RADIO AMATEURS ORGANIZE CLUB

Robert Shelby Elected President of New Association

At a meeting held Wednesday night to form a radio club about twelve amateurs were present to provide interest in radio, to give practical information to the members, and ultimately to construct and operate a radio station, were decided as the purposes of the club.

A temporary radio organization, consisting of Robert Shelby, president; and L. R. Canfield, secretary, was effected. A committee, consisting of L. Burford, L. R. Canfield, and S. T. Phelps, was appointed by the president to consider the problems of a name for the club, the location of the "shack," the restriction of members, and any other questions that might appear. The report of this committee will be received at the next meeting of the club, Wednesday, November 19.

H. C. Meyer gave a short talk on the A. & M. Radio Club, setting forth its objects, and what it has accomplished. The following members of the new club were present, and their call numbers:

FORMER LEADER WAS INELIGIBLE

Captain-Elect Breaks Conference Records in Practice for Meet Saturday

Almin Coale, harrier star from Orange who promises to develop into a sensation this year was yesterday elected Captain of the 1924 Varsity cross country five replacing Long Jim Reese who was recently declared ineligible.

Beats Reese's Record

According to Coach R. J. McLean Coale may exceed the feats of the redoubtable Reese of last year and flash across the conference the fastest harrier of the year. Coale has shown up exceptionally well all season and he eclipsed himself recently when setting a new record for the Varsity course. The new captain traveled the four miles in twenty one minutes which is fifteen seconds better than the old mark set by Reese in 1923.

In first class condition due to daily workouts, the Longhorn harriers will leave for College Station Friday where they oppose the Texas Aggie Saturday in their only dual meet. This should be an exceptionally interesting battle, as the Aggies are favored to carry off honors at the conference here November 22, with the Longhorns rating a close second.

Aggies Are Strong

The Texas Aggies have a strong team built around Gillespie and Old, who finished first and tied for second respectively in the conference event last year.

Sandi Esquivel, another 1923 letterman, Connor and Miller from the 1923 frosh squad, and Williams of last season's reserve will compose the first five. Of the quintet Esquivel and Connor rank next to Coale. Bubar and Oxford will also make the trip.

Hogg Debators Say Jap Exclusion Act Should Be Repealed

The Japanese Exclusion Act of the Immigration Bill of 1924 should be repealed, judging from the results at Hogg Tuesday night. The affirmative side, represented by J. O. Garrett and Gordon Marsh, won over the negative, upheld by R. O. Brown and Ty Cobb, two to one.

This subject will be debated in intercollegiate circles this year and these four speakers will try out for the University team.

Myrl Kinkaid and L. J. Freeman were other speakers. The weekly grunt was furnished by David Heath. The Hogg will hold an open house Tuesday night.

President Splawn Will Return Monday

President Walter Splawn will return to the University Monday according to the secretary. He has been in Minnesota for the past few days on business.

Dean T. U. Taylor is acting president during the absence of Dr. Splawn.

CAP AND GOWN BANQUET AT DRISKILL FRIDAY

Cap and Gown Annual Banquet will be held Friday, November 21, at the Driskill Hotel.

A card will be placed in Miss Newton's office all this week for those who desire to sign up. Each plate will be one dollar, stated the president.

An interesting program has been planned that will cause some excitement and amusement.

HARRISON TO READ SELECTIONS FROM NOTED HUMORISTS

Works of Leacock and Don Marquis Will Be Subject of Lecture

LEACOCK IS ECO PROF

Readings to Be Given in Education Building 312 at 5 p. m.

Selections from the works of two present-day humorists will be given by Professor R. C. Harrison of the English department at the weekly public reading this afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Stephen Leacock, who is now professor of political economy at McGill University, Montreal, is probably better known for his humorous sketches under the title of "Nonsense Novels" and "Behind the Beyond." Today's reading will probably include selections from these two.

Don Marquis' creation of the "Old Soak" and Hermion are familiar to magazine readers, the "Old Soak" having appeared in play form in New York where Marquis is a columnist on the New York World. "Hermion" has also appeared in book form.

Professor Harrison formerly taught at the Southwest Texas Teachers College at San Marcos, and has had considerable experience as a reader of humorous selections over the state.

Pittenger to Address Educational Meeting at Cafeteria Tonight

Dr. B. F. Pittenger of the Department of Education will be the principal speaker at the first meeting of the Educational Association for this year. The meeting will be held at the University Cafeteria at 6:15 this evening. There will be an election of officers, at this meeting, according to the committee for the association, and all old members as well as any other persons who are specializing in education are urged to attend.

Clinical Laboratory Will Be Established

Suitable space for the clinical laboratory of the University will probably be found in the Main Building as soon as the new Biology Building is completed, according to Dr. C. W. Goddard, dean of the University Health Service. Pathological work is now done by contract in a downtown laboratory.

Last year the Board of Regents authorized and provided funds for a pathological laboratory, but the establishment of such a laboratory had to be postponed for lack of space. The amount provided will cover the cost of necessary equipment. All tests of any kind pertaining to sickness will be carried on in the clinical laboratory.

Joy, Jubilation, and Fried Chicken on Menu of Banquet for Journalists Tonight

Severing sensitive souls from self-imposed shackles of snappy sentence-scrawling, switching swiftly from the sequestered solitudes of scribblers' sanctuaries to the scented salons of savory sandwiches, succulent songs and scathing satires, more than one hundred and fifty toiling journalists will blossom forth at the campus calf tonight at 7:30 o'clock for a few hours of unadulterated joy, jollity, jubilation and fried chicken.

Cinderella at the prince's ball will have nothing on the young maidens snatched from the grimy caverns of J Hall and transplanted bodily to the fairly loveliness of the University Commons. PEP RALLY IN MEN'S GYM AT 7:15 TONIGHT

ALL DAY SERVICE ON P.B.X. PHONE

New Operator Makes Possible Use of Board From 7 a. m. to 10 p. m.

Constant service between the hours of 7 a. m. to 10 p. m. through the P. B. X. telephone system installed in the Main Building has been secured by the addition of another operator.

No Dialing

During the day, from 7 o'clock in the morning to 10 o'clock at night, the student who is using a telephone anywhere inside the University need only remove the receiver and, dialing, give the P. B. X. operator the number desired. The connection is thus made without the necessity of dialing.

If the telephone used is outside the university, he gets his number this time by dialing the university station number 9181, and giving the operator the inside number whatever university building is wanted.

There is no inside service on the trunk lines through the university station between 10 p. m. and 7 a. m., though such service may be obtained soon in at least three of the main trunk lines, according to G. J. Stephens, assistant business manager.

Trunk Line Numbers

The ten trunk lines, the numbers of which are in the University directory given below are: Student's phone in Main Building, 9029; Business Manager's office, 6531; Woman's Building 2902; B. Hall, 9011; Law Building, 3176; Engineering Building, 7283; Chemistry Building, 6909; University Commons, 2907; Power House Building, 7433; Daily Texan at J Hall, 9160.

Virgil Childress Is Elected President of Junior B.B.A. Class

Members of the Junior B. B. A. class met Wednesday afternoon and elected the following officers: president, Virgil Childress of Bellevue; vice-president, "Red" Henderson of Sabinal; secretary Elizabeth Ewing of Shattuck, Okla., sergeant-at-arms, Archies Cowles of Terrell.

The new president made a short talk. A social committee was appointed, consisting of Josephine McHugh, Ferrell Moffett, and Franklin Haynes. This committee will have charge of the dance the class will hold soon.

REAGAN MEETS

Reagan Literary Society held its regular meeting Wednesday at 5 o'clock in the Girl's Study Hall. Business was discussed and year books, outlining the programs for the year, were distributed to the members present.

Geology Frat Holds Initiation for Four

Sigma Gamma Epsilon, professional fraternity of geology, mining and Metallurgy, held initiation Monday, November 10 for W. F. Weed of Beaumont, Eugene A. Murchison, H. R. Christner, and Edward D. Pressler of Austin.

The requirements for admission into the fraternity are: good scholastic standing, the completion of a minimum of three courses in Geology, Mining, or Metallurgy, and a serious intention of continuing in one of these professions.

White Sweaters With Numerals Are Received in Time for Armistice Day Parade

With the arrival of the green and white sweaters Monday, the Freshman Band uniforms were completed. The Band made its first appearance in full uniform at the Armistice Day parade Tuesday. The rest of the uniform consists of orange and white trousers and orange and green fezes. The sweaters are white with the numerals "28" across the chest.

These sweaters were purchased with contributions from Austin business men. The fezes were donated by Ed C. Rather, manager of the Co-Op, who also gave $25 toward the purchase of the sweaters.

The Band has been practicing constantly during the last week in preparation for the A. & M. game. A special formation is being arranged for the Thanksgiving classic.

Home Economics Girls To Sell Chrysanthemums for Scholarship Fund

"Win the game with chrysanthemums" is the motto of the girls of the Home Economics department who are planning to sell the flowers on the campus and to visitors during Thanksgiving. The orange and white chrysanthemums which were obtained from the Hyde Park Floral Company will be sold the week of Thanksgiving as well as on the day of the game. Orders for flowers must be made two days before Thanksgiving in order for them to be delivered on that day.

Money made from the sale of the flowers will be added to the scholarship fund being raised by the Home Economics girls. Mary Goldman is in charge of the sale.

Only Fifteen Alects Fail Mid-Term Exams

Fifteen students in the School of Engineering were failing at mid-term to pass the amount of work required for a student to remain in the University, according to Dean T. U. Taylor's "Call of Distress" posted in the Engineering Building. Only 372 students were reported in various subjects.

The School of Engineering does not mail out mid-term reports to the parents of students, and the "bustees" will have another opportunity to redeem themselves between now and the end of the term.

SCRIBBLERS CLUB ELECTS MEMBERS

Scribblers, honorary writing club, held its regular meeting Tuesday at 7:15 in the Girl's Study Hall. The following new members were elected: William Avrett, Charles Banister, Margaret Cousins, Lucille Gill, and Maurine Walker.

Elizabeth Stamps and Floyd Stovall read selections from their own verse to the meeting.

'KEEP OLD SPIRIT UP,' SAYS PAYNE

Students Urged to Give Team Send-Off Friday at Noon

In order to "Just keep that old spirit up" that the students showed in the Texas-Baylor game, there will be a short rally tonight at the Men's Gym at 7:15, according to Bob Payne, chief yell-leader.

"It is very necessary that the team be put into the fighting spirit that will make them win the T. C. U. game Saturday," said Payne, "as the Frogs are as strong as Texas. The Rice game showed how a let-down in school spirit can affect a team, and for that very reason a large crowd should be at the rally.

Friday morning at 11:15 when the team leaves, a large crowd is urged to help send off the players to meet the Horned Frogs.

W.A.A. Will Stage Block Party on University Avenue

W. A. A. will give a Block Party Friday night at 9 o'clock on University Avenue. Two blocks will be roped off for dancing, with music furnished by Steve Gardner's Orchestra.

The party will be given in the Women's Gym in case of bad weather.

This dance is being given by W. A. A. in order to raise funds to pay off their Stadium pledge. Admission will be 75c per couple and 50c per stag. Students who have never attended a street dance will have an opportunity to enjoy a novel good time, according to W. A. A. officials.

Auto Thieves Cause Herbert Reiss to Pay $100 Garage Bill

It doesn't pay to leave a car parked in front of a church is the opinion of Herbert Reiss of B. Hall. With a garage bill of $100 in his pocket, Reiss has good cause to make the statement, for auto thieves drove off his Ford while it was parked in front of the Methodist church Sunday night. Minus the two rear tires and many of the accessories, the Ford was recovered by the Austin police early Monday morning on East 25th street.

"Tech" Schmidt Back From Convention

We're getting back to the customs of the "good old days." There is a large increase in the number of students taking Latin in the University. Two new courses are offered in this language. German has again come into its own, too, and more students are studying this language now than before the World War.

We don't miss the water till the well goes dry and we don't miss the stags at our gym dances until a limit is made on the number that can attend. Too many stags constitute a nuisance, but it is better to have too many than not enough, from the point of view of both the chancellor of the exchequer and the girls.

University students and faculty members deeply regret that Miss Lulu Mary Bewley was painfully and perhaps seriously injured Tuesday in a street car accident. Miss Bewley is one of the most popular women in the University, and is a very efficient and sympathetic assistant dean of women. Her many friends wish for her a speedy recovery.

It is hoped that General John J. Pershing will accept the invitation to help dedicate our new memorial stadium Thanksgiving Day. We can assure the venerable general that if he comes here, he will see more fighting on November 27 than he has witnessed since Germany waved the white flag of peace in November, 1918.

Students with blanket tax tickets are purchasing seats to the Thanksgiving football game, the sale having started Tuesday. Wiley E. Glaze, chief vendor of tickets, announces that there are more than 7,000 tickets left for this game and all who want to see the contest will be assured of a good seat. A record crowd of 35,000 will be here for the game.

The theatrical season has opened in earnest in Austin. The famous Al Field's Minstrels appeared in Austin Friday at the Hancock, and standing room sold at a premium. The show was well attended by both faculty members and students. Last night we had the opportunity to "Meet the Wife," a splendid comedy of the speaking stage. Austin is one of the best show towns in Texas on account of the University being located here.

Alvin Owsley, who has about taken the honor away from William Jennings Bryan of being the best orator in the United States, spoke in Austin Tuesday. The large audience applauded practically every sentence the youthful orator uttered. Owsley was considered a likely nominee at the New York convention for vice-president of the United States on the Democratic ticket, but his friends were kind enough not to push his candidacy very hard.

Working with the determination of Cato, Coach Doc Stewart is putting his players through the hardest practice sessions this week the boys ever experienced. Scrimmage is being engaged in every day in an effort to win the remaining two games on the Longhorn schedule. Coach Stewart also says he will play no more cripples this season. "A scrub player in good condition is better than a star performer who is injured in any way," opines Doleful Doc.

Someone should address a box of roses to the Alpha Phi Epsilon fraternity, an honorary literary society in the University. In former years this was one of the most active honorary frats in school, and its membership includes many of the most active students on the campus. However, the organization has been dead this year. The Texan hopes the members will revive this organization, which should serve as an inspiration to the boys and girls in literary circles. Membership in this order is based on good work in literary societies.

Intercollegiate debate tryouts will be held tomorrow afternoon in the Law Building. Seventy students will try to make the team. Half of the number of speakers will talk on the affirmative side and the other half will speak on the negative side. It would be better to have all of the speakers to debate the same side of the question. A few years ago practically every boy who made the team spoke on the negative side of the question. That year the negative side was far superior for debating purposes and the result was the speakers on the affirmative side were at a tremendous disadvantage.

"The Sea Hawk"

Shows Last Time Today

Regarded, by virtue of its originality and magnitude, as even a better entertainment than the author's well remembered "Scaramouche," Rafael Sabatini's "The Sea Hawk" as pictured by Frank Lloyd and released as a First National Picture, plays for the last time today on the screen at the Majestic Theater.

Resplendent in rich dramatic value and requiring many and massive backgrounds for its many big sequences "The Sea Hawk," as transferred to the screen by Mr. Lloyd, is not only one of the outstanding cinema achievements of the past year but one of the singular triumphs of screen history.

The story begins in England, where Master Peter Godolphin is murdered shortly after his sister Rosamund and Sir Oliver Tressilian announce their coming marriage. Oliver is accused of the murder because a trial of blood leads from the dead man's body to the doorstep of Penarrow Hall, Oliver's home. When Oliver submits to an examination and proves his innocence to the justice, Lionel, his brother, fearing that he might be accused of the murder, has Oliver kidnapped and taken aboard a ship about to sail for Algiers, thus making it seem positive that Oliver had fled from punishment for his guilt.

At sea the pirate ship on which Oliver is held prisoner is attacked by a Spanish marauder and Oliver becomes a galley slave for several years. When a Moorish gallease attacks the Spaniard Oliver frees himself from his chains, helps the Moors to conquer the ship and is made a commander by the basha.

"The Wise Virgin"

at Hancock

A honeymoon for three furnishes many of the laughs of "The Wise Virgin," the delightful comedy-drama which comes to the Hancock Theater for Thursday and Saturday.

The story is an original one by Harris, who was responsible for those two sensational stage favorites, "So Long Letty" and "Canary Cottage," and innumerable screen successes. It centers around Billie Farrington, a breezy example of the modern girl, who fancies herself in love with a good-looking but mercenary nobleman. Her grandmother frowns on the idea of taking a penniless foreigner into the family and conceives the plan of having the foreman of her ranch, a handsome young westerner, court the girl. This is entirely in line with the young man's own idea and he sets about his new duties with a relish. From here on the play is a "fifty-fifty" mixture of drama and laughs. Billie finally agrees to marry the westerner, but promises that she will be a wife in name only.

"Judgment of the Storm"

"Story Without a Name" at Queen

Give the picture now showing at at Queen Theater the most appropriate and fitting name and you will have a chance at the three prizes offered by the management. The names are to be dropped into a box in the lobby of the theater after passing out from the show.

The prizes will be as follows:

1. $10.00 in cash.
2. A pass to eight shows.
3. A pass to four shows.

Have you ever seen the radio as a motion picture show theme?

Of course not. That's why the Paramount picture, "The Story Without a Name," at the Queen proves real novelty as screen entertainment goes. For this picture, made from Arthur Stringer's magazine serial for which $5,000 and several big radio receiving sets were offered as prizes for a suitable version title to be used on the screen version of the story, not only features the radio but the much-talked-of 'death ray' as well.

Agnes Ayres and Antonio Moreno are featured in the leading roles of the production, directed by Irvin Willat, who made the all-color picture, "Wanderer of the Wasteland." Others in the cast include Tyrone Power, Dagmar Gogowsky, Maurice Costello and Jack Bohn.

The story is a real old-time knock-em-down-and-drag-em-out adventure tale with modern refinements. And what a rip-snorting, pell-mell action-story it is!

Texas Shows

"Judgment of Storm"

"Judgment of the Storm" the first Palmer Photoplay Corporation production, which shows at the Texas Theater Wednesday and Thursday is a big feature offering, the screen play of which was written directly for shadowstage production by Ethel Styles Middleton. The management recommends it as a powerful, wholesome story that will please everyone. Lloyd Hughes, Lucille Rickson, Myrtle Stedman and Philo McCullough are the principals of the cast.

DOWN SCHREINER 40-7

Freshmen Intercept Passes of Kerrville Squad to Swell
Their Score

It is a known and notable fact that the University of Texas freshmen still are tasting the sweets of a vigorous win over Schreiner Institute in Kerrville Tuesday afternoon, but one of the reasons for the size of the score, 40-7, is something else, Clyde Littlefield declares.

But there's a little meaning and a certain significance in this victory that deserves comment, and that is what Coach Littlefield gave it. It's his method by which he instilled a certain amount of fire, vim, what you will, into those yearlings. He made them mad; more than that, hopping. Here's how:

Story in Express

A few days ago, there appeared in the daily Express of San Antonio a story to the effect that the powerful freshman team had become fully aware of their own ripe knowledge, and that they were cocky, refusing to learn more about the great and widespread sport of football. Coach Littlefield read this story, and on Armistice Day, before the game, he read it to the freshmen themselves.

The latter listened to the account that informed them of the fact that they were "riding, possibly, to a fall"; they listened and grew wroth. It was after that, still innoculated with the virus of rage born of that story, they began the proceedings that ended the day, for Schreiner Institute, without flowers.

Three of the touchdowns of the yearling crew came as a result of forward passing by Schreiner in her own territory, intercepted by the Frosh.

It is noteworthy that Schreiner tied the A. & M. Freshmen, and were beaten by St. Edward's, 12-9. Brooks Field, however, composed mostly of West Point men, beat them by a 40 to

FAVERSHAM TO BE AT HANCOCK SOON

Margaret Anglin and William
Faversham Will Be in Austin Nov. 26

When manager L. Novy of the Hancock Opera House today guaranteed T. C. Leonard, business manager for William Faversham and Margaret Anglin, two of the foremost stars of the theatrical world that this city would welcome and support their appearance here for one night on Wednesday, November 25, contracts were immediately signed which insure that this city will see a play of the highest order presented by a company that even Broadway cannot surpass.

Mr. Leonard, who was the first business manager for Galli-Curci in this country and who has managed such stars as Walter Hampden, Leo Ditrichstein in addition to the Chicago and San Carlo Grand Operas, was seen at the Austin Hotel.

In speaking of the trans-continental tour of Mr. Faversham and Miss Anglin, he said:

"Ever since leaving New York the South and Southwest have given the lie direct to reports that business is bad and that money is scarce. Miss Anglin and Mr. Faversham have been greeted everywhere by audiences that taxed the capacity of the theaters.

"It only proves that the people of this section will go to good plays when presented by good companies but that they do not care to be imposed upon by second and third rate companies masquerading under false colors as being real New York successes.

Y. M. C. A. Pool

Form swimming, exhibition, diving, and life saving featured the Turtle Club exhibition Wednesday night in the Y. M. C. A. pool. The program consisted of seal dives and porpoises followed by a demonstration of form swimming of all the standard strokes.

Both teams came out together in the Candle Relay which was held in the darkened pool. The Orange team consisted of Juliette Pagenstecher, Werna Hargis, Edwina Barnes, Marion Penn, and Ed Sweatt won the free style relay. In the third relay both teams raced to the middle of the pool, ate crackers, whistled, and swam back. The relay was a tie.

Evelyn Abshear, Jean Holland, Ruth Alexander, Helen Sandel, Jesse Church, and Juliette Pagenstecher gave a demonstration of stunts and different modes of sculling. The exhibition was an invitation affair, but in the spring Turtle Club is planning to present a water fete to which the general public is invited.

BAYLOR STUDENTS LAUD VARSITY SPORTSMANSHIP AND CORDIAL RECEPTION

Waco, Texas, Nov. 12—High praise for the sportsmanship shown by University of Texas football players, students and faculty members, at the Baylor-Texas football game in Austin last Saturday, was sounded by Baylor University students in resolutions adopted here Monday. President S. P. Brooks of Baylor also lauded the spirit shown by the University of Texas football players and students during and after the game, in which the Texans suffered one of their worst defeats in history, 28 to 10.

The resolution follows: "Be it resolved by the faculty and students of Baylor University in chapel assembled, that we hereby express:

1. Our appreciation for the many courtesies extended to us while we were in Austin on last Saturday;
2. That we acknowledge herewith the fine sportsmanship manifested by the faculty and student of the University of Texas throughout and after the game. We, as citizens of Texas, have always had an interest in the University of Texas, but we shall hereafter have a higher appreciation for the reasons given above. A fine example was set by the University for A 1 colleges in the state and we of Baylor University hope to profit thereby."

The resolution was adopted amid the wild and enthusiastic cheers of the student body. Praise for the sportsmanship of the Longhorns is heard everywhere on the Baylor campus, while charges of unsportsmanlike conduct against cadets of Texas A. & M. College, following their defeat by Baylor the preceding week, lead prominent Baylor alumni to say Texas' cordial reception to Baylor students in Austin will result in a swing of sentiment to the Longhorns by the Baylorites.
