Dear Max:

Thank you for your recent letter. I hope by now you have been paid.

There are a good many more Russian works on oysters to translate. Originally (on November 30, 1961), a list of 13 works was submitted to Ray and approved by him. One of these is enclosed herewith. Also, there are enclosed nine pages of handwritten Russian lists and two pages of typewritten text. These lists concern a collection of oysters that is being shipped to me from Russia.

Best wishes,

Sincerely,

Henryk

Dear Henryk: excuse me for writing you on this old letter of yours, in response of yours of August 19, 1964. I have hoped against the hope that I shall be able to tackle this Ukrainian translation. But I have had to stop even the more pressing Russian translations for Raymond Pede because of my pressing work on my own Anglo-American search. In 12 months from now I shall be on my way to 1/2 month yours, as ever, HBS.
