THE GREEN HOWARDS

The Green Howards were among the first troops to land in Italy when it was invaded by the Allied Forces on September 3rd. They took part in the rapid advance up the toe of Italy. The formation to which they belong was in action on the Biferno river and on October 14th took Casa Calenda and Morrone. On November 9th it forced a crossing of the river Vandra and captured Forli on the important road from Isernio to Castel di Sangro. Since then it has been engaged in the difficult operations in the mountainous centre of the Italian front where it has seen much hard fighting.
