PROPOSED LAWS UNDER FIRE AT MASS MEETING

Holiday of Assembly, Interprets Suggestion Before Convocation in Auditorium—Speakers Assail and Support Changes.

A mass meeting of the students was held in the Auditorium yesterday afternoon from 12 to 1 o'clock for a consideration of the proposed amendments to the constitution of the Students' Association offered by the Assembly. Several of the most prominent students of the University spoke. New suggestions were set forth by some of those who opposed particular amendments. Frank Lyons, president of the Students' Association was in charge.

Sam Holliday, chairman of the amendment committee of the Assembly, read the amendments. He said that the Assembly regarded the amendment providing a permanent treasurer as having primary importance, while the recall and impeachment amendments were of less importance.

Mr. Holliday stressed the point that some change was needed in the management of student finances. He added the Assembly believed the amendment suggested would produce the desired element of permanency by having the president of the University appoint a faculty member as treasurer. He maintained, however, that the students, through the Assembly, would retain ultimate control.

Clarence Lohmann, the second speaker, heartily endorsed the amendment concerning impeachment proceedings, but just as heartily opposed the recall and treasurer plans. The greater part of the audience seemed to agree with Mr. Lohmann when he declared: "It is a vicious plan which provides that the students shall elect a man to office and that they may petition him out, without even a chance for self-defense." On the amendment providing for the appointment of a permanent treasurer he said that as long as the students elect business managers, they would be selected on basis of popularity rather than merit, and further that students do not have the time or experience to assume such responsibilities. Mr. Lohmann suggested a plan whereby a board of directors, made up both of faculty members and students, should be appointed by the board of regents, and that this board of directors should employ a permanent business manager of the Students' Association, who should be responsible to the board of directors and the Students' Association, and that this business manager should be given the power to hire student assistants and also power to discharge them.

C. I. Francis, opposing Lohmann, declared that the permanent treasurer plan suggested by the Assembly would greatly increase the efficiency in the business affairs of the Association. He gave five reasons for his contention. First, he said that the president of the University would select a man with a view to efficiency, only; secondly, that this treasurer would be an advisor to managers under him, third, that he would supervise contracts made by managers; fourth, that this treasurer would make annual reports on all business transactions, and fifth, that the Students' Assembly would be the ultimate source of power. Mr. Francis also favored the amendment for impeachment proceedings, but opposed the recall amendment.

Lynn W. Landrum objected to the amendment providing for a permanent treasurer on the grounds that it does not go to the root of the trouble. He said that the past deficits of the student publications were due not so much to contracts that had been made, but rather to contracts that had not been made; and therefore, that the suggested treasurer could not remedy it, for he would only have power to

BEARS BEAT TEXAS IN SOCCER, 2 TO 0

Baylor Wins Return Game on Clark Field by Scoring in Second Half. Invaders Show Better Form.

Baylor University soccer team defeated Texas by the score of 2 to 0 yesterday afternoon on Clark Field. During the first half of the game neither side was able to kick the ball between the goal posts. But the fast Baylor forwards speeded up in the second half and scored two goals.

For the Texas team, Nunn, Ward, and Rogers were the stars. Nunn's head work and kicking far excelled that of any other man on the field. For Baylor, the whole team played exceptionally well, their squad being superior in many respects to the Longhorns. Moreau and G. Roach, at goal, were the Baylor stars.

"AD" CONTRACTS LANDED

Longhorn to be Joined with Other National College Comics in Publicity Campaign Next Year.

H. S. Moeller of New York City spent Saturday and Sunday in Austin in consultation with the board arranging the national advertising campaign for next year.

Mr. Moeller is general manager of the Publishers' Representative Company, an incorporation which represents a combination of all the college comics in the country, including such papers as the Harvard Lampoon, the Yale Record, the Stanford Chaparral, and other comics throughout the United States.

$1200 IS EXPENDED FOR LAW BOOKS

The Law Department yesterday placed orders for $1200 worth of books with the Lawyers' Co-operative Society at Rochester, N. Y. Reports of the supreme court cases before 1880 in the following states make up the order: Georgia, Indiana, Virginia, Kentucky, Wisconsin, Michigan, Minnesota, North Carolina and Ohio.

On the arrival of this shipment the Law library will contain a complete record of all cases decided by the state supreme courts.

UNIVERSITY LADIES ENTERTAIN

The ladies of the University Club will entertain the club members, Thursday, February 24, at the club house. Mrs. Hilgartner will present a musical program. Tea will be served from 4 to 6 o'clock. The committee having charge of the arrangements is composed of the following: Mrs. E. C. Barker, chairman; Mrs. L. T. Bellmont, Mrs. James McClelland, Mrs. P. W. McFadden, Mrs. T. Riker, Mrs. J. L. Henderson, Mrs. H. Y. Benedict, Mrs. Charles Ramsdell, Mrs. George P. Garrison, Mrs. Killis Campbell, Mrs. H. W. Harper, and Miss Elizabeth Simpkins.

Mr. John A. Martin of Pittsburg, Pa., is the guest of his niece, Miss Lucille M. Rawlins.

veto contracts the student managers had made.

Alex W. Spence opposed the treasurer plan adopted by the Assembly on the grounds that, first, a faculty member would be notoriously incapable to fill the place; and second, the amendment failed to abolish election of business managers altogether.

Other students had speeches prepared, but at 1 o'clock the crowd began to leave and the meeting was adjourned. Eight or ten hundred students were present.

SOPHOMORES TO FORGET WORRIES AT ANNUAL BALL

Seek to "Live Down" Recent Freshman Reception "Failure" by Making March 1 Affair An Unusual Success.

Feeling duty bound to suppress the humiliation to which the Freshmen subjected them recently, the Sophomores,—officers, rank and file,—join in making arrangements for the annual reception and ball next Wednesday, March 1, at Knight of Columbus Hall.

The affair, which is to be strictly informal, no cabs, no flowers, no dress suits, will begin at 9 o'clock and last until 1 o'clock next morning. A special car will convey the students home.

Although plans are not definitely fixed, the refreshment committee promises fruit punch and an ice course as refreshments. Plans are under consideration for the introduction of unusual features.

An energetic campaign for the disposal of tickets soon will be started. An effort will be made to have the affair the most largely attended one of its kind for the year.

"TRIANGLE" IS ECLIPSED

Curtain Club One-Act Comedy at Y. W. C. A. Charity Performance to Reveal "Social Quadrilateral."

In "Fancy Free," the one-act comedy of manners by Stanley Houghton, which members of the Curtain Club are now preparing for the charity performance under the auspices of the Y. W. C. A., the usual "eternal triangle" is eclipsed completely by a specially constructed quadrilateral. Thus the cloud of marriage has a silver lining for the husband as well as for the recalcitrant wife.

The play abounds in clever lines as well as unusual situations. Miss Helen Becker will portray the wife, while Miss Jerry Wilson will be the predatory protagonist. Rex Shaw and Fred Hibbard will play the opposing roles of susceptible husband and intriguing friend.

The playlet has been in rehearsal for some time and promises to maintain the high standard of finish and interpretation always noticeable in Curtain Club productions.

CHEM. CLUB BANQUET.

Drs. E. P. Schoch, W. J. Battle, and W. H. Harper made addresses at the annual Chemical Club banquet held last night in the Chemical Building. W. A. Felsing was chairman. More than a hundred persons were seated at the feast.

Engineers "Feed" on Unique "Chuck"

Among the many reasons for the success of the Engineers' banquet last Monday night, one stands out with prominence. It was the novel menu, replete with engineering terms, and doing special honor to the renowned Alexander. The following is the "chuck list" that appeased the appetites of "the old man's" boys:

Alec's Favorite
Insulation Plumb-bobs
Electrolytic Solution
Submarine Diver
Boiler Scale
Dead Load on Mat Foundation
Crushed Stone Concrete in Moulds

WAR OVER, CLUB TO FOREGO TRIP

One Thousand Mexicans Return to Mexico from San Antonio—La Tertulia Not to Play There.

Since the cessation of hostilities in Mexico, and the amicable settlement of the disputes over who shall be president, more than one thousand refugees have left San Antonio and returned to their native homes. This fact has necessitated a radical change in the plans of La Tertulia. Their original plan was to go to San Antonio and present "Zaragueta" for the benefit of the large number of people from Mexico who temporarily were residing in that city. The play promised to be a great success there, and special scenery had been procured by the club in order that the setting might be as typically Spanish as possible, thus insuring the approbation of their foreign audience.

As a result of this Hegira, La Tertulia has decided to present the play in Austin only, and this they will do on the night of February 25 in the University Auditorium. The extra preparations made for the presentation in San Antonio, however, will not be omitted.

ISSUE EDITORS QUIT

Arnoux Joins Fort Worth Daily, and Dunham the Austin American. Baggett Temporarily Withdraws to Work on Debates.

Three issue editors of the Daily Texan, G. Campbell Arnoux of Fort Worth, Samuel Baggett of Austin, Howard Dunham of Dallas, have quit the staff to engage in other work.

Arnoux already has withdrawn from school and has gone to Fort Worth to join the staff of one of the dailies there. He expects to return to the University next September to continue his studies.

Baggett, who quit the Texan some time ago, did so in order that he might have more time to prepare for the intercollegiate debates. He expects to return to the paper soon. Dunham likewise resigned from the Texan some time ago to accept a position with the Austin American.

There now remain four issue editors on the Texan staff—Harold Potash, Jean Thweatt, Leslie Etter, John A. Smith. This leaves two places to be filled and there are four candidates for the two vacancies. These are Elmer Luter, W. J. Weeg, Frank B. Scott and G. L. Mixson. C. E. Quinn is a tryout for the position of associate editor.

SINGERS OUTLINE TRIP.

Club Itinerary Includes San Marcos Belton, Temple, Dallas and Other Texas Cities.

Plans for the annual Glee Club trip have been completed, according to Manager Beauford Jester. The singers will fill their first engagement in San Marcos, on March 4. The northern trip, which will start March 27, and continue through the entire week, will include dates at Baylor College, at Belton, Temple, Texas Presbyterian College at Miford, Dallas, Greenville, Sherman and Denton.

The local concert, which is given annually, will be given in the Auditorium, Friday, March 24.

WRITES ON CIVIC BEAUTY.

Miss Stella Shurtleff, a graduate of the University of Texas, and who, during her student days, was interested in the subject of art, has just contributed an interesting article to the Houston Chronicle on "How to Make the City Beautiful."

WOMEN STUDENTS ADOPT AMENDMENT IN MASS MEETING

Amendment Provides for Organization Committee of Eleven Members Appointed by President of Woman's Association.

The proposed amendment to the Constitution of the Woman Students' Association providing for a standing committee called the Organization Committee, the purpose of which is to serve as a medium (1) to confer direct information of vital importance to the women students and (2) to effect their compact organization, was unanimously passed in a mass meeting held in the Main Auditorium yesterday afternoon. About 250 girls were present at the meeting.

The amendment as proposed further provides that the membership of the committee shall consist of one junior or senior member of the Assembly, who shall be appointed by the president, and ten other members, one from each of the geographical districts of Austin, also appointed by the president and ratified by the Assembly.

The chairman of each committee under the provision made in the amendment shall organize her district and for the purpose of effecting proper organization, a sub-committee composed of representatives from each house containing six or more women students, and from such sub-divisions as the district population shall be appointed.

Miss Ada Miller explained that this new system would not be a means of bringing information from the girls into the Association, but instead, it would be a channel whereby information might go from the Association out to the girls in the shortest time.

SOCCER TEAM FOR "B" HALL PLANNED

"B" Hall is organizing a soccer team which is to play a series of three games with other University teams. The first of the games will probably be played on Saturday of next week.

A trophy is to be given to the winners by the Athletic Council. It will probably be a large shield with the winners' name inscribed on it.

STUDENTS OBSERVE VARIOUS PASTIMES DURING HOLIDAY

That spring from all appearances had come was the keynote of the numerous outings and entertainments enjoyed by the students on Washington's Birthday. It was the first holiday of the term, and pleasure-seekers made the best of it.

As early as sunrise the celebration began, when numerous parties set out for Lake Austin and the bordering hills to enjoy a breakfast in the woods. Lake Austin seemed the rendezvous of the holiday crowd; both from the city and the University. All day the lake was thickly dotted with boats. Many picknickers spent the day at Mt. Bonnell.

Among the students the many followers of Isaac Walton spent the day fishing. Armed with rod and pole the fishermen took advantage of the spring-like holiday.

Many students remained in Austin. The many picture shows enjoyed a large patronage. Other students, however, took advantage of the holiday to catch up in their studies.

Tuesday evening the Tri-Delta sorority entertained with an informal dance at their chapter house. The A. T. O. fraternity entertained some of their friends with a dinner dance.

THE TREASURER AMENDMENT.

The proposed amendment providing for a treasurer of student funds does not recognize the true nature of the managerial positions. Principles of democratic government are in no way involved. The manager does not express student opinion or choice. He is concerned with student finances, and his sole merits are honesty and efficiency. Those necessary qualifications in the manager can best be vouchsafed the students through direct employment. In foregoing the right of electing the managers the students forego no fundamental right of free government, but merely embrace the means of safeguarding the public finance and making more efficient the business management of the publications and activities. In fact, the plan proposed in the amendment provides to a considerable extent for the surrender of popular choice in so far as it provides for the appointment of a treasurer, the supervisor of the managers. Why then would it be more contrary with the democratic principles to go a step farther and make the plan complete.

The fact that students elect their managers does not make them one whit more interested in the activities. The managers are elected, and are not heard from unless a deficit results at the end of the year as a result of their tenure of office. They are given a job, and they figuratively go off to perform it. They perform it in peace to suit themselves. The student knows nothing and cares less. And herein one great trouble lies. By adopting the permanent manager plan the students would still choose the manager but in a different way.

The proposed plan overlooks one vital essential of a successful plan in that it does not provide a quick and practicable way of discharging an unsatisfactory manager. In fact, selected managers can not be discharged, they must be recalled, and recall proceedings would be too slow and impracticable. Thus, the manager would feel safe. He could continue to be his own boss. Of course, it is not contemplated that a manager would ever be discharged. But the fact that he knew he could be quickly discharged would make him more mindful of his duties and make far greater efficiency.

The proposed plan also overlooks another important essential of any successful plan, namely some authority over the business manager on the part of the editorial department. The proposed plan would make the editors, the men who work without remuneration, and with a sole desire to make the most of the enterprises, mere supplicants at the feet of the elected managers and the treasurer. If the editors are to make the most of the publications they must be given the means of making some effective demands upon the business management. At least definite provision must be made in order that the editorial and news departments, the departments for which the managerial departments exist, could exert their energies most advantageously. This is a vital essential that has been entirely overlooked.

The proposed plan while tending to centralize authority and control, increases expenses in salaries and in office equipment.

There will be three business offices, instead of two as at present, and instead of one under the general manager plan. Correspondence will emanate from each office in many cases with the same advertisers or subscribers. Three typewriters will be used where one would be enough. Three sets of books will be kept, instead of one set. One manager soliciting business will follow in the tracks of another. There will be a continual duplication of labor as at present, and efficiency, the important thing, will be defeated.

One manager, holding office from year to year, could dispense with useless correspondence. He could write one letter where two or three would be necessary under the proposed plan. Upon one visit to an advertiser he could represent three publications instead of one, thereby obviating the necessity of two or three managers following one another over the same ground.

Furthermore a single permanent manager holding office from year to year, would give continuity and unity to the system. He would carry from year to year information regarding advertising sources, and the best means of working them. He would store up information regarding subscribers, keeping in touch from year to year with former subscribers. He would canvass each outgoing class for subscriptions, inasmuch as he is interested not only in the success of the present year, but the following years as well. He would thus be a useful agent in developing and maintaining alumni interest and support. More alumni would continue to read the student publications, and consequently keep more closely in touch with the University.

OPEN IMPEACHMENT PROCEEDINGS.

The Texan approves of the proposed amendment providing that impeachment proceedings shall be public if the one impeached so desires. We can see no reason why any one on trial by the council should not have the privilege of an open trial if he wishes.

In fact, there is no constitutional provision that any council proceedings shall be secret. By adopting the proposed amendment we shall be merely amending an unwritten part of the constitution.

CHAPEL NOTICES.

The attendance was better than was expected after a holiday. The singing was hearty and snappy.
The leader for the day was Dr. Mather, who always has something of interest. He based his remarks upon a passage from Paul's letter to the Ephesians. His plea was for more sanity in religion, or rather for more sanity in considering religion. He discovered that religion was bigger than anything else in the world, so decided to investigate and find its merits. It demands more attention from those who profess to have it, and should be considered more carefully by those who do not claim its possession and its privileges.
Come and hear Dr. Mather again today.

The question is whether the Students' Association has a sufficiently strong constitution to withstand the amenders.

COLLEGE NOTES

Nebraska.

There is an agitation at the University of Nebraska for the adoption of the Single Tax. The two chief arguments given in its favor by the editor of the Nebraskan are: First, that it will equalize the burden of support of student activities; and, second, that it will increase student interest. It is contended that a number of activities are supported by only a few students while all get the benefit. The Daily Nebraskan, for instance, has only 500 subscribers out of a student body of 3500. The 500 support it while the others are "moochers." This is true of athletics, "mixers," debates, and other related activities. The Single Tax will lower the cost to all, and make everyone pay for what he gets.

Columbia.

A free lecture course is offered in First Aid to the Injured. Lectures are accompanied by practical demonstrations of giving aid. This course is recommended for those whose work may require such knowledge. Final examinations are optional.

The Department of Extension Teach has planned a course in practical Russian, which will enable students to become acquainted with the language of business and newspapers. A Russian paper says this lack of linguistic knowledge prevents much trade between Russia and the United States.

Princeton.

The will of Marie Antoinette Fisk, of Pasadena, Cal., has left $50,000 to Princeton University for the construction or improvement of dormitories.

The Princeton relay team will go to Louisville and Buffalo soon. A schedule of six outdoor and seven indoor track meets has been arranged.

Pennsylvania State.

The Princeton wrestling team was defeated by a score of 25 to 7. Princeton won only one fall and two points in a draw.

Minnesota.

Students and teachers of Minnesota will help in the educational survey of the state in an effort to set definite educational standards for the entire state. The extension department gives courses to teachers to enable them to give certain tests.

As a result of a petition, the seniors in the School of Agriculture are given a course in Domestic Economy, and are showing great interest in learning how to cook. Some expect to "back" on the farm.

Dartmouth.

The Republican National Convention of the Lincoln-Douglas debating society nominated Hughes for President and Roosevelt for vice president.

Virginia.

Two chapters of the Alumni Association adopted resolutions opposing the co-ordination bill which is now pending before the legislature. The bill would establish a co-ordinate woman's college near the University.

Several Virginia athletes will attend the Blue Ridge Camp next summer. At this camp are such men as Eddie Mahan, Charles Brickley, and Mike Doriazas.

Yale.

The Yale swimming team recently won a meet from Columbia by a score of 29 to 21. Vollmer of Columbia broke the intercollegiate record in 100 yards; the time was 56 2-5 seconds.

The Tri Deltas celebrated their fourth birthday anniversary Tuesday. In the afternoon they entertained the patronesses and mothers. At this tea many beautiful birthday gifts were presented.

In the evening there was an informal dance, honoring the "little sisters of the sorority. Out of town guests were Miss Willie Blount of Nacogdoches, a student at Southwestern, and Miss Leigh of Cuero, who is visiting Miss Julia Graves.

The Alpha Delta Pi pledges entertained Tuesday night with a picnic-dance at Pease Park. Fifteen couples enjoyed a folly supper, followed by a marshmallow toast and dancing until a late hour. Dr. and Mrs. Peck chaperoned the affair.

FIRING LINE

The Amendments.

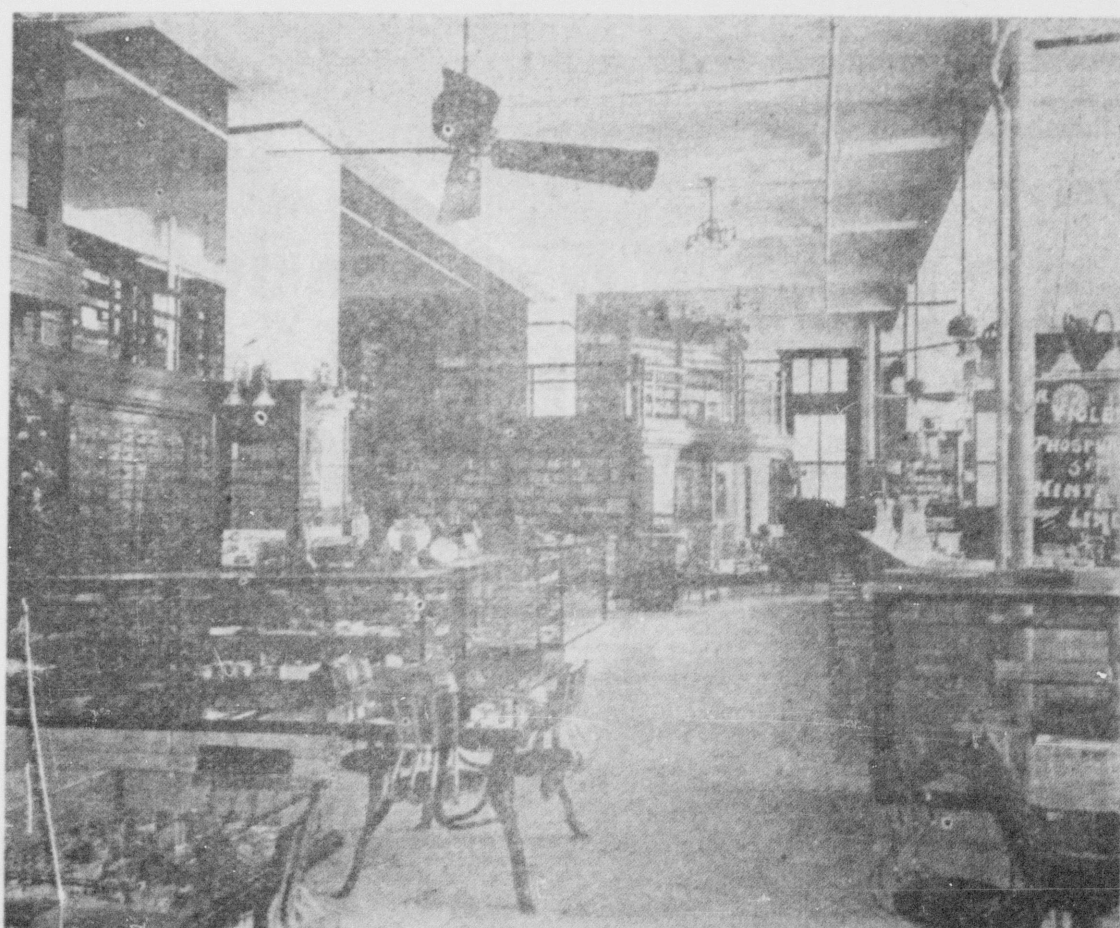

There seems to be quite a number of students who have not read the proposed amendments very carefully. The main objection to the recall amendment seems to lie in the fact that the officer in question has no chance to explain his action. The Assembly did not lose sight of the fact that the officer displaced could be a candidate for re-election. If he wants to explain his action he may run for re-election and explain. If his explanation sounds favorable he will be reelected by the justice loving majority. This system minimizes the number of elections necessary.

When Landrum spoke of his hiring and firing idea he seemed to forget the fact that the pending amendment provides for a maximum salary of $400.00 for manager and $300.00 for assistant manager to be paid on the percentage basis. I think this is a pretty good incentive for good work. When the treasurer shows the managers how they can be more efficient they will carry out his idea as it means dollars and cents in their own pockets.

Most men like Fatimas—
but maybe you won't

Fatimas please so many men that they outsell any other cigarette costing over 5c.

But it may happen that your taste won't fit Fatimas. That's nothing against you. Nor against Fatimas.

But if your taste does fit Fatimas, you can feel doubly grateful. For of this you can be sure—Fatimas are cool and friendly to the throat and tongue. And they will never leave you "feeling mean" as long as you smoke within the bounds of reason.

Because Fatimas are cool and because they can be smoked freely and often—they have rightly earned the title, "The Sensible Cigarette."

It simply remains for you to see if their taste suits you as well as it is suiting thousands and thousands of other men. Try Fatimas today.

You may find that their taste is exactly what you've been looking for in a cigarette.
