BAYLOR AND TEXAS CONTINUE TO LEAD SOUTHWESTERN RACE

LONGHORNS TO MEET ALABAMA HERE SATURDAY

Mustangs Will Play First Conference Game With Oklahoma This Week

By Victor O. Cook

Only one change in the Southwestern Conference standing was the result of the two scheduled Conference football games of last week. Johnny Maultbesch's Oklahoma Aggies taking the five hundred mark in the percentage column by their 21-0 win over the Rice Owls.

The Baylor Bruins continued to hold their one thousand per cent by snowing under the Arkansas University Razorbacks 80 to 13 in a game played on the Bears' field in Waco, making two Conference games which the Bears have to their credit now. While the Razorbacks were ingloriously defeated by Baylor, the Arkansas team has the record of being the first eleven to cross the Bruins' goal line this season.

One Game This Week

Only one Southwestern Conference game is on the schedule for this week. The Southern Methodist University Mustangs will play their first Conference clash of the season Saturday at Stillwater, Okla., when they go up against the Oklahoma Aggies. Saturday's game will be the third Conference one for the Aggies. The Mustangs, still smarting under the 10-7 defeat handed them last Friday by Austin College, will go to Stillwater seeking a victory. On the other hand, the Aggies, having split their first two Conference games, will be fighting to materially increase their Conference standing.

With its game of Saturday against Vanderbilt leaving it in rather a crippled condition, Texas University will go up against another hard aggregation Saturday on Clark Field, when the University of Alabama comes here from Tuscaloosa to do battle with the Longhorns. Alabama has a heavy team this year, and an eleven that has been playing good football together.

The Baylor Bears play another game this Saturday with Mississippi College. Not much is known of the Mississippi eleven, but the Bears are looked upon as winners of the game. Baylor supporters are paying more attention now to the game which comes off in Waco a week from Saturday with the Texas Aggies. This game will be one of the premier clashes of the year in the Southwestern Conference.

Aggies Play Friday

Dana Bible's Texas Aggies, who seem to have come out of their early season misform, play Ouachita College of Little Rock, Ark., at College Station Friday. The Little Rock team already has a victory over Arkansas University, a member of the Southwestern Conference, on its win list.

The Louisiana State Tigers, which already has two crushing defeats on its hands from Southwestern Conference eleven, will meet their third Conference team Saturday when they play the Arkansas Razorbacks at Shreveport.

Chief Gardner's Southwestern Pirates will go to Houston Saturday for a game with the Rice Owls. Last week the Pirates were defeated 7 to 0 by Howard Payne while the Oklahoma Aggies were whitewashing the Owls 21-0 in Stillwater.

FUTURE OF MEN'S RIBBON CLUBS IS NOT YET DECIDED

Officers of Rattler and Arrowhead Decline to Make Statements

All efforts to discover the attitude of the men's ribbon clubs, Rattler and Arrowhead, toward disbandment of the women's ribbon clubs Saturday have been without results. Whether or not disbandment of the men's club is likely to follow could not be ascertained. Neither organization has met since dissolution of Arrowhead, Angler, Rabbit Foot and Court of Plaster.

A. W. Walker, president of Rattler said Monday: "I have nothing to say upon the subject."

Bill Spivey, president of Arrowhead, also stated that he was not authorized to express any but a personal opinion.

Jack Cunningham, member of Arrowhead said: "I think the girls took a wise step."

George D. Gammon, member of Rattler, said: "I think that Rattler and Arrowhead will follow the example set by the girls, but this is only what I think about it. I have no idea what Rattler will do."

Openings Remain for Those Interested in Social Service Work

There are still a few openings in the International Institute of the Y. W. C. A. for girls interested in Social Service. The work is carried on chiefly among the foreigners of Austin, especially the Mexicans, the Bohemians and the Greeks. Those needed at the Institute are: one office girl on Tuesday and Thursday from 2:30 to 5, four English teachers on Monday and Wednesday afternoon from 6:15 to 7:15, one singing teacher and accompanist, two piano teachers, and girls to work in the following organizations: Young Ladies Club, Girl Reserve, Woman's Club and Kindergarten. Instructors for these classes do not have to be professional workers, but they must be interested in Social Science and should have some knowledge of the essentials.

Any girls who feel that they could fill one of the vacant places and who have time to devote to the work should call Dave Maude Cummins, chairman of the International Institute.

Gym Classes Start With Advantage of Better Equipment

Regular woman's gym classes began Monday morning. Up to this time, on account of the unfinished gymnasium, substitute classes have been held. During the last two weeks the tennis courts have been worked over, and are now hard and in fair condition. The swimming classes which were held at Deep Eddy temporarily have been discontinued.

The new quarters for the physical training department are practically completed. Twice the number of showers have been added and 912 new gray steel double tier lockers have been installed. The old black lockers are now in the basement of the Woman's Building to be used by dancing and advanced gym classes. A locker fee of 25 cents is to be charged for a key to the new lockers, and each girl will have a locker to herself. When the locker key is returned in the spring the fee will be returned.

REGENTS WILL HOLD MEETING IN AUSTIN

Plans for Rebuilding Banner Gives President's Home to Be Made

In regular scheduled session, the Board of Regents of the University will meet Tuesday at 10 a. m. in Austin. This meeting was originally scheduled to be in El Paso, but E. J. Matthews, secretary of the Board stated Monday night, on account of the recent fire damage to the President's home, it was decided to hold the meeting here.

In addition to regular routine work, the Board will consider plans to rebuild the President's home, Mr. Matthews stated. This will probably be the only building planned discussed at this session, since the building program at Galveston is almost completed, and no new constructions are contemplated at present.

Members of the Board who will attend the meeting Tuesday are:

W. H. Folts of Austin, C. E. Kelly of El Paso, Louis J. Wortham of Fort Worth, Frederick W. Cook of San Antonio, Henry J. Lutchter Stark of Orange, H. A. Wroe of Austin; Sam P. Cochran of Dallas, H. H. Harrington of Dallas, Frank C. Jones of Houston, Mrs. H. J. O'Hair of Coleman.

TEXAS THEATRE GIVES BENEFIT FOR COWBOYS

Special Vaudeville and Mandolin Club Features Two-Day Program

For the benefit of the Texas Cowboys, "Turn to the Right" is to be shown at the Texas Theatre Wednesday and Thursday of this week, together with several added attractions by University students. The Cowboys still owe over one hundred dollars on their equipment, and the Texas Theatre has agreed to donate its profits on Wednesday and Thursday. On the campus Tuesday, 1000 tickets at twenty-five cents each will be sold by the Cowboys in an attempt to pay off the deficit, and leave them a little capital to take care of incidentals expenses in the future.

"Splendid rooting at the Varsity game was the result of the wonderful example set by the Texas Cowboys," stated "Shorty" Nowotny and his assistants Monday night. Since this was the initial appearance of the Cowboys, and they had had very little time to practice, great improvement in their work will be seen in the following games.

"Turn to the Right," was directed by Rex Ingram, the man who made "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse," and it has been paid many tributes by the press. A Buster Keaton comedy is also on the program. Special vaudeville will be furnished by the University students at these performances.

Banner Gives Sentiment Of Fan At Waco

On exhibition in a Co-op window yesterday was a large banner on which "Yea Vandy 20-0" had been painted in red paint. The banner was the cause of much speculation among University students, since it is reported that the banner was picked up by students returning from the Dallas game and that it had been exhibited on the front of "Green House" at Baylor previous to its having been brought here. It is supposed that the inscription represents the sentiments of some Baylor student or supporter.

Representative Board Will Elect Officers for Year at Meeting

Members of the Woman's Representative Board will hold their regular meeting Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock in room 157 Main Building. Election of officers will be held and work on a new constitution will begin at once.

The Point System which was employed so effectively last year will again be put into practice and rigidly enforced. Efforts are being made by the board to procure as a speaker Mrs. Bennett, an advisor of women. If possible Mrs. Bennett will remain at the University for a few days thereby enabling all University girls to have the advantage of her advice along vocational lines.

POINTS WILL BE GIVEN IN NEW RIDING CLASS

Points toward a "T" in the Riding Class will be given as follows: for one hour with instruction, five points; two hours with instruction, ten points; for two hours ride without instruction, only five points will be given.

Bellmont Announces Amount of Receipts at Dallas Stadium

Receipts from tickets for the Texas-Vanderbilt game totaled $18,710.70, it was announced Monday by L. T. Belmont, director of athletic in the University.

Fifteen per cent of the gross receipts must be paid to the Fair Association for the use of the Stadium, and expenses in addition to this, which include the officials for the game, advertising, etc., will amount to about $700.

Vanderbilt was given a guarantee of $6,000 for the game, and the two teams divide the net receipts of the game. After all expenses have been met, each team will receive approximately $7,500.

NEW ASSEMBLY WILL HOLD FIRST SESSION

SECOND RECITAL IN TEXAS ARTIST SERIES IS GIVEN

Roy David Brown and Amateur Choral Club Are Presented

Roy David Brown, pianist, director of music in Baylor University, Waco, and the Amateur Choral Club, under the direction of Mrs. J. W. Morris, were presented in recital, Monday evening, in the University Baptist Church, in the second recital in the Texas Artists series being conducted by the Department of Music. The auditorium of the recital room was filled with auditors. The Choral Club occupied the choir loft of the church, whose excellent acoustics are by far the best in Austin. The voices of the chorus sounded pleasingly round and full.

Songs of Cadman and Brahms

The singing of the Choral Club in the programmed numbers indicates recent serious study. There was a unity of ensemble effects displayed in Cadman's "Indian Mountain Song" and a realization of thrilling climax values in "Morning" (Speaks). MacDowell's "To a Wild Rose" and "Cradle Song" (Brahms) were other appreciated offerings. Gounod's "Gallia" ended the choral numbers.

Brown Invokes Moods

Mr. Brown's piano performance was characterized by a sensitiveness to moods and to the power of silence in music. In pianissimo passages, Mr. Brown exhibited a digital delicacy that evidenced a delight in the fineness of the compositions. "Prelude," Op. 10, No. 1. (MacDowell) began Mr. Brown's numbers, and was succeeded by Grieg's "Wedding Day at Troldhaugen," "Polichinelle" (Rachmaninoff). Liebling's "Album Leaf," "Sous Bois" (Straub), Finale from "Lucia," for the left hand and Dett's "Juba Dance," were other piano solos.

E. Clyde Whitlock, violinist and Sam S. Lash, baritone, both of Fort Worth will give the third recital of the Texas Artist series, Monday evening, November 13.

INTRAMURAL FOOTBALL WILL START SATURDAY

Business Administration-Engineer Game Will Be Played as Curtain Raiser

Intramural football for 1922 will be started with the Business Administration-Engineer curtain raiser to the Varsity-Alabama game on Clark Field Saturday, it was announced Monday by Berry Whitaker, director of intramural athletics. The game will start at 2:30 o'clock.

The Laws and Juniors will meet Monday, October 30, at 3 o'clock. The Pre-Laws and the Graduate-Senior team will meet Friday, November 3, at 3 o'clock. The Pre-Meds will meet the Sophomores Saturday, November 4, at 4 o'clock.

The winners of the B. A.-Engineer game meet the winner of the Law-Junior game Monday, November at 3. The Freshmen meet the winner of the Pre-Med-Soph game Friday, November 10 at 3 o'clock. Saturday, November 11, the winner of the B. A.-Engineer-Law-Junior semi-final game meet the winner of the Pre-Law-Upperclassmen game.

The final championship game of the year, to be played between the two elevens whose records remain unmarred by defeat, will take place Friday, November 17, at 3 o'clock.

MRS. BELL AT DALLAS

Mrs. Florence Bell, who was assistant Dean of Women last year, was at the Texas-Vanderbilt game Saturday. Mrs. Bell will be in Austin Thanksgiving.

LAW REVIEW WILL MAKE APPEARANCE DURING NOVEMBER

Work on Law Journal Well Under Way, Professor Green Announces

Work on the first issue of the Texas Law Review, the law journal to be published under the direction of the Law School of the University and of prominent lawyers in the state, is well under way and the first issue will appear in November, according to Prof. A. L. Green. The Review will be primarily the professional periodical of the Texas Bar and will serve as a clearing house for all matters of professional interest for the entire bar of Texas.

The students in the School of Law will have their own editorial board which is selected from the second and third year classes by members of the faculty on the basis of scholarship and peculiar fitness for such service. To become a member of this board will be considered the greatest honor a law student can earn during his three years in the Law School.

Students Work

The work to be done by the student board will constitute one of the most important phases of the publication. This work will give the law student an opportunity to prove his worth, both in legal research and in analysis of the decisions of the courts. It will also afford the bar of the state an opportunity to determine the quality of the work done in the Law School and will give firms desiring to employ young lawyers an unusual opportunity for determining their ability.

The Texas Law Review is organized for wider purposes than merely a law school publication; however, and necessarily it will have to be published under the supervision of a board selected from the profession at large.

Officers Elected

The officers selected for the first year are: B. K. Gore, Fort Worth, president; Judge William Boyce, Amarillo, vice president; Judge Ireland Graves, Austin, treasurer; Leon Green, Austin, secretary.

The executive committee is composed of the following members: Judge Ireland Graves, Judge F. L. Hawkins, Judge John W. Brady, Dudley K. Woodward, Ira P. Hildebrand and Leon Green.

The editorial board of practicing lawyers chosen to direct the policies of the magazine for the first year are: Thomas H. Franklin, San Antonio; E. T. Branch, Houston; Lewis R. Bryan, Houston; Judge J. T. Montgomery, Wichita Falls; Charles I. Francis, Wichita Falls; Robert W. Stayton, Corpus Christi; A. E. Wilkinson, Austin; Judge Nelson Phillips, Dallas; Eugene P. Locke, Dallas; A. H. McKnight, Dallas; G. N. Harrison, Brownwood; Judge F. A. Williams, Galveston; Charles K. Lee, Fort Worth; Professors John C. Townes, Ira P. Hildebrand, Charles G. Haines and Charles S. Potts of Austin. (Messrs. Branch and Lee have not yet signified their acceptance).

Campaign Last Year

The campaign for founding the Review on an endowed basis was begun last December by the faculty of the Law School. Many of the law students and lawyers throughout the state aided in making the movement a success.

The fund derived from the sale of the capital stock will be invested in permanent interest-bearing securities, and only the revenue to be derived therefrom, together with the income derived from advertising and annual subscriptions, will be used for paying the expenses of the publication.

MEMORIAL UNION MAY TAKE OVER VARSITY DANCE

Proposed Resolution Would Give Union Management of Thanksgiving Reception

By Francis G. Wilson

The first meeting of the students' assembly will be held Tuesday night at 7:15 o'clock in the temporary headquarters of the students association, Archie D. Gray, president of the students' association has announced.

Business to come before the meeting will probably mean the shifting of the all-University dance and the Thanksgiving reception to the Memorial union if two resolutions to be introduced meet no opposition. No opposition has been voiced by newly elected members of the assembly and all who made any comments on the transfer have been in favor of letting the union make any money possible for the fund.

To Consider Dance

It has been cited by student government officials that in most other universities the union executive committee has full charge over these affairs and gives money made to the funds being collected for the union building. This precedent from other universities has been made the basis of the request of the executive committee headed by Frank K. McGeehe of Weatherford in his movement to gain control over the all-University dance and the Thanksgiving reception.

In commenting on the fact that the Memorial union would be forced to stand any loss from the management of the all-University dance, Bob Murphree of Wellington, Memorial union manager of the dance, said that they expected to make considerable sums by the end of the year for the fund. "I do not anticipate any loss from the all-University dance since the student body will give us full support," he said Sunday afternoon.

Members to Take Oath

All members of the assembly will take the oath of office at the meeting of the assembly. The ceremony will be informal and no effort at display is to be attempted, Archie D. Gray, president, said. Girl members of the assembly elected along with the men will take the oath of office at the same time. The first meeting of the assembly was postponed from last Thursday because of the preparation to go to Dallas for the Vanderbilt game.

Committeemen from the students' assembly to the musical organization the publications board and other organizations on which the assembly is represented will be appointed at the meeting tonight, it was learned.

Series of Baseball Games Will Finish Fall Term Practice

Billy Disch, baseball coach, Monday announced that a series of nine baseball games will be played in the near future as a culmination of the fall baseball practice which has been going on since the University opened.

Three games will be played each week, on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, and there will be no practice on Tuesday and Thursday, as heretofore. All men who have been out for practice to date must report or forfeit their opportunity of coming out next spring. A record of fielding and batting average will be kept as a check on the players' work. The baseball men must report Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

THE FRUITS OF DEFEAT

A team that puts up a great fight against heavy odds and succumbs to the opponents only after game and strenuous fighting during every minute of the play has no need of an alibi. Next to winning a victory is to lose a game with the knowledge that the team put its utmost strength and effort into the fray. As William B. Ruggles, the well-known sports editor of the Dallas News, in commenting on the Texas-Vanderbilt game, states, "The flashing Orange of the State University was again dipped in the dust-dipped, but not dishonored, for Berry Whitaker's newly-moulded team staged flashes of super football."

It is no wonder that Texas students and alumni are proud of the playing of the Longhorns on last Saturday. There is nothing but praise for a team of youngsters that fiercely and bravely pitted itself against the veteran Commodores; that secured a touchdown even through the greatest defensive team which Dan McGugin has ever produced; that battered itself relentlessly against the fighting reserve of the Commodores which held Michigan to five first downs; that demonstrated a fighting determination which may be defeated, but not conquered; that, in spite of being weakened by injuries, gave the Vandy eleven a thrilling game until the last whistle of the game.

Regardless of the unfavorable score, the University won a victory in the game with Vanderbilt—a victory over the spirit of poor sportsmanship which is ever inclined to knock and complain when the team fails to win. In the days preceding the game, during the playing, and afterwards, the students and ex-students have been ever loyal in their support of the Longhorns. The enthusiastic manner in which the students cheered the team as they left for Dallas, the cheering support by the rooters during the game, and the rousing welcome with which the students greeted the battered and bruised Longhorns on their return, all attest to the renaissance of real Texas spirit which remains constant and true during trial and triumph alike. Supported by that spirit, the fighting Longhorns have a good chance to win the remaining difficult games of the season.

FOUR C'S AND A D

The announcement of the scholastic averages of the fraternities sheds light on two interesting matters. One is the failure of a third of the fraternities to make the general average, and the failure of 21 out of 32 men's and women's social organizations to make a better average than 6.90, or, in other words, 2 B's and 3 C's. Standing alone this has the appearance of a black eye for the fraternities. And such is the case. But a second matter looms up. The general average of all the upperclassmen in the University was only 5.60, or 4 C's and one D. Certainly a creditable average for university students!

KRAZY KAT

Who hung that crepe on the windows of love?

The reputation of the University of Texas as an institution of higher learning should most certainly be felt by those who go to make up that institution. A new year is starting now. Why not get down to work and show a few of the kickers what Texas can do when she takes a notion.

—D. E. H. K.

THE WISDOM OF PANHELLENIC

Panhellenic has announced the disbandment of women's ribbon clubs. This action of Panhellenic does not come as a surprise, but rather as a relief in the increasing sentiment against such organizations. Panhellenic has acted wisely and should be congratulated sincerely upon its decision.

It has been pretty generally agreed that the ribbon clubs have been a stain on the University for several years. Not only have they worked against the interest and spirit of the University as a whole, but they have done more than any other one thing to discredit the Greek letter societies themselves. Again we tip our hats to Panhellenic.

EDITION OF MAGAZINE TO APPEAR NEXT WEEK

F. M. Stewart, editor of the "Texas Municipalities," the publication of the department of Government, announces that the November edition is on the press now and will be released next week.

Some of the articles appearing are: Standard Form of Contracts for Public Works, by John W. Hawley of Fort Worth; Rats, A City Problem, by R. R. Reppert of A. & M. Etomologist; Wichita Falls Reclamation and Irrigation Project, by R. A. Thompson; Mosquito Malaria Control, dealing particularly with the dengue epidemic.

VARSITY POSTOFFICE IS BEING ENLARGED

Several Hundred Additional Boxes Will Be Installed to Accommodate Patrons

Within ten days or thereabouts, the University will have a much enlarged post-office, modern well-equipped, and up-to-date in every respect. Work on this project was started Saturday, October 20, and has been going on continuously. Great progress has been made in the re-fitting of the University postal station with the several hundred additional boxes that it is to contain, according to George H. Sparenberg, city postmaster. The wall between the old post-office and the adjacent room has been broken, and the entire space is being re-modeled at the expense of the University authorities. The cost will run up to three thousand dollars or over, said Mr. Sparenberg.

Special interest has always been taken in the postal station here, and as soon as it was noticed that the quarters were getting too crowded to accommodate the increased volume of mail, plans were set afoot for improving matters so that better service might be had. It is not planned to enlarge the force, however, although it will be done as soon as it is found necessary.

CAMPUS SHORTS

A call has been issued to the twenty two Engineers who signed up for intramural cross country team to work out under captain Eastman.

Reports from the University Physician's office indicate a decline in the number of dengue cases among students. None of the cases have proven fatal. The dengue epidemic together with freshman physical examinations and vaccinations have kept the medical staff very busy.

Until Monday afternoon nineteen members of the Law School had shown their interest in criminal law by signing up for membership in the Davidson Criminal Law society.

DELEGATES RETURN FROM CREOLE CITY

Back from the National Convention at New Orleans, Ira J. Allen, adjutant of the University post, describes the Texas delegation as being there in full force and with characteristic Texas spirit. John K. Weber was representative of the University post, and both men declare that life and gaiety at New Orleans rivals that of Old Paris herself.

Last Monday night the Texas delegation, fifteen hundred strong, with their "Texas Star" prominently displayed on arm or hat band, staged a big parade that caused the peaceful citizens of the Creole City to take more than a passing glimpse of their neighbors. At the head of the band was an old gray mare, who led the procession through all the hotel lobbies in the city. Steep stairways and narrow doors were no obstacles to the "old gray" who is said to have gone so far as to register at some of the hostilities.

LITERARY

Speakers

At the regular meeting of Speakers' Club Tuesday night the tryouts for membership will be concluded. All men who have filed application for membership and who have not spoken before the club, be present at this meeting. If you are unable to attend, please notify Bennett Smith at the Delta Chi house.

Immediately after the tryouts there will be held a business meeting for old members.

The work of the year will be outlined.

THEATRE CALENDAR

Majestic: House Peters in "The Storm."
Queen: William Fox presents "Monte Cristo."
Crescent: Rupert Hughes' "Remembrance."
Texas: Thomas Meighan in "A Prince There Was."
Hancock: William Farnum in "Perjury."

Queen

Dumas' "Monte Cristo" showing at the Queen this week has its foundation on history. During his youth Dumas resided for a time in the southern seaport of Marseilles, one of the picturesque and historical cities of France. Strolling along the quays one afternoon Dumas hailed a passing rowboat and was taken to the Chateau d'If, whose rugged black masonry stood sharply outlined against the blue Mediterranean sky. This fortress island of ill fame, known as the Bastille of the Midi is the scene of thrilling incidents. Dantes, the central character is confined there after his arrest on his wedding night. His escape after many years confinement is sensational and the final wreaking of vengeance is equally so.

Hancock

In "Perjury" the William Fox special which opened at the Hancock Theatre Monday, William Farnum gives a masterly and gripping characterization of a man tormented by suspicion, jealousy and rage and finally redeemed by resignation and human sympathy. The varying emotions are displayed most impressively.

Texas

Appearing to excellent advantage in a delightful role, Thomas Meighan made a deep impression in his latest Paramount picture, "A Prince There Was" at the Texas theatre yesterday. The story deals with an idle rich young man who tires of his environment and seeking new fields, finds romance and love. Mr. Meighan vests the role with sympathy and feeling and he is ably supported by Mildred Harris who is the girl in the case. There are many moments of suspense and thrill and on the whole, the production is far above the average. The other roles are ably portrayed by Nigel Barrie, Guy Oliver, Sylvia Ashton, Charlotte Jackson, Fred Huntly and Arthur Hull. The picture was directed by Tom Forman.

BAPTIST CONVENTION

Baptist students of the state will hold their third annual convention of the Baptist Student Union at Denton, Texas, beginning October 27 and lasting through October 29. Twenty delegates will go from the University Baptist Church.

ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY TEXAN

AFTER THE BATTLE THOUGHTS ON GAME AT DALLAS NOTED

With Punk Stacy going around on crutches, injuries to Gilstrap and Gray and Tynes not yet able to get out for practice, the Texas lineup has been left in a crippled condition from its game last Saturday with Vanderbilt in Dallas, and with another hard clash coming off this week-end on Clark Field against Alabama University.

It was the weakness of the Longhorn secondary defense that permitted two of the Commodore touchdowns Saturday. Failure of Texas players to tackle Gil Reese in his 50-yard run for a touchdown, and inability to break up Neely's pass to Bomar in the final quarter or to tackle Bomar until he reached the Longhorns' one-yard line, counted for a great deal.

The Vanderbilt backfield men played a good-defensive game. Whenever Texas completed a pass, there was always a Commodore or two on the spot to nail the Longhorn player before he could advance very far with the ball. The Vandy backfield men kept their eyes on the ball, and the Texans were unable to get away from them for long runs after the passes were completed.

The Texas line outplayed and outgated the Vandy line. From tackle to tackle, the Longhorns presented a defense that was almost impregnable. In offense, the Longhorns time and again opened up holes in the Commodore forward defense for a Texas back to plunge through.

The running of Gil Reese, Vandy halfback, was one of the outstanding features of the game. This youngster was fleet of foot, and reeled off several good gains around the ends. The interference given by his teammates was another good point, and several times Reese directed his interference while running with the ball. In his 50-yard run for his second touchdown was one of the times.

Bobby Robertson stood out with his passing work, placing his passes with considerable accuracy. Bobby shot the pigskin from his hands as though he were throwing a baseball, and the oval went into the arms of a Texas player almost every time. Bobby also was standing out good in his punts.

Taken all in all it was a good game, and anybody's game up to the time Vandy scored its final touchdown in the last quarter. The Texas team never lost its fighting morale, but kept plugging away during all four quarters in a grim effort to turn defeat into victory. The Texans were showing the best fighting punch and team spirit they have exhibited this year, and gave Dan McGugin's bunch something to think about.

COWBOYS SCORE GIANT SUCCESS ON DALLAS TRIP

State Press Is Loud in Praise of New Rooter Organization

Dallas Texas, October 22.—Seldom if ever before has a two-weeks-old organization received as much favorable comment from the press and the general public as did the University of Texas' special rooters, The Texas Cowboys, on their initial appearance here Saturday.

Outfitted in characteristic cowboy costumes with the University colors of orange and white prominently displayed, the Cowboys proved one of the big features of the Saturday morning parade and of the program at the Stadium in the afternoon.

Papers Carry Pictures

William B. Ruggles, veteran sports writer of the southwest, gave particular mention of the Cowboys in his report of the game appearing in the Dallas Morning News of Sunday, speaking of "that most unique rooting organization, the Texas Cowboys." The News also carried three large pictures of the Cowboys in action, the pictures being taken by the newspaper's staff photographer.

Sports writers of other Dallas papers joined Ruggles in complimenting the new organization.

Lead Big Parade

Dallas knew that Texas University had come to town when the big parade started at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. The Longhorn Band, headed by Drum Major Harold Broome, and the Texas Cowboys marched from their headquarters at the Dallas Y. M. C. A. to the Oriental hotel where a concert was presented and special yells given under the leadership of Yell-leader Shorty Nowotny. The main parade started soon after from the Oriental. The Band of sixty pieces headed the parade and was enthusiastically applauded throughout the line of march. Immediately following were the Cowboys, completely outfitted and making a most unique and picturesque appearance. The Cowboys were brand new to Dallas people and were greeted with an enthusiasm that was particularly remarkable.

Others of the five hundred Texas students fell in behind the Cowboys for the parade and were led by Yell-leaders Nowotny, Pool and Cole.

Band Radio Concert

At 12:30 Saturday the Band and Cowboys were at the Fair Park Stadium to broadcast a program over the Dallas News-Journal radio. Several numbers were given by the Band, interspersed with yells and songs by the Cowboys.

The Longhorn Band went on the field at 2:25, followed by the Cowboys. Both organizations were greeted with wild applause from the stands.

The Cowboys launched immediately into a mock football game between improvised Vandy and Texas teams, ropes being used in place of tackling, and other comical features being introduced. It is needless to say that the Cowboys wearing the Vandy colors got much the worse of the deal and as they were "killed off" they were laid out on the field, forming a big "V."

"T. U." is Formed

Between halves the Band formed the famous "T" with the Cowboys making a "U" around it. The formation was presented perfectly, not one "bobble," being discernable. The rooters then gave a snake dance led by the Cowboys.

TEA AND GIFT SHOP TO HOLD OPEN HOUSE

Open house will be held Tuesday from 3 to 6 o'clock and in the evening from 8 to 10 o'clock at the "Little T Shop Around the Corner," 2707 N. Guadalupe. This will be a tea and oriental gift shop, and many imported pieces from China, England, Ireland and France will be on display. The shop will be run by Mrs. Leroy S. Brown and Mrs. Morgan Smith, and after the first day will be open at 11 o'clock.

Y.W.C.A. DISCUSSION GROUPS HOLD MEETINGS

Subjects of interest to the men and women of the University are being taken up by the discussion group which are being held by the Y. W. C. A. on Tuesday of every week. Dr. C. W. Hackett will speak this afternoon at 5 o'clock in the Association's reading room on "Present Day Mexico." The talk will last about thirty minutes and the meeting will then be thrown open for discussion.
