Betas Fall Under Average; On Probe

Phi Sigma Delta fraternity had the highest averages for social organizations on the campus last year, V. I. Moore, dean of student life, reported Thursday. Sigma Nu won the cup last year.

This will be the second year for Phi Sigma Delta to receive the cup given yearly by the Interfraternity Council to the fraternity with the highest average. When a fraternity wins this honor, its name is engraved upon the cup, which it may keep until the next scholastic averages are computed. A fraternity winning the cup for three successive years holds it permanently.

One Chapter Falls

Only chapter, according to the list, to fall below University average requirements and thus go on social probation was Beta Theta Pi. Beta's average for last year was 15.60, 22 points under the University requisite of 15.82.

In ranking the student social organizations of the University, the quality and the quantity of the work done is considered, and the average number of hours passed per semester with the lowest passing grade is indicated by figures. In computing this average, all A's, B's, and C's are converted into terms of D. An A is equivalent to 1.46 D's, a B to 1.31 D's, and a C to 1.154 D's.

The all University average is 15.82, and groups falling below the University average are placed on social probation during the following scholastic year. Those failing two years within a period of three may not pledge in the year following the second failure, unless the pledges are high-ranking students.

Averages Given

Following are averages for the fraternities: Phi Sigma Delta, 18.31; Phi Delta Theta, 18.05; Tejas Club, 17.99; Phi Gamma Delta, 17.95; Tau Delta Phi, 17.64; Sigma Alpha Mu, 17.49; Sigma Chi, 17.30; Phi Kappa Psi, 17.15; Delta Chi, 17.07; Chi Phi, 17.06; Delta Tau Delta, 16.91; Delta Kappa Epsilon, 16.54; Sigma Alpha Epsilon, 16.44; Pi Kappa Alpha, 16.22; Kappa Alpha, 16.15; Sigma Phi Epsilon, 16.00; Sigma Nu, 15.91; Theta Xi, 15.90; Alpha Tau Omega, 15.87; Sigma Sigma, 15.84; Beta Theta Pi, 15.60.

The averages for the sororities are Alpha Epsilon Phi, 18.76; Zeta Tau Alpha, 18.56; Delta Phi Epsilon, 17.90; Pi Beta Phi, 17.70; Kappa Kappa Gamma, 17.62; Alpha Phi, 17.51; Alpha Chi Omega, 17.46; Kappa Alpha Theta, 17.16; Delta Delta Delta, 17.01; Chi Omega, 16.63; Gamma Phi Beta, 16.27; Alpha Xi Delta, 16.13; Alpha Delta Pi, 16.08; Phi Mu, 16.06.

Three Are Missing Aboard Airplane

LOS ANGELES, Sept. 30.—(INS)—Grave fears were felt here today for the lives of three men aboard a tri-motored plane, missing since it left Albuquerque, N. M., yesterday.

The plane was en route to Hollywood and was being flown here for delivery to Buck Jones, cowboy screen star, by Garland Lincoln, noted stunt flier.

Garland was believed to be accompanied by Burl S. Hays of Hollywood, and H. B. Bolton, Las Vegas, N. M., mechanic.

Officials at the airport here said they understood Lincoln, after leaving Albuquerque, planned to set down at Winslow, Ariz., but they had received no confirmation to that effect. Nor had they heard from any airport between Albuquerque and Winslow.

Jones was keeping in constant touch with all airports along the route Lincoln was believed to have taken.

Regents Approve New Appointments

Appointment of six new staff members for the School of Medicine in Galveston has been approved by the Board of Regents. The new members are Dr. Mary Elmore Sauer, instructor in histology and embryology; Dr. M. P. Kelsey, instructor in pathology; Dr. S. S. Templin, instructor in the practice of medicine; Miss Grace Carolyn Collins, instructor in nursing; Miss Myra Fannie Eide, instructor in record room; and Miss Carolyn Cason, resident director of the girls' dormitory, University Hall.

Commons Capers Crushed 'Cause Chief Caught On

It was a secret, but Miss Janzen found it out.

To the one hundred and odd boys who work at the Commons and Chuck Wagon, "thirty-six" means "Cheese it, fellows—the boss is coming." For a long time Miss Anna Janzen, director of the University Commons cafeteria and Chuck Wagon, knew nothing of this high-sign. Now, however, when she hears the said number, she knows that somebody has been loafing.

Debaters Elect 9 New Members

The Hogg Debating Club held its first formal meeting of the new school year, last night.

Oswald V. Ramirez, president of the club, announced the date of the coming elections and also presented the list of those members who would debate on the varsity question "Resolved: That the Unicameral System of Legislation Should Be Adopted by the Several States." The members chosen to speak on this question were Darby Orgain and Ewing Adams for the affirmative; James Heflin and Carl Jones for the negative.

Debate eliminations will be held on October 13 to select teams to represent the club in the intersociety debates.

The new members voted in were Don Langston, Kelly Thomas, James Heflin, George Roach, Ewing Adams, Frank Harwood, Ned Marrow, Charles Barnum, and J. Ward Fouts.

Language Exam May Be Evaded

University students who intend to be graduated with the bachelor of arts or the bachelor of journalism degree do not have to take the foreign language examination, provided they meet the requirements of the 1937-38 catalogue.

This new foreign language rule, which was adopted by the faculty last spring, provides that the students who meet certain specific requirements will be exempt from the foreign language examination.

Those desiring exemption must take their last course in the foreign language offered for the degree in residence at the Main University and make at least a grade of C. Those taking their last required course in residence at the Main University during the senior year will be regarded as having satisfied the requirement if they secure a grade of C or better in the first semester of this course.

Dr. H. T. Parlin, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, said that, since this rule is somewhat confusing, any student who feels that he may not have met the requirements of the new foreign language rule should consult his dean.

University's Information Clerk Is Girl With All the Answers

By JAMES WILLIAMSON

TO her eventually comes every student with his "who's," "what's," "when's," and "where's." She's the informational crossroads of the University; the mecca of the puzzled freshman; and so-lace of the quizzical. To her you come to ask about Freshman Convocation, and when diploma time comes around she will be ready with the "when and where."

In the directory she is Mrs. Margaret Jackson Miles, B. J., information clerk in the Office of the Registrar, but to friends and co-workers she's "Peggy"—"the girl with the answers." You've wondered at her knowledge, admired her patience, and welcomed her answers.

Is she ever perturbed? Never! Exasperated? A little. Remembering the not so long ago when she too was a co-ed with a mouth full of questions she can keep a straight face, a sky-blue temper, and a whole mind when, as some bright person did last year, wants to know "if this is the place where you register your car license?" Mrs. Miles says that one called for time out.

Phi Delta Phi To Initiate 11 New Members

Phi Delta Phi, honorary law fraternity, chose officers and elected eleven new members at its meeting Tuesday night. New members are James D. Caldwell, LeRoy G. Denman, Howard Barker, Lawson Goggans, Joe Greenhill, Raymond Lynch, Leon Payne, Ben Powell, Ramsey Moore, Ben Stone, and Harvey Weil.

Officers for the 1937-38 school session are Louis Nelson, president; Palmer Hutcheson, secretary; George Pike, treasurer; Raymond Cook, historian; and J. John Lawler, gladiator emeritus.

Of the new members Howard Barker and Lawson Goggans are seniors. The other nine are middle laws. Initiation rites will be administered in one of the courts of civil appears at the Capitol Tuesday afternoon, October 5, at 5 o'clock. After the initiation the members will assemble at the Driskill Hotel for a banquet.

Raymond Cook, senior law and one of the old members of Phi Delta Phi, attended the province convention of the honorary legal fraternity which was held in Colorado this summer.

Among the activities in which Phi Delta Phi engages during the year is the famous law court for most cases held periodically in the Law Building.

Co-ed Handbook Plays Up Photos

Stamp-sized photographs of outstanding co-eds in the group activities of the University are the most notable feature of the new "Co-Ed Handbook," organization guide for freshman women, which is published each year by the Co-Ed Assembly.

Any girl wishing to have a handbook can obtain one at the office of the Dean of Women. They will be distributed as long as there are any left.

Divisions of the book, marked social, religious, special interests, honorary, regional, dormitory, departmental, class, athletic, and traditional activities, are written in an easily-comprehended who-what-when style.

As valuable as the details of campus clubs given in the handbook is the information concerning loans, scholarships, fellowships, and prizes open to the women of the University.

Another new and important detail of the pamphlet is the directory of offices of the Registrar, the various deans, the Auditor, the manager of the Texas Union, and the president of the Students' Association.

Not only is the 1937-1938 "Co-Ed Handbook" a larger edition than has been published for many years, but it presents pictures for the first time in its history.

219 Enrolled, Band Suffers Growing Pains

Uniforms Needed For 85 Members; Funds Insufficient For Purchase

By HARVEY GABLER

The University Band is suffering growing pains with the rapid rise of the organization to the top as the State's largest and most impressive band. The dire and perplexing problem of equipping 218 musicians has arisen to confront Colonel George Hurt. The funds for the band have not increased in ratio with the numerical growth of the group. These are the circumstances as Mr. Hurt saw them when interviewed last night.

"When I came here I understood," Mr. Hurt said, "that the University wanted to go 'big-time' with its band." He stated that this group is now second to none in discipline and uprightness of conduct and in general behavior. "Musically they are as fine an amateur band as I ever heard," he commented.

Have to Beg

Mr. Hurt continued earnestly, "But, it now seems that I must again take my hat in my hand begging for clothing. The only alternative is to tell about eighty-five fine boys that they cannot be with us because we have no funds."

"I still think, however," he spoke with hope, "someone will see our dire need and come to our aid."

Last year Mr. Hurt and the Band, with the aid of campus leaders, paraded on downtown streets as the culmination of a drive to gain sufficient funds to do the job, even then, growing organization.

3 New Members

With the additions of Mack Mize of Rio Hondo, George Polansky of Taylor, and Ray Watkins of San Angelo, the band reached the new height of 219 members.

The band is the first in the state to total two hundred enrollment and has increased rapidly since the Aggie challenge causing the campus musicians to take a more active interest. Even more new members are anticipated.

Requirement for membership in the band is passing nine hours' work the previous semester. All candidates are carefully checked by the Registrar. Participation in this organization is absolutely extra-curricular.

23 Fans Needed For L.S.U. Special

Fifty-two students have signed up for the special trip to Baton Rouge for the L.S.U. game, Wayne Ashmore, head yell leader who is sponsoring the sale of tickets, announced Thursday night. Sale of the tickets will be continued until 1 o'clock Friday in Texas Union 201, Ashmore added.

If seventy-five students go on the trip, the cost will be $7.03 for the round trip in air-conditioned chair cars. If only thirty go, the cost will be $11.10. "I feel sure that we can get seventy-five students to go on the trip," Ashmore said.

Circuit Courts Get Securities Rights

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—(INS)—In the first case of its kind since passage of the Securities Act, the U. S. Court of Appeals today affirmed the right of circuit courts of appeal to review orders of the Securities and Exchange Commission.

The appellate court denied a motion of the commission to dismiss petitions for review that had been filed by three large business concerns.

The firms, Bulova Watch Co., Inc., International Nickel of Canada, Ltd., and American Sumatra Tobacco Corp., had asked the court to determine whether the commission could require them to disclose to the public information regarding their corporate setups, their securities and remunerations paid to officers.

SUIT THREATENED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—(INS)—H. J. Jacobi, general counsel of the Carter Coal Co., whose suit outlawed the first Guffey Coal Act—today threatened a similar suit against the new bituminous coal control act. Jacobi voiced the threat while protesting before the bituminous coal commission against methods used by the Kentucky District Board to classify coal according to law or rules of the commission.

Rally at Practice Session Gives Team Send-Off to L.S.U. Game

Theta Sigs Plan Regional Convention

Tentative plans for a regional convention of Theta Sigma Phi, honorary and professional journalism fraternity for women, were made at a meeting of the local chapter Thursday night. The convention, planned for December 3 and 4, will be held in connection with the annual Matrix Table, at which some outstanding woman in the field of journalism will speak.

Miss Josephine Caldwell, national secretary of Theta Sigma Phi, is contacting active and Phi alumnae chapters at L.S.U., S.M.U., Oklahoma University, Texas State College for Women, and Mary Hardin-Baylor.

New members were discussed for the first time. Their names will be brought up again at a meeting Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Woman's Building. Qualifications include junior standing in the Department of Journalism and a C average with a B average in journalism. Membership is limited to twenty.

Theta Sigma Phi, with Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternity for men, will give the "Journalism Jamboree," an informal reception and dance for students and faculty members of the department, tonight from 8 to 11 o'clock in the main ballroom of the Texas Union. Mavournee Fitzgerald, president of Theta Sigma Phi, appointed committees to have charge of entertainment.

Cactus Camera Contest Starts

Approximately fifteen students attended the meeting held in the Journalism Building yesterday afternoon to discuss the rules and regulations of the camera contest to be sponsored by the Cactus.

Burt Dyke, and George Chamberlain, editor of the yearbook, had charge of the meeting and presented rules to the contestants. All prints must be at least 3 by 4 inches and on hard glossy paper suitable for reproduction. All pictures are to become the property of the Cactus, and all contestants must bear the expense of developing and cost of film.

Dyke explained that this year's contest would differ from those in the past in that the students would bear the expenses until the close of the contest. The photographers winning will be retained on the staff, and future expenses will be borne by the Cactus.

The contest will close sometime around the Thanksgiving holidays, giving everyone a chance to take some football action shots. Other suggested scenes are candid shots of campus personalities, pictures of athletic events, night pictures of social functions, scenes in rooming houses, including "bull sessions," and view pictures of campus life and buildings.

A small movie camera is to be offered as first prize with five awards of one dollar each going as second prize. Copies of the Cactus will be given as awards to the members who make the Cactus staff as a result of the contest.

Akron Man Elected Park Institute Head

FORT WORTH, Sept. 30.—(INS)—S. Wagner, Akron, director-secretary of the Metropolitan Park Board of Summit County, Ohio, today had been elected president of the American Institute of Park Executives.

He succeeds W. A. Stinchcomb of Cleveland, having served under him as vice-president.

George T. Donoghue, general superintendent of the Chicago Park District, was elected vice-president, and Edward H. Bean, director of the Chicago Zoological Park, Brookfield, Ill., was chosen treasurer.

The organization's thirty-eighth annual convention ended today with the general session during which Harry O'Hare of Chicago addressed the 300 delegates.

P.E.M. CLUB MEETS

The Physical Education Majors Club held a get-together party Wednesday night in the Women's Gymnasium. The members of the club are boys and girls majoring in physical education. Their guests were the new students and freshmen who plan to major in their field. Dr. K. K. Brace, professor of education, made a short talk to welcome the group and outline the purposes of the club.

Pickle Heads Committee To Choose Campus Beauties For Dallas Contest Oct. 9

Selection of sixteen University of Texas co-eds to represent the University next Friday and Saturday at the annual All-College Queen's Coronation and Ball at the Pan-American Casino in Dallas will be completed today, Jake Pickle, president of the Students' Assembly, said last night.

The All-College Queen's Coronation and Ball has become an annual social event when the Longhorn football team goes to Dallas each October to play the University of Oklahoma.

This year it promises to be more than a social event. The co-ed chosen from one of the eleven schools to be crowned queen at the coronation will possibly be given a screen test by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios, who this month are scouting for suitable screen talent in Texas.

Coronation of the all-college queen will come immediately after the second performance of the Pan-American Casino Revue, which will have Art Jarrett and Borrah Minneville in the cast, next Friday night. The ball is scheduled to begin Saturday at midnight. Anson Weeks' orchestra will play.

118 Try Out For 'First Lady'

Meeting Thursday night in Hogg Memorial Auditorium, the Curtin Club of the University put their 118 new members through their first play of the year, "The First Lady."

Originally scheduled for the Texas Union, the meeting had to be moved to the auditorium so that all of the 180 members could attend.

John Connolly, club president, introduced the new officers to the club: James H. Parke, member of the Department of English, director; Tony Thomason, director of the club's work shop; Joe Whitley, publicity director; Leonard Stoloroff, stage manager; and J. B. Billard, production manager.

Other officers of the club are Ida Nell Brill, secretary, Prentice Hill, vice-president, and Robert Collier, Katherine Marshall, Ruth Pondrum, and J. B. Billard, members of the board of governors.

"The aim of the Curtin Club is to offer opportunities of practical experience to every student in the University who is interested in dramatics," said Mr. Parke, director of the club, as he opened the meeting with a short talk on the history and aims of the Curtin Club.

After the try-outs for "The First Lady," season tickets were issued to club members.

TO BORROW MILLION

WILMINGTON, Del., Sept. 30.—(INS)—Chancellor Josiah O. Wolcott has authorized the directors of Missouri-Kansas Pipeline Company to borrow about $1,100,000 to pay the cost of receiver litigation and all other obligations, it was learned today.

The receivers were authorized to turn back to the company the bulk of its assets and Chancellor Wolcott said the receivership will be completed as soon as the final report of the receivers is filed.

Bible Tale of Alger Character Is Only Story of Salesman Student

HOW to Sell Bibles" or "The Adventures of One Howard Shook." This is not one of Horatio Alger Jr.'s books; it's the story of the development of an idea and the subsequent carrying out of said idea.

Shook, a student in the University, last winter read an article on "High Pressure Bible Salesmanship;" he decided to try out the idea. Summer came and Shook went—with his supply of Bibles.

He traveled through some fifteen states selling them. Oklahoma, Kansas, Missouri, Kentucky, Tennessee, Ohio, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, and Arkansas felt his presence.

Shook travelled some 6,000 miles; naturally he had interesting experiences, and saw interesting things. At one place in West Virginia, the "Bible Salesman" stopped at a house and was met at the door by a woman who

L.C.D. Revives Its Free Press

The Free Press, student publication of Little Campus Dormitory for men, has started its year's activity with the issuance of the September edition, "Vol. 7, No. 1." This paper appears monthly under the direction of the L. C. D. Association, and is issued to all residents of the dormitory free of charge. "Costs nothing—worth nothing" is the motto.

The first two pages of the issue are devoted to actual news of the dormitory. W. C. Ribble was appointed new dormitory manager; Harold Engdahl, former vice-president, was unanimously elected president of the L. C. D. Association; Paul Williams of Detroit got the honor of being the postman; and James Voss, intramural manager, announces that tennis doubles will be the first sport of the season.

The second page contains still more news. It tells about the lunch room of the dormitory, and the plans for a dancing school. On this page the news is squeezed in with some Little Campus jokes.

Sports are not neglected in this paper. On the third page can be found a large headline in capitals which tells that "Aquatic Stars Live at L. C. D." Among the outstanding swimmers living at the dormitory are Ralph Flanagan, Olympic champion, and Mike Sojka, Wally Hoffrichter, Robert Tarlton, and John Crouch.

On the fourth page is a complete roster of the boys at the dormitory, and the sections in which they live. The paper is published by the University Co-op.

ENROLLMENT NOW 9,314

The enrollment in the University has now increased to 9,314, according to reports from the Auditor's Office. The registration at this time last year totaled 8,412.

Governor Allred Speaks to Team And Students

Given a vote of confidence by Governor James V. Allred and the cheering of hundreds of students and town people Thursday afternoon in Memorial Stadium, Coach Bible's Longhorn football team was sent off on a flying start on their journey to Baton Rouge for the L.S.U. game Saturday.

Led by Wayne Ashmore, head yell leader, the Longhorn Band marched from Gregory Gym to the stadium. Following cheers, Governor Allred spoke a brief word of confidence to the team.

Band Marches

To the tune of lively music, the Longhorn Band marched down Twenty-first Street to the stadium, followed by several hundred students who had gathered at Gregory Gym to watch the beginning of the rally. As the band marched onto the field, the Longhorn team concluded its practice session, and gathered near the west side of the stadium.

Led by Ashmore and his assistants, Jack Egozue, Ted Dunnam, Johnny Goodman, and Jesse Bond, the crowd gave a number of cheers.

Following several minutes of cheering, Governor Allred spoke to the team.

"I feel sure we will have eleven battlers on the field at L.S.U." The Governor said that most of the writers picked Texas to lose, "the world is full of upsets of the old rope bucket, and I really look to our team to win over L.S.U."

Prayers With You

"As you go to Louisiana, you will have not only the best wishes, but also our prayers with you," he said in conclusion.

Mr. Bible had requested that the rally be held during the afternoon instead of at the train as the boys were to leave, and he wished them to have a good night's rest.

Giles Named Rusk President

The Rusk Literary Society held its first meeting of the new school year last night and organized for the fall activities.

An election of officers was held and the members elected Bernard Giles president, Dudley Davis, vice-president, Grover Keeton, second vice-president, Harvey Dibrell sergeant-at-arms, Jack Hart orator.

Dean Rubottom was elected an honorary member for life by the members, who also voted to support, wholeheartedly, the University's safety drive.

New members were then considered and eight new men were voted on for the first time. These were Jimmy Strong, John Greer, Aubrey Orr, J. T. Kelly, Dan Lowe, Cordie Harper, Frank Fourny, Forrest Hill.

STATE GETS JUDGMENT

By International News Service
Attorney General William Mc-Craw today announced that a judgment for $3,600 in favor of the state has been entered by district court in two suits to collect franchise taxes from the Houston Belt and Terminal Railway. The suits, brought by the railway, were to test whether the franchise tax under the provision which exempts railway terminal companies "not organized for profit and having no income from the business done by them." The case was argued by Assistant John McKay.

Texas Still Plans 'Buzzard' Revival

Plans for the revival of the "Buzzard," gossip column of the "Texan" of three years ago, continue to be indefinite, although Texan editors have indicated that the once-popular column will be restored.

"Although we are likely to get the column going again in the near future, plans are definitely still in the thinking stage. No actual work toward starting the 'Buzzard' has been done," Joe Belden, associate editor of the "Texan," said Thursday.

The "Buzzard" was a daily feature of the "Texan" until the end of the 1934-1935 school year, at which time it was discontinued.

The identity of its author was unknown to Texan readers and interest often ran high over some of the opinions and revelations appearing in it. It appeared on the front page.

Star Frosh Footballers Make Debut Friday Night

Veteran Netters Report to Make Prospects Good

With eight lettermen and many good reserve lettermen returning, prospects for a tennis team as good as or better than that of last year are excellent. Material for the freshman squad is as good as any in the Southwest Conference, Dr. D. A. Penick, tennis coach, said.

About forty men have reported for the varsity squad and the freshman squad is almost as large. Kamrath and Weller are the outstanding men on the varsity team at present, and the most promising freshmen are Riskind, Ball, Hickman, Batjen, and Granville, all from Texas, and Lorfing, who is from Kansas. The freshmen are now working in an elimination tournament to determine those who will make the team, but the varsity will have no more matches until next spring.

Dr. Penick considers Rice the strongest opposition the Steers will face this season. Frank Guernsey, the best performer on the Rice squad, looms as a possible winner of the Southwest Conference singles title.

In the Tuesday issue of the Texan, the statement was made that McGinnis and Stewart lost their match. This team, however, not only won every match but also every set.

Football fans of the University will have the opportunity to see one of the most talent-laden freshman teams ever to represent the University when the Yearlings make their debut against the Texas School for the Deaf in House Park Friday night at 8 o'clock.

Freshman coaches Jack Gray and Ed Price sent their charges through extended drills yesterday in final preparation for the game. The Redshirts, coached by Gray, devoted the afternoon to dummy scrimmage, passing, and fundamentals. Price used his Blue-shirts as cannon fodder for the

Harriers Point For Eighth S. W. Title

"The University of Texas cross country team is living up to all expectations and should be a serious threat to win the conference championship again this year for the seventh consecutive time," asserted Remus Thomas, cross country coach.

With three lettermen returning and a squad of eight men reporting daily to round out the team, Coach Thomas believes he has a team that is capable of competing against stiff competition. Already a meet with San Antonio University, formerly Edinburg Junior College, is being planned for about the middle of next month.

Outstanding of the squad to date are Onal Reed and Sam Patisillo, last year lettermen who have shown unusually good form for early season. Gordon Fischer and Joe Baldwin were also lettermen last year, but Thomas stated that Fischer would not be out this year.

Around the following men Coach Thomas will build his team: Clinton Kearney, Tom Law, Leo Gravis, Oliver Jelks, Fred Lincoln, Louis Moffatt, B. D. Odum, and Jesse Thompson.

Thomas said that inter-squad competition will probably be held either Friday or Saturday of this week.

Port Arthur Seeks New League Ruling

PORT ARTHUR, Sept. 30.—(INS)—The Port Arthur school trustees today went into district court here seeking a restraining order to prevent the Interscholastic League and District Fourteen committee from enforcing a resolution which would result in twelve-grade system high schools being barred from district competition.

A hearing has been set for October 8.

The trustees claim the committee's resolution is illegal.

TUTOR RESIGNS

George Darwin Stephens, tutor in English in the University for two years, has resigned to become instructor of English at A. & M. He holds master of arts degree from the University.

Sports Notice

RACKET CLUB will hold tryouts for second semester freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors on Wednesday and Thursday, September 6 and 7, from 4 to 6 o'clock in the afternoon on the Women's Gymnasium tennis courts.

INTRAMURALS DAY by DAY

By HARPO SIMMONS

TENNIS STARTS SATURDAY

Good news for all those tennis hopefuls. Tennis doubles will open the intramural year with matches scheduled for 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon, with play continuing until 6 o'clock.

There hasn't been a final count, but from all indications the entries for tennis doubles are going to exceed by far the 343 entries of last year—which all means good sport and lots of competition. I still can't get much of a line on independents entered in this sport, but when competition gets under way I'm going to give the field the once over, and see if I can't forecast some of the big guns. The same goes for the Club and the Mica division, but I do want to make one slight prediction in the fraternity section. It looks like Harvey Weil and Nelson with Moers and Krause a very, very close second.

Entries for playground ball are due today, and I mean today is the deadline. Competition will get underway Monday.

IN THE FIELD

I spent the entire afternoon Wednesday on the intramural fields, and I found out quite a few things of interest. First—the Dekes failed to practice. There must have been a major catastrophe to have caused this. Second—the independents are really turning out, and from the looks of things it is going to be pretty tough picking winners in the Independent and Club division. I don't know as yet who will be in that section. The boys have been almost crowded for time in organizing, but from the number of men each group has to pick from, they should put some mighty classy teams on the field.

TAYLOR LOOKS GOOD

Third—The Sigma Nu's have just about the best battery combination in the whole show. McDonald is doing the pitching and a sort of frail looking lad by the name of Taylor is doing the catching. But don't let his looks deceive you, because he really knows how to handle that ball behind the bat, and he doesn't mind taking the bumps. In fact, he took a real bump Wednesday and came up smiling. What McDonald lacks in pitching Taylor makes up in catching, and that little conjecture works both ways. The Sigma Nu's look very good in spots, but very weak at third and left field. Fourth—The S.A.E.'s and the K. A.'s entangled themselves in a practice game, and neither look what might be termed good. The S.A.E.'s may surprise, however. I for one, sincerely wish Ben Stone had time to participate. He has plenty of the old spirit and that See DAY BY DAY, Page 4.

Thirty-Six Longhorns Leave to Play L.S.U. in Second Game of Year

Travelers Play Hosts to Cats In Dixie Series

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Sept. 30.—(INS)—The Dixie Series will begin here tonight between the Little Rock Southern Association team, winners of the pennant in its league, and the Fort Worth team of the Texas League. Games will be played here tonight and tomorrow night. Saturday will be an off day and then play will be resumed in Fort Worth.

The winner of the Southern Association title was not decided until the last minute, as Atlanta and Little Rock were all square until last night. The travelers in the seventh game beat the Crackers, 5 to 2, and immediately scurried for home where the Fort Worth team already awaited them.

The present series is the culmination of arrangements made 17 years ago between Fort Worth and Little Rock. The teams then were the respective winners of their circuits and met to decide the championship of the two leagues. It will be the first time Little Rock and Fort Worth have met since the first series in 1920.

Martha Nell Medford, graduate of last June from the University, is employed as a teacher in Morton.

Doyle Picks Yanks To Defeat Giants

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—(INS)—Opening prices on the forthcoming World Series between the New York Yankees and Giants—assuming that the Giants clinch the pennant—were announced today by Jack Doyle, dean of the baseball betting commissioners.

The odds are 1 to 2 against the Yankees winning the series and 8 to 5 against the Giants coping it. The prices are 3 to 5 against the Yankees winning the opening game and 6 to 5 against the Giants taking the opener.

Bible Declares Oct. 16 Band Day

Dana X. Bible has dedicated the Arkansas-Texas football game, October 16, as "Dads' and Band's Day," George E. Hurt, director of the band, has announced.

The Longhorn Band has invited nine Central Texas bands to be guests on this day, with free seating accommodation. The Schreiner Institute band of Kerrville, with Pedro Martinez as director, is to be guest of honor.

A pre-game parade of all the visiting bands and the Longhorn Band will be staged downtown Saturday morning.

Governor, Band, Students Give Team Send-Off

By FRANK CHAPPELL

Plenty of hard blocking practices and tackling dummy work featured the final workout of the Texas Longhorns yesterday afternoon before they boarded the train for Baton Rouge for tomorrow night's joust with the L.S.U. Bengals.

A comparatively short but very brisk drill on pass offense, goal line plays, and defensive work against Tiger plays as run by the Freshman squad kept the Steers on their toes all the time.

Allred Speaks

At the close of the drill, George Hurt's band boys marched on to the field at the head of an aggregation of cheering students and fans to give the team its official send-off. Governor James V. Allred made a short talk to the team, saying that although the dopesters favor L.S.U., they did the same last year and the Tigers got the surprise of their life.

Fresh Help Out

The freshman griders took an active part in the dummy scrimmages of the afternoon. They achieved the dual purpose of helping the varsity prepare for Saturday's game and also getting themselves limbered up for their game this afternoon with the Texas State School for Deaf. The Silents always put out a game team, and, though generally out-powered by the big Longhorn freshmen, they always put up a good fight.

36 on Squad

Thirty-six members of the Texas Varsity boarded a south-bound express at 10 o'clock last night for Baton Rouge. Two promotions from the "B" squad were made Thursday to replace several men who are injured. These men will make the trip. Those making the trip are Peterson, Ford, Buck, Rosenthal, Bleymaier, McDonald, and Neely, ends; Keeling, Tullos, Esunas, Myers, Frankovic, and Allison, tackles; Terry, King, Naiser, Rhodes, Maedgen, and Ruppel, guards; Hammond, Jackson, and Baines, centers; Mittermayer, Bryan, Forney, Atchison, Bage, Boyer, Wolfe, Howard, Gray, Kaine, and Prestwood, backs. Hugh Wolfe will be captain for the game.

Coach Meehan Eagerly Awaits Aggie Struggle

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—(INS)—John F. Meehan, builder of character and houses, nibbled at a chicken sandwich and let his mind wander back to the days when he came down to New York City under a big black hat that would have made Mayor La Guardia blush with shame and blanch with envy.

John F. (Chick) Meehan is a football coach and also a contractor, who on Saturday will bring Manhattan to Manhattan.

In case that needs a little explaining, Manhattan is a New York City college that sort of gets treated like country cousins in its home town, so that it has to go over the river and play its games in Brooklyn.

Manhattan's opponents at the polo grounds will be Texas Aggies, one of the best teams in the Southwest, possibly the best team in the Southwest.

It seems that when the federal government was paying farmers not to raise livestock, it forgot to reward them for not raising football players. Hence this outfit from Texas that can rope and throw pretty much anything that roams a gridiron.

Whether they can leave their brand on Mr. Meehan's Jaspers, as they did in a rip-snortin' football game on their home range last year, is another question.

Meehan devoutly hopes not. He's been building three years for his season.

It will be like old times to see a Meehan-coached football team this side of the bridge again. It wasn't so many seasons back that the Manhattan Mentor was the Ziegfeld and Belasco of the gridiron game in our town. And what shows he used to give us!

But it wasn't all show and showmanship. Those were good football teams in the bright violet sweaters.

S. M. U. Prepares For Centenary

DALLAS, Sept. 30.—(INS)—Efforts to block the overhead play of the Centenary Gents were continued today by Southern Methodist University as they practiced for the Saturday game here. The drill yesterday afternoon included blocking which was none too good last week in the opening game against North Texas Teachers.

T. C. U. Changes Line-Up for Hogs

FORT WORTH, Sept. 30.—(INS)—A shifted lineup probably will be used Saturday by Coach Dutch Meyer, when the Texas Christian University football team meets Arkansas at Fayetteville. Meyer was not satisfied with the showing at end against Ohio last week and indicated today that Paul Snow and Durwood Horner probably will start the game in those places at Fayetteville.

Hogs Prepare For T.C.U.'s Passes

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark., Sept. 30.—(INS)—Davey O'Brien, passing star for Texas Christian University will be the target for the Arkansas Razorbacks Saturday, if practice this week is an indication. The Razorbacks have been given special drill in blocking passes such as O'Brien tosses.

Marion Gunst, University student, is in Houston for a few days.

Scribe Picks Texas, S.M.U. to Lose

Writer Predicts Arkansas Will Trounce Horned Frogs

By D. G. PARK
DALLAS, Sept. 30.—(INS)—One down and six still standing. That's the way things stood today in the Southwest Conference as they prepared to unmuzzle the big guns for one of the biggest second weeks in conference history.

Texas Christian, beaten by Ohio State, has already fallen from the line-up of undefeated. And this week-end sees S.M.U. tying in with Centenary; Arkansas and T.C.U., opening their conference season at Fayetteville; Rice going to Norman to meet Oklahoma University; Baylor travelling to Oklahoma City for its opposition; Texas getting a look at the Louisiana State Tigers at Baton Rouge; and the Texas Aggies making the long haul to New York City for a return match with Manhattan College.

Only 2 Home Games
All that means only two of the seven sisters of the conference will be entertaining in their own parlors. And this particular dopest sorrowfully reports that, try as he may, he can't avoid foreseeing three of those lovely lassies getting slapped right in the face—one of them by her guests, the Centenary Gentlemen. Chivalry isn't what it used to be.

Matty Bell's Southern Methodist machine is the first one which looks as though it is due for the proverbial monkeywrench. The Mustangs were looking none too good against North Texas Teachers and Centenary looked plenty good against Oklahoma City. Later on the Red and Blue is going to get hot and make several conference opponents feel very uncomfortable, but it will take more than Bell has had so far.

It won't be an irresistible force meeting an immovable body when Texas Christian and Arkansas open up their circuit schedule at Fayetteville. It will be two irresistible forces, and from this corner it appears that the Razorbacks will be irresistible just once too often—which is to say, Arkansas by a touchdown in a free-scoring game. T.C.U.'s turn will come later.

Not More Than 3 or 4
A. & M. has a long trip to New York City to cut down its scoring strength, and therefore will not be able to score more than three or four touchdowns against Manhattan.

If Manhattan could be scored on twice by little St. Bonaventure's, which is a minor college even in its own territory, it will be duck soup for the Cadets. Another sure-thing bet is Baylor from Oklahoma City. Nobody knows just where it came from, but the Bears had plenty of power while walloping Southwestern. Baylor by three touchdowns.

Owls Should Win
Rice against Oklahoma University at Norman looks like a mighty good game this Saturday. The Owls will probably find the gois what the S.A.E.'s need the most of. My hat off to Ben. Fifth—The Progressive Czechs seemed to be having trouble gathering together enough men to even put a ball club on the field. Maybe that little fuss that started the split among the men in the Czech Club should be patched up. Also those few that Horak could muster together seemed to be having a great deal of difficulty in hitting the pitching of Robert Moers. Those S.P.E.'s continue to look very good.

Roughness

Things I don't like—why when playing a practice game does roughness have to be present. There is no excuse for this. There should not be a feeling of animosity on the intramural field. Intramural games are meant to be fun, and when players let the thug show up, they are only hurting themselves and making enemies. Play the game hard, but don't try to get rough, because there is always someone who can be just a little bit rougher than you, and why make enemies?

NEW NEWMAN CLUB

Also—good policy but bad politics. I mean the rumor that all those who played with the Austex, independent winners last year, and the Urban Sturbans, one of the strongest teams in the Club Division, are going to unite with the Newman Club and form one team. You are defeating your own purpose. Where is your competition coming from? Or would you rather look at that cup that doesn't really have any meaning behind it because you didn't have to work for it? It's all right to gang up on the rest, but be sure it doesn't backfire on you in the form of many of your opponents' forfeiting. Not that they should, because I never saw a team yet that was too good to be beaten, but, nevertheless, I still say you will get plenty of forfeits. Is that what you are looking for?

A warning to all those playing tennis doubles—forget this year will count five points against you. I'll be seeing you on the intramural field.

ing pretty tough, but should win by two touchdowns.

Says T. U. Will Lose

Which leaves one more loser to be accounted for in this writer's predictions. And sad to say, it is one of the "pet" teams of the conference—Dana Bible's Texas Longhorns. The Steers looked pretty good against Texas Tech, but so did the Flagstaff Teachers of Arizona. And Flagstaff Teachers couldn't beat Louisiana State once in ten tries. Louisiana State is fast and smart and its line appears definitely superior at this stage in the game to that of Texas University. So it's L.S.U., about 20 to 7, over the Longhorns, and we don't mind if we're wrong.

Archangel and His Bible!

Saturday Evening Post circulation in Texas really will take a jump this week. That's not exactly a plug for the Post as a weekly magazine, but a statement of what is bound to prove a fact.

For one of the featured articles in the magazine which hits the newsstands this morning is a five-pager under the title: "Archangel and His Bible."

To those who have followed the Longhorns and the University closely for the past few years, there is no mystery attached to the title. Others might not recognize right off-hand that H. J. Lutchter Stark, former chairman of the Board of Regents, and Dana X. Bible, Longhorn athletic director, are the leading characters.

Kenneth Force, Jr., Dallas newspaperman, is the author of the interesting article which is accompanied by pictures of Bible, the S.P.E. Round-Up float, Mr. Stark, and the New Main Building.

Nothing to Worry About

Interested readers of the article will be Bible, Mr. Stark, and anyone else who had anything to do with D. X. heading south again.

Perhaps the leading characters may have worried some about what Mr. Force would say. A few words here and there can change

Archangel's Bible

D. X. Bible, athletic director for the University and the Bible half of Saturday Evening Post's article, "Archangel and His Bible," reads the story in the magazine which goes on the newsstands today. Centered around H. J. Lutchter Stark and the hiring of Bible as football coach, the article deals extensively with Mr. Stark's philanthropies in and around the University.

the tone of a story—insinuations might leave their marks either for or against a subject. Mr. Force chose to cast his characters in a pleasant light and did a good job of it.

Hero of the tale is Mr. Stark and his many philanthropies in and about the University. Mr. Force does excellent work in describing the Orange millionaire whose hobby is the University, who devotes

Owls Leave for O. U. Minus Star Back

HOUSTON, Sept. 30.—(INS)—The Rice Institute football squad entrained today for Norman, Okla., for the game Saturday with Oklahoma University. Injuries to his right leg in punting practice yesterday will keep Ernie Lain, a back, out of the game. Lain's leg was cut by the spikes of a fellow player.

Alexander Heads A. T. O. Pledges

Irvin Alexander, University student from Dallas, was elected president of the pledge class of Alpha Tau Omega fraternity at the first official meeting of the 1937 class.

The remainder of the officers chosen include Roy Brown, Houston, vice-president; Johnny Seale, Nacogdoches, secretary; Harry Glauser, Houston, treasurer; and Stanford Busby, San Antonio, keeper of the pledge book.

more thought and time to the University than to any other single item in his existence.

The Bible Tale

Leading the article is about the most complete story of the hiring of Bible that I have seen. Mr. Force has pieced together the many and varied angles to the story and has woven them into an interesting tale. He tells how Mr. Bible told Mr. Stark that he would have to sit in the grandstand from now on. He tells of the force Mr. Stark put into his arguments favoring the Nebraska coach. He tells how Mr. Stark raised the $5,000 needed to pay off Bible's mortgage in Nebraska.

Probably all U. T. followers have heard these anecdotes time and again, but they probably have never seen them all in one story. And to the millions outside of Texas, the description of the grandeur and wealth of the University, however over-emphasized, will probably be of great interest.

Mr. Stark's typical independence of spirit comes in for discussion. "I talk with whom I please, say what I please, and do what I please," is the apt description Mr. Force quotes of Mr. Stark's.

30 Students Buy L. S. U. Tilt Ducats

Thirty student tickets and 200 regular-priced tickets for the Texas-L.S.U. game had been sold by 5 o'clock Thursday afternoon, Miss Alice Archer, Athletic Council secretary, reported.

Tickets for the Texas-L.S.U. game will remain on sale at the Athletic Council office until 12 o'clock Friday morning.

In order that the quota of seventy-five persons may be obtained for the special train rate of $7.05, these tickets will remain on sale until 12 o'clock Friday morning. At this time all remaining tickets will be returned to the L.S.U. Athletic Council and will be placed on sale there. Sections 11 and 12 on the east side of the L.S.U. stadium have been reserved for Texas students.

Miss Archer said that advance sales on tickets for the Texas-O.U. game had been good; between 2,500 and 3,000 have been sold to date. Student tickets for this game will go on sale Monday morning.

Black Will Answer Klan Charges Tonight Over Nationwide Hookup

Justice Goes To Unknown Retreat

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—(INS)—Supreme Court Justice Hugo L. Black will answer charges of membership in the Ku Klux Klan at 9:30 Friday night over one of the greatest radio hookups in history.

The three great broadcasting companies, National, Columbia, and Mutual, announced today they would clear every channel to let Justice Black talk to the nation. The address will occupy thirty minutes.

Italy Accepts Part in Patrol

PARIS, Sept. 30.—(INS)—The agreement reached by British, French, and Italian naval experts, calling for Italian participation in the Mediterranean anti-pirate patrol, was signed today.

The accord now will be sent to the three governments for their approval. It provides for a revision of the Nyon Mediterranean patrol arrangement to permit Italian naval participation on a basis of equality.

Announcement that the pact had been signed was made through a navy ministry communiqué.

Japan Rejects U. S. Protest

TOKYO, Sept. 30.—(INS)—Japanese planes will keep on bombing Nanking, China's capital, despite protests from the United States and other governments, Japan asserted flatly today in a formal reply to the note recently dispatched to Tokyo by American Secretary of State Cordell Hull.

The American note protested against bombing of open Chinese towns and the killing of non-combatants as "contrary to humanity." Japan retorted that aerial attacks against Nanking are "unavoidable."

The Japanese reply, framed by Foreign Minister Koki Hirota, was released at 11:45 a.m. in Tokyo.

Its main points were as follows:

1. It is unavoidable that Japan's forces bomb strong Chinese defenses, including Nanking, which the note termed the "central base of Chinese military operations."
  2. Japanese military operations are not indiscriminately directed against both combatants and non-combatants.
  3. Japan remains "solicitous" regarding the rights of third parties in the Sino-Japanese conflict.
  4. The United States is requested to "cooperate" with Japan in transporting American nationals to safe refuges in order to avoid "misfortunes."
  5. As regards damages resulting from the conflict, Japanese intentions remain the same as previously stated.
- The Japanese note was handed to United States Ambassador Joseph C. Grew and to the French envoy, A. similar memorandum was delivered verbally to British Ambassador Sir Robert Craigie.
- The Japanese reply, which amounted to a virtual rejection of the protest dispatch by Hull, was briefly worded and almost curt in tone. Refusal of Japan to change her course in China was its principal theme.

U.S. DISPLEASED, HULL INDICATES

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—(INS)—Japan's curt rejection of America's emphatic protest against aerial bombing of non-combatants in China is unsatisfactory, Secretary of State Cordell Hull clearly indicated today.

The American protest, which lodged strong and vigorous objections to Japanese air raids on Nanking, makes clear the "permanent American attitude," Hull declared.

Hull parried other questions by declaring the American protest and Japanese reply "speak for themselves."

F.D.R. Sails For Canadian Visit

SEATTLE, Wash., Sept. 30.—(INS)—President Roosevelt turned his back on national affairs today and boarded a destroyer for Victoria, capital of British Columbia, for another of his "good neighbor" gestures toward Canada.

As the presidential party left Seattle, White House Secretary Marvin C. H. McIntyre denied flatly reports that Associate Justice Hugo L. Black had been in communication with Mr. Roosevelt since his return to the states.

Word from the East that the President's first Supreme Court appointee was going on the radio and answer charges he held a life membership in the Ku Klux Klan was conveyed to the official Roosevelt party only through the newspapers, it was said.

He also depreciated reports that a third party—one of the President's anonymous assistants—had been commissioned to approach the former Alabama Senator about the KKK matter. Secretary McIntyre said he did not know what night Justice Black was going on the air.

Mr. Roosevelt was expected to speak informally at Victoria.

close neighbors and that the friendliest of relations have existed between the two countries for many years.

The visit is believed aimed at further cementing these cordial relations and building up the policy of mutual isolation of the Western Hemisphere from trouble abroad in Europe and Asia.

Klan Charges Fired at Hoover And Cummings

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—(INS)—Former President Herbert Hoover was called "the greatest expert on the subject of Ku Klux Klan" today by Secretary of the Interior Harold Ickes.

Asked if he had any comment to make on the reported Klan affiliations of Supreme Court Justice Hugo Black, Ickes replied: "This just shows that the same old red herring can be used for different purposes on different occasions. How outraged we can be when he have a chance to gore the other fellow's bull."

"I think the greatest expert on the subject of the Klan is Herbert Hoover. He accepted their support. I know when they put on their nighties and pillow cases in support of Herbert Hoover, my reaction was that I voted for Al Smith just on that issue."

Revelation that former Senator Thomas J. Heflin has been on the payroll of Attorney General Cummings brought a fresh attack today from former General Sessions Judge Talley, president of the Catholic Club of New York.

"It's beginning to look as though the office of Attorney General Cummings has been used as a stowaway for Kluxers," Judge Talley said.

"It seems to me that an investigation of his office is very much in order because it is just as important to keep out of the Department of Justice members of the Ku Klux Klan, whose oath pledges them to a denial of justice to Catholics, Jews, and alien-born."

Judge Talley headed a group of Catholic Club members which last week passed a resolution protesting the appointment of Hugo L. Black to the Supreme Court.

Italy Rejects Tri-Partite Plan

LONDON, Sept. 30.—(INS)—Strengthened in its stand by the strong bond cemented between Premier Mussolini and Reichsfuehrer Adolf Hitler during their recent meeting, Italy today rejected proposed tri-partite discussion of the question of volunteers in Spain.

Count Dino Grandi, Italian ambassador, in a conference with Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden, threw the entire matter back into the lap of the non-intervention committee, insisting no useful purpose could be served by transferring the problem to a restricted group of powers.

Although admitting "difficulties have arisen" in connection with the tri-partite conference plan, Whitehall spokesmen asserted that Britain had not abandoned hope of persuading Italy to participate.

The Italian stand renewed the possibility that France might open her borders for flow of men and munitions to the aid of Loyalist Spain, a step she has threatened unless Italy immediately removes her volunteers from the Nationalist side.

Great Britain, however, is continuing her efforts to dissuade France from such a move.

Italian participation in tri-partite discussions with Britain and France would have isolated Germany and deprived Italy of her support at the council table. The recent declarations of Hitler and Mussolini in Berlin made it obvious Italy and Germany would henceforth follow a parallel policy in Spain and elsewhere.

Move to Unite CIO and A F of L

DENVER, Sept. 30.—(INS)—A peace plan with the object of consolidating the American Federation of Labor and John L. Lewis' C.I.O. will be offered to the federation convention here next week, it was announced today.

The powerful International Typographical Union, A. F. of L. affiliate, sent its president, Charles P. Howard, to the conclave with a definite plan seeking reunion of the warring labor organizations.

Howard said today that, with this reunion in view, he would introduce three amendments to the federation's constitution.

1—Drastic curtailment of the federation's executive council powers, removing the council's power to expel or suspend individual unions. This proposal would also prohibit the council from preferring charges against individual unions.

2—Providing for a two-thirds vote of the full federation convention for expulsion or suspension.

3—Broadly liberalizing the A. F. of L. set-up and emphasizing that it is a voluntary association of unions—in effect creating complete self government for indi-

Nipponese Deny League Charges

GENEVA, Sept. 30.—(INS)—In reply to the League of Nations' resolution condemning Japanese bombardment of Chinese open towns, the Tokyo government today issued a communiqué through its consul-general here refuting the allegations.

Paralleling the note sent to the United States in response to that government's protest, the Japanese communiqué insisted only buildings "affecting the military power of the adversary" had been attacked and stoutly denied there had been any attacks upon non-combatants.

Holbrook Denies Need for Taxes

By International News Service

Formally recommending that "no new taxes be levied at this time," the Senate investigating committee in its report to the Senate today asked that all appropriation bills passed at the regular session be recalled at the current special session.

The report, signed by Senators T. H. Holbrook, Albert Stone, and Rudolph Weinert, followed a minority report signed by Senator Wilbourne Collie of Eastland earlier today.

There is little chance that Howard's proposal will be accepted by the federation. His union was never suspended by the federation but has always been sympathetic to the C.I.O. Howard himself is secretary of the Lewis faction.

Morgenthau Glum About '39 Budget

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—(INS)—Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau today was not so enthusiastic over the prospect of a balanced federal budget in 1939 as President Roosevelt was earlier in the week in his Bonneville Dam speech.

He declined to predict the budget would be balanced by the end of the fiscal year, June 30, and refused to speculate on what he thought the government would do in 1939.

Mr. Roosevelt stated in his speech the budget would be balanced in 1939.

"A lot of work has to be done on the 1939 budget," Morgenthau stated.

When asked about his hopes for the current year he jocularly remarked:

"Where there is time there is fortune."

Pressed to make a statement on the budget-balancing question, he added:

"I don't go in much for these hopes."

Asked if he intended to propose additional taxation at the next session of Congress Morgenthau was non-committal. He did say there would be no more major federal borrowing programs until the regular quarterly financing on December 15.

SHANGHAI, Sept. 30.—(INS)—Japanese artillery batteries pounded Chinese positions on the Shanghai front again today in an attempt to clear a path for Nippon's long-awaited "big push" to capture the city.

Chinese troops held out stubbornly against the Japanese barages, however, and Chinese officials claimed no ground had been yielded anywhere along the battle line.

At the same time, desperate measures were taken to prevent additional Japanese warships from advancing further inland via the Yangtze River.

Large fleets of Chinese junks, laden with huge cargoes of stone, sailed down the river to strengthen the protective harbor boom at Kiangyin. The stones will be used to support the boom to forestall an anticipated Japanese advance up the Yangtze.

Meanwhile, at Canton, two air raid alarms were sounded but no Japanese raids against the city proper developed. Two Japanese planes bombed the vicinity or nearby Whampoa, however, evidently attempting to hit the naval academy there.

Meanwhile, in the north, Governor Han Fu-Chu of Shantung province refuted Japanese rumors he might save his province from invasion by "falling in with Japanese plans to create an autonomous federation of the northern provinces of Hopei, Shantung, Shansi, Suiyuan, and Charar."

Lewis to Organize Aircraft Workers

DETROIT, Sept. 30.—(INS)—A vigorous drive by the C.I.O.'s United Automobile Workers Union to organize the 75,000 workers in the nation's airplane factories was planned today.

Walter N. Wells, U.A.W. vice-president, was assigned to direct organization of aircraft workers, and said he would leave Monday to open headquarters in Los Angeles.

Lindy to Retain U. S. Citizenship

NEW YORK, Sept. 30.—(INS)—Col. Charles A. Lindbergh will not renounce his American citizenship to become a British subject and any stories to that effect are "pipe dreams," Dr. Alexis Carrel, famous scientist, declared today.

Arriving on the Normandie, Dr. Carrel, scientific teammate of the American flier, who was in close contact with Lindbergh throughout the summer, said:

"Lindbergh has absolutely no idea of becoming a British subject."

"When is he coming home," he was asked.

Dr. Carrel shrugged and stated:

"I can't answer that."

Asked whether he and Lindbergh have had any success with the "mechanical heart," product of the combined ingenuity of the scientist and flier, Dr. Carrel answered:

"We never say we are successful in science. We just say that we are still working."

Hull to Return Canadian Visit

WASHINGTON, Sept. 30.—(INS)—Secretary of State Cordell Hull next month will visit Canada, returning the recent visit of Canadian Prime Minister Mackenzie King, he announced today.

Hull, with Mrs. Hull, will pay what he termed an "unofficial visit" to Ottawa on October 20 and 21 and to Toronto on October 22.

At Ottawa the Hulls will be the guests of Lord and Lady Tweedsmuir, the Governor-General of Canada.

Hull plans one address during his visit, this will be made at the University of Toronto.

The visit is in answer to an invitation extended by the Governor-General. Hull said he has desired for some time to visit Canada.

Hull said his visit would not be attended by discussion of official matters. He pointed out the United States and Canada are very

Student Body A Problem, Too

THIS AFTERNOON a man totally unfamiliar with University by-ways looked for a long time at Forty Acres' skyline spreading out at sunset and remarked:

"What a wonderful school!"

He couldn't remember having seen at any time a campus to compare in beauty with the one on the western hill. A little while later he remarked that people who haven't seen the University's physical plant couldn't realize what a tremendous institution was housed on University hill. Out of sight five minutes later, he was still thinking about its immensity.

"It looks too damned big for its own good," he said.

Doubtless his reasoning is correct; the state at large can scarcely conceive of the immense growth of a University which has more than doubled its population in ten years—a plant that has sprung up in myriad masses of brick and stone, equipped to the teeth with the finest facilities available.

To carry his lesson farther, he might have reasoned correctly that no one in the state is quite sure of the extent of the University's span. With exceptions only to the handfuls, no one probably knows to infinite detail the scope and range of today's institution. No one knows its future.

THE AFTERNOON observer might find it singular that a new student body is passing through University portals—a student body, who will no longer attempt conception of the entire University scheme. It might puzzle him to know that of possibly 2,000 who would know all they could about the University, few more than 50 students grasp even the nicks and dents along a stone superstructure.

He would be equally surprised to know that the roots of the tree are far withdrawn from the branches. University administrators and faculty, if gathered into one group would collectively admit that they are not yet acquainted with the phenomenon of the new student body.

One of the greater dilemmas of the University lies to a great extent in the person of this year's student body. It lay in the person of last year's student body—and to a great extent will lie more decisively in each successive class of newcomers in each successive year for all the years to come.

FOR THE University's future goes hand in hand with these people who are now students, now alumni. To acclimate them to the University—to build up loyalty and regard for the University now, is to cement that loyalty and regard of men to whom the University must turn for aid not many years hence.

Prime problem before those who help make University destiny is admittedly the choice of the next president.

And only slightly secondary is the problem of today's and tomorrow's student body. Lukewarm undergraduate tolerance for the traditions and symbols of Forty Acres won't do; it will bring indifference and disregard for tomorrow's school.

In the past, efforts have been made to adjust the school to its increasing population. This year, efforts were redoubled to find an answer to the problem of the University boom.

To date, these efforts have fallen short. The University cannot hope for a strong alumni until it preserves a strong student body. It is imperative that means be found to bring the separate parts to a coherent whole.

And it is of little less importance than to determine who shall govern that whole.

PATTERINGS on the PERIPATUS

By Pat Daniels

Miss Emily Post, in a feature story of not-so-long-ago, said that it is "permissible for a woman to pay the dinner check when she dines with a man." I always knew Emily was a good old gal.

Scoop: Gentlemen of the press do, sometimes, get tight, judging from this story turned in to the editor of a newspaper somewhere (it actually happened):

"Yesterday morning at 4 p. m. a small man, named Jones or Brown or Smith, with a heel in the hole of his trousers, committed arsenic by swallowing a dose of suicide.

"The verdict of the inquest returned a jury that the deceased came to the fact in accordance with his death. He leaves a child and six small wives to lament the end of his untimely loss. In death we are in the midst of life."

The Alabamian breaks forth with this definition of The Perfect Man:

There is a man who never drinks nor smiles, nor chews nor sweats,

Who never gambles, never flirts, who shuns all awful snares—

He's paralyzed.

Mr. Roy R. Rubottom, assistant dean of men, evidently goes by two titles: Roy and Dick. Please Mr. Rubottom, for the sake of consistency, can't we call you one thing all of the time?

Add signs in campus beer joints: "To Hell with the Government," "Down with the Panhellenic Council," and again, "Ye Slimy Three."

No, Oscar, that guy is no ghost just because he's singing "I Ain't Got No Body."

A barber shop on the campus of the University of New Mexico is conducting a contest to find a name for the parlor. One of the rules governing the contest states: "The winner may take out five dollars in trade at reasonable intervals, or, if he or she chooses, may bring the gang in for a mass set-up tonsorially."

By the way—there is a dance Saturday nite, ain't they, pledges? And with Jimmie Lunceford playing, there should be some fast music, probably "The Big Apple" included. Which brings me up to this point that I wanted to make all the time: They probably call the new dance craze the "Big Apple" because it takes a strong limb to keep it up.

Tomme Call (a boy, to all interested) received last year an invitation to join the Mortar Board, honorary organization for senior women.

Then there was the boy who had a date with a girl who learned to kiss by drinking thick malts through straws.

They Talk About

Japanese Boomerang—Negro Policemen

In Other Papers

Compiled by Ann Jarratt

Japanese Boomerang

Any American who feels that the Japanese have shown themselves up for a crew of greedy and unprincipled muscle-men by their unprovoked assault on China ought to remind himself that a pretty fair part of it is America's fault.

Along with the rest of the world America made Japan what she is today.

The whole recent history of Japan is by way of being a sharp, ironic commentary on our civilization.

Until the middle of the 19th century, Japan was living like a silkworm in a cocoon. Nobody could get in and nobody could get out; as a result, Japan was living in the middle ages.

Then the dikes were broken. If you remember your history, you may recall that it was the United States navy which broke them. Japan came out of her cocoon and confronted a world which had got about six centuries ahead of her.

And it was right there that the western world, including America, handed out a stone in place of a loaf of bread.

For the Japanese seem to have looked around and decided that the more advanced white nations were relying on a policy of force, pure and simple. No matter which nation Japan took for example—America, England, France, Germany, Russia—she could not fail to see that national expansion, prosperity, and greatness were being sought and won at the point of the bayonet. And the power of example is the most forceful of all arguments.

So Japan followed suit. She modernized her army along western lines. She built a great navy along western lines. She adopted a policy of imperialism along western lines. She saw what kind of game was being played, called for the same sort of cards, and set out to get all she could out of them.

So what is happening in China today is happening because Japan learned her lesson from the western world too well. The very airplane with which Japan is scourging Chinese noncombatants is an American invention; the idea of using it on defenseless cities came from Europe; and the notion of taking another man's territory by force may well have come—in part, at least—from our own excursion into Mexico in the 1840's.

—Corpus Christi Caller.

Negro Policemen

Eventually, Dallas is likely to follow the example of a number of other Southern municipalities and put a few negroes on the police force.

But as long as the innovation arouses vigorous protest, it will be wise for the city council not to borrow trouble.

Negro leaders say that the addition of members of their race to the force would help to suppress lawlessness in the colored sections, but the need is not great enough to justify an experiment that might provoke discord between the races.

The negroes are being provided with a new high school which will be of far more benefit to them than would be the employment of a small group of colored police officers.

Meanwhile, the city authorities cannot ignore the fact that better enforcement of the law is needed in the Negro districts. The murder rate among the colored citizens is deplorably high. If it declines the remedy suggested by the negroes themselves, the council should take measures of its own to protect law abiding negroes from the criminals of their own race.

International complications, arising through the Immigration Act of 1918 and 1920, have prevented Leon Trotsky, Russian revolutionist, from speaking on the campus under the auspices of the Carolina Political Union, it was announced yesterday by Alex Heard, chairman.

After accepting the union's invitation to speak here, Trotsky was barred from entering the country by Secretary of State Cordell Hull, who stated in a letter to Heard that the Russian communist, now living in exile in Mexico, was classed as an undesirable because of his "known beliefs, activities, and advocations."

In accepting the union's invitation, Trotsky declined to lecture on a political subject because he "observes most strictly the principle of non-intervention into American politics."

(It was because Trotsky advocated the Third Internationale which seeks to spread communism over the world that he broke with Russian Dictator Stalin and fled to Mexico as an exile. Stalin wishes to develop communism in Russia only.)

Trotsky also observed in his acceptance note that perhaps "American Stalinists, and especially the

REWARD

We often moan when trouble comes along To darken all that once with us was bright.

Each little particle of happiness and song

We turn to hate and scorn with all that's in our might.

If one small speck of sorrow should appear

In our great world of life, and laugh and love

We seem to think the earth no longer dear,

That we do not deserve what's sent from Him above.

We sometimes live in mansions while our hearts So filled with hate, and discontent and pride

Ask why we must have such a dreary part,

Forgetting all the goods things on the side.

Yet there are some who humbly live on earth;

Who see the beauty, love, and happiness in all;

Turn all the jolts and sadness into mirth;

Whose faith and hope in God will never fall.

These shall advance when Judge-ment Day is here,

To that ethereal palace high above;

To greener pastures, where the sky is clear;

Where no one knows of hate, but all of love.

20 Years

Professor E. P. Schoch is in New York City to address the National Exposition of Chemical Industries.

A list of rules issued by the Faculty Committee on Student Social Affairs contained the following: "At times, but especially during the period of the war, moderation in social activities is urged."

The registration of all automobiles in Texas reached a total of 176,287 today. Officials expect the final figure to be above 200,000.

10 Years

The Longhorns were held to a scoreless tie by the T.C.U. Frogs in a game played in a steady downpour of rain at Memorial Stadium in Austin.

Final plans for Gregory Gymnasium were completed and placed on display in Austin. Work on the project will begin next year.

Journalists to Celebrate With Jamboree Tonight

Music, Dance To Be Given In Texas Union

Tonight at 8 o'clock every budding journalist will leave his typewriter behind him and trek to the Union for a Jamboree. They will dance; they will sing; they will make merry, for tomorrow the paper must come out!

The Journalism Jamboree tonight will be held in the Main Ballroom of the Texas Union at 8 o'clock. It will be entirely informal.

Sponsored by Theta Sigma Phi and Sigma Delta Chi, professional journalism fraternities will be hosts to members of the Department of Journalism and guests of the department in the largest journalistic celebration of the year.

Watts to Announce
Dick Watts will be master of ceremonies during the jamboree program, which will feature a co-ed trio composed of Boots Cullins, Jean Rector, and Elizabeth Keeney. Miss Cullins, who has sung with Ted Fio Rito's orchestra, will sing a solo, accompanied by Miss Rector.

Following the program, guests will be entertained with dancing. Other forms of entertainment will be announced by Joe Belden and Mavouree Fitzgerald, presidents of the two fraternities.

Rubottom Introduced
Dick Rubottom, now assistant dean of men and charter member of the S. M. U. chapter of Sigma Delta Chi, will be given an official press welcome.

Guests for the entertainment are: President J. W. Calhoun, Dean V. I. Moore, Arno Nowotny, Miss Dorothy Gebauer, Mrs. Kathleen Bland, Miss Mary Bewley, W. D. Hornaday, William L. McGill, Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. DeWitt Reddick, Granville Price, Miss Lorena Drummond, Miss Afton Wynn, Burt Dyke, Louis Baethe, Miss Mildred Basford, Francis Burt, Nan Pearce, Woodrow Walter, O. P. Whittington, Raymond Rimmer, Dr. J. B. Wharey, Dean J. Anderson Fitzgerald, Jake Pickle, George Chamberlain, Bob Engeling, and Ed Syers.

Ella G. White Takes Editing Position

Miss Ella G. White, August graduate of the University, will leave for Santa Barbara, Calif., about November 5, where she will assume the duties of assistant editor of a health magazine, The Milk Sanitarian.

The Milk Sanitarian is a monthly magazine of national circulation, and has as its objective the betterment of the milk and dairy industry in the United States.

Miss White has been associated with the State Department of Health since 1924, and until recently was secretary of the Bureau of Sanitary Engineering. She was active in perfecting organizations such as the Texas Public Health Association, Texas Beach and Pool Association, Texas Water Works Association, Tourist Court Owners Association, and others.

Miss White had great influence in developing the milk program of the State Health Department, including holding of local milk schools, promoting milk associations, and the like.

She was active in the Austin Business and Professional Women's Club and served as its president in 1931-32. She was health chairman of the District Federated Woman's Clubs.

She is the co-author with E. W. Steele, Texas A. & M. professor, of two health textbooks "Hygiene of Community, Home, and School" and "Applied Municipal Sanitation."

Before going to Santa Barbara, Miss White plans to attend a number of meetings in Dallas. These include meetings of the Texas Public Health Association, the National Association of Milk Bottle Exchanges, the International Association of Milk Dealers, and the International Association of Ice Cream Manufacturers. Miss White will also represent The Milk Sanitarian at the convention of the International Association of Milk Sanitarians at Louisville, Ky.

New Mexico U. Host To Student Congress

Plans for the thirteenth annual congress of the National Student Federation at Albuquerque are well under way, Lyle Saunders, N.S.F.A. congress chairman announced.

The newly opened Student Union at the University of New Mexico and the regular dormitories will be ready to receive the guests. The main object of study at the congress will be the activities of student councils. An effort will be made to discover the function of the student council in American higher education.

The National Student Federation in connection with the American Student Union, and the Y.M.C.A. and Y.W.C.A. is sponsoring a movement to obtain an executive restoration of the full amount of the N.Y.A. appropriation. The National Youth Administration Budget was cut 45 per cent this year.

October 14 has been designated as the day for the expression of a united opinion as to the desirability of restoring these cuts.

Mrs. Batts Leaves E. E. Scholarship

As a bequest from the late Mrs. R. L. Batts of Austin, $533.06 has been presented to the University through the Board of Regents, to establish a loan fund or scholarship in electrical science or electrical engineering. This fund is in memory of her nephew, John Boak Smith.

Mrs. Batts was the widow of the late Judge R. L. Batts, prominent ex-student and former chairman of the Board of Regents. As regent and regent chairman, Judge Batts was a motivating force in the development of the greater University of Texas. In acknowledgment and appreciation of his service, the students dedicated the 1934 Cactus to him.

New Pi Phi House Crumble Hopes For Greek Row

Hopes for a fraternity and sorority row on University Drive have been blasted by the building of the new Pi Beta Phi house at San Antonio and Twenty-third Streets. The house is to be completed by the spring semester.

The Greek letter students have long cherished hushed hopes of an eventual Greek row on University Drive from the Kappa Sigma fraternity house, much publicized as the first hotel-scale fraternity house, to the Littlefield Memorial Fountain. The comparatively new Alpha Phi sorority house and the recently-purchased Kappa Kappa Gamma lot are testimonials of such hopes.

Colonial in style, the entire house will be of whitewashed brick with green shutters to contrast. There will be two series of steps leading to the columned front porch facing San Antonio Street, and a side entrance through Twenty-third Street to be approached by a circular stairway. In bad weather, this should eliminate the gale problem for Phi Phis.

The main entrance leads into a front hall on both sides of which are two large reception rooms. One joins the library which is to serve as a study hall also, and the other joins the dining room with sliding doors between the two rooms. This plan was evolved so that both rooms could be opened into one. In addition to a kitchen and servant quarters, there is a small sitting room on the first floor.

Forty-two girls are to be housed on the second and third floors in double and triple rooms. There is a spare bedroom for returning alumnae and other guests. Each occupant will have her own closet and desk. The new innovations in closet gadgets are quite amazing, for out of what would be considered a comparatively small closet, unfolds room for everything from a two-way latex bathing suit to a fur coat.

The third floor contains sleeping quarters and a chapter room. On both ends of the house is a large glassed-in sleeping porch. A trunk room is located on every floor.

From a central system, a loud speaker is connected to every room in order that a person may be summoned easily from one room to another. The house will be prepared for air conditioning.

Carl Staub of Houston was in charge of the architectural plans of this house—the first to materialize in the last few years, though "growing pains" have been felt by Kappa Kappa Gamma, Delta Delta Delta, Beta Theta Pi, Beta Tau Alpha, and others.

Fraternity and sorority rows are an eventuality, but one thing is certain, Greek-letter groups are rebuilding in scale to the campus.

Organist Leberman to Be Honored With Reception Sunday Night

Henry N. Leberman, blind organist and composer, will be honored with a reception Sunday night in the Community Room of the Central Christian Church.

Mr. Leberman is a graduate of the Blind Institute in Austin, and has taught there for 37 years. In addition, he has been organist at the Central Christian Church for 80 years, and has composed many selections during that time. He has resigned from the organist position, but he is still active in his other pursuits.

Before the reception, the regular Evensong program will be given, during which Mr. Leberman will play "Spring Song," one of his own compositions. He will also play the prelude. Dr. M. E. Sadler will make a talk. A part of the church program will be the Young People's Social and Devotional program, also in the Community room. This program, which is open to students, will begin at 6 o'clock and last until 7:30, at which time the Evensong will begin. At the morning sermon Dr. M. E. Sadler will speak on "A University."

New Dawn for Christianity
Bill Dyer, ex-student of the University, will sing the incidental solo.

The reception for Mr. Leberman will be given by the Central Christian Church, and all of his friends are invited to attend.

ARROWOODS RETURN

Dr. and Mrs. C. F. Arrowood are back in Austin after a vacation spent in Urbana, Ill., where Dr. Arrowood taught in the College of Education of the University of Illinois, Chicago, and Wisconsin Dells, Wis. Dr. Arrowood is professor of the history and philosophy of education in the

Apartment Dwellers Must See Dean

All students who are living in unsupervised apartments or garage apartments should report to the office of the Dean of Student Life to obtain a special permit, Dick Rubottom, assistant to the Dean of Student Life, has announced.

Since inspectors from the office of Dean V. I. Moore will be sent around to these apartments in the near future, students living in them will save much time and embarrassment if they report voluntarily. If the living conditions and behavior of these students are found to be satisfactory, they will be required to sign a pledge, and may continue to live in the apartments.

Many Campus Organizations Introduce New Officers

Campus organizations, scheduled for the University social calendar for their regular meeting nights, are choosing their officers by elections held at the first meetings.

All organizations, whether they be religious, scholastic, sport, or social, will announce their officers and make nominations to fill the vacancies left by students who will not return to the University this year at their first meetings.

Phi Gamma Pledges

The pledges of the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity had their first regular meeting Monday night, at which time they held on election of officers. Those elected were Edward Cornwell, Austin, president; Dred Thompson Wood, San Angelo, secretary, and B. C. Anderson, Dallas, treasurer.

Phi Psi Officers Back

All officers of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity who were elected for this year have returned. The officers are Raymond A. Cook, president; Max Wier, vice-president; David Rasco, corresponding secretary; Marshall Wells, recording secretary; E. W. Smith, treasurer and house manager; Everett Shirley, historian; and Lowell Wilkes and Robert Baxter, sergeants-at-arms.

Pi Kappa Alpha

Walter Lee Porter of Bryan was elected president of the pledge class of Pi Kappa Alpha at the first meeting of the class held at the chapter house Thursday night.

Other officers who were elected at the meeting to serve for the first semester were Earl Preston of Childress, vice-president; Murray Voss of Austin, secretary, and Dan Ryan of Houston, treasurer. J. M. Preston, former S. M. C. of the active chapter is pledge master.

Tejas Club

Estary Alford was elected secretary of the Tejas Club at the meeting Wednesday. The club voted to retain the officers of last year. The officers for this year are John Green, president; Jack Stuckey, vice-president; Estary Alford, secretary; Percy Harris, business manager; and Bill Campbell, historian.

Alpha Epsilon Phi

Ruth Ellen Beaird and Marion Bergson, officers in Alpha Epsilon Phi sorority last semester, did not re-enter school this fall. Miss Beaird was formerly treasurer, and her place has been taken by Lois Edel. Miss Bergson was junior Pan-hellenic representative, and her place has been taken by Lethale Kapland.

Delta Kappa Gamma

Miss Pansy Luedcke will serve as president of the local chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, national honorary fraternity for women teachers, for this year. Other officers are Miss Anna Hiss, first vice-president; Mrs. Hattie Stromquist, second vice-president; Mrs. E. A. Murchison, treasurer; Miss Iris Shuford, recording secretary, and Miss Frances Thorpe, corresponding secretary.

San Antonio Club

The University of San Antonio Club elected officers at its first meeting this week. Officers are John Ford, president; Margaret Gidley, treasurer; Jack McCrocklin, treasurer; Yesley Ogden, parliamentary; Heath Nielsen, reporter, and Clyde Johnson, sergeant-at-arms.

American History Club

The American History Club is led by Mrs. J. B. Wharey, president, who is wife of a professor of English. She is a former president of the Austin Art League. Miss Sarah Dodson, instructor of English, is referee for the history club. Other officers follow: Mrs.

Raymond Hill, first vice-president; Mrs. Haris Brush, second vice-president; Mrs. H. C. Marshall, secretary; Mrs. A. W. Harris, treasurer; Mrs. R. B. Cousins, parliamentary, and Mrs. W. M. Taylor, hostess.

Wesleyan Choir

Mary McAfee was elected president of Wesleyan Choir at the home of Barbara Kone, music chairman of Wesley Foundation. Lillian Roff was elected secretary, and Eldon Newton librarian. The choir is under the direction of Herbert Wall, who is also director of the University Light Opera Company and the choir of the University Methodist Church.

Men's Glee Club

Officers of the Men's Glee Club were introduced at its first meeting. They are Gilbert E. Schramm, director; Bryan Beck, president; Harold Brady, business manager; Charles Wilson, librarian, and Roger Hoffman, historian.

H. E. Club Gives Tea For Students

Students in the Department of Home Economics were entertained yesterday afternoon from 4 until 6 o'clock with a tea given by the Home Economics Club.

Mildred Thames, president of the club, introduced the club sponsors and officers to the new students.

Miss Elizabeth Tarpley and Dorothy Ashley served. A centerpiece of zinnias was used on the service table, which was laid with peasant cloth.

Officers of the club in addition to Miss Thames are Mary Margaret Blaylock, vice-president; Orlene Wilborn, secretary; Caren Crouch, treasurer; Sylvia Hajek, historian; Evelyn McKelvey, senior representative; Margaret Dupree, junior representative, and Lucille Bolf, sophomore representative.

Misses Edith Kirkland, Lucille Emerson, and Josephine Staab are club sponsors.

Light Opera Company Director Likes Prospects for Candidates

"If we don't top every campus activity except football, this year, it will be our own fault. We certainly have the talent."

These were the words of Herbert Wall, for three years director of the University Light Opera Company, when he had finished a busy Monday that saw twenty-four more additions to the already swelled ranks of this U. T. musical group.

"It has been absolutely thrilling. We have never had anything like it before. It is amazing the talent that has appeared this year," Mr. Wall continued enthusiastically when asked how this year's prospects compared with those of other seasons.

By the end of the week, announcement will be made concerning the casts of the organization's two shows, "Maid Marian" in December, "Yeomen of the Guard" in March with a third presentation to be given in May.

Those gaining membership in the group are Walter Sellers, Spurgeon Britt, Peggy Kreisle, George Brackett, Ruth Schultz, Jessonda Gilbert, Joe Sullivan, Beatrice Schwartz, Dora Gras, Howard Hurst, Janelle Taylor, Cora Steinmann, Elizabeth Halm, Willis Cole, Shelton Boyce, Clara Black, Christine Stone, Robert Purvin, James Pridgen, Walter Porter, Lois Harvey, Josie Meyer, and Jane Young.

Tryouts will continue through 2 o'clock today.

Head-Crews Wed Sunday

Miss Virginia Crews, ex-student of the University, will be married to John Head, ex-student, Sunday morning in a church ceremony at Childress.

Miss Crews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Crews, is a member of Delta Delta Delta. Before her graduation from the University last June, she was active in campus organizations. She was a member of Orange Jackets, president of Pan-Hellenic Council, and a member of the Girls' Glee Club.

Mr. Head, who received his bachelor of arts degree from the University, is now employed in the First National Bank of Odessa, where they will make their home. Eleanor Ann Ward and Anne Fleming, Tri Deltas, plan to attend the wedding.

About University People--

Alice Kniveton, former University student and a member of the local chapter of Alpha Delta Pi, returned to her home in Shreveport, La., after a visit at the chapter house during rush week.

Natalie Yates of Wilmette, Ill., who attended the University last year, is now enrolled in Northwestern University.

Christiana Eiband of New Braunfels has left the University to receive her degree from Emmanuel College in Boston, Mass.

Edwin Meredith Sykes, Jr., and Oliver Timmins, Jr., who were students in the University last year, are entering the School of Medicine at Galveston this year.

Misses Louellen Goodwin, Betty Swallow, and Polly Moon were San Antonio guests at the Zeta Tau Alpha house last week-end. Miss Moon was a student in the University last year, and Miss Swallow was Sweetheart of the University in 1935-36.

Lulu Debenport of Tyler, a former student at the University, spent the week-end at the Zeta Tau Alpha house.

Vivian Glithero is teaching in Le Grange this year. She visited at the Chi Omega house during rush week.

Estelle Ingram will motor to her home in Conroe to spend the week-end.

Lillie Ruth will spend the week-end in Houston visiting friends.

Bettie Vallance will go to Houston to spend the week-end with her father.

Geraldine Wander will visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Max Wander of Brookshire, this week-end.

Elva Johnson of Houston is among University students attending the Texas-L.S.U. football game in Baton Rouge, La.

Martha Jane Pyle and Imogene Pyle from Houston are not back in the University this year. The former is taking interior decorating work at Feather and Feather in Houston.

Charlotte Lippman, who received her degree last June, is now teaching in the elementary grades in the Austin Public Schools.

Vivian Ryan, who received her degree from the University last

Presbyterians To Hold Party Today at 5

Hoboes will march again when the members of the Century Class of the University Presbyterian Church go on their annual Hobo Picnic this afternoon from 5 to 7 o'clock.

Following a yearly tradition the members will dress in their most ragged clothes and assemble on the lawn of the church at 5 o'clock. Ten prizes will be awarded for the best costumes—five for the boys, and five for the girls.

Motion pictures in color will be taken of the students and of the stunts performed by the several groups. Each student will be given a long stick with his lunch tied in a bandana handkerchief at the end of the stick. The hoboes will then walk to Pease Park, where they will build campfires and roast wieners. The class is under the direction of Walter E. Long, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, Frank Kerbow, Austin lawyer, and DeWitt Reddick, associate professor of Journalism.

Downs, Edmondson Head Dallas Club

The Dallas Club met Wednesday night to select new officers for the year. W. D. Downs, president, said. Those elected were the following: vice-president, Bill Edmondson; parliamentary, Bryson Martin; sergeant-at-arms, Dick Preston; reporter, Winthrop Sherman. The election of the secretary was deferred until a later date. Plans were made for the annual fall dance to be given in the Texas Union November 19.

George E. Hurt, sponsor of the Dallas Club and scheduled speaker, was unable to be there. However, he sent word that the club's offer to help get the band members to Dallas for the O.U. game would not be necessary since other arrangements had been made.

June, is now employed in the Galveston public schools. She visited at the Alpha Delta Pi house during the rush parties.

W. C. Rows, who was formerly connected with the School of Medicine, is now a biochemist at the University of Illinois at Urbana, Ill. Also at this University is Dr. T. V. Smith, ex-student, who is a professor of philosophy there. Dr. Smith recently attended the Williamson Institute of Human Relations, which is a meeting of people of different religions.

Schmidt-Chastain Wedding Plans Announced

Martha Chastain will be married to Benno C. Schmidt on November 9 at the First Baptist Church here with Dr. J. H. Pace performing the ceremony.

The bride's attendants will be her sister, Mrs. John Tucker, matron of honor, the bride's maids, Misses Alma Chastain, Amelia Harlan, Beth Ryburn, and Mrs. E. C. Cuthrell. The groom will be attended by V. W. McCleod, best man, Robert Kern, Chilton O'Brien, Hudson Smart, and George Brown.

Miss Chastain is a senior student in the University. She is a member of Phi Beta Phi sorority, Ashbel Literary Society, Orchestria, and the Beaumont Club.

Mr. Schmidt is an assistant professor in the School of Law. He received his law degree from the University in June, 1936. He was editor of the Law Review, Grand Chancellor and member of Friars, Phi Delta Phi, the Cowboys, and Delta Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

Engineer Graduate Marries in Houston

Miss Martha Elizabeth Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Howard of Temple, and Wayne Cole Morgan, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Morgan of Alpine, were married September 27 in Houston.

Mrs. Morgan is an ex-student of Texas State College for Women in Denton. Before her marriage she was a member of the staff of a Temple hospital.

Mr. Morgan received his engineering degree in June, 1937, from the University. He was a member of Chi Epsilon and Tau Beta Pi, national honorary engineering fraternities. Since June he has been connected with an oil company in Houston.

After a wedding trip to New Orleans, the couple will be at home in Houston.

VALLEY CLUB TO ELECT

The Rio Grande Valley Club held its first meeting last Tuesday night to nominate officers for the fall semester. The club will elect at its next meeting Tuesday night.

Aubrey Greenwood, a Tri Delt from Navasota who received her degree from the University in August, visited here last week-end.

Staff Women To Entertain New Members

Members of the Faculty Women's Club will entertain with an informal tea Sunday afternoon from 5 until 6 o'clock at the club house, honoring the new members of the University staff. They are Misses Edleen Berg, Elsie Kibbee, Alberta Dodson, Helen King, Josephine Staab, Lily Cole, Harlan Cross Miller, Lucila Williams, Ruth Bass, Clara Rausch, Jacqueline Eckert, Margaret Peck, Catherine Neal, Katherine Searcy, Wanda Potter, and Dr. Katharine McCormick.

Miss Lula Bewley and Miss Dorothy Gebauer will preside at the tea table, which will be decorated with queens crown. The reception rooms will also be decked with the flower.

The house party will include Miss Lillian Wester, president; Miss Doris Clower, vice-president; Miss Marian Seiders, secretary; Miss Afton Wynn, treasurer; Misses Clara May Parker, Dorothy Gebauer, and Dorothy Schons, executive committee, and Mrs. Cora Martin in charge of the arrangements for the tea, besides the other members of the club.

Ex Named Shower Honoree

Miss Anne Bentley, ex-student of the University, will entertain Miss Bertha Humbert with a breakfast at her home in Bryan Sunday morning.

The announcement of Miss Humbert's approaching marriage to Nelson Fuller has been recently made. Miss Humbert was graduated from the University in 1933 with a bachelor of science degree in home economics. She was a member of the Delta Delta Delta sorority.

Lela Haines, student in the University, will go to Bryan Friday afternoon to visit her parents and attend the breakfast.

ZETA PLEDGES HONORED

Zeta Tau Alpha sorority entertained its new pledges with a buffet supper Tuesday night from 6:30 to 8 o'clock. The table was decorated with a large basket of fall flowers. Billy Ruth Young, president, and Louise Richards served. A short program followed.

TODAY IN BRIEF

AIRWAVES

The long awaited statement from Justice Hugo L. Black in reference to his Ku Klux Klan membership will be made tonight at 8:30 o'clock over a CBS-KNOW network. The statement will come from Justice Black himself, breaking the silence that has surrounded him since the accusation of Klan membership was made.

Joe College is on the air! The Varsity Show half-hour which received favorable comment among college fans last season returns tonight at 9:30 o'clock over NBC-WOAI. With the University of Alabama as its first honor school, the program will lack the experience of John Held, Jr., who was master of ceremonies last year.

For the emcees, the sponsors will depend upon future Don Ameches and Bing Crosbys recruited from local campuses. Undergraduate talent supplies the entire show, which will be composed of dramatic sketches, comedy acts, and music by glee clubs and bands.

Music from Hollywood at 7:30 over CBS-KNOW will feature the songs of Alice Faye and the music of Hal Kemp and his orchestra. Another program originating at the film capital is Hollywood Hotel, which follows the Kemp-Faye shows on the same stations at 8 o'clock. An important addition to the regular cast is that of Ken Murray and his faithful stooge, Oswald. The cast includes Frances Langford, Jerry Cooper, Anne Jamison, and Raymond Paige's orchestra. Murray and Oswald will remain as permanent fixtures.

Dialers desiring delightful ditties will find Frankie Masters and his orchestra at 10:30 on KNOW, Russ Morgan over WOAI at 10:45, Barney Rapp at the same time over WLW, and Trump Davidson's band at 11 over WBAP. —C.M., Jr.

Reviewed Today

"I COVER THE WAR."—At the Queen. An original screenplay by George Wassenger. Produced by Fred Goetz. Directed by Arthur Lubin. Released by Universal.

THE CAST

John Wayne, Gwen Gaze, Don Barclay, Pat Somerset, Major Sam Harris, James Bush, Don Adams.

The adventures of newsreel cameramen are portrayed in "I Cover the War" in much the same type of setting that was seen in "Wee Willie Winkie." It lacks, however, both the cast and the plot of that show.

The photography in the war scenes is excellent but not much different from that seen in many preceding productions. The thread of a story that holds it together is complicated to follow and even if successfully followed, seems to go nowhere.

Two newsreel men are sent out with instructions to film a desert bandit whom no one has ever seen and are told that they can't film alibis. The collegiate younger brother leaves a California university to parade his sports coat on the desert and make matters as complicated as possible for the others by his innocence of the tricks of the trade.

Difficulties of getting the pictures and discovery of men who are smuggling guns to the natives under the guise of taking pictures take up most of the scenes.

Gwen Gaze is thrown in for the love interest and the triangle between the photographer and an officer. The only reason for the existence of the love scenes seems to be that every show requires a "love interest." —J. K.

Texan Newsboys Invited to Picture

Carriers of The Daily Texan will attend the Capitol Theater today as guests of the management. Twelve carriers, most of them enrolled in the University, are expected to represent the Texan's circulation department at the show. The picture will be "Slave Ship," a sea drama starring Wallace Beery and Warner Baxter.

Carriers invited are Bertram Childs, Ed Kinsey, Henry Glenwinkel, Kenneth Walter, Bailey Moore, Ronald Baethe, W. A. Wycke, Ronald Neill, Ned Looney, Clyde Sansing, and Jay Sarver.

Dorothy Schneider of Galveston is now teaching in the elementary grades in a public school here. She came back for several of the rush parties at the Alpha Delta Pi house.

Nine More Register To Make Total 9,307

The total registration in the University was increased to 9,307 with the addition of nine students Wednesday, Earl Cornwell, bursar, announced.

The total for the corresponding day last year was 8,407. This is 900 less than this year's figure.

All students registering late will receive negative hours and may register only with consent of the Registrar and of the deans and professors concerned.

Junior Chamber Arranges Special Train for Student Fans to O.U. Game Oct. 9

Morning Train Scheduled For Cotton Bowl Tilt

Arrangements for the Texas-Oklahoma football game special train, which will be operated over the Katy lines on October 9, have now been completed, officials of the Austin Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsors of the special train, announced Wednesday.

The special train will leave Austin at 6 o'clock Saturday morning, October 9. Round-trip tickets may be bought for $3.15. There are also two other trains leaving October 8 with special rates. One leaves Austin Friday afternoon at 3:55 o'clock; the round-trip ticket for that train is $4.20. A round-trip ticket for the 1:20 o'clock Saturday morning train may be bought for $3.15. Students may return on any of the regular trains Sunday, the last one being the 11 o'clock train Sunday night.

Features of Trip
Special features have been arranged for all the visitors riding the special train from Austin to Dallas on October 9. The main attraction of the day will be the football game between the Longhorns and the Sooners, which will be played at the Cotton Bowl on the Pan-American Exposition grounds Saturday afternoon. Another highlight of the day will be the Pan-American Casino. Arrangements to have a section of the best seats reserved at the football games as well as seats reserved at the first show of the Pan-American Casino have been made, Junior Chamber of Commerce officials said.

Casino Stars
The Pan-American Casino will feature during the week of October 9 a group of screen and radio stars, including Anson Weeks and his orchestra, Borrah Minervitch and his Harmonica Rascals, Art Jarrett, Stan Kavanaugh, The Singing Gauchos, Bluebonnet Girls and Forty-eight Tex-Anitas.

These features, as well as a round trip ticket to Dallas, lunch on the Exposition grounds, one admission to the grounds, and one admission to any Exposition show, are being offered here by the Junior Chamber of Commerce at bargain prices. Tickets which are in strip ticket form may be bought at the Junior Chamber of Commerce offices in the Driskill Hotel for $8.50.

Student Talks To Sage of Emporia

The Emporia Gazette, daily newspaper of Emporia, Kan., is perhaps the best known small town paper in North America. This is due to the unique ability of one man, William Allen White, dean of American newspaper editors.

Barbara Hull, junior journalism student in the University, had the opportunity of interviewing Mr. White this summer while on a vacation trip in Kansas. Miss Hull came back full of enthusiasm for the white-haired journalist who has served faithfully on the Gazette for forty-two years.

"His entire personality glows with the light of friendliness and genuine interest in every person who comes within range of his keen eyes," Miss Hull said. "In spite of his almost seventy years, his step is quicker, his mind keener, and his interests wider and deeper than those of most men thirty years younger."

"During my conversation with Mr. White, I mentioned that I would like very much to work under him. He replied, 'That's what many think, but, honey, I work 'em like hell.' His appearance belies his words, however; for he is short, rather plump, with snow-white hair and twinkling blue eyes."

Mr. White's formula for getting a job in the newspaper business was particularly interesting.

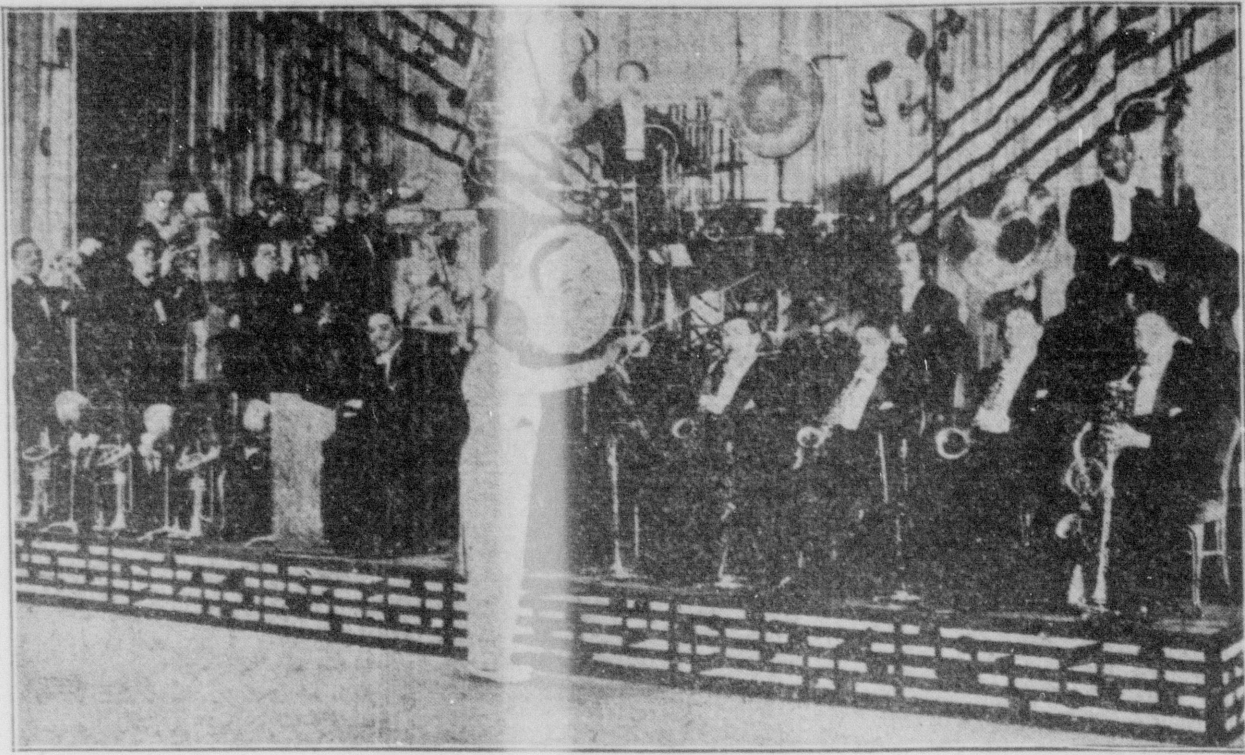

"To get a job," he said, "you must first push the door open wide enough to stick a foot in, then shove the whole foot in and keep on shoving until you've opened the door all the way and find yourself inside."

Mr. White has been an observer and journalist in foreign fields. His magazine articles and newspaper editorials are widely read. He has written a number of books and many of his editorials have been compiled into books, the latest being "Twenty Years on Main Street." His essay on his daughter, Mary White, written after her death, is found in most textbooks in American schools.

Miss Hull added, "His quality of friendliness has drawn loyal friends to his side and has brought pleas from many budding journalists to be allowed to work on the Emporia Gazette."

Lunceford's Swinging Music-Makers

Jimmie Lunceford, Pledge Night Swinger, Well Applauded on Recent European Tour

By JIMMIE POUNDS III
MUSIC for the thirty-sixth Pledge Night German will be played by the biggest "name" band in the history of the event Saturday night. Jimmie Lunceford, the colored swingster, fresh from a European tour, will play in honor of the pledges.

The Luncefordian music is different and distinctive. A trained musician can tell Lunceford's music anywhere. He has distinction just as Lombardo, Wayne King, and George Olsen, who played for All-University dances, had distinction.

Unique arrangements and brilliant backgrounding make the fourteen piece colored band distinctive. The interweaving of tones and different tones from the same instruments have created a Lunceford tone. As musicians say, Lunceford can be counted on to come up with a different arrangement of popular tunes.

The orchestra is composed of three trumpets, two trombones, file saxophones, and a rhythm quartet. Often the leader takes his saxophone to make a half dozen in that section. His brass alternates between sweet and hot music with equal success. Generally the saxes uphold the sweet music.

NEGROES just naturally have a swing, and the Lunceford crew is no exception. Their showmanship has been one of the qualities instrumental in their success. A negro band has a hard time in the old South, but showmanship has helped Lunceford below the Mason-Dixon line.

The Duke Chronicle, organ of the South's richest school, reported the dance Lunceford played there late last spring was unequalled because of the antics of the band members. The same quality was lauded by newspapers in Paris, London, Belgium, Holland, Norway, Sweden, and Denmark. Little more than four years ago, the band was playing small jobs in Tennessee. Their unusual arrangements brought some attention and with the aid of a break, they followed Cab Calloway into Harlem's Cotton Club in 1934 and played a successful engagement. Since then Lunceford has been on the upgrade.

The leader is a college man, an arranger and composer. He got a bachelor of arts degree from Fisk College, where he was a four letter athlete. Football is his favorite sport.

Although a swingster, Lunceford believes jazz, or swing, is becoming tamer. He personally prefers Fred Waring and Glen Gray to all other orchestras.

This will be his second appearance at the University. He played for an All-University dance in 1935.

Calhoun, Minus Spectacles, Joins Prexies' Carvings

Peter Mansbendel's latest bas-relief carving of University presidents, that of President J. W. Calhoun, is a pleasing example of excellence in workmanship, but one very important characteristic is missing—President Calhoun's glasses. Seldom seen without them, he looks somewhat unlike himself in this left-profile portrait.

Aside from this, the facial features are reproduced in careful detail. His perpetually-raised eyebrow is there, and the profile outline is carved in photographic exactness.

The President was required to sit four hours this summer while Mr. Mansbendel molded his likeness in plaster of Paris. From this was carved a bas-relief in gum wood.

But what does President Calhoun think of his portrait? "Mum" seems to be the word. He professes an ignorance of carving, and modestly declines to say.

Room for one more presidential medallion now remains in the Texas Union. President Calhoun's is the eleventh.

Glee Club Gives Smoker Tonight

Officers of the Men's Glee Club for the fall of 1937 are Bryan Beck, president; Harold Brady, business manager; Charles Wilson, librarian; Roger Hoffman, historian; Lee Norrell, accompanist; and Gilbert E. Schramm, director.

Plans for the ensuing year were discussed at the first meeting of old and prospective members. About eighty men were present. After the business meeting, an informal sing-song was enjoyed.

Final try-outs will be held Monday and Tuesday, October 4 and 5. A smoker will be held for all prospective members tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the Texas Union ballroom.

Boys May Apply For Rhodes Fund

Applications for the Rhodes Scholarship to the University of Oxford may now be made in Dr. D. A. Penick's office, Library Building 2707. Dr. Penick's office hour is MWF at 12 o'clock.

A candidate, to be eligible for the scholarship, must be a male citizen of the United States and unmarried. He must be between the ages of 19 and 25 years on October 1, 1938, and he must have completed at least his sophomore year by the time of his application.

Dr. Penick, chairman of the Rhodes Scholarship selection committee for the University, said that the committee considering literary and scholastic ability and attainment qualities of manhood, truth, courage, devotion to duty, sympathy, kindness, unselfishness, and fellowship; exhibition of moral force of character and of instincts to lead and to take an interest in schoolmates; and physical vigor as shown by interest in outdoor sports or in other ways.

Applications must be in the hands of the Secretary of the State Committee not later than November 6, 1937. Selections will be made by State Committees on December 16 and 18, and by District Committees on December 20, 1937. Scholars elected in this competition will enter the University of Oxford in October, 1938.

Thirty-two appointments from the United States for two years, with a possible third year, are made annually. No restriction is placed upon a Rhodes Scholar's choice of studies, and he receives 400 pounds a year, which is the equivalent in round numbers to $2,000.

PARLIAMENT TO MEET
LONDON, Sept. 30.—(INS)—Under Labor Party pressure, the government is considering reconvening Parliament on October 20—a day earlier than scheduled—to stage a "full dress" debate on foreign affairs, especially the Far Eastern crisis, it was learned today. Laborites are urging a special session of Parliament to consider the possibility of a British boycott on Japanese goods.

Chris? Click! Cave Causes Cemetery Call

"Hello."
"May I speak to someone named Christopher Columbus?"
Click!
Such was the conversation which ensued as W. A. Masters called a person whose name and phone number he and W. B. Etheridge found in a cave near Austin.

The writing on the wall in the cave read, "CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS, 1492, Phone 2-2932."

It was the cemetery's number.
