

23.6.43 - No.29

OFFICERS FAMILY LODGING ALLOWANCE

The War Office desires to correct misunderstandings which have apparently arisen in certain quarters as regards the arrangements for the payment of family lodging allowance direct to wives of officers.

Family lodging allowance which is intended to be used for maintenance of an officer's family is normally paid to the officer himself. Officers commissioned from an Officers Cadet Training unit or direct from the ranks may however on being commissioned elect to have the allowance paid direct to their wives.

-----

THE WAR OFFICE