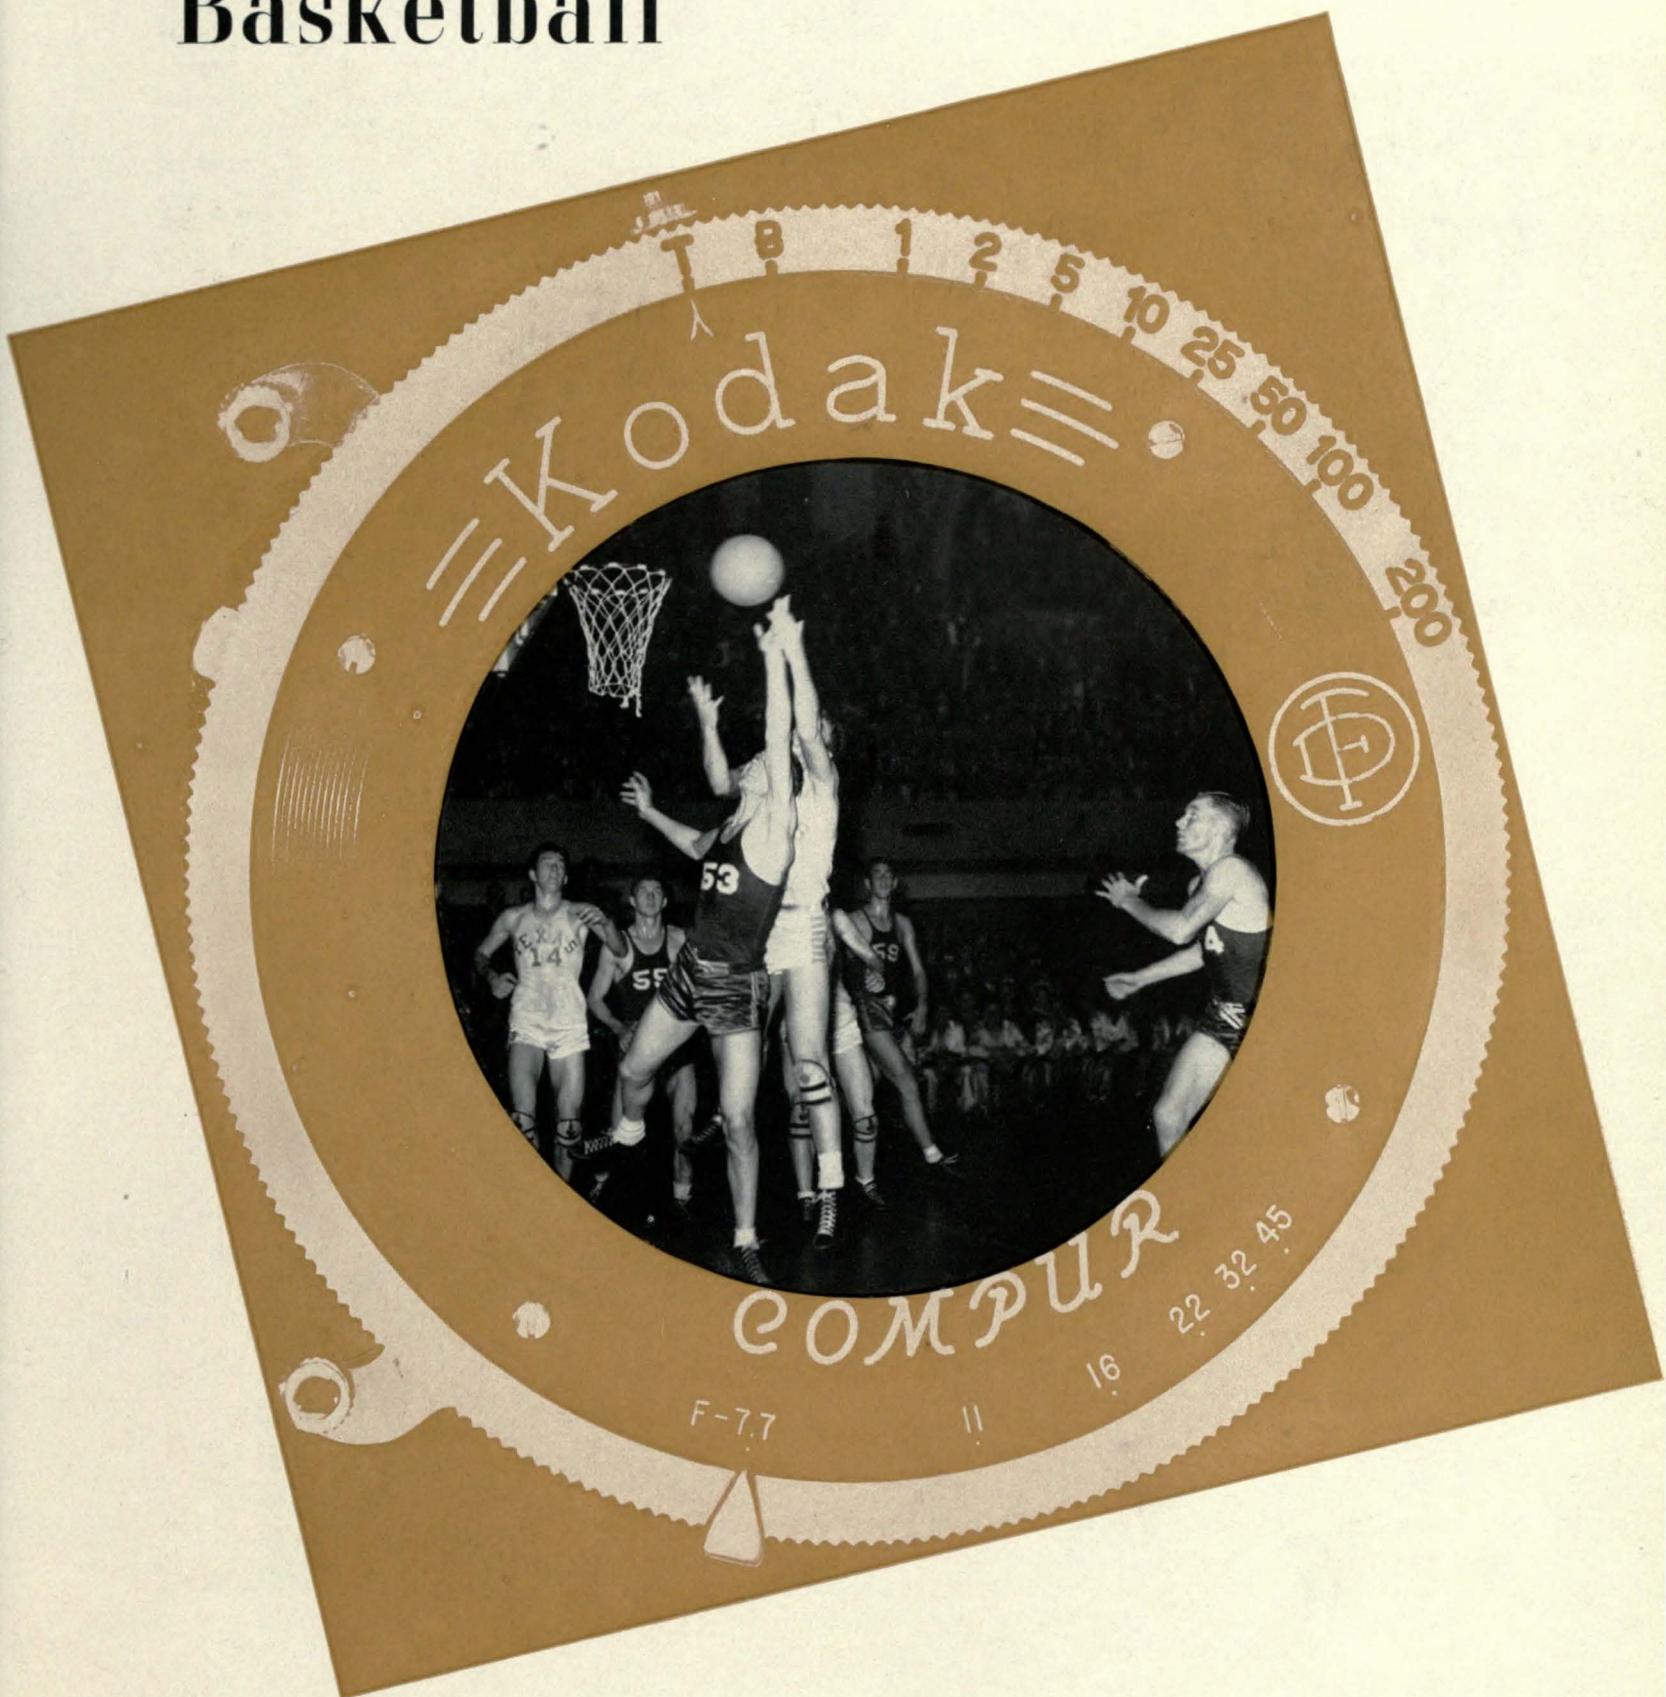

Among the outstanding freshman players were Jack Crain, captain of the freshman squad, R. B. Patrick, Jesse Hawthorne, Raymond Mayes, Cam Harrell, Noble Doss, Chal Daniel, Malcolm Kutner, Joe Schwarting, and James Stephens.

Freshman coaches are Price, Jack Gray, Jud Atchison, and Clint Small. Clyde Littlefield coaches the "B" team.

JACK GRAY

Season Review

The 1939 University of Texas basketball team, winner of the Conference championship, enjoyed the most successful season it has had since the promotion of its youthful coach, Jack Gray, to the varsity helm in 1936. In the course of the season the Longhorns succeeded in making three accomplishments at which future Texas cagers can shoot.

The Longhorns not only drew more people to one game, the Baylor, than ever before attended a game in the South, but they also smashed all attendance records for one team in the Southwest Conference, drawing more than 58,000 fans into Gregory Gymnasium. Thirdly, the Longhorns ran up the fine record of nineteen victories in a total of twenty-three games and received the nomination from the Southwest area to go to the N.C.A.A. championship playoff in San Francisco.

The showing of the team in the opening games did not predict the winning of the Conference championship, but it did show that Texas was likely to be a determined contender. Texas and Arkansas became the favorites for the title after Southern Methodist, Baylor, and Rice were finally put out of the running. Rice stayed in the race until the last few games when a defeat by Texas put the Owls out of the running. The last week of play saw the Razorbacks with a chance at the title provided they won their two games with Rice and the Longhorns should lose to A. & M. However, Texas didn't lose to A. & M. and that victory gave the Longhorns their first Southwest Conference basketball title in a long time.

The Longhorns did not fare so well at the N.C.A.A. Tournament in San Francisco losing to Oregon the first night. However, Oregon went on to win the National Championship.

Basketball 1939

The Longhorns opened the basketball year with a pre-Conference game in San Marcos against the Southwest Texas State Teachers' College Bobcats. The Texas team displayed great offensive power and won easily. Following this encounter the Longhorn cagers defeated the American Liberty Pipeliners of Kilgore and a few days later won a second game from the Bobcats.

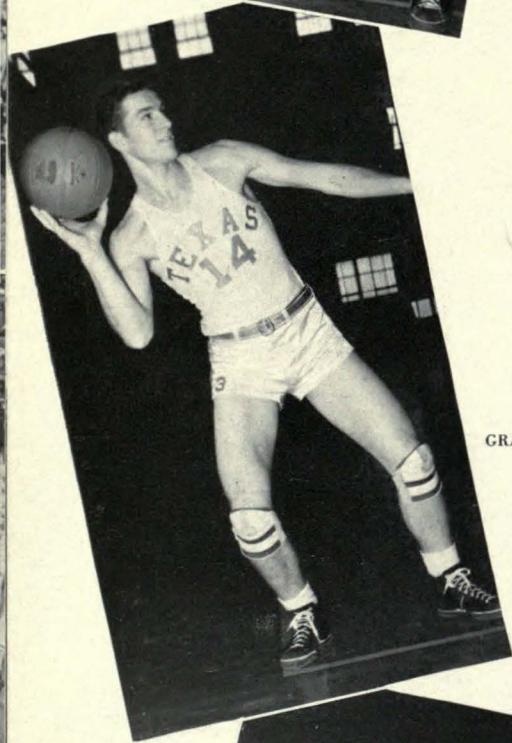

Then, on December 16 and 17, the Texas team faced the powerful Kansas Jayhawks from Lawrence with Coach Gray matching wits with the dean of all basketball mentors. Phog Allen. In this series, the Longhorns defeated the mid-westerners in the opener, but lost the second game when the Kansans opened up a blistering offense.

The Longhorns next took off for a trip to Oklahoma City during the Christmas holidays to enter the All-College Tournament, one of the strongest pre-season meets in the country. In a field of thirty-two entries, the Longhorns were seeded second behind the Oklahoma A. & M. team, defending champions. The Texas team blasted through their bracket, defeating the Southwest Teachers of Oklahoma, Westminster College of Missouri, Emporia Teachers of Kansas, and Baylor. In the finals the Longhorns, weary and battered from four close games, were nosed out by the Warrensburg Teachers of Missouri, the National Intercollegiate champions last year.

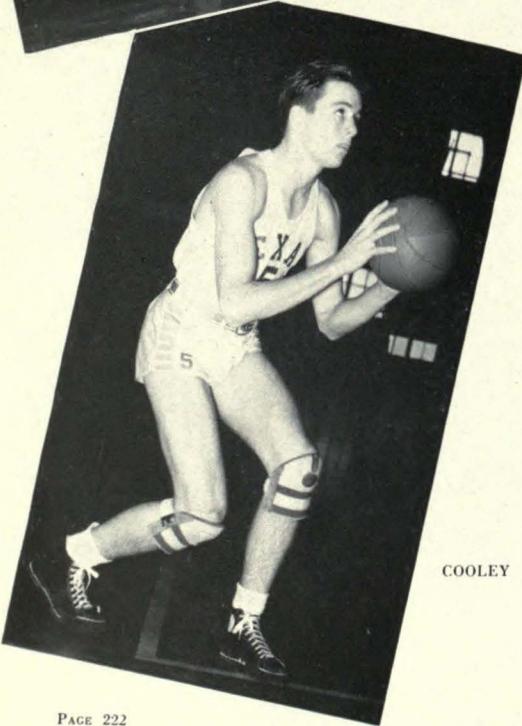

Bobby Moers' tricky dribbling won for him a place on the All-Tournament team. Other Texas stars of that meet and of the season were Oran Spears, Willie Tate, captain, Elmer Finley, Thurman Hull, Chester Granville, and Denton Cooley.

RICE

The Longhorns opened the Conference season with a defeat administered by the Rice Owls in Houston on January 7. The Owls took the game with a spot passing attack in the second half, winning by a score of 45 to 41. Texas was leading 20 to 19 at the half. Bobby Moers and Thurman Hull put up a grand fight to tie for scoring honors with eleven points each.

The Texas cagers met the Rice Owls again on February 25 in Gregory Gymnasium and this time the story was different. Texas, already in the lead for the title, clinched a tie by defeating Rice 50 to 41. It was rough going all the way for the Orange and White and the outcome remained in doubt until the last minutes when Texas moved out in front with a comfortable lead. Levi Craddock of Rice took the scoring honors with fifteen points. Chester Granville was high point man for Texas with thirteen points.

ARKANSAS

The Longhorns played their second and third games against the Conference favorites, the Arkansas Razorbacks, on January 13 and 14 in Gregory Gymnasium. The series was split with the Longhorns taking the first game, 41 to 37, and Arkansas winning the second by the overwhelming score of 65 to 41. This was the largest score made against Texas during the season. The Arkansas team had been missing easy shots all season until the second game with Texas when the Razorbacks suddenly started finding the basket without any trouble.

Baylor

The Longhorns started their northern road schedule on January 18 in Waco with a victory over the Baylor Bears. The Texas cagers trailed for the first thirty-three minutes but finally came through to win, 36 to 31. It was Baylor's first defeat in three starts in the Conference race, but it was the second time Texas had defeated the Bears, the first time being in the Oklahoma tournament.

Texas met Baylor again on February 18 in Gregory Gymnasium before a record crowd. It was a dramatic, high-gearred game from the start and left the enthusiastic crowd in a state of nervous exhaustion as Texas won 41 to 39. The Texas playing was typical of most of their games with the entire team sharing honors. The lead changed eight times and was tied five times.

Southern Methodist

The Longhorns continued their victory march by defeating the S.M.U. Mustangs in Dallas on February 6, by the score of 33 to 27. It was the Mustangs first Conference defeat. The game see-sawed throughout the first half with the period ending in a 14-to-14 draw. The Mustangs held the lead in the second half until Bounding Bobby Moers broke into a last-minute sprint to play the Mustangs to a standstill.

Bobby Moers again stole the show when the Mustangs were defeated by the Longhorns in Gregory Gymnasium on February 15 by a score of 38 to 21. This game placed the Longhorns in a definite role as favorites for the championship. A defense that refused to yield and a calm offense that never got rattled decided the game for Texas. Oran Spears limited J. D. Norton, all-Conference forward, to a meager four points.

TEXAS CHRISTIAN

Bobby Moers engineered a five-point spurt in the last four minutes of play against T.C.U. in Fort Worth on February 7 to give the Longhorns a 32-to-28 victory. This triumph gave the Texas cagers a sweep of their North Texas invasion. The Longhorns held the edge throughout the first half with Moers, Elmer Finley, and Denton Cooley scoring on slick plays. In the second half the Frogs pulled up steadily until the last five minutes when Moers finished things up.

In the game with the Frogs on February 22 in Gregory Gymnasium, the Longhorns won easily, 53 to 26. It was the eleventh straight loss for the Horned Frogs and placed Texas nearer to the title. Virtually every man on the Texas team played and the Longhorns won as they pleased.

A. & M.

The Longhorns downed the fighting Aggies at College Station, 41 to 37, on February 11. The Longhorns had a twelve-point lead for some time but midway in the second half the hustling Aggies started finding the basket and had whittled the margin to four points as the gun sounded.

The Orange and White basketball team won its first Conference championship since 1933 when it crushed the Aggies on March 3 in Gregory Gymnasium, 66 to 32. The entire team was right; the shots and plays just couldn't miss. Wee Willie Tate ended his eligibility by turning in his best performance. He scored twenty points. Warren Wiggins and Joe Roach also finished their basketball careers.

THE FRESHMAN BASKETBALL SQUAD, while not quite so outstanding as last year's, had a very good season and showed promise of providing some good sophomores for next year's varsity. The team defeated Schreiner Institute twice, once in Gregory Gymnasium preceding the Texas-Baylor game. The Yearlings lost to the Rice Slimes in Houston, 50 to 35, the same night that the Varsity lost its Conference opener to the Owls.

The Texas freshmen also defeated Texas Lutheran College at Seguin, 35 to 23, and the A. & M. Slimes, 32 to 31, at College Station.

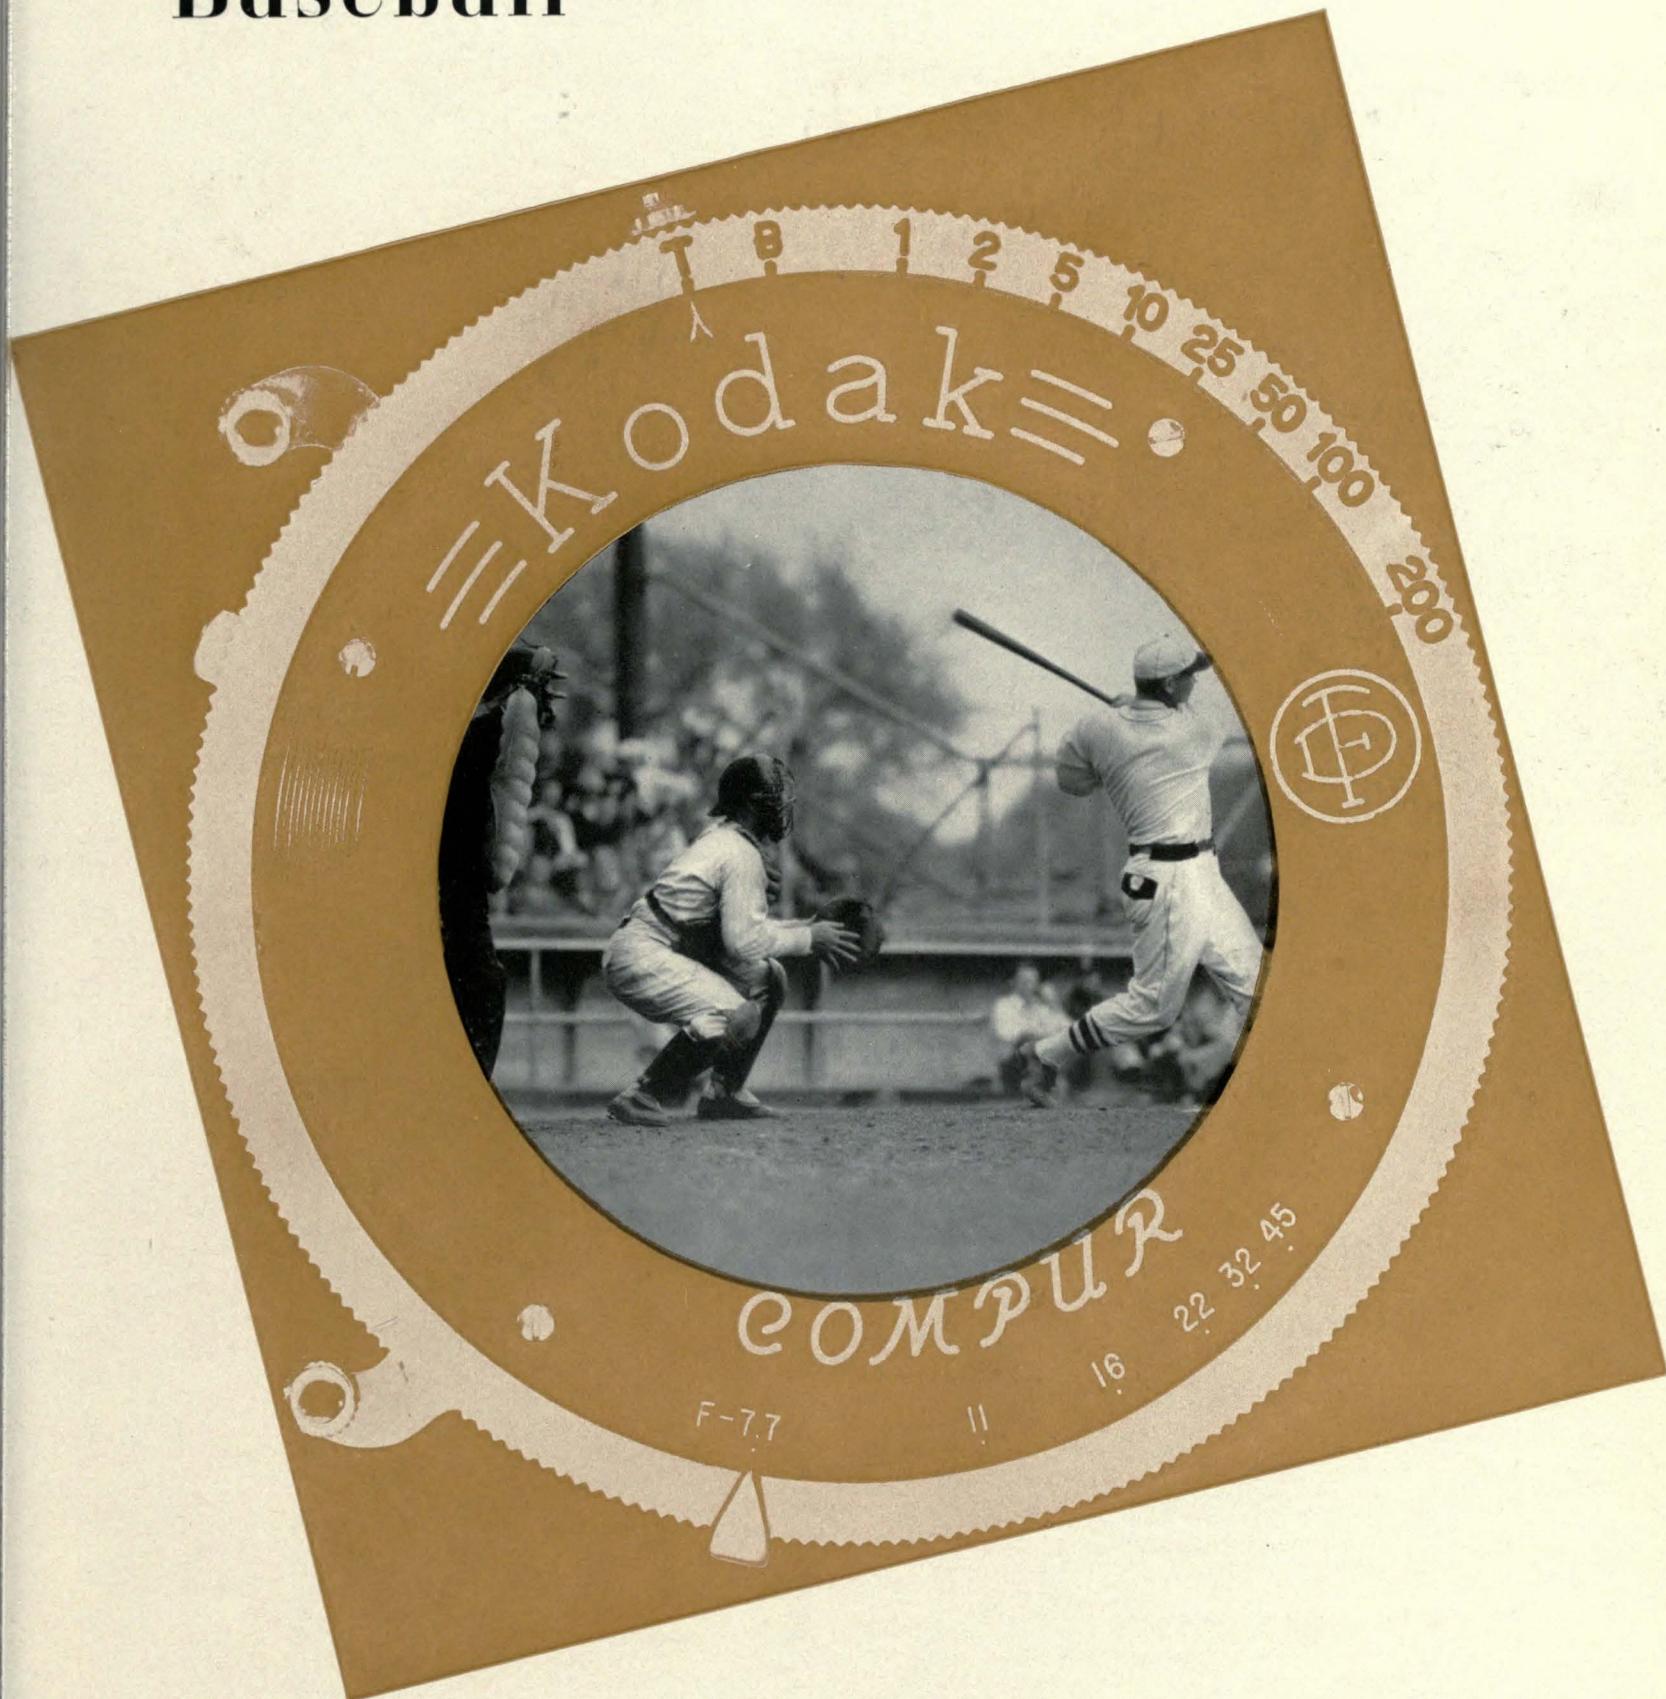

There were many high school stars on the freshman team and all played well. Leslie Croucher was named captain of the squad. Others on the team were Malcolm Kutner, George Peabody, Robert Amundsen, Ed Headington, Robert Rustin, Joe Weaver, Curtis Klaerner, Ralph Baggett, Frank Brahaney, Jackson Hinds, C. J. Coker, Arthur Bowman, Joe Fleming, George Medley, Elton Hailey, Dudley King, A. L. Smalley, Harold Levy, John Barringer, Bill Parker, C. B. White, and Elwood Weylandt.

Season Review

Unparalleled in the history of college baseball is "Uncle Billy" Disch's record. In the space of twenty-seven years, he has piloted the Longhorns to nineteen championships, and many of his former players have attained the highest of ambitions in baseball—that of playing for a major league club.

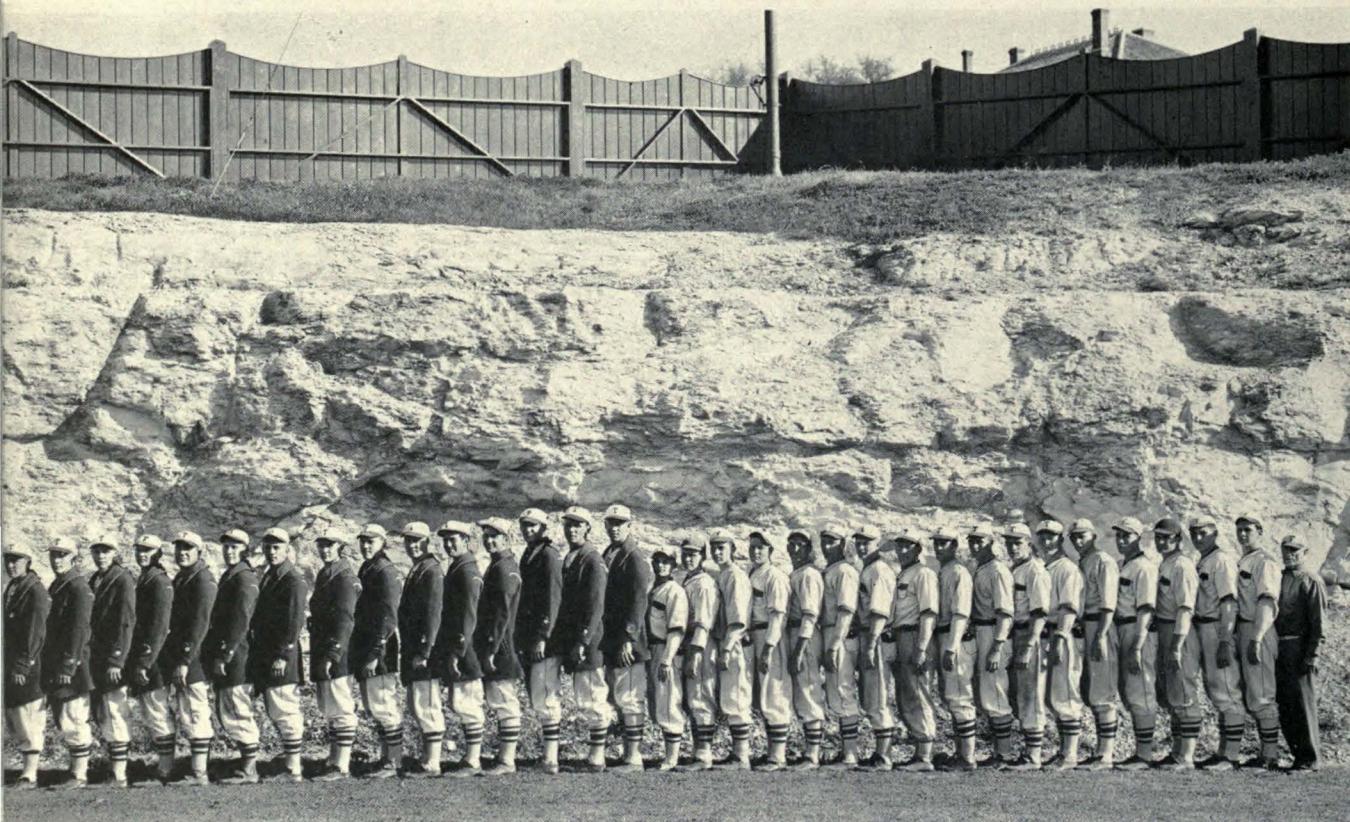

Coach Disch placed a baseball nine in the 1938 Conference race that ran roughshod over most of the opponents to win eleven straight Conference games before undergoing a late season slump of two games. The team then won the Conference championship by beating A. & M. 12 to 7 on May 21.

Five lettermen were on hand at the beginning of the season. They were Captain LeRoy Westerman, Zane Lawhon, Vernon McMurrey, Jack Conway, and Wallace Lawson. Newcomers showed up very well to give Texas a well-balanced, hard-hitting team that won out over its closest rivals, Baylor and A. & M.

Fifteen baseball players received letters at the close of the season. They were Jack Conway, Joyce Rawe, Jim Maedgen, Zane Lawhon, John Garnett, Ned McDonald, John Hill, Vernon McMurrey, Robert Moers, Robert Evans, Clarence Pfeil, LeRoy Westerman, Wilson Smith, Wallace Lawson, and Bill Cousins, manager.

Out-of-Conference Games

Pre-Conference games did not forecast a championship for the Longhorns, for they lost the first four games played. The Tulsa Oilers were the first opponents that Texas met, and the Texas Leaguers got an early lead, kept it, and won, 6 to 4. The highlight of this first game was the brand of ball displayed by both teams. An errorless ball game was played, and the Longhorns completed six double plays to stop many Oiler threats.

Texas lost its next two games to one of the best college teams in the United States, Oklahoma University, on March 21 and 22 at Clark Field. Oklahoma won the first game of the series by a score of 8 to 7, but it took the Sooners all of nine innings to win, as Texas went to bat in the last inning trailing by three runs. In the last inning, Texas made two runs, and had the bases filled when the last out was made. Oklahoma University won the second game 4 to 0 by scoring four runs in the first inning off Charles Still, who was relieved by John Garnett. After the first, Garnett had complete control of the Big Six batters.

On March 23, Texas went to Seguin to play Tulsa again, and the Oilers won 12 to 5 by getting fifteen hits off the Longhorn pitchers.

If baseball scores can be compared, the Longhorns were World Champions on April 9 when they defeated the Houston Buffs, who had just beaten the New York Yankees the previous week. In a story-book finish, Texas got three scores in the ninth inning after two outs had been made. Garnett went the full route and Robert Evans led the hitting for the Longhorns with three hits out of four times at bat.

Conference Games

RICE

The first Rice game opened the Conference season on March 26 in Houston with a 5-to-2 victory for Texas. The erratic Rice nine never got into the lead after Texas pushed across the first run in the first inning. Garnett had one of his invincible days, allowing only four hits. The first fourteen men to face him were retired in order.

On April 28, the Longhorns blanked Rice 9 to 0 in their second game with the Owls. Garnett again pitched and gave only five scattered hits, while picking three Owl runners off first base. This was the second straight shut-out for Garnett, having blanked Baylor 5 to 0 on April 22.

TEXAS CHRISTIAN

The Texas nine won three easy games from T. C. U. in 1938. The first victory was won by a score of 21 to 2 with Garnett, Johnny Langerhans, and Fields facing the T. C. U. batters in Austin on March 31. Garnett also showed that he could hit by getting two hits in two times at the plate.

The second game also went to Texas 13 to 5. The same three pitchers of the first game pitched for the Longhorns. The features of the game were Johnny Hill's terrific drive over the right field wall and Captain Westerman's four-base blow.

A pitching duel between Ned McDonald and Durwood Horner of T. C. U. marked the third Frog game in Fort Worth on May 9. McDonald gave only six hits and finally won 3 to 0.

SOUTHERN METHODIST

Only two games were played against Southern Methodist University in 1938, but the Longhorns won both of them. Guy Aldridge won the first game in Dallas on May 6, 10 to 3, with all of the Mustang scores being unearned. Four walks by Garnett and errors by the Texas team gave S. M. U. its three runs in the fourth inning. Westerman was the batting star of the game, getting four hits out of five times at bat.

The remaining game of the series was played in Austin during Easter vacation. The Longhorns, with good fielding and hitting in the pinches, got a 5-to-2 victory.

BAYLOR

April 22 opened the crucial series in Waco with the Bears. Behind the shut-out pitching of Garnett, the title-bound Longhorns won 5 to 0. Garnett was the star of the game both defensively and offensively. He gave only one questionable hit, and the big pitcher got a triple, double, and single in four times at bat. Johnny Hill, who also got three hits, made a home run for Texas' second score.

The next day, "Uncle Billy" and his Longhorns defeated Baylor 11 to 1. They got five runs across in the first inning to give an early lead to Ned McDonald who went the full distance for Texas. Only three hits were obtained from him. Bobby Moers handled seven chances in the field without an error and got three hits to lead the hitting for the afternoon.

Friday the thirteenth jinxed the Longhorns when they encountered Baylor for the third time. Texas' victory streak of eleven victories was broken by Tommy Fine, the Bear's pitcher, who won the game by a score of 9 to 7.

A. & M.

The Longhorns traveled to College Station on May 3 for their first game with the Aggies. They returned to Austin with a hard-hitting, high-scoring 18-to-13 victory after a three-hour battle. Five times the lead changed hands until Bob Evans, hitting star of the afternoon, hit his second long home run of the day scoring Westerman ahead of him. Evans also hit three singles to drive in six of the scores. John Garnett started the game for Texas as pitcher, but was replaced by Langerhans and McDonald. The latter received credit for winning the game.

The Aggies came to Clark Field on May 20 and 21 for two games that would decide the champion team of the Conference. A. & M. won an eleven inning game 13 to 9 the first afternoon. After ragged and brilliant playing, smart and bonehead playing, fruitless and successful rallies, the Longhorn nine gave way to the furious assaults of the A. & M. sluggers. Alsobrook of the Aggies broke up the game in the eleventh inning with a homer with two teammates on base.

The next day Texas trounced the Aggies 12 to 7 to win the Conference title. Garnett won the last game before an overflow crowd of more than 4000 persons. The Cadets got four runs off McDonald in the first four innings, but the championship team showed it could come from behind to win the game. Garnett relieved McDonald and held A. & M. until a safe seven-run lead was piled up. A six-run splurge by Texas was accomplished by only one hit in the eighth when the Aggies made five errors. Four seniors, Garnett, Jim Maedgen, McMurrey, and Westerman, thus ended their Longhorn careers by bringing the Conference flag back from College Station.

THE TEXAS YEARLINGS had neither a good nor a poor season in 1938. On April 13 they rallied in the ninth inning to down the Aggie Fish 4 to 3 behind the deceptive change of pace displayed by Pitcher Udell Moore. A. & M. came back, however, the next month to tie the series by winning 6 to 3 in a game full of errors.

Texas also split a series with Holy Cross Hall of Saint Edward's University when it won the second game on May 4 by a score of 6 to 2. St. Edward's had won the first game 2 to 1 on April 20 in a seven-inning game. Captain John Koschak led the Freshmen through the season, and Udell Moore and Dave Rodriguez were the most consistent pitchers on the squad. Ed Price is freshman baseball coach.

Track

It took seven years to do it, but Rice finally moved Texas off the top of the Conference in track and field events. For six straight years, the Longhorns had monopolized the Southwest Conference, but injuries, ineligibilities, hard luck, and a fellow named Fred Wolcott took the crown from the Longhorns in 1938.

The Texas monopoly was due largely to the efforts of Clyde Littlefield, coach of the track team. Littlefield, one of the most famous track coaches in America, has been coaching the Longhorns since 1921, and, in that time, he has placed eleven championship teams on the field, has taken five second places, and one third. He was an all-around athlete in U. T., taking part for four years in football, basketball, and track. He was basketball captain in 1916, played on two undefeated teams, and broke the world's record in the high hurdles. Littlefield was a member of the National Collegiate Association Track and Field Committee from 1932-1936 and is now on the Olympic Committee. Largely through his efforts the Texas Relays have become one of the outstanding athlete events in the country.

Eight lettermen returned in 1938 to form the nucleus of a well-balanced track team. These men were Hugh Graves, and Merwin Seay, co-captains, Jud Atchison, Wendell Siebert, Sam Pattillo, Hugh Wolfe, George Morris, and Wilson Lewis. Consistent track men such as Beefus Bryan, Milo Cox, George Delavan, Boyce Gatewood, Gilliam Graham, and Bernie Esunas joined the regulars to form a team that got within two and one-fifth points of the championship.

Season Review

The Texas team passed its first test on March 5 when it nosed out Rice Institute for a one-half point victory in the Sixth Annual Border Olympics at Laredo. Superiority in the field events gave the Longhorns the victory. Beefus Bryan pole-vaulted 13 feet for a new record, Milo Cox made a record-breaking high jump of 6 feet, 6 inches, Hugh Wolfe won the discus with a heave of 141 feet, and Graham completed the sweep of field events by winning the javelin throw. The Longhorn 880-yard relay team set a new record of 1 minute, 29 seconds. This meet gave notice that the Conference was to be a battle between Texas and Rice.

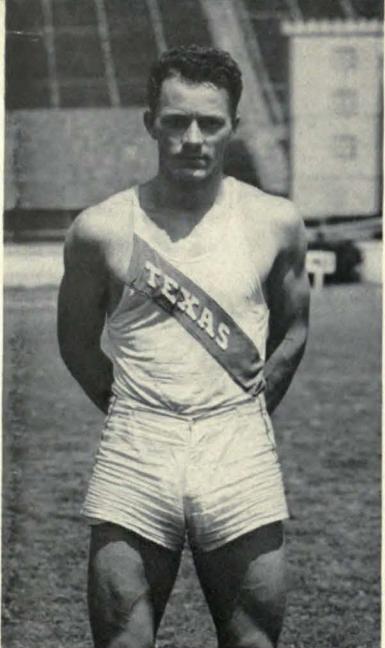

On March 19 in Fort Worth, Texas easily regained the title of the University class of the Southwestern Exposition Track and Field Meet when the Longhorns got nine firsts, seven seconds, and a scattering of thirds and fourths to make seventy points. The Aggies were second with thirty-four, and T. C. U. was third with twenty-one points.

Quadrangular Meets

On March 27 the Texas tracksters made their first home appearance a success by winning a quadrangular meet with San Marcos State Teachers' College, Howard Payne, and A. & M. Minnesota University, training here for the Texas Relays, unofficially entered the meet and took three firsts. Boyce Gatewood won the high scoring honors of the afternoon with thirteen points. The tall Texan took second in the 100-yard dash, won first in the 120-yard high hurdles, tying the Conference record of 14.5 seconds, and then took first in the 220-yard low hurdles with a time of 24 seconds flat. Gilliam Graham, ineligible, gave a fine exhibition by breaking the javelin Conference record every time he hurled the spear. Bryan, Wolfe, Cox, Morris, and Graves all won their specialties, and Wilson Lewis won the javelin throw for Texas. Score of the meet: Texas, 75; A. & M., 45; Howard Payne, 28; San Marcos, 22.

Another quadrangular meet was won in Austin on April 9 when Texas overwhelmed Baylor, S. M. U., and T. C. U. in Memorial Stadium. The well-balanced, point-getting squad piled up  $107\frac{1}{2}$  points while second place T. C. U. got only 41. The Longhorns won fourteen of the sixteen events. Wendell Siebert, track captain-elect for 1939, was the high scorer with  $11\frac{1}{4}$  points. He won the 440-yard dash, half-mile, and then ran a fast quarter-mile on the winning mile relay team. Gatewood was the other double winner, winning both the 120-yard high hurdles, and the 220-yard low hurdles.

Conference Meets

One week before the Conference meet, Rice, A. & M., and Texas held a triangular meet in Austin to decide who would be the favorite to win the Conference crown. The Longhorns swept through this "Little Conference" meet for a twelve-point advantage over the Owls. After Hugh Wolfe had won the discus, he was presented the T Association cup for the year's outstanding contribution to University athletics.

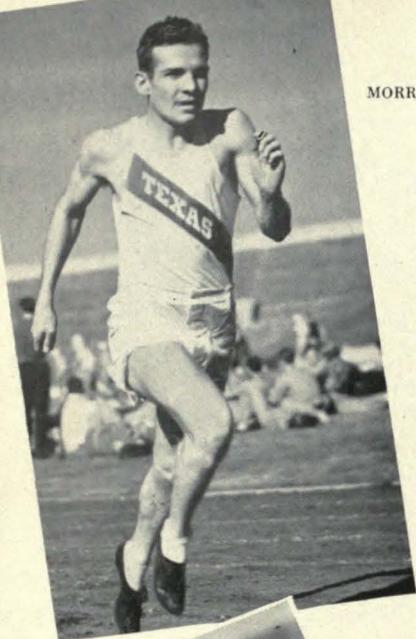

The Conference meet held in Dallas on May 13-14 was a different story. Hard luck handicapped the Texas tracksters throughout the afternoon as Bryan and Seay could not compete, Graham was declared ineligible, and the 440-yard relay team was disqualified for an illegal baton exchange. Nevertheless, stellar performances by the rest of the team constantly scared the Owls who won by the slim margin of two and one-fifth points. The mile relay team for Texas composed of Gatewood, Morris, Cox, and Siebert set a new record of 3 minutes, 16.7 seconds. The old record was one set by another Texas quartet in 1927. As throughout the season, most of the Texas points came in the field events with Wolfe winning the discus, Cox winning the high jump, Atchison and Cox taking the broad jump, and Edmunds tying for first in the pole vault. Thus Texas was knocked from the top of the Southwest Conference as track champions. The score of the Conference meet was:

Rice, 55-2/5 points; Texas, 53-1/5; A. & M., 25-1/5; T. C. U., 16; S. M. U., 13; Arkansas, 9; and Baylor, 4-1/5 points.

1938 Texas Relays

On April 2, 1938, Texas invited the cream of the nation's track stars to the world-famous Texas Relays and then proceeded to grab off the lion's share of the points. The entries for the 1938 Relays broke all former records as 1,175 athletes from 121 schools converged upon Memorial Stadium to thrill an estimated crowd of seven thousand persons.

Fred Wolcott of Rice was the star and high-point man of the afternoon. He started the events off by stepping the 120-yard high hurdles in 13.9 seconds—one-tenth of a second better than the world's record. The "Blonde Flash" later won the 100-yard dash and ran on two relay teams to score  $11\frac{3}{8}$  points.

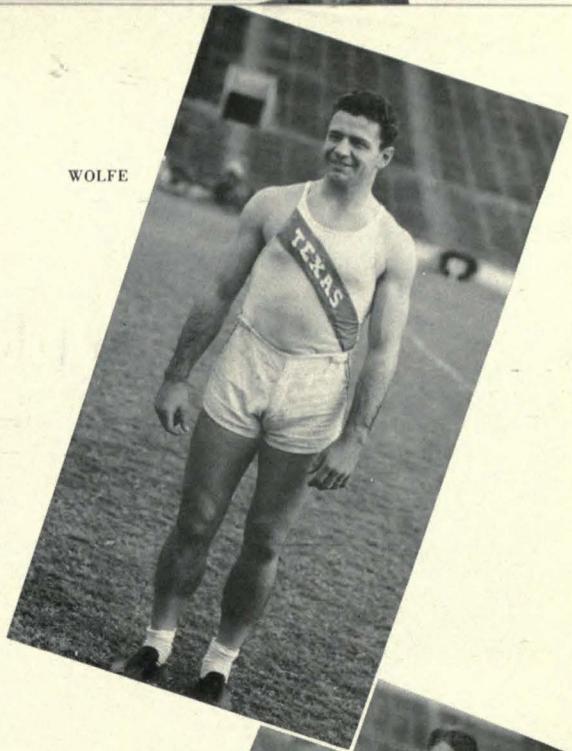

While Wolcott was the individual star, the Texas Longhorns put the best track squad on the field. They won two relays, were first in three special events, and tied for first in two other events to lead the University division. Beefus Bryan grabbed a first for Texas when he made a new record of 13 feet,  $10\frac{1}{8}$  inches in the pole vault. Graham won the javelin with a throw only one foot short of the Olympic mark set by Alton Terry but far over the Conference meet. His distance was 218 feet, 5 inches. Jud Atchison and Bob Hubbard of Minnesota continued their rivalry in the broad jump and tied for first in that event with a record-breaking leap of 24 feet,  $7\frac{3}{4}$  inches. Hugh Wolfe was another individual winner for Texas, winning the discus event with a heave of 143 feet, 2 inches.

The Texas relay teams showed smooth baton passing to win both the 440-yard and 880-yard relays. Graves, Gatewood, Morris, and Cox won the half-mile relay, and Graves, Atchison, Morris, and Cox made up quartet that took the quarter-mile relay. Cox also was one of the six who tied for first in the high jump with a 6-foot, 2-inch jump. Gatewood, one of the best hurdlers ever to wear a Texas uniform, starred in the opening event by taking a very close second to Wolcott in the 120-yard high hurdles. He also placed second in the 220-yard low hurdles. Two of the foremost hurdlers in the United States, Wayne Tolmich and Sam Allen, gave a special 120-yard high hurdles race, and Tolmich won the event. His time, however, was four-tenths of a second slower than that made by Wolcott earlier in the afternoon.

National Meets

The University of Texas trackmen did credit to their school and the Southwest on April 23 when they won three firsts in the Kansas Relays to top the field in the unofficial scoring. Bryan broke the Relays record by pole-vaulting 13 feet, 11 $\frac{3}{4}$  inches; Graham won the javelin throw, 212 feet, 6 inches; and Wolfe took the discus event, 147 feet, 5 inches. The Texas quarter-mile relay team got second, the half-mile relay team placed third, Atchison was third in the broad jump, Cox third in the high jump, and Gatewood ran fourth in the 120-yard high hurdles.

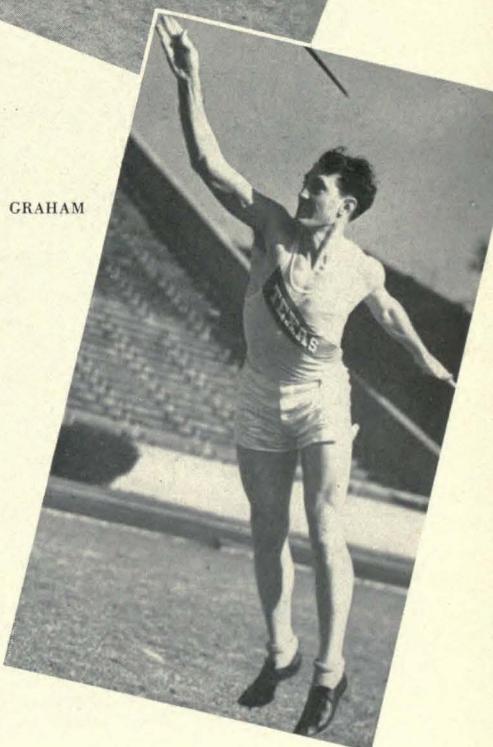

The next week-end, Texas tracksters traveled to Des Moines, Iowa for the Drake Relays. Graham again won his favorite event—the javelin throw, and the Longhorn quarter-mile relay team finished second to Rice after setting a new record in the preliminaries. The 880-yard quartet ran second behind Michigan State. Jud Atchison won the broad jump, Wolfe placed second in the discus, but Bryan, favorite in the pole vault, pulled a muscle and could not compete in the finals.

Five Texas men toured the big-time meets of the nation in June when Atchison, Gatewood, Cox, Graham, and Wolfe went to the Central Collegiate meet in Milwaukee and the National Intercollegiate meet in Minneapolis. They fared much better in the first meet held in Marquette stadium on June 11. Wolfe set a new discus record, and Cox and Atchison placed second in the high jump and broad jump, respectively. Gatewood finished the scoring for Texas when he placed fifth in the 220-yard low hurdles. The University of Southern California captured the Intercollegiate meet on June 19. Texas' only chance was lost when Wolfe, off form, failed to qualify in the preliminaries.

*Bottom row: HILL, LOSTAK, THOMPSON, HART, EDMINSTER.
Second row: LITTLEFIELD, McSPADDEN, GARRETT, ODUM, REED.*

The University of Texas cross country team has triumphed again. Under the guidance of Coach Clyde Littlefield and Assistant Coach O'Neal Reed the team won the Southwest Conference meet for the ninth consecutive year.

The meet, which was held November 19 in Dallas, was won by Texas when Joe Hart edged out his teammates, Joe Garrett and James Edminster, to come in first. Bardwell Odum, Tommie Lostak, Jesse Thompson, Longhorn captain, Thomas McSpadden, and Forest Hill placed.

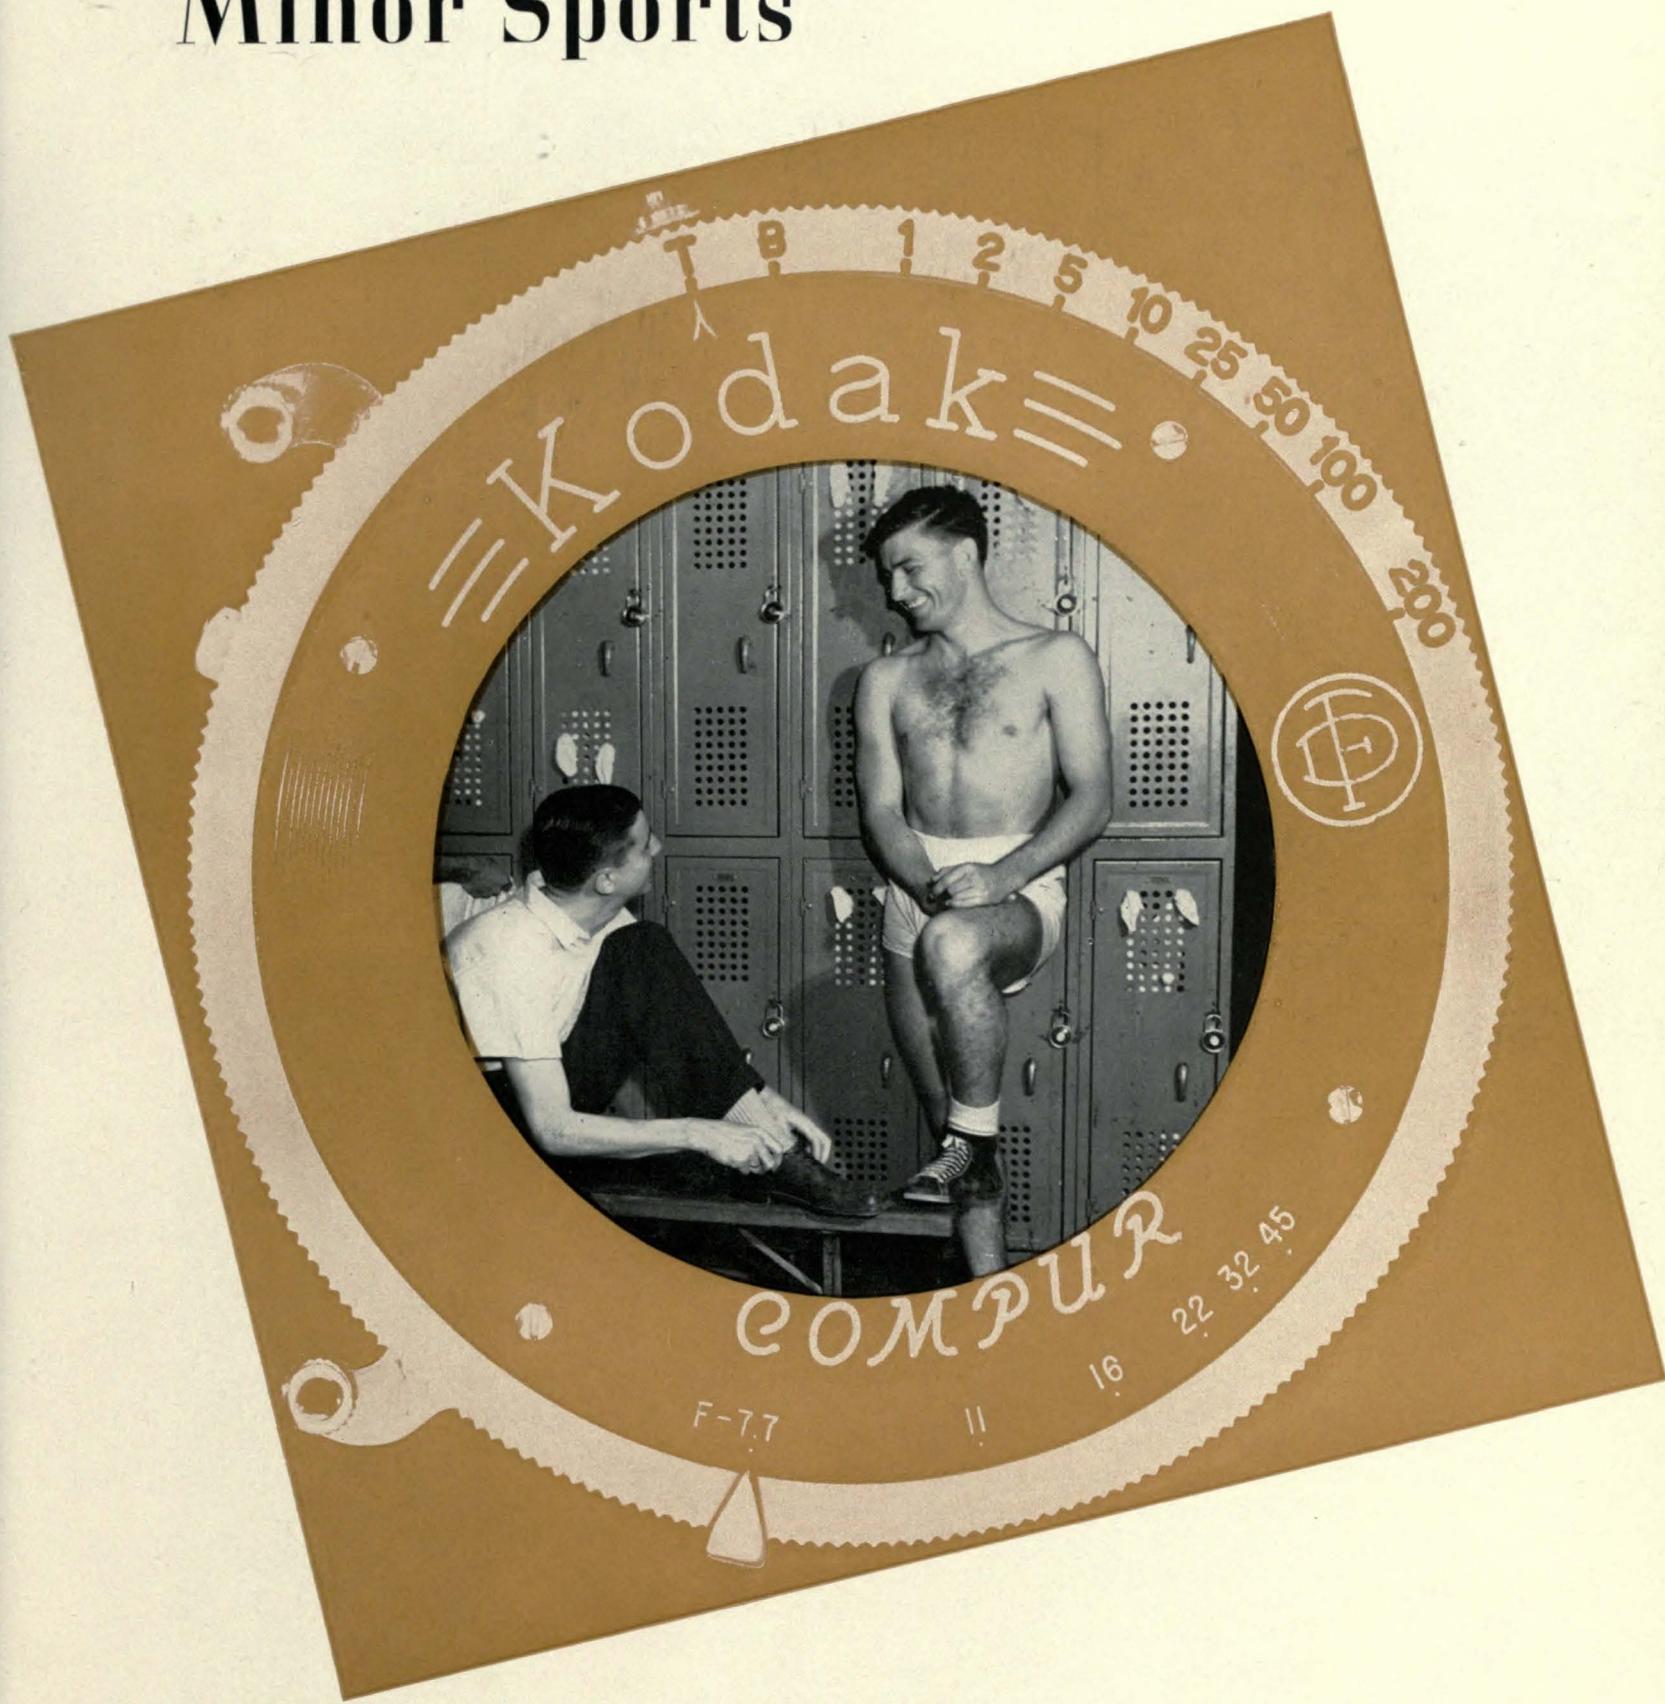

Meets were held with A. & M. College and with the University of San Antonio earlier in the season; and again the team was victorious as it has been for the past two years.

Joe Hart received the official Varsity letter. The following received the qualified "T" winged letter for placing in the first ten of the Southwest Conference meet: Joe Garrett, James W. Edminster, Bardwell Odum, Tommie Lostak, Forest Hill, Jesse Thompson, and Thomas McSpadden.

From coast to coast come players solely to get the expert tutelage of Dr. D. A. Penick, recognized throughout the world as one of the outstanding tennis coaches of this era.

The "Good Gray Doctor" began his tenure in 1899, but in his forty years of coaching, he has never yet been officially appointed to the position by the Athletic Council. He received his doctor's degree from John Hopkins University, and, in addition to coaching the tennis team to victory after victory, he is a professor of Classical languages and assistant dean in the College of Arts and Sciences.

A tennis team under the leadership of Coach Penick has never failed to win a championship. Many of his players climbed to international fame while under his sponsorship. Wilmer Allison, Berkley Bell, Martin Buxby, Bruce Barnes, and Karl Kamrath all put their names in the record book. He has tutored five men to the National Intercollegiate Championship—the most coveted crown in college tennis. Bell and Allison dropped out of the University to play on the Davis Cup tennis team.

Coach Penick's teams have won eighteen singles titles and have lost only four since 1916. Nineteen Conference doubles crowns have been grasped and only three have been lost—the last one twelve years ago. It is doubtful if any other tennis coach ever built up such a record.

PASCHAL WALTHALL

Led by Captain Paschal Walthall, eight lettermen returned in 1938 to keep the Conference doubles title won the previous year.

The Longhorns won their first pre-Conference meet by blanking the East Texas State Teachers' College. The first real test of the season came when Tulane University invaded Penick Courts. Tulane won, four matches to two, in a listless afternoon of play.

Texas became a major threat in national intercollegiate play on March 26 when Miami University, one of the strongest teams in the United States, came to Austin. This was the most important non-Conference meet for the Longhorns, and the team came through to gain an unexpected triumph by a score of five matches to four. Gardner Mulloy, star of the Miami group, beat Robert Kamrath, 6-4, 6-1 in the number 1 match. Edgar Weller, Warren Christner, Melvin Lapman, and Walthall won their singles matches to tie the score at four-all. The outcome of the meet hinged on the result of the final doubles. Two sophomores, Lapman and Christner, got off to a poor start, recovered and won the match 2-6, 6-3, 6-2. It was Lapman who stole the whole show from Mulloy and Kamrath.

Miami U. returned from a California trip to meet the fast traveling Texans again. Darkness halted play with the score standing four-all. Each team had won three singles and one doubles match.

The remaining pre-Conference meets saw Texas swamping Texas Tech and San Marcos Teachers' College. The team also won every division in the Southwest Intercollegiate Invitation Tourney held in Austin.

Tennis Review

The Longhorn team was undefeated in Conference play in 1938. Baylor opened the season on April 17, but all Texas players showed good early-season form and blanked the Bears in seven matches.

Southern Methodist University was the next opponent for the Texas netters, and again Texas won every match.

On April 29, the Aggies came to Austin in an attempt to upset the Texas team, but they were also blanked by the well-balanced and well-trained Longhorn players. Texas won all seven of the matches played.

Texas met the strong Rice Owls next in the dual meet which was to give an indication of the decisions in the Conference meet. The two teams were on equal terms throughout the afternoon, but the Longhorns finally came out as winner, four matches to two. Frank Guernsey, star for the Owls, could not be stopped, and he beat Kamrath, 6-3, 6-4. He then teamed with Lucia in a doubles match to win over Kamrath and Weller, 2-6, 6-3, 6-1. The Texas team got off to a good start, but wasn't able to hold the lead it obtained in the first set. Christner and Walthall led the Longhorns to victory by winning their singles matches and then teaming up to win a doubles match. Weller won the other singles for Texas.

Tennis Review

The Southwest Conference meet was held in Austin on May 12, 13, 14. Texas and Rice were the favorites with Guernsey and Kamrath being seeded number 1 and number 2 in the tournament. As predicted, these two went into the finals through virtue of Guernsey's victory over Weller, and Kamrath's win over his teammate Christner. Again, Kamrath could not stop the Rice star and lost 6-2, 6-2, 6-2. Guernsey, who later became National Intercollegiate Champion, was the star of the meet with his expert splitting of the base lines.

In the doubles tournament, Kamrath and Weller entered the finals by coming from behind against Holden and Campbell of Rice to win the semi-final match, 4-6, 10-12, 6-3, 6-2, 10-8. The exhausted Texans then met Guernsey and Lucia in the final matches and won before a large, enthusiastic crowd. The score was 7-5, 4-6, 6-3, 6-1. The two Longhorn netters played air-tight tennis, volleying accurately and breaking up the net attack of the Owlmen with well-timed lobs. The Texas team showed much better teamwork than the Rice men.

By winning the doubles Kamrath and Weller upheld the old tradition of University tennis that Longhorn net teams never fail to win at least one of the Conference titles.

Bobby Kamrath, upper left, is one of the nation's outstanding players. In 1938, he was ranked number 8 in the national intercollegiate rankings and number 23 in national singles.

Reuben Riskind, upper right, was number 1 on the 1938 freshman squad. He will lead the sophomores on the 1939 Varsity.

William Blalock, center, intently eyes the ball for a forehand drive.

Melvin Lapman, a very fine player, is shown in the lower left. He reached his peak of the 1938 season to upset the strong Miami University team.

The lower right picture is a good action shot of Blalock serving a fast ace.

Tennis

Warren Christner, upper left, was one of the "Big Four" of the 1938 net squad.

Melvin Lapman, upper right, was one of the best first-year men on the 1938 Varsity. He is from New York City.

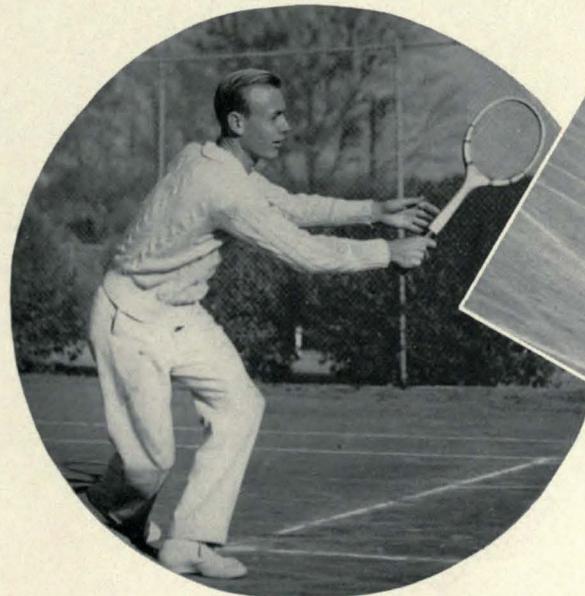

Harry Hickman, center, was a fine player on the 1938 freshman team and will aid Texas netters the next three years.

Maurice Fincher, lower right, was an excellent recruit from the freshman squad for the 1938 season.

Robert Kamrath, lower left, is a brother of Karl, a Texas star of several years back. Bobby is the captain of the 1939 tennis team.

SWIMMING

Tex Robertson, Longhorn swimming coach, has not only brought the University to the top in aquatic honors, but he has done a great deal for swimming throughout the State. Under him the Longhorns have won the Southwest Conference title four years in a row and have jumped from somewhere in the first thirty to third place in the nation's aquatic line-up. Tex learned to swim in Sweetwater, Texas, and attended the University of Michigan, where he became the Big Ten champion and record-holder in the middle distance events.

MIKE SOJKA
ADOLPH KIEFER
RALPH FLANAGAN

Among the campus entertainment features of the year was the annual Texas Aquacade which opened the local swimming season. This year the show was presented three nights to accommodate the crowds which squeezed into Gregory Gymnasium pool. Toni Yantis, shooting at targets over the water; Billy Brink and his spectacular fire dive; H. B. Howard and Billy Shirley in trapeze stunts; double dives by Brink and Hank Chapman; and the breaking of sixteen records by such stars as Ralph Flanagan, Adolph Kiefer, Mike Sojka, and Jane Dillard, all made up the biggest aquatic show ever seen in the Southwest.

SWIMMING

When representatives from six of the seven Southwest Conference schools met in Baylor University's new pool to decide the swimming champions for another year, the Longhorns were right on hand to take a first place in every event. A. & M. placed second and the rest of the teams trailed with a few points apiece.

The Conference meet closed the sixth season during which Texas mermen have come through undefeated by another Southwestern school. The only event they lost throughout the 1938-39 season was a water polo game with A. & M.

After romping victoriously through a schedule of dual meets with Southwest Conference schools, the Longhorns invaded the swimming powers of the north, competing in the National Intercollegiates at the University of Michigan. Here they jumped from fifth place in the nation's aquatic line-up to third, due mainly to the points captured by Adolph Kiefer in the free style events and to Billy Brink's fourth place in the three-meter diving. Others who took part were Mike Sojka, Wally Hoffrichter, Bob Tarlton, Hondo Crouch, captain; Bill Choniski, Babe Papich, Merrill Hickey, and Harris McClamrock.

THE LONGHORN GOLF TEAM under the able tutelage of Coach Harvey Penick, Austin Country Club professional, took its seventh consecutive Southwest Conference title in 1938.

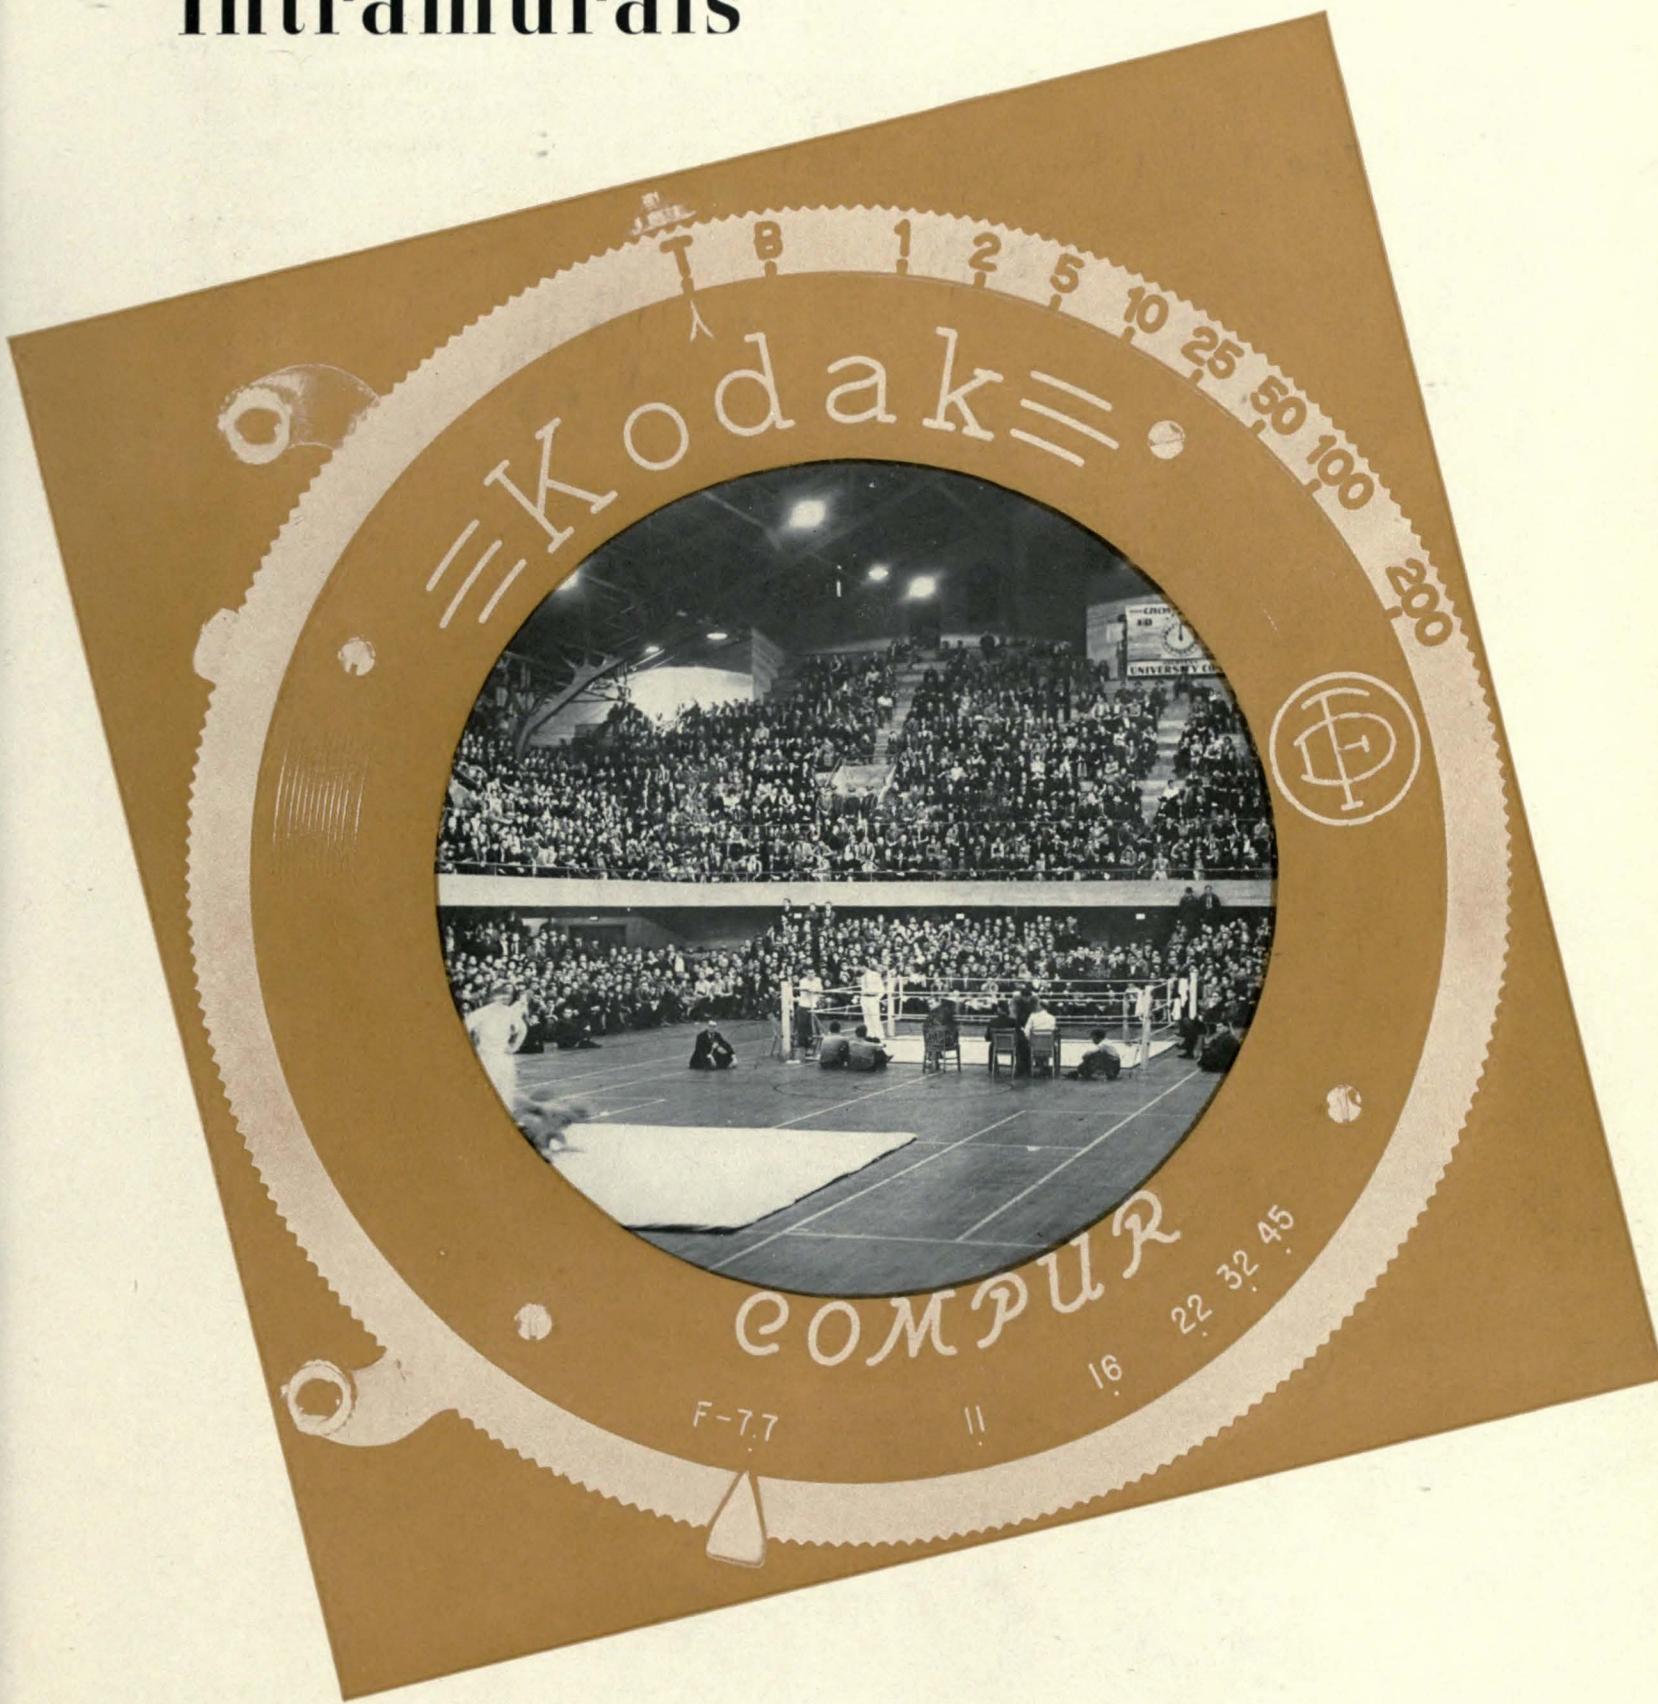

Before the Conference matches in May the Longhorns met and defeated three Conference schools. The Longhorns played A. & M. at the Austin Country Club on April 13 and defeated the Aggies four matches to two. They also defeated Rice and Southern Methodist. Texas Tech came to Austin on April 28 with what was considered a very strong team but the Tech team lost all six matches to a stronger Longhorn group.

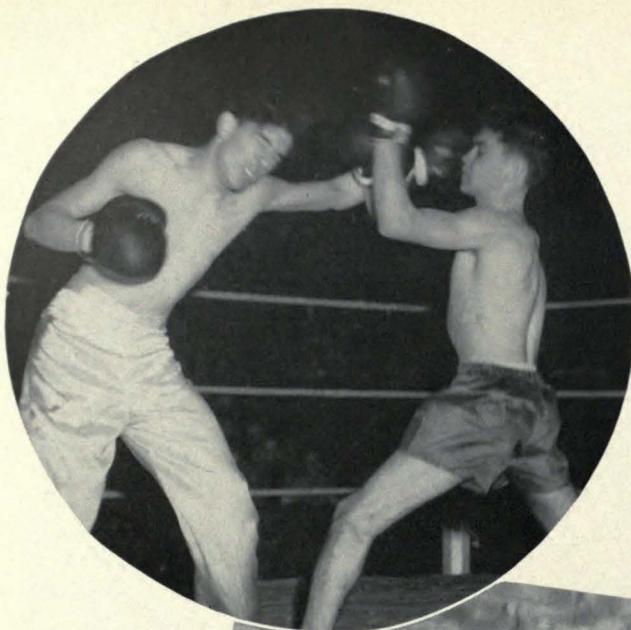

The team was composed of John Martin (Jack) Fouts, captain; J. Ward Fouts, Wayne Middleton, Guy Witherspoon, Walter Benson, and Ralph Sharpless. Members of the team were decided by a 72 hole medal play qualifying tournament.

Outside the state the Longhorns did not fare quite so well as with the Southwest Conference schools. Texas tied with Louisiana State, one of the strongest teams in the nation, and placed third in the Fourth Annual Southern Intercollegiate Golf Tournament held April 21, 22, and 23 at Athens, Georgia.

The Southwest Conference matches were held in Dallas on May 12 with Texas winning the team title and Rufus King of S.M.U. taking the individual title.

Intramurals

Fite Nite

Fite Nite, the big show of the year for the unknown athlete—the intramuralist, was held March 15 in Gregory Gymnasium. Berry Whitaker, director of intramurals for men, acted as the “ring-master” for the “circus.” Much of the success of Fite Nite this year was due to the efforts of the senior intramural managers (below) Joe Fazar, Alfred Schulman, and Evans Munroe.

Cauliflowers in the Making

Although boxing, wrestling, and basketball, as usual, received the most attention at Fite Nite, fencing, ping pong, and volley ball also received their share of the spotlight. Dean V. I. Moore presented the awards to the winners in these sports and to the winners in the intramural sports that were completed before Fite Nite.

BUSINESS AFFAIRS and general management of the three student publications, The Cactus, The Daily Texan, and the Texas Ranger, are supervised by the Texas Student Publications, Inc., a non-profit corporation organized in 1921 under the authority of the Students' Assembly.

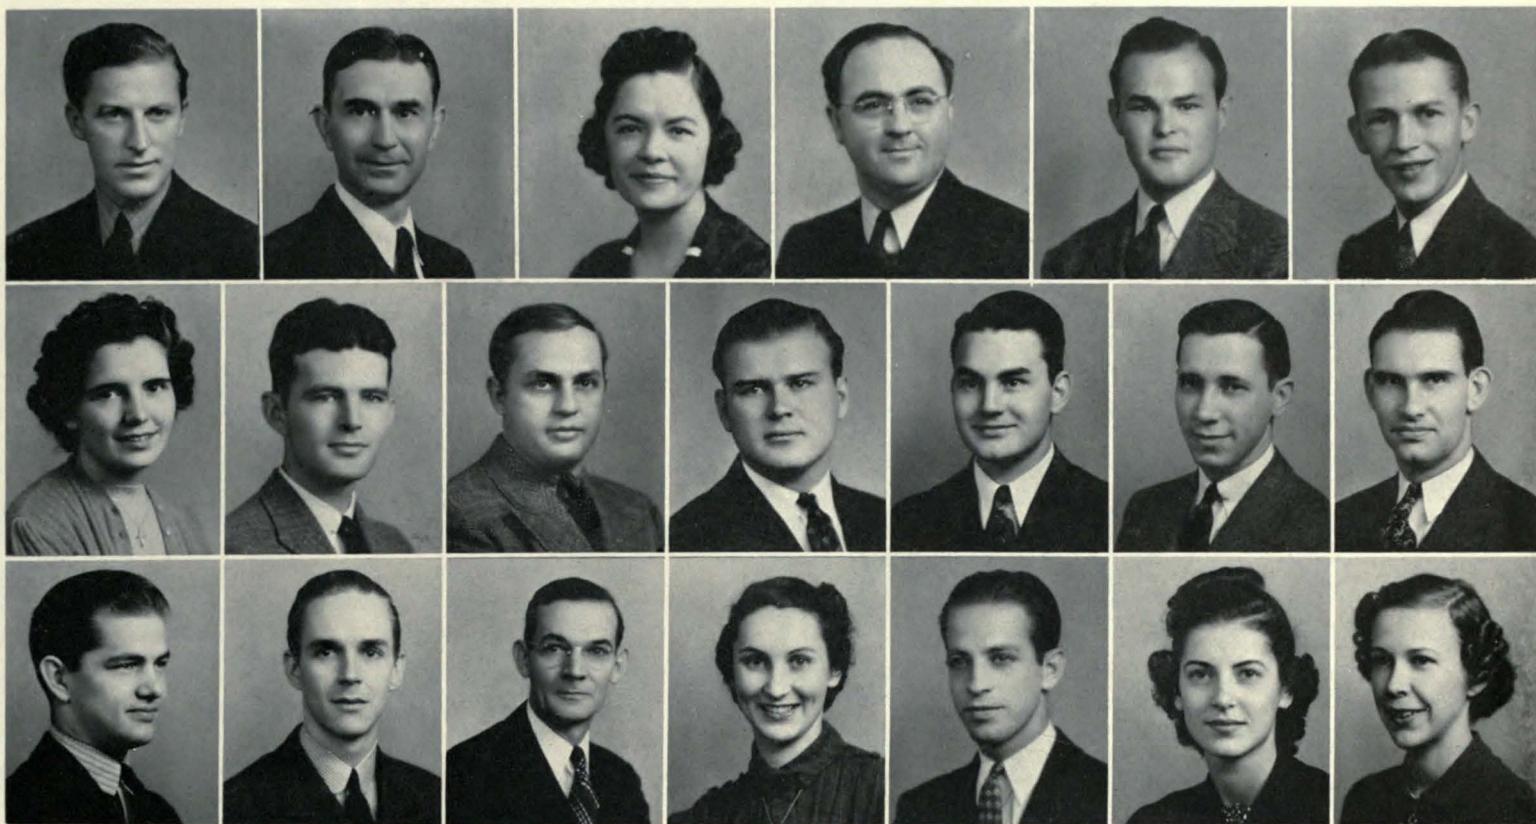

The Board of Directors of the corporation consists of three faculty members appointed by the President of the University, the editors of the three publications, two representatives from the Students' Assembly, and the president of the Students' Association. The Board acts upon matters of general policy, approves the budget, and names the director of the Student Publications, who serves as executive officer of the organization.

Members of the Board this year were Edward Crane, professor of law; J. Anderson Fitzgerald, dean of the School of Business Administration; Paul J. Thompson, chairman of the Department of Journalism; Pat Daniels, editor of The Daily Texan; Robert F. Townsend, editor of The Cactus; Alice Mary Adams Watts, editor of the Texas Ranger; John Bowden Connally, president of the Students' Association; Lillian La Verne Bryson and Lowell Lyndon Wilkes, representatives from the Students' Assembly.

The 1939

THE CACTUS STAFF this year was one of the largest and most capable staffs in many years. Al King, the associate editor, had one of the biggest tasks as editor of the chronology section. It fell to his lot to think of clever things to say about several thousand students whose pictures appear in the feature section. He also wrote the information about the buildings in the view section.

Capable work was also done by Charles Petet, editor of the fraternity section, and Elizabeth Niggli, editor of the sorority section, who compiled and wrote the copy for their parts of the book. Petet was assisted by Julius Seligmann, Warren Whitson, and Herbert Fisher. Jeanne Schneider, Mary Borden, Barbara Benton, and Betty Johnson assisted with the sorority section.

Mary Myles Mitchell, a very dependable and capable worker, had the task of editing three sections of the book, the campus section, stage and platform, and the dormitory division. She was assisted by Norma Kasch and Mary Katherine Metcalfe.

Most of the athletic section was compiled and written by Ross Brown. He handled all sports except football, which was written by H. L. Simpson, cross country, written by Homer Bly, and swimming, which was written by Paul Williams.

The honorary section was edited by John Wells with the very able assistance of Charles Keuper and Stanley Jung. Oma Ray Walker edited the club section. She was assisted by Jack Howard and Virginia Freeman. Virginia Parton handled the limelight section and Walter Mathis and Anita Darst were editors of the administration section.

Photography assistants on the staff were Amon Carter, Arthur Steel, Joe Demic, and Mary Hearne. Other members of the staff were Clyde La Motte, La Verne Bryson, Leslie Carpenter, Marjorie Osborne, Russell Leonard, Stanley Banks, Thomas U. # Cactus... A PICTORIAL RECORD

SINCE the 1939 Cactus is really an attempt to give a chronological picture of the year at The University of Texas, it has no formal theme. The enlarged feature section carries the greater part of the load of providing this picture of student life. It starts with registration and proceeds to give an almost day by day pictorial account of events having to do with the student body of the University. Every effort was made to have this section as representative as possible.

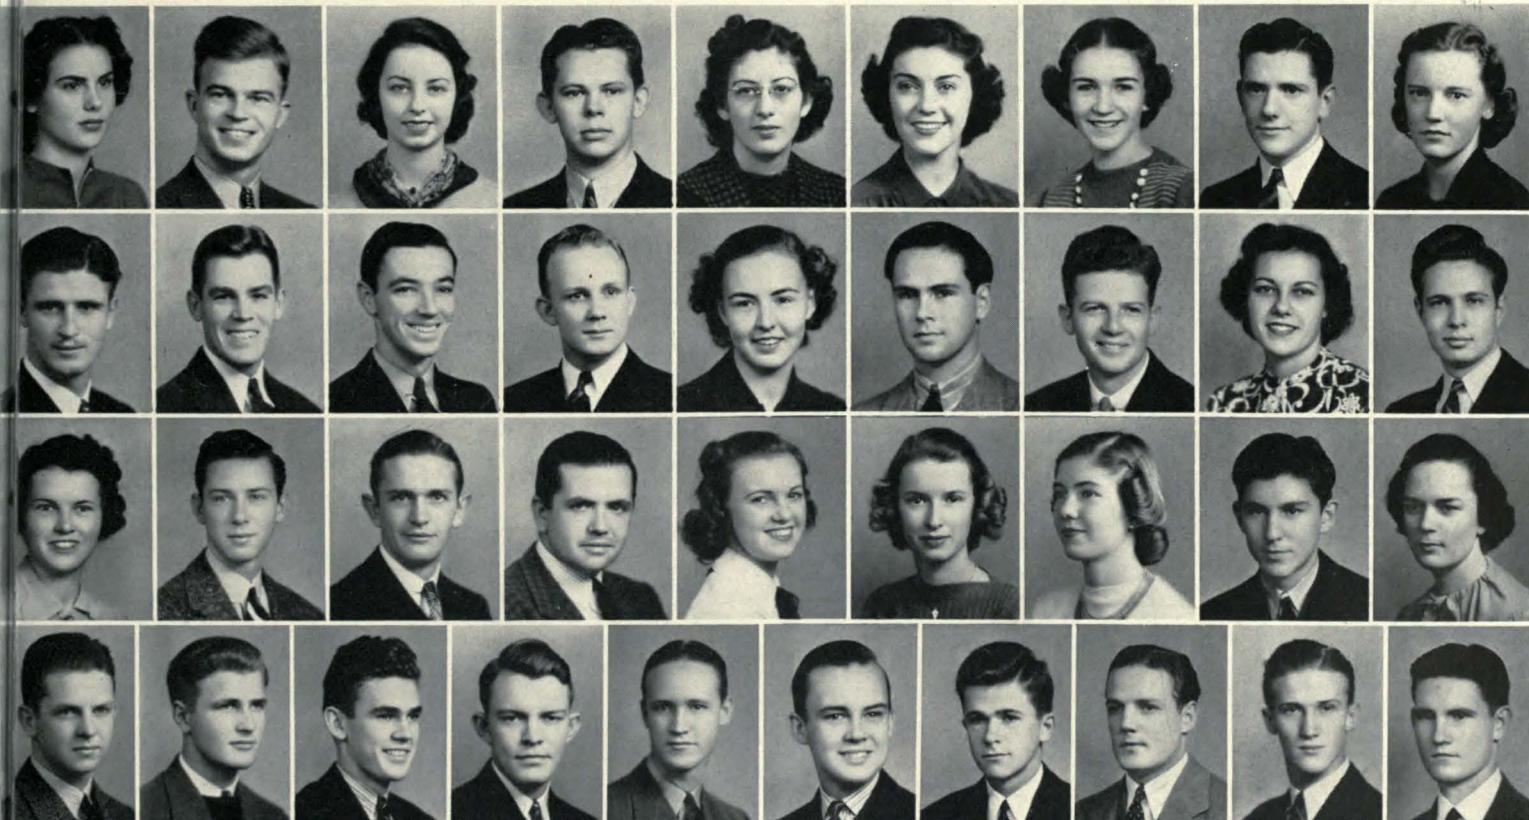

Simplicity is the keynote of this year's annual. Color is furnished by the borders, the natural color photographs on the main division pages, and the lime-light section. All pictures of outstanding students, the Goodfellows, Bluebonnet Belles, the Belle candidates, and Sweetheart and Sweetheart nominees have been placed in one section this year. The football, tennis, and feature sections have been enlarged and a view section has been added. A panel of informal pictures has been used on all fraternity and sorority pages to give variety to this section of the book.

Production of the book was speeded up this year through the opening of the Cactus Studio. This studio was operated by the Cactus in its office. All studio pictures for classes and the fraternity and sorority section, as well as a number of posed informal pictures, were made in the studio by B. T. Littleton, Cactus photographer. Pictures of the Bluebonnet Belles, the Belle candidates, and the Sweetheart and Sweetheart nominees were made by Mrs. Virginia Leberman at the Christianson-Leberman Studio. All finishing work on pictures made in the Cactus Studio was also done by Christianson-Leberman Studio. The natural color photographs, the views, and many of the athletic and other informal pictures were made by Elwood Payne of Paralta Studios.

The engraving was done this year by Stafford's of Fort Worth and much of the credit for speeding up production of the 1939 Cactus is due to the efforts of Bill Murphee of Stafford's. The printing was done by Gulf Publishing Company of Houston. Bill Hudspeth of this firm gave the Cactus his time and personal attention, and his able assistance in the selection of type, colors, paper, and in generally getting the book printed, has added much to the annual.

Bruno Lore of Fort Worth again designed the Cactus.

The Daily

TAKING ADVANTAGE of "special opportunities," the 1938-39 Daily Texan published a record number of special editions. Starting in the summer of 1938 with the Freshman Edition of thirty pages, the list this year contains the Registration issue of thirty-six pages; College of Fine Arts section of four pages, published on slick yellow paper in brown ink; the "Beat A. & M." edition of four pages, printed in orange and white; the O'Daniel Inauguration, twelve pages; Thanksgiving issue, twenty pages; President Rainey special, eight pages; Round-Up, forty-two pages, with the main interest centered around the Bluebonnet Belle section published on slick paper using "Bluebonnet Blue" ink—the most elaborate pictorial section the Texan has ever attempted.

The editorial policy of the Texan was concerned mainly with campus subjects, and the paper waged several fights to secure better conditions for student government. Strong support was given to the band hall drive of the Longhorn Band, to the proposed Pan-American Institute, and to an increase of University appropriations. The biennial fight against the R.O.T.C. for the campus was conducted.

A second clean-up campaign was conducted, in cooperation with the city and state health departments; and, rather than carrying inspections only to the cafes, Texan urged the health units to take the campaign to boarding, fraternity and sorority houses, and dormitories as well.

As a member of the Austin and University Safety Councils, the Texan paid particular attention to traffic safety conduct of students, and urged strict adherence to safe driving methods throughout the year. The campus paper also did much to get obsolete traffic rules abolished by the Austin City Council, and a uniform system of traffic fines was adopted. The Texan was presented an award by the Austin and United States Junior Chambers of Commerce in recognition and appreciation for outstanding civic and social work.

Special stress was placed on athletic events, and more sports pictures were published. The Texan was given much credit, because of the "Aggie Adjustment Act" fight and the "Beat A. & M." special, for creating much interest in the Thanksgiving game with A. & M.

The campus radio program, sponsored by the Texan, consisted of 15-minute news broadcasts and interviews each night, with a 30-minute variety program on Saturday nights.

The Bureau of Student Opinion, started by the paper last year, was continued, and worked in cooperation with the Student Opinion Surveys of America.

As a result of the efforts of the Texan to give complete and accurate news coverage, reader interest was increased. Because of the vigorous, outspoken editorial stands taken, the paper continued to deserve its title as a "fighting Texan."

Texan . . . VOICE OF THE STUDENT BODY

THE DAILY TEXAN staff, increasing annually, this year again reached a new peak, with more than two hundred and fifty students taking an active part in the production of the campus newspaper.

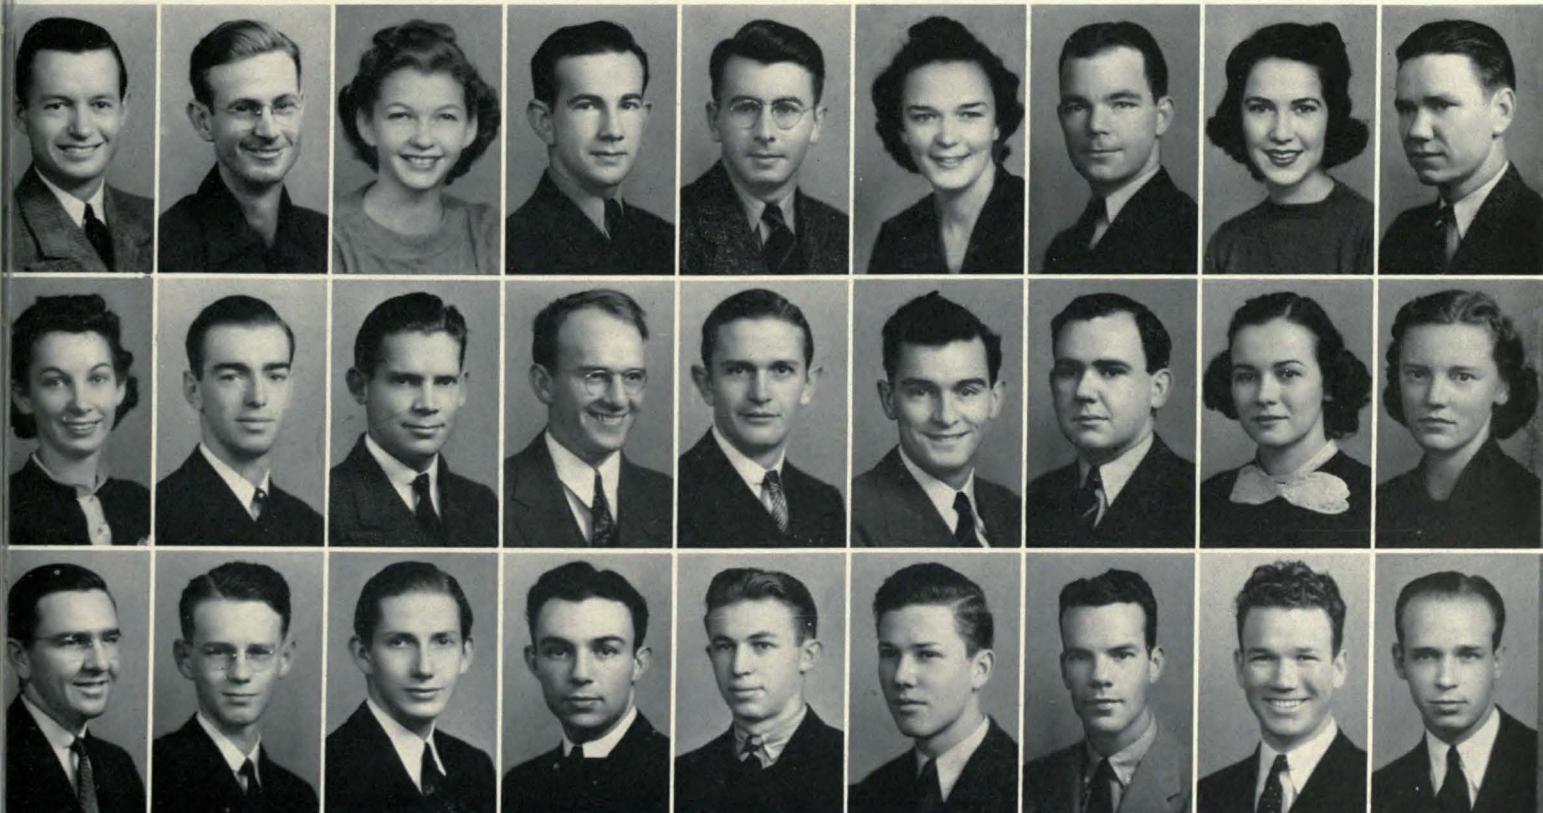

Serving as night editors were Max B. Skelton, La Verne Bryson, Tomme Call, Jim Anderson, Lois Sager, Cy Long, Helen Fay Passmore, and Everett Shirley. June Adams was society editor and Anita Cook was her assistant. The sports editor was Clarence La Roche, and serving as his assistants were Clyde LaMotte and V. J. Van Cleave. Vernon (Skinny) Childers was the editorial counselor.

Radio editors were Dick Watts and Margarett Garrison. Boyd Sinclair served as amusements editor, with Jack Dolph as his assistant. Oma Ray Walker was telegraph editor. Jim Anderson managed the Bureau of Student Opinion with Waldo Niebuhr as his assistant. Max Skelton also served as feature editor. The exchange editor was Lester Campbell. Pat Holt, in addition to his duties as special assignments reporter, served as political editor.

Other students who did outstanding work on the paper this year were Bill Newkirk, Virginia Parton, Clifford Snowden, Hal Bridges, Charles O. Brown, I. E. Clark, Mary Cone Dees, Bill Durnal, Elizabeth Gordon, Elizabeth Ann Harrell, Pat Hanna, Dorothy Jean Housman, Ben Kaplan, Harper Leiper, Burke McGinty, Joe James, Joe Neiser, Don Patteson, J. Olcutt Sanders, Margaret Schonerstedt, Harold Shelansky, Nella Mae Steussy, John Wagner, Bob Syler, Shirley Wallace, Bernard Seigle, Arthur White, Royce Yancey, Mac Roy Rasor, Ernest Sharpe, Elizabeth Wharton, J. C. Gresham, Joe Malec, Duke Sutherland, Jack Butler, Bob Whitten, Mary C. Smith, Harriet Samon, Bob McEwen, Gene Legler, Bill Stringer, Alfred Landers, Bobby McKinley, Fred McGahey, Herschel Kornblatt, Ann Wilkins, Lucy Brown, Dorothea Lyle, Truman MacMahan, Patti McDaniel, Henry Zimmerman, Paul Williams, Dorothy Strachan, Bill Cowan, Mary Aubyn Townsend, Billy Sansing, Ann Ward, W. B. Etheridge, Grover Waterman, Wiley Clarkson, Bob Alterman, Raymond White, Miriam Rives, Bob Goodrich, Christine Evans, Mary Katherine Metcalfe, Doraine Geiger, Flora Gordon, Lawrence Liberty, Lillian Mueller, Joe Whitley, Bob McKena, Jack Scharnberg, Sterling Robertson, Joel Westbrook, Doll Thompson, Jack Foster, Jack Quinn, Evelyn Yates, Betty Baker, Albert Vanzura, Mary Maxine Ault, Bob Frederick, Anne L. Graves, Florence Heller, and Bettine Phillips.

The staff personnel would not be complete without mention of William (Bill) McIntosh, night supervisor, who added much to the efficiency and general appearance of the paper.

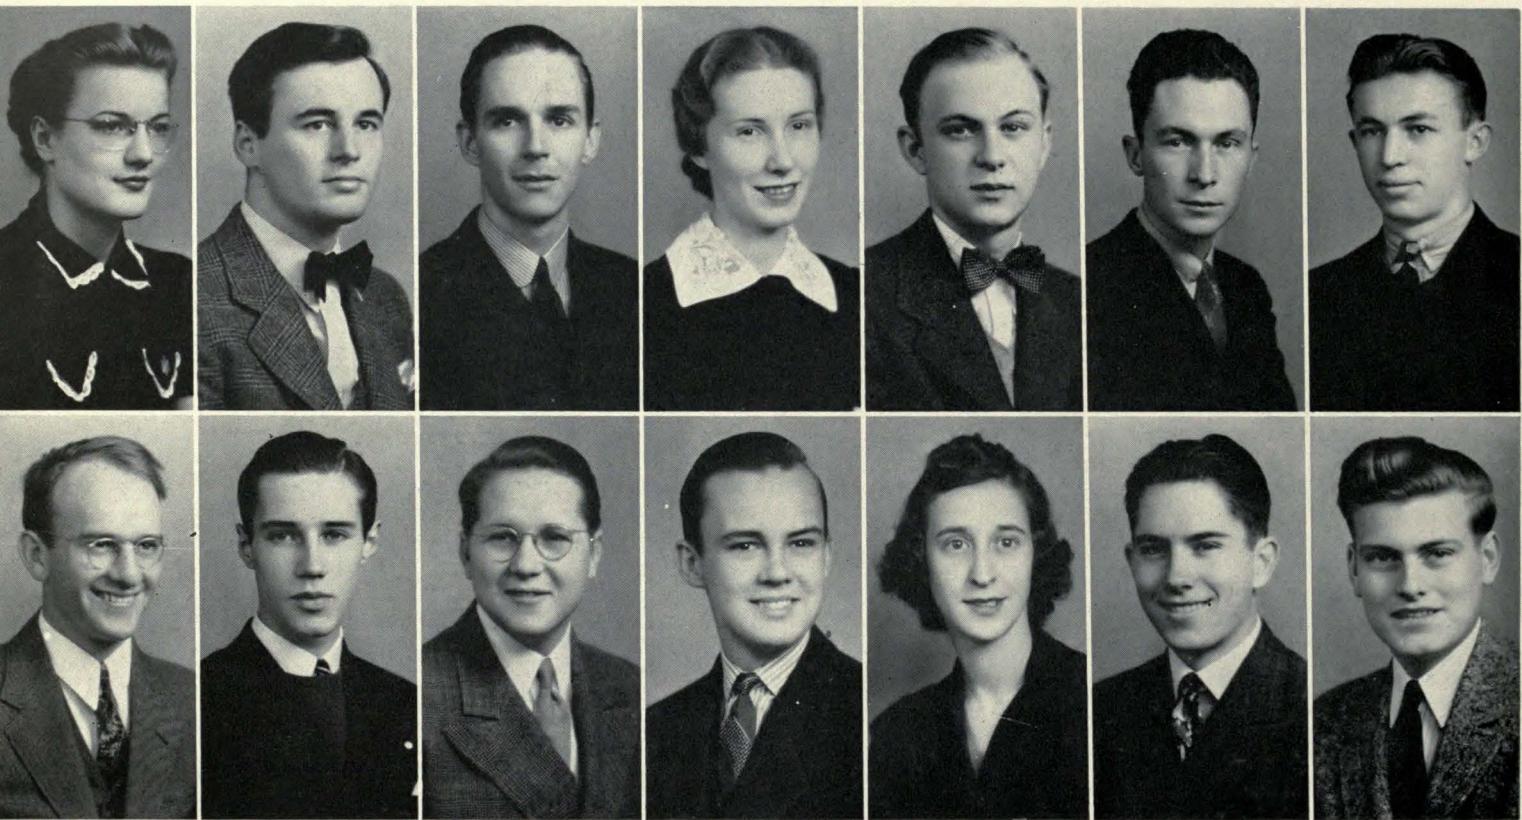

Top row: SINCLAIR, LAROCHE, ADAMS, CALL, ANDERSON, BRYSON, SKELTON, SAGER, LONG.

Second row: GARRISON, SCHARNBERG, VAN CLEAVE, MCKINLEY, LAMOTTE, NEISER, YANCEY, COOK, WALKER.

TEXAS RANGER

Second row: MCKINLEY, VICK, PENNYCUICK, CARPENTER, ALEXANDER, HARNESS, WESTFALL.*

ON A FEW SQUARE FEET of the Journalism Building—Room 5, we quaintly call it—the nefarious staff of the Texas Ranger plans evil attacks upon student morals.

Here the Old Guard gathers to regret the passing of the good old days, and tomorrow's Old Guard begins to develop.

The present O. G. consists of Bob Eckhardt, ex-editor and creator of the Hobbs Boys; Jack Guinn, cartoonist and writer of merciless satire; Bobby McKinley, cartoonist and writer; Curtis Bishop, ex-editor, ex-student, who contributes copy from East Texas; Alice Mary Adams Watts, editor; and Margaret Lanford, associate editor.

Active staff members include Prentice David Hill, cartoonist, critic, and creator of the silly Little Ranger; Helene Huff, fashion editor; Joe Demic, photography editor; Roy Pennycuick, gossip editor; and Joe James, this year's cartoonist and writer, next year's editor. His associate, Joe Neiser, has likewise been an occasional contributor of satiric wit.

Undoubtedly a part of tomorrow's Old Guard are Burke McGinty, master of gentle humor; Hal Bridges, verbal caricaturist; Earl Simms, whose fine pen illustrations add zest to anybody's story; Billy Westfall, cartoonist of beautiful women; and Leslie Carpenter, who has suffered much.

Music critic honors go to Pat Harness for the first semester, and Cy Long for the second.

Honorable mention goes to Shock-Absorbers Paul J. Thompson, Edward Crane, John Connally, Stanley Neely, and Sidney Reagan, who, as censors, have unselfishly endangered their own morals to preserve those of the peepul.

THE ALCALDE

FRANCES LOUISE MUELLER, JOHN A. McCURDY

THE ALCALDE, which has been published regularly as a monthly magazine since April, 1913, is the official publication of the Ex-Students' Association of The University of Texas.

The name "Alcalde" was borrowed from the Spanish and means mayor or chief. Governor O. M. Roberts, who played a large part in the establishment of the University and who was a member of its first faculty, was affectionately known to the students as "the old Alcalde."

It was in December, 1895, that a student publication called the "Alcalde" appeared on the campus. After several years, other student publications replaced the weekly journal. The name "Alcalde" was not used again until it was adopted in 1913 by the Ex-Students' Association for its official publication.

The Alcalde serves as the principal medium of contact between the University and that loyal and interested group of exes which constitute the membership of the Ex-Students' Association. The publication is definitely a news organ, containing information about students, faculty and University affairs as well as news items about the activities of ex-students. It keeps exes in closer touch with their growing University and with each other. The goal of the Alcalde is to have an informed ex-student body, sympathetically awake to the needs of the University.

JOHN A. McCURDY
Executive Secretary, Ex-Students' Association

THE DAILY TEXAN

THE DAILY TEXAN, first college daily in the South, has for the second successive year been awarded All-American Pacemaker rating, the highest possible. In October the Texan will celebrate its thirty-ninth birthday as a paper and on September 24, 1939, its twenty-sixth anniversary as a daily.

There were two forerunners to the Texan proper. The University Calendar and The Ranger. The Calendar was first published on March 21, 1899, with the motto "By the Students, For the Students." The Ranger was a "Weekly Journal of College Life," and also appeared in 1899.

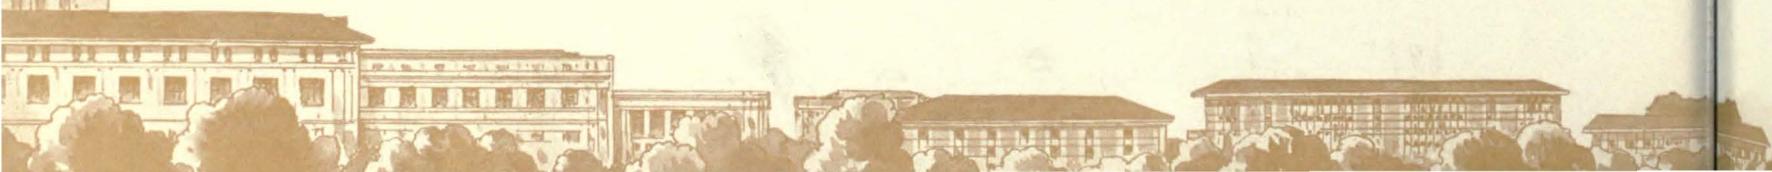

As an organ of the student body the Texan first appeared on October 8, 1900, when the enrollment was 582. After four issues as a private enterprise, it became the official school paper. It had five column sheets and appeared on Saturday.

After two years the Students' Association was formed and in 1904-05 it took over as one of its specific duties, the control of the publications. In the fall of 1907 the paper became a semi-weekly issued on Wednesday and Saturday.

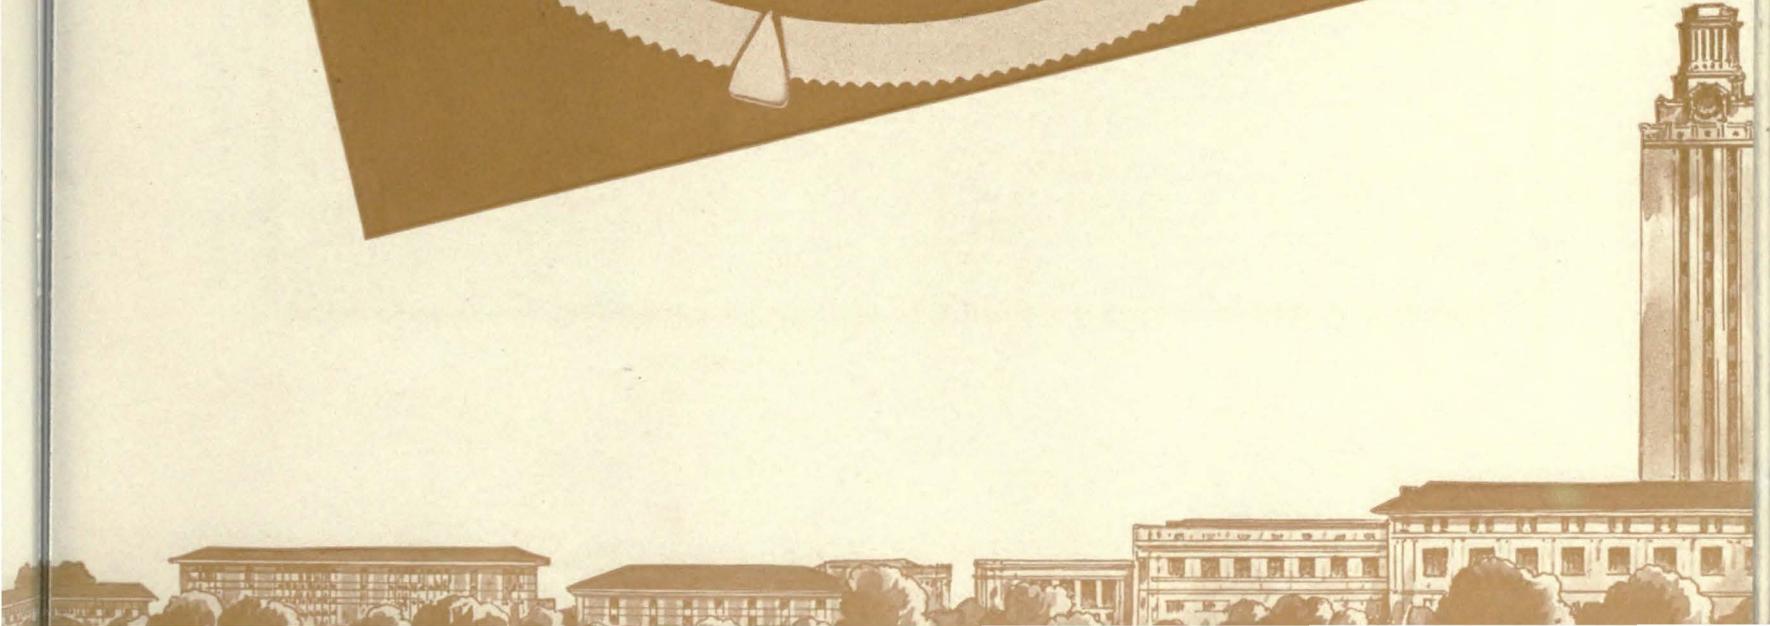

The first daily paper was distributed in September, 1913, when S. E. Mezes was President of the University and 1,953 students were registered. The first seven column Texan appeared on January 14, 1920. The Summer Texan was begun in 1919.

On July 6, 1921, the Texas Student Publications, Inc., was granted a charter and took over supervision of the paper. Other amendments were added to the charter in 1930 to give the paper its present set-up.

And so after a period of thirty-nine years the Texan has become the publication of a student body numbering 11,000. It is edited, written, and read by University students.

PI TAU SIGMA has as its object the fostering of the high ideals of the engineering profession, the stimulating of interest in mechanical engineering activities, and the promoting of the mutual, professional welfare of its members in college and in practice.

Members are chosen on a basis of sound engineering ability, scholarship, personality, and probable future success in their chosen field of mechanical engineering. Members are elected twice a year from the junior and senior classes of the Department of Mechanical Engineering. At the fall election, members are chosen from the upper thirty-three per cent of the senior class and from the upper seventeen per cent of the junior class; at the spring election, only from the upper twenty-five per cent of the junior class.

ALPHA EPSILON DELTA has as its purpose the binding together of students with the same interest, to encourage scholastic excellence in pre-medical work, to crystallize any movement for the good of the pre-medical student, and to bridge the gap between pre-medical students and those in the School of Medicine.

To be eligible, a student must have completed one year at the University, and have maintained a general average of "B," and also a "B" average in sciences. Each candidate must receive a favorable vote from the three-fourths of the active members after due consideration of personality, character, industry, dependability, and general ability.

THE PURPOSE of Beta Gamma Sigma is to encourage and reward scholarly accomplishments among students in American collegiate schools of commerce and business administration.

Active membership is limited to graduate and undergraduate students of either sex who are candidates for a degree in commerce or business administration. New members are elected at the beginning of the second semester in each academic year and after the June and August commencements. Those who rank in the upper tenth of the graduating classes are eligible for membership. Juniors who rank among the highest two per cent may be elected in the second semester of that year.

CHANCELLORS is a local organization founded to provide a means of honoring those students who, through a combination of consistent scholarship, personality, and achievement, have shown themselves most likely to become a credit to their profession and to their alma mater. It is the most coveted scholarship society in the School of Law.

Only those law students who stand at the top of their class are eligible for membership in Chancellors, and a unanimous vote is required for admission. The maximum number of new members to be elected each school year is twelve although the usual number is ten, five in the fall and five in the spring. New members are notified of their election by being tapped on Tap Day.

DELTA SIGMA PI encourages the study of business in universities, fosters scholarship and the association of students for their mutual advancement by research and practice; it promotes close affiliation between the commercial world and students of commerce and attempts to further a higher standard of commercial ethics and culture for the practical betterment of the community.

The prospective member must be registered in the School of Business Administration and must have maintained at least a scholastic average of "C" in his work. New members are selected by secret ballot twice each year, and while the number of men admitted to the fraternity is not limited, usually only ten men affiliate each semester.

ETA KAPPA NU elects its members from students and others in the profession who have manifested, by their attainments in college or in practice, exceptional interest and marked ability in electrical engineering. Qualifications also include scholarship and personal qualities which seem to indicate success in the profession.

Its purposes are to stimulate and reward high scholarship among electrical engineering students; to serve as integrating and motivating force in electrical engineering departments of colleges; to serve the engineering division and college at large; to aid members after graduation; to foster closer cooperation and bring mutual benefits to students, teachers, and others in the profession; and to advance the profession by contributing services of lasting value.

IOTA SIGMA PI has as its purpose the promotion of the mutual scientific, scholastic, and social advancement of its members in chemical fields. The local chapter consists of two groups, active members enrolled in the University and alumnae members who now live in Austin. The chapter holds supper meetings each month. Members are elected twice yearly from those girls who have credit for at least twenty hours in chemistry, a "B" average in chemistry, and a general "B" average.

Among the activities of the organization are the sponsoring of various scientific functions and an annual tea honoring girls taking chemistry and the staff members of the Department of Chemistry.

OMICRON NU is a national organization which has for its purpose the promotion of scholarship, leadership and research in the field of home economics. At present there are thirty-two chapters. Membership is based on scholarship, character and the promise of future achievement. Second semester juniors and seniors having a "B" average are eligible for membership.

Each year Omicron Nu entertains honor students in the Department of Home Economics with a tea. Together with the Home Economics Club it sponsors open cultural meetings throughout the year and a traditional Christmas program.

PHI BETA KAPPA was originally a social fraternity but it soon came to be recognized as the leading honorary society in America. The purpose of the fraternity is shown in its motto, "Wisdom, the guide of life."

Scholarship requirements for membership are an average halfway between an "A" and a "B" in all courses, and a somewhat higher average for transfers. Only grades made in the University are used as a basis for membership in this chapter. A nominee must be in the upper one-tenth of the graduating class to be considered for membership, and no more than the number in the one-tenth may be admitted. Members are selected twice each year. Elections are held usually in October and March.

TO BE ELIGIBLE for membership in Phi Delta Phi the student must have a seventy-five or better average in all law courses. Members are elected in the fall and in the spring. Third-year law students and some second-year law students are eligible in the fall, but in the spring only second-year students are elected.

PHI DELTA PHI brings students of law into contact with active practitioners. The goal of the fraternity is to promote a higher standard of professional ethics and culture. Following the old English custom of inns, the fraternity is divided into local chapter inns for the students and barrister inns for alumni. The University chapter honored O. M. Roberts, former governor and former justice of the Supreme Court of Texas, by adopting the name of Roberts' Inn.

PHI LAMBDA UPSILON has as its purpose to give recognition to those students who have made unusual progress in scholarship and in original research in pure and applied chemistry.

New members are elected at the beginning of each semester from men students majoring in pure chemistry or chemical engineering and are required to pass ballots on both scholarship and personality. Business and social meetings are held on the second and fourth Monday of each month. Fall activities are usually limited to formal and informal initiations and supper meetings.

THE PURPOSE of Pi Lambda Theta is the fostering of the highest standards of scholarship and professional training in the field of education, the encouragement of graduate work and research in this field, and the promotion of a spirit of fellowship among women engaged in the profession of teaching, and the furtherance of a sincere interest in educational affairs with emphasis on their application to social progress. The theme of the year's study program was "Personal Problems of the Beginning Teacher."

To be eligible for membership, one must have made a high "B" average in courses in the School of Education and corresponding grades in other courses for at least seventy-five hours of work. The social activities of the organization include banquets in December and March, following the initiation of new members, and a picnic in the spring.

TAU BETA PI undergraduate members, representing all engineering branches in the College of Engineering, are selected from the upper quarter of the senior class, and from the upper eighth of the junior class. The seniors are chosen from the scholastically eligible men on the basis of all around activities and interests, exclusive of engineering. Only one junior, the outstanding man of his class, is chosen.

The organization meets twice a month, one of which is a dinner meeting. During the spring term a formal dance is given. Besides giving an award to the highest ranking freshman, Tau Beta Pi also adds to a collection of non-technical books in the Engineering Library.

THETA SIGMA PHI aims to unite in bonds of good fellowship University women who are now studying journalism, to confer honor upon women who distinguish themselves in their profession, and to accomplish definite achievements as a group in the field of letters.

This year Xi Chapter has sponsored a series of six lectures by nationally known men and women of letters. Other activities included the yearly Journalism Jamboree, a Christmas party for The Daily Texan staff, the third annual "Time Staggers On," and the annual Matrix Table.

Members are selected in October and March. Qualifications are junior standing, "B" average in journalism, "C" average in other courses, leadership, high character, and such desirable traits as would indicate success in journalism.

THE AMERICAN INSTITUTE OF ELECTRICAL ENGINEERS was founded in 1884. Its purposes are to advance the theory and practice of electrical engineering and of applied arts and sciences, and to imbue members with a professional spirit. Membership is open to all students working toward a degree in electrical engineering. The primary function of the local chapter is to bring the student closer to the work and to the men in his profession.

Guest speakers appear at every meeting, and several inspection trips are made to near engineering projects. Besides this, the group entertains with socials occasionally, and helps back other College of Engineering social affairs.

THE PURPOSES of the American Society of Civil Engineers are to advance the science of engineering in its several branches, to advance the professional improvement of its members, to encourage intercourse between men of practical science, and to establish a central point of reference and union for members. Besides attempting these things, the group also sponsors all civil engineering functions of the year. The student chapter here is one of the 118 affiliated with the national society, the oldest engineering organization in the United States, having been founded in 1852.

THE AMERICAN SOCIETY OF MECHANICAL ENGINEERS seeks to imbue each of its members with a spirit of professionalism, a task made much easier by the fellowship which exists because each man is vitally concerned with happenings in the field of mechanical engineering. In meetings each member has a chance to express his views or hear views expressed by outside speakers. Among those who spoke this year were Robert J. Smith, vice-president of Braniff Airways; T. U. Taylor, dean emeritus of the College of Engineering; and R. W. Warner, new chairman of the Department of Electrical Engineering.

In a semi-social, semi-educational way illustrative motion pictures were shown, and inspection trips were made to Marshall Ford Dam, Tips Engine Works, Austin Disposal Plant and Randolph Field.

Bottom row: Clarke, Pace, Halpenny, Lehman, Hill, Scanlan, Ormsby, Mahlie, Oge, Weintraub, Fuller. Second row: Eckhardt, Niland, Moore, Johnson, Besserer, Norman, Donnell, Yelderman, Pechacek, Dunklin, Woolrich. Third row: Turner, M. L. Begeman, Porterfield, Powers, F. Wilson, Willis, Skoog, Sheaffer, Bartels, Ramsey. Fourth row: Malone, Moss, Crockett, Lary, Scott, Vance, Schoenert, Payne, Lane.

The Business Administration Council, the executive board of the School of Business Administration, was organized to help create a spirit of friendliness and cooperation among students of that school. The principal duty of the Council is the planning and directing of the annual banquet of the school and supervising the election and coronation of the Queen of Finance.

The Council is composed of one representative from the Senior class, four representatives from the Junior class, the Business Administration assemblymen, and one representative from each of the honorary and professional societies in the School of Business Administration. Its officers are selected from the members of the Council itself; the president of the Council automatically becomes the president of the entire School of Business Administration.

CAP AND GOWN initiates all senior women who wish to belong to it. Officers of the organization serve as senior class officers and are chosen by members of the class at the regular class elections. The president selects eight outstanding senior women to complete the Council.

Cap and Gown acts as a service organization for all University women, standing for democracy and dignity as well as sociability among all co-eds. The organization assists underclassmen by giving them traditions and by aiding them in adjusting themselves to social affairs on the campus. Cap and Gown also supervises all class elections, sponsors a freshman party, plans and presides during senior week, especially for Swing-Out, sponsors a senior supper, contributes to the Co-operative Houses, and maintains a loan fund available to any University girl.

ALTHOUGH old upon the campus, the Czech Club is non-political in character. Its purposes are to promote culture, to observe the tradition and respect the heritage of the Czech people; to promote the study of the Czech language and literature at the University; and to provide many social functions for the Czech students and their friends. Its membership is composed mainly of students of Czech origin.

Social activities included the Bi-Annual Czech Parent and Ex-Student Banquet November 23, many Sunday hikes and picnics, and the spring formal. Noted speakers and entertainers appeared at the meetings held semi-monthly.

UNDERLYING PURPOSE of the Dallas Club is to help Dallas students become acquainted on the campus. In pursuance of this aim, the club has worked out an orientation program exclusively for new students from Dallas. In addition, the group works hand in hand with the Dallas Ex-Students' Association to acquaint the members with the exes living in the home city.

Several activities are promoted to further the club's purpose. One day each semester is designated as Dallas Day, when everyone from that city wears an identification tag. These days are usually the same as those for the fall and the spring formals. Besides being a self-helping club, the group acts as a service organization upon the campus.

THE NEWMAN CLUB is an organization of Catholic students bound together for a three-fold purpose: the advancement of each member spiritually, intellectually, and socially.

In pursuance of the religious aim of the club, weekly lectures are a part of the activities. Intellectual activities include intra-club debates, dramatics, and tuition, in addition to talks given by prominent men at each meeting. Socially, activities consist of suppers, parties, dances, open houses, and picnics. Besides these activities, Newman Club also engages in Intramural sports.

THE PRESENT DAY CLUB is an organization for girls interested in current problems. Its membership is limited to fifty, new members being chosen semi-annually. A luncheon meeting is held the first Wednesday of each month, and a business meeting at 5 o'clock of the third Wednesday.

Activities this year included the presentation of gift baskets of food and clothing to two needy families at Christmas, and the annual banquet held in April. Speakers at the meetings included Mrs. Sara Lockwood Williams, associate professor of journalism, and Howard A. Calkins, instructor in government.

THE PROGRESSIVE CZECH CLUB was founded at The University of Texas in the spring of 1937 by a group of interested students. The aims they set for the Club were to bring about closer relationship and better understanding between the students of Czech origin and other students on the campus; to promote the study of the Czech language, literature, and culture; and to develop in the members knowledge and responsibility concerning the conduction of organization and business, social, cultural, and athletic activities. At the semi-monthly meetings cultural and social entertainments are presented, with prominent speakers usually on hand. Also, the club enjoys picnics, open houses, formals, and other socials, and participates in University intramurals.

REAGAN LITERARY SOCIETY, named for the chairman of the first State Railroad Commission, was founded in 1902 at the suggestion of Helen M. Kirby, first dean of women. Its intents are to foster literary interest and to promote friendship among the members. To be eligible for membership, a girl must be a second-semester freshman, and must have a "B" average in English. New members are elected in October and March.

At the meetings held twice monthly, programs are given by members and various faculty members are asked to speak from time to time. In the fall the society joins with the three similar girls' groups to give new members a tea, and in the spring gives a picnic.

THE SIDNEY LANIER LITERARY SOCIETY, founded in honor of the Southern poet, was organized for the purpose of creating pleasant and helpful associations for girls interested in cultural literature. The society maintains a student loan fund, consisting of accumulated donations from alumnae and also a portion of the dues.

Members are chosen twice yearly from girls who have a "B" average with excellence in English. At the meetings held twice monthly, various faculty members and prominent Austin persons speak, as well as members. In the fall the Club joins with the other literary groups in giving a tea for new members, and in the spring gives a picnic honoring the seniors.

THE SONS OF ALEC was organized to further genuine loyalty and a more expressive school spirit among students in the College of Engineering. Business meetings are held twice each month, and the club sponsors several stag and date socials every year. Alexander Frederick Claire, patron saint of all engineers, is represented by Alec. Active membership in the organization is open to all male students in the College of Engineering, with the understanding that the only requirements for admission are fellowship and a genuine loyalty to the traditional spirit of the College of Engineering.

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS TWIN CLUB was organized in the fall of 1938 for the purpose of promoting a more friendly relationship among the twins on the campus. The idea was to organize a club to further educational, spiritual, and social values for twins in the University. The first meeting brought together almost every set of twins on the campus. Pete Curry, an outstanding leader in campus activities, was selected as student advisor. In the spring the Club held a joint meeting in Waco with the Baylor Twin Club.

IN ATTEMPTING to fulfill its intended purpose—the promotion of interest in and knowledge of aviation—the University Aeronautical Society this year sponsored a series of twenty-seven lectures upon the subject. Speeches were delivered by University professors, Army Air Corps officers, and the vice-president of a passenger-carrying airline; and subjects included simple aerodynamics, airplane structures, engines, instruments, radio, meteorology, and navigation, almost a ground school course.

Social activities consisted of a Christmas party and the annual banquet. Inspection trips were made to Randolph and Duncan fields in San Antonio. The Club entered exhibits in the Engineering and Power Show.

VALHALLA, a branch of the cooperative movement, was organized in 1937 under the supervision of Dorothy Gebauer, dean of women. The purpose of this organization is to enable worthy girls to attend the University at a minimum cost with high standards of living. Active membership is limited to fifteen, the members being chosen on the basis of character, scholarship, and the ability to cooperate. Work and expenses are managed on a cooperative basis under the supervision of the president who is a senior student.

CAMPUS ORGANIZATIONS

APPROXIMATELY ninety per cent of the students of The University of Texas belong to one or more campus clubs. University organizations include many types such as social, religious, debating, political, professional, honorary, entertainment, athletic, or literary. Many of these organizations are open to all students; others have certain qualifications that must be met by the member.

The social group is composed mostly of the fraternities and sororities but nearly all of the clubs offer some type of social activity. The religious groups play a large part in campus life. Situated near the campus are churches of almost every denomination which have special workers who devote themselves to student organization. These clubs usually branch out into other activities such as drama and music.

For the serious-minded student who desires to cultivate his knowledge in the professional field in addition to that learned in class rooms there are a number of professional and occupational groups. Some of these admit any student interested in the field covered by the club but many of them have certain scholarship and professional requirements.

The clubs with the largest total membership are the home-town or regional clubs. These clubs meet for home-town rallies, picnics, dances, or for a program featuring a home-town speaker. These clubs serve to keep together students from the same town.

The literary societies for girls and the debating societies for the men students supply another interest for the students.

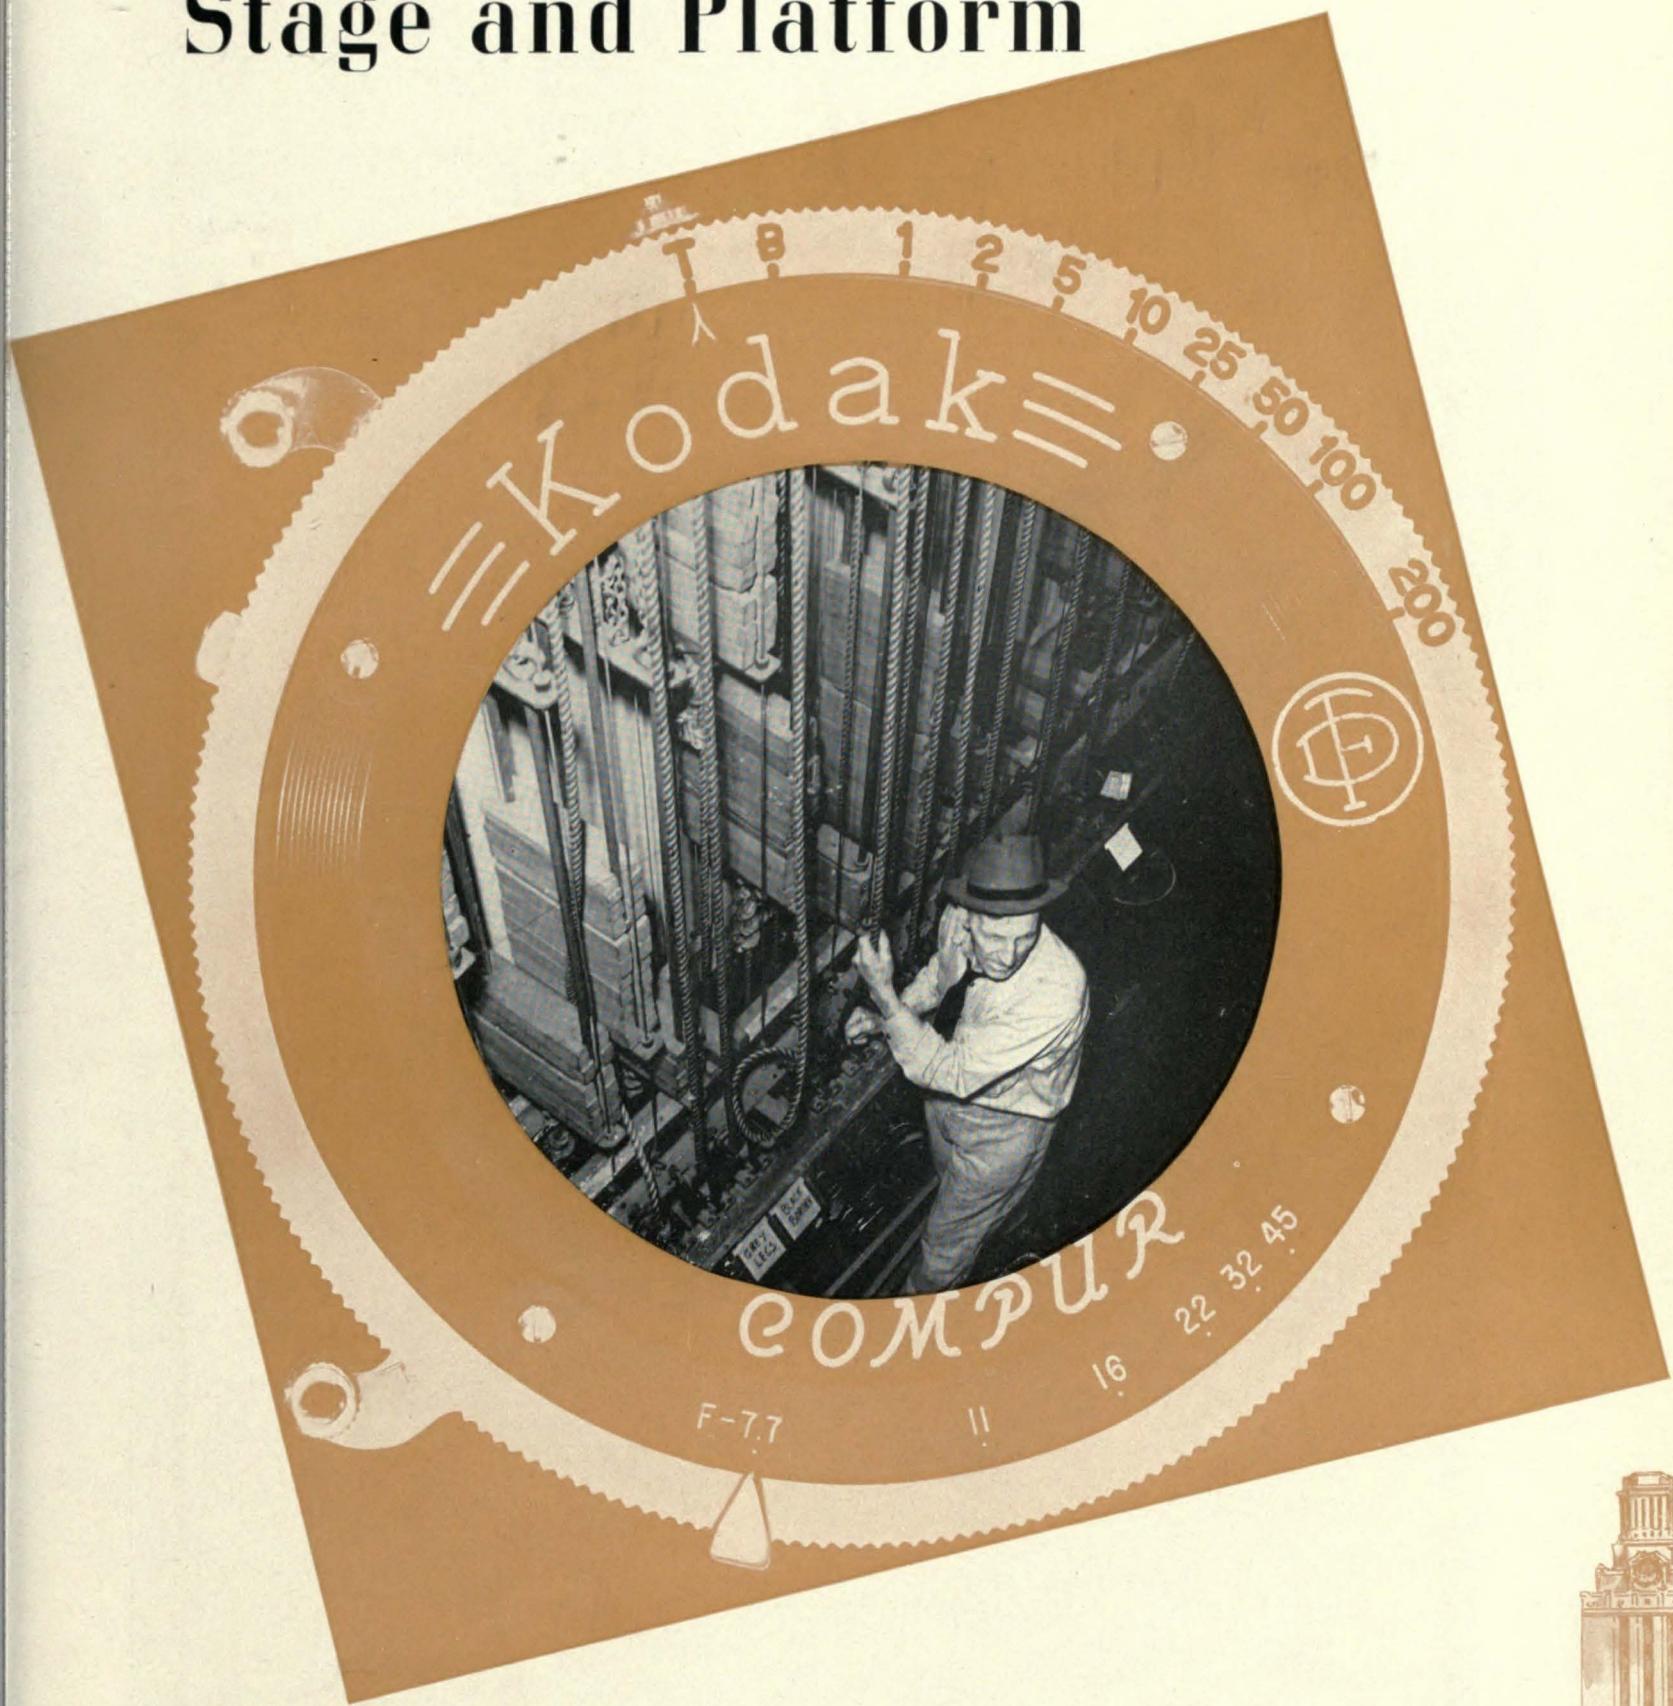

There are also a number of service organizations on the campus whose main activity is being of service to the University. These organizations usually select their membership from the outstanding students on the campus. The group includes such organizations as the Friars, Orange Jackets, the Cowboys, Alpha Phi Omega, and Mortar Board.

The best known of the entertainment groups are the Curtain Club, the Glee Clubs, the Longhorn Band, the University Symphony Orchestra, and the University Light Opera Company.

For the athlete there are such organizations as the Turtle Club, the Longhorn Boxing Club, and for the athlete with a University "T," there is the T Association. There are foreign language groups for students who speak or are interested in a certain foreign language. Each college and school in the University has its own honorary fraternities with their various requirements for membership. Most of these groups are national organizations of which Phi Beta Kappa is perhaps the best known.

THE CURTAIN CLUB, working in cooperation with the Department of Drama of the new College of Fine Arts, successfully presented a most pretentious season of plays. Robert Sherwood's Pulitzer Prize play, "Idiot's Delight," was presented November 1, 2, 3, and 4.

Maxwell Anderson's "High Tor," a blend of fantasy and realism, was given December 13, 14, 15, and 16. It was followed on March 13, 14, 15, 16, and 17 by a very successful production of "Marco Millions." The final play was "Front Page."

Girls' Glee Club

Under the leadership of a new director, Chase Baromeo, professor of voice in the College of Fine Arts, the Girls' Glee Club started the 1938-39 season with a membership of approximately one hundred and fifty. Mr. Baromeo succeeds Gilbert E. Schramm, who directed both the Men's and the Girls' Glee Clubs for many years. He resigned this fall because of ill health.

The Glee Club opened its season officially by joining with the Men's Glee Club for a concert November 29 in Hogg Memorial Auditorium. During the spring the Glee Club made its customary tour, giving concerts at Texas A. & M. College and in Kerrville. Another concert with the Men's Glee Club on March 29 closed the official season of the Club.

However, throughout the school year individual members of the Girls' Glee Club, the trio, and the sextet appeared on many programs. Many members of the Club took part in the annual musical revue, "Time Staggers On," in which both the sextet and the trio were featured. The Club also took part in Round-Up activities.

The trio is composed of Clara Jean Granberry, Ruth Suehs, and Louise Marie Self. Dorothy Uta Davis is soloist. The sextet is composed of Flossie Crow, Ruth Morehead Woods, Grace Virginia Akin, Edwina Akin, Mary Sue Ries, and Mary Annette Collier.

Men's Glee Club

Under the able direction and splendid leadership of Chase Baromeo, professor of voice in the newly created College of Fine Arts, the Men's Glee Club strengthened its claim to the title of "Finest Male Chorus in the Southwest." Concerts presented by the Club displayed a touch of professionalism seldom reached by amateur choristers and fully merited the praise accorded them.

Special praise is due the fine work done by Frank Gardner, tenor soloist; Archie Heap and Gene Hemmle, baritone soloists. These three members were much in demand as entertainers in Austin musical circles.

Having as one of its primary purposes for existence service to the University, the Men's Glee Club gave meaning to that purpose by furnishing its talents to all worthwhile campus and civic organizations. The Club was honored by having the privilege of singing the opening numbers for the Round-Up Revue.

Members from the Club appeared as entertainers on various radio programs, before numerous hometown clubs, and at luncheons. They also appeared in the annual production, "Time Staggers On," and were active in the Inaugural pageant for Governor W. Lee O'Daniel.

The high spot of the season was the concert presented in the San Pedro Playhouse in San Antonio on February 24 under the sponsorship of the San Antonio chapter of the Twenty-Thirty Club.

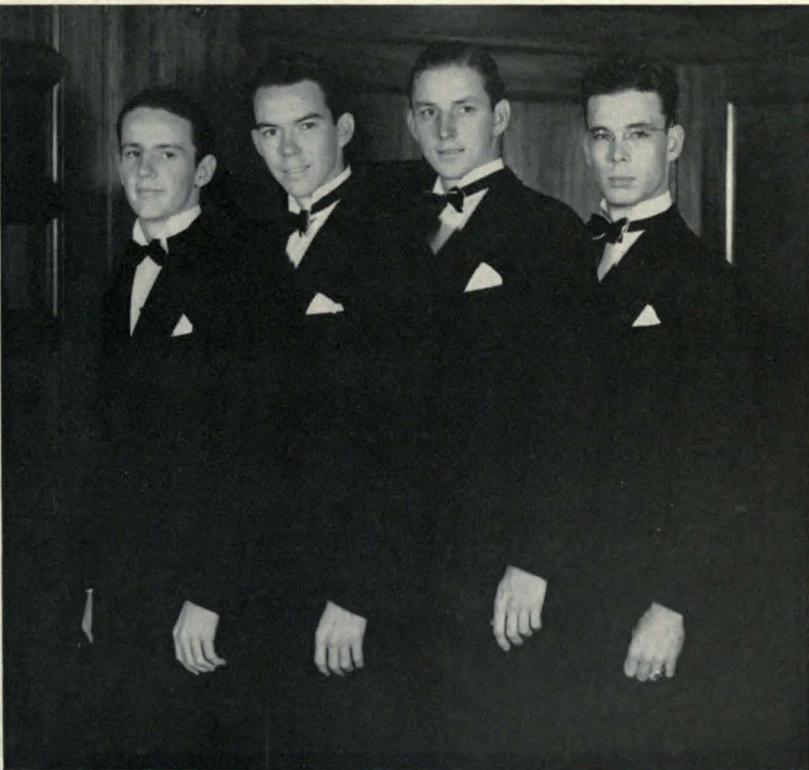

In addition to fine soloists, the Club boasts the Longhorn Quartet composed of Richard McKay, Frank Cage, Paul German, and Truman Griffin. Lee Norrell, accompanist for the second year, merits much praise for the fine work contributed to make the Club's year a success. Charles Zivley, former member and business manager of the Club, is the faculty advisor.

THE LIGHT OPERA COMPANY opened its season with Victor Herbert's gypsy operetta, "The Fortune Teller," with Bonnie Ruth Taylor, Albert Hodges Wadsworth, and Gene Hemmle singing the important roles. The operetta was presented December 7, 8, and 9.

In the spring the Company gave its annual "Night of Stars" in which some of the best voices on the campus were heard. The Light Opera Company closed its season with its largest musical production to date, the famous Broadway show, "Rio Rita."

Scenes from the Light Opera Company's production of "The Fortune Teller": the attractive ballet scene, Bonnie Ruth Taylor in the leading role, Albert Hodges Wadsworth as male lead, the finale.

THE 1939 INTERCOLLEGiate DEBATE SQUAD of twenty-four men was chosen from a field of eighty contestants after two rounds of preliminary competition. Of the twenty-four squad members, eleven were lettermen from last spring's championship teams. Thomas A. Rousse is debate coach, and Jesse Villarreal is assistant coach.

Stephen and Nolen constituted the team which won both the University of Iowa Tournament and the Missouri Valley Debate Meet. Record was also a member of the championship Missouri Valley team. Miller, Love and Petry were the winners of the Southwest Invitation Tournament, held on the campus.

Included on the spring debate calendar were four major tournaments: the Iowa Invitation Tournament in Iowa City, Iowa; the Missouri Valley Forensic Meet in Boulder, Colorado; the Southeastern Debate Tournament in Baton Rouge, Louisiana; and the Southwestern Invitation Tournament in Austin. Individual debates were with the University of Kansas, University of Illinois, University of Iowa, Tulane University, University of Southern California, Sophie Newcomb College, and a radio debate over a coast-to-coast network of NBC with the University of Wisconsin.

Of these tournaments, the University won all but the Southeastern, which it entered for the first time. This is a competitive record which has given The University of Texas a national ranking among the three top debating schools in the United States.

MUSIC AND DRAMATICS

THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS has a number of musical and dramatic organizations which provide a quality of entertainment that compares well with that of professional organizations. Two of the oldest and best known organizations on the campus are the Men's and Girls' Glee Clubs. Both clubs make several tours over a fairly wide area each fall and spring and have become quite famous over the state for their fine choruses. Both groups have always been able to boast of excellent soloists. The Men's Quartet and the Co-Ed Trio are in demand for almost all musical entertainment on the campus.

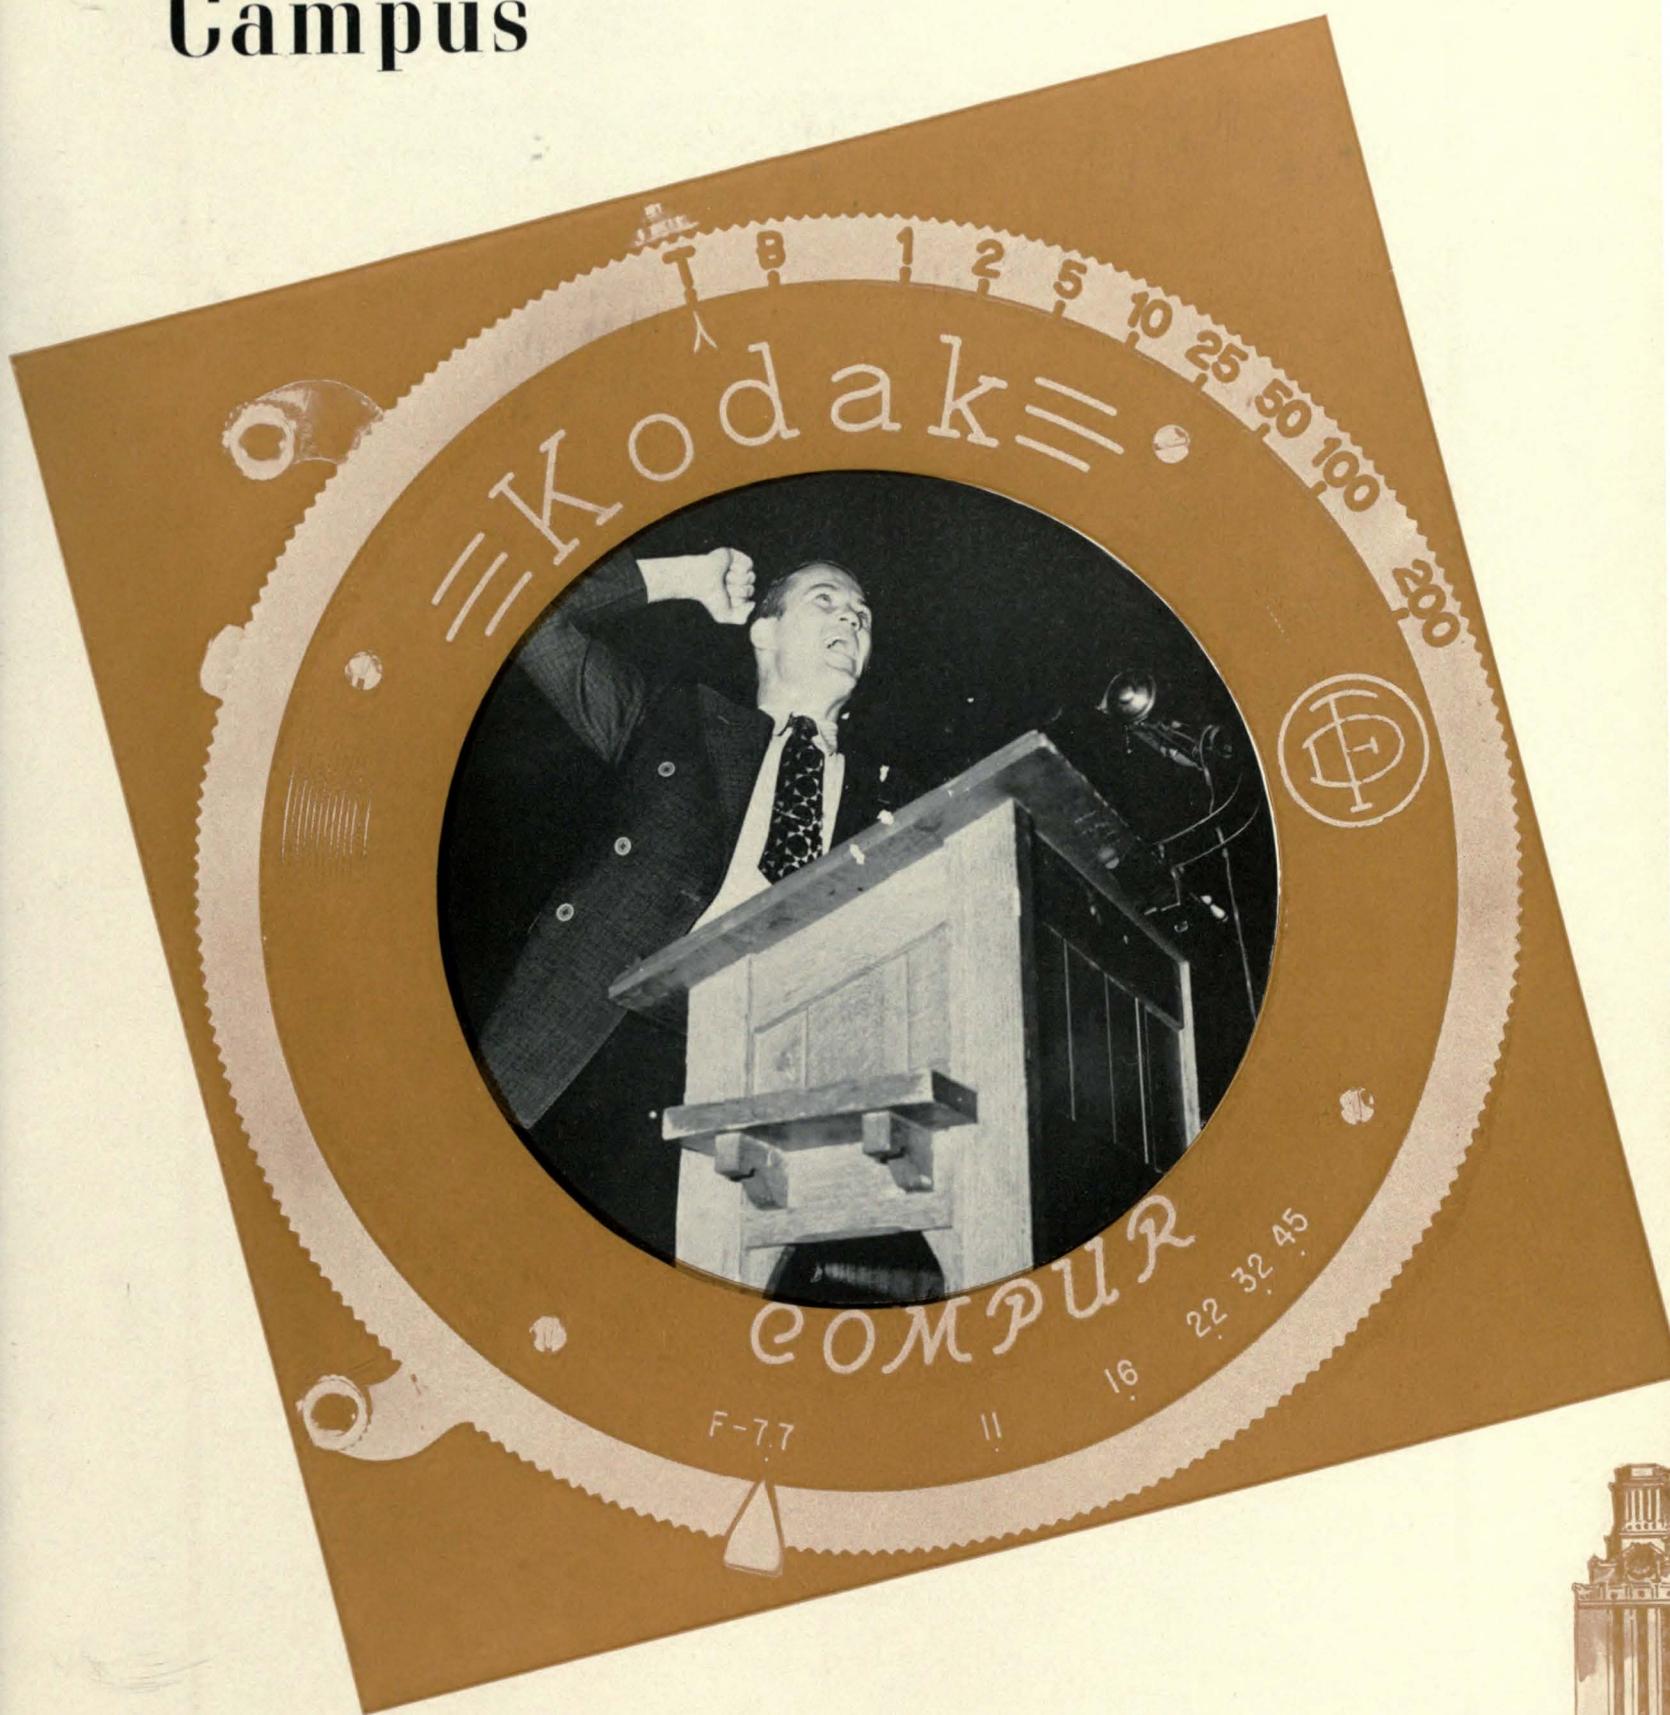

Another well-known but much younger musical organization is the University Light Opera Company. The company was organized in 1931 by a group that felt the need of student activity in a combined dramatic and musical field. Many fine voices have been heard in the various light operas that have been presented each year. The club's best work has been in the comic operas of Gilbert and Sullivan.

The Longhorn Band and the University Symphony Orchestra are two other musical organizations which offer entertainment to students. The Band plays at all athletic events, most University receptions, parades, for entertainments of other organizations, and gives several concerts a year as well as doing a number of other things. This year the Band has given a series of radio programs over a state-wide net work. The Symphony Orchestra has just recently been organized and is now under the supervision of the College of Fine Arts. This group also has been helpful in assisting with the entertainments of other organizations. It is a welcome addition to the University's musical groups.

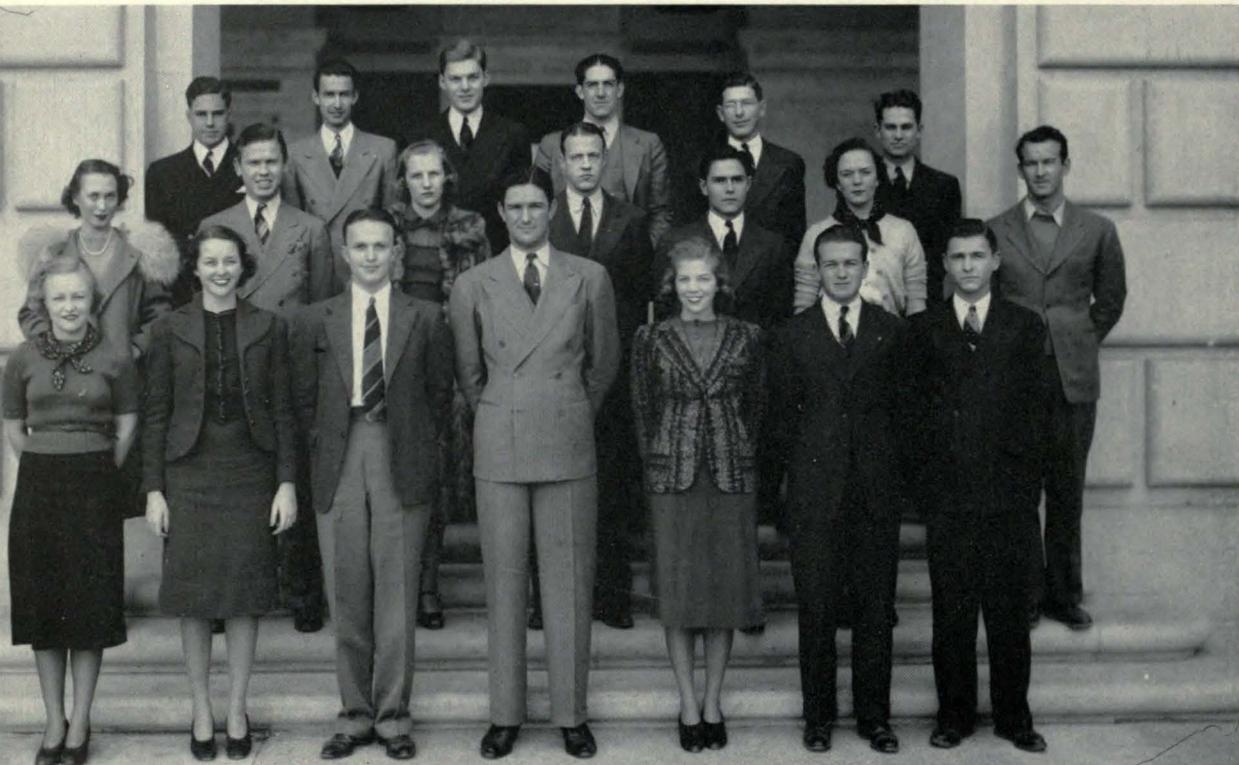

In the field of drama the Curtain Club is the means of entertainment. It is considered one of the best dramatic organizations in Texas and was formed in 1909. The Curtain Club has grown steadily since its founding and each year has tackled a harder type of play to produce. The plays draw a full house for each performance, the number of which it has been necessary to increase yearly. Each of the four plays presented this year were given four nights.

THE JUDICIARY COUNCIL has exclusive and final jurisdiction in all cases arising under the Constitution and laws of the Students' Association. The requirements for the chairman, who is elected in the spring, and the other six members, who are elected in the fall, is junior standing when they take office. The membership is always composed of three women and three men in addition to the chairman.

The chairman of the Judiciary Council this year was Walter Fred Hasskarl, and the members were the following: Glenn Frances Appling, Hazel Dawn Nunn, Dorothy Ellen Baldridge, Earl Alfred White, John Clarke Roberts, and Thomas Ulvan Taylor II.

UNION BOARD

KNIVETON, ZIVLEY, MOORE, UNIS, LIPSCOMB.

THE UNION BOARD is the governing body for the Texas Union. The Union budget and all major plans for operation and supervision of the Union, including the appointment of the director, are made by the Board.

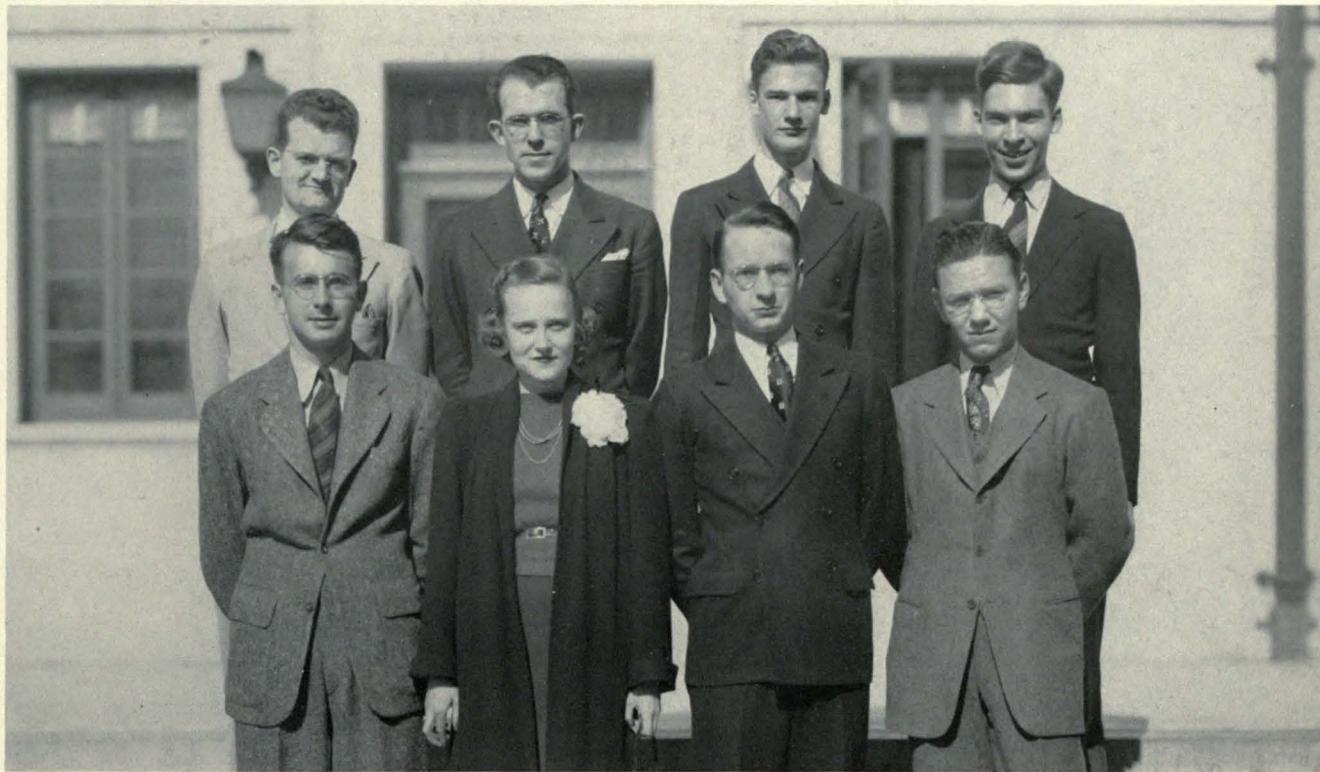

The president of the Students' Association, John Bowden Connally, served as chairman of the Board. Other student members were Elizabeth Kathleen Knivetton, secretary of the Students' Association, William Blake Singleton, Thomas Charles Unis, and Sarah Louise Lipscomb.

Other members of the Board included V. I. Moore, Dean of Student Life; Dorothy Gebauer, Dean of Women; Fred Adams and John A. McCurdy, representatives of the Ex-Students' Association. Charles Zivley, director of the Union, is a non-voting member of the Board. Marjorie Vogan is the assistant to the director of the Union.

Second row: ROLFE, HOLLAND, COMPERE, SANDERS.

SYDNEY CHANDLER REAGAN

EVERY YEAR the Cultural Entertainment Committee brings to the University campus companies and organizations producing educational, historic, and modern plays, and speakers and entertainers. Among the presentations this year were the Ballet Caravan, Thomas Wilfred at the Clavilux keyboard, the Pasquier trio, and the Spanish dancer, Sarita. Dr. Frank Guy Armitage gave a lecture on Dickens on March 8.

The Committee is composed of one faculty member, at present Walter T. Rolfe, who is appointed by the President of the University for a term of two years; one member selected by and from the Students' Assembly for one year. One student is appointed by the president of the Students' Association to serve one year as chairman of the Committee. The chairman for 1938-1939 was Sydney Chandler Reagan. The following were selected by him to assist the Committee: James Floyd Anderson, June Phyllis Nickel, Cy Long, Jack Louis Holland, Powell Butler Compere, J. Olcutt Sanders. The functions, operations, and expenditures of this Committee are under the supervision of the Board of Directors of the Texas Union.

Members are selected for Cowboys on the basis of leadership, ability, campus accomplishments, and scholastic standing. To be eligible for membership a student must be in the second semester of his sophomore year. The roll is limited to forty-five active members and elections are usually held twice a year.

The Cowboys came into existence in 1922 when the need for a men's service organization, dedicated to an ideal service on the campus, became apparent. It has since been one of the most coveted honors in the University.

MORTAR BOARD, national honorary organization for senior women, was formed for the recognition and encouragement of leadership among women. The requirements for membership are at least a "B" average, active participation in campus activities, and an adequate exhibition of the qualities of leadership. Not more than twenty or less than five women are chosen by unanimous vote of the chapter each spring. New members are announced by a traditional tapping service just before Senior Week. The principal activity of the organization this year has been the establishment of the Benedict Memorial Fund.

ORANGE JACKETS is composed of those twenty girls who are considered most representative. Eligibility is based on scholastic standing, qualities of leadership, and all-round ability. Only sophomores and juniors with a "C" average are eligible for membership.

The organization has no specialized field of work and is active in many projects of the University. Orange Jackets are noted for their willingness to serve the University. Members are especially prominent in holding campus elections and in conducting tours of the campus for visitors. Elections are held in the fall and in the spring.

NU UPSILON TAU TAU is one of those select (?) organizations which everyone tries to comprehend, but never quite can, members not excepted. When it was founded in 1917 by Miss Alice Miller and Miss Kathleen Molesworth, the non-existent constitution was destroyed and the motto became "A stitch in time gathers no moss" or "If the shoe fits, lie in it."

In order to discuss the problems with which they are not confronted, the members congregate for lunch twice each month, and goobers are elected bi-annually. Rumor hath it that a keen sense of humor, campus activities, and a certain degree of scholarship are the basis for membership, but one can never know these days. It seems that things like Mr. Browning's poetry and Nu Upsilon Tau Tau are simply not meant to be understood, but must remain forever in the realms of the mysterious.

A rush party at the Alpha Chi Omega house. Catharine Ayres, left foreground, looks very wistful. Janette Martin has a fine time at the sorority's fall formal. In the right hand corner we find the girls inspecting the grounds and plans of their new chapter house. A row of pictures showing Alpha Chi Omegas having bull sessions, entertaining, and studying.

The A. D. Pis celebrate the A. & M. game with a buffet luncheon. Don't argue boys. Posed or playing while Mary Ransom looks on. Cups and scrapbook show the honors that have been bestowed. Well known and a frequent visitor is "Harky" (sitting by the window). Rush Week and these lovely girls did pledge. Tea for three—Mary Margaret, Ellen, and our school secretary, Elizabeth. You are not looking double, it is only the two sets of Stamm twins all reaching for the phone from Jeannette Hedrick. This ping pong game would be most interesting without the game. Hal Rawlins, Florence Dorsey, and Mary Ransom are playing a hard game of bridge.

Rushing these girls was fun, but better still to have the ribbons on. Golda Wertheimer and Jane Rauch look powerfully worried. A good picture of smiles. After a good Sunday dinner at the chapter house, it is customary to gather in friendly little groups on the front lawn to discuss leisurely the many plans for the afternoon and maybe to discuss last night's date. Rows of evening dresses . . . what could be the matter with the tuxes—are they blind?

Eating is a serious business to Mary Sheehan, Etta Baugh, Christine McKenzie, and Florence Dulaney. Mary Julia Armstrong assists Betty Johnson in fixing her hair. A bull session at the Alpha Phi house. Jo Jones, Emalynn Smith, Doris Carrothers, and Mary Katherine Metcalfe agree that this business of eating is serious. Mrs. Word, the Tri Delt housemother. Some of the girls such as Jeanette David, Julia Lee Simon, Elizabeth Wilson, Jackie Fouts, and Adele Martin show us how to study. Bridge, bridge, and more bridge, it surely must be interesting. These Tri Dels really study, or appear to. Nothing like a good old meal is there?—Virginia Moore, Harriet Franks, Peggy Ramsell, and Nancy Coppock. Virginia Moore sits all by herself, but appears to be satisfied. You know these good old football games — well, Tony Billings is one of the girl cheer leaders.

Smile for the birdie, Cissie Ligon. Don't feel that way about it, Mary Nell, it'll come out all right. The nuttiest of the N.U.T.T., Ruth Wheat, Martha Houston, Winifred Small (the new president), Eloise DuBois, and Mary Nell Gilmore enjoy looking on from the outside. Let's see what does the club say. It must be nice to have so many pretty girls' interest. It looks to be a hot game of bridge or something. Here we are, just sitting, says Margaret Smith to Lois Sager, Mary Nell, Eloise, and Martha.

A bunch of smiles on a bunch of girls. Nothing seems to bother the Kappas while eating. Jean and Katherine at a football game. My, but the girls are hungry. Nagle, Icky, and Pitts prepare dinner for the girls—for references ask the house girls. In the corner are Kappa versus Kappa Sigma. Margie answers the phone while the others listen in. My, what a fascination this bridge does have.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

A good example of Zeta intramural ability is Barbara Hull and Cecilia Jane Metzger playing ping pong. Eleanor Dumble says, "Pass the celery" to Dorothy Perkins. Bernice, Alice, Polly, and Rosemary, four pledges, watch the arrival of spring. Jane Stroud illustrates that going to school is worth while after all. Old B. Hall serves as a background for two lovely Zetas, Marion Schneider and Carolyn Hutchins. Carnival time and the Zeta girls were put behind the fence. Four girls smiling proudly at their hopeful Round-Up float winner. Marjorie Osborne, Zeta's sweetheart, answering the phone which is a frequent job. At the Christmas Tree party this year, the Zetas entertained many small children with toys and refreshments.

ALPHA TAU OMEGA

A pair of ATO's coming in from class. A quartet with a Ramsey on each end. The non-players give moral support at an intramural game. Clements and a brother off to school. Harvey Weil, ATO tennis great. Charlie Cappell and his ever lovin' Mary Jane Potter. Harry Wilder and Alice Ann Nitschke at Intramural Field. Ben White is quite taken up with what she has to say—wonder what it is. The ping pong table is never at rest.

A few of the K.A.'s on their side porch. Andy Carter barking for the side show at the Varsity Carnival. K.A. entertains with a buffet supper. Kappa Alpha's very pretty house. Bet that is Andy playing Santa at the Christmas party. Just before lunch, faces are apt to be smileless. Volleyball provides needed recreation.

Three Kappa Sigs laughing at one funny paper. Three Kappa Sigs just laughing. One of the boys tries a sure shot. Inside the Kappa Sig sideshow at the Varsity Carnival. The boys were very attractively dressed for their roles. Just outside the show the ticket sellers attempt to sway the crowd into coming inside. One of the brothers finds an enjoyable method of getting out in the sun. This could be a fish story.

Nancy Filgo and Betty Park smile happily in contemplation of a Phi Gam Sunday dinner. Johnny Meyer is the lucky lad. Mrs. Adelaide Dazey pauses to adjust her chapeau. Aurora casts a 7 A.M. beam on beauty-sleeping Fijis. Breaking bread at noon are Dick Knight, Harrie Travis, and L. E. Guillot. L.E. again, Al Prendergast, KA, and John Pillet concentrate on appetizing evening viands. David Bland swings playfully from the neck of Walter Mathis in an evening frolic. Ready and waiting for Sunday dinner is Kenneth Seibert, standing patiently on the Fiji front sidewalk.

Edison Dreamed...

Of a day when every human task would be done by electricity. The incandescent lamp that first flickered more than half a century ago lighted the way to this goal.

Today, practically every household task can be done quicker, safer and more economically with electric service. And the Electric Industry has made this great record of progress under private ownership with Public Regulation.

SAN ANTONIO PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

TO THE CLASS OF '39

"The Largest Store in the Largest State" established in 1873 and at once became part of the pioneer life of Texas. Today, having grown and prospered with its State, it is rated among America's leading stores.

We hope that the grander, larger Joske's building which your families—and other families of Texas since 1873—helped make possible, will be looked upon by you as a reward from the public to Joske's for honesty and usefulness. May it inspire you to pursue as we did, the course of integrity and service—and may your reward be success comparable with ours, in any field you decide to enter.

A Continuous Salute . . .

THE PROGRESSIVE ACHIEVEMENTS

of Texas Exes is a continuous salute to Texas University, among the nation's greatest educational institutions.

Industrial, commercial, social and economic opportunities beckon to Texas-trained men and women.

Texas abounds in these opportunities and the joining of adequately trained men and women to these opportunities results in a greater Texas with a greater future.

Texans in all walks of life benefit by the achievements made possible because of the training for leadership obtained at Texas University. Men and women, having this training, provide opportunities for others while exercising their own talents for service.
