MILITARY CORPS TO BE RECRUITED FROM UNIVERSITY

Engineer Company of National Guard Will Be Organized of Varsity Students

FOR EMERGENCY SERVICE

Applications for Membership Will Be Received in Adjutant General's Office

By Francis G. Wilson
Organization of University company A, 14th engineers of the Texas national guard will begin today with the recruiting of a strength of 73 men and 3 officers from the student body, Thomas D. Barton, adjutant general of military forces of the state announced Wednesday afternoon. Company A is to be the first company of a new regiment of engineers to be formed in the 36th division state national guard.

University men will have chances at all commissions in the company and will be considered in the order of their application. Adj. Gen. Barton declared, and preference will be given ex-service and overseas men. Recruiting will be through the office of the adjutant general where applications must be made for admission to the company; however, it was intimated that state officers would be on the campus during the 10 days of enlistment.

Emergency Corps
Explaining the nature of the new company, Gen. Barton said, "While of course the company will be subject to call on all occasions, in fact they will not be called except in cases of national emergency. This is shown by the fact that while national guardsmen were called out during the shopmen's strike, students of every character were released in time to resume their studies. Members of the company will also have the privilege of attending the summer national guard encampments."

It was explained that petition is to be made the president of the University for the old S. M. A. barracks for an armory and company rooms. Should the company get this building, members would board and room there with practically no cost, the state paying most of the expenses. It was pointed out that room would be given free by the national guard and that board would be given at absolute cost. The S. M. A. barracks would also furnish a convenient armory for the complete army equipment which will be furnished from Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, Texas.

Another advantage of the proposed company lies in the fact, it is

BOX SEATS RAFFIED OFF

Only Sixteen of More Than Hundred Applicants Get to Buy Tickets

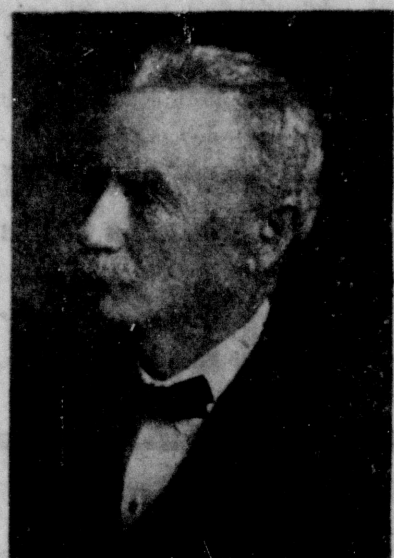

The remaining box seats available to the Turkey Day Classic between Texas and A. & M. were raffied off yesterday afternoon at T Hall. The number of students gathered at L. T. Bellmont's office at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon filled the office's capacity and extended out into the hall and street and it was necessary to transfer them to T Hall, where the ceremonies took place.

At T Hall Mr. Bellmont explained to the approximately seventy five students gathered there of the limited number of box seats available and the urgent demand for them.

The students gathered voted a box of eight seats to the Cactus on the behalf of the eight girls selling the highest number of volumes. It was next voted that each student present would hand in name in and the first fourteen names drawn would receive four box seats each.

The seats sold for three dollars each and ranged from the forty five yard line to the ten yard line on the west side of the field.

GLEE CLUB TRYOUTS SHOW BETTER RESULTS THAN PREVIOUS YEARS

Regular Team to Be Ready for Concerts by Christmas

Forty new men tried out for the Men's Glee Club last night in addition to the seventy who tried out Tuesday bringing the total to a record. These new men will all be kept. Those with best voices will be selected to meet every Tuesday night with the regular men while others will be put on reserve to meet later for a final weeding out of the best.

Eighteen out of the twenty-five men from last years club will be back, and Lester Brenizer, director of choral work in the Austin High Schools will again be director, which will greatly facilitate getting the men in condition.

Manager Hittson says it is still not too late to try out and especially wants men who can play string instruments as well as sing.

The men will meet in two sections, on Tuesday and Thursday afternoons and evenings, for the time being. Such a number of old men will be back that it is expected, the team will be whipped into shape in time to give a few concerts during the Christmas holidays as it did two years ago.

FRATERNITY AVERAGES NOW BEING COMPILED

Dean Parlin Will Give Out Records Within Next Two Weeks

Scholastic averages of the different fraternities and sororities will be given out within the next two weeks by Dean H. T. Parlin. The Greek organizations have been compiling their last years' grades since the opening of school, and will turn them in to the dean for his inspection.

Fraternities and sororities are required to make a collective average slightly higher than that of the University as a whole on penalty of being unable to initiate their pledges during the following term.

Next week Dr. Parlin will begin to make lists of those pledges to be initiated this fall. He has requested that the fraternities do not turn in their lists until next week, when he will have finished the work of straightening out the classes and sections.

APPOINTED INSTRUCTOR

Miss Irma Smith, graduate of the school of pharmacy at Galveston, has been appointed an instructor in the School of Medicine, it was announced yesterday.

President Ramps on Lawyers for Alleged Part in Hazing

By Richard L. Swartz

"We are in the best possible thing in the world. We are in the Western Hemisphere which is the best hemisphere in the world; we are in the United States which is the best country in the Western Hemisphere; we are in Texas which is the best state in the United States; we are in the University which is the best thing in the state of Texas; we are in the law school which is the best school in the University, and we are it."

Thus spoke Judge Townes, dean of the law school to several hundred students of the law school at its formal opening in the Law Auditorium at 10 o'clock yesterday morning. This speech was followed by strong applause, after which Dean Townes continued his address.

Has Responsibilities

"This being it carries with it a responsibility, and you must live accordingly. You are selected men and women trained by the state in the protection of the general welfare of the state!" Dean Townes went on to say, followed and followed with a talk on the changes in the school for the coming year.

"We are starting an auspicious year," said Dean Townes in closing his address, "Get down to hard, honest work, and stick to your own opinions until they are proven incorrect, and you will not get into trouble."

Vinson Speaks

Judge Townes presided at the convocation, and introduced President Vinson who made the opening address which Dean Townes supplemented with his own speech. The president's speech was in part as follows:

"I have been watching the School of Law for seven years, and filtering into my office from time to time from several sources have come reports that the childishness on the part of the freshmen and sophomores of this University has been caused to a great extent by students of the Law Department."

Advocates Dignity

"I feel that when a student has reached the point of dignity in student life where he enters the School of Law, he has reached the point reached by Paul when he said 'When

Y. M. C. A. WILL BANQUET ALL FRESHMEN STUDENTS

Affair Will Be First on Program of Eleven Social Events

Freshman students will be given a banquet at the University Y. M. C. A. Tuesday, October 3, according to W. A. Smith, Secretary of the Association, the purpose of the banquet which is an annual affair being to make new students feel more at home in the association building. All freshmen students have been invited.

According to Mr. Smith this event will be the first on a program which will include eleven social events, religious work, visiting sick students, and several speaking engagements, the particulars of which will be announced later.

According to Mr. Smith the Y. M. C. A. is accommodating more than thirty boys in its dormitory and has maintained successfully an Employment Bureau where over one hundred students have been secured work, and a Boarding House Bureau. He also announces that as heretofore the reading room and lobby, the gymnasium, and swimming pool are open to all men students every day in the week except Sunday.

M'GILL IS MADE FIRST PRESIDENT OF JOURNALISTS

Gov. W. H. Mayes and Lloyd Gregory Talk on Work of Department

ENTER ATHLETIC FIELD

Committee Is Appointed to Arouse Interest in Intramural Sports

As the first business of the session Wm. L. McGill of Corsicana was chosen as president of the School of Journalism after a preliminary address by Gov. W. H. Mayes, chairman of the department. Other officers chosen were: Ellen Osborne, vice-president; W. D. Kendall, of Lakewood, N. Y., vice-president; Mary R. Bowman of Greenville, secretary-treasurer; Maurice Crain, Canyon and Jane K. Worthington of Dallas reporters.

After short talks by older students of the department on class spirit, the president was authorized to appoint at a later date a committee to have charge of departmental affairs. This body will endeavor to develop intramural athletics among the journalists, will make arrangements for social affairs, and will in general work toward a building up of a spirit of unity in the group.

Gov. Mayes was then called upon to make a short talk in regard to the journalistic work and purposes. He recommended that many meetings be held during the year, both of a social and business character, and that a committee, of which the president should act as chairman, be appointed to extend an invitation to President R. E. Vinson to address the department. McGill announced that this committee would be appointed in a few days and that the attempt will be made.

Lloyd J. Gregory, last year president of the department, and now a member of the faculty as an instructor, expressed his approval of the plans already made for the year and suggested that in addition it might be possible to publish a monthly bulletin exclusively for the journalism students.

Capacious Co-eds Cop Cooking; All Crumbs Consumed

You've all heard of the good old days when dainty appetites were stylish—even if you doubt their existence when you hear the response 'Gosh, yes—I'm simply starving' to your 'How about something to eat.'

If after that you harbor any doubts that co-eds are, er, exceedingly voracious, rapacious, etc., just ask the cook at the Scottish Rite Dormitory what he thinks about young ladies' appetites. After making nine gallons of mayonnaise for supper he ought to be quite well up on the subject.

The other night he made 900 biscuits for supper. This was found to be decidedly insufficient; so the next night he baked 1300. These likewise were entirely consumed. Evidently bottom has not been reached in the business of filling up the aching void. Did someone say nutrition clinic for girls?

POLLARD ANNOUNCES CACTUS SALE PRIZES

Final announcements were made Tuesday, September 26, by Dorothy Fisher and Tom Pollard, business managers of the Cactus drive now being held on the campus, to the effect that a cash prize of ten dollars would be awarded to the girl selling the largest number of subscriptions. Second prize, a special De Luxe edition of the year book will be offered to the one selling the next amount, and third prize will be a cash presentation of five dollars.

OPENING OF SEASON FINDS ROOTERS SOLIDLY BEHIND FIGHTING ELEVEN

PEP RALLY PUTS OLD TIME SPIRIT IN TEXAS RANKS

Dean Taylor Whips Gathering to Frenzy of School Loyalty With Talk

The Orange and the White,
Long May it float,
Over Varsity's teams
And the Farmers' goat.

—Dean Taylor.

"It's The Ole Time Rally" rang out from a packed Men's Gym last night, as a student body, swinging into the spirit of grand old, Texas U., pledged itself to support the team.

The meeting swung into order when the band, playing "Hail, Hail, The Gang's All Here," marched into the gym. "Shorty" Nowotny pepped up the rally with a short talk, stressing team support, and the fact that he and his assistants are yell leaders and not yell drivers. Traditions was the subject of Dean Taylor's rallying cry, and he spoke on the five greater ones—the Cactus, "Daddy" Disch, College yells, College songs, and College colors. Standing in his shirt sleeves, with spectacles raised, and eyes shining with years of Texas spirit, "Old Man" Taylor presented an inspiring picture as he appealed to his hearers to uphold those traditions he had known and loved so long. Freshmen on the floor, girls to the left and men to the right were swept away with the Texas spirit, and the very rafters seemed to tremble as "Shorty" led the rally in "Yeah, Texas," the yell that beat A. & M. in '20, and then "The Eyes of Texas."

Since the rally closed promptly on time at 8 o'clock, Nowotny, dividing his rooters into three sections led by himself and his assistants and divisions of the University Band, set forth north, south and west to scatter their pep over all Austin on the night before the first game of the season of '22.

UNIVERSITY BANK HEAD DISCUSSES ENTERPRISE

Vice President Says Results Show Students and Faculty Well Satisfied

"Results show us that the students and faculty are well pleased with their University bank," stated W. A. Dyer, its vice-president. "Our convenient location and hours bring us at least thirty new depositors daily, and from four hundred to seven hundred students come in about other matters." Bruce O'Keefe, the cashier of the bank, states that the deposits since the twenty-first of September exceed $30,000.

Since so many of the students did not know about the opening of the bank, those that would otherwise have deposited there have made other arrangements. But the expectation is that by next month the bank will be serving over two thousand.

Mr. Dyer wishes an erroneous idea, that of the depositors' having to use the so-called "Student's Check Book" corrected. The fact is that there is choice between it and the regular check-book issued by all other banks.

Texas Captain Who Will Not Be Seen in Kangaroo Game

Swede Swenson, captain of the Longhorn eleven, will not be in the line-up of today's game with Austin College. Swenson, who has been ill with dengue fever for some time, reported for his first practice only yesterday.

Gray Appeals to Students to Help Keep Eleven Fit

Letters asking the highest degree of cooperation in aiding Texas football men to observe the training rules that were formulated recently will be sent out one day next week to all boarding houses, fraternities, and rooming houses around the campus, according to Archie Gray, President of the Students Association, who has been given the title of crack linesman on last year's football squad. In his statement yesterday he stressed the fact that only five old letter men remain from last year and that it will be impossible to put out a winning team this year without the earnest support of the entire student body in aiding the boys, who will fight for Texas, to train.

The rules which the Texas men have been asked to conform to during the entire season require that the prospective player eat all meals except breakfast at the training table, that he secure at least eight hours sleep each night, that he attend no dances or other social functions for two weeks before a game, that he refrain from all stimulants, that he attend all classes and keep up with his work and that he engage in society as little as possible.

"It is up to each of you individually to see that the boys do not break training," Gray declared, "and further, I consider it a crime against the University for any one to invite any of the Texas warriors to break training. If each of you will put forth every effort possible in helping the boys train, I feel sure that this year's team will be the best ever put out by a Texas coach. It is up to you," he repeated, "to create a school spirit that will produce a winning team."

DIAMOND MEN HEAR DISCH ON PROSPECTS

Meeting for a short time yesterday afternoon at the call of Coach Billy Disch, Texas diamond men discussed the possibilities for the coming season. A large number of baseball candidates, which included several old letter men, were present for the meeting.

The prospects for the 1923 season for the Longhorn nine was talked upon, and Coach Disch emphasized before the men the necessity of proper training at all times between now and the opening of the diamond year, and the necessity of all baseball players being eligible for the coming season.

KANGAROO GAME WILL BE TEST FOR LONGHORNS

Varsity Meets First Opponents of Season Without Swenson and Moore

By Victor O. Cook

Officially ushering in the 1922 football season, the University of Texas gridiron eleven will line up at 4 o'clock this afternoon on Clark Field against the Austin College Kangaroos. Today's game will mark the first opportunity which the majority of Texas followers will have had in which to form their own opinions regarding the Orange and White prospects for the year.

Dave Pena's Kangaroo aggregation will arrive in Austin this morning. As in the case of the Longhorns, today's game will be the first contest of the season for the Austin College outfit. The Kangaroos have been at hard practice for about three weeks, and while they have not the material which the University squad has, they will send in a fighting body of men against the Steers this afternoon. Pena, former tackle on the Longhorn team and all Southwestern selection for that position in 1918, knows all of the tricks of football, and his followers will be sent into the opening game to give the Longhorns a hard tussle.

Everyone Will Be There

All of the characteristics which mark a football clash will be on hand for the opening game this afternoon. The University male students will be seated en masse on the east side of the field and led by Yell Leader Shorty Nowotny and his assistants, Bran Pool and Fred Cole, will make Clark Field sound and resound with the old Varsity yells. The Longhorn Band, completely uniformed, will be on hand to live up to the occasion, and will send the crowds into more cheering with the famous "Medley," "The Eyes of Texas," and a number of the late popular pieces.

Although Pena's bunch of players has been at work for more than two weeks, reports coming from Sherman with regard to the strength of the Austin College team this year have been very meager. It is not thought that Jones, star half-back and captain of the Kangaroos last fall, will be in the lineup today, but Morehart, the other star half of the Kangaroo eleven of 1921, is expected to be on hand again. The Kangaroo team is considered this year as a serious contender for the T. I. A. A. championship, and the brand of football which is expected from that eleven today should put the Longhorns on their mettle.

TURTLE CLUB POSTPONED

Co-ed Swimmers Will Meet Saturday on Account of Today's Game

On account of the game this afternoon, the first meeting of the Turtle Club will be held at Deep Eddy, Saturday afternoon at 3:30. All the old members are urged to be present at the business meeting, but the club is open during the fall term to any girl who is interested in swimming.

The first try out will come at the end of the fall term, and those who pass these tryouts will become members during the winter term. The strokes required are the breast stroke, side under arm, side over arm, double over arm, back and crawl. A twenty-five foot under water swim is also required.

THE KICKOFF

The game between the Longhorns and Kangaroos this afternoon officially ushers in the 1922 football season for the University. That Varsity will enter the game with a stronger team than Austin College is doubtless true; but the Kangaroos have a high rating in the Texas Intercollegiate Conference and are foes worthy of being watched, especially in the first game of the season. The important point is that the Longhorns must have the united and loyal support of all students from the very beginning of the season until the final whistle on Thanksgiving Day. A season that is started right will likely end right.

GIVE THE DEAN A COLLEGE

The division of the College of Arts and Sciences into Junior and Senior Colleges comes in answer to a long felt need for a more effective administration of the large academic classes. With over three thousand students in the College of Arts and Sciences last year, the supervision of that mass of freshmen, sophomores, juniors and seniors has necessarily become less and less effective. Methods and procedure that may be desirable for directing the activities and courses of the two upper classes prove unsuitable for the control of the less mature and inexperienced first and second year students. In many instances the attempt to supervise all four classes under one system has resulted in the seniors and juniors being bound down by burdensome and unnecessary restrictions, while the freshmen and sophomores have failed to measure up to standards that are suitable for the other two classes.

With the creation of the Junior College, the first and second year students may be given proper advice and supervision in arranging and planning their college course. Many freshmen enter the University, and often continue through their first two years, with no definitely outlined program for their study. Only recently removed from high school methods of instruction, they are not yet prepared to obtain without considerable aid the full benefit of university instruction. On the other hand, the Senior College should bring to the upperclassmen a freedom from the petty restrictions, for instance, compulsory class attendance, that are necessary for the other classes. As a result the seniors and juniors would be provided with instruction on a real university basis, rather than according to a college system.

Trained by several years of experience in dealing with freshmen and sophomores, Dr. Parlin is especially fitted for the task of instituting the Junior College division. Let it be hoped that provision for the inauguration of the new system will be made in the near future, so that Dr. Parlin will not continue to be a "dean without a college."

FOUR GAMES TO BE PLAYED BY FROSH

Only four games will be played by the freshman football team this year, a recent ruling having been made that first year eleven might play only this number of games. The Texan freshman team already has its four contests of the year scheduled.

On Armistice Day, the Texas freshmen will play the independent team of Port Arthur on the latter's own gridiron. On October 26, the Wesley College eleven will come to Austin for a game with the first year eleven. The freshmen also will have games with the Shorthorns and with St. Edward's College, but the dates for these games have not been definitely selected. A movement is under way at the present time to have the St. Edward's-Freshman game played in San Antonio.

COFER-HUME

The wedding of two former students of the University, John Cofer, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Cofer of Austin, and Miss George E. Hume, daughter of Mrs. George E. Hume, also of Austin, was solemnized Thursday evening, September 28, at 8 o'clock in the Episcopal church. Mr. Cofer was graduated from the University in the class of 1919, at the same time as Miss Hume. He received his law degree in 1921. Miss Hume was a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma.

The personnel of the bridal party was as follows: Mrs. Robert Field, matron of honor; Miss Winifred Hume, maid of honor; Misses Dorothy Price, Margaret West and Millicent Hume, bridesmaids; Misses Pasiefflin, Grace King, and Mary Katherine Bell, junior bridesmaids. Also, Robert Cofer, brother of the groom, best man; Wendell Stiles and Robert Field, Cecil Murphy and Shirley McClarty, ushers.

The bride wore a lovely wedding gown, of silk, Spanish lace, and a veil of illusion with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white roses and lilies-of-the-valley. The costumes of the bride's attendants carried out a color scheme of pastel shades. A midnight blue coat-dress was the bride's going-away attire.

After a honeymoon in Indianapolis and Saint Louis, Mr. and Mrs. Cofer will make their home in Austin.

The Alpha Club, pledged to Sigma Mu fraternity, announces the pledging of the following: Jules Cern of Palestine, Bernard M. Brooks of San Antonio, Sam Raymon of Rockdale, Abe Mehl of Fort Worth, Robert A. Black of Beaumont, William Finklestein of Dallas and Sig Badt of Mt. Pleasant.

ARTICLES BY TEXAS PROFESSORS APPEAR

Two University professors, Dr. E. C. Barker of the department of history and Dr. H. G. James of the department of government have articles in the new edition of the Encyclopaedia Britannica, which came off the press this summer.

Dr. Barker wrote an article on Texas, while Dr. James' article is devoted to the South American republic of Chile.

THEATERS

AT THE THEATRES

Majestic: Sept. 29, 30, Wm. S. Hart in "Travelin' On."

Hancock: Sept. 29, 30, Elaine Hammerstein in "Under Oath."

Queen: Mabe Ballin in "Other Women's Clothes."

Texas: Gloria Swanson in "The Great Moment."

Crescent: "When Romance Rides."

Hancock

The Hancock is now showing the effervescent Elaine Hammerstein in a "tense and gripping drama of modern business and primal emotions," by name "Under Oath." A couple of girls in the theatre furnished a number of choice bits of information, such as "Elaine is just perfectly beautiful" and "That man is the prisiest thing I ever saw," which were greatly relished by that portion of the audience right close by; but all the same, the man in question, Mahlon Hamilton, did the best work in the picture, and Elaine didn't approach him in the quality of her acting. The picture will possess great interest for all Hammerstein fans.

Queen

How a working girl's salary can be made to cover the bare necessities is the problem confronting Jacqueline Lee, the heroine of "Other Women's Clothes," showing at the Queen. It is the first time I ever heard them called necessities, but the consensus of opinion seems to be that they should be covered.

Be that as it may, they are covered in this picture, and in a manner truly sumptuous. The picture lives up to its title, and has but little reason for existence except for what it shows of other women's clothes, which, however are always the most interesting things to that portion of the population which really dominates the movie-going public.

Texas

Gloria Swanson again this time at the Texas in "The Great Moment." A highly dramatic moment if we can take the word of the press sheet. The scenes of the picture are laid in England and the great out-of-doors of our well-known West in which portion of the world Gloria runs up against her great moment by name Milton Sills. Milton is a good actor. Dray your own conclusions about Gloria.

All junior and senior B. A. classes will be dismissed for this convocation, Spurgeon Bell, Dean of the school, announced Thursday.

BAPTIST ORCHESTRA

All students who wish to play in the orchestra of the University Baptist Sunday school have been requested to turn in their names, addresses and telephone numbers to Mrs. H. Clay Smith at 2608 Guadalupe. Mrs. Smith was director of this orchestra last year.

Our convenient location and rapid service will save you lots of time. But those aren't the only reasons why you ought to eat at the Cactus Tea Room.

LAW STUDENTS HEAR JOINT ADDRESS FROM VINSON AND TOWNES

I became a man, I put aside childish things."

These words were the bulk of the plea made by President Vinson in his address to the members of the Law School at the formal opening of the school yesterday.

Swats Hazing

During his address Dr. Vinson launched into a criticism of the school for its part in the maintenance of hazing in the University. He spoke of the rumors that had come to him from time to time to the effect that students of the Law School were prime factors in the encouragement of yearly disorders around March the second; and declared that it was up to the school to clear this rumor from its name.

The President finished his address by saying that the University is going to give the faculty freedom to make a greater School of Law, and that the faculty is going to be held responsible for results.

RUSK TO HOLD FIRST MEETING ON SATURDAY

Here you find an atmosphere delightful and different. It is quite the vogue to entertain friends at the Cactus Tea Room.

MILITARY CORPS TO BE RECRUITED FROM UNIVERSITY

claimed, that only an hour and a half of drill are required each week the drill to come in the evening after supper. Full pay is to be allowed each officer and man for the day of drill. The privilege of drilling 8 times each month will be given the company to take at its discretion.

"A higher type of soldier is required for engineering companies, and I want to have the University company to be the first of the new regiment being organized in the 36th division of the national guard," asserted Adj. Gen. Barton, in discussing the new organization. He also said that since more non-commissioned officers were to be used, more students working their way through the University would be given a chance to earn good money.

Rates of Pay

With a peace time strength of 3 officers and 73 men, the following rates of pay will be given for the full day in which the company drills an hour and a half: The first sergeant, at a rate of $96 per month for 8 drill periods would draw in the month $22.50; three staff sergeants at a rate of $72 per month for 8 drills will draw for the month $19; company sergeants at a rate of $54 per month for 8 drills would draw $14; corporals at a pay of $42 per month would draw $11 for 8 drills; first class privates will draw $1.15 each drill and privates will draw $1 each drill.

Assisting Adj. Gen. Barton is Major Charles E. Crawford, and Major Culberson of the old 36th division. Major Culberson will muster the company in when it is organized after the 10 day's recruiting period. He will be assigned from the federal government to take care of the University company but is not now in Austin. Major Culberson will be division inspector for the national guard.

Applications in Order

Applications for the University company will be received today in the adjutant-general's office in the right wing of the capital building opposite the post office. However, pending the taking over of campus recruiting by state officials, George H. Cantrell, 109 West 18th street will give information, though all applications must be handed into the capital office.

It was emphasized by Adj. Gen. Barton that applications would be considered in the order of their reception in order to make selection of officers fair. It was said that men with overseas and former military experience would be given the preference.

Unofficial reports Thursday showed that the higher officials in the University were considering it though they had refused to make statements for publication. It is thought that complete support will be given Gen. Barton in his movement for a University company.

tain Swede Swenson or Joe Moore, two of the five letter men who are back from last fall, will be in the game. Each of these men has been ill with the dengue fever and neither has been able to go out for fall training. Swenson made his appearance on the football field for the first time yesterday afternoon, while Moore has been working out only since Tuesday.

The Longhorns, after three weeks of practice, are not as near ready for the opening game today as they were last year after only ten days of practice. There has been nothing displayed in the work of the Texas squad in practice which would serve
