Stark Debaters Speak Tonight

The Department of Speech will sponsor the annual H. J. Litcher Stark debating contest at 7:30 p.m. Thursday in Batts Auditorium.

"Resolved: That the federal government should guarantee higher education to all qualified high school graduates through grants to colleges and universities" will be the debate topic.

The contest is open to members of the University varsity debate team only. The first prize is $100, and the second prizes are $75 and $50 respectively. The prizes have been given every year since 1926 by H. J. Litcher Stark, former University chairman of the Board of Regents.

This year's finalists, in the order in which they will speak, are Cameron Hightower, Jim Clark, Mike Brimble, David Shapiro, Irven DeVore, Robert Jungman, Bert Adkins, and Larry Haile. Directors of the contest are Professor T. A. Rousse, chairman of the speech department, and Dr. Don Williams, director of Forensics. The debate is open to the public.

Smith Appointed Managing Editor

Vaden Smith, Texan news editor, was appointed managing editor of the Texan Wednesday by the non-editorial committee of the Texas Student Publications Board of Directors.

Smith is the son of the editor of the Bay City Tribune. While employed by his father, Smith worked in all departments of the newspaper.

The new managing editor sees his job for the coming year as one of organization and setting up a system of reporting patterned after professional newspapers' beat systems. He said that he would try to install continuity to the reporting system of the Texan by sending a younger staff member along with older reporters while they are getting stories. He said that under this system when a senior graduates there will be an experienced person to fill his shoes.

Stars, Planets To Have Part In Power Show

The 47th University Power Show and Exposition, to be held Friday from 6 to 10 p.m., will include exhibits and displays entered by sixteen different departments on the campus, plus work entered by the Texas Highway Department.

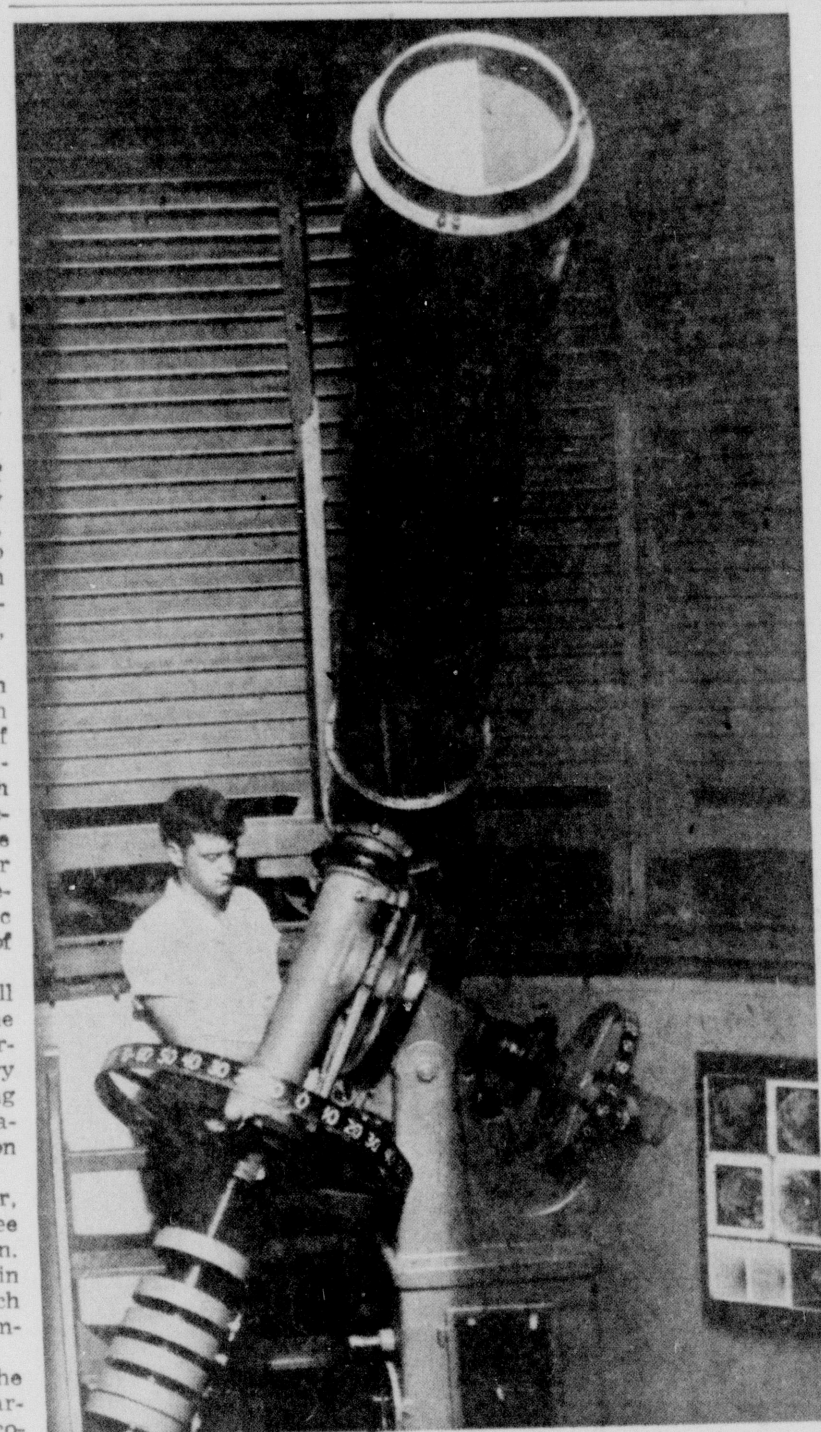

One of the main attractions of the show will be the Observatory located atop the Physics Building, which will be open from 7:30 to 10:30. The Observatory, built in 1932, several years after the Physics Building itself was completed, cost $15,000.

Constellations and planets can be viewed by the spectator through four telescopes: a nine and one-half inch refractor, a three-inch Meddian transit instrument, a five-inch refractor, and a three-inch refractor. The skeleton (or base) of the telescope was designed by Warner and Swasey Company of Cleveland, Ohio, and the microscope lenses are by James Brashear of Allegheny, Pa.

Visitors to the Power Show will also see an automatic machine puff cigarettes, a miniature tornado whip across an imaginary landscape, a rocket ship launching area, and other displays emphasizing the theme, "Automation Through Engineering."

Through a glass-topped freezer, visitors will be enabled to see clouds seeded to produce rain. Other weather displays will explain freakish weather conditions, such as the Austin snowfall in November, 1955.

Participating in the show are the Colleges of Engineering and Pharmacy, Department of Home Economics, Radio-Television, and the University Branches of Army, Navy, and Air Force ROTC.

Pharmacy's Lures to Include Aspirin, Morose 'Hepsibah'

"The Life of an Aspirin Tablet" will be the featured exhibit of the College of Pharmacy in the all-University Power Show from 6 to 10 p.m.

The history of the aspirin from its original synthesis to the actual dispensing of the tablets, will be traced by various displays in the Pharmacy Building, Vernon A. Green, assistant professor of pharmacology, announced. The effect of aspirin and other drugs on rabbits, guinea pigs, turtles, hamsters, and other animals will be shown.

"Hepsibah," a white rabbit with "Horner's syndrome," will be on display in the pharmacology lab. The condition has been artificially induced by various drugs so that the pupil of one of her eyes is smaller than the other. An associated case of ptosis gives her drooping eyelids to add to her morose appearance.

Included in the menagerie of experimental animals will be were not included in last year's printed programs, the demonstrations drew a large crowd. A public address system following across the Experimental Science parking lot and a purple phosphorescent sign on the side of the Pharmacy Building will help lure the crowds this year.

All of the ground floor entrances to the air-conditioned building will be open from 6 to 10 p.m. An information booth will be set up. Members of Kappa Psi, Phi Delta Chi, and Kappa Epsilon will serve as guides for the tour, which will take from 15 to 30 minutes.

Students to Hear J. P. Bass Tonight

A joint meeting of the American Marketing Association and Delta Nu Alpha will hear James P. Bass, San Antonio sales manager for American Airlines, Thursday at 7 p.m. in Waggener Hall 101.

The topic for his talk will be "The Vacation and Pleasure Travel Market."

Mr. Bass graduated from the University in 1941 with the degree of bachelor of business administration. While attending the University, he was employed by the Texas Railroad Commission.

After graduation, he joined the Pennsylvania Railroad in the Freight Traffic Department. In 1944 Mr. Bass joined the American Airlines as a cargo sales representative. In 1947 he was appointed to his present position in San Antonio.

A note from JH in the Fodder box:

"The other day as my roommate and I were leaving our garage apartment on West Twenty-third Street, we noticed two city garbage trucks that had converged at the same point at the same time. Both were trying to get by a parked car on the narrow street.

"Neither driver would give in and a battle of words flew. Finally one of the drivers backed up, but just enough to let the other truck pass. On the back of each truck was a large sign:

League History Told by Bedichek In Current Work

Author to Present Book at Breakfast Of Meet Delegates

"Educational Competition," a new book presenting the story of the University Interscholastic League of Texas, will be presented Saturday morning at 7:30 a. m. at the annual State Meet delegates' breakfast in the Driskill Hotel.

The book was written by Roy Bedichek, director emeritus of the University's Bureau of Public School Service, and will go on sale in the Driskill Hotel lobby immediately after the breakfast. Mr. Bedichek will autograph copies.

Printed by the University of Texas Press, the volume sells for $6.50. In it Mr. Bedichek evaluates rivalry as a motivating force in education and of interscholastic competitions as a means of turning to advantage the strong competitive spirit in human nature.

Mr. Bedichek has been over 30 years executive director of the pioneering organization whose half-century of history he recounts.

The thesis of the book is that the paramount function of public education is to give every child an opportunity to develop fully his capabilities for being useful and a respectable member of a democratic society.

In his account of the development of the UIL, the author discusses in detail the criteria by which competitions have been selected for trial, and how they have been tested, organized, and administered so that time expended upon them will yield the best returns as judged by accepted educational standards.

Mr. Bedichek has written two previous books: "Adventures With a Texas Naturalist" and "Karankaway Country."

Bowman Series Will Close Today

The last lecture of the "Marriage for Moderns" series will be held Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the University YMCA-YWCA.

The topic of this lecture is "For Better or for Worse," the necessity of successful adjustment in marriage.

Dr. Henry Bowman, associate professor of sociology, who has been the leader during the series, will conduct the last program. Dr. Bowman, before joining the University staff, was chairman of the division of home and family, as well as professor of marriage education, at Stephens College.

UT, Owls, Ags in Meet Here

By NICK JOHNSON

Associate Sports Editor

It will be an abbreviated preview of the Southwest Conference track and field championships Thursday night when Texas, Texas A&M, and Rice square off in Memorial Stadium at 7 p.m.

For here are the three most powerful teams in the conference, with the possible exception of Baylor, and it will be from among these teams that the conference championship will be determined. The field events begin at 7 p.m. and the first running event—the 440-yard relay—will be at 7:30 p.m. It will be the final appearance of the world record Texas 440-yard relay team in Memorial Stadium. One of the four—Captain Jerry Prewitt—is a senior and will be running his last race at home.

In a meet held earlier among these same teams at Houston, Texas took the title with 79½ points, Rice was second at 48½, and A&M was third at 43½.

Any of five meet records could fall here and two more are a possibility. Texas must be established as favorite but a vastly improved Aggie group could make the team title race interesting.

Among the records possible will be both relay events with Texas perhaps the leading candidate in both. Certainly in the sprint relay it will be Texas as favorite, though the 40.8 may not fall.

In the mile relay, however, possibly the three outstanding four-somes in the conference are entered and a time better than the 3:14.8 record should come out of the race. Texas holds that mark, set earlier this year at Houston. And Texas has the conference's best time at 3:12.8, A&M, however, beat Texas last Friday in Dallas and has a greatly improved team.

The one record that is least likely to fall is in the 100-yard dash. Here the record is 9.2, one-tenth seconds under the world record. And strangely enough, this mark is jointly held by two men—Carleton Terry and Dean Smith—both of Texas.

The meet records have been better in six events this year by performers who will be here Thursday. Besides both relays, the pole vault, low hurdles, discus, and the 220-yard dash records have been equalled or bettered.

Aggie Winton Thomas, one of the tri-holders of the pole vault mark at 13-8, has bettered that

Block Smith to Retire As Secretary of 'Y'

By WILLIAM CLAYTON

W. A. "Block" Smith, retiring executive secretary of the Student Christian Association, was honored Wednesday night at the installation banquet for new "Y" officers.

Mr. Smith gave the first formal announcement of his intention to retire Wednesday night. He has served as executive secretary for 35 years. And for his outstanding service he was presented a complete set of "The Interpreter's Bible."

The new secretary will be Frank Wright, who has been general secretary of the "Y" at Washington University. A dinner will be given in Mr. Smith's honor May 17 in the Texas Union.

He began working with the "Y" early. During the First World War, he organized the first officers' YMCA at Leon Springs. He returned to the University, where he received a degree in civil engineering, as a machine-gun instructor at the aviation ground school and later at Little Campus.

Mr. Smith headed the YMCA relief for allied troops and prisoners in the Far East, for which he was awarded the Czech War Cross for services in evacuation of Czech soldiers from Vladivostok in 1920. Since 1921, he has worked with the University YMCA-YWCA activities.

Reed Benson Says

GOP Farm Supports Right for US People

By JO ANN DEATON

The Republicans are trying to help not only the American farmer, but they are trying to do what is right for the people as a whole, said Reed Benson, 26-year-old son of Secretary of Agriculture Ezra T. Benson.

He spoke to a crowd of Young Republicans Wednesday night on "Ike's Farm Policy."

"We are not going to do something that we will have to repent later," said Mr. Benson, "and that is what we will have to do if we insure rigid price supports for basic commodities."

Mr. Benson compared the Secretary's flexible farm price proposals to the Democrats' rigid parity prices. He said that when agriculture is socialized, we might as well check off the things in which we believe.

"Socialism will never work anywhere except in heaven where you don't need it, or in Hell where they already have it," he joked.

Farm income declined from 1947 until the Republicans came to office came into power the Democratic, said Mr. Benson. When his party came into power the Democrats' 90 per cent parity price supports had built up a surplus, but they had passed no legislation to get rid of them, he said. Months were spent by the Republicans in reviewing the agricultural policy of the nation.

Mr. Benson paid tribute to several Democratic senators throughout his talk and Senator Holland (D-Fla.) in particular. He said that Senator Holland rose on the Senate floor and pointed out to Senator Humphrey (D-Minn.) that the United States had surpluses under the Democrats as well as the Republicans. The problem, said Senator Holland, was not going to be settled by party politics alone.

"The land is neither Republican nor Democrat," said Mr. Benson, backing up Senator Holland's quotation. "It responds to both political parties."

Mr. Benson pointed out to his audience that war brought prosperity to the farmer and to the nation. If there is anyone who wants to take credit for prosperity, he said, that person must also take credit for the war.

'Disch Day' Set for Today

Frosh Face Baylor Cubs In Waco Tilt

With his two top pitchers on the injury list, Coach Jack Trench was looking for a dependable hurler Thursday as the undefeated Texas Yearlings travel to Waco for a return match with the stubborn Baylor Cubs.

Game time is 2:30 at spacious Baylor Field.

Howard Reed, the Shorthorns' mainstay and number one pitcher, suffered a minor back injury Tuesday in a physical education class. The team physician, however, said that the big righthander may be ready by game time.

A pulled leg muscle was troubling Kenny Moursund, the other Shorthorn pitching ace, in practice this week, and he is another doubtful.

Earlier this season the Yearlings had to erase a four-run deficit to gain a 9-6 decision after the Cubs hit Reed for four runs in the fifth inning.

Depending on Reed's condition, Coach Trench will probably call on a newcomer, Junious Kyle, to face the Cubs. Kyle, a tall righthander from Orange, specializes in a side-arm sinker and almost perfect control.

The Cubs, owners of a 4-4 season record, were undecided on a starter with either lefty Rudy Roughton or Bob Cullison, a righthander, likely to oppose the Yearlings.

If the Cubs decide to start Roughton, the Shorthorns will fill their line-up with righthanded hitters. That sends Bob Verplank to first base, Ted Ferguson to second, Joe Barker to third base, Don Brittain to shortstop, Pete Embry behind the plate, Kermit Decker to left field, Gareth Jackson to center field, and Bob Bourchard to right field.

Big Times Coming For UIL Athletes

Friday morning at 8 o'clock the forty-sixth Interscholastic League meet will get under way here as the golfers tee off at Austin Municipal Golf Course.

Links play will be followed closely by the big track meet as the preliminaries begin at Municipal Stadium at 8:25 a.m. Some of the powerful high school track squads this year are Baytown, Lamar of Houston, Pasadena, Ray of Corpus Christi and Highland Park.

As has been the case for the last few years, the relay events will be the center of interest. No less than six schools have run 43.4 or below in the 440-yard relay.

Some of the individual stars who will shine on the cinders this week end are Harry Moreland of Fort Worth Arlington Heights, who has run a 9.7 100-yard dash, hurdler Donald Beard of Thorndale, who turned in a sensational 13.9 in the high hurdles last week, and Reagan of Houston's broad jumper Leonard Fawcett, who has approached 24 feet.

Sandy Stars Headed for Tech

LUBBOCK, May 2 (AP) — Two Amarillo high school basketball stars will attend Texas Tech. Coach Polk Robison said athletic scholarships have been granted Gene Arrington, 6-4, forward, and Robert Echols, 6-1, guard.

Harry Taylor Goes After Baylor at 3

By EDDIE HUGHES
Texas Sports Staff

Cellar-dwelling Texas, far off from their predecessors of earlier years, try to accomplish what the teams of 1953, 1954, and 1955 couldn't do: capture a victory on their annual Disch Day.

It's Disch Day Thursday as the Longhorns host the Baylor Bears in a two-game Southwest Conference baseball series at Clark Field, and Coach Bibb Falk's charges have yet to take a Disch Day victory in three years. Game time Thursday will be 3 p.m.

Young Harry Taylor, an eleven-inning, 4-3 victim of the Bears earlier in the season in Waco, will toil on the hill for the Longhorns. And ironically enough, his opposing moundman will be Jack Goodwyn, the Bruin hurler who bested the Texas sophomore star in the eleven-inning tilt.

Taylor is 1-5 in conference play, three losses by one run.

Lettermen under the late William J. Disch and members of the Disch family are the guests of honor for the third annual event, which is staged in memory of the Longhorn coach of 1911 through 1939. Twenty of his teams from 1915 through 1939 won the SWC baseball championship.

Texas' 2-8 conference record is the worst by a Texas baseball team in history at this stage of the race. No Texas team has ever lost more than eight games in the SWC. Last year they were 7-8.

Fielding, which has plagued the Steers throughout the season, seems to be looking better. After twice committing seven errors behind the pitching of Taylor, the Steers went eleven innings against the Aggies and committed no errors. They continued their streak against Rice in the first game of their two-game series: no errors in nine innings.

Pitching has improved, although Taylor has been rather brilliant most of the season. The bright picture in the pitching department, no doubt, comes from the performances of Wayne Graham, and from the relief stints of Ray Stauffacher and Oren Buckellew.

But to offset these improvements is Texas hitting. It may not be so dim, however, against Baylor if the Longhorns continue their pace displayed during practice this week.

Although Texas' leading batsman, third baseman Jerry Good, slacked off from his usual performance against Rice, catcher George Gainley and Graham filled up the hole, with several base knocks in the series with Rice last week.

Friday, in the concluding game of the series, Texas will go with Graham (1-2 in conference) while Baylor may go with Jerry Mallett, who gave up fourteen runs in four innings against TCU last week.

NCAA Slaps Auburn With Long Probation

By The Associated Press

NEW ORLEANS — The National Collegiate Athletic Association's Council Wednesday placed Auburn on probation for three years and warned the school that any infractions during the period may lead to expulsion from the NCAA.

Auburn's probation period was the longest ever handed down by the NCAA. In addition the University of Florida and the University of Louisville were put on probation—for two years.

These schools joined Texas A&M, Kansas, and Mississippi College on the probation list. The latter three were placed on the list Tuesday. Auburn, whose punishment is by far the most severe, cannot appear in those selected invitational events which co-operate with the NCAA in its enforcement program.

COLLEGE STATION — Officials of Texas A&M expressed surprise at action of the NCAA placing the Ags on probation until May 14, 1957.

"There has not been a single case involving recruitment during the past year," said Dr. David H. Morgan, president of the college. He said that the college has lived up to rules and "we will continue to do so."

Yankees Beaten By Tigers, 8-1, On Three-Hitter

NEW YORK, May 2 (AP)—Detroit's Frank Lary set back the New York Yankees with three hits Wednesday 8-1 as the Tigers battered Johnny Kucks, Rip Coleman, and Mickey McDermott for fifteen hits including a three-run homer by Frank House.

Mickey Mantle's sixth homer leading off the ninth robbed Lary of his shutout bid but the defeat sunk the Yankees into second place, 22 percentage points behind the idle Chicago White Sox.

CINCINNATI — The Cincinnati Redlegs, who have used a home-run hitting binge to build up a six-game winning streak, cracked five more circuit wallops Wednesday as they whipped the Brooklyn Dodgers, 10-6. Gus Bell got two of the homers Wednesday night and Wally Post, George Crowe, and Ray Jablenski each got one.

ST. LOUIS — Pinch-hitter Alex Grammas squeeze-bunted Rip Repulski across the plate in the last of the tenth here Wednesday to give the St. Louis Cardinals a 10-9 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates. Forty-one players got into the three-hour, 46-minute marathon which put the Cardinals back in first place in the National League.

Softballers to Seek 'Mural' Titles Tonight

By BOB GREENBERG
Texas Intramural Co-ordinator

Fraternity, Independent and Club Divisions will crown champions in softball games at Whitaker Field Thursday night. The games will begin at 7 p.m. and will be full seven-inning contests.

In the Fraternity Division, Delta Tau Delta tangles with Alpha Tau Omega. This game is billed as a pitchers' duel between the Delts' Avis Johnson and ATO's Louis Carter. Both chunkers are undefeated in league play this year. They also are members of the UTSAM softball nine.

The Delts, led by Johnson, edged the Ross Vick and his Beta Theta Pi nine, 1-0, Tuesday night to earn the right to play in the finals.

ATO ran past Sigma Phi Epsilon 3-2, also Tuesday, to get their chance at the Delts.

Carter, one of the few lefthanded

pitchers in intramural competition, is especially tough in the clutch. But the same may be said about Johnson, for in the Beta game he had men on third base for three straight innings with only one out and managed to retire them without a run.

This game will be staged on the south field.

McCracken and Brunette will meet to decide the independent title. McCracken gained the finals by winning their league without a defeat. Brunette, however, had to beat Carden House twice, after losing to them once.

AICHE will play LPHA for the Club Division championship. Both teams have about equal ratings and it should be quite close.

The independent championship game will be played on the middle field, while the Club Division teams will see action on the south field.

Shorthorn Tracksters Face Fish, Owlets, Bucs, Academy

By PAT TRULY
Texan Sports Staff

The favorite's role in the freshman division of Thursday night's track meet at Memorial Stadium must go to Texas' fleet Shorthorns, but the opposition is coming from far and wide.

Texas A&M, Rice, Victoria Junior College, and the US Air Force Academy will provide the competition. The "junior birdmen" of the all-freshman Air Academy, coached by ex-Longhorn Byron Guillory, are coming all the way from Colorado Springs, Colo.

The Yearlings are favored in at least seven events. They have the fastest times in both relays, but will once again be without the services of star sprinter Hollis Gaine. Gaine will be replaced by George Willis on the 440-yard relay. The mile quartet will be the same foursome which won in the Texas Relays in 3:18.3—Brooks Patrick, Joe Villarreal, Wallace Wilson, and Eddie Southern.

In the mile run Villarreal is a prohibitive favorite, having run a 4:11.4 in practice this year. Texas probably has the second best miler, too, in Ken Savage.

Southern should take the 120-yard high hurdles, with his chief competition coming from G. F. Alsbrook of Rice, who has a wind-blown 14.8 this year, and Bobby Singleton of Victoria. Southern ran a 14.6 in qualifying for the Texas Relays.

Wallace Wilson has run the 440 this year in 49 flat and may rate as favorite there. D. B. Livingston of the Air Force Academy is Wilson's top threat. In the javelin Bruce Parker of Texas has thrown 218 feet in practice, but is favoring a sore arm. Fred Hahn of the Shorthorns has done 190 feet.

Brooks Patrick of Texas should have a hot race in the 880, where he faces Milton Soward of Rice, one of last year's best schoolboys.

With Gaine held out, Fred Reuter of Victoria may be the class of the sprints. He won the 100 at the Texas Relays with a 16 flat. Dan Shuford of Rice has a wind-assisted 9.6 to his credit and Texas' Jimmy Watson is an improving runner.

Alsbrook has run a 23.4 with a tail wind in the low hurdles, which Southern will pass up to run in the mile relay.

In the high jump A&M's Frank Madura is a probable favorite out of a weak field. The shot put and discus also lack outstanding performers. Texas' Hahn, Parker, and Alex Palmros will contend against Rice's R. E. Gibson, who has tossed the discus 142-4 1/2 and the shot 45-4 1/2.

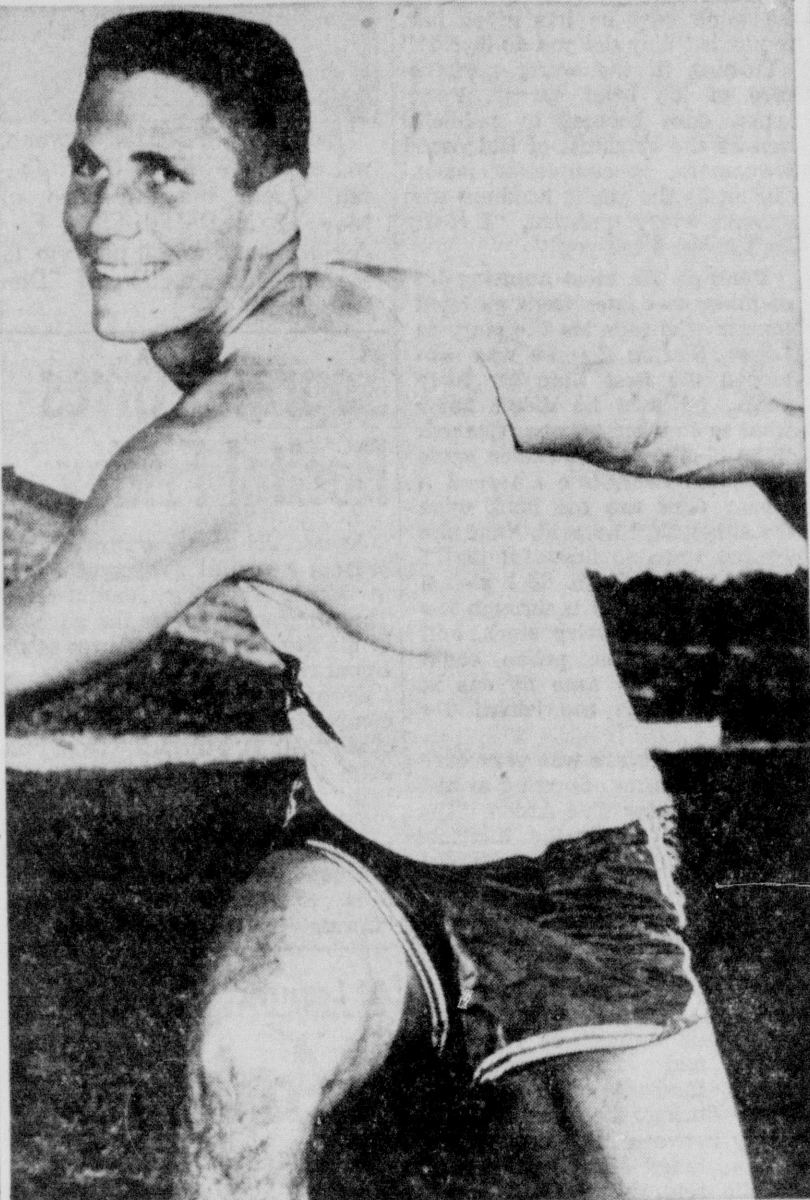

The pole vault should see a battle royal between Victoria's Charlie Bruce, last year's Class

A high school champ, and Donald Earle of A&M. Both boys can vault over 12-6.

Gaine, who injured a leg running in the Texas Relays, and sprinter-broad jumper Bobby Stillwell are both missing this meet to avoid any more trouble before the conference meet.

The weatherman predicts partly cloudy weather Thursday, which should give the sun a chance to dry the rain-soaked track and make it fast by night.

BRUCE PARKER, Texas freshman field event star, who may be in action Thursday night despite an ailing arm. Parker has thrown the javelin 218 feet in practice, although he hadn't picked one up till this spring. Considered one of Texas' best field prospects in many a year, Parker also throws the discus.

Tower Offices Emptied, But Not for Long

The tall Tower of the University is still every bit as useful, even though the Department of English has moved into its own building.

Since some 75 new members were added to the faculty this year, the 27 floors of the Tower barely provide enough offices, Byron Shipp, registrar, said.

The space left vacant was swallowed up by badly needed general offices, and three floors were kept by the Department of English, which lacks enough rooms in the new building for all its teachers.

The floors of the Tower at present are occupied by Government Sponsored Research offices, 15; Department of English, 16, 17, 18; general offices, 19, 20, 21; News and Information Service, 22; offices for classified personnel and workman's compensation, 23; Hogg Foundation for Mental Hygiene, 24; miscellaneous offices, 25; Department of Classical Languages and its library, 26, 27.

There will be no more space available, Mr. Shipp explained, until the new ROTC building is finished. Then, the Littlefield Home and the temporary buildings behind Gregory Gymnasium will be left open for office space.

Katie Steals Scenes in 'Killers'; Capitol Crop Creates Complex

"The Lady Killers," now showing at the Texas Theater, is practically a Who's Who in English Comedy for it stars that versatile actor Alec Guinness (who plays here a master criminal), is written by William Rose (who penned the wonderful "Genevieve"), and is directed by Alexander Mackendrick (who made the flawless "Man in the White Suit").

And it should be noted that all perform their respective chores well enough. Mr. Rose has concocted a simple but amusing little trifle about a gang of criminals who steal 60,000 pounds with the unwitting aid of a perfectly innocent old lady who then fouts them up so expertly that they decide to do the dear old doll in.

This could get gory but Mr. Mackendrick keeps it all appropriately gay. And as the boss of the light-fingered ones, Mr. Guinness, who has been made up into a half-crazed caricature of Humphrey Bogart, performs with his customary skill.

By the way, the rest of his mob is Herbert Lom, Cecil Parker, Danny Green, and Peter Sellers. And they do right well, but the biggest thief of 'em all, though, is a seventy year old sweet thing named Katie Johnson who, as the aged accomplice, steals the entire show out from under everybody.

I doubt if anyone has ever heard of her before, but she is obviously a skilled practitioner of the underplayed but devastating humor that English comedy has always had at its best. And if "The Lady Killers" is going to be said to belong to anyone, it should be to her.

And let us hope that she performs this brand of larceny more often. For though we all may be accused of receiving stolen goods, the risk will be worth the pleasure.

—HARRIS GREEN

"Our Miss Brooks" and "The Steel Jungle," the double-feature currently playing at the Capitol Theater seems to possess a "Jekyll-Hyde" complex—one is good, the other isn't.

In the beginning, Hollywood gave movie audiences two terrible "Jungle" struggles, "The Human Jungle" coming first, followed by "Duel in the Jungle." Abandoning the set pattern it later produced the wonderful shocker "The Blackboard Jungle." With "The Blackboard Jungle," it looked as if producers were giving the "Jungle" a decent dealing of the cards. But, with its latest epic about corruptness inside prison walls, "The Steel Jungle," the audience is sent plunging into the lowest pit of human endurance. The plot has been used so many times that the screen seemed to shake upon learning the familiar story again.

You know the story—a young bookie is sent to prison because he tried to provide a "better life" for his pregnant wife. His wife, despite the fact that she is wearing the mink coat he has given her, demands "Why did you do it, Ed?"

Turning in the worst performance of his brief career, Perry Lopez, once boomed by publicity men as the brightest of Hollywood newcomers, is completely unconvincing as the young hoodlum who answers every question, "I really don't know, I tell you!"

Perhaps the most amusing bit of dialogue comes from an aged inmate who tells his life story to Lopez. Stating that he was sentenced the first time for forty years, he said he didn't know what to do when he was released. "The meals weren't fifteen cents anymore; everytime I turned a corner cars ran me back upon the sidewalk," he said, "and the women were so beautiful that I almost went insane. So I picked up a rock, hurled it through the window of a jewelry store, and ran slow so the police could catch me. This time no one is going to make me leave! No one!"

The other feature was very care-free and amusing. Starring award-winning TV star Eve Arden, "Our Miss Brooks" tells the hilarious story about a high school English teacher who is always chasing her man, in this case a biology instructor, Philip Boynton, who also teaches at Madison High. Unlike the TV series, Miss Brooks finally wins him in this movie through the "unfair antics" of Boynton's mother and Mrs. Davis, Eve Arden's landlady. The audience roared during the discussion of naivety between Miss Brooks and Boynton called Miss Brooks naive and she retorted with the following: "I'm naive? At least I don't keep male and female guinea pigs in separate cages. Neither do I turn my back on undressed models in department store windows."

One-act play competition in conference A will be on the Hogg Auditorium stage beginning at 4:30 Thursday afternoon.

Admission for each session of four plays (excepting the conference A afternoon session which has three plays) is 75 cents for adults and 50 cents for students. Student tournament tickets for all six sessions are $1.50.

This is the 30th annual state one-act play contest. Some 700 schools entered the preliminaries this year; the 23 which will appear in Hogg Auditorium represent the top echelon of state high school dramatists.

Conference B and AA plays will follow on Friday and Saturday also in Hogg, as 234 high school dramatists invade Austin seeking the coveted state championship in their respective divisions.

The largest company is 23 from Lamar of Houston in the AA competition, Jacksonville is bringing but four. Lamar was last year's winner in AA when they presented the second act of "Our Town" by Thornton Wilder, an always-popular state final play.

This year two schools—Floydada and Cypress-Fairbanks—are presenting excerpts from Wilder's play. Both are conference A schools.

Thursday's schedule:

4:30—Kenedy "Sorry, Wrong Number"
5:00—Grand Saline "Beyond the Horizon" (Act III)
5:45—Floydada "Our Town" (Act II)
7:30—Breckenridge "Three Rats in a Maze"
8:10—Cypress-Fairbanks ... "Our Town" (special cutting)

pate and share experience in individual fields. With all exhibits in place at 2 p.m. the fiesta opens with a parade of artists and entertainers around the great oval in front of the gallery.

Exhibits include, in addition to a diversified collection of paintings by Texas artists, various crafts being produced in Texas. Visitors will be afforded the opportunity to see demonstrations of many of the crafts.

From 5:30 to 7 p.m. on opening day the oval will be converted into an out-door sidewalk cafe and a buffet dinner of foreign foods will be served there. Students of the International Club will assist in planning the dinner which includes food specialties of Afghanistan, Pakistan, the Arabian countries and Scandinavia.

In keeping with the international flavor of this year's fiesta, the International Club representatives will also sponsor an International Bazaar. The exhibits will be intermingled with such attractions as an Indian center, the International Bazaar, a mineral and stone-cutting exhibit, puppet shows, a treasure table, dancers, strolling musicians, food and drink facilities and other activities.

The fiesta will be open Friday from 3 to 9 p.m.; Saturday from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. and Sunday from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Admission is 50

'Disch Day' Set for Today

Frosh Face Baylor Cubs In Waco Tilt

With his two top pitchers on the injury list, Coach Jack Trench was looking for a dependable hurler Thursday as the undefeated Texas Yearlings travel to Waco for a return match with the stubborn Baylor Cubs.

Game time is 2:30 at spacious Baylor Field.

Howard Reed, the Shorthorns' mainstay and number one pitcher, suffered a minor back injury Tuesday in a physical education class. The team physician, however, said that the big righthander may be ready by game time.

A pulled leg muscle was troubling Kenny Moursund, the other Shorthorn pitching ace, in practice this week, and he is another doubtful.

Earlier this season the Yearlings had to erase a four-run deficit to gain a 9-6 decision after the Cubs hit Reed for four runs in the fifth inning.

Depending on Reed's condition, Coach Trench will probably call on a newcomer, Junior Kyle, to face the Cubs. Kyle, a tall righthander from Orange, specializes in a side-arm sinker and almost perfect control.

The Cubs, owners of a 4-4 season record, were undecided on a starter with either lefty Rudy Roughton or Bob Cullison, a righthander, likely to oppose the Yearlings.

If the Cubs decide to start Roughton, the Shorthorns will fill their line-up with righthanded hitters. That sends Bob Verplank to first base, Ted Ferguson to second, Joe Barker to third base, Don Brittain to shortstop, Pete Embury behind the plate, Kermit Decker to left field, Gareth Jackson to center field, and Bob Bourchard to right field.

Sandy Stars Headed for Tech

LUBBOCK, May 2 (AP) — Two Amarillo high school basketball stars will attend Texas Tech. Coach Polk Robinson said athletic scholarships have been granted Gene Arrington, 6-4, forward, and Robert Echols, 6-1, guard.

Big Times Coming For UIL Athletes

Friday morning at 8 o'clock the forty-sixth Interscholastic League meet will get under way here as the golfers tee off at Austin Municipal Golf Course.

Links play will be followed closely by the big track meet as the preliminaries begin at Municipal Stadium at 8:25 a.m. Some of the powerful high school track squads this year are Baytown, Lamar of Houston, Pasadena, Ray of Corpus Christi and Highland Park.

As has been the case for the last few years, the relay events will be the center of interest. No less than six schools have run 43.4 or below in the 440-yard relay.

Some of the individual stars who will shine on the cinders this week end are Harry Moreland of Fort Worth Arlington Heights, who has run a 9.7 100-yard dash, hurdler Donald Beard of Thorndale, who turned in a sensational 13.9 in the high hurdles last week, and Reagan of Houston's broad jumper Leonard Fawcett, who has approached 24 feet.

Harry Taylor Goes After Baylor at 3

By EDDIE HUGHES
Texan Sports Staff

Cellar-dwelling Texas, far off from their predecessors of earlier years, try to accomplish what the teams of 1953, 1954, and 1955 couldn't do: capture a victory on their annual Disch Day.

It's Disch Day Thursday as the Longhorns host the Baylor Bears in a two-game Southwest Conference baseball series at Clark Field, and Coach Bibb Falk's charges have yet to take a Disch Day victory in three years. Game time Thursday will be 3 p.m.

Young Harry Taylor, an eleven-inning, 4-3 victim of the Bears earlier in the season in Waco, will toil on the hill for the Longhorns. And ironically enough, his opposing moundsmen will be Jack Goodwyn, the Bruin hurler who bested the Texas sophomore star in the eleven-inning tilt.

Taylor is 1-5 in conference play, three losses by one run.

Lettermen under the late William J. Disch and members of the Disch family are the guests of honor for the third annual event, which is staged in memory of the Longhorn coach of 1911 through 1939. Twenty of his teams from 1915 through 1939 won the SWC baseball championship.

Texas' 2-8 conference record is the worst by a Texas baseball team in history at this stage of the race. No Texas team has ever lost more than eight games in the SWC. Last year they were 7-8.

Fielding, which has plagued the Steers throughout the season, seems to be looking better. After twice committing seven errors behind the pitching of Taylor, the Steers went eleven innings against the Aggies and committed no errors. They continued their streak against Rice in the first game of their two-game series: no errors in nine innings.

Pitching has improved, although Taylor has been rather brilliant most of the season. The bright picture in the pitching department, no doubt, comes from the performances of Wayne Graham, and from the relief stints of Ray Stauffacher and Oren Buckellew.

But to offset these improvements is Texas hitting. It may not be so dim, however, against Baylor if the Longhorns continue their pace displayed during practice this week.

Although Texas' leading batsman, third baseman Jerry Good, slacked off from his usual performance against Rice, catcher George Gainley and Graham filled up the hole, with several base knocks in the series with Rice last week.

Friday, in the concluding game of the series, Texas will go with Graham (1-2 in conference) while Baylor may go with Jerry Mallett, who gave up fourteen runs in four innings against TCU last week.

By The Associated Press

NEW ORLEANS — The National Collegiate Athletic Association's Council Wednesday placed Auburn on probation for three years and warned the school that any infractions during the period may lead to expulsion from the NCAA.

Auburn's probation period was the longest ever handed down by the NCAA. In addition the University of Florida and the University of Louisville were put on probation—for two years.

These schools joined Texas A&M, Kansas, and Mississippi College on the probation list. The latter three were placed on the list Tuesday.

Auburn, whose punishment is by far the most severe, cannot appear in those selected invitational events which co-operate with the NCAA in its enforcement program.

COLLEGE STATION — Officials of Texas A&M expressed surprise at action of the NCAA placing the Ags on probation until May 14, 1957.

"There has not been a single case involving recruitment during the past year," said Dr. David H. Morgan, president of the college. He said that the college has lived up to rules and "we will continue to do so."

Yankees Beaten By Tigers, 8-1, On Three-Hitter

NEW YORK, May 2 (AP)—Detroit's Frank Lary set back the New York Yankees with three hits Wednesday 8-1 as the Tigers battered Johnny Kucks, Rip Coleman, and Mickey McDermott for fifteen hits including a three-run homer by Frank House.

Mickey Mantle's sixth homer leading off the ninth robbed Lary of his shutout bid but the defeat sunk the Yankees into second place, 22 percentage points behind the idle Chicago White Sox.

CINCINNATI — The Cincinnati Redlegs, who have used a home-run hitting binge to build up a six-game winning streak, cracked five more circuit wallows Wednesday as they whipped the Brooklyn Dodgers, 10-6. Gus Bell got two of the homers Wednesday night and Wally Post, George Crowe, and Ray Jablenski each got one.

ST. LOUIS — Pinch-hitter Alex Grammas squeeze-bunted Rip Repulski across the plate in the last of the tenth here Wednesday to give the St. Louis Cardinals a 10-9 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates. Forty-one players got into the three-hour, 46-minute marathon which put the Cardinals back in first place in the National League.

Softballers to Seek 'Mural' Titles Tonight

By BOB GREENBERG
Texan Intramural Co-ordinator

Fraternity, Independent and Club Divisions will crown champions in softball games at Whitaker Field Thursday night. The games will begin at 7 p.m. and will be full seven-inning contests.

In the Fraternity Division, Delta Tau Delta tangles with Alpha Tau Omega. This game is billed as a pitchers' duel between the Delts' Avis Johnson and ATO's Louis Carter. Both chunkers are undefeated in league play this year. They also are members of the UTSAM softball nine.

The Delts, led by Johnson, edged Ross Vick and his Beta Theta Pi nine, 1-0, Tuesday night to earn the right to play in the finals.

ATO ran past Sigma Phi Epsilon 3-2, also Tuesday, to get their chance at the Delts.

Carter, one of the few lefthanded

pitchers in intramural competition, is especially tough in the clutch. But the same may be said about Johnson, for in the Beta game he had men on third base for three straight innings with only one out and managed to retire them without a run.

This game will be staged on the south field.

McCracken and Brunette will meet to decide the independent title. McCracken gained the finals by winning their league without a defeat. Brunette, however, had to beat Carden House twice, after losing to them once.

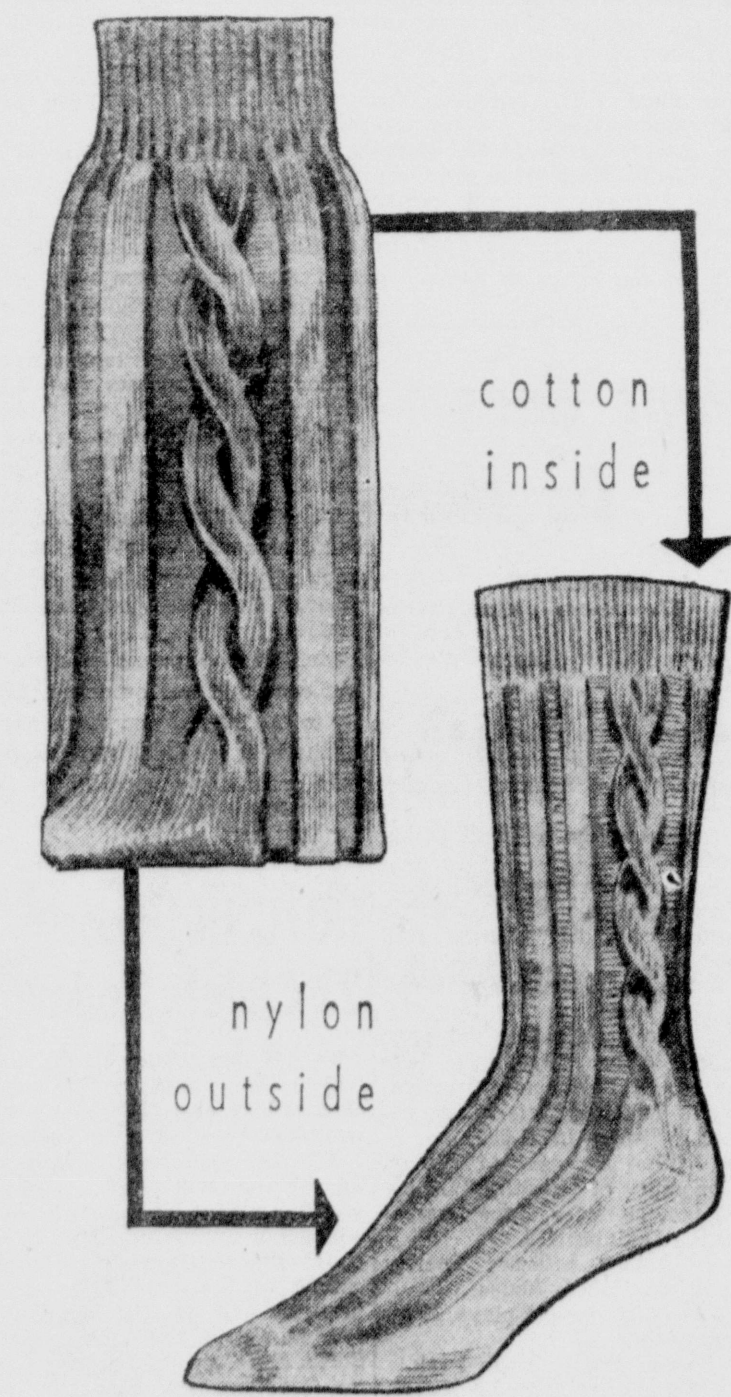

AICHe will play LPhA for the Club Division championship. Both teams have about equal ratings and it should be quite close.

The Independent championship game will be played on the middle field, while the Club Division teams will see action on the south field.

Shorthorn Tracksters Face Fish, Owlets, Bucs, Academy

By PAT TRULY
Texan Sports Staff

The favorite's role in the freshman division of Thursday night's track meet at Memorial Stadium must go to Texas' fleet Shorthorns, but the opposition is coming from far and wide.

Texas A&M, Rice, Victoria Junior College, and the US Air Force Academy will provide the competition. The "junior birdmen" of the all-freshman Air Academy, coached by ex-Longhorn Byron Guillory, are coming all the way from Colorado Springs, Colo.

The Yearlings are favored in at least seven events. They have the fastest times in both relays, but will once again be without the services of star sprinter Hollis Gainey. Gainey will be replaced by George Willis on the 440-yard relay. The mile quartet will be the same foursome which won in the Texas Relays in 3:18.3—Brooks Patrick, Joe Villarreal, Wallace Wilson, and Eddie Southern.

In the mile run Villarreal is a prohibitive favorite, having run a 4:11.4 in practice this year. Texas probably has the second best mile runner, too, in Ken Savage.

Southern should take the 120-yard high hurdles, with his chief competition coming from G. F. Alsbrook of Rice, who has a wind-blown 14.8 this year, and Bobby Singleton of Victoria. Southern ran a 14.6 in qualifying for the Texas Relays.

Wallace Wilson has run the 440 this year in 49 flat and may rate as favorite there. D. B. Livingston of the Air Force Academy is Wilson's top threat. In the javelin Bruce Parker of Texas has thrown 218 feet in practice, but is favoring a sore arm. Fred Hahn of the Shorthorns has done 190 feet.

Brooks Patrick of Texas should have a hot race in the 880, where he faces Milton Soward of Rice, one of last year's best schoolboys.

With Gainey held out, Fred Reuter of Victoria may be the class of the sprints. He won the 100 at the Texas Relays with a 10 flat. Dan Shuford of Rice has a wind-assisted 9.6 to his credit and Texas' Jimmy Watson is an improving runner.

Alsbrook has run a 23.4 with a tail wind in the low hurdles, but Southern will pass up to run in the mile relay.

In the high jump A&M's Frank Madura is a probable favorite out of a weak field. The shot put and discus also lack outstanding performers. Texas' Hahn, Parker, and Alex Palmros will contend against Rice's R. E. Gibson, who has tossed the discus 142-4½ and the shot 45-4½.

The pole vault should see a battle royal between Victoria's Charlie Bruce, last year's Class

A high school champ, and Donald Earle of A&M. Both boys can vault over 12-6.

Gainey, who injured a leg running in the Texas Relays, and sprinter-broad jumper Bobby Stillwell are both missing this meet to avoid any more trouble before the conference meet.

The weatherman predicts partly cloudy weather Thursday, which should give the sun a chance to dry the rain-soaked track and make it fast by night.

BRUCE PARKER, Texas freshman field event star, who may be in action Thursday night despite an ailing arm. Parker has thrown the javelin 218 feet in practice, although he hadn't picked one up till this spring. Considered one of Texas' best field prospects in many a year, Parker also throws the discus.

Tower Offices Emptied, But Not for Long

The tall Tower of the University is still every bit as useful, even though the Department of English has moved into its own building.

Since some 75 new members were added to the faculty this year, the 27 floors of the Tower barely provide enough offices, Byron Shipp, registrar, said.

The space left vacant was swallowed up by badly needed general offices, and three floors were kept by the Department of English, which lacks enough rooms in the new building for all its teachers.

The floors of the Tower at present are occupied by Government Sponsored Research offices, 15; Department of English, 16, 17, 18; general offices, 19, 20, 21; News and Information Service, 22; offices for classified personnel and workman's compensation, 23; Hogg Foundation for Mental Hygiene, 24; miscellaneous offices, 25; Department of Classical Languages and its library, 26, 27.

There will be no more space available, Mr. Shipp explained, until the new ROTC building is finished. Then, the Littlefield Home and the temporary buildings behind Gregory Gymnasium will be left open for office space.

Educators to Hear Talk by Moehlman

Dr. Arthur H. Moehlman, professor of the history and philosophy of education, will discuss "Provision for the Able Student in the Modern Secondary School" at the Texas Study of Secondary Education conference Friday in the Driskill Hotel.

The education conference will begin at 9 a.m. After the speech, a panel led by Dr. John W. McFarland, Vernon school superintendent, will consider Dr. Moehlman's ideas.

Other panel members will be Miss Ida May Bernhard, Texas Education Agency consultant in Austin; R. M. Hodgkiss, principal of Austin's O. Henry Junior High School; and J. Hubert Wright, principal of Lamar High School in Houston.

In the afternoon, section meetings will consider junior high school, small high school, and large high school interests.

Chairmen will be Oscar Miller, San Antonio assistant superintendent; G. C. Holder, Lamesa High School principal; and C. C. Miller, Sunset (Dallas) High School principal.

Consultants will be Dr. I. I. Nelson, University professor of secondary education; Dean Arvin Donner, University of Houston College of Education; and Professor James Mailey, Southern Methodist University.

Recorders will be Leslie C. Liston, Seguin Junior High School principal; Jack L. Ballard, Pine Tree (Greggton) High School principal; and Thomas Ware, Waco High School principal.

Dr. J. G. Umstadt, University professor of secondary education, is co-ordinator of the Texas Study of Secondary Education, which has its headquarters at the University.

Sponsoring organizations include the Texas Association of Secondary School Principals, Texas Association of School Administrators, Association of Texas Colleges, Texas Association of Collegiate Registrars, Texas Education Agency, and the University's Hogg Foundation for Mental Hygiene.

Herbert La Grone, associate co-ordinator of the Texas Study of Education and Texas Education Agency consultant, will preside at the conference.

Joey Brown Defeats Champion Bud Smith

Based on the Associated Press

HOUSTON—Clever Joey Brown, seeking a rematch for the title won a unanimous decision from world lightweight champion Wallace "Bud" Smith Wednesday in a nationally televised non-title match.

Smith received a lip cut in the second round and a swollen left eye in the eighth. Brown's best round, Brown was not damaged.

Referee Jimmy Webb gave Brown every round with a 100-83 score. Judge Bill Cornelius gave Brown a 99-92 lead while Judge Joe Lett made it 98-92 for Brown.

Smith broke into tears and moans in his dressing room after the bout. "I didn't do nothing right," he said. "I looked like a fool."

NEW YORK—In his first monthly ratings since Marcano's retirement, Editor Nat Fleischer of Ring

Magazine removed Floyd Patterson from his perch atop the light-heavyweight contenders' list and made him the fifth ranking heavyweight.

Archie Moore is listed as the number 1 heavyweight followed by 2, Tommy "Hurricane" Jackson, 3, Bob Baker, 4, Johnny Holman, and 5, Patterson.

PORT WORTH—The field for the $25,000 Colonial National Invitation Golf Tournament went through final tune-up rounds before opening of the tourney Thursday.

A total of 51 professionals, led by defending champion Chandler Harper, and three amateurs make up the starting list, the biggest in Colonial history.

Heavy rains have made the course soggy and slow.
