

X-Mailer: Microsoft Outlook Express for Macintosh - 4.01 (295)
Date: Fri, 20 Aug 1999 20:50:40 +0100
Subject: Re: PHAISTOS DISC
From: "Andrew Robinson" <andrew.robinson33@virgin.net>
To: emmett bennett <ebennett@facstaff.wisc.edu>

Glad the CDbronze is with you--indeed of the rarer type (high praise from a connoisseur?) Look forward to hearing of your thoughts when ready.

Any chance of the documents you mentioned? I have not been at the office this week.

We published Tom's review of CoMIK Vol 4 this week and it looks quite handsome. I shall post a copy next week.

Andrew

>From: "emmett bennett" <ebennett@facstaff.wisc.edu>
>To: andrew.robinson33@virgin.net
>Subject: RE: PHAISTOS DISC
>Date: Fri, Aug 20, 1999, 12:41 am
>

>No, I'm not rushing, but figuring out what to do first. The CDbronze has >just now arrived. Looks slick. Is of the rarer type. Should be easier to >review - but it's still some work. Many thanks. Emmett <In message Tue, 10 >Aug 1999 09:50:00 +0100,
> "andrew robinson" <andrew.robinson33@virgin.net> writes:

Rj8kRob1.uso
Rj8kRob1.uso

>> Dear Emmett
>>

>> From your latest message, I am a little concerned that you are rushing to >> write a piece on the PD. Please take your time. I had better send you the >> book, THE BRONZE AGE COMPUTER DISC, which can act as the 'peg' for the >> review. I don't ask you to refer to it constantly, but it does need a few >> mentions, otherwise the reader will wonder whether they are reading a book >> review or something else altogether. I shall post it today with a >> commissioning letter for 1750 words by 30 September.
>>

>> In the meantime, I should be really grateful if you would send the other >> items so that I can start to get to grips with this subject before I see >> the Chadwick file in Cambridge on 25 August.

>> Best wishes,
>>

>> Andrew
>>

Rj8kRob1.uso
Rj8kRob1.uso

Rj8kRob1.uso
Rj8kRob1.uso
Rj8kRob1.uso

Rj8kRob1.uso
Rj8kRob1.uso