President: Danielle Rugoff-rugoffdr@mail.utexas.edu

Student Leadership: Thanks for taking the opportunity to lead your respective organizations here on campus. I am humbled and amazed to be one of your peers. Remember everyday that you wake up that you are fighting for students, your peers, and administrators across campus are doing the same.

Keep UT Hate Free planning meeting tomorrow at 5pm, SG office: March 26th-30th
If you have any professors, mentors, community leaders, etc who can speak on issues of diversity and identity in terms of what it means here on campus at this University...please let me know

SG Participates in Student Government Study: We have agreed to participate in a three-year research study examining the role of student governance in higher education run by Miami University.

Student participation in Capitol Campaign: There will be a mixture of 30 undergraduate and graduate students here at the University. They would like to have a variety of people in terms of races, class, socioeconomic status, and majors. Please forward me names of anyone who would be interested.

UTPD Citizen Police Academy: If you are interested in this please let me know. I would like to have at least on Student Government Representative.

UT in DC: In DC we will be lobbying for funds for study abroad, Stafford loans, pell grants, and federal financial aid in general.

PSAC: We are looking in to getting a statistics major. We talked about accessibility and disability services. We talked about corporate funding to our institution, the student activities center, and rules for Presidential hopefuls.

Vice President: Marcus Cenicerros-mcenicerros@mail.utexas.edu

It has been a pleasure standing in front of you all as chair of the Assembly.

Reps of the week: Grant Stanis:

Big XII: all but one school is confirmed to go to DC. Rec Sports is helping coordinate the fall conference. Any one interested in helping plan the conference please speak with me.

Cesar Chavez: the statue will not be unveiled this semester. A small set back has extended the timeline until the fall semester.

Liberal Arts Dean Finalists named: please attend the forums if you are in the college of Liberal Arts.

Executive Director: Evan Autry-eautry@mail.utexas.edu

UT Boots

Meeting with George Mitchell

Meeting with Kris Salazar

Overall timeline

The boots are going to happen. All we have to do is set a prices range, design the boot, and launch a marketing scheme. We are working on the percentage that will come back to students. The University Coop does not profit from this endeavor, they are doing us a great service by helping us out. The idea for the funds will directly benefit students through appropriations more than likely.

XIII. Representative Reports

Natural Science Representative: CNS Student of the Month, Creating a Binder with e-mails and past projects for future representatives.

Williams: We are getting ready to roll out the diversity legislation. We want to thank Student Government for assisting Black Student Alliance throughout this year because it is not only seen here on campus, but by other Black Student Governments across the country. We recently attended the Big 12 National Conference on Black Student Government and won the most improved organization this year.

Stanis:

Knudson: National Pharmacy Lobby Day is tomorrow and we will be going down to the capitol to lobby for Pharmacy Students and Professionals.

Windle: Representative Point System: 14 people met the standards and 20 people didn't meet the standards. We voted on this almost unanimously and so I assumed that this meant that everyone would be willing to follow through on this accountability issue. When we talk about accountability in our own system that we put on ourselves, we did not do great.

Camilla and Chico: University Cooperative Housing: There are 14 community cooperatives that house approximately about 1000 students.

Chicotsky: Barak Obama location has been changed and you can RSVP on www.TexansforObama.com There are 12000 seats

STD Testing: Speak with Student Health Advisory Committee
