

Rea, August 2

Dear Emmett:

Just a line to thank you again for your share in Nivnias' motor bike. Wish you could see him buzzing around on it in his natty gray guards uniform & cap. Quite the proudest tiger in the jungle. He says it absolutely saved his life last winter and spring and he will be eternally grateful.

We came up from Chora on July 30th after a good season with something accomplished as we got something down in writing - a description of the palace room by room which Carl dictated to me. Tough going but at least we've made a beginning.

Came over here to see the Carleys' dig yesterday. It's marvelous - Such a site and such interesting architecture & finds. Good luck with your Ravine meeting. I'm off for Nantuxet August 5th All the best
