BEARS LOSE FINAL CHANCE FOR TITLE IN GAME AT WACO

A. & M. Eleven Takes Exciting Gridiron Battle by Score of 14 to 3

BIG CROWD SEES CONTEST

Farmers Give Hard Fought Encounter Thrilling Finish. Aggie Back Is Star

Varsity and Texas A. & M. College now have the only elevens in the southwestern conference championship race with a perfect record. Texas A. & M. defeated the Baylor University Bears by a score of 14 to 3 yesterday afternoon at Waco and so gained the Bears' chances for the southwestern football championship. The Baylor-A. & M. game was the center of interest throughout the southwestern conference, and proved to be a close-fought contest. Coach Bridges' forward passing machine fell down before Coach D. X. Bible's excellently coached aggregation of line smashers. That was the story of the game. The Aggie victory came in a thrilling finish, the A. & M. team being slow to start.

Sanders Exhibits Speed
Sammy Sanders, brilliant Aggie back, was the individual star of the game. His speed and side-stepping gained many yards for the Aggies, while his booting was excellent.

Bradshaw, Baylor's much-touted quarterback, fizzled badly. In spite of the fact that Baylor supporters looked to Bradshaw to gain many yards for the Bears, he was never able to get away from the Aggie defense with regularity. The Aggies paid particular attention to the Baylor star throughout the game.

Throng Witnesses Game
It was estimated that a crowd of 5,000 watched the game, which was played at the Waco Cotton Palace.

Interest in the Baylor-A. & M. game was high in Austin and many predictions were made as to what the result would be.

Theo Bellmont guessed the score correctly Saturday morning when a number of men at the University athletic headquarters made guesses as to the result of the game would be. Bellmont wrote down "14 to 3" as his guess, placing the Farmers on the winning end.

UNITS PLANNED FOR MASONIC RECEPTION

Special Affair Under Auspices of University Shrine Club Will Be Held November 11

Under the auspices of the University Shrine Club, a reception will be given on the night of November 11 for all Masons and daughters and sons of Masons attending the University. The reception is free to every Mason in school regardless of degree attained in Masonry.

A varied stunt program has been planned for the evening's entertainment. Refreshments will be served. A list of the girls in the University able to attend has been placed in the secretary's desk in the Y. M. C. A. building, and the men are expected to call by at once, check off their name, and make a date for function.

W DIRECTORIES WILL BE DISTRIBUTED MONDAY

Publication of 5500 copies of the students' directory for 1921-1922 will be completed this week by the University Press, and distribution of new directory will begin Monday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. This year's book, copies of which are given to students at the office of the registrar, contains, in addition to the usual information concerning addresses and phone numbers of students and faculty members, a directory of officers and members of the students' assembly, a list of the candidates for degrees in 1922, and the names of faculty department chairmen.

PHASES OF DANCE DEVELOPMENT ARE OUTLINED IN TALK

Ted Shawn Appears Before Large Audience—Praises Modern Classic Prophets

Speaking to an audience which filled the Woman's Gymnasium to capacity Saturday afternoon, Ted Shawn, noted American dancer, traced the history of the dance to the present day.

According to Mr. Shawn, dancing came into being as the earliest aesthetic expression of primitive man's emotions. It was used and cultivated as a means of education by the Chaldeans, who made use of it in illustrating problems of astronomy. Among the Egyptians the dance was part of the religious ceremonies by which the people were taught at festivals the religious secrets known to the priests.

Perfection Reached by Ancients
"In Greece the dance reached the pinnacle of its development and recognition," the lecturer stated. There it was included in the military training of the armies, and the highest standards of education and morals were set for the dancer. The greatest public men of the country were often numbered among the most skillful dancers. Rome finally brought about the degeneration of the dance as it did for many of the other sciences.

Although great ballets, copied from the pagan religion were a part of the ritual of the early Christian church, the later development of the church served to crush the dance, Mr. Shawn declared. After the dark ages, however, it was revived in the courts of France and Spain, in the form of a ballet characterized by the toe dance. This form persisted almost to the present century, gradually degenerating into a mere mechanism, he stated.

Natural Basis in Modern Dance
The lecturer added that it was at this point there appeared the great prophets of the dance, Ruth St. Denis and Isadore Duncan, who have done much to bring it back to the natural basis upon which it was originally founded. "Their conception and interpretation were entirely new, yet the success which has followed them has marked them with the approval of the public," he concluded.

Legion Auxiliary Will Hear Report From State Meet

Alice Domingues, a member of the state hospital committee of the Women's Auxiliary to the University Post of the American Legion, will address the auxiliary in the chapel room of the Young Men's Christian Association building Thursday evening at 7:00 o'clock. A proposal for the adoption of an incapacitated ex-soldier will also be considered.

A report from the delegates of the auxiliary to the state convention of women's auxiliaries being held at Houston will be heard and other work of the society will be outlined, including plans for its participation in the Armistice Day parade in Austin.

STUDENTS FROM ALAMO CITY TO MEET TUESDAY

Consideration of important plans for the year will be the business of the San Antonio Club when the members assemble in room 158 of the Main Building at 5 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. The importance of this session was stressed by Erle M. Racey, president of the club, who has invited all students from San Antonio to be present.

VESPER SERVICE MONDAY

Young Women's Christian Association vesper service on Monday evening will begin the international week of prayer recognized by the association. The main features of the program will be a solo by Dick Hittson and a brief talk by Edleen Begg. Vesper services are held regularly in the Y. W. C. A. room in the Main Building.

STUDENTS ASSEMBLY IS ALLOWED MEMBER ON DEBATING COUNCIL

Representatives of Literary Societies Vote to Aid Intersectional Contest

One member of the Public Speaking Council will be elected each year by the Students' Assembly and serve on the council to keep in touch with the desires and instructions of the assembly, it was decided by unanimous vote at the initial meeting of the council recently. The assembly will be expected to choose one such representative for this year, while in after years he is to be selected at the beginning of the fall term to serve for the entire school session.

Debate May Be Sponsored
The Public Speaking Council is now composed of two members from each of the men's literary and debating societies of the University, with Dr. E. D. Shurter, head of the department of public speaking, at its head. It is the executive body of the Oratorical Association, in which are included all the men's literary organizations.

At its present session the council voted to sponsor an intersectional debate, in which a northern or eastern university would send to Austin a team to encounter two men from the Varsity debating squad this year. The financial situation prevents such a debate being arranged by the department of public speaking, but an endeavor will be made by the council to have the student body provide the necessary funds for such a contest.

Budget to Be Prepared
The council chairman appointed a committee to report at the next meeting a budget for the public debates of this year. The committee is composed of Judson Francis and Frank McGehee, representatives from the Rusk Literary Society, and Joe Buckingham from the Speakers' Club. Upon the report of this committee definite action as to subscribing for the intersectional debate will depend.

DATES FIXED FOR PRELIMINARIES IN DEBATE CONTEST

Winners in Forensic Tryouts to Get Prize Awards—Program for Season Arranged

Two triangular debates and two individual forensic encounters form the tentative schedule for this year's Longhorn debating team.

The debating season will open with the appearance in Austin of the Vanderbilt team, and Texas debaters will be sent to Tulane University. Oklahoma University and Texas will meet in Oklahoma, and Arkansas debates Texas at Austin. A single debate with the University of Colorado at Boulder, Colorado, will complete the schedule.

Contestants for a place on the intercollegiate debating squad will meet in the Law Building auditorium at 7:30 o'clock Saturday, November 26 to draw for places. The first preliminaries will be held the following Tuesday. Final choice of the personnel of the debating squad will be made on the second Tuesday night in February, and at the same time the three annual debating prizes will be awarded.

W. E. Pope of Corpus Christi offers $100 to the best individual debater in the School of Law; Delta Sigma Rho, honorary public speaking fraternity, offers $100 to the best individual debater in the contest exclusive of the winner of the Pope award; and the Stelfox Company of Austin offers a fifty dollar watch to the best individual debater, exclusive of winners of either of the other prizes.

ENGINEERS MEET MONDAY

Members of the American Society of Civil Engineers will meet Monday night at 7:15 in the Engineering Building instead of Thursday because of the Engineer's dance being held on the latter night. Armour Townsend Granger, instructor in civil engineering, will speak on bridge design.

Turtle Club Members Undertake Mastery of Waves at Lake Austin

Riding the surf has nothing on riding the aquaplane, according to certain members of the Turtle Club, an organization of University girls participating in aquatic sports. Friday the Turtle Club held its last outdoor meeting of the year at the Lake Austin boat-house. The forty members were divided into two sections and one group went through a land drill while the other had a ten minute swim. Some of the more daring and experienced swimmers, not content with mere swimming, rode the treacherous aquaplane.

Winter's cold and unfriendly winds are not expected to deter the "Turtles" from exercising their privilege of swimming in the Y. M. C. A. pool. With the coming of spring, swimming and diving in Lake Austin will be begun again, and the annual contest will be held for the awarding of gold and silver turtles to the experts.

SENIOR ACADEMS MEET AND ELECT CLASS OFFICERS

Joe Thompson to Head Grads During Fall Term—Men to Wear Regalia Tuesday

Eulogistic speeches of nomination and a general spirit of good will were the predominating features of the first meeting of the senior academic class on Saturday afternoon. The session was opened by Emil Klatt, president of last year's junior academic class and officers for the three terms of the school year were chosen.

Joe C. Thompson of Dallas was made president for the fall semester and took the chair before the close of the meeting. Other officers elected for the fall term are: Brady Cole of Hearne, vice president; Elizabeth Harcourt of San Antonio, secretary-treasurer; and Arno Nowotny of San Antonio, sergeant-at-arms.

Second Term Officers
The officers chosen for the winter term are: Joe Buckingham of Dallas, president; Kathryn Anderson of Brownwood, vice president; Casse Paul of Center, secretary-treasurer; and Irvin Stewart of Fort Worth, sergeant-at-arms.

Officials For Spring Term
Lloyd J. Gregory of Austin was made president of the class for the spring term and the following officers were elected to serve with him: Everett Jones of San Antonio, vice president; Mabel Daniel of Dallas, secretary-treasurer; and Emil Klatt of Cameron, sergeant-at-arms.

Cane Custom to Continue
Male members of the class will begin on Tuesday the annual custom of wearing the Kane Klub regalia on two days of each week. The traditional cane, collar, and bat-wing tie will be the accompaniment of every academic senior on Tuesdays and Fridays during the fall and spring terms, it has been announced by Tom Nash, King of the Kane.

Plans for a senior week were informally discussed Saturday, but no definite program for festivities of this sort has been determined.

VARSIY PROFESSOR TO SPEAK AT GEORGETOWN

Dr. George C. Butte, professor of international law in the University of Texas, will address the students of the Southwestern University at Georgetown on Armistice Day. Dr. Butte will speak on the subject, "The Significance of the Washington Conference on Disarmament." He will speak at a mass meeting to be held in the university auditorium as a feature of November 11 celebration there.

KAPPA KAPPA GAMMA TEAM WINS CONTEST WITH CACTUS SALES

Emily Nalle Leads in Popularity Race—Dave Maud Cummins Climbs to Third Place

By selling the greatest number of copies of the 1922 Cactus a team from the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority has won the right to a theater party at the Majestic, closing the heated contest between fifteen girls' teams which started Tuesday and ended late Saturday.

The winning team was composed of Hardy Adams, captain; Ruth Barnard, Helen Rimes, Elizabeth Hutchison and Hester Brite. The second greatest number of books was sold by the Chi Omega team, while third place was taken by the Alpha Delta Pi.

Book Is Individual Prize
Ruth Barnard of the Kappa Kappa Gamma team sold the greatest number of books and thereby won a deluxe copy of the Cactus offered as a prize by the management. Daisy Jones was second with a total of thirty-four books sold.

Although the chance to enter further names in the popularity contest was closed last night, balloting on the candidates will be continued for two weeks, at the end of which time the winner of the page picture in the Cactus will be determined.

Votes Added for Leaders
At the end of the day's balloting late Saturday, when 1000, 750, 500 and 250 votes respectively were awarded the four leading candidates Emily Nalle was still first, with a grand total of 66,700 votes. Martha Rivers Allen maintained her position as a close second with 65,300 votes, while Dave Maud Cummins provided the surprise of the day by leaping from sixth place to third place with 47,100 votes. Margaret Kelly again came fourth with a total of 44,100 votes.

The totals for the other entries are as follows: Ruth McCelvey 37,800, Etta Bain 32,600, Kathryn Anderson 26,400, Luci Belle Snyder 25,500, Ann Hamilton 18,600, Evelyn Barnwell 17,400, Lucille Franklow 10,350, Mildred Chambers 3,500, Tip Youngblood 3,400, and Lavonia Baker 2,600 votes. This count was officially given out by the directors of the contest on Saturday night.

Exhibition of Books for Children Begins Tuesday in Library

Exhibits of the Library Science collection of children's books and the books of the main library which are suitable for children to read will be shown on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons from 3 to 6 o'clock in the rooms of the library science department in the Main Library, by way of observing children's week. A list of books which would make appropriate gifts for children will be distributed.

The faculty of the Library Science Department will be assisted by the students of bibliography in managing the display and in giving full information in regard to the volumes.

National children's week, which extends from November 13 to 19, will be observed by the mothers clubs of Austin with a book exhibit in the Chamber of Commerce.

BENEDICT WILL PRESIDE AT MEMORIAL SERVICES

Mrs. Helen Marr Kirby's memory will be honored at a memorial service to be conducted by University students and the faculty at 4:30 o'clock on Sunday, November 13 in the University Methodist church. Dr. H. Y. Benedict, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences, will preside. Dr. D. A. Penick, head of the department of extension, will have charge of the musical program.

DANCE NEXT WEEK AT GYM

Plans for another all-University dance to be given on the night of November 18 at the Men's Gymnasium are being formulated under the direction of George Finlay Simmons. University students will be urged to attend and to work with the directors in making these dances enjoyable.

LUCY WOOTEN IS NAMED DIRECTOR FOR CORONATION

Austin Girl Planning Pageant for Queen of Thanksgiving Reception

Coronation of the queen sponsor for the Thanksgiving reception will be under the direction of Miss Lucy Wooten, prominent society girl of Austin, it is announced by Perry Porter, general chairman in charge of the affair. Miss Wooten has taken prominent part in several similar pageants, having been active in the opening ceremony of the state fair at Dallas this year and a participant in previous seasons in the Cotton Palace Exposition at Waco, the Battle of Flowers at San Antonio and the Mardi Gras in New Orleans.

Contest in Ticket Selling
Porter states that tickets will soon be placed on sale for the reception and that an award of a deluxe copy of the 1922 Cactus will be given the girl selling the greatest number.

"This reception is going to be different from any had in the University, and I believe that everyone who attends will be thoroughly satisfied," Porter declares. "We have a surprise in store for everyone who comes," he asserted.

Musical Features Promised
Scott Snodgrass, chairman of the entertainment committee, is cooperating with Porter to secure clever impersonations and the services of several local musical organizations for the reception. The Austin Community Players, the Mandolin Club and the Glee Club will have special features for the amusement of those who attend the reception and who do not wish to dance.

STUDENTS TO JOIN VETERANS IN PARADE ON ARMISTICE DAY

Assembly of Ex-Service Men Will Hear Address by Former Postmaster General

As a part of the Armistice Day celebration of the American Legion ex-service men of the University, in conjunction with the Travis Post of the Legion, will march in uniform to Woolridge Park by way of Congress Avenue, where they will be addressed by some prominent speaker, likely A. S. Burleson, former postmaster-general. The Legion members will be divided into units according to their branches of service, and will be accompanied by the G. A. R. members, Confederate veterans, Spanish War veterans, the Women's Auxiliary, and the school children of Austin.

Exactly at 12:00 the parade will be halted and members will face the east, as a tribute to the "unidentified hero" who is to be buried at that time. At 2:00 the line of march will again be halted and will face the west in memory of those who "went west." It is possible that a review will be held on Clark Field a few minutes before the start of the Mississippi A. & M.-Longhorn game.

FORMER MISSIONARY TO SPEAK AT CONVOCATION

Tonight at 6:30 there will be a convocation of all Methodist students at the University Methodist church to supplant the usual Epworth League meeting at that time. Mr. W. E. Borchers, a former missionary to Brazil, will make a short talk. Brief speeches will also be made by Dr. C. G. Hounshell and by Lynn Landrum, an ex-student of the University.

PIRATE ELEVEN IS OVERWHELMED BY LONGHORN SQUAD

Score of 44-0 Rolled Up Against Southwestern Team in Game Notably Lacking Thrills

SECOND STRING TEAM USED

Both Sides Make Numerous Substitutions—Burns Is Star of Texas Line

Southwestern University's Pirate football team went down to a 44-0 defeat at the hands of a second string Longhorn line-up yesterday afternoon on Clark Field. The Southwestern eleven was never able to gain with any method of attack, while the Longhorn team was consistently successful even though using only straight football.

Captain Tom Dennis, George McCullough, Dave Pena, and other Varsity stars watched the game from the sidelines, dressed in civilian clothes. "Swede" Swenson and George Hill were among the Varsity regulars who were in football togs ready to go into the game, but who were never called upon.

Substitution on Both Sides
Coaches Whitaker and Seddon took advantage of Southwestern's weakness as a means of trying out almost every man on the Longhorn squad. Coach Gardner of the Pirates also sent in many substitutes during the game, but he did so for a totally different reason. He was trying in vain to stop the Varsity attack.

While the Longhorns were rarely held for "no gain," the Varsity quarterbacks depended upon straight football. The Texas line displayed its ability to tear great holes in the defense of the Pirate forwards and with the Orange backs plunging through neatly, Southwestern was ever shoved backward.

Pirate Backfield Weak
Southwestern was never able to gain against the Texas eleven with any noticeable degrees of success; the Longhorns making the Pirate backfield men appear to be wearing round heeled shoes with banana skins for skid chains.

Boys Offer Amusement
A barrage of fist fights between Austin urchins furnished the chief entertainment of the afternoon, so one-sided was the game.

Sens, veteran Varsity backfield man, showed his old time speed yesterday afternoon, with many a resulting gain for Texas. Domingues and Tynes tore up the Southwestern line with regularity. Hensell's punting was good.

Burns Shows up Well
Burns was the star of the Texas line. He blocked a kick in the first quarter and recovered the ball for Varsity's second touchdown of the game. In the second quarter he blocked a kick and made possible a safety scored by Texas. His play at other times was good.

Luhn's work at end was neat. He

CAMPUS CHURCHES

Only through self-deception can anyone convince himself that religion plays any vital part in the campus drama. Either because religion is of itself an illusion to which students have not fallen prey, or because the churches and religious associations serving the campus are highly inefficient, or because of the two combined, an active, growing interest in things religious is almost unknown. Pointing to the same conditions in other schools and comparing affairs here favorably with the religious life in denominational schools, is no defense. A dog does not become a man by demonstrating that there are other dogs. So that while students may condescend to go once a week to a service from which they are glad to escape in time for dinner, they do not otherwise give to their religious life the attention they would give to selecting a new necktie or a pair of shoes. As evidence of this, take the difficulty with which finances for the organizations are raised.

It does not necessarily follow that religion must be deemed worthless. Nor does it follow that the student is of a lower calibre than the average human nature. Passing over the many arguments concerning the origin, purpose and value of religion in general and the Christian religion in particular, and assuming that there is an actual need for a living church; further assuming that students can be interested in the subject; religion would not be very active on the campus because the churches, the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A. and other religious organizations utterly fail to do their part.

The main strength of the church always has been its missionary zeal, in the broader sense of the term. Never would the church have grown had it not sent its devotees out into all the world to preach the gospel to every living creature. It was a driving force that went out to gather in converts. Whether such a course is justifiable is beside the question. The fact remains that only thus could the church become an active element in the life of the people.

Churches today seem to have forgotten. They tend to develop an excellent organization with intricate committee systems to cover all branches of church work, and then, having set up a beautiful engine the engineers forget to light the fire. The workers, if they may be so called, formulate grandiose plans, then sit back as though they expected these to materialize of themselves. The truth of this will be revealed by seeing how much form of working the churches go through with and how many students, during their four years, never come in active

Ineligible Tennis Enthusiasts May Get Into Tourney

Competition for places on the freshman-shorthorn tennis squad will start Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, when play begins on the courts east of the campus. Any first year men or transfers from other schools who are ineligible for the regular Varsity squad will be allowed to take part in the tryouts for this team.

Arrangements are being made to match the freshman-shorthorn tennis squad against clubs both in and out of Austin. At the end of the year numerals will be awarded to the members of the ineligible squad chosen for that honor by directors of the competition.

PIRATE ELEVEN IS OVERWHELMED BY LONGHORN SQUAD

messed up many a Southwestern play.

Roach Stars for Pirates
Captain Roach played the best game of Southwestern's linemen at center. Crump and Foster were the Pirates' best bets in the backfield.

Texas kicked off at the start of the game and Southwestern kicked back after a series of drives by Gardere, Domingues and Sens. Domingues broke through for the first touchdown of the struggle, with the game but four minutes old. Gardere kicked goal.

Texas kicked again and Southwestern kicked back. The Longhorn backfield again carried the ball down the field. Domingues kicked and Southwestern started to punt back, but Burns blocked the kick and scored the second touchdown of the game. Gardere kicked goal. The rest of the quarter was scoreless.

Fumble Captured by Luhn
Gardere, Hemsell, Sens and Domingues carried the ball down for the third touchdown made by Texas, scored at the start of the third period. Luhn recovered a fumble for the score. Gardere kicked goal.

Once more the Texas backs began their drive, aided in a sterling manner by the Longhorn line. Hemsell carried the ball over for the next Longhorn touchdown and then kicked goal. Tynes, Brown and Sens and the Longhorn line again tore up the Southwestern defense, Brown going over for a touchdown. Hemsell kicked goal.

Gilstrap Gets Touchdown
More drives by Longhorn backs opened the fourth quarter, after which Barry shot a 25-yard pass to Sledge. The pass put the ball on Southwestern's 1-yard line. Gilstrap hit inside right tackle for the last touchdown of the game. Townsend kicked goal.

Texas then kicked. Southwestern fumbled and Rader recovered the pigskin on the 24-yard line for Texas. Townsend lost 10 yards on an attempt around left end. Two passes by Barry failed. Gilstrap next recovered an inside kick from the toe of Tommy Townsend, 1 short yard from Southwestern's goal line as the game ended.

The Longhorn Band was there with its usual pep and the rooting section gave good support to the team.

The round trip rate will be $6.61 and day coaches with a capacity of 35 students will be operated. One of the large A. & M. mess halls has agreed to serve turkey dinner to the Texas rooters at a small cost.

University girls who have received invitations to the A. & M. dances during the week should take up the matter at the dean of women's office to arrange for a chaperon and accommodations while at College Station, it is announced by Miss Lucy Newton.
