Florence Stullken Named President;
Glascok, Romberg Other Officers

The University's thirty-four year old chapter of Phi Beta Kappa announced Friday the election of forty new members, twenty-eight from the graduating class of 1939 and twelve from the graduating class of 1938.

Membership in Phi Beta Kappa is the highest scholastic honor that a student in the College of Arts and Sciences can receive. Students in other divisions of the University are not eligible.

Officers of the chapter who were elected Friday are Miss Florence Stullken, assistant professor of business administration, president; Dr. C. C. Glascok, professor of Romance languages, vice-president; and Dr. Arnold Romberg, professor of physics, secretary-treasurer.

Members elected from the classes to graduate in 1939 are as follows:

William Albert McKinley Jr., William Franklin McLean, Helen Hermenia Machemehl, Ralph Dominic Mahon Jr., Mrs. Bernice Marie Stephens Myers, Josephine Pile, Jewel Peverett, Ernest Alonzo Sharpe, Everett Lee Shirlay, Jesse Eldon Thompson, Ernest Joseph Villavaso, Charles Alan Watson, Johanna Thunselda Winkler.

Members elected from the 1938 graduates are the following:

A.P.O. State Meet Opens Here Today

A state conference of Alpha Phi Omega, national service fraternity, will be held in Austin Saturday and Sunday.

Delegates from chapters at East Texas State Teachers College and Southern Methodist University, and petitioning groups from Texas Tech and Sam Houston State Teachers College will attend.

A banquet in the Junior Ballroom of the Texas Union to initiate honorary members will be held Saturday night. There will also be initiation services for six pledges and pledge services of applicants who have passed requirements.

Saturday afternoon delegates will attend the S.M.U.-Texas football game. The main conferences will begin at 8 o'clock Sunday morning in the Texas Union.

Cheers for Dewey

Prosecutor Thomas H. Dewey, of New York, Michigan University alumnus, is being greeted by Fielding H. Yost, Michigan director of athletics at the Michigan alumni dinner in New York. The fiery district attorney seeks election on the Republican ticket as governor of the Empire State. Three Michigan yell leaders lend atmosphere to the welcome.

Inaugural Ceremonies Approved by O'Daniel

FORT WORTH, Oct. 28—Plans for inaugural ceremonies were laid before Governor-Nominate W. Lee O'Daniel here Friday by an Austin committee headed by Mayor Tom Miller.

The January 17 program as outlined was approved by the incoming Governor. He expressed himself as being particularly well pleased with the idea of having a pageant and ceremony in The University of Texas Memorial Stadium preceding the actual inauguration.

The Governor-nominate also reviewed plans for the entertainment at night which contemplates receptions and gatherings at Gregory Gym on the University campus and at various other places in Austin.

A joint committee of the Legislature will be in charge of the actual administration of the oath of office for the Governor-elect and the Lieutenant Governor-elect Coke Stevenson and will decide whether this phase of the program will be held at Memorial Stadium or at the Capitol.

Chairman E. H. Perry of the inauguration committee was unable to attend the Fort Worth conference Friday, and Mayor Miller acted as chairman of the delegation which conferred with O'Daniel and his secretary, Garfield Crawford.

Representatives present, in addition to Mayor Miller, were Houghton Brockwell, state senator; O. P. Lockhart, member of the Democratic State Executive Committee; William L. McGill, chairman of public relations at The University of Texas; T. B. Hill, industrial accident commissioner; Raymond Brooks, secretary of the inaugural committee; A. T. Knies, president of the Austin Chamber of Commerce; and Bob Barker, secretary of the Senate.

Funeral services will be held at Cook's Funeral Home at 11 o'clock Saturday morning. Father W. E. R. O'Gorman of St. Austin's Chapel will officiate. Pallbearers will be Judge F. L. Hawkins, James Shaw, Doc Hart, G. W. Stumberg, Louis Goldberg, and Lynn Hunter.

S.D.X. Pledges Two More; Show Billing Increased

Sigma Delta Chi, honorary and professional journalism fraternity for men, pledged two more members, increasing the number of pledges to fifteen, at a meeting last night. They are as follows:

Raymond O. Howard
Burke J. McGinty

For the midnight matinee of "Lives of a Bengal Lancer" at the Varsity Theater November 4, Sigma Delta Chi has added two attractions of popular appeal to the billing, Ernest Sharpe, who is in charge of the program, announced.

Frank Gardner, singer of sweet Spanish songs, and Gene Hurt, a pianist, will be presented again to a University audience. ("Recently at the Journalism Jam-boree, on the third encore Gardner sang "Cielito Lindo" and fifteen girls broke their betrothal vows," Sharpe said, "and Hurt's guitar actually spoke Spanish when he played 'Yo Vivo Rancho Grande'."

Ed Herring, maestro of the accordion, who because of a night job, has almost deserted his followers on the campus this year, has been persuaded to appear at the midnight matinee to give once more his rendition of "Alexander's Ragtime Band." Herring has agreed to do at least two of Irving Berlin's songs and also the currently popular "That Far Away Look."

The program, sponsored by the Daily Texan, will include skits and variety numbers, with music by Jack Steele's band. Jack Scharnberg will act as master of ceremonies.

Steele's orchestra, temporarily disbanded during the summer, was reorganized early last month with the addition of three new men, making a total of eleven. The band now includes Nat Perrine, drums; Guin Hodges, piano; Garner Clark, Vernon Mayfield and Charles Diebold, trumpets; Dick Yoes, trombone; Robert Hunter, Jack Rogers, Jimmy Henderson, and Jack Steele, saxophones; and Jack Sparks, vocalist.

Longhorns Rated as Underdogs In Today's Clash With Ponies

Band to Use 'Mikes' Today

Friday Tests
Indicate Success

If the tests made Friday afternoon at Memorial Stadium are any indication, students seated in the east stands Saturday at the S.M.U. game will be able to hear the Longhorn Band do its share of rooting for the Texas team. Arrangements were completed Friday for the band to have its music electrically amplified, enabling fans on both sides of the stadium to hear the music clearly.

"We completed our plans in time to make a few tests late Friday afternoon," Charles Daniel, drum major of the band, said Friday. "We were entirely satisfied with the tests and believe the band will not be confused by having the music amplified, as some people feared would be the case."

Plans for the amplification of the band's music were begun Wednesday when a Firing Line letter in the Texan asserted that, of the fans sitting on the east side of the stadium, only those very close to the band could hear the music. Various suggestions were made as means of remedying this inconvenience, but the plan of using a public address system was considered the most logical by University and band officials.

The microphones to be used by the band will be connected with the sound truck of the Athletic Council, to be located at the south end of the stadium.

Although no plans have been made to amplify the music of the Mustang band Saturday, it is hoped that, if the arrangements for the Longhorn band are successful, some similar plan can be used for visiting bands at future games.

12,000 Tickets Sold for Game

Student and general sales of 12,000 tickets indicate that the game between S.M.U. and Texas this afternoon will be well attended.

A Texas crowd will get their first view of the new uniforms that the Southern Methodist Band bought while they were in Pittsburgh for the game with Pittsburgh University. Seventy band members will come to Austin.

Southern Methodist has made the game between the Mustangs and the Steers the occasion for a school holiday.

A trainload of Dallas supporters of the S.M.U. team will leave Dallas at 7:30 o'clock Saturday morning and arrive in Austin at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon. They will leave Austin at 6:30 Saturday night and arrive in Dallas the next morning at 12:05.

Safety Contest Entries Due Today

All entries for this week's safety slogan contest must be turned in at the University Co-Op by 1 o'clock this afternoon, John Connolly, member of the University Safety Council, said yesterday. The Safety Council, the Co-Op, and The Daily Texan are sponsors of the weekly contest.

The prize for the winning slogan will again be a $5 fountain pen, Connolly said. The pen was won last week by Albert Walker, law student. Entries turned in after 1 o'clock today will be entered in next week's contest.

Rules are the following: Slogans must deal with traffic safety.

Slogans must not contain more than ten words.

Entries must be written on an official entry blank, which will be published daily in the Texan.

Any student may enter the contest and write as many slogans as he or she wishes if they are written on the official entry blank.

Entries must be turned in at the University Co-Op by 1 o'clock Saturday.

U. T. Gets New Yells From Jones at Rally

By CLIFFORD SNOWDEN

To the tune of yelling voices and the deafening sound of the Longhorn band beating out peppy music, the serenade-rally got under way last night at Clark Field.

Presley Werlein, head yell leader, assisted by Casey Jones, yell leader at the University from 1914 to 1918, directed the group in songs and yells.

"It seemed to me that The University of Texas is not using any identifying yells. I mean those that belong to the University alone. So we have some new yells," said Mr. Jones.

He led those assembled in the three following yells that will be introduced at the Texas-S.M.U. game today:

Rattle-thrat
Rattle-thrat
Rattle-thrat
Longhorn
Cactus Thorn
Texas, Texas, Texas
Moo, Texas

Hulla ba boo
Rah, Rah, Rah
Rah, Rah, Rah
Hurrah, Hurrah, Hurrah
Varsity Varsity
U. T. A.

The third yell is called the whistling yell, in which everyone gets to his feet whistling, then says, "Siss boom rah." With hands extended above the head, they move to and fro as the words "Hey Hey Hey, T-E-X-A-S, Texas, Texas," are said.

From Clark Field the yell leaders and the band led the group of students yelling like a bunch of Indians around dark corners and stood on the porch. The yell leaders, the players came out and the serenaders reached the dormitory, with their backs to the players, led the yell while the band played loudly.

Mr. Jones climbed up on the steps and gave another pep talk. "We can't be on the field playing with the boys, but we can show we are fighting for them. I don't think there is a better football team, one which has fought better, longer or harder, than the one we have now."

Card Tricks by Texas Rooters Will Add Color to Game

Two thousand students in the Longhorn rooting section at the S.M.U. game in Memorial Stadium this afternoon will take part in a series of card tricks planned by the Cowboys, honorary service organization for men.

Six displays have been planned by the committee in charge of the stunts. The first will be a solid white rooting section, to be followed by a bang. What we are trying to do is something that will bring a lot of publicity and prestige to our campus. Please remain in your seat during the lily and try to seat yourself so that you will be directly behind the person in front of you. The card is pinned in front of your seat, and the tricks are numbered on the back of the card, one through six.

The card is to be used between halves only. We wish that you would please co-operate with us, and let's put this thing over with a bang. Please remain in your seat during the lily and try to seat yourself so that you will be directly behind the person in front of you. Now let's go!

You will notice that beside each trick number there is written the word "Orange" or "White" indicating which color you are to hold up for that trick. Keep your eye on the man in front of your section. When he holds up a number, that indicates the trick number, and the you will hold up your color, holding your card at eye level, with the top of your card resting on your nose. It isn't hard so let's all do our part."

Mustangs Have Reserve Power

Injuries Riddle
Texas Squad

By CLARENCE LA ROCHE

For the sixth straight time this season, the Steer football team will be in the underdog role as it squares off against the Mustangs this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in Memorial Stadium.

Longhorn supporters, however, are pointing to the fine defensive game the team played against Rice last Saturday and are predicting a victory for the Steers today.

S.M.U. invades Memorial Stadium with a .500 average for the season. The Ponies have defeated North Texas Teachers and University of Arizona; they have lost to Marquette and Pitt.

This year's edition of the Mustangs is loaded with man power and potentialities. There is a fine lot of sophomore backs and a grade-A sophomore center. The backs, paced by Ray Mallouf, the "Slinging Syrian," will have the edge over the Steer backfield in all-around finesse. They will not have the edge on the Steers in defense. Roy Holbrook, a 190-pound Kerrville lad, will open at fullback for the Ponies and Gerald Geise, of San Antonio, will start at a halfback position.

The Ponies likewise rate an edge in the line. Two senior pickets, Captain Charlie Sprague and Billy Dewell, 200-pounders, will start for the Ponies; at tackles, the starters, Willie Curik and Jack Sanders, have men three deep waiting to relieve them. The same condition prevails at guard and center.

Relief men for the S.M.U. backfield will come from a mass of sixteen proven ball carriers and blockers.

Coach Dana X. Bible yesterday afternoon pointed out that the Steers have been riddled seriously by injuries. Right end, with John Peterson and Ned McDonald operating at full power, is the only staunch position in the line. Don Williams will find it necessary to go the full route at left tackle. When Myers is playing, it is possible for Williams to be used at either the left tackle post or the left guard post; and by this token, Jack Rhodes will also find it necessary to do a sixty minute trick.

At center, Glenn Jackson and Roy Baines will alternate; additional help coming from Jim Watson. Jackson has not yet recovered completely from a shoulder injury and may not be up to par. Baines, however, can adequately replace the rangy Corpus Christi product without weakening the team.

Mike Sweeney at left end will probably be forced to go sixty minutes. With Ellis McInnis out, Sweeney's only replacement of proven caliber is Joe Roach.

The starting backfield, contrary to pre-game observations, will be somewhat changed from the one that started against Rice last week.

Fred Flato will be replaced at right halfback by Wesley Boyer; Beefus Bryan will replace Wally Lawson at left halfback; Lawson moves over to tailback; place of Bullet Gray, Bill Forney, game captain, will start at the frontback slot as usual.

In announcing the change, Coach Bible said he made the move after grading the right halfback candidates on the basis of all-around performance. Bob Moers was the best defensive man; Flato, the most powerful runner; Nelson Puett, the best ball-carrier; and Boyer, the best blocker. Boyer, however, got the nod over the other three because his averages in the other departments also were high.

In moving Lawson to tailback in place of Gray, Coach Bible said he hoped to sharpen the offense by having a fresh tailback available. He will alternate Gray and Lawson at the post.

Of side-show interest to the game will be the nationally famous Mustang swing band. Last Saturday in Pittsburgh the Pony Band stole the thunder from the See LONGHORNS, Page 2

Leads Steers Today

Big Bill Forney, senior Longhorn quarterback, will lead the Steers against the S.M.U. Mustangs this afternoon as the Bible-men seek their first victory of the season. Forney, formerly of Valparaiso, Ind., is one of the best line-backers in the Southwest Conference. He was the keystone in the Longhorn goal line stands against Rice last Saturday.

Powder Harrell Runs Well In Freshman Practice Game

With the Varsity having the day off, the Freshman football squad held the spotlight Friday afternoon on the campus with all of the coaching staff except Clyde Littlefield watching them and helping them eliminate their errors.

The entire afternoon was devoted to scrimmaging with every boy on the squad getting a chance to show what he could do. Powder Harrell turned in the best run of the day, breaking around left end after a fake punt, reversing his field twice and finally lateraling off to Mayes. Harrell carried the ball about 30 yards before he was finally pulled down and almost every player on the defense laid hands on him before the safety man got him.

Several of the best players on the squad have been unable to play because of injuries. Doss, Westmoreland and Hawkins have injured knees, Grubbs and Davis are suffering from shoulder injuries, Jack Hall has a sprained back, Kutner a sprained ankle, and Bowman an injured elbow. None of the injuries are severe and it is believed the boys will be able to play next week.

SUNDAY CLUB TO PICNIC

Members of the Sunday Club will meet at Gregg House Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock for a picnic, Dale Alderdice, president of the club, said yesterday. Those who will be late can meet the Rev. Chester L. Hulst at Gregg.

NO OPEN HOUSE TONIGHT

Sigma Alpha Mu will not hold open house Saturday night as announced by error in Friday's Daily Texan. The open house will be held from 6 to 9 o'clock, November 6.

Virginia Hall will visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Hall, in San Antonio this week-end.

Dr. C. F. Lay, professor of accounting and management, left Thursday to visit his father in Illinois. He will return Sunday.

Bears, Frogs Will Stage Grudge Tilt

When T.C.U. meets Baylor at Waco today a brilliant team will be seeking revenge against a fighting team. The Frogs still remember a 6-to-0 beating that they took from the Bears last year and they are determined that the Waco club will be on the short end of the score after today's tilt.

Coach Meyer of T.C.U. has staged practice behind police-guarded walls during the last week. Evidently, he is hunting for a foolproof defense against the passing of Bullet Bill Patterson. On addition, he must find a way of getting pass receivers behind the "good old Baylor line." The T.C.U. ace, Little Davey O'Brien, won't do the Frogs much good if the Bears bottle up the men who are supposed to catch his passes.

Baylor is equally eager to win the game. If Bill Patterson could outwit O'Brien in a hot passing contest he would be in line for an all-American berth. Consequently, the Baylor boys will be struggling to make Patterson's bullet-like passes stick. He is their best chance for a win. The Baylor line is dwarfed by the huge forward wall of the Fort Worth team. No single man in the Baylor backfield has much hope of consistently penetrating the T.C.U. line while Hale and Aldrich are in it.

All in all, T.C.U. should win the game Saturday. They are a heavier, better-rated team. They are defending an excellent chance at a Rose Bowl bid. The game is not one to be on though. It is a grudge game and Baylor likes nothing better than a fight against superior odds, so the Bears will be backing Mr. Patterson to the limit.

Aggies Pit Todd Against Arkansas Passes

One of the hottest fights in the Southwest will take place on Kyle Field today when the "Arkansas Aerial Bomber" meets Dick Todd and his "Fighting Aggies." Although both teams are probably already out of the running, barring a mishap to T.C.U., as far as the Southwest Conference title is concerned, the two aggregations will be making a determined effort to stay in the first division.

Arkansas has won one conference game and lost two. T.C.U. won over the Hogs by one touchdown, and Baylor kicked a deciding field goal to defeat them in the last thirty seconds of play. Texas was the Razorbacks' victim by the overwhelming score of 42-6.

The Aggies were beaten by Davey O'Brien and his Horned Frogs to the tune of 34-6, and were held to a 6-6 deadlock by Baylor's Bullet Bill Patterson.

The clash this afternoon will be between Dick Todd's flashing feet and powerful ground attack on the part of A.M. opposing the mighty aerial thrusts of the Arkansas machine. And although both the Frogs and the Bears proved that the Aggies are woefully weak on pass defense, the Farmers' fine running backs should be enough to defeat this pass crazy Arkansas team that has fired 154 times through the air in five games.

Coach Homer Norton will probably start the Aggie backfield combination of Todd, Kimbrough, Rogers, and Thomason that was so effective at Waco last week against the Razorbacks.

Intramurals

By PORKY WILLIAMS
Texan Sports Staff

THE INTRAMURALS continued their ever narrowing games as the semi-finals for division honors started Friday afternoon. Several of the stronger teams displayed their power and maintained their winning streaks. It's anybody's title yet.

Dekes 4, Kappa Sigs 2

The Dekes had a strenuous afternoon Friday. They played off their game with the Delta Taus which was called Thursday because of time with the score six all. In Friday's sequence they made three more runs and the game ended, 9-6, in their favor. Later the Dekes met and defeated the Kappa Sigs to gain a place in the fraternity finals. Bob Coleman played well for the Kappa Sigs when he picked up a hard grounder at third and made a fast throw to first for a double play. Jack Roben tripled in the fourth and brought in three runs.

Rustlers 9, Ferguson House 3

WITH HEAVY hitting in the first three innings, the Rustlers continued their victory march and ran up nine counts against the Ferguson House. Morris Mann played a good ball in the Rustler left field and knocked in two runs during his three times at bat. The two Rustler pitchers, Elton Haily and Herb Clanton, allowed the Fergusons only six hits and three runs.

Little Campus 5, Prather Hall 1

Little Campus' first score came in the first inning when a double by Croucher brought in Choniski. Reynolds of L.C.D. doubled in the fourth with the bases loaded to bring in three more counts. Fleetwood made a triple in the seventh and it was in this inning that Prather made its only count, Muir singling with the bases loaded. The game was punctuated with heavy hitting by the Little Campus ten and the ability of the infield to cope with any hits made against them. Especially good in the L.C.D. infield was Croucher. He made ten plays during the game, stretching his rangy frame for the ball whenever it came near his side of the field. Croucher has a brother who plays shortstop for the Detroit Tigers.

Beaumont Club 4, Progressive Czechs 2

BEAUMONT started its batting streak in the fifth and scored three runs. Grimes got a double and Earnway followed with a single to put him on third. Patrick came up with a single scoring Grimes and Conway. He was in turn knocked in with a single by Smith. Patrick again scored in the seventh for the final run. The Czechs made their counts in the fourth with Slovacek swashing out a homer and Horak scoring afterwards.

A.T.O. 7, Chi Phi 3

Coming from behind, the A.T.O.'s passed and held the Chi Phi's who started out in the first inning by scoring two runs, Dick Rolle knocking them in with a double. The A.T.O.'s tightened down but Brant Cox succeeded in making a homer in the seventh. Jack Busley also scored on a homer for the A.T.O.'s, knocking in three runs at the same time to clinch the game.

Cavaliers 5, Collegians 5

ALTHOUGH they played seven innings of good fast baseball, the Cavaliers and the Collegians ended in a tie score when the game was called. The Collegians showed up well in the first inning, Fay Vascon, bringing in two runs. Two innings later the Cavaliers went on a rampage to score five runs before they could be checked. The Collegians rallied in the fifth for their other two runs and the game ended with a tie.

Tigers Close Home Season By Defeating McMurry, 19-6

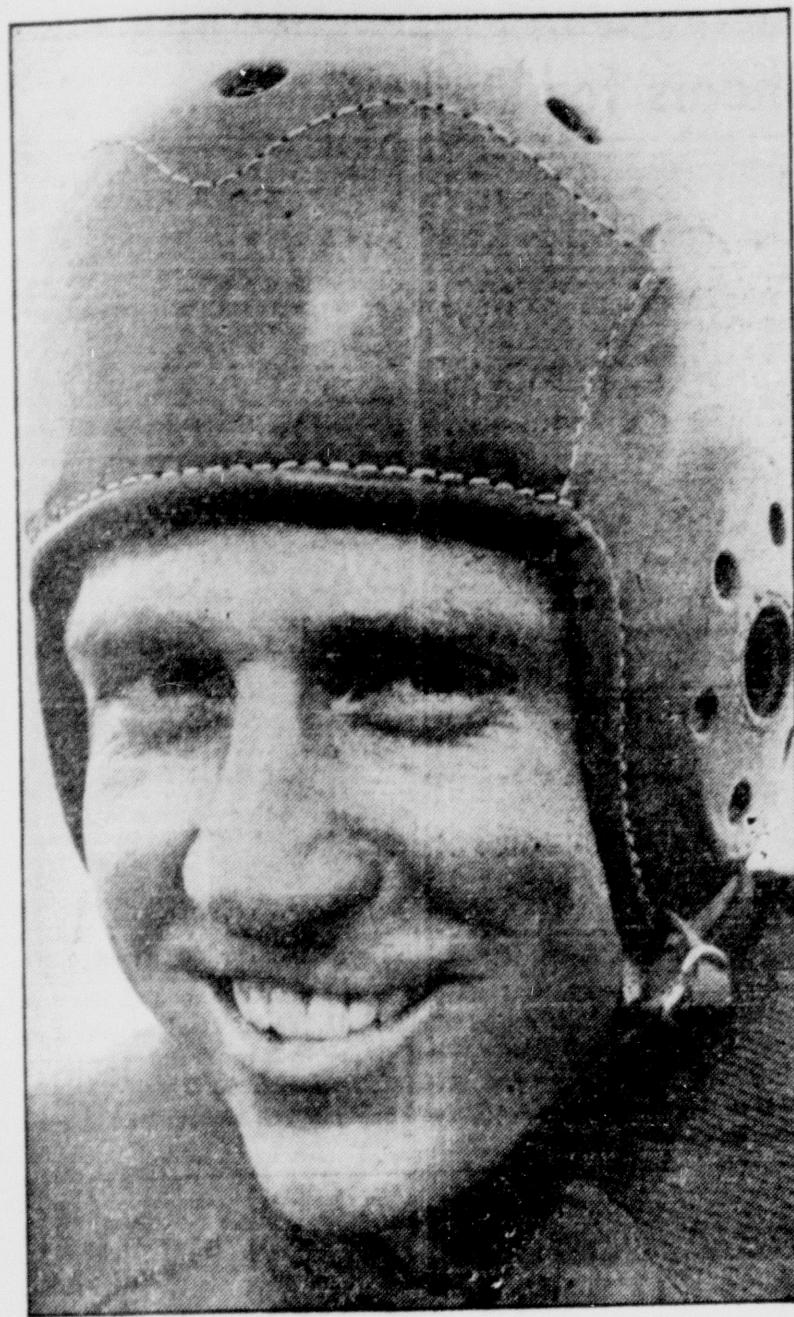

By CLYDE LA MOITE
Texan Associate Sports Editor

Bill Pierce's St. Edwards Tigers scored their second Texas Conference victory of the season by turning back the McMurry Indians, 19-6, at House Park last night. It was the first time St. Edwards has ever beaten the Abilene team.

"Shock troops" started the game for the Tigers and effectively battered holes in the weak Indian line. Taking the opening kick-off back to their 42-yard line, the Tiger second string staged a 58 yard drive for a touchdown without losing possession of the ball. With Frank Merrem and Robert Jens doing most of the ball-carrying, the Tigers pushed down to the McMurry 16-yard line. With the running attack threatening to falter, Leo Ermis dropped back and shot a pass to Floyd Montgomery who went five yards for the first score.

The Tiger first string entered the game and was a bit slower in getting under way. However, in the second quarter Stoner returned Bill Emerson's punt ten yards to

Sprague Number Four

Charlie Sprague, S.M.U. captain and end, is the last of four football playing brothers from Oak Cliff, Dallas. Sprague played center for the Ponies in 1936, tackle last year, and is now rounding out his career at end. His brother, Bud, played with Texas and Army; Howard and Johnny played with S.M.U., the latter having performed with the Rose Bowl team of 1935.

Cheerful Charlie

By JOE NEISER

THE Southern Methodist Pony was roped in Chicago, 7-0, by an unknown wrangler named Marquette and was then neatly branded by a hang and rattle man from Smoketown, 34-7. Some stock men from up Dallas way think that this critter is the toughest thing on four feet since Tony Galento started walking on his hind legs. They relate tales of how this Mustang throws more men than a pop calculus quiz, but then people from that part of the country are great shakes at throwing things. After the way these men from Austin handled themselves at Houston last week-end, the happenings in Memorial Stadium should be rougher than an Arkansas detour. That renovated Texas line will have the Mustangs as nervous as a freshman in the dean's office. The local boys are due to feast this week, even if it is horse meat. Texas 13, S.M.U. 7.

late in the game when Emerson finally began connecting with his passes, the Abilene team fought a determined but hopeless battle.

The starting line-ups were as follows: McMurry—Wood and Weaver, ends; Click and Carter, tackles; Burleson and Coleman, guards; McCasland, center; Gray, Dickey, Gann, and Peek, backs.

St. Edwards—Montgomery and Nassour, ends; Potts and Meeks, tackles; Shaw and Thaddeus, guards; Mireur, center; Vargo, Ermis, Jens and Merren, backs.

McMurry was helpless on offense during the first half. Had it not been for the booming punts and sterling defensive play of Emerson, the Indians would scarcely have remained in the ball game. Emerson's punting for the first half averaged 48 yards.

It was Emerson who sparked the McMurry rally in the last half that enabled the Indians to play on almost even terms. Making seven first downs and scoring

Six Elevens Agree to Play In Cotton Bowl

DALLAS, Oct. 28.—(INS)—A holdout by Texas A.&M., which refused to pledge itself that if Southwest Conference champion it would play in the annual Cotton Bowl football game, left matters in much the same shape today as ever, although a permanent organization was formed to conduct the contest.

A group of businessmen and school representatives, meeting here yesterday, set up the Cotton Bowl Athletic Association, as requested by conference officials. All but the Aggie spokesman promised to do their utmost to have their schools take part in the game, if conference champion.

Dan D. Rogers of Dallas, a vigorous supporter of Texas Christian University, was elected president of the group. Major J. R. Parton of Houston was named vice-president; Earl B. Smyth of Dallas, treasurer, and James H. Stewart of Dallas, secretary.

J. Curtis Sanford, organizer of the game, remained in the wheelhouse, under the title of director general.

Freshman Club Holds Fall Retreat Sunday

The Freshman Fellowship Club will hold its annual fall retreat Sunday afternoon and night at Inspiration Point on the Colorado River. Council members, one hundred and twenty in number, including upperclass sponsors and freshmen, will meet at the Y.M.C.A. Building at 2 o'clock.

The retreat is to complete plans for the club's fall term activities. The program will include games, committee meetings, a steak supper, and a campfire program.

South Hull, chairman of the program for the fall retreat, will be assisted by Marjorie Ann Kessler. Miss Augusta Roberts will have charge of the campfire worship service. Wayne Ashmore is in charge of singing. Virginia Knepper will play the violin, and Charles Petet will lead the campfire program.

Charles Petet and Lois Crow are co-chairmen of the freshman program. Eleanor Bishop and Jackson Hinds are co-presidents. Mary Blucher and Stanley Banks are co-vic-presidents. Gladys Knepper and James Pope are co-secretaries.

The social committee members: Anna Munger, chairman, Mary Herod, sponsor, Patsy Williams, Barbara Drier, Marion Caldwell, Winston Lindsay, Bill Johnston, Mac Wiley.

Fine arts committee: Margaret Johnston, chairman, Jack Huber, sponsor, Jean Templin, Charles Heath.

Fellowship supper committee: Patti Nolen, chairman, Elizabeth Painter, sponsor, Dorothy Jean Orand, Leon Turnage, Cyrus Frost.

Reception committee: Caroline Hutchins, chairman, Frances Embury, sponsor, Constance Gossett, Gay Landersdale, Margaret Darby, Scott Henderson, Lester Moreland, Jack Webb.

Campus Clubs Give Halloween Parties This Week-End

With the approach of Halloween and the S.M.U.-Texas game, numerous organizations are entertaining over the week-end. Halloween decorations predominate the color scheme with apple-bobbing, ghost-story telling, and spook rooms adding atmosphere and interest.

Friday night offered a variety of entertainment. Alpha Xi Delta had a Halloween supper and dance at the chapter house; Carothers Dormitory, Kirby Hall, and Woman's Building each held open houses; Theta Xi gave a Halloween game party at the chapter house; the swimming team held open house in Texas Union 316; and the Sphinx Club entertained with a dance in the Assembly Hall of the Architecture Building.

Also Temple Club members celebrated with a dance in the Texas Union Junior Ballroom; Hutchinson House gave a dance at the house; Beta Theta Pi members entertained with a buffet supper; members of Houston Club went to the Municipal Country Club for a party; and MICA members gave a dance in Gregory Gym.

Kappa Alpha, Delta Kappa Epsilon, Kappa Sigma, and Alpha Tau Omega fraternities will hold open houses at their chapter houses Saturday night from 8 to 11 o'clock. Sigma Phi Epsilon will entertain alumnae visitors with a Halloween open house from 8 to 11 o'clock.

Tau Delta Phi will hold open house from 8 to 11 o'clock Saturday night. Chapters will be Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Ettinger, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Snyder, Dean and Mrs. Arno Nowotny, Dr. and Mrs. S. Greenburg, and Miss Tillie Oderbotz.

'Come on Over!'

Rosemary Lane seems to be giving somebody the come-hither, dressed for the occasion in a tailored pair of white sharkskin trousers and short-sleeved jacket. A gaily colored scarf is tucked into the collar and a fetching cap is set at a rakish angle.

Mrs. Degler Honors New Faculty Wives

Three newcomers whose husbands are connected with the College of Engineering at the University were honored with a tea Thursday by Mrs. Howard Degler. The honorees were Mrs. V. L. Doughtie, formerly of Lubbock; Mrs. H. L. Kent, formerly of Stillwater, Okla.; and Mrs. R. W. Warner, formerly of Lawrence, Kan.

Yellow and bronze chrysanthemums formed the centerpiece for the tea table, which was laid with an Italian cutwork cloth. Silver candelabra with gold tapers were arranged at each end of the table.

Mrs. W. Calhoun served tea to the guests. They were assisted in the serving by Mrs. Banks McLaurin, Mrs. Paul J. Thompson, Mrs. Byron Short, and Mrs. Carl Eckhardt.

CLUB TO ENTERTAIN

The Arkansas Club will entertain with a picnic Sunday afternoon at Goat Ranch on the Barton Springs Road. Members will meet at 4 o'clock at Gregory Gymnasium. Assessments for the picnic should be paid Saturday at a table in the Library corridor.

Airwaves

Biggest radio news today is the return to the air of "Seven Days on Forty Acres" for its second season. The thirty-minute variety program sponsored by The Daily Texan will be broadcast over KNOW from the stage of Hogg Memorial Auditorium beginning at 6 o'clock tonight. The public is cordially invited to witness the show.

The S.M.U.-Texas football game in Memorial Stadium will be broadcast over KNOW beginning at 2:20 this afternoon.

This will be a rare night indeed for swing fans. Benny Goodman, the King himself, will be heard over WLW at 11:15 for a very, very short fifteen minutes. Bob Crosby will follow at 11:30 over KNOW, and at 12:30 over WLW comes Glen Gray.

Marjorie Taber Queen of Austin

Marjorie Taber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Taber, was named Queen of Austin on the stage of the Shrine show, "Soaring High," last night at 10 o'clock. The selection of Miss Taber was made just before the finale of the last performance of the show.

Miss Taber is an employee in the State Department of Public Safety. She was sponsored by the team captained by Art Wilke. The Ben Hur Shrine Patrol acted as escorts for the ten girls in the running for the title of Queen of Austin.

Tau Delta Phi will hold open house from 8 to 11 o'clock Saturday night. Chapters will be Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Ettinger, Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Snyder, Dean and Mrs. Arno Nowotny, Dr. and Mrs. S. Greenburg, and Miss Tillie Oderbotz.

The house party was composed of Mrs. M. L. Begeman, Mrs. L. R. Benson, Mrs. N. B. Gafford, and Mrs. E. G. Keller.

ALICE ANN NITSCHKE

Now She's Young, Now She Isn't

From youth to middle age and back to youth—that's the way Alice Ann Nitschke has progressed in Curtin Club roles.

In "Call It a Day," Curtin Club play staged during the first summer semester last year, Miss Nitschke played the role of a young girl. In "Alison's House" she was the middle-aged, nagging wife of Eben Stanhope, and now in "Idiot's Delight," which opens Tuesday for a four-night run, Miss Nitschke will be a youthful British bride.

A sophomore in the College of

'I Am the Law' Continues Fad

Robinson Gives Good Performance

"I AM THE LAW."—At the State. Original story by Fred Althoff. Screen play by Jo Swerling. Photography by Henry Freulich. Produced by Everett Riskin. Directed by Alexander Hall. Released by Columbia. The cast follows:

John Lindsay ..... Edward G. Robinson
Paul Ferguson ..... Barbara O'Neil
Jerry Lindsay ..... John Beal
Frankie Halliwell ..... Wendy Barrie
Eugene Ferguson ..... Otto Kruger
Tom Ross ..... Arthur Loft
Eddie Girard ..... Marc Lawrence

Of all the forms of American art, the cinema is the most responsive to current affairs and fads. Numerous examples could be cited, but we are concerned here with the sudden switch from gangster to crusading pictures, inspired no doubt by Thomas Dewey's two-fisted campaign in New York. Such a picture is "I Am the Law," currently on the State screen.

The broad outline of the plot fits almost perfectly with Dewey's career as a special prosecutor, but we are afraid some of the details have been touched up a bit in true Hollywood fashion. Edward G. Robinson, as John Lindsay, popular professor of law at an anonymous college in a likewise anonymous town, is about to leave on a much-needed vacation when he is "drafted" as special prosecutor to clean up the rackets. Various and sundry complications follow, you may be sure, but they are too numerous and detailed to go into here. Suffice it to say that the rackets are cleaned up in a big way.

Wendy Barrie is especially good as a glorified, and we mean glorified, gun moll. John Beal is satisfactory as Robinson's chief assistant, but somehow he doesn't look like a serious lawyer should. On the whole, however, "I Am the Law" should provide a rather pleasant two hours for anyone willing to overlook certain defects characteristic to all movies.—PAT HOLT.

Swing You Sinners

Jam sessions and jitterbug "orgies" are wooing young people along the "primrose path to hell" whether you know it or not. Little Albie, or TYX-9874 as I familiarly call my carrier pigeon, has brought this astounding news to me from Biloxi, Miss. It seems that the Most Rev. Francis J. L. Beckman, archbishop of Dubuque, thinks that he who jitters shall not pass the pearly gates. Rev. Beckman goes on to say:

"Today while the church pursues as zealously as ever she has in the past her policy of motivating, conserving and drawing to herself the best of modern art, evil forces are hard at work endeavoring to undermine its Christian status, debauch its high purpose and harness it to serve individual diabolical ends."

When I read all that it makes me feel very much ashamed because, I must confess, I actually patted my foot last night while listening to Count Basie's band play "One o'Clock Jump."

Besides, if I am going to hell, just imagine what's going to happen to Cy Long.

Bouquets to the Dying

The poor, downtrodden Longhorns now have the official recognition (and we routers can go around saying this) that they actually led at one time during a football game this year. Soon after the first touchdown by the Longhorns last week at the Rice-Texas fray, the Houston Chronicle printed an afternoon edition with a headline reading something like this: "Longhorns Lead Owls." Well, the paper boys hawked their wares out at the stadium all right and I suspect many Texas routers bought copies for souvenirs. However, that wasn't all. At the end of the game when the score was you-know-what, the fans walked out of the stadium and the first thing they saw was the same boys still selling their papers with "Longhorns Lead Owls."

Success at Last

As a news flash from Rome would have it, Primo Carnera, ex-circus performer, ex-prizefighter, ex-champion, ex-vaudeville hooper, and ex-artist, has at last settled down to a profession. As the news report says, Mr. Carnera is cast in a new Italian film, "Park Crossing," as a dumb waiter who "goes berserk and breaks up everything within reach."

Well, perhaps this is one job he won't become an ex on. At least I'll guarantee he'll break up everything he is not supposed to.

Cutist Little Nudist

Sally Rand and Faith Bacon, who have been arguing as to who originated the fan dance, have recently been put in the shade and I'll bet Will Hays, the Puritan, is tickled to death. What has unfortunately taken them out of the limelight is the dispute between Flo Ash and Crystal Aymes. This suit is coming before the court on the same bare grounds that the Bacon-Rand scrap did.

It seems that Miss Ash has been styling herself as "the cutist little nudist." From all the evidence I can gather Miss Aymes has also been calling herself "the cutist little nudist," all of which makes two "cutist little nudists." Miss Ash says, though, that Crystal Aymes is not "the cutist little nudist," but rather a "strip teaser" and not an artistic dancer like herself.

Personally, I don't get the idea. To me it doesn't make a bit of difference which is the cutist.

Cops and Robbers

It seems that it has fallen to the lot of the Japanese to get away from profiteering munitions makers in the forgotten Chinese-Japanese fracas. The latest and only report of the Japanese police is that the Japs have quit using even blank cartridges in their guns.

In Canton recently a Japanese police force was looking for looters. Upon discovering some they made an effort to shoot the robbers by simply pointing their guns and shouting "bang." And, it was a pretty effective way of getting rid of the looters.

Now, if all wars would limit their shooting to simply a pointing of guns and a shouting of "bang" at the opportune time things would be a lot better for most of us. Why, then even I could go to war because I have quite a bit of practice on this cops and robbers business for I seem to remember doing essentially the same thing in the early part of my life.

The professor relented with this condition: "You can do so on the condition that you leave off make-up. I want my students to look at the cows and horses instead of you."

From the Hardin-Simmons Brand:
Latin is dead language,
As dead as dead can be;
It killed off all the Romans,
And now it's killing me.

Lifted from the exchange column of the Campus of S.M.U. "The Temple paper says that the T.C.U. pass receivers had to catch those passes in self-defense. That, or get their noses bruised. Things have come to a pretty pass . . . unquote."

When S.M.U. and A.M. get together and play football, a date bureau will be in full swing on the S.M.U. campus to take care of those "lonesome Aggies." We knew an Aggie, once, girls, so watch your step—he drank a quart of beer in forty-five seconds.

The skeleton of a huge dinosaur may be excavated and placed in Colorado's museum—if the paleontologist of the University of Colorado has his hopes realized. However, five miles of road and two bridges will have to be built before the remains of the prehistoric animal can be removed from the top of a hill. The costs for collecting the dinosaur will be $3,500, and for repairing and setting it up, $15,000.

Here is a case of sisterly love. It seems that a certain sorority at the University of North Dakota was troubled with mice. At 2 o'clock in the morning, members called another house and asked for a pledge—because, they said, they needed a cat.

Slogan Contest Winner, Sponsors

Albert Walker, student in the School of Law, was the winner of the first week's prize in the safety slogan contest sponsored by the University Safety Council, the University Co-Op, and The Daily Texan.

Walker is shown here, second from the left, as he receives the prize, a $5 Parker fountain pen, from Ed Rather, manager of the Co-Op.

John Connally, left, president of the Students' Association and member of the Safety Council, and Pat Daniels, right, editor of the Texan, were present when Walker received his prize.

The contest for the second week closes today at 1 o'clock. Further details will be found elsewhere in today's Texan.

Quidnunc

By HARRY QUIN

Everyone wondering where the crossword puzzle is and some student even making the accusation that professors have brought pressure to bear to have the thing removed so students will give more attention to lectures. Of course, that isn't true. A University professor is smarter than that. If he finds students losing interest and working puzzles he will so step up the interest of his lectures that the desire for diversion will be removed.

Of some interest were the recent statistics released showing that Americans spent $3,602,555,706.00 on alcoholic beverages last year. That makes the per capita expenditure of $29.35. The highest individual per capita expenditure was $29.35 in the District of Columbia. The residents there, however, did not consume the most alcohol even if they did buy it. They left that feat to Nevada-ers who averaged drinking more than 28 gallons a person. That's only about a gill or a quarter of a pint a day for each man, woman, and child. Some of 'em must get awfully drunk unless each one gets his full share and drinks it by the day.

Seems there is still trouble about the nights fraternities and sororities are going to meet. That isn't exactly true, though, since the sororities have definitely made up their minds and are putting on a drive to change the collective mind of the fraternities. We are all for having meetings on the same night as is Kathryn Owens, associate editor, who accuses us of tearing down all the good work of consolidation she had done.

As long as we are going to have to go back and talk about the Houston trip and the football game anyway we might pause long enough to say that Sara Cave gave a very nice party in Houston mostly for the benefit of Betsy Russell, Lucia Miller, Sarah Holmes, Frances Smith, Dick McKay, Philip Wandel, Wayne Smith, "Teetums" Taylor, and Burley Smith.

Knowing no one named Archie, and having no second grader relatives to aid us, we will just have to stand up, take Weldon Hart's criticism, and turn the other cheek. We, last year, might have sent out the little man to get the lowdown, but, alas, he is gone. Not even pretending to be as well informed footballically as Mr. Hart and being only a stadium quarterback ourselves we can say very little. We still like the way Fred Flato plays. We, too, think Bobby Moers is one of our best defensive backfield men. Not being the publicity man for the Longhorns, a right-hand man of Mr. Bible's, or the sports editor of any newspaper, we cannot hope to debate on paper with one who so utterly overshadows our own qualifications. But we still like the way Fred Flato plays and wonder if either Flato or Moers, who play the same position, could not learn the assignments of some other post fairly readily.

And now, unless we have to get up in front of the class again, we will leave the Texan's sports writing to Clarence La Roche and his boys. And Mr. Hart will probably admit we are smart in that respect at any rate.

The game Saturday is due to bring up a lot of parties. Seems

The Firing Line

The following from the August issue of the Hoshi Shim-bun (Japanese newspaper) of Tokyo, Japan, may be of interest to your readers.

"The current trouble regarding university autonomy began with Education Minister Sadao Araki's statement to the President of Imperial University last Thursday. He declared that there is no legal basis for the existing methods of selecting presidents, deans, professors, and laboratory directors and that in his opinion they must be stopped."

"Despite this, leaders of the Tokyo Imperial University have decided to oppose the Education Minister, arguing that there is no need for a change. It seems to us that Japan is being unified steadily on a totalitarian basis."

General Araki is a fascist leader.

POET'S RELEASE

OUT OF SORROW
I shall arise and go
Out to the boundless sea,
And mayhap there a star
Will whitely shine for me.

Mayhap a dancing sail
Upon a blue wave's crest
Will take, with gentle hands,
This crying from my breast.

—RUBY SMITH.

PORTRAIT OF AN AUTUMN NIGHT

The dusk is a dream of silver,
And deep in the glowing west
A low star shines through a pine tree
In shimmering moonbeams dressed.

—RUBY SMITH.

The University Part

HE SEEN his duty and done it."

This is hardly proper grammar for University professors, but that epic tribute to one who has had the courage to sacrifice for the preservation of another is due to faculty and staff members of the University for the enthusiastic boost they are giving the Austin Community Chest campaign this week.

Professors and staff members here are not hermits who restrict their bounds of society to the Forty Acres' periphery, neither are they as a whole ones to theorize away their immediate responsibility with the idle hope that another expensive dream will be conjured up at Washington to alleviate the demands of a society slightly askew. There sphere of healthy influence, the good-citizenship that gives a respectable environment to a fast-growing city, will reach many who are finding themselves at least temporarily out on the tag-end of Austin's social make-up.

Under the leadership of Dean T. H. Shelby, campus chest chairman, University people are showing the splendid community spirit which built American cities, the perspective that built a state founded on people richly endowed with a social conscience quick to respond to the needs of the underprivileged.

Thirteen agencies designed to care for the needy and to institute character-forming programs that definitely benefit Austin youth are the recipients of those who have "seen their duty and done it."

CLIPPED COMMENT

Visiting Professor

THE INVITATION of Brown University to Eduard Benes, who recently resigned as president of Czechoslovakia, to accept a "visiting professorship" may well prove advantageous to both.

If Benes chooses to leave his country temporarily, what better position could he hold than a professorship in an American university, where he can live peacefully for a time in contact with several of his close relatives?

For Brown University his acceptance would mean a valuable addition to its teaching staff—an addition which would enhance that institution's curriculum, especially in courses dealing with international affairs.—OKLAHOMA DAILY.

Straight from the Creightonian comes this: "One of the more popular brands of coffee is advertised as being extra fresh because it is 'dated.' But the girls know that coffee isn't the only thing that is fresh when it is dated." Now, now, girls.

One instructor at Texas Tech has the right idea, to say the least. A co-ed desired enrollment in animal husbandry—a course for men only. Finally
