Dear Brice,

I found the enclosed yesterday! Could you return it when you have done with it? Our 'casts' given nothing away though I fancy the made-up one can be trusted for the characters.

I have heard from Mrs. Seiradakis who remembers the piece and had assumed it to have been published. She is surprised too and wondered whether it had been thought a fake. This, I suppose, is really unlikely. I wish we could read the thing. I am sure all it says is "Drink, Pappy, Drink", as I am very sceptical about 'cult objects' in general!

Democque's account in BCH 1902 suggests that he had a sizeable deposit and I expect there was a good job. His measurements show that

The right hand cup was 1 cm. nearer the edge at the bottom than the top, as you remarked.

Dear Sir

I have heard from Mr. Zischler who mentions the piece as the making over we tried for the character.
I have heard from Mr. Zischler who mentions the piece as had occasion it to have been published. She is supposed to be working which it was then thought a failure. This, I suppose, is really what with me could read the thing. I am sure all it says is "think, fugg, fugg"
! having in "shape" that "shape" in general.
I am very sceptical about all this "shape" in general.
