Tickets For Thanksgiving Function
Will Be One Dollar—Many Out-of-Town Visitors Expected.

Final arrangements for the Engineers' Reception to take place the night before Thanksgiving, have been made, and things are now in complete readiness to be staged. All outlines and plans have been worked out, and only the last few details of the final arrangements are left to be executed. It is of course necessary to postpone these until the last moment in order to not interrupt class work.

Mr. Thaxton, president of this year's reception, has said that the 1912 entertainment is to surpass all others in grandeur and merriment, and appearances so far indicate that his statement is correct. Frank Keelman, who is the "chief" of the smoker, promises a "sidesplitting" affair from his portion of the building. Of course some faculty wits and sages are expected to lend an aiding hand in this phase of the affair. And no doubt will have some excellent amusements in store for those who "smoke."

It is unfortunate that there is to be no "open house" this year as has been the custom heretofore during the afternoon of the Engineers' Reception. This part of the affair will be omitted on account of the limited time available in which to prepare for it. However, decorated class rooms are to be, just as usual; and this feature is one of the most interesting of the Reception. Straight and plain lecture rooms are to be transformed into cozy and altogether artistic reception rooms. The School of Architecture is to have a combined exhibit and decorated room which promises to be excellent indeed. In fact, no pains have been spared anywhere that might aid to the Reception in the least.

Aside from the "smoker" and vaudeville stunt, the dance on the third floor will be the most popular attraction. The drawing room of the freshmen is to be transformed into a magnificent ball room decorated in state for the occasion. A seven-piece orchestra from the shop of Besserer will provide music for the dance. As one example of the thorough going way in which things are to be done, one disciple of Alexander Frederick Claire makes the assertion that refreshments will be served not only once or twice, but continually during the course of the evening. High authority has sanctioned this statement.

The grand march will start promptly at nine o'clock. President Thaxton will lead with Miss Violet Aitken, of El Paso. Eighteen dances with four extras will follow, the ninth number being a special dance which Mr. Strauss and Mr. Greene, the decorating talent, have promised to make a "thing of beauty."

On Saturday evening, November 23, the usual meal dance is to be held from eight until twelve o'clock. This, while only a preliminary dance, has grown to be quite a thing of importance in itself and will be an enjoyable affair. A five-piece orchestra

STUDENT MASS MEETING.

Twelve O'Clock Classes Excused On Thursday to Discuss "Dirty Politics."

The faculty committee on good government has decided to give the students another holiday, from twelve to one, one day this week for the purpose of considering the political situation in the University. This meeting will probably be held Thursday.

This is a movement perpetuated by some of the foremost students in the University for the purpose of eliminating the old party factions and "dirty" politics in the University. It is a plan whereby an effort will be put forward to secure the best men and candidates for every office in the University. It proposes that men shall be chosen on merit and merit only.

Every student should be in the Auditorium to hear this proposition discussed as it touches a vital spot in the University life. Watch for the announcement by President Mezes.

Pageant Is Progressing.

The University Pageant to be given in the Auditorium November 26th, is well under way. The work of drilling the one hundred and fifty girls is quite a task, but those who have the work in charge report good progress. The general scheme of the Pageant is unique, and several different nationalities will be impersonated in the cast, but there is an abundance of material of such a high type that the directors are assured of carrying out the most difficult parts even to perfection. Rehearsals are being held every afternoon or night, behind closed doors, and the mysterious looking costumes and props that are making their way to the Auditorium are attracting attention.

There is considerable expense attached to this production, considering the special costumes, but the students will see it free of cost.

Y. M. C. A. TO PUBLISH SUNDAY ADDRESSES

New Policy to Be Inaugurated—Mr.
John Keen Makes Highly Interesting Talk.

Sunday, November 17, the Y. M. C. A. held one of the most successful religious meetings of the year. The religious committee was fortunate in securing Dr. John W. Keen to speak for the evening. Professor Keen spoke to an appreciative crowd of young men on the subject, "The Student as the Faculty Sees Him." Through the entire speech there was evidence of a happy combination of subtle humor and sober-minded talk. With the publication of this speech in pamphlet form, the religious committee inaugurates a new policy of printing the speeches that are delivered at the Sunday religious meetings. It is the purpose of the committee to circulate these speeches in among the students in pamphlet form and thereby to extend the benefits of these talks to the students at large.

by Besserer is to furnish music for the meal dance, and delightful refreshments of H2O will be served throughout the evening. For this dance only one hundred tickets are to be sold and these at twenty-five cents each. Tickets on sale beginning today for Engineering students only, but after Saturday morning any student in the University may buy a ticket as long as they last. Beginning today, tickets to the Reception will be on sale at $1.50 each, only bona fide Engineers being allowed to purchase one.

President Thaxton and the Executive Committee have authorized the statement that any student or alumnus of an engineering school who happens to be in Austin is invited to attend the Reception and will be furnished with a complimentary ticket upon discovery. Invitations have been sent to recognized Engineering schools in Arkansas, Missouri, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Illinois, Nebraska, Kansas, Alabama, and to Texas A. & M. College. It is likely that representatives from most of these schools will be present at the Reception.

BASKET BALL LEAGUES NOW IN FULL SWING

Cactus, Coyote, Benedict and Townes Teams the Winners.

It was announced in the last issue of this sheet that Capt. McVeigh was going to put into operation two early season basketball leagues. By this time these leagues have been changed from paper-theories to definite realities. Two games have been played in each league; and the spectators (such as were lucky enough to get to see them) will testify as to the great amount of interest and enthusiasm which marked every minute of play.

In the Publications' League Cactus beat Texan by a score of 22 to 15; and Magazine beat Coyote, in a well-played game by the difference between 21 and 13. In the Deans' League Benedict whipped Battle to the tune of 35 to 26; and Townes triumphed over Taylor, score, 27 to 19. The object of Captain McVeigh is to make each team about equal to all of the others, in point of strength; and these first games seem to prove that his work has been good. The fight for the "rag" between the champs of the two leagues promises to be a good one.

Beginning at 5:15 p. m., there are to be two games (one in each league) every day of this week, except Friday afternoon. The Friday games have been postponed until Saturday on account of the Texas vs. Southwestern football game, which is posted on the boards, as the whole show for next Friday.

Beginning Monday, Coach C. C. Taylor has been with the men every day of this week. So far, his policy seems to have been to keep his eyes open and his mouth shut. Considering the earliness of the season, we think that his idea has a great deal of virtue in it.

The manager announces that letters, offering tentative games, are daily coming in from a great number of the best Southern teams. As yet, the schedule has taken on no definite shape; but it is now almost a certainty that a big Southern trip is to be one of its features.

Watch basketball. Our team this year promises to be one of the best of the whole South!

EL PASO CLUB BANQUET.

Students From Border City Give a Banquet at Driskill—Many Present.

The El Paso Club, composed of the boys of El Paso who are in the University this year, gave a delightful dinner to the El Paso Society, which is composed of the girls of El Paso who are in the University this year, at the Driskill last Thursday evening at 7:30. These clubs, together with El Paso University Club of El Paso, promise to be a bright star in University life in the near future.

The following compose the membership of the El Paso Club: Norman Morrison, T. Hardie, D. E. Mulcahy, Jno. Q. Busch, Francis C. Lyons, R. E. Hardaway, Jr., Paul R. Ellis, Clark Wright, Will Hawkins, Jewel Alexander, L. C. Heek, Lawrence Shea, and Louis Blume.

The following compose the membership of the El Paso Society: Bess Murtie, Louise Sistermans, Mabel O'Connor, Violet Aitken, May Campbell, Gladys Strickland, Elsinor Shelton, Guida Mayer, Nell Haniman, Rose Stoloroff, Mary Leighton, Ethel Taylor, and Ruth Long.

Athenaeum On Tuesday.

An amendment to the constitution of the Athenaeum Literary Society, changing the time of meeting from Saturday night to Tuesday night, was proposed at the regular meeting of the Athenaeum last Saturday night, by Mr. P. H. Brown, representative in the Assembly of the Junior Laws. He advocated Tuesday night as being a more logical and convenient time; and further explained that the change would be in line with recommendations that would be made by the Assembly for freeing Tuesday night from all social affairs, thereby allowing anyone to participate in literary work on that night.

CACTUS GIVES RULES FOR GROUP PICTURES

Management of University Annual Make Regulations in Order to Secure Uniformity.

As a means of facilitating the work of all concerned the Cactus Board wishes to make the following announcements in regard to pictures:

All pictures are to be contracted for, subject to the approval of the Cactus. If they do not meet our requirements, we cannot, in justice to the Cactus, accept them. The photographers know what style of picture we want; see that they are made right, and avoid the trouble of re-taking.

The Senior pictures are to be of the same style as last year. Be sure to fill out your Senior Record Blank before you leave the shop. As to this, do not be bashful. Tell what honors, etc., you have received, in order to save us the trouble of looking them up. It is not a matter of what YOU want under your Cactus picture—it is what the student body wants to know about each Senior. Your bashfulness or diffidence will only mean trouble to us.

There will be a few slight changes in the pictures of the different organizations. Those of a dignified nature, such as the fraternities, sororities, clubs of the serious sort, and vocational clubs, will be required to have their pictures taken in the conventional group which was used last year. Please be careful as to the posing. When your picture has been posed, and before it is taken, have some member write a diagram showing the name and position of each person in the picture. This is important! Every organization is also required to leave with the photographer a list of members, and all other information, which usually goes in to the Cactus.

Clubs and other organizations of a less serious nature may have an unconventional pose if they so desire. As to this matter please confer with the board before having the pictures taken.

Above all things, have your picture taken NOW. Mr. Frank Wozencraft has charge of the Senior pictures, and Mr. R. T. Fleming has the organization pictures in charge. If you want any information, please confer with one of them or with the editor. By following all these instructions the student body can help us immensely in making the 1913 Cactus one of the best Cacti ever published.

THE CACTUS BOARD.

Debate of the proposal was, for that meeting, limited to ten minutes. Warm arguments were advanced on both sides, Brown, Black, and Stephenson for the affirmative; Wythe and others for the negative. Action was deferred until the next meeting, when discussion would not be limited.

The regular literary exercises of the Athenaeum were well rendered, and enjoyed by the usual audience. More "pep" than usual was shown by the speakers, and it is believed that spirit and enthusiasm will grow with the approach of the contests.

SEASON TICKET HOLDERS.

All of the numbered seats in the west stands will be reserved at the Thanksgiving game. A season ticket holder to obtain a reserved seat will present his book to the management in the corridor of the Main Building and receive in exchange for coupon number 5 an admission and a reserved seat ticket. Those who fail to make the exchange prior to the twenty-eighth will be unable to obtain a reserved seat on their coupons. Bookholders will be given on Saturday, the twenty-third, the choice of reserved seats. Bookholders may buy additional seats, but not more than two reserved seats will be sold to any bookholder on this day. Tickets will be on sale to non-bookholders and the general public beginning Monday.

LAWYERS WILL BANQUET.

Department Banquet Will Be Held December 2nd—Judge Tarleton to Preside.

President Lewis of the Law Department announces that the annual banquet of the Department will be given in the Driskill on December 2. Judge B. D. Tarleton will act as toastmaster, and there will be gathered around him a host of silvery orators, including distinguished visitors, members of the faculty and representatives from the different classes.

The speakers elected by the different classes are as follows: Seniors, Tomlinson; Middle, Meachum; Juniors, Croso. Their subjects as well as the rest of the program will be given out later.

Chairmen of the committees are as follows: Finance, Blair; Reception, Bain; Invitation, Reinhardt; Arrangement, Goldsmith; Program, Hardie; Alumni, Henderson; Refreshments, Fleming.

As this is the one annual spread of the department, it is expected that every member will arrange to be present.

Education Reception.

The annual reception of the Department of Education will be held at the Woman's Building on Friday night, November 22nd. The program is under capable management and everything points towards the most successful banquet in the history of the Department. The evening will be spent in such a way as to be a source of pleasure to all who may be present and the entertainment will be especially pleasing to those who are interested in the work of the Educational Department.

Refreshments will be served during the course of the evening. All members of the Department are invited and urged to be present and make the affair a distinct success. It will be free.

UNIVERSITY TO GIVE THANKSGIVING DANCE

Faculty Act As Sponsors For Social Event Given at Commons.

A reception and dance will be given at the Commons by the University of Texas on Thursday, November 28. Prominent members of the faculty and their wives will be hosts and hostesses to the students on this occasion.

The spacious dining hall on the campus, popularly known as "The Commons," will be cleared and decorated for the affair. Dancing will be an important feature, but there will be others, providing for the entertainment of all. Besserer's Orchestra will furnish music, and it is announced that refreshments, for the serving of which the Commons is so well prepared, will be supplied in abundance throughout the evening, and a great variety of candies, nuts, cakes, and cigars will be entirely at the disposal of the guests.

Who will lead the grand march? That will be decided by a vote of the students, in a manner yet to be determined. Possibly the most popular football hero will be chosen for the honor.

Following the regular Thanksgiving banquets and the Texas-Arkansas football game in the afternoon, this entertainment, with its opportunity for meeting fellow students and the faculty, should be the climax of a great day. Tickets will be sold at one dollar, giving every student a chance to help enjoy it.

Well Known Alumnus Married.

The Texan is in receipt of the announcement of the marriage of Jno. D. Cobb, a former president of the Students' Association here, to Mrs. S. Morton, of Clarendon, Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Cobb will make their home at Gatesville, Texas.

SOUTHWESTERN HERE FRIDAY

METHODISTS COME OVER TO SHOW VARSITY HOW THE GAME SHOULD REALLY BE PLAYED.

ROOTERS TO BE ALONG

Visitors Will Arrive In Excellent Physical Condition—Nobody
On the Hospital
List.

When the Longhorns face the Southwestern eleven on Clark Field Friday, Varsity adherents might as well look for a game that will take all the stuff that our Longhorns have to humble these Methodists from Georgetown. While the coaches and student body do not expect anything but victory, the fact that the Southwestern team has only recently found its strength must not be overlooked in prophesying the result.

The Methodists entered the season with practically all of last year's fast team back on the squad and some new material was added from the freshmen crop, but they lost their coach of the last four seasons, when Arbuckle accepted a similar position with Rice Institute. The loss of their leader perhaps accounts for the poor start Southwestern got this season. But the Methodists have regained all their confidence and fighting spirit since they trimmed Glaze's Baylorites 13 to 6 up in Waco during the Cotton Palace, and since that game Southwestern has boasted of the best eleven in the State next to A. & M. and Varsity.

Last week Southwestern ran up a 32 to 0 score on the plucky Rice eleven. Coach McGinnis, who was Arbuckle's assistant for the last two years, is quoted as having said that Southwestern would give Texas the game of her life Friday. The Methodists are in the best condition they have been in all this season and free of any hospital list, and with hundreds of Southwestern rooters, who are coming over on a special train to cheer their team in their fight for victory, Friday's combat will wax warm.

It has long been the boast of Southwestern that if she could play Varsity late in the season, that result would be somewhat different, and the Methodists believe in that assertion enough to come over in a body for the game on a special train. The Southwestern Special will leave Georgetown about noon and reach Austin about an hour before the game.

The Longhorns are in the best of condition for Friday's game and Coach Allerdice expects his Longhorns to add another scalp to Varsity's string Friday. No doubt the same style of play that the Longhorns used in administering Mississippi's defeat will be tried on the Southwesterners. With the team showing the speed and attack that it has since the Mississippi game, we are confident that the Methodists will return to Georgetown Friday night somewhat meeker in spirit.

We must not forget the fact that our cheering section must be larger than usual Friday, for Southwestern is coming over to our root Varsity on her own field. Every loyal Varsity man is supposed to be in the cheering section Friday so we can show Southwestern what rooting really is.

The game will start promptly at 3:30 o'clock.

FOOTBALL RALLY.

Wednesday night at 7:15 in the Auditorium of the Main Building will be held the rally for the Southwestern game. There will be plenty of "pep"; Teddy Reese will be there to lead the yell; there will be great speakers to stir things up and spur the team on to victory. The "Globaskers" will probably pull off a "Modern Drama," and everyone should be there to see things "pulled off." Come out and lend a hand.

MR. THOMAS' LOAN FUND.

By undertaking to raise a $100,000 loan fund, Cullen F. Thomas has added his name to the list of the great benefactors of the University, and has enrolled himself on the roster of the friends of Texas boys and girls. President Mezes in a speech at the alumni reunion at Dallas made the statement that the only reason for a State University is the opportunity it gives to the poor to educate their children. The purpose of Mr. Thomas' plan is to increase the number of opportunities. The rich do not need so badly as the poor the advantages of a state university, and they can dispense with a loan fund altogether. But it is for the benefit of the less fortunate, who constitute the majority of the people, that universities have been built by the State and that loan funds are being raised. The position of this institution is often misunderstood and sometimes maligned, but the school stands ready now, as always, to render the best service possible to the State. The University of Texas has always been proud of the fact that the poor students within her walls have had an opportunity equal to that of the rich, and she is glad that she numbers among her alumni men like Mr. Thomas who are striving to widen the field of her usefulness.

THE FIRING LINE

(The Texan is at all times willing to publish communications from University people. The articles must be signed, although the author's identity will be withheld if he desires.)

To Avoid the Rush.

One of the things that would yield the greatest amount of satisfaction per unit of cost around this "old" institution, which is famed abroad for the genteel spirit of its student body, would be a railing, a plain iron railing of substantial character, in front of the postoffice window. Such at least, is the observation of a casual observer who is not desirous of "bucking the line" to secure his mail, and thereby causing distraction to the faithful postmistress in the performance of her duties, and embarrassment to any other ladies who chance to be in the immediate vicinity of the postoffice window for the purpose of securing their mail. Such an instrument is suggested as being one of great utility in securing better postal service and more convenience—barring everything else—to all concerned.

Social Functions.

The Students' Assembly is about to institute a plan for the limitation of the number of nights open to social functions during any one week. The plan provides that there shall be only two nights a week open for social affairs unless one day in that week is a regular holiday, and that all social functions shall close before 12:00 p. m. A committee from the Assembly shall be notified in advance of any affair that is contemplated. This committee will allow first applicants their choice of the nights in the week. All others will be compelled to hold their affairs on either of the two nights first chosen.

It is hardly to be doubted that there is a necessity for regulating social affairs and the number of nights open to same. This plan, however, has several serious faults. First it gives an advantage to those clubs that held functions regularly. For they can file their applications long in advance, arrange for the best music, rent the best hall and leave the leavings to the others. They will thus obtain a distinction and privilege that is entirely undeserved. Secondly, the smaller social clubs will often be unable to hold their affairs at all if it should so happen that there are two or three ahead of them, for they will be unable to obtain music or a hall. Their affairs, being thus overshadowed by those of the larger societies, will not be patronized. Thirdly, I think the method proposed is not very practical, for authority to name the social dates and give preferences could not and should not be vested in one or two individuals; while, if the matter is in control of a committee, it will involve a great loss of time to the individual members of the committee. In fact it will be very difficult to always call the committee together when wanted.

Y. W. C. A. WEEK OF PRAYER.

University Organization Turns Attention to Foreign Mission Field.

Each year the Y. W. C. A.'s all over the world set aside one week designated as a week of prayer, and for thirty minutes each day of this week devotional exercises are held, when all Y. W. C. A. girls unite and direct their prayers for the spreading of Christianity in some particular country. The first meeting of the University Y. W. C. A. was held last Sunday afternoon in the Girls' Study Hall, with Miss Jeanette Kaapke as leader. Monday at the regular Y. W. C. A. time Mrs. R. H. Baker conducted the meeting for America; Tuesday Misses Ethel Taylor and Mary Kirkland for Africa; Wednesday Misses Mabelle Thomas for Asia; Thursday Miss Lavender for Australia; and Friday Miss Parks for Europe. The week closed with a most impressive service Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock in the parlors of the Woman's Building, when Mrs. McLean led the prayers for our foreign missionaries that have gone out from the University.

Denton Club.

Last Thursday afternoon the Denton Club held a well-attended and most enthusiastic meeting at the Y. M. C. A. Various reports were received, and several matters of business relating to the year's work were taken up. Committees were appointed to arrange for the reception and dance which the Club will give in Denton during Christmas week. The affair will be given in honor of the graduating high school classes, and invitations will be extended to the seniors of the various high schools in Denton County.

Notice Debaters.

All students intending to enter the preliminaries for the intercollegiate debates will please meet either in person or by proxy in Room 10 of the Law Building next Saturday night, November 23rd, at 7:15 o'clock sharp, to draw for places for the first preliminaries, which will begin Monday, December 2nd.

Sophomore Claims Freshman Co-ed As Bride; A Surprise!

Last Saturday evening at the Bible Chair quite a surprise was given the many friends of Miss Louise Taylor and Mr. Hawstein when they were united in marriage. No one knew that the happy event was to take place until the sweet strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Chrisman at the piano, announced the entrance of the young couple. The bride, a tall blonde, looked charming in her bridal dress of white, her auburn hair was hidden by a large picture hat, and her many blushes by a heavy veil. The groom, a short brunette, was very handsome in a conventional suit of black. Rev. Theodore Reese read the marriage service very impressively, and after the ceremony congratulations were offered and an informal reception took place. Both bride and groom are students at the University, the former a freshman, the latter a sophomore. On account of the strict "eu" system, both Mr. and Mrs. Hawstein decided it would be wiser not to take a bridal trip, so this was postponed to an indefinite date. The guests left about 10 o'clock wishing the happy young couple many happy returns.

The Loan Fund.

Mr. Thomas, in announcing his purpose to raise this fund, remarked that the best there is in education belonged to the poorest child in the State. That, of course, is a worthy sentiment, but the work which Mr. Thomas has undertaken is urged by another and, to our mind, an equally worthy consideration. It is this: That only by coming to the rescue of young men and women of humble circumstances who have manifested evidences of exceptional intellectual aptitude can we make full use of some of the best minds given to the world. Nature in its intellectual endowments is no respecter of social station, and when, as so frequently happens, it is overly generous in endowing children of the poor, society ought to feel, not merely that it is a duty, but a privilege and an advantage to itself to assure such the fullest opportunity for development. The waste that results when a boy or girl of unusual talent is deprived of full mental development is a most grievous one, because it is the waste of something that, at best, is too rare among us.

The fund which Mr. Thomas is to raise will have somewhat that effect; for while doubtless its income will be available to aspiring youth who have shown no very marked aptitude, we assume that nevertheless some preference will be shown to those who have. But to accomplish this last named object to fullest advantage the institution of scholarship is the best method, and those who are both able and disposed to contribute a sufficient sum to institute a scholarship ought to prefer that method. They may be conditioned as the donor wishes, and thus afford an opportunity to indulge almost any whim. Does one think we have sore and particular need of political economists? Let him, then, endow a scholarship for the boy who shows greatest aptitude in this study in the high school of the donor's town. The scholarship affords excellent opportunity to those who have the means and desire to promote a pet idea with respect to education, an opportunity which a contribution to a poor students' fund does not so well present. But that opportunity is one of the privileges of the wealthy, and for the greater number of us the plan that Mr. Thomas has undertaken offers the only chance of aiding in a work that confers a benefit not merely on individuals, but on the whole of society, and a benefit which outlasts those who confer it.—Dallas News.

ASSEMBLYMAN ELECTION

Freshman Academics Will Vote By Ballot System Today—Last Election Was Void.

Election of Assemblyman from the freshman academic class has been ordered for today. It is held in accordance with the provisions of the Australian ballot system. Voting opens at 8:30 to 12:30. The voting booth for the boys will be in the rotunda, and the girls will be just inside the door of the Study Hall.

This special election has been called because the freshmen failed to poll the required fifty per centum at the regular election, thus invalidating the result. For this reason all freshmen are urged to turn out and cast a ballot today.

W. E. Loose is the only candidate who has filed a petition.

A Suggestion.

How many students of the University know what plays are being produced for the first time in America this season? Of the students who know the names of a few of the most prominent plays on the boards this winter in New York, how many know who wrote "The Perplexed Husband,"
"The Mind-the-Paint Girl," or "Millions;" and how many know what these plays stand for and what dramatic or literary merits they possess? How many know the reasons assigned by the critics for the failure of Augustus Thomas' latest play,
"The Model"? The "Witching Hour"
by his dramatist was one of America's greatest successes; why did he fail in "The Model"?

Statistics would doubtless indicate that information in this field is very meager and limited. Wouldn't a new course in the English Department dealing with the present day drama be worth while? Wouldn't it be worth a student's time to know just who the prominent dramatists are, and what they are writing? Most of the advanced students know why a certain play failed in Shakespeare's time. Most of them have spent hour after hour (or were supposed to at least), working out the elements that went to make up a successful play in a certain period of the Fourteenth Century. But how many know the requisites of a successful play of 1917?

Dr. S. P. Brooks, President of Baylor, is so confident that the day of the suffragette is coming in all States including Texas, that he has began training the co-eds in his institution to do their own thinking and instructing them in the ways of civil government and practical politics. A present Texas can boast of only two co-eds who are planning to be lawyers. They are Misses Ze-lousky and Jones. However, some of this year's freshmen co-eds intend making factars of themselves next year.

Write Ideas For Moving Picture Plays!

YOU CAN WRITE PHOTO PLAYS AND EARN $25.00 OR MORE WEEKLY
We Will Show You How!

If you have ideas—if you can THINK—we will show you the secrets of this fascinating new profession. Positively no experience or literary excellence necessary. No "flowery language" is wanted.

The demand for photoplays is practically unlimited. The big film manufacturers are "moving heaven and earth" in their attempts to get enough good plots to supply the ever increasing demand. They are offering $100 and more, for single scenarios, or written ideas.

We have received many letters from the film manufacturers, such as VITAGRAPH, EDISON, ESSANAY, LUBIN, SOLAX, IMP, REK, RE-LIANCE, CHAMPION, COMET, MELIES, ETC., urging us to send photoplays to them. We want more writers and we'll gladly teach you the secrets of success.

We are selling photoplays written by people who "never before wrote a line for publication."

Perhaps we can do the same for you. If you can think of one good idea every week, and will write it out as directed by us, and it sells for only $25 a low figure.

YOU WILL EARN $100 MONTHLY FOR SPARE TIME WORK.

FREE! Send Your Name and Address at Once for Free Copy of Our Illustrated Book, "Moving Picture Playwriting."

Don't hesitate. Don't argue. Write NOW and learn just what this new profession may mean for you and your future.
