BURLINGTON HOUSE, PICCADILLY, W.1.

16th March, 1954.

Dear Mr. Brice,

We learnt with very great regret of the death of our Fellow Sir John Myres and I am indeed sorry that he has not lived to see Scripta Minoa III completed and published. I should feel much relieved and very grateful too if we might rely on you to complete the proof corrections, as I feel that you have been in close touch with Sir John and are in a better position than anyone else to know his mind in this matter.

I have this morning spoken to Mr. Keep of the Oxford Press about it and I am sure that he would be very willing to give any help that he could. If you are able to do this for us, we must see that your help is properly acknowledged in the preface. I have no doubt that Sir John intended this in any case.

Yours sincerely,

Assistant Secretary.

W.C. Brice, Esq.,
