Reds Upset Geneva Plans

GENEVA (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev opened up Saturday a prospect of serious negotiations between the Soviet Union and the Western powers at the Big Four foreign ministers' conference.

In a speech in Moscow, Khrushchev rebuffed the Western package plan approach to a German peace settlement and the problem of European security and disarmament.

But he added: "The proposals of the Western powers contain some matters which are worthy of examination and which we shall not oppose. On the contrary, we shall be prepared to seek solutions at the round table."

The statement came as Secretary of State Christian A. Herter was reported planning to propose secret diplomacy for the next phase of the talks here. Herter has decided that is the best way to probe real Soviet aims here and find out whether it is possible to make enough progress toward agreement to justify a summit conference.

The Soviet leader declared that the real author of the Western proposals is not in Geneva. Referring to West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, he said: "The shadow of Adenauer is there."

Herter made known his views to close associates after watching initial sessions of the conference which opened here Monday. He considers the sessions much too big and formal, with ministers making speeches at each other instead of negotiating.

The work of the conference, moreover, is approaching the point for what diplomats call private discussions. That means resort to a limited secret diplomacy with a sharp reduction of public disclosure about what is being discussed.

The basic proposals of the West and the Soviet Union for a German peace settlement have been presented to the parley by Herter and Gromyko and are under study. They could hardly be more opposed. The result is deadlock.

To come to grips with such matters as this, Herter probably will propose in midweek that the talks be made more informal, conducted with greater secrecy, and attended by about a dozen ministers and top advisers instead of the present total of about 100, German advisers would not be present.

Before that, however, U.S. officials said there will have to be further debate on the contradictory Western and Soviet proposals put forward Thursday and Friday.

Khrushchev Blasts Western Proposals

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Nikita Khrushchev Saturday denounced parts of the Western package plan for settlement of the German question but said the Soviets would not be obstinate.

Khrushchev said the Western plan presented at Geneva contained some matters worth discussing.

The Soviet chief, in a speech accepting the Lenin International Peace Prize, insisted that the West's package plan was "calculated to arouse sharp criticism from our side."

Governor Daniel Stakes Prestige On Tax Program

Thirty-Day Session
To Erase Deficit
Will Start Monday

AUSTIN (AP) — Governor Price Daniel stakes his prestige Monday on a second-time-around tax program which the legislature beat down.

He faces the toughest fight of his administration.

At 11 a.m., the legislators get back in harness in an effort to do in 30 days what they did not do in 120—erase the deficit and find enough money to meet spiraling state costs.

Daniel continues his jut-jawed stand against a general sales tax or income tax. He is optimistic that the Legislature will come up with about 210 million dollars in new revenue to handle the crisis.

Asked why he thought his program would find smoother sailing now than during the regular session, the governor replied that by restricting the call the Legislature will not become embroiled in side issues.

"My program got bogged down in the regular session because the gas lobbyists were willing to do whatever they could to block action on the deficit. . . . The plan of the lobbyists was for big spending so that the only way to take care of it (taxes) was with a general sales tax," Daniel said.

"I think the spirit of co-operation will be a little different."

The governor said he wants a showdown early—if one is coming—on a sales tax so that the entire session is not unduly delayed.

His "first things first" approach calls for retirement of the $65-889,592 deficit predicted Saturday by State Comptroller Robert Calvert. Next is passage of a tax bill to cover the $2,400,000,000 appropriations bill.

Calvert's new figures, which cut the estimated available revenue by three million dollars from his earlier forecast, also show $77,200,000 a year must be raised to balance the budget if the house version of the appropriations bill passes.

This is Governor Daniel's program—the same program he claimed "overwhelmingly favorable reaction" to from the Legislature January 24:

- To take care of the deficit: A bookkeeping transfer bill, a 1-year increase in the franchise tax and a revised abandoned property of escheat bill.
- To raise new taxes: A "severance" tax on gas, an increase in the motor vehicle sales and liquor taxes and an adjustment upwards in cigar and other tobacco products to the same level as cigarettes.

Khrushchev described the ending of the cold war as the most urgent problem facing the world and said a halt of nuclear tests was an important first step.

Bill to Abolish Council Fails

Assembly Fails to Approve Bill on Summer Council

Discussing a bill before the Student Assembly Saturday which would in effect abolish the Summer Student Council, Wes Ashendorf said the bill would prevent the Council from meeting, rather than voiding the amendment recently passed by the student body. The Assembly did not take final action on the bill.

Russia Endangers US West German Sounds Warning

If the United States does not stop the Russians in Berlin, she may have to stop them in New York Harbor, Dr. George R. Schultze, visiting professor from West Germany, predicted recently.

In a talk sponsored by Omega Chi Epsilon, chemical engineering honor society, Dr. Schultze, chemical engineering professor from Hanover Technical University, said:

"Although there may not be any war, the Russians by their very nature will cause serious trouble."

"If the United States lets Berlin go, Russia will keep right on going."

Dr. Schultze emphasized the role American aid policies had played in the rehabilitation of Germany.

"Americans gave the signal for the march out of the mess Germany was in," he said. "Much of the social and economic stress seemed to be alleviated almost immediately."

Geographical position, religious wants, financial instability, and the loss of two world wars were named by the speaker as major influences on German history.

"The end of World War II marked the greatest catastrophe the German people had faced," Dr. Schultze said. "Not only was Hitler defeated, but the whole government was destroyed. There was no postal service for six months and no fuel or clothing for three years."

Other problems that Germany faced in post-war years were unemployment coupled with the destruction of factories and the displacement of more than 16 million persons who were driven out of the section of Germany given to Poland.

"The reaction of the German people was one of hopelessness and frustration," Dr. Schultze said. "Nevertheless, they had a great respect for Allied troops who showed discipline, in contrast to Soviet troops, who often acted like wild beasts in the streets of Berlin."

Citing the modern buildings and industries that are prevalent in Germany today, Dr. Schultze emphasized the progress this country has made in regard to economic recovery as well as democracy.

"The Western World is due to survive as long as we are sincere and try to solve our differences in a peaceful way," he said. "We can only get along if we remain sensible."

SA Rejects Plan To Suspend Rules

By LEON GRAHAM
Assistant News Editor

The Student Assembly Saturday failed to take final action on a bill which would effectively abolish the Summer Student Council.

Meeting in a called session, assemblymen did not give the necessary three-fourths majority to a motion to suspend the Constitutional rule requiring bills to be voted on at the meeting following their introduction. Vote on the suspension motion was 11-7 in favor.

After the motion was lost, Students' Association President Frank Cooksey announced that the bill would have to follow the "regular" legislative route.

Since no more regular Assembly meetings are scheduled, advocates of the measure will have to draw up another petition requesting a special session.

Cooksey appointed a special committee to consider the bill. Chairman of the panel is David Kendrick, and members include Jim Dannenbaum and Bob Averitt.

The contended bill, authored by Wes Ashendorf, reads as follows:

WHEREAS, the Summer Student Assembly has proved to be ineffective and to be unrepresentative of the regular session Student Assembly; and

WHEREAS, the majority of the duties can be completed during the remainder of the Spring Semester or the beginning of the Fall Semester 1959.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ENACTED BY THE STUDENT ASSEMBLY OF THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS that the Summer Student Council have no meetings, called or otherwise, during the summer session, and all previous conflicting legislation is hereby repealed.

In explaining his measure, Ashendorf pointed out that the bill did not void the recent Constitutional amendment passed by the Assembly and the student body. Instead, the bill merely prevents the Summer Council from ever meeting.

David Kendrick took issue with Ashendorf on this point and said, "The bill is a clear-cut, unconstitutional measure. 'The Constitution calls for meetings of the regular Assembly, and later on it calls the Summer Assembly a regular group,'" he added.

Vice-president Jerry Nathan also spoke in favor of the bill. "The students elected 26 of us to make decisions for them, and only seven of us will be here this summer," he added. "I just don't think that the Summer Council would give the students what they deserve in the way of representation."

Assemblyman Jim Infante expressed belief in representation based upon the actions of the assemblymen, themselves. "I contend that it is better to be represented by the actions of seven than by no one at all," he said.

Cooksey outlined three areas of action he wished the Summer Council to consider:

- Try to get more students employed in the Commons.
- Renegotiate the student insurance plan (if necessary).
- Evaluate the student government committee structure.

In other action the Assembly gave approval to three presidential committee appointments.

Campus Politics Out for Demos

The University Young Democrat Club has approved a policy resolution not to participate in campus politics as a club or have any member participate as a representative of the club.

The club also adopted three general resolutions, the first of which urged Governor Daniel to submit to a special session of the State Legislature a program that would:

- Amend S.B. 86, 1955, the Teacher Certification Bill, to require a maximum of twelve hours of education.
- Raise substantially the salary of public high school teachers.
- Implement recommendations made by the State Hale-Aikin Committee that would improve public schools.

The second resolution condemns the act of the fifty-sixth legislature providing that a man's name may appear on the ballot of the State of Texas as a candidate for the United States Senate and the President or Vice-President of the United States.

Board Will Study Leave Suggestion

A proposal that top editors of The Daily Texan obtain a leave of absence if they plan to run for a student office in the future will be discussed Monday at 2:30 p.m. in Journalism Building 305 by the Texas Student Publications Board.

Harrell Lee, editorial manager of TSP, said he made the proposal in order to reduce the possibility of election controversy in the future concerning the editor, managing editor, or news editor, who are close to the policies of the paper.

The editors would relinquish their positions from the filing date to election date and would not receive any pay.

Another topic to be discussed is the salaries for the editors of The Daily Texan and Cactus. The proposal is that the major editors of The Daily Texan and Cactus would receive an increase in pay while other staff workers would receive no pay.

There also will be a report on long range financial planning.

Ike Tells Nikita US Willing To Talk 30-Mile Test Ban

DENVER, Colo. (AP) — President Eisenhower has notified Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev the United States is willing to discuss a ban on high-altitude nuclear weapons tests beyond the 30-mile ceiling Eisenhower proposed earlier.

A note the President sent to the Kremlin leader May 5 was made public Saturday by the White House amid indications that Khrushchev may be becoming somewhat more amenable to Western proposals.

The Eisenhower message was released after Moscow radio had announced that the Soviet Union is ready to talk over such a high-altitude ban.

Moscow said Khrushchev sent notes Friday to Eisenhower and Britain's Prime Minister Harold Macmillan expressing willingness to discuss halting very high tests.

In comment, the President—spending the weekend here—authorized press secretary James C. Hagerty to say the new Khrushchev message "apparently seems to indicate some readiness on the part of Premier

Pharmacy College Plans Graduation

Graduating seniors in the College of Pharmacy will have their departmental Commencement ceremonies at 4:30 p.m. June 6 in Batts Auditorium.

The program for the exercise consists of an invocation by Leon Dietz Jr., one of the seniors; a welcoming address by Samuel A. Lane Jr., president of the senior class; Commencement remarks by Randall Posey; a farewell address by Fritz Scheffel; and the singing of "The Eyes of Texas," led by Leaton Clark.

Following the awarding of diplomas by Dr. Henry M. Burlage, dean of the College of Pharmacy, a reception will be held in the patio between Batts and Mezes halls.

Khrushchev to negotiate

But Hagerty added that parts of Khrushchev's latest note were "not at all responsive" to Eisenhower's May 5 message. In April the President proposed in another communication with the Soviet premier an immediate ban on nuclear weapons tests below 30 miles.

Eisenhower mentioned no new specific ceiling in telling the Soviet leader that the United States now is willing to talk about a higher altitude ban.

Settlement on any new ceiling was left to negotiations at the Geneva conference on that matter.

In his letter earlier this month, the President said the United States is prepared to explore the Soviet Union's formal proposal for agreement on carrying out annually a predetermined number of inspections to enforce a test ban.

Negotiations looking toward a ban on all nuclear weapons tests on the part of the United States, Britain and the Soviet Union, have been deadlocked almost since the start of the three-power talks at Geneva last October. However, the talks recessed this week amid indications that the USSR might be willing to go at least part way toward agreement.

Election Postponed For Lack of Time

Election Commission members met Friday afternoon and decided there is not time before Dead Week to hold a special election for engineering assemblyman. The election will probably be early next October.

Ben Nowotny, elected engineering assemblyman in the April 22 general election, was disqualified by the Commission Wednesday night because a supporter had allegedly campaigned illegally for him. He will be eligible to run again next fall.

Election Commission members Rosemary House, Ken Andrews, and Ben Donnell agreed to meet in Austin near the end of June to revise the election code.

Also, in a report to the Students Association, they asked that the qualifications for candidacy be clarified, especially in regard to disciplinary probation.

APO to Vote on Pledges

Scotsman Gets One-Lap Record

90,000 Fans See Speedway Prelims

INDIANAPOLIS — Johnny Thomson, a tough little Scotsman from Boyertown, Pa., drove a radically different race car to an Indianapolis Motor Speedway one-lap record Saturday and earned the pole position for the 43rd 500-mile auto race May 30.

A crowd estimated at 90,000 saw Thomson, veteran of six 500s and 21 years of top-level auto racing, push the record to 146.532 miles an hour. The old one-lap mark for the 49-year-old track was 146.308 set last year by Ed Elisian of Oakland, Calif.

Thomson's average for the 10-mile trial, 145.968, was a shade under the 145.974 record set last year by Dick Rathmann of San Gabriel, Calif., who did 144.248 in Saturday's trials.

The bright pink Thomson racer, built by Ljude Lesovsky of Inglewood, Calif., has the engine installed on its side with the drive shaft running down the right side of the car. The normal engine installation in speedway cars, either flat or tilted, puts the drive shaft on the left side.

The Pennsylvania veteran will share the front row on Memorial Day with Eddie Sachs, Center Valley, Pa., who qualified at 145.432 in a new Kuzma owned by Pete Schmidt of St. Louis, and Jim Rathmann, Dick's brother. Jim Rathmann did 144.433 Saturday in the Hopkins Special in which he set a world's race record of 170.262 on the higher banked Daytona Beach track last month.

Ten Speedway veterans and two hot rookies made qualifying runs. Bobby Grim of Indianapolis, king of the country's dirt tracks, turned in the fifth best speed of 144.225 in his first shot at the 500-mile lineup.

The Wildcats were timed in 3:10.4, while the Longhorns posted a 3:10.7. The Villanova time was the second fastest in the nation this year. Texas ran a 3:10.3 clocking in the Texas Relays.

Eddie Southern, the greatest Texas quarter-mile ever, came through with a 45.8 on the anchor leg of the mile relay, but still hit the tape a stride behind Villanova's Ed Collymore. Collymore had a six-yard lead when Southern began the final leg.

In the 440-yard relay, Texas jumped into the lead from the start and was never headed. San Jose State finished a mere two yards behind the fleet Longhorns.

Abilene Christian College managed to wind up three yards behind Texas in the 880-yard relay for a second-place finish.

Little Joe Villarreal, making his last effort for Coach Clyde Littlefield's team, tired in the stretch to finish seventh in the mile run with a 4:13.5 time. Villarreal stayed within three yards of the pace-setters for three-quarters of the race before tiring in the stretch.

SMU's Don Stewart leaped 6'8 1/2" to gain a tie with Southern Cal's Charley Dumas for first place in the high jump. Dumas was awarded the first-place, however, since Stewart had missed one more time than the USC phenom.

Two Schoolboy Athletes Ink Letters With Baylor

WACO — Baylor announced Saturday two schoolboy stars from Odessa have signed athletic letters of intent with the school.

They are Jerry Harris, 6-1, 185-pound football end, and Don Brownlee, 6-1, 175-pound all-state schoolboy basketball player.

ness Stakes Saturday and drew away to a four-length victory over Sword Dancer.

First Landing, the surprise slight favorite ridden by Eddie Arcaro, wound up ninth in the 83rd running of the classic.

Tomy Lee, who snatched the roses by a nose over Sword Dancer in the Kentucky Derby two weeks ago, elected to skip Maryland's famous three-year-old contest.

Royal Orbit got into heaps of trouble when he made his late move in the Derby behind tiring horses and wound up fourth in a field of 17.

But Willie Harmatz, riding in a Preakness for the first time, gave a Pimlico crowd of 31,506 plenty to cheer about as the well-liked Sword Dancer was just another runner-up in the field of 11 starters.

The Claiborne Farm's Duncie, a disappointing seventh in the derby, came in third three lengths behind Sword Dancer and 2 1/2 lengths ahead of L. G. Robinson's Marauder, the early pace setter. Royal Orbit is owned by Helina Braunstein, a chic former

New York actress and TV performer who lives in Beverly Hills, Calif.

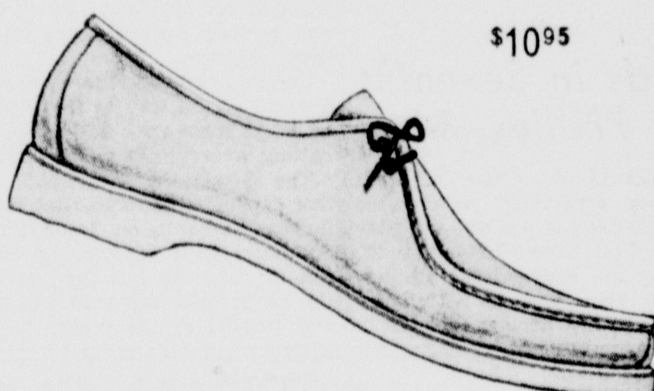

She thinks Royal Orbit is the greatest race horse in the world and was here to accept the record winner's check of $136,200. The largest net jackpot for a previous Preakness winner was the $98,005 hauled down by Calumet Farm's Faintless in 1947.

Royal Orbit, third choice in the mutuals, returned $15.20, $5.80, and $4.20 for $2.

Royal Orbit was clocked in 1:57 flat for the mile and 3-16ths on a fast track and under sunny skies in cool weather. This compared with the track record of 1:54 3-5 set by Nashua in winning the 1955 Preakness.

Chicago Trips Pirates, 3-2, With Unearned Run in Ninth

CHICAGO (AP)—An unearned run in the ninth inning gave the Chicago Cubs a 3-2 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates Saturday in a game which otherwise was a battle of homers.

In the bottom of the ninth, catcher Hank Folles dropped pitcher Harvey Haddix' called third strike on Alvin Dark.

After Dark reached first on the error, Ernie Banks singled, Walt Morin beat out a perfect bunt to fill the bases, and Bobby Thomson smashed a single off third baseman Don Hoak's glove to score pinch runner Chick King.

Cepeda, Antonelli Pace Giants' Win

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—First baseman Orlando Cepeda bunched three games for weak hitting, returned Saturday and drove in four runs with a single and a homer as San Francisco whipped Cincinnati, 9-2.

Left-hander Johnny Antonelli, after giving up two runs in the first inning, settled down to register his fifth victory against two losses. He held the Reds to six hits.

Cards in Seventh; Top Phillies, 8-2

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals scrambled out of the National League cellar Saturday for the first time since April 22, dumping the Philadelphia Phillies into last place with an 8-2 victory sweetened by homers by Gary Blaylock and B. G. Smith.

The triumph elevated the Redbirds to seventh place by only eight percentage points, 375 to 367. It was the Phillies' sixth straight defeat.

Senators Triumph As Pascual Stars

WASHINGTON (AP)—Washington pitcher Camilo Pascual pitched seven hitless innings Saturday but settled for a four-hit, 7-2 victory over the Kansas City Athletics.

Rookie Bob Allison and veteran Jim Lemon each walked off his eighth homer as the slugging Senators upped their American League-leading home run total to 40. The Senators got 11 hits off loser Ralph Terry, Russ Meyer and Dick Tomaneck.

Indians Keep Lead; Rap Red Sox, 12-6

BOSTON (AP)—Cleveland kept its grip on the American League lead Saturday by defeating Boston, 12-6, as Rocky Colavito contributed his 10th and 11th homers and southpaw Herb Score an unusual 6-hitter.

Colavito moved more than a quarter of the way to his 1958 total of 41 home runs and raised his batting average 13 points to .346.

The 25-year-old Bronx, N.Y., native capped a four-run first inning Indians' assault on loser Frank Baumann with a towering three-run fly into the left field screen. He hit a solo drive in the fifth and singled in the ninth.

Chisox Cop Eighth In Row; Nip Yanks

NEW YORK (AP)—Del Ennis' 11th-inning single gave the Chicago White Sox their eighth straight victory Saturday, 4-3, over the New York Yankees after a costly three-base error by Mickey Mantle in the ninth cost Bob Turley the triumph.

Nellie Fox walked and moved to second on Jim Landis' sacrifice to open the eleventh against Art Ditmar, third Yankee pitcher. After Sherm Lollar was walked intentionally, Ennis singled, scoring Fox.

Orioles Rip Tigers With 4-Run Sixth

BALTIMORE (AP)—Baltimore broke up a tight pitching duel in the sixth inning by jumping on Frank Lary for four big runs on only two hits and the help of a costly error to defeat Detroit, 6-1, Saturday.

Bob Nieman started the big frame by beating out a slow infield roller for a single. Gus Triandos, sacrificing Nieman to second, made first safely when Lary bobbled the dumped ball.

After Billy Klaus sacrificed the pair along and Chico Carrasquel took a third strike, the Tigers walked Billy Gardner intentionally. The Oriole pitcher, Hoyt Wilhelm, got a very unimpartial walk; then Willie Tasby, the rookie sensation, unloaded a triple over Al Kaline's head, clearing the bases.

Ags Clinch Baseball Title

WACO (AP)—Pitcher Percy Sanderson gave up three scattered singles and drove in two runs as he led Texas A&M to the undisputed Southwest Conference baseball championship with a 3-1 victory over Baylor.

Both teams played errorless ball. The Aggies collected only five hits off Bob Cullison and had a 2-1 lead through eight innings when Cullison gave way to a pinch hitter in the bottom of the eighth.

Sanderson drove in the second and third Aggie runs, the latter being a single off relief hurler Gerald Johnson in the ninth.

A&M-Arizona Struggle Set for College Station

HOUSTON (AP)—NCAA district chairman Dell Morgan said Saturday the Texas A&M and Arizona baseball clubs probably will tangle in College Station for the regional NCAA title.

The winner will journey to the NCAA finals in Omaha next month.

A&M copped the Southwest Conference title Saturday by turning back Baylor, 3-1. University of Houston lost its chance at the regional crown by dropping a 6-0 Missouri Valley Conference championship game to Bradley.

The Cadets put together three scratch infield singles for a run in the first. Dick Hickerson's hit scored Gary Herrington, who had singled with two out.

In the second inning, Ralph Plumlee walked, went to third on Cliff Davis' double and scored on Sanderson's ground-out to short.

Baylor scored in the third when Bob Turner walked, advanced to third on Billy Hall's single and Cullison's sacrifice bunt, and scored on Ted Uhlaender's ground-out to second.

Cullison held the Aggies hitless after the second until Hickerson bounced a triple off the wall along the right field foul line with two out in the eighth. Plumlee then popped out to short.

Sanderson held Baylor hitless from the fifth through the eighth inning.

Since no longer counts in the championship battle, The University of Texas' make-up game with Texas Christian will not be played.

Bradley Whips Houston To Sew Up MVC Crown

PEORIA, Ill. (AP)—Bradley won the Missouri championship Saturday by defeating Houston, 6-0, behind the five-hit pitching of Pat Kelley.

The victory climaxed a three-game series which opened Friday with Houston winning the first game of a doubleheader and Bradley the second. The Braves earned a berth in the District 5 NCAA playoffs.

US Prosperity and Profits May Balance 1959 Budget

WASHINGTON — Rising prosperity may balance President Eisenhower's 77-billion-dollar budget even if Congress doesn't vote the extra revenue he wants.

A record 50-billion dollar total of corporation profits is in sight this year, government economists said Saturday. This is three billion dollars more than the budget-makers estimated in January.

The Treasury will take about half the gain, at the 52 per cent tax rate on corporate earnings. This would add 1 1/2 billion dollars to revenues in the fiscal year starting July 1, substantially more than Eisenhower asked in higher taxes, postal rates, and fees.

Congress could easily tip the scales into a deficit. But its Democratic leaders seem increasingly anxious to repudiate the "spender" label, and Eisenhower's aides have become correspondingly more hopeful.

Wire News In Brief

Good Neighbor Group Asks Free Bus Traffic

TAMPICO, Mexico — The Border Relations Committee of the International Good Neighbor Tenth general assembly formally resolved Saturday that Texas and Mexico should permit free interchange of bus traffic.

US buses are not now allowed to enter Mexico. The request was by Fred Lehrer of San Antonio.

The Rio Grande Valley delegation also asked improved general communications with Mexico.

Jack Drake, Executive vice president of the Valley Chamber of Commerce, was re-elected treasurer. Neville Penrose of Fort Worth and Tampico was elected president, succeeding Jose Maguerez of Monterrey, Mexico. Glen Garrett of Fort Worth is the new vice president.

King Baudouin in Dallas; Sorry Texas Now 'Second'

DALLAS — King Baudouin of the Belgians arrived here Saturday and had a field day with newsmen's photographic and tape equipment.

A scheduled 5-minute press conference stretched to 40 minutes as the 28-year-old bachelor king quipped with reporters and photographers and examined their equipment.

The king, in an obviously happy frame of mind, teased the Texans

"I'm sorry I didn't get to visit Texas while it still was the biggest state," he said.

Before assuming his present position at Northwestern in 1948, Dr. Morgan taught at the University of Illinois and the University of Michigan.

of Colorado Springs and 55 miles south of Denver, the smiling President also received an honorary bachelor of science degree.

Eisenhower accepted the degree from Cadet Col. Herbert A. Adamson of Brigham City, Utah, the cadet wing commander. The academy's commencement is June 3.

Immediately after touring the academy, Eisenhower flew on to Denver with his four small grandchildren and their father and mother, Army Maj. and Mrs. John Eisenhower, for a stay until Sunday morning before returning to Washington.

Doctor Hopes Surgery Will Help Denton Coed

DENTON, Tex. — A doctor held out hope Saturday that the disfigured face of a coed splashed with searing silver nitrate can be repaired with plastic surgery.

But he said the condition of her burned eyes still is undetermined.

Houston Gypsies Charge Police Violating Rights

HOUSTON — A complaint charging Police Chief Carl Shuptrine and two of his officers deprived nine separate individuals of their constitutional rights was on file in federal court Saturday.

In addition to Shuptrine, the suit, filed by attorney Bill Scott, charges vice squad captain H. L. Ellisor and detective James Graddy.

The complaint flays police procedure of arresting persons without a warrant, and marking them "hold" for investigation for undue periods of time.

After learning the names of the complainants, Ellisor said: "They are all members of a gypsy clan, and I have given orders to have them arrested every time they are seen on the streets."

English Expert Called to Tokyo

Dr. Ernest F. Haden, chairman of the Romance Languages department, has a grant from the Japan Society of New York City to serve as linguistics consultant to the English Language Exploratory in Tokyo.

Dr. and Mrs. Haden will go to Japan in August and will stay through the fall semester. This summer, Dr. Haden will conduct a linguistics and French workshop at the Mundelein College Summer Institute of Linguistics in Chicago before going to Japan.

The English Language Exploratory Committee is made up of Japanese university professors and other men and women in the professions and business.

The Hadens spent last summer in Tokyo. Dr. Haden is among United States experts called in since 1956 to institute a modern program for teaching English in Japanese junior high schools. This is a part of the latest American system for teaching foreign languages: begin with the spoken form, then add reading, then writing.

English has been the preferred second language of the Japanese for at least 40 years, and there has been a tremendous upsurge since World War II, Dr. Haden said.

"The Institute is designed for teachers who have had a limited background in physics or the necessary allied fields," said Dr. Robert N. Little, director of the Institute.

Caution: Deadly Finals Ahead; Approach With Sane Dead Week

Students, are you beginning to panic about the coming weeks? Dead Week and finals are enough to panic any red-blooded American collegian. Calm down a minute, and look the matter over. Maybe there's still hope.

A level head and organization are your basic needs right now. First, be sure you get plenty of rest, and avoid "stay awake" tablets as though they were the plague. Plan your time, have a definite place to study where there won't be many interruptions, and try not to worry about other problems. Then you might try the following steps in your studying:

1. Skim over your notes and text, making an outline as you go. This outline should be as brief as possible, using phrases that will bring the subject to mind quickly.
2. Review what you've learned so far by making up questions on the different topics to see just how well you have learned the material.
3. Don't forget the coffee break.
4. Run through your topics, and review the main points of the entire course.

It would probably be best to apply these steps to a chapter at a time instead of trying yourself reading the entire book at once or outlining it all in one sitting. Remember, variety adds spice, and deters from monotony.

A few tips on memorizing might also come in handy when you get your information organized. Know key words instead of cluttered sentences, arranging the first letters in your key words into sensible or nonsensical words might help you recall the information more rapidly. Charts are also helpful in many courses. Rewrite them and fill them in until you're sure you know them.

There it is, all you need to know about studying for exams—well, almost everything. Have a good, reliable rabbit's foot handy?

Savings of up to two-thirds in the cost of their GI insurance are being offered by mail to veterans whose insurance policy number is preceded by the letters "RS." Dr. George T. McMahon, manager of the VA center in Waco announces

Vogue Magazine Offers Paris Trip as Top Prize

Vogue's magazine's twenty-fifth Prix de Paris writing contest offers a two-week trip to Paris, all expenses paid, or $1,000 to the first prize winner.

Second prize in the college contest is $500 and 10 honorable mention awards are $25 each.

The contest is open to all seniors in accredited colleges in the United States who will complete work on a bachelor's degree by the summer of 1960. The 12 top winners will receive first chance at jobs on Vogue, Glamour, House and Garden, Bride's Vogue Pattern Book, and Vogue Knitting Book. Other outstanding contestants will be recommended by Vogue for jobs in publishing, merchandising, and advertising.

Deadline for Prix entries is October 19. Entrants will use Vogue as a textbook, completing two quizzes of four questions, based on actual problems that the magazine's own staff has faced.

The first quiz will appear in Vogue's August 1 College issue. The second will be in the December issue. Those who answer both quizzes satisfactorily will be eligible to write a 1,500-word thesis on one of several topics which will be listed in Vogue's February 1, 1960 Americana issue.

Entries will be judged by Vogue's editors on grasp of subject matter, general intelligence, originality, and demonstration of special talents.

Enrollment blanks may be obtained by writing the Prix de Paris Director, Vogue, 420 Lexington Avenue, New York 17.

Don't Worry; Others Are Single

Men Are Like Geese—They Won't Fly Alone

By MARILYN MILLER

Campus Life Editor

So! The boyfriend got wise to your tricks. He read Wednesday's Texan, said "I'm getting out," and dropped you. Well, cheer up. Nothing is lost (we hope) except your pride, a part of your youth, your doe eyes which were smudged from straggling tears, and a few dollars you sank on exotic clothes.

So much for that, and we'll dispense with the touching details of sunlit kisses, ecstatic embraces, and the occasional pinch behind the ear.

"Can't you see, I'm only thinking of you," he said as you wring out your hanky. "I'm an independent man," he continued. "I was destined to stay independent." The sad thing about it is that he means it.

Immediately you start thinking about which procedure to follow if he calls and begs to come back—wishful thinking.

Tell him you're having a party. While balancing the phone on your left foot and clasp the receiver to your forehead, flip on the hi-fi to "Jamaica Farewell," turn over the waste basket and pound it with fury like a bongo drum.

Break a few ash trays so they sound like tinkling glasses, and throw down the receiver and run around the room laughing in every key below middle C. Jerk up the phone and say in your out-of-breath drawl that the natives are getting restless and hang up.

If you are really gone on him, you could tell him he has the wrong number so that he'll call back and you can hear his voice again. On the fourth ring-back, you'd better not answer.

But, he probably won't call. What if you should just happen to bump into him some morning about 6 on the steps of his apartment when he opens the door to get the morning paper. Don't sweat it. Say your friend's little brother is sick and you are just helping out with the route.

The most likely place you'll see "Mr. Independence" is at a party to which you practically broke up a friendship between you and your hostess to get her to invite him. Now you wonder, should you go?

Okay. You'll go. Wear some slinky number cut so low that even your peek-a-boo foundation won't look, and lash right up to him and embarrass him before his date.

Whisper in his date's ear, "Say, sister, this is one you had better watch. Have you got a good look on your door?" Or just look up at him and call him "hands."

If you can't quite get up the nerve to embarrass him, and you'd rather not converse, bring a blind date and sit in the corner and neck.

Okay, so he hasn't called, and you can think of no possible way to see him short of planting yourself in the men's room at his office or Garrison Hall. You've got to learn to get along without him.

Find a hobby to relieve the tension. Something invigorating like knitting. Knit one, perl two; knit one, perl two—whoops, how did your lovely green sweater yarn turn into a pair of size 12 socks?

Well, try cooking new and exotic foods for one week, and dieting and a workout at the gym the next week, and so on.

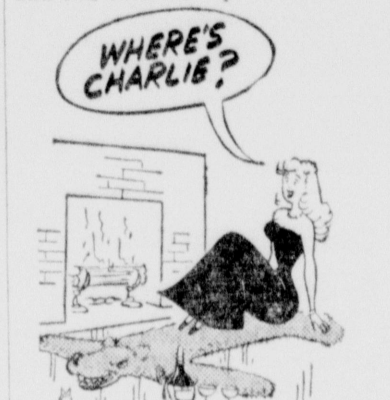

If you are not the hobby type, then develop a new personality. The natural result of your broken romance would be either to withdraw or to become an extrovert. We strongly discourage the first, but if you insist on playing martyr, and if the male situation looks as though you might not have another chance for a spree, then, by all means, make the most of the remnants of this one.

The first person who says "good morning" Monday just be squelched. Grip her wrist and quote from W. B. Yates, "What the world's million lips are searching for, must be substantial somewhere."

Perhaps the best advice on how to get over an affair would be to simply have another one. Don't stop with burnt fingers, singe the hair all the way up to your elbows.

The next time you catch the 5:15 bus, don't turn to the comics. Check until you see a ringless left hand gripping the sports page, then, carefully lose your balance and fall into his lap.

Ask him if he thinks Babe Ruth really was the greatest figure in football. But, if you've craftily fought your way down the aisle and see no ringless left hand, get off and catch another bus.

Assume you have found another man and you're off on a second whirl. Just a word of caution—take it slowly. Don't give him an inch, for only one little pinch might lead to a clinch.

Even with the new beau there will be times when something like the slamming of a door, a sale of men's underwear, or a burp after a beer will remind you of his predecessor.

Well, girls, this is the price of tender, sensitive, womanhood. We are full of affection and susceptible to romance. Get over a man? Why, certainly, 'cause the possibilities of getting another one are mighty strong.

Reds Upset Geneva Plans

GENEVA (AP) — Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev opened up Saturday a prospect of serious negotiations between the Soviet Union and the Western powers at the Big Four foreign ministers' conference. In a speech in Moscow, Khrushchev rebuffed the Western package plan approach to a German peace settlement and the problem of European security and disarmament.

But he added: "The proposals of the Western powers contain some matters which are worthy of examination and which we shall not oppose. On the contrary, we shall be prepared to seek solutions at the round table."

The statement came as Secretary of State Christian A. Herter was reported planning to propose secret diplomacy for the next phase of the talks here. Herter has decided that is the best way to probe real Soviet aims here and find out whether it is possible to make enough progress toward agreement to justify a summit conference.

The Soviet leader declared that the real author of the Western proposals is not in Geneva. Referring to West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, he said: "The shadow of Adenauer is there."

Herter made known his views to close associates after watching initial sessions of the conference which opened here Monday. He considers the sessions much too big and formal, with ministers making speeches at each other instead of negotiating.

The work of the conference, moreover, is approaching the point for what diplomats call private discussions. That means resort to a limited secret diplomacy with a sharp reduction of public disclosure about what is being discussed.

The basic proposals of the West and the Soviet Union for a German peace settlement have been presented to the parley by Herter and Gromyko and are under study. They could hardly be more opposed. The result is deadlock.

To come to grips with such matters as this, Herter probably will propose in midweek that the talks be made more informal, conducted with greater secrecy, and attended by about a dozen ministers and top advisers instead of the present total of about 100, German advisers would not be present.

Before that, however, U.S. officials said there will have to be further debate on the contradictory Western and Soviet proposals put forward Thursday and Friday.

Khrushchev Blasts Western Proposals

MOSCOW (AP) — Premier Nikita Khrushchev Saturday denounced parts of the Western package plan for settlement of the German question but said the Soviets would not be obstinate.

Khrushchev said the Western plan presented at Geneva contained some matters worth discussing.

The Soviet chief, in a speech accepting the Lenin International Peace Prize, insisted that the West's package plan was "Calculated to arouse sharp criticism from our side."

Campus Politics Out for Demos

The University Young Democrat Club has approved a policy resolution not to participate in campus politics as a club or have any member participate as a representative of the club.

The club also adopted three general resolutions, the first of which urged Governor Daniel to submit to a special session of the State Legislature a program that would:

- Amend S.B. 86, 1955, the Teacher Certification Bill, to require a maximum of twelve hours of education.
- Raise substantially the salary of public high school teachers.
- Implement recommendations made by the State Hale-Aikin Committee that would improve public schools.

The second resolution condemns the act of the fifty-sixth legislature providing that a man's name may appear on the ballot of the State of Texas as a candidate for the United States Senate and the President or Vice-President of the United States.

Board Will Study Leave Suggestion

A proposal that top editors of The Daily Texan obtain a leave of absence if they plan to run for a student office in the future will be discussed Monday at 2:30 p.m. in Journalism Building 305 by the Texas Student Publications Board.

Harrell Lee, editorial manager of TSP, said he made the proposal in order to reduce the possibility of election controversy in the future concerning the editor, managing editor, or news editor, who are close to the policies of the paper.

The editors would relinquish their positions from the filing date to election date and would not receive any pay.

Another topic to be discussed is the salaries for the editors of The Daily Texan and Cactus. The proposal is that the major editors of The Daily Texan and Cactus would receive an increase in pay while other staff workers would receive no pay.

There also will be a report on long range financial planning.

Governor Daniel Stakes Prestige On Tax Program

Thirty-Day Session
To Erase Deficit
Will Start Monday

AUSTIN (AP) — Governor Price Daniel stakes his prestige Monday on a second-time-around tax program which the legislature beat down.

He faces the toughest fight of his administration.

At 11 a.m. the legislators get back in harness in an effort to do in 30 days what they did not do in 120—erase the deficit and find enough money to meet spiraling state costs.

Daniel continues his jut-jawed stand against a general sales tax or income tax. He is optimistic that the Legislature will come up with about 210 million dollars in new revenue to handle the crisis.

Asked why he thought his program would find smoother sailing now than during the regular session, the governor replied that by restricting the call the Legislature will not become embroiled in side issues.

"My program got bogged down in the regular session because the gas lobbyists were willing to do whatever they could to block action on the deficit. . . . The plan of the lobbyists was for big spending so that the only way to take care of it (taxes) was with a general sales tax," Daniel said.

"I think the spirit of co-operation will be a little different."

The governor said he wants a showdown early—if one is coming—on a sales tax so that the entire session is not unduly delayed.

His "first things first" approach calls for retirement of the $65,889,592 deficit predicted Saturday by State Comptroller Robert Calvert. Next is passage of a tax bill to cover the $2,400,000,000 appropriations bill.

Calvert's new figures, which cut the estimated available revenue by three million dollars from his earlier forecast, also show $77,200,000 a year must be raised to balance the budget if the house version of the appropriations bill passes.

This is Governor Daniel's program—the same program he claimed "overwhelmingly favorable reaction" to from the Legislature January 24:

- To take care of the deficit: A bookkeeping transfer bill, a 1-year increase in the franchise tax and a revised abandoned property of escheat bill.
- To raise new taxes: A "severance" tax on gas, an increase in the motor vehicle sales and liquor taxes and an adjustment upwards in cigar and other tobacco products to the same level as cigarettes.

Texas Tech President Hanged in Effigy Again

LUBBOCK (AP) — Police reported another effigy was found hanging on the Texas Tech College campus Saturday.

The effigy bore the name of E. N. Jones, president of the school.

College officials have been conducting an investigation into a series of student demonstrations, including panty raids at women's dormitories.

Russia Endangers US West German Sounds Warning

If the United States does not stop the Russians in Berlin, she may have to stop them in New York Harbor. Dr. George R. Schultze, visiting professor from West Germany, predicted recently.

In a talk sponsored by Omega Chi Epsilon, chemical engineering honor society, Dr. Schultze, chemical engineering professor from Hanover Technical University, said:

"Although there may not be any war, the Russians by their very nature will cause serious trouble."

"If the United States lets Berlin go, Russia would keep right on going."

Dr. Schultze emphasized the role American aid policies had played in the rehabilitation of Germany.

"Americans gave the signal for the march out of the mess Germany was in," he said. "Much of the social and economic stress seemed to be alleviated almost immediately."

Geographical position, religious wants, financial instability, and the loss of two world wars were named by the speaker as major influences on German history.

"The end of World War II marked the greatest catastrophe the German people had faced," Dr. Schultze said. "Not only was Hitler defeated, but the whole government was destroyed. There was no postal service for six months and no fuel or clothing for three years."

Other problems that Germany faced in post-war years were unemployment coupled with the destruction of factories and the displacement of more than 16 million persons who were driven out of the section of Germany given to Poland.

"The reaction of the German people was one of hopelessness and frustration," Dr. Schultze said. "Nevertheless, they had a great respect for Allied troops who showed discipline. In contrast to Soviet troops, who often acted like wild beasts in the streets of Berlin."

Citing the modern buildings and industries that are prevalent in Germany today, Dr. Schultze emphasized the progress this country has made in regard to economic recovery as well as democracy.

"The Western World is due to survive as long as we are sincere and try to solve our differences in a peaceful way," he said. "We can only get along if we remain sensible."

Students to Hear Radio/TV Veteran

Richard Roll, former CBS reporter, will talk to Radio/TV news classes at 10 a.m. Monday in Journalism Building 205.

The 23-year veteran of radio and television news reporting has worked with such noted newsmen as Edward R. Murrow, Douglas Edwards, and Richard C. Hottelet.

Mr. Roll is now director of news and special events for KENS-TV in San Antonio. Before coming to San Antonio, he was director of news for WTVH-TV in Peoria, Ill.

In 1958 Mr. Roll made an extensive tour of Europe, Russia, and the Middle East, reporting by Trans-Atlantic telephone the activities in these areas.

During his trip abroad he was under close surveillance. In Russia, many of his broadcasts were cut off because of their editorial and partisan content.

Although two of his colleagues were exiled from Russia, Mr. Roll avoided complete banishment and

Election Postponed For Lack of Time

Election Commission members met Friday afternoon and decided there is not time before Dead Week to hold a special election for engineering assemblyman. The election will probably be early next October.

Ben Nowotny, elected engineering assemblyman in the April 22 general election, was disqualified by the Commission Wednesday night because a supporter had allegedly campaigned illegally for him. He will be eligible to run again next fall.

Election Commission members Rosemary House, Ken Andrews, and Ben Donnell agreed to meet in Austin near the end of June to revise the election code.

Also, in a report to the Students Association, they asked that the qualifications for candidacy be clarified, especially in regard to disciplinary probation.

SA Rejects Plan To Suspend Rules

By LEON GRAHAM
Assistant News Editor

The Student Assembly Saturday failed to take final action on a bill which would effectively abolish the Summer Student Council.

Meeting in a called session, assemblymen did not give the necessary three-fourths majority to a motion to suspend the Constitutional rule requiring bills to be voted on at the meeting following their introduction. Vote on the suspension motion was 11-7 in favor.

After the motion was lost, Students' Association President Frank Cooksey announced that the bill would have to follow the "regular" legislative route. Since no more regular Assembly meetings are scheduled, advocates of the measure will have to draw up another petition requesting a special session.

Cooksey appointed a special committee to consider the bill. Chairman of the panel is David Kendrick, and members include Jim Dannenbaum and Bob Averitt.

The contended bill, authored by Wes Ashendorf, reads as follows:

WHEREAS, the Summer Student Assembly has proved to be ineffective and to be unrepresentative of the regular session Student Assembly; and

WHEREAS, the majority of the duties can be completed during the remainder of the Spring Semester or the beginning of the Fall Semester 1959.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ENACTED BY THE STUDENT ASSEMBLY OF THE UNIVERSITY OF TEXAS that the Summer Student Council have no meetings, called or otherwise, during the summer session, and all previous conflicting legislation is hereby repealed.

In explaining his measure, Ashendorf pointed out that the bill did not void the recent Constitutional amendment passed by the Assembly and the student body. Instead, the bill merely prevents the Summer Council from ever meeting.

David Kendrick took issue with Ashendorf on this point and said, "The bill is a clear-cut, unconstitutional" measure. "The Constitution calls for meetings of the regular Assembly, and later on it calls the Summer Assembly a regular group," he added.

Vice-president Jerry Nathan also spoke in favor of the bill. "The students elected 26 of us to make decisions for them, and only seven of us will be here this summer," he added. "I just don't think that the Summer Council would give the students what they deserve in the way of representation."

Assemblyman Jim Infante expressed belief in representation based upon the actions of the assemblymen, themselves. "I contend that it is better to be represented by the actions of seven than by no one at all," he said.

Cooksey outlined three areas of action he wished the Summer Council to consider:

- Try to get more students employed in the Commons.
 - Renegotiate the student insurance plan (if necessary).
 - Evaluate the student government committee structure.
- In other action the Assembly gave approval to three presidential committee appointments.

Walker Cup Golf Won by US Team

MUIRFIELD, Scotland — A trio of college boys new to international competition — Ward Wettlaufer, Jackie Nicklaus and Deane Beman—paced U.S. amateur golfers to a sweeping 9-3 Walker Cup victory over the British Saturday.

Wettlaufer, 23, and Nicklaus, just 19, played superb sub-par golf for crushing one-sided victories; and young Beman, idle in Friday's team matches, came from behind to win a decision on the final green.

Two hardened veterans of Walker Cup play, Harvie Ward of San Francisco and Bill Hyndman III of Abington, Pa., contributed two other points in America's 16th Cup triumph, with only one defeat, in 87 years.

Scotsman Gets One-Lap Record

90,000 Fans See Speedway Prelims

INDIANAPOLIS — Johnny Thomson, a tough little Scotsman from Boyertown, Pa., drove a radically different race car to an Indianapolis Motor Speedway one-lap record Saturday and earned the pole position for the 43rd 500-mile auto race May 30.

A crowd estimated at 90,000 saw Thomson, veteran of six 500s and 21 years of top-level auto racing, push the record to 146.532 miles an hour. The old one-lap mark for the 49-year-old track was 146.508 set last year by Ed Elisian of Oakland, Calif.

Thomson's average for the 10-mile trial, 145.908, was a shade under the 145.974 record set last year by Dick Rathmann of San Gabriel, Calif., who did 144.248 in Saturday's trials.

The bright pink Thomson racer, built by Lajie Lesovsky of Inglewood, Calif., has the engine installed on its side with the drive shaft running down the right side of the car. The normal engine installation in speedway cars, either flat or tilted, puts the drive shaft on the left side.

The Pennsylvania veteran will share the front row on Memorial Day with Eddie Sachs, Center Valley, Pa., who qualified at 145.432 in a new Kuzma owned by Pete Schmidt of St. Louis, and Jim Rathmann, Dick's brother.

Jim Rathmann did 144.433 Saturday in the Hopkins Special in which he set a world's race record of 170.262 on the higher banked Daytona Beach track last month.

Ten Speedway veterans and two hot rookies made qualifying runs. Bobby Grim of Indianapolis, king of the country's dirt tracks, turned in the fifth best speed of 144.225 in his first shot at the 500-mile lineup.

Royal Orbit's Stretch Run Wins In Preakness; 'Dancer' Runner-Up

Two Schoolboy Athletes Ink Letters With Baylor

WACO — Baylor announced Saturday two schoolboy stars from Odessa have signed athletic letters of intent with the school.

They are Jerry Harris, 6-1, 185-pound football end, and Don Brownlee, 6-1, 175-pound all-state schoolboy basketball player.

First Landing, the surprise slight favorite ridden by Eddie Arcaro, wound up ninth in the 83rd running of the classic.

Tomy Lee, who snatched the roses by a nose over Sword Dancer in the Kentucky Derby two weeks ago, elected to skip Maryland's famous three-year-old contest.

Royal Orbit got into heaps of trouble when he made his late move in the Derby behind tiring horses and wound up fourth in a field of 17.

But Willie Harnatz, riding in a Preakness for the first time, gave a Pimlico crowd of 31,506 plenty to cheer about as the well-liked Sword Dancer was just another runner-up in the field of 11 starters.

The Claiborne Farm's Dunce, a disappointing seventh in the derby, came in third three lengths behind Sword Dancer and 2 1/2 lengths ahead of L. G. Robinson's Marauder, the early pace setter.

Royal Orbit is owned by Helina Braunstein, a chic former

New York actress and TV performer who lives in Beverly Hills, Calif.

She thinks Royal Orbit is the greatest race horse in the world and was here to accept the record winner's check of $136,200. The largest net jackpot for a previous Preakness winner was the $98,005 hauled down by Calumet Farm's Faultless in 1947.

Royal Orbit, third choice in the mutuels, returned $15.20, $5.80, and $4.20 for $2.

Royal Orbit was clocked in 1:57 flat for the mile and 3-16ths on a fast track and under sunny skies in cool weather. This compared with the track record of 1:54 3/5 set by Nashua in winning the 1955 Preakness.

US Prosperity and Profits May Balance 1959 Budget

WASHINGTON — Rising prosperity may balance President Eisenhower's 77-billion-dollar budget even if Congress doesn't vote the extra revenue he wants.

A record 50-billion dollar total of corporate profits is in sight this year, government economists said Saturday. This is three billion dollars more than the budget-makers estimated in January.

The Treasury will take about half the gain, at the 52 per cent tax rate on corporate earnings. This would add 1½ billion dollars to revenues in the fiscal year starting July 1, substantially more than Eisenhower asked in higher taxes, postal rates, and fees.

Congress could easily tip the scales into a deficit. But its Democratic leaders seem increasingly anxious to repudiate the "spender" label, and Eisenhower's aides have become correspondingly more hopeful.

Doctor Hopes Surgery Will Help Denton Coed

DENTON, Tex. — A doctor held out hope Saturday that the disfigured face of a coed splashed with searing silver nitrate can be repaired with plastic surgery.

But he said the condition of her burned eyes still is undetermined.

Houston Gypsies Charge Police Violating Rights

HOUSTON — A complaint charging Police Chief Carl Shuptrine and two of his officers deprived nine separate individuals of their constitutional rights was on file in federal court Saturday.

In addition to Shuptrine, the suit, filed by attorney Bill Scott, charges vice squad captain H. L. Ellisor and detective James Graddy.

The complaint flays police procedure of arresting persons without a warrant, and marking them "hold" for investigation for undue periods of time.

After learning the names of the complainants, Ellisor said:

"They are all members of a gypsy clan, and I have given orders to have them arrested every time they are seen on the streets."

English Expert Called to Tokyo

Dr. Ernest F. Haden, chairman of the Romance Languages department, has a grant from the Japan Society of New York City to serve as linguistics consultant to the English Language Exploratory in Tokyo.

Dr. and Mrs. Haden will go to Japan in August and will stay through the fall semester. This summer, Dr. Haden will conduct a linguistics and French workshop at the Mundelein College Summer Institute of Linguistics in Chicago before going to Japan.

The English Language Exploratory Committee is made up of Japanese university professors and other men and women in the professions and business.

The Hadens spent last summer in Tokyo. Dr. Haden is among United States experts called in since 1956 to institute a modern program for teaching English in Japanese junior high schools. This is a part of the latest American system for teaching foreign languages: begin with the spoken form, then add reading, then writing.

English has been the preferred second language of the Japanese for at least 40 years, and there has been a tremendous upsurge since World War II, Dr. Haden said.

$53,170 Donated For Science Study

The National Science Foundation has donated $53,170 in grants and scholarships for work at the University this summer.

Twenty-eight teachers have been awarded scholarships to attend the first Summer Institute for College Teachers of Physics at the University beginning June 16.

Receiving the grants were 10 Texans, 15 from other states, and one each from Mexico, Puerto Rico, and Formosa. The funds, totaling $36,600, will be distributed with $675 going to each scholarship winner plus allowances for dependents and travel.

"The Institute is designed for teachers who have had a limited background in physics or the necessary allied fields," said Dr. Robert N. Little, director of the Institute.

A $16,570 grant from the foundation will finance the "Research Participation Program for Teacher Training." The research program is open to experienced teachers who can qualify individually for working on research in zoology, bacteriology, botany, physics, chemistry, and mathematics.

Dr. Addison E. Lee, associate professor of botany, will coordinate the program from June 16 to August 20, and ten UT scientists will participate in the program.

Grant to Support Medical Research

A $12,420 grant has been awarded the University by the National Science Foundation for the support of basic research entitled "Short Term Research by Medical Students." The three-year program is under the direction of Robert W. Lackey, assistant dean, Southwest Medical School, Dallas.

Greater participation of students in the research program of the school through summer work is the exclusive use of the grant.

An Exclusive Contest For The Clothes Conscious College Man . . .

Win a Renwood Sportcoat For Your Wardrobe A Fitting First Prize From Reynolds-Penland

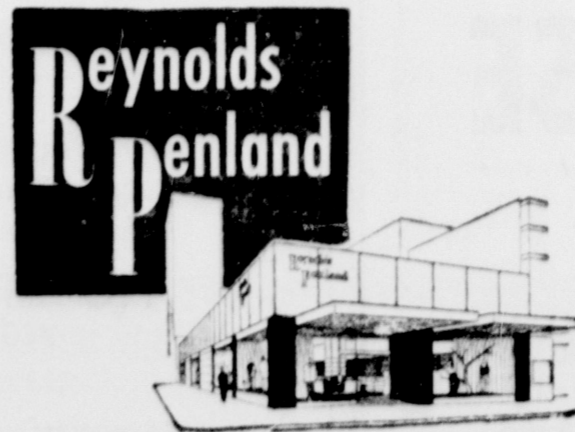

In the Reynolds-Penland tradition of offering traditional clothing in a relaxed atmosphere, we are in the process of planning an exclusive college man's shop which will be open when you return next Fall.

This shop will be the largest of its kind in this area . . . a place where natural shoulder clothing will be shown in the proper manner . . . a place where knowledgeable young men may congregate . . . a place where the college man's desires are recognized and can be fulfilled. You will find an extensive and exclusive collection of natural shoulder clothing and accessories in dress and casual fashions.

You will be counseled by college men who are aware of your needs and are ready to offer guidance in the selection of your apparel. Although it will be located adjacent to the present Reynolds-Penland it will be a completely separate shop . . . designed for you, the college man. As this will be your shop exclusively, we are asking your help in naming the shop. We will present to the winner of our contest a Renwood Sportcoat of his choice, a $39.50 value.

Entries will be judged on the basis of originality, appropriateness, and cleverness. Decision of the judges is final. In case of ties, the earliest entry will be declared the winner.
3. Entries may be left at Reynolds-Penland or may be mailed to REYNOLDS-PENLAND CONTEST, 721 Congress, Austin.
4. Entries must be postmarked by midnight Wednesday, May 20.

Caution: Deadly Finals Ahead; Approach With Sane Dead Week

Students, are you beginning to panic about the coming weeks? Dead Week and finals are enough to panic any red-blooded American collegian. Calm down a minute, and look the matter over. Maybe there's still hope.

A level head and organization are your basic needs right now. First, be sure you get plenty of rest, and avoid "stay awake" tablets as though they were the plague. Plan your time, have a definite place to study where there won't be many interruptions, and try not to worry about other problems. Then you might try the following steps in your studying:

1. Skim over your notes and text, making an outline as you go. This outline should be as brief as possible, using phrases that will bring the subject to mind quickly.

2. Review what you've learned so far by making up questions on the different topics to see just how well you have learned the material.

3. Don't forget the coffee break. 4. Run through your topics, and review the main points of the entire course.

It would probably be best to apply these steps to a chapter at a time, instead of trying yourself reading the entire book at once or outlining it all in one sitting. Remember, variety adds spice, and detours from monotony.

A few tips on memorizing might also come in handy when you get your information organized. Know key words instead of cluttered sentences, arranging the first letters in your key words into sensible or nonsensical words might help you recall the information more rapidly. Charts are also helpful in many courses. Rewrite them and fill them in until you're sure you know them.

There it is, all you need to know about studying for exams—well, almost everything. Have a good, reliable rabbit's foot handy?

Savings of up to two-thirds in the cost of their GI insurance are being offered by mail to veterans whose insurance policy number is preceded by the letters "RS." Dr. George T. McMahan, manager of the VA center in Waco announces.

Vogue Magazine Offers Paris Trip as Top Prize

Vogue's magazine's twenty-fifth PRIX DE PARIS writing contest offers a two-week trip to Paris, all expenses paid, or $1,000 to the first prize winner.

Second prize in the college contest is $500 and 10 honorable mention awards are $25 each.

The contest is open to all seniors in accredited colleges in the United States who will complete work on a bachelor's degree by the summer of 1960. The 12 top winners will receive first chance at jobs on Vogue, Glamour, House and Garden, Bride's Vogue, Pattern Book, and Vogue Knitting Book. Other outstanding contestants will be recommended by Vogue for jobs in publishing, merchandising, and advertising.

Deadline for PRIX entries is October 19. Entrants will use Vogue as a textbook, completing two quizzes of four questions, based on actual problems that the magazine's own staff has faced.

The first quiz will appear in Vogue's August 1 College issue. The second will be in the December issue. Those who answer both quizzes satisfactorily will be eligible to write a 1,500-word thesis on one of several topics which will be listed in Vogue's February 1, 1960 Americana issue.

Entries will be judged by Vogue's editors on grasp of subject matter, general intelligence, originality, and demonstration of special talents.

Enrollment blanks may be obtained by writing the PRIX de Paris Director, Vogue, 420 Lexington Avenue, New York 17.

Don't Worry; Others Are Single

Men Are Like Geese—They Won't Fly Alone

By MARILYN MILLER
Campus Life Editor

So! The boyfriend got wise to your tricks. He read Wednesday's Texan, said "I'm getting out," and dropped you. Well, cheer up. Nothing is lost (we hope) except your pride, a part of your youth, your doe eyes which were smudged from straggling tears, and a few dollars you sank on exotic clothes.

So much for that, and we'll dispense with the touching details of sunlit kisses, ecstatic embraces, and the occasional pinch behind the ear.

"Can't you see, I'm only thinking of you," he said as you wring out your hanky. "I'm an independent man," he continued. "I was destined to stay independent." The sad thing about it is that he means it.

Immediately you start thinking about which procedure to follow if he calls and begs to come back—wishful thinking.

Tell him you're having a party. While balancing the phone on your left foot and clapping the receiver to your headache band, flip on the hifi to "Jamaica Farewell," turn over the waste basket and pound it with fury like a bongo drum.

Break a few ash trays so they sound like tinkling glasses, and throw down the receiver and run around the room laughing in every key below middle C. Jerk up the phone and say in your out-of-breath drawl that the natives are getting restless and hang up.

If you are really gone on him, you could tell him he has the wrong number so that he'll call back and you can hear his voice again. On the fourth ring-back, you'd better not answer.

But, he probably won't call. What if you should just happen to bump into him some morning about 6 on the steps of his apartment when he opens the door to get the morning paper. Don't sweat it. Say your friend's little brother is sick and you are just helping out with the route.

The most likely place you'll see "Mr. Independence" is at a party to which you practically broke up a friendship between you and your hostess to get her to invite him. Now you wonder, should you go?

Okay, You'll go. Wear some slinky number cut so low that even your peek-a-boo foundation won't look, and lash right up to him and embarrass him before his date.

Whisper in his date's ear, "Say, sister, this is one you had better watch. Have you got a good look on your door?" Or just look up at him and call him "hands."

If you can't quite get up the nerve to embarrass him, and you'd rather not converse, bring a blind date and sit in the corner and neck.

Okay, so he hasn't called, and you can think of no possible way to see him short of planting yourself in the men's room at his office or Garrison Hall. You've got to learn to get along without him. Find a hobby to relieve the tension. Something invigorating like knitting. Knit one, perl two; knit one, perl two—whoops, how did your lovely green sweater yarn turn into a pair of size 12 socks?

Well, try cooking new and exotic foods for one week, and dieting and a workout at the gym the next week, and so on.

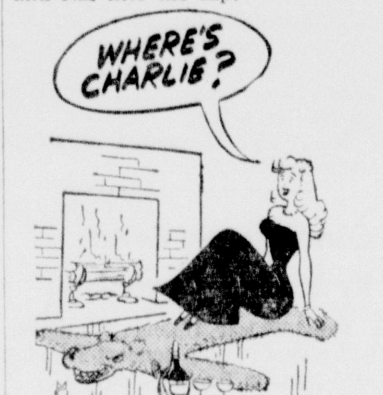

If you are not the hobby type, then develop a new personality. The natural result of your broken romance would be either to withdraw or to become an extrovert. We strongly discourage the first, but if you insist on playing martyr, and if the male situation looks as though you might not have another chance for a spree, then, by all means, make the most of the remnants of this one.

The first person who says "good morning" Monday just be squelched. Grip her wrist and quote from W. B. Yates, "What the world's million lips are searching for, must be substantial somewhere."

Perhaps the best advice on how to get over an affair would be to simply have another one. Don't stop with burnt fingers, since the hair all the way up to your elbows.

The next time you catch the 5:15 bus, don't turn to the comics. Check until you see a ringless left hand gripping the sports page, then, carefully lose your balance and fall into his lap.

Ask him if he thinks Babe Ruth really was the greatest figure in football. But, if you've craftily fought your way down the aisle and see no ringless left hand, get off and catch another bus.

Assume you have found another man and you're off on a second whirl. Just a word of caution—take it slowly. Don't give him an inch, for only one little pinch might lead to a clench.

Even with the new bean there will be times when something like the slamming of a door, a sale of men's underwear, or a burp after a beer will remind you of his predecessor.

Well, girls, this is the price of tender, sensitive womanhood. We are full of affection and susceptible to romance. Get over a man? Why, certainly, 'cause the possibilities of getting another one are mighty strong.

'Kismet' Returns With Its Splendor

By DARWIN PAYNE

The delights of "Kismet" have returned to the Texas Theater and they are as enhancing as ever.

A favorite of Broadway five-or-so years ago, the musical has the proper ingredients to continue to wear well.

The rich music based on themes by Alexander Borodin gives the show one of the most beautiful scores of all musicals. Vincente Minnelli, who won all those awards with "Gigi," directed this one, too.

A rather humorous look at all the opulence and poverty of Baghdad is pictured through the antics of a beggar-poet, Howard Keel. In one miraculous day, partly by his own wits and partly by fate, Keel wins the favor of the wazir and becomes an emir. Through a series of incidents the wazir is convinced that Keel is a wizard with unlimited powers.

The poet's daughter, Ann Blyth, is wooed and won in the same wonderful day by the caliph himself.

Dolores Gray portrays a favorite wife from the wazir's ample harem, and Vic Damone plays the youthful caliph.

Seven Stations Slate R/TV Show

Seven television stations across Texas and New Mexico are featuring the University Radio/Television production "Vision Across Texas" this weekend. The movie tells the story of rehabilitated blind workers in Texas.

The documentary was produced for the State Commission for the Blind by the Department of Radio/Television. Harvey Herbst was supervising director. Director of photography was William Purdy Jr., and the script was written by Marye Benjamin and narrated by Hugh Greene.

Stations showing the film this weekend are KDFB, Lubbock; KPAR, Abilene; KEDY, Big Spring; KTCA, Clovis; KBTX, Bryan; and channels in Corpus Christi and Tyler.

Concert to Be Given By Student Organizer

Lloyd Walker, University student, will give an organ concert Tuesday at 4 p.m. in Recital Hall.

Walker, who is being presented by the Student Recital Series of the Department of Music, will play "Three Sonatas for Organ and Strings" by Mozart; "Sonata I" by Hindsmith; and "Sonata on the 34th Psalm" by Reubke.
