

SOPHOMORE DANCE AT
WOMAN'S GYM TONIGHT
IS FIRST SINCE 1920FROSH OFFICIALS
GUESTS OF HONOR

Woodruff, Soph Prexy, Will Lead Grand March Favoring Dorothy Carrington

When 'Gene Houghton's Cactus Nighthawks strike up tonight at 9 o'clock in the Woman's Gym, the first sophomore dance since 1920 will be opened. The K. C. Hall battle of 1921, when the sophomores attacked a freshman dance, has been the cause of suspension of all lower class social activities on the campus until the present term. With the preliminary freshman dance completed on May 1, the second-year class will entertain the campus tonight from 9 to 1 in the classiest social event of the season.

Grand March at 9:40

John Woodruff of Paradise, sophomore president, will lead the grand march at 9:40 sharp, honoring Dorothy Carrington of Austin. The cotillion will be led by Sneed Lary of Fort Worth, honoring Arabella Alexander of Meridian. That this event will bring a deluge of confetti and flood of serpentine was indicated by the numerous large bundles being delivered from the paper mills Thursday.

Acting as chaperons of this climatic social event will be Dean and Mrs. L. H. Hubbard, who need no introduction to University students; Mrs. D. B. Emmons, sole owner and operator of the Longhorn training tables, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dennis. Dennis will be remembered as All-American Longhorn tackle of a few years ago and now head coach at Austin High.

Seven Direct Dance

Men who will direct the dance are as follows: Elmer Bounds, Freshman "Ox" Higgins, "Red" McKnight, Willie Williams, Kent Hunt, "Wild Bill" Malone, and Larry Craddock.

Freshman officers will be guests of honor at the dance, and will be expected to lead in the merry-making.

Ramshorn Will Give
Alec Dance Tonight

Ramshorn Literary Society will give an engineers' dance at the Cactus Tea Room Friday night, May 15. The committee in charge, consisting of C. M. Kella, J. F. Quereau, W. A. Cunningham and R. F. Calhoun have arranged for a special orchestra for the occasion.

The affair is to start at 8:15 and the first numbers of the evening will be a short literary program followed by a refreshment course of sandwiches and punch, after which the dance will start and last until 12 o'clock. The affair is on the social calendar of the University and promises to be a unique treat for all attending. Tickets are being sold for $1.50 a couple by the committee, and all engineering students and their friends are invited to attend.

Half Moon Founders
Day Affair Thursday

Half Moon fraternity held a founders' day banquet at the Stephen F. Austin Hotel Thursday night. The room was decorated in the fraternity's colors of blue and gold. Arthur Green acted as toastmaster. Active members and alumni together with several initiates were guests. The Half Moon Trio rendered several selections.

The initiates honored were Neil Baker, Harlingen; Edwin Olle, Flaton; Henry Baumgarten, Schulenberg; Brooks Hooten, Daingerfield; Clarence Rundell, Austin; J. Roy McKnight, Arlington; Thomas A. Mann, Woodville; Knox Hawthorne, Fort Worth.

Frosh Phoruss Has Slowest Growing
Hair Since March 2

Ray Phoruss of Siloam Springs, a freshman who registered in the University at the beginning of the winter term, won the free ticket to the sophomore dance awarded to the freshman whose B. Hall March 2 hair cut has remained the shortest until the present time. Close contenders against Phoruss for the honor were Wayne Haines who ran second, Oliver Hills and Red Luther. "Slick" Johnson of Palacios was awarded honorable mention in that his hair had grown the most since March 2.

in Last Issue of Ex-Student Publication

Featuring a photograph of "Uncle Billy" Disch as a frontispiece, the May issue of the Alcalde, the last of the present year, will be released for distribution in about a week, according to Reavis Cox, editor of the publication. This issue is primarily a compilation of news items.

For the benefit of those ex-students living outside of the State, who have not seen State papers, a review of the circumstances incident to the resignation of John A. Lomax as secretary of the Ex-Students Association has been made. The threatened resignation of Coach Disch has also been exploited, as well as the "Ma" Ferguson veto of appropriations for the Department of Journalism and the School of Library Science.

Varsity Circus has been described to the minutest detail; Phi Beta Kappa and Nu Upsilon Tau Tau elections, pictures of students in action, will form a part of the students' section. The "Who's Who" column this month was written by Fritz G. Latham, first editor of The Texan.

A special article by Nowlin Randolph and Dean Benedict's column will be of especial interest to many out of touch with Varsity.

F. D. "Wharey" Wade of New York City, a convert to the prize-fighting profession, Agnes Graham and J. W. Daniel of Daniel Fund fame, both of whom are now missionaries in China, relate a portion of their experiences after leaving Texas in the Letter Box, a feature section of the magazine. C. T. Neu has also contributed to this department.

SCRIBBLERS ELECT

At the regular meeting of Scribblers Club Thursday night, the following officers were elected to serve next year: Floyd H. Stovall, president; S. Margaret Cousins, vice-president; Vivian Richardson, secretary.

BIOLOGY BUILDING WILL BE BEST EQUIPPED IN COUNTRY

With the completion of the new $400,000 Biology Building at the University, which was formally dedicated Wednesday, there will be one of the finest buildings and probably the most modern equipment in the country for the teaching of botany and zoology at the University.

This building, which is developed in the architecture of the Spanish Renaissance, is equipped with all modern devices for the conduct of modern biology, such as constant temperature rooms, an automatic elevator from attic to basement, an incinerator, a vault, high pressure steam, compressed air, an automatic

WAA CONSTITUTION
CHANGES MADE IN THURSDAY MEET

Point System Radically Altered; New Rulings Made on Hygiene

'T' NIGHT IS POSTPONED

Selection of All-Around Athletes Delayed by Spring
Sport Schedules

In accordance with the drastic changes that have been made in the award system, W. A. A. amended its constitution at a called meeting in the Woman's Gym Thursday night so that in the future one hygiene month must be kept during each term in which a person is working for an award. The first hygiene month will count 30 points, the second 20 points, and the third 10 points. If a person receives an award in one year, three hygiene months will be required, and for each additional year in which a person works toward the award, three more hygiene months will be required.

In the future graduate students will form teams of their own and will be permitted to play on the senior teams only in case there are not enough members to fill out the senior team. In case a place on the team is contested by two persons of equal merit, preference will be given to the senior.

A meeting of W. A. A. can be called on any specified date hereafter, by a petition signed by 25 members and presented to the president and any member of the council.

Team points must be recorded on special cards along with the training record and signed by the team manager and instructor and presented by them to the recording secretary before the points will be counted toward the award.

A regular meal on training was defined for the constitution as a "well-balanced" meal. In the future the day will be taken as the unit standard, and the three meals eaten during the day must be the equivalent of three intelligently balanced meals.

"T" night has been postponed until May 21 in order that the Sports Girl may be distributed at the meeting. The Sports Girl has been delayed because the spring teams, and the all-year-round teams have not been definitely announced.

Bascom Reads From
Amy Lowell's Works

Miss Elva Bascom read from Katherine Lee Bates "Brief Life," Amy Lowell's "Purple Crackles," and "Madonna of the Evening Flowers," the poems and sonnets from Mary Davies, Margaret Widdemer, and Marguerite Wilkinson, at the public reading Thursday afternoon.

Miss Bascom emphasized the "simplicity, sincerity, and spontaneity" of the works of Sarah Teasdale, and commented on the "sweetness and delicacy of Anne Hempstead Branch's selections."

Miss Dorothy Carrington of Austin, a sophomore in the College of Arts and Sciences, will lead the grand march at the Sophomore Ball tonight with John Woodruff, sophomore president.

Miss Carrington is active in campus activities, being a member of W. A. A. and Reagan Literary Society. She is a member of Gamma Phi Beta sorority.

WILLIAMSON SCORES IN
"STOP THIEF", FINAL
CURTAIN CLUB PLAYPreliminaries for
Boxing Tournament
Will Begin May 20

Playing before an almost capacity audience, The Curtain Club made its final appearance of the season in "Stop Thief," a three-act comedy farce Thursday night at the Hancock Opera House. The author's lines and the performers' interpretations combined to keep the audience in a constant state of laughter.

Fessenden New Star

Melvin Williamson, star of previous Curtain Club productions, scored as Jack Dugan, the thief. As Dugan, Williamson displayed the height of self-confidence. Next to Williamson, Seth Fessenden, a newcomer to Texas and to Curtain Club audiences, came nearest to carrying away individual honors in a well balanced and well selected cast. Fessenden's deep voice and make-up assisted him materially in putting across a very convincing interpretation of Carr, an elderly gentleman.

Margaret West's characterization of Mrs. Carr, "slightly deaf," was highly appreciated by the audience. Another newcomer in the cast was Ruth Berman, who scored in her debut as Joan Carr. Several rounds of applause greeted Claude Voyle's personification of Thompson, self-admitted "best detective in the State of Rhode Island." Jimmie Parke succeeded in displaying dramatic emotion in the several opportunities afforded him. Ray Lee, Nowlin Randolph, and Lee Bilberry were convincing in their respective roles.

In the third act David Miller, as the hard-boiled police sergeant, was master of the situation. Maxine Hewitt scored as the thief's accomplice. Emily Anderson and Betty Scherr combined beauty and ability in playing their parts. Ed Taegel, Woodfin Butte, Morgan Davis, and William Wilson had minor parts.

Scenes Unchanged

The scene remained unchanged throughout the play, and the action was continuous. The curtain rose promptly on scheduled time and all of the actors were real in their presentations, two features usually lacking at amateur theatricals.

Sign for Waco Trip
Before 12 at M.B.

All students who can possibly make the trip to Waco Saturday to form the Varsity rooting section at the Texas-Baylor game are urged to sign up at the table in the rotunda of the Main Building before 12 o'clock this morning to make the trip on the special train which will be chartered if as many as 200 students sign up today.

Round trip tickets will cost $4.40, and a deposit of $2 will be paid at the table in the Main Building and the remaining $2.40 at the athletic ticket office, where tickets will be given out starting at 2 p. m. today. The student special will leave Austin at 9 a. m. Saturday and will leave Waco on the return trip at 8 p. m.

"On to Waco! Beat Baylor!" That was the yell that sounded across the Varsity campus last night as some 200 loyal students, aided by the Longhorn Band, the Orange Jackets and the Cowboys, staged a pep rally in front of the Chemistry Building for the purpose of arousing a response in the student body that will send 250 or more to Waco Saturday to cheer Uncle Billy Disch's Longhorns on to victory over the Baylor Bruins in the crucial baseball game of the season—a contest which more than any other will determine whether Texas wins her fourteenth baseball championship under Coach Billy Disch.

At least 200 students, in addition to the fifty who registered yesterday, are expected to sign up in the rotunda of the Main Building today before 12 o'clock to go to Waco Saturday on the special train which will be chartered if as many as 250 students decide to make the trip. Students are urged to sign at the table in the Main Building this morning, where they will make a deposit of $2.00, and will be given their tickets at the athletic office starting at 2 p. m. today, when they will pay the balance of $2.40 for the total railroad fare to Baylor and back.

"Beg, borrow, or steal the money if you need to, but let's go to Baylor!" urged Bill Rippey, newly-elected Varsity yell leader, at the rally last night. "We are at this rally for a dual purpose," said Rippey, "to pay tribute to Uncle Billy Disch and to back that team that is fighting with all they've got for Billy. If we ever stand behind that Longhorn team, let it be now. Go to Baylor Saturday!"

"Hit the road and walk to Waco if necessary, but let's get there somehow Saturday and back that team for a victory," Bob Payne, yell leader, urged the students last night. "We want 250 yelling rooters at that Baylor game Saturday!"

A great number of students are going to the game Saturday in cars, but at least 250 should sign up today for the special train which will leave here at 9 a. m. Saturday, returning from Waco at 8 p. m. Students making the trip must sign up before noon today, and as many as possible are urged to make a sacrifice if necessary in order to go to Baylor. If a sufficient number does not sign for the trip, the train cannot be chartered, according to Payne. Sign up today, and on to Baylor Saturday!

Dance Friday Night

As an annual affair of the organization the Glee Club will give a dance and dinner at the Country Club Friday evening at 8 o'clock. There will be a short musical program consisting of a piano solo by Herbert Garonzik, vocal solo by J. C. White, and an instrumental string duet by Max Rust and Floyd Streater. New officers will also be installed on this occasion, and short talks will be made by the retiring officers of the club, after which will be the dinner and dance until 12 o'clock.

New officers for the University Glee Club are Tom Hartley, manager; Woodward Ritter, president; Paul Matthews and Joe Cannon, members of the executive committee. Vinson Mouser is toastmaster for the coming banquet.

Second round: Funkhouser defeated Fitch of Rice 6-3, 6-3; Love defeated Bush 6-2, 6-2. Thalheimer defeated Armstrong 6-1, 6-2. In the doubles both Texas teams drew byes.

Senior Girls Take
Tryouts in Archery
Tuesday Afternoon

Interclass tryouts in archery were held Tuesday afternoon, the seniors winning high score, juniors coming second, and sophomores third. In deciding the winners, form and score were averaged. Hiawatha Crosslin won high score, Margaret Gaskill and Ethel Meier won second and third, respectively. Preliminaries were held one week ago to decide who would place and be eligible to compete in the finals.

EARLIEST MUSIC PRINTING
INCLUDED IN GARCIA LIBRARY

Music lovers, especially those interested in the history of music, find an interesting collection of old volumes in the Garcia Library at the University. A collection of books on music, old volumes which show the earliest printing of music and the methods of instruction in music, are included in the Garcia collection, according to Mrs. Lota May Spell of the Garcia Library. Most of the books are choir books or books published as rules for choirs. Most of them, therefore, are copies of the Gregorian Gradual that is still used in the Catholic church services. One volume, printed in Paris in 1509, is probably the oldest printed music.

Square notes made in the block printing, simple notation, the presence of tenor instead of the treble sign, and the absence of any directions as to time distinguish the early copies from the music of our own day. Although the notation in this early music is much simpler than in modern music, it probably required more skill to play, for the reader had to be able to transport, and the organist was forced to improvise the accompaniment. It is interesting to note that the scale in old music was practically the same as it is now, and that the famous musical hand showing the way in which the scales were taught is illustrated in almost every old volume.

REPORTERS

That the University students are interested in the outcome of the close race for baseball honors in the Southwest Conference was made plain at the rally Thursday night, preceding which the stirring shirt-tail parade was held. The student body is as much interested in seeing "Uncle Billy" pull through with another title as they are in the honor of a victory for the University.—J. W. W.

The University is anxiously awaiting the meeting of the Board of Regents. Several very important problems regarding the University will be decided. The appropriation bill provided for the business manager's office but left out the money for the manager. Will the Regents "donate" the money for this office or is the University to be without a business manager?—F. A. B.

Another important question is whether the University students will be able to continue courses in journalism or not. If the Regents find some method by which the school of journalism will be preserved, then several hundred students of the school will return to Texas and finish their education. If the Regents fail to find some way of keeping the school, then these students will have to go to another school and start over again in that they will have to become acclimated. It seems that the University of Texas will be losing one of its best school if the money for its support is not forthcoming from somewhere.—F. A. B.

This issue is the first time in the history of the school that The Daily Texan has been edited entirely by sophomores. There have been freshman issues, but never before has there been a sophomore issue. It would be very fitting to allow every class in school the opportunity of putting out The Texan one day. This would not mean that only the staff members would work but that the entire class would be asked to contribute.—F. A. B.

TROUBLES IN THE TEXAS FAMILY.

The troubles of the University, it seems, can no longer be confined to the campus, the student body, or the Board of Regents. Almost every week comes the announcement that some member of the University faculty has been lured away to northern and eastern fields. Texas Tech at Lubbock has been the latest raider on the University faculty; the new member of the state school family has borne away one after another of the oldest faculty members. This, however, is an old story. The ex-students are getting a taste of the same troubles, now that John A. Lomax has resigned and has entered the business world. There is no indication that a new secretary will be procured soon. Expressions of regret at the loss of Lomax have poured in from all sections of the country. That his equal will be found readily is doubted by many of the old timers.—J. W. W.

DOVES AND OLIVE BRANCHES

After the stormiest March 2 season that the University has ever witnessed, peace has returned to the campus in a degree that has not been equalled in many years. The reaction has been as natural as the day following the night.

For the first time since the eventful, fateful, and well-nigh fatal night at K. C. Hall in 1921, the hostility between the two lower classes has been increasing gradually until the climax came with the partial destruction of B. Hall this year, and a near loss of life accompanying it. Never since the sophomore attack on the freshman dance at K. C. Hall that spring have the University authorities felt safe in giving permission for the holding of class dances by the two lower classes, in that they feared another outbreak that might prove more serious even than the K. C. Hall episode.

That the two classes have at last reached a new and sane basis for their relations is being evidenced daily by the members of the classes. The two classes exhibited such willingness to sign an amnesty that the freshmen were granted permission to hold a class dance on May 1. This passed off without the least show of hostility on the part of either class.

Tonight the sophomores will entertain the campus with their spring term informal dance, and there is no intimation that any untoward event will mar the propriety of the occasion.

The two classes are to be congratulated on the new turn which has taken place in their relations, and for the best interests of the whole University as well as for the lower classmen themselves, the present relations must continue.—J. W. W.

COMMENTS BY SUCCESSFUL CANDIDATES

Now that the campus politics are over for another year, and the students will no longer be bothered with cheap gum, "El Ropo" cigars, and packs of unmeaning cards, the winners of Tuesday's election are busy thanking their supporters and telling what they are going to do next year. Here is what some of them say:

SAM JOHNSON, managing editor of The Texan—"I want to thank each and every student for their support. I feel no prejudice against any person for not voting for me in the election. So far as the campaign for managing editor was concerned, there has been a clean fight—one of the cleanest in the history of the University. I will put forth my best efforts to make next year's paper the best in the history of the University, and worthy of the great institution which it serves."

RICHARD BLALOCK, president of the Students' Association—"The campaign throughout was a clean one. There has been no mud-slinging of any kind by either candidate or his authorized supporters. Any unfair tactics by my opponent's supporters were condemned by him very severely. I will do my utmost to give a constructive administration for the protection of all students' interests and rights. I wish to thank all my supporters for their efforts in my behalf."

BILL RIPPEY, head yell leader—"I am going to put everything I have into my job for the coming year. I hope to develop a spirit of cooperation among the students and among the yell leaders themselves. I wish to thank my friends for what they did for me in the election. I am going to put all the fight I have into it, so that the Texas teams next year will feel that the student body is back of them."

ED TAEGEL, Academic Councilman—"I am well pleased with the results of the election. I will try next year, as I have before, to give my best efforts to keeping my trust as a representative of the Academic Department."

RICHARD H. GUELICH, JR., secretary-treasurer—"I wish to express my deep appreciation to my friends who have supported me in this election, and I wish to assure them that I will endeavor to merit the trust which they have placed in me."

DE WITT REDDICK, editor of the Longhorn—"I hope to make the Longhorn next year a more pretentious magazine than it has been in the past, in regard to the make-up and material that will go in it. I hope that next year I will be able to place more cuts in the magazine. I will try to go ahead and continue my policy of favoring short stories of Texas and University life. I wish to thank all my friends for their loyal aid in securing my election."

Pop-Ups and Bingles

By Lester Sack

Billy Disch's Longhorns, fighting for permanent possession of the top berth of the Conference, will have a hard battle on their hands Saturday when they meet the Baylor Bears at Waco. The Steers will be out for revenge for the 4-3 defeat handed them on Clark Field two weeks ago.

The Bears are getting better in every game, having won seven straight Conference victories. This encounter will be of greatest importance to the Longhorns as it will determine their chance for the Conference championship.

Bridges started intensive preparations for the Saturday battle Tuesday afternoon when he put his men through a stiff practice. Many students will likely make the trip, and if a sufficient number is secured a special car will be chartered. With both teams at top form, Saturday's encounter will likely be one of the best of the season.

Leslie Cox, speedball artist of the Steers, will probably start the game Saturday although Jubilo Clements, Longhorn ace, might get the last minute assignment. Regardless of who gets the job, the team will play heads up at all times in a great effort to beat the Bruins on Carroll Field.

By the adoption of the migratory athlete rule, all transfers from any ranking institution in the country will be forbidden from participation in athletic contests. Students once entering a school must stay in that institution as far as taking part in athletics is concerned. Men coming into the conference will be prohibited from participation if they have at any time taken part in any one single sport at another school. Much antagonism will be eliminated by this new rule in that it will tend to keep them from inducing athletes to transfer from one to another because of dissatisfaction.

Walter Johnson looks like he's through. After 19 years in baseball as one of America's leading hurlers, the 39-year-old veteran just pitched his 108th shutout victory of his career against the Chicago White Sox. He allowed the Pale Hose only five scattered hits, and only two men to reach second base in his 9-0 victory. The old master will undoubtedly turn in many victories for the Washington Senators this year.

One of the greatest races in history will take place Saturday at the $50,000 derby to be held at Louisville, Kentucky. Pullman's, approximately 400 of them with a total combined length of almost nine miles, will make up the largest part of the greatest assembly ever on record for the derby.

to irregularities about expense money, has been completely exonerated by the committee on investigation and is again running his events in record time. It is reported that he will soon run against several of America's star crack milers at the Harvard Stadium before his farewell appearance in this country.

"Bib" Falk, has at last hit his real stride with his war club. Fielding sensationally from the start of the season, he did not show his real strength until a few days ago. However, he is hitting a bit over .300 and at the present rate will run up an average that will compare with the best of the sluggers. His timely two-base blow in the tenth inning Tuesday beat the New York Yanks 5-4 in a hard fought battle.

John Myra, Olympic champion in the javelin throw with a record heave of 212 feet 11-2 inches, will try to break his own record at the Finnish-American Athletic Club track meet on May 31 at Chicago. He will compete against some of the best in the country in this event.

Babe Ruth, Yankee star, will probably be ready to return to the New York line-up soon if his improvement continues. He is up and getting around, and it is possible that he will get back into the game after the Yanks return from their Western invasion. His team certainly needs help after the poor showing made so far this year.

"Red" Grange, twice all-American half-back, finally decided to work on ice-wagons for one summer instead of acting on the silver screen. He decided to go back and finish his college course, rather than accept offers amounting to more than $100,000, according to student reports. He will no doubt be one of the outstanding football players of the country next fall.

maining games in order to secure a one-fourth game lead over T. C. U. Should T. C. U. lose their remaining one contest with Rice, Texas may drop one game and still take the championship.

Ted Lyons, former Baylor University star now with the Chicago White Sox, pitched a shut-out game against the New York Yankees recently. Lyons will be remembered as the pitcher who hurled against the University in the championship game here in 1923.

POLLARD FEATURES LAST BILL AT HANCOCK

"Snub" Pollard and the Weaver brothers, "original handsaw musicians" and styled the "Arkansas Travelers" head the closing vaudeville bill of the season at the Hancock Theater. "Cicero" Weaver, with his watch and chain, checkered suit and boots. Singing baloon and musical saws holds first place among "rube" entertainers. This bill runs Saturday.

Faculty Members Speak at Exercises

Eleven faculty members and officers will be sent out by the Bureau of Extension of the University this year to deliver commencement addresses at sixteen high schools over the state, according to the secretary of the bureau.

This has been included in the services rendered by the Bureau of Extension for many years. It is necessary or a representative of the high school to write asking an officer or faculty member of this institution be secured for that purpose. Heretofore, this duty has been one of Roy Bedichek who is head of the Interscholastic League division of the Bureau of Extension. This year, however, because of the excessive duties of Mr. Bedichek, the obligation was shifted to the secretary of the bureau.

ALSO COMEDY AND NEWS

"Seven Chances" Stars Buster Keaton

Buster Keaton has sixteen leading women in his latest Metro-Goldwyn comedy, "Seven Chances," which is now at the Majestic Theater.

They are Ruth Dwyer, leading woman-in-chief; Marion Harlan, a daughter of Otis Harlan; Loro Bara, sister of Theda Bara; Alma Bramley, Detroit heiress; Doris Dean, Peggy Pearce, Hazel Dean, Pauline Toler, Judie King, Bartine Burkette, Eugenie Gilbert, Edna Hamman, Barbara Pierce, Jean Arthur, Connie Evans and Rosalind Mooney.

The male cast appearing in support of Buster consists of T. Roy Barnes, musical comedy star; Snitz Edwards and Jules Cowles.

Colleen Moore in "So Big"

Colleen Moore has been called the "living library" of Hollywood because she has produced screen versions of so many popular novels.

Her latest picture, "So Big," is an adaptation from Edna Ferber's best best seller, to be shown at the Texas Theater next Friday. Prior to this, she produced "Flaming Youth," and numerous others.

In "So Big," Miss Moore is declared to have done her best screen work. The story, based on life in the old Dutch settlement near Chicago in the latter part of the past century, gets her away from the frivolous flapper roles with which she has been associated. It presents her as the wife of a stolid Dutch farmer, toiling amidst the cabbages and radishes of a truck garden.

Last Showing of "Nellie"

That the old-time popular priced melodrama will be made into first class screen entertainment for the present generation was proved in no uncertain measure when Goldwyn's picturization of Owen Davis' "Nellie, the Beautiful Cloak Model" received its first showing in Austin at the Hancock Theater.

This was, in its day, one of the most popular of its type of stage melodrama. While it has been freely adapted to the screen, its melodramatic highlights have been retained and its thrilling moments keep the chills chasing up and down one's spine while it is being unrolled. Melodramas have been very popular with motion picture audiences for the past season and "Nellie, the Beautiful Cloak Model" should surpass them all, for it is everywhere a workmanlike job, from the preparation of the script for the screen, to the smallest detail in the direction.

"Heart of a Siren" at Queen Theater

No longer is Barbara La Marr to be known as "the lovely siren of the screen" or "that exotic beauty of the screen." These titles, which heretofore have identified the charming heroine of "The Heart of a Siren," First National's current offering at the Queen Theater, have given way to a more appropriate one.

Henceforth, the incomparable Barbara is to receive her full measure of recognition as "the most beautiful actress in the world." And anyone who would find fault with this designation may refer his questioning to Monsieur Romaine de Tereff Erte, better known to the general public by the more concise cognomen of "Erte."

SATURDAY'S GAME WILL DECIDE GILL TROPHY WINNERS

Pre-Meds Meet Pre-Laws in Final Baseball Game for Intramural Honors

ENDS NIP AND TUCK FIGHT

Pre-Laws Have Won Championships in Football, Track and Wrestling

Departmental winners of the Gill intramural trophy will be virtually decided Saturday afternoon at 3:30 when the Pre-Law baseball squad meets the Pre-Medic nine in a promised thriller, according to Berry M. Whitaker, director of Intramural Athletics. In the race for championship honors, each of the two departments has been running nip and tuck since the beginning of the year and each has succeeded in eliminating several formidable aspirants.

The Pre-Law football eleven succeeded in beating their older brothers, the Laws, when all points pointed to a victory for the Laws, and by virtue of that victory, members of the Pre-Law squad secured intramural sweaters. After one of the closest races in the history of inter-departmental basketball, Engineering cagers edged out, but the Pre-Laws came back strong in track and field events, capturing the meet with a healthy score. Fourteen sweaters were given the Pre-Laws in track.

Ruth Hammond, Pre-Law and future Varsity wrestling ace, succeeded in taking first place in the three heavyweight wrestling divisions, while Basila took first honors in the 115-pound class. Johnnie Estes, frosh boxer, took second in light heavyweight fighting, adding to the future laws' total. Winners in boxing and wrestling were awarded medals, and sweaters are given only to winners in major sports.

Sunday Club Seniors Dinner Dance Guests

The annual Sunday Club dinner-dance honoring seniors will be given this evening from 7 to 11 o'clock at Gregg House. All Sunday Club seniors, and Miss Newton, Mrs. Mary Doak, Mrs. Price and Dean and Mrs. Hubbard, all of whom have been benefactors of the club, will be guests.

An entertaining program consisting of short, humorous toasts, and songs will be given during the dinner. Novel ways of becoming acquainted will be introduced. Punch will be served on the lawn between dances. The grand march will be led by Roy Martin, president of the club, favoring Ruth Ropes. Music will be furnished by Gertrude Schott. Tickets can be obtained at the Gregg House or from Sunday Club members.

SHORTHORNS WIN FROM DEAFMUTES

Baker, Star Texas Twirler, Chalks Ten Strike-outs in Airtight Game

Varsity's Shorthorns trampled the Deaf and Dumb Institute baseball aggregation 5-0 Thursday afternoon at Dummie Field, and added to their list of six wins and one loss. Baker, hurling for Texas, pitched an airtight game, chalking up ten strike-outs, and scoring one run to help win his own contest.

Saxon scored first for Texas, and Baumgarten duplicated with another tally in the same frame. Baker retired the Dummies without loss, and Texas also failed to count in their half of the second inning. The third and fourth and fifth stanzas passed with neither side counting. In the sixth Texas broke loose and put over three runs, Stoker, Redfern, Riviere, and Baker bringing in the tallies.

By virtue of his six added strike-outs, Baker's total reached 68 for the season.

AUSTIN MAYOR WILL SPEAK AT MEETING OF TEXAS CITIES

To Oppose Encroachment on Home Rule for Texas Towns

IS ANNUAL CONVENTION

100 Mayors of State Will Gather at Waco May 18-19

Announcement is made by R. D. Jackson of the Bureau of Government Research of the University, and executive secretary of the Texas League of Municipalities that steadfast opposition to the encroachments on home rule for Texas cities will be the keynote of the address of Mayor W. D. Yett of Austin before the 13th annual convention of the League of Texas Municipalities at Waco, May 18-19. Mayor Yett is considered an authority on this subject.

It is expected that more than 100 Texas cities will be represented at the Waco convention by their mayors and possibly, other officials. The League of Texas Municipalities is a non-partisan organization interested in the furtherance of better government in Texas cities. The secretariat of the league is located in the Bureau of Government Research at the University of Texas. Cities of all sizes have a place in the organization. The largest city, Houston, has a population of 138,500, and the smallest, Alpine, a population of 931. These figures are according to the 1920 census.

Ellis Is Principal Speaker at Education Association Banquet

The Education Association held its regular luncheon at the University Cafeteria Thursday at 1 o'clock, with a fair attendance. Dr. A. Caswell Ellis was the speaker for the day and presented a very interesting paper on "World Peace Through Education."

"Plans for world peace through international co-operation have not yet succeeded," said Dr. Ellis. "Only in the right education of the coming generations of citizens is there hope of permanent world peace. The teacher has it in his power to assist in the development of the better nature of the child and to guide his thoughts and actions into right channels."

"Our entire school system from the kindergarten through the University needs careful organization from the standpoint of developing ideals or world peace," concluded the speaker.

Sophomore Girls Have Vote in Election of Junior Officers

Every sophomore girl in the University has a vote in the primary election of the junior girls' officers to take place Saturday and Monday mornings from 9 to 1 at the polls in the Main Building, according to Mabel Cooper, president of the sophomore girls.

Sophomore girls will vote on their choice for the four officers for their next year's junior class. In Tuesday morning's Texas the two girls receiving the most votes for each office will be announced and later in the week another election for the final officers for the ensuing year will be held.

This method of election is used.
