Faculty Research: Steve Hoelscher Interviewed on KUT

by American Studies

Last week, we featured the research of our very own Dr. Steve Hoelscher and his incredible new edited book, Reading Magnum: A Visual Archive of the Modern World. Dr. Hoelscher was also recently interviewed by UT's public radio station, KUT, where he offered a narrated look at the Magnum photo archive in two segments that you can find here. Listen to Dr. Hoelscher talk about the arrival of the Magnum archive at the Ransom Center, the criteria he used to decide which photos were published in Reading Magnum, and how Magnum is adapting to new multimedia photojournalism.
