VARSITY SCRUBS LOCK HORNS WITH METHODIST TEAM

Texas Shorthorns Meet Young Pirates From Georgetown on Clark Field Today at 3 O'clock.

The Texas Shorthorns will clash with the Pirate scrubs from Georgetown this afternoon at 3 o'clock on Clark Field. The Frosh-Soph intramural game that was scheduled for this afternoon has been postponed, and will be played Monday.

The Shorthorns go into the game determined to wipe out the 13-6 defeat that was administered to them by the young Pirates in the clash at Georgetown at the first of the season. Coach Bert Walker has been working on the line and developing the interference of the Shorthorns. He intimates that the score this afternoon will surprise those who saw the game at Georgetown.

A definite line-up was not announced yesterday afternoon, but it is probable that practically the same men will face each other that lined up in the first contest.

Season books will suffice for admittance to the game this afternoon.

RULES DRAWN UP

Regulations Made Regarding Eligibility of Players in Intramural Basketball League.

The committee on rules and regulations, consisting of Director Whittaker, C. Herritt, and E. T. Jones for the rooming house intramural basketball league, adopted the following rules regarding the players, at a meeting yesterday.

1. A man shall be permitted to represent the house in which he lives, provided he is an eligible.

2. A man is not eligible if (a) he has received a letter for basketball at the University of Texas or any similar institution; (b) he is on the Varsity or Freshman basketball squads.

3. In case of a failure of a team to appear for a scheduled game, the said game shall be forfeited by that team.

4. All exceptional or disputed cases of eligibility or ineligibility shall be referred to the committee on rules and regulations.

All of the house intending to be represented in the league must so report to Mr. Whittaker.

"This is extremely necessary," said Mr. Whittaker, "because practice is to begin immediately, and a list of those intending to play must be in when the schedule is made out, which will be done within the next few days."

RUSSIAN SPEECHES WILL BE MADE AT BANQUET TUESDAY

The faculty class and the advanced class in the Russian languages will be entertained with a unique banquet at the Cactus Tea Room on Tuesday evening.

After dinner a program will be rendered, and everyone present will be expected to make a speech in Russian. The members of the University faculty will tell why they consider it important to study the Russian language, while the others will talk about the importance of Russia. After these informal speeches, Mr. Sosoyef, who is a graduate of the University of Moscow, will speak, and Miss Ludwig, also a graduate of the University of Moscow, will recite Russian verses.

PANHANDLERS MEET.

Students from the Panhandle met yesterday afternoon and discussed plans for a permanent organization of a Panhandle Club in the University. It was decided to have a meeting next Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at which time officers will be elected and a permanent organization formed.

The president of the Panhandle Club of A. and M. has written to the Panhandlers here suggesting that a get-together and get-acquainted meeting be held on Thanksgiving Day.

ASSEMBLY MAKES "AUSPICES" CLEAR

Defines Word as Used in Constitution and Relating to Charges of Recent Violations.

The Students' Assembly defined the word "auspices," as it is used in Section 2, Article 1, of the constitution of the Students' Association, at a called meeting yesterday afternoon. According to the decision of the Assembly, "a dance is given under the auspices of a student or group of students, when the student or group of students contribute in any way toward the expenses of said dance."

Further business was taken up, and permission was granted Silas Ragsdale to use the Cactus cuts for the special Thanksgiving edition of The Texan.

FRESHMAN-SOPH GAME PUT OFF

Intramural Clash Between First and Second-Year Men Postponed Because of Scrub-Pirate Contest.

The Freshman-Sophomore intramural game that was scheduled for this afternoon has been postponed on account of the Shorthorn-Pirate contest that will be staged on Clark Field at 3 o'clock.

The Freshmen and Sophomores will play their little match off Monday afternoon, and if possible, decide the Academic championship.

Both teams have been working hard since they played last. The Freshmen have scalped the Seniors in the meantime, and have high hopes of downing their Soph rivals.

The line-up will be as follows: Freshmen—Lyle Baker, C.; Tolbert, L. G.; Barnum, L. T.; Wilson, L. E.; Peeke, R. G.; Williams, R. T.; Flanders, R. E.; Leake, Q. B.; Simms, L. H.; Barnes, F. B.; Cook, R. H.

Sophomores—Barnwell, C.; Reuss, L. G.; Gullett, L. T.; Wight, L. E.; Freeman, R. G.; Gray, R. T.; Nowlin, R. E.; Scott, Q. B.; Moss, L. H.; Baldwin, F. B.; Goodly, R. H.

Officials—Van Gent, referee; Dittmar, umpire; Beall, head linesman.

FOURTH DIMENSION WILL BE DISCUSSED IN PUBLIC LECTURE

Dr. A. A. Bennett will give a public lecture, under the public lecture series, next term on the Fourth Dimension.

This is Dr. Bennett's first year at "Texas." He comes from Princeton, where he took his Doctor's degree, and where he has been instructor for the past two years.

Members of the Mathematics faculty are often questioned concerning the theory of the Fourth Dimension, and Dr. Bennett promises that the lecture will be instructive, as well as understandable by all.

SPECIAL EDITION TURKEY DAY.

The Texan will put out a special Thanksgiving edition for the Homecoming.

Four thousand copies of an advance issue will be mailed out next Wednesday to points over the State to advertise the game, and to act in the capacity of an invitation to be present on that day. Biographies of some of the "old-timers" at the University will be included, and things of interest around the University will be played up.

GLEE CLUB REHEARSES.

After six weeks of competitive try-out, thirty-three men, who have been definitely selected, attended Glee Club rehearsals last night.

Several songs have been learned this fall, and attention was given to working out the expression of these songs.

Since the club has been cut down to a more workable body, it will not be difficult to put these songs into concert form. The date and place of the fall concert has not been determined upon, but it will be held in the University neighborhood, if possible.

CONTESTS TODAY MAY DETERMINE T. I. A. A. WINNER

Daniel Baker and T. C. U. Play at Brownwood; Baylor Goes Against Okla. A. & M.

(By Ed Angly)

While no team but A. and M. has the slightest chance of getting an unquestionable grasp on the Southwestern title, yet several of the battles to be staged on Lone Star grid-irons today have a weighty bearing on the final settlement of the T. I. A. A. championship, and, in the event of no undefeated eleven at the end of the season, the results of some of today's games will affect the placing of the teams when Thanksgiving rings down the curtain on the greatest year of upsets ever witnessed in Southwestern football circles.

Daniel Baker Undefeated.

Daniel Baker College, boasting of the only undefeated eleven in the State of Texas, tackles T. C. U. this afternoon at Brownwood. The Hill Billies have not been scored upon this season, and while they have played few teams of high standing, they contend that the State championship will be claimed in the event of a victory over the Christians. The odds favor Daniel Baker.

Baylor goes into action at Stillwater, Oklahoma, today, with the Oklahoma Aggies as opponents. Both teams are members of the Southwestern Conference. Baylor, the only big eleven in the State whose goal line has not been crossed, reigns favorite for the game.

The Farmers played yesterday against the Rolla Miners. Only two teams of importance are idle this afternoon. Texas and Southwestern both remain at home to make preparations for their clash on Clark Field next Tuesday.

The record of the Pirates this year is as erratic as is the record of nearly every team in Texas, but they have a well-balanced machine which is going to make Van Gent's men extend themselves next Tuesday.

PLAY CAST COMPLETE.

Director W. S. Hendrix has chosen the cast of the second Spanish play, "Las Solteronas." There are no outstanding roles, all of the parts being rather evenly balanced. The three women roles will be played by Misses Margaret McGill, Bernice Stelle, and Edith Bonnett. Messrs. Darnell and Nami are the male characters.

Rehearsals on "Los Pantalones" and "Las Solteronas" are being held every other day for the present. As soon as the lines are learned, rehearsals will be held daily. The members of La Tertulia are taking an unusual amount of interest in these two plays, which promise to be quite successful.

EVANS WINS MATCH.

Evans won the tennis match from Granger yesterday afternoon, 6-4, 6-4. The match was played as a result of a challenge by Granger.

Six matches will be staged this afternoon on the Varsity courts. They are, James Thomas vs. Baker, Pickens vs. Gregory, Faust vs. Swift, Drumwright vs. Bradley, Scurry vs. Sellers, Thomas, and Bolanz vs. Jones.

Coach Penick states that if no real good excuses are offered, the players failing to appear will forfeit their matches.

HILDEBRAND TRIES CASE.

Due to the absence of one of the members on the program, the Hildebrand Law Society did not try its scheduled case, but held a trial in the justice of the peace court.

The case was styled Austin National Bank vs. University Co-operative Society, involving a note for $30. C. P. Engelking, L. L. B., '16, former president of Hildebrand, presided. The attorneys for the plaintiff were Meade Griffin and J. I. Sheppard; attorneys for the defendant were I. D. Hess and A. C. Smith.

"THE OLD SOUTH" SUBJECT OF TALK AT Y AUDITORIUM

Miss Mildred Rutherford, U. D. C. Historian, Lectures on "Life on the Old Plantation."

"The history of the war has been presented wrongly," said Miss Mildred Rutherford, general historian of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, in a lecture on "The South of Yesterday, or Life on the Old Plantation," at the Y. M. C. A. Auditorium last night.

Miss Rutherford went on to explain that the cruelty of the masters to their slaves, of which the North so rigidly charged them, and about which is heard so much, is all false and ungrounded. She then gave a vivid description of the home life on the old plantation and the congeniality and friendliness existing between the master's family and the slaves.

Miss Rutherford discussed the chivalry of the old South.

"Oh! the chivalry of the old South!" she exclaimed. She added that the boys of today only have a remnant of that old chivalry, though it will never die.

In taking up the civilization of the old South and comparing it with the new, Miss Rutherford declared that the South has never been surpassed, and probably never would be surpassed. "Slavery failed to make civilization in any other country in the world as it did in the South." It was because of the hospitality and openheartedness of the Southerner.

She gave a fair and square treatment of the origination of slavery in America, and showed that the Southerner was not responsible, and that he, as a rule, was willing at all times to institute a law for the gradual emancipation of slavery.

She further declared that the Southerner was not repugnant to the thirteenth amendment to the constitution, but it was the amendments that immediately followed that gave the Southerner and inimicable attitude toward the North that will last until the Southerner is given a true and fair representation in history.

TWO HUNDRED SEATS ORDERED BY PHONE FROM WACO ALUMNI

Alumni of Texas and A. & M. College ordered 200 seats in block from Waco by long distance telephone yesterday. This is the record for a single sale.

I. J. Potts, former A. & M. instructor, who now lives in Waco, phoned in the order for the seats and Director Belmont made the reservation immediately.

All these seats are for residents of Waco, who are also graduates of one or the other of the two institutions.

The sale of tickets continues brisk and the hopes of having the biggest crowd in Austin on Thanksgiving Day which has ever been drawn by interest in college activities seems sure to be realized.

COUNCIL TAKES IN NEW OFFICERS

Officials Recently Elected Installed in Woman's Organization—Point System Explained.

All of the recently elected officers of the Woman's Council were installed at a meeting last night. Miss Leta Skiles took her place as second vice-president, and Treble Smith and Susie Fisher were installed as members from the Freshman class.

Eugenia Welborne, president of the Council, gave a talk on "Girls, and Their Relation to Student Self-Government." Miss Eunice Aden made some well put remarks on "Honor." Miss Anne Muckleroy, chairman of the organization committee, explained the organization of the Council. Miss Pauline Wherry, vice-president, explained at length the point system as it is in operation in the University. No girl can have more than twelve points. President of the Woman's Council, president of the Athletic Council, and president of the Y. W. C. A. each count eight points. President of a literary society, member of the Y. W. Cabinet, each count six points. Captain of basketball or baseball team counts two points. Class officer, president of a social club, or member of the the Assembly counts one point.

After the business meeting a social program was enjoyed. Hot tamales were served, and some stunts were performed.

SHOOT SCHEDULED FOR RIFLE CLUB

Texas Range Artists Will Meet Georgia Tech., and Perhaps Texas A. & M. and Okla. A. & M.

A meet between the rifle clubs of Texas and Georgia Tech., to take place later in the year, has been definitely scheduled, according to G. M. Merrill, president of the Texas Rifle Club. Other meets that will in all probability take place are with Texas A. & M. and Oklahoma A. & M.

Three squads of about twelve men each have been going regularly each week to Camp Mabry range for practice. The three hundred yard slow fire range is being shot now, and will continue to be until after Christmas. It is the most difficult range on the list. Among the new men showing up especially well, according to Mr. Merrill, are V. C. Dillon, P. H. Green, and S. A. Williams. Mr. Williams was expert gun-pointer for six-inch guns in the United States Navy for four years before coming to Texas. He also qualified as expert rifleman in the Navy twice.

Just three old men who are eligible for the teams are back this year, leaving three places yet to be filled. Qualified T's are awarded to the rifleman who shoots in the majority of the contests.

A. & M. BEATS ROLLA

Aggies Swamp Missouri Eleven by Score of 77 to 0 on College Station Gridiron.

Special to Texan.

College Station, Tex., Nov. 17.—A. & M. walked over the Missouri State School of Mines here this afternoon, the final score being 77 to 0. The game was full of sensational runs by Mitchell of the Aggie backfield. Rolla had nothing, but fought gamely. They made but three first downs, and never got inside the Aggies' thirty-five-yard line.

RICE DOWNS S. M. U. 144 TO 3.

Special to The Texan.
Houston, Tex., Nov. 17.—Rice, by playing a wonderful game, won easily from S. M. U. by a score of 144 to 3 on her own grounds today. The Owls showed splendid team work and their offensive was particularly strong. S. M. U. was not able to make more than a single field goal.

TEN TOUCHDOWNS PILED UP AGAINST SAN MARCOS TEAM

Fast Freshman Players Swamp Baptist Eleven 69 to 0 in Walkover Game—To Play Huntsville.

Ettlinger's fast Freshmen slaughtered the San Marcos Baptist Academy football team yesterday afternoon on Clark Field, defeating the Baptists by the one-sided score of 69 to 0. Ten touchdowns were made, and Greer kicked nine goals. This is the first game this year in which he has failed to kick every goal. The ball was far to the side and the angle a difficult one, and he just barely missed the goal, as the ball hit the upright and bounded back into the field.

The initial touchdown was made within the first minute of play. The Frosh won the toss and kicked to the forty-yard line. On the first play Hamilton intercepted a forward pass and ran thirty-five yards through a broken field. On the next play Race carried the ball over the line for a touchdown. The second touchdown was made when the Baptists kicked to the Freshman forty-yard line, where Race received the ball and ran through the entire San Marcos eleven for a counter.

Seven Touchdowns in First Half.

Seven touchdowns were made during the first half. The ball was carried by Race, Cox, Race, and Hamilton for long runs through the entire Baptist line. The feature of the game came at the end of the second quarter, when Race received the kick-off on his twenty-yard line, and plowed eighty yards through the field for a touchdown. During the third quarter touchdowns were made by Graves and Calhoun, who plunged the line for long gains.

The San Marcos team braced up during the fourth quarter and held the Freshmen to one touchdown, which was made by Race, who carried the ball for forty-five yards, and on the next play crossed the line for the tenth touchdown of the game.

Frosh Goal Endangered Once.

Only once was the Freshmen goal in danger, when an attempted field goal from the thirty-yard line failed by only a few inches. The Baptists were clearly out-classed, and only four times during the entire game did they make first down. The Freshman machine was in perfect running order, and their interference running is not equaled by any team in their class in the State. Every man played a good game, and the long runs by Race, Graves, Rach, Cox, and Hamilton makes the outlook for the Huntsville Normal game encouraging for the Freshmen. This game will be played on the Saturday before Thanksgiving, and will be one of the hardest of the season, but there is little doubt as to the outcome, if Ettlinger's men continue to play the class of football they showed yesterday afternoon.

The line-up was as follows:

San Marcos—Box, C.; Kanggs, R. G.; Taylor, L. G.; Liles, R. T.; Hooker, L. T.; Hare, R. E.; Copass, L. E.; Delisle, Q. B.; Wolff, R. H.; Jones L. H.; While, F. B.

Substitutes—Freshmen, Bergstrom for Barrow, Anderson for Cannon, Young for Cannon, Burkhalter for Gregory, Blakely for Burkhalter, Porter for Tynan, Calhoun for Race, McCulloch for Graves, Cox for Hamilton, Williams for Rach; for San Marcos, Beales for Box, Miller for Knaggs, Hollingsworth for Taylor, Camp for Hare.

Officials—Van Gent, referee; Whittaker, umpire; Lang, head linesman.

WILL THEY HELP?

After the enthusiasm shown by the co-eds at the football game Saturday, we are wondering if they will be ready to stage a big snake dance between halves at the Thanksgiving game. Now, we realize that the mere suggestion of this will not be approved by many of the University authorities, but let's remember that the times have changed. More than one million women voted in the recent presidential election. One sister was selected to Congress from Utah, and to be in keeping with the times, we think that a little more of the feminine touch between halves will add enjoyment to the occasion. Think it over, young ladies. Argue the case.

With the aid of the co-eds we can beat A. and M. Shall we win?

RESULTS DISAPPOINTING.

The Texan must express its disappointment over the results of the mid-term examinations. Based upon the observation of friends, who had taken a look and sized up the student body, especially the Freshmen, the prediction was made that they were better prepared than usual for entrance here and more intent in the prosecution of their studies. But the mid-term reports do not bear out our prediction. To prove that The Texan's faith in their ability and assiduity as students is not unfounded, all who fell over the line and failed in their endeavors are urged "to pick their flints" and try again. We hope that a far more favorable showing will be made at the close of the fall term. Let the delinquent list then be a short one.

GO SLOW.

On the side of the roadway, just at the south end of the Library Building, is a huge sign-board, bearing these words, Go Slow. This warning is evidently intended for "the fast set," whose reckless driving of automobiles has become a menace to life and limb of pedestrians. It is strange, but nevertheless true, that so soon as a person is able to transfer from the pedestrian class to that of automobilist, he is inclined to disregard the rights and privileges of the former and become reckless in the way he uses the public highway. Thoughtless young people, several of whom drive and park their cars on the campus, must have more regard for the rights of pedestrians, who are in the majority, and whose rights the University authorities are going to protect. Go slow, automobilists.

CHAPEL NOTICE.
 In spite of the smaller attendance for the week, the exercises have been most delightful. We were especially glad to have Mr. Crutchfield with us yesterday. While he did nothing more than lead the prayer that was enough to spiritualize the meeting. He did not forget us here at the university, and especially at Chapel, yet the burden of his prayer was the soldiers in Europe. They are on his heart and mind, and in his prayer he tried to put them on our hearts and minds and persuade us to help them in this their hour of greatest distress and gloom. Those who are in the worst condition are the prisoners. We hope to hear more of this from Mr. Crutchfield.

Daily Column

J. F. H.

For the simple reason,
 That I had
 Nothing to do,
 And was feeling,
 More than unusually sporty,
 I met a girl,
 And without stammering,
 I asked her
 To catch a drink,
 And she took me up,
 And raised me a couple,
 Before I could back out,
 And I was all
 Thumbs, being
 Of a shy retiring nature,
 But she put me at ease,
 By saying,
 "Don't you adore
 White rabbits?"
 And she had
 Me backed off the boards,
 But I rallied
 And told her
 I did,
 And she said,
 "They're so fluffy"
 She said this
 Very girlishly,
 And then
 She said,
 "You're such a funny boy"
 And I said what was Expected and told
 Her she was an unusual girl,
 And then
 I said something
 I should not
 Have said but
 She did not hear
 Me and I
 Woke up to the fact
 That she was the conversation,
 And I was just,
 One of Dr. McFadden's
 Gentlemanly ushers,
 And finally
 We arrived and
 She took a double egg malted,
 And I took a
 Glass of water
 And a sack of Bull Durham,
 And then she said,
 "What do you think of me?"
 One of those thought
 Questions they all
 Like to pull,
 And she looked,
 Me straight in the eye,
 And waited,
 It was one of those
 Soul piercing glances,
 And I knew she
 Didn't have a thought
 In her head,
 And was trying
 To act like the
 Guilty heroine in
 One of Robt. W. Chamber's novels
 So I let her
 Read my inmost thoughts,
 While I lit a cigarette,
 And then I spilled the beans
 By saying I had not
 Considered the matter,
 But a usual she did
 Not hear me
 And after she had
 Given Mr. Hershey
 The business of his young life,
 And was well on her way
 Through a package
 Of gum,
 We left and she
 Was perfectly happy,
 With a mouth full of
 Gum and foolish remarks,
 And a porter to
 Carry her books,
 And I thought,
 Here is another,
 Fine way,
 For a guy,
 To Spend
 His
 Time.

STUDENTS WILL CONFER DEGREES

Chas. Stewart and W. S. Birge Will Return From Border to Assist in Masonic Reunion.

The largest Scottish Rite Reunion in the history of the order will be held on November 20. All the higher degrees in Masonry, from the fourth to the thirty-second, including the Shrine, will be conferred in full form and ceremony at the Scottish Rite Cathedral, Eighteenth and Lavaca.

The members of the Acacia Fraternity will confer the fifth degree, the following men taking the principal roles:

Floy Smith.....	King Solomon
H. Clare Grafa.....	King Khairom
H. B. Jones.....	Adoniram
W. S. Birge.....	Zabud
A. R. Howard.....	Master of Ceremonies
E. C. Nelson, Jr.....	Orator

Most of these students are thirty-two degree Masons. Chas. B. Stewart, W. S. Birge, and Dan Cook, well known students the past year, have secured furloughs from the Army at Corpus Christi, and will arrive tomorrow to assist in conferring the higher degrees. Sylvan Lang of San Antonio, a prominent alumnus of Texas, will appear in the seventh and eighteenth degrees. Some thirty other University men are asking minor roles in many of the degrees from the eighteenth to the thirty-second.

The Scottish Rite bodies of Austin have granted a special dispensation, enabling University Masons to take the degrees on easier terms than formerly.

A varied musical program, with elaborate choral and antiphonal effects, has been arranged by Director Bertram T. Wheatley, who has been rehearsing with the teams for the last six weeks. Sam P. Cochran, thirty-third degree, Sovereign Grand Inspector General, and George F. Moore, thirty-third degree, Sovereign Grand Commander of the Supreme Council of the thirty-third degree at Washington, will both attend the reunion, and over a hundred thirty-second degree Masons are expected from Central Texas.

FIRING LINE

THE CHANGE.

"Zeke."

I used to snooze on Sunday morns
 'Till rang the bell for lunch,
 And all the afternoon I'd loaf,
 And jaw 'round with the bunch.

But all of that is in the past,
 'Twill never be again,
 For the other day I met her,
 A tall and stately jane.

Now when the Sabbath 'day rolls
 'round,
 No sleeping late for me,
 I shave and dress and shine my shoes,
 For such is her decree.

She says that we must go to church,
 It is the proper thing;
 (She has a brand new hat and dress,
 And thinks that she can sing).

I sit beside her, and the bench
 Grows harder all the time,
 And of course the parson preaches
 'Till long past dinner time.

I try to take a little nap,
 She jabs me with a pin,
 And says that I must stay awake
 And bear it with a grin.

Then when they pass the plate around,
 I find I have no jits,
 And as her blue eyes watch me close,
 I have to give four bits.

When at last the sermon's over,
 She says it was all right,
 And she would like to go again
 To church that very night.

She is the very best of girls,
 I have no fault to find,
 But I wish, to spend our Sundays,
 Some other way she'd find.

Jesse Wilson, student secretary of the State Y. M. C. A., is spending a few days in Austin. He will fill the pulpit for Dr. Maddy on Sunday morning at the University Baptist Church.

ADVERTISE IN THE TEXAN

ADVERTISING TALK

A student with college spirit wants to see his College paper the equal or superior of other college papers. For him to merely sit by and let the other fellow work will not accomplish this.

The success of a college daily depends as much upon the ability of the management to get in "money" as it does upon the editorial staff to fill up the news columns.

Only so long as the students read the advertisements and do their buying from the firms that advertise, only so long as they do this, can The Texan hope to be a financial success.

SOCIETY

Rattler Dance.

In honor of their pledges, the Rattlers entertained with a dance at the Cactus Tea Room on Thursday evening.

The Programs which contained twelve dances and four extras, were in gold and white, and bore the emblem of the club in gold in the upper left-hand corner.

The delight of a two-course dinner, served at small tables, was enhanced by the substitution of candle light for the usual electric light, and a cheery log-fire also lent its glow, uniting with the candle light and confetti, to perfect a scene of coziness.

Miss Stella Tart of Galveston is visiting her cousin, Miss Martha Hurt. Miss Tart graduated from Kenilworth Hall last year.

Miss Bertie Clark will be the guest of Miss Bessie McChesney of Muckleroy Mansion for the Thanksgiving game.

Miss Annie English of Dallas came down for the Rattler dance, and was the one-day guest of Pi Phi House.

Miss Gertrude Wurst will be the guest of Miss Fain Wurst for the holidays.

Miss Kathryn Kirwin has gone to Houston, where she will remain until after Thanksgiving.

Miss Hazel Davis of Southwestern University will be the guest of Miss Clifton Townsend during the Thanksgiving festivities.

Miss Lena Pettit, '15, who is teaching in Dallas this year, will be the guest of Miss Anne Hill during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Miss Maude Thomas will entertain the Library Kodak Club Saturday evening.

Miss Gladys Trueblood, '14, and Miss Roberta Dulin, '15, both of whom amme teaching in Temple, are planning to be in Austin for the Homecoming.

Chas. B. Qualia of San Antonio will be at the Delta Theta House during the Thanksgiving holidays.

Fred Cotten is spending a few days at his home in Weatherford with his parents.

THIRTY-SEVEN JUNIOR LAWS FAIL TO MAKE ONE-HALF OF WORK.

A compilation of the grades made by H. J. Bruce, register of the Law Department, shows that no Seniors, three Middlers, and thirty-seven Juniors have failed to make one-half of their work.

Mr. Bruce says that the unprecedented number of failures of the Juniors is not due to stupidity or lack of application, but that it is the result of the increased amount of work required by the department of the infant class.

The Seniors have an average fully equal to their predecessors, and their standing in the department is strengthened by the fact that Judge W. S. Simkins says that his Equity class the best one that he has ever had.

500 CO-EDS RESERVE SEATS.

The Texas co-eds are planning to attend the Thanksgiving game in full force, and about five hundred have already reserved their seats. All the seats in the regular co-ed section were sold yesterday morning, and since then section Q, on the east, and about one-fourth of the south grandstand have been turned over to the girls.

COLLEGE NOTES

Nathaniel Jacks, Editor
Lewis B. Walker, Associate.

Cornell—Charles E. Courtney, who has been coach for the Cornell rowing team for thirty-three years, celebrated his sixty-seventh anniversary recently. He won the first race he rowed when he was nineteen years old in a boat he built himself. Cornell has won forty-nine out of seventy-two starts under his tutelage. He is famously known to all ex-students as "the old man."

Wisconsin—The coach was afraid he might injure the eyesight of the football players by having practice on the snow-covered field, so indoor work has been carried on under the stock-judging pavilion.

Ohio State—A Sophomore found a watch, but as a result lost not only the one found, but the one he had as well. While looking over the railing of the reservoir last week at a shining object which appeared to be a gold watch, he dropped his own into the water. His efforts to recover it have been unsuccessful.

Columbia—The first of the University teas for this year will be held soon. The object of these functions is to permit the members of the faculty and student body to become better acquainted.

Rice—Last Sunday members of the Junior class lowered one of their number into a manhole on the boulevard leading to the campus. Shortly afterward, his cries of anguish halted a passing automobilist. He was rescued, and posing as a Freshman, recounted a long list of tortures that had been used on him by some hazing upperclassmen. The rescuer was shocked, and carefully assisted the man to his dormitory, while the rest of the Juniors, who were in hiding nearby, enjoyed paroxysms of laughter.

Kansas—There is a display of models of famous diamonds of the world's history located here. Professor Harworth, knowing that all of the girl students of the University would like to see these celebrated diamonds, purchased them and put them on exhibition.

Oklahoma A. and M.—"The Aggies in their own Home Town" is the name of a 2000-foot moving picture that has been prepared, showing the activities of this institution. It will be shown all over the State.

Washington State—The proper spirit seems to have been generated at the monster rally held before the Idaho game. Contests were held between the different classes in songs and short playlets. After this a torchlight procession formed and terminated at a large bon-fire, where loyal alumni spoke. The score of the game was 31 to 0 in favor of Washington.

S. W. T. N. (San Marcos)—Two Normal girls were married last Sunday afternoon, and have withdrawn from school. Miss Myrtis West became the bride of Gus Ford, and Miss Lois Conolly married Robert Reid.

Boston Tech.—Friday night was Student Night at the Billy Sunday tabernacle, and over a thousand technology men attended the services. College yells were given, and the program was specially prepared for students. Admission was by tickets only.

Minesota—Eight men will compose a team to play a chess game over the wire with students representing Harvard. The tournament will be played as follows: Each of the players turn in their move to the manager and they are sent in every Tuesday to Harvard. By Saturday the answer is received. In this way there will be two moves a week.

Sewanee—The new golf links are nearing completion. There will be eighteen holes for straight playing. This is the culmination of three years' work.

Southern California—The new suits for the fifteen members of the band have arrived. They are made of red broadcloth and trimmed in gold.

KNOTT PICTURES ANCIENT SCENES

Humorous and Original Cartoons
Made of Lanham's Burlesque,
"Putting Troy in a Sack."

A proof of the cartoons for Fritz Lanham's "Putting Troy in a Sack," by J. F. Knott, cartoonist for the Dallas News, has been received. They are very humorous and original in their make-up. The first one represents Homer, dictating his Iliad to the secretary, who is copying it on a Greek typewriter of a modern type. Another one shows a lady shopper purchasing "shielding" from a dealer, who guarantees his shields to be holeproof. The proud Amazons may be seen doing the modern chorus dance before their belated king and his attendants. Helen was, according to this cartoonist, stolen by Paris, who drove a "Trojan Six" roadster. The mile post may also be seen, which shows Troy to be 130 miles away. Achilles also draws Hector around the walls, tied behind a similar car.

Then there are number of smaller drawings to introduce the different chapters, among which may be seen the duel between Hector and Achilles. The Trojans, also, are dragging the wooden horse through the "welcome" gate of Troy, amid much enthusiasm, while the Greeks inside peep out on all sides.

It is indeed a list of cartoons that deserve favorable mention for their modern interpretation of ancient subjects.

ALUMNI TO RETURN

Letters Pouring in From Former Students Who Will Watch Texas Fight on Thanksgiving.

Preparations are being completed by the Varsity alumni to return for the Thanksgiving Home-coming. Letters are coming in all the time from former students who will watch the going of the Farmers by Van Gent's herd of Longhorns. Mr. E. E. Bewley, of "Bewley's Best," has written that a special train will bring not only Varsity and A. and M. ex-students, but also many others interested. Judge Murray B. Jones of Houston, an ex-Longhorn, wrote the following: "Unless something of the gravest importance arises, you can put my name on the ballot and in the pot, because I will certainly be there to witness A. & M. go down in defeat in old-fashioned form on historic Clark Field."

Mr. F. M. Law, a former student of both Varsity and A. & M., has written to Mr. J. W. McClendon, accepting an invitation to speak at the Thanksgiving rally. Mr. Law is a banker of Houston, and a speaker of note, and the peculiar thing of his speech will be that he will represent both the University and A. & M.

STATE NEWSPAPERS NOTE HOME-COMING

Newspapers over the State are giving due recognition to the great Home-coming that will take place Thanksgiving. Under the date of November 14, the Houston Post has the following in its editorial column: The two most momentous days in the history of the University of Texas will be Wednesday and Thursday, November 29 and 30, 1916. There are three events which combine to make these days outstanding in their importance to the University of Texas.

On the evening of November 29 will take place the greatest educational rally the State has ever known. Regents, faculty, and former students of the University believe the time has come for that institution to take its place at one stride beside the foremost universities of the world. At this rally, in the presence of 15,000 former students of Texas, will be launched a campaign which has for its object the making of the University all that its friends and founders have dreamed it should be. When the campaign shall have been completed, Texas University will have ample and well constructed buildings of beautiful design for every department of its work. It will have modern equipment in every laboratory and classroom. It will be possessed of every appliance which the present day educator finds necessary for the proper presentation of his subjects. It will, in short, be a modern institution model-

ONE YEAR AGO TODAY.

Travis County Rural Survey is in full swing. The work is under the general direction of Professor L. H. Haney.

ed along the best of modern lines.

On the morning of November 30 will take place the formal inauguration of Robert Ernest Vinson as president of the University of Texas—an event which augurs more for the future welfare of the institution than anything that has occurred since the day its doors were opened to the first student some thirty-three years ago. Dr. Frank Goodnow of Johns Hopkins University will make the inauguration address. The president of the great Baltimore school has had vast experience in matters concerning the problems of educational institutions. His address will be full of meaning to those who wish to see in Texas a university of the foremost type.

And on the afternoon of Thanksgiving Day will be waged on Clark Field the first contest that has taken place between the football teams of Agricultural and Mechanical College and the University of Texas in five years. The contest will be fiercely waged. No quarter will be asked and none will be given. It will be a duel to the death—the death of all the old and useless animosity that has, without cause, marred the relations between these most important educational units.

There are 20,000 former students of the University of Texas. There are 30,000 parents of former students. And there are 5,000,000 people in this State who are directly interested in the welfare of the University. From all these people it is expected enough will gather in Austin on November 29 and 30 to constitute the largest number ever congregated at any educational institution in a Southern State—and the result of the enthusiasm that will be kindled in their hearts for the building of a great University of Texas cannot be estimated.
