Needed Changes. Our Noted Visitors.

Completing ten days of diligent study and investigation, the members of the constitutional convention which was appointed by the Students' Assembly recently to revise and amend the present constitution Friday night made their final changes and sent their recommendations to the assembly for approval before their presentation to the student body at the time of the regular spring election in May.

No one objected to the appointment of such a convention to revise the constitution; and now that their recommendations are made, and which recommendations we have seen before, Good Morning is more convinced that the recommendations of the convention should be passed both by the assembly and by the students in the regular election.

The suggested changes in the present system of government are listed in an article in the extreme right hand column of this page. The details of the suggested changes will not be published until after the assembly has formally approved of the new written document, since there may be necessary just a few changes to be made. When the entire new constitution is published, every student should make it his duty to study the new organization before making a hasty decision as to which way to vote.

Today the Longhorn Band leaves on its tour through some of the southwest portions of Texas, their first stop being in Edinburg. Every since the famous band made its first tour, its fame has been pronounced throughout Texas. And as the members are about to embark on another such adventure of entertainment, we may say farewell and good luck.

Friday and Saturday the University was host to the tenth annual convention of the Southwestern Political and Social Science Association, meeting jointly with the International Relations Club of the southwest. Leaders in political and economic thought of the country from Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana, and Texas are identified with the organization which was one of the first of its kind to be organized.

LECTURE TICKETS PLACED ON SALE

Tickets for Count Ilya Tolstoy's lecture, which will be given at 8 o'clock Monday night at the Austin High School, will be on sale all day Monday in the rotunda of the Main Building, according to Mrs. George Nalle, president of the American Legion Auxiliary, which is bringing Count Tolstoy to Austin.

Count Tolstoy is making his American lecture tour on the hundredth anniversary of the birth of his father, Leo Tolstoy, Russia's most famous writer and philosopher, who died in 1910. His lecture will be an interpretation of the philosophy of the elder Tolstoy and a discussion of the results of the Bolshevik revolution in Russia 11 years ago.

STEERS DEFEAT PURPLE SOX WITH 6-5 WIN

Four Points Scored In Last Four Innings

PURPLE SOX LEAD

Second Game Played Monday on Clark Field

By BOB CANTRELL

Rallying in the last four innings to score four tallies, the Steers managed to eke out a 6-5 win over the Northwestern Purple Sox in the first of a two-game series yesterday afternoon. The north-erners had taken a three run lead in the sixth on a base on balls, an error, a single and another error, and the Steers collected nine bingles in the next four rounds for a total of four counters.

Mike De La Funte, right-handed rookie from Del Rio, started his first intercollegiate game and pitched good baseball all the way, holding the visitors to six safeties, striking out five, and allowing only two bases on balls. The youngster had only one bad inning, and that was the second when Jacobs singled, Izard tripled, and Schwartz tapped out a rousing two-ply blow. He pulled out of the hole when Walker caught Schwartz at the plate attempting to count on Rhoads' low throw to first. In the sixth, the Steer infield had a brain-storm, and the Purple Hose counted three runs on a lone bingle.

Dor Leach supplied the heavy artillery for the locals, rapping out three base blows in four trips to the plate, while Schwartz did the heavy gunning for the Illinois aggregation, collecting a three base bingle and a single in four appearances. Red McAleece started on the mound for the visitors, but he was yanked in the sixth in favor of Fife, who gave way to Heiderman in the eighth, and the latter finished the game, getting credit for the loss.

The heavy artillery of both clubs was silent until the third, save for an outburst in the first by SSchwartz, who singled, and then in the second, when Higgins beat out a roller to short. In the third, after McAleece had gone out, De La Funte to Walker, Jacobs tripled down the right field foul line and scored on Izard's single into right. Schwartz then blasted a two-base blow into left center, counting Izard. Vandenberg fanned swinging, and Oliphant slapped a fast one at Rhoads; Dusty threw low to first. Schwartz attempted to count after the error, but Walker's whip to the plate nabbed him.

The Steers knotted the count in their half when Leach opened with a double, Rees went out, Izard to Oliphant, and De La Funte slapped a double down the left field foul line to count Leach. Ford took one on his hip, and Hughes sent a scorching single into left field to count Leach, and Ford was run down between second and third. Rhoads ended the spree when he rolled out, McAleece to Oliphant.

The visitors proved to be tame ones, indeed, the next two frames, while the Longhorns were nipping McAleece for two safeties. In the sixth, the northers took a three

Work on Cactus Nearly Finished, Editors Declare

Work on the 1929 Cactus has advanced so rapidly that it is expected that the yearbook will be completed within a short time, according to Bill Bond, editor.

All copy has gone to the engraver with the exception of a few pages of the feature and grind sections. The feature section contains more pictures and the grind section is larger than in any previous Cactus, the editors say.

ORATORS MEET THIS WEEK IN THREE FINALS

Post-Dispatch, Wilmet, National Winners Decided

Three public speaking contests are scheduled on the forensic calendar of the University for the coming week, according to Ellwood Griscom, Jr., associate professor of public speaking.

Preliminaries in the twentieth annual Wilmet freshman declamation contest for the Wilmet and Co-op prizes will be held in the law auditorium Monday, April 1. Freshman women will speak at 3 o'clock in the afternoon and freshmen men at 7:30 Monday night. A number of contestants have already signed to enter the competition and others who plan to enter are urged to turn in their names to the department of public speaking in S Hall, Professor Griscom stated. The speeches are limited to five minutes each. Six contestants will be selected to enter the finals April 6. At which time the Wilmet prize of $25 will be given to the first place winner and the Co-op prize of $15 worth of books will be given the second place winner in both boys and girls division.

Finals in the Houston Post-Dispatch extemporaneous speaking contest will be held Wednesday, April 3. The six contestants who were selected in the preliminary contest will compete at that time for the prizes of $25, $15, and $10, offered to winners in each division by the Houston Post-Dispatch.

The final contest of the week will be held Friday night, April 5, to select the University representative in the National Inter-collegiate Oratorical Contest. Any student is eligible to compete in this contest. The speeches must be on the subjects offered by the Better American Federation which is sponsoring the national contest.

The representative selected by the University contest will enter a state wide contest in which representatives of other Texas schools will compete to represent the state in the national contest.

GREER GIVES TALK AT HOGG CLUB MEET

"The Texas Legislature" will be the subject of the talk by Chilton Greer, at the meeting of the Hogg Debating Club Monday night, April 1, at 7:30 o'clock in the Y. M. C. A.

An open-house debate on "Resolved, That co-education should be abolished" will follow Greer's talk. Jim Hulse will give an oration and Buford Nichols will give the weekly grunt.

CAVALRY OFFICERS SELECTED SUNDAY

All non-commissioned officers of the 124th Cavalry will be selected this Sunday morning at 8 o'clock at Camp Mabry. It will be necessary for all members to be present, Captain Waller K. Boggs said.

COWBOYS ELECT NEW OFFICERS THURSDAY

The Cowboys will meet Monday at 7:15 o'clock at the Y. M. C. A. to elect new members. At a meeting Thursday W. C. Regan was elected horse wrangler; George F. Seay, camp cook, and Claude Voyles, straw boss, according to J. S. Looney, foreman.

BAND MEN WILL LEAVE TODAY ON WEEK TOUR

Itinerary Includes Rio Grande Valley

REVUE PRESENTED

First Concert Given At Edinburg Monday

The Longhorn Band will leave this Sunday at 2 o'clock for the Rio Grande Valley on its second tour of the year. The opening concert of the tour will be presented at Edinburg Monday night.

The band will visit Pharr, San Benito, Weslaco, and several other Valley towns before returning to Austin Saturday, April 6. In 1927 the band made a trip to the Valley.

Burnett Pharr, director, and Mrs. V. I. Moore, who will act as chaperon, will accompany the band.

The program will be divided into two parts; the first part will consist of selections played by the band, and the second part will feature a collegiate revue.

The revue is staged by Red Shepherd, Carl Olson, and Burt Dyke in co-operation with members of the band. A 15-piece stage orchestra will be used as accompaniment. Shepherd will act as master of ceremonies and will introduce each number.

Special scenery for the revue was planned by Charlie Millhouse, and the musical score and setting were arranged by Leland Adams. The costumes, as well as the decorations, will carry out the University colors of orange and white.

PHARMACISTS GET 4-YEAR COURSE

The general faculty gave final approval to the requirement of a four-year curriculum for a degree in pharmacy at a called meeting recently.

"The new course includes academic courses," stated Dr. W. F. Gidley, dean of the College of Pharmacy. "The course is elective, not required it will probably remain elective for four years, after which time it will become a required course," he added.

The three-year course now being offered is a highly technical course. Ninety-five hours are required for a pharmacist graduate degree. One hundred and twenty-five hours are required for a bachelor of science degree under the new course.

"At present either the three-year or the four-year course may be taken. A student who has taken the three-year course may take an additional year of academic work and obtain his bachelor of science degree," concluded Dr. Gidley.

SCIENCE CLUB MEET POSTPONED MONTH

The regular meeting of the Science Club, which was to have been held Monday evening, April 1, has been postponed until a month from that time, it was announced by E. L. Lund, professor of zoology, who has charge of the programs.

"We are busy just now," Dr. Lund stated, "in arranging a plan by which the club will work in conjunction with the Philosophical Society of Houston."

OLD, NEW ASSOCIATION HEADS

President H. Y. Benedict, right, president of the Southwestern Political and Social Science Association for 1928-29 and Malcolm K. Graham of Graham, left, who was elected president of the organization for 1929-30. Dr. Benedict and Mr. Graham are life-long friends, both having been born in Louisville, Kentucky, and having spent their boyhood in the same section of Texas.

Graham Named Head Of Social Science Group Here Saturday

The University acted as host Friday and Saturday to the Southwestern Political and Social Science Association and the Southwestern International Relations Clubs at their tenth annual joint convention.

Malcolm K. Graham, large land holder and oil man of Graham, Young County, Texas, was elected president of the association for 1929-30 at the business luncheon yesterday at the University Commons. President H. Y. Benedict, president of the organization, acted as chairman of the business session.

After the luncheon, the executive council and the program chairman met to make plans for the next convention.

Other officers elected by the association were: Dr. J. Q. Dealey of the Dallas News, first vice president; Professor D. Y. Thomas of the University of Arkansas, second vice president; Professor C. W. Pipkin of Louisiana State University, third vice president; Professor Floyd L. Vaughan of the University of Oklahoma, and Professor V. P. Lee of Texas A. & M. College, executive council members.

Program chairmen of the various divisions are: Professor Donald Scott of Southern Methodist University, business administration; Professor C. A. Wiley of the University of Texas, economics; Professor W. P. Meroney of Baylor University, sociology; Professor C. A. Wiley of the University of Texas, agricultural economics; and Professor G. C. Hester of Southwestern University, government.

The office of general chairman of the program committee will also be filled by Dr. C. A. Wiley of the University.

SPANISH DRAMATICS CLUB GIVES BANQUET

A formal banquet will be given by the Spanish Dramatics Club, April 6, according to Thelma King, president. Margaret Sims is general chairman, Ruth Thornton is chairman of the decoration committee and Margaret Shelby is chairman of the program committee. Tom Southern and Wallace Woolsey are in charge of the financing.

The program at the last meeting of the club consisted of a play, "El Mi Llagro." The players were Christine Ellis, Meredith Gardner and Dan Storm. Spanish songs were sung at the conclusion of the program.

Industrialism Discussed

Discussing the general topic, "Industrialization of the Southwest," the business administration section held a session in Garrison Hall auditorium Saturday morning at 10 o'clock.

The first state to be considered in the light of industrialization was Arkansas, and the discussion on this state was given by Professor Truman C. Bigham, of the University of Arkansas.

The second state to be considered was Louisiana, and the discussion of the industrialization of that state was given by Dean

Proposed Change in Constitution to Be Considered Monday

To consider changes adopted by the Constitutional Convention in their meeting Friday, March 29, a called meeting of the Students' Assembly will be held Monday night, April 1, at 7:30 o'clock in the assembly room, according to Byron Skelton, president of the Students' Association.

Missouri U. Frosh Are Not Allowed To Use Cow-paths

The University of Missouri may have the same "cow-path" problems that the University has, but at least the freshmen up until Thanksgiving do not walk on the grass.

Several years ago the students of the institution decided that the principle of hazing was all wrong, but they still thought that freshmen should be disciplined in order that they might realize the lowliness of their position; therefore, they decided to draw up a group of rules to be put in the general handbook for the guidance of students.

Among the rules that are laid down is that "up until Thanksgiving freshmen may not walk on the grass of the campus."

OUTDOOR ADS ARE SUBJECT OF LYON

Journalism and business administration students have been invited to attend a lecture to be given at the University Y. M. C. A. Monday night at 7:30 o'clock. W. A. Lyon of San Marcos, president of the Outdoor Advertising Association of Texas and New Mexico, will be the speaker. He will talk on "Outdoor Advertising."

Mr. Lyon is head of several outdoor advertising concerns, and he is coming to Austin in response to the invitation extended by Alpha Delta Sigma, national professional advertising fraternity.

SLOVER TO TALK ON CANTERBURY TALES

The eighth University public lecture on masterpieces of the world's literature will be given by Dr. Clark Harris Slover, professor of English, Thursday, April 4, in Garrison Hall auditorium. Chaucer's Canterbury Tales will be the subject of Dr. Slover's discussion and will be followed later in the spring by two other public lectures.

HANDMAN TO TALK AT T. C. U. APRIL 14

Dr. Max Handman, professor of economics, will deliver an address before the student body of Texas Christian University in Fort Worth, Thursday, April 14. Dr. Handman will discuss "The Economic Motives and Economic Interpretation of History."

ALPHA KAPPA PSI INITIATES 17 MEN

Alpha Kappa Psi, men's honorary business administration fraternity, will initiate its new members Monday, April 1. From 9 until 1 o'clock, the neophytes will attend all classes wearing derbies and carrying umbrellas and ledgers. The initiation will continue Monday night at 7 o'clock. Seventeen men will be initiated.

UNIVERSITY SWIMMERS TO PREPARE FOR A. & M. MEET

In preparation for the University Swimming Club meet with A. & M. College Saturday, April 6, Coach C. J. Alderson will give instructions this Sunday afternoon at Deep Eddy to swimmers who intend to compete in the tournament. The divers will meet at 3 o'clock and the swimmers will meet at 3:30 o'clock.

The meet with A. & M. College will be held at Deep Eddy. The events planned will be as follows:

free style, 200 feet, 100 and 200 yards; the 100-yard breast stroke; the 100-yard back stroke; the 400 foot relay; and the springboard dives.

The University Swimming Club is open to all students of the University.

All men who are eligible under the conference rules to participate in the swimming meet are requested to fill out eligibility blanks obtainable from the athletic office in Z Hall.

GAMES MONDAY

Northwestern vs. Texas.
Notre Dame vs. Baylor.
YESTERDAY'S RESULTS
Texas 6, Northwestern 5.
A. & M. 12, Rice 8.

Mike De La Fuente, the little rookie from the Valley, pitched a nifty game of ball against the Northwestern nine yesterday afternoon, and deserved to win. Mike slipped in only one frame, but in all the rest, he had the Purple Hose guessing what it was all about. His fast ball, and then a slow one stood them on their heads all the way.

The Northwestern outfielders played great ball yesterday afternoon, and robbed Texas of at least a half dozen extra base blows. Long drives were held to singles, while blows which had been going for base drives in other games were snatched by the visiting ball hawks. Wanita, out in the sun garden, turned in two nifty catches, once robbing Higgins of a safety, and the other snag took several points from the batting average of Arvie Walker. Jacobs in center did some neat roving himself, pulling down long drives.

The Steer netters made a clean sweep of their dual meets the past week and tackle bigger "game" this mid-week when they take on the court stars from Drake University. The Drake boys are on a tour of the south, getting in shape for their Big Ten season, and are picking on the Southwestern Conference teams to get them in shape.

The Yanks will blow into town next Wednesday afternoon for a one-day stand, and will contribute their bit towards blasting that center field cliff back several feet. The big boys will bring along a number of their heavy gunners, but the Bambino will be among those missing that afternoon, but Lou Gehrig, his fence-busting brother, will be on hand to demonstrate how it's done up in Gotham town. Well, they can't do any more than lose all the balls in this neck of the woods and we have a sneaking hunch that the Yanks will get a surprise.

Today the Southwestern Conference finds three teams tied for first with two games won, and three teams in the cellar with two games lost. Texas, Baylor, and A. & M. are the three teams leading the loop, while S. M. U., T. C. U., and Rice are the three clubs down in the cellar looking out through the roof hoping for something good to happen.

The way this little boy Higgins is hitting, he's going to have that left field cliff blasted away before the season is over. All of the Dallas lad's blows have been directed at that cliff, and the majority of them have taken a good sized block off the top of that part of the field.

And here comes our gripe. We have never seen the need for a bunch of outsiders crowding into the press box, and this has been the case at every baseball game this season. At times it has been impossible for a writer to get a chair where he can write with any degree of ease, and yet if you ask the "visitors" to move, they look as though they had been insulted.

Mid-West Men Set Pace in Majority Of Events

Special to The Daily Texan.

DALLAS, March 30—It was Chuck Bracey, sensational dash star from the confines of Rice Institute, who furnished the thrills for the fans who witnessed the first annual S. M. U. Relays here this afternoon. This mere slip of a youth from Rice stepped the fastest 100-yard dash that has ever been clocked when he won the century in a time of 9.4 seconds. This time will not be allowed as official because of the strong wind which was blowing behind him.

Again, it was the thinly-clad from the middle-west who predominated in the pace setting, and Bracey was the only member of a Southwestern Conference team to win a first place, though Winders of A. & M. placed third in the 3,000 meters, and Leland of T. C. U. ran Bracey a fairly close race in the century.

Rasmus of Ohio State came within inches of besting the world intercollegiate mark in the discus when he sailed the platter a distance of 157 feet. Bud Houser of California holds the present record with a sail of 158 feet 1 3/4 inches. Waine of Northwestern came through with a leap of 13 feet 4 inches to win the pole vault, and Shelby of Oklahoma set a mark of 6 feet 1 1/2 inches in the high jump.

The University of Illinois again set the pace in the relays, breasting the tape in three of them, coping the 440, 880 and two-mile jaunts. The Illinois four shattered the records in the 440, 880, and four mile relays in the Texas meet Friday.

BEARS MEET MICKS MONDAY, TUESDAY

Special to The Daily Texan.

WACO, March 30—The Baylor Bears, fresh from their two conference wins over the Mustangs, are ready for the Notre Dame nine to blow into town and start hostilities Monday afternoon. The Micks play the Bruins in a two-game series Monday and Tuesday, and then continue their tour of Texas, meeting the Aggies a few days later.

Morley Jennings was fairly well pleased with the showing which his men made in the Pony games, but expects to work out some of the kinks which appeared in their play in that series. The work of Stearns in the last Pony game assures Baylor a good second-day hurler to aid and abet Douglass.

FIRST DISTRICT MEET IS HELD

The first district meet of the Interscholastic League will be held at Huntsville State Normal College, April 5 and 6, according to Roy B. Henderson, athletic director of the Interscholastic League. District meets will be held the following week-end at Stephenville, San Angelo, and Georgetown.

Saturday, March 30, was the last day allotted in the rule book for holding county meets, but due to the fact that several meets were rained out, they were held over until the first week in April.

AGIES SWEEP OWL SERIES; WIN 12-8

Special to The Daily Texan.

COLLEGE STATION, March 30—The Aggies made a clean sweep of their two-game series with the Owls here this week-end, winning today's game by a 12-8 score. The Aggies got away to an early lead and were never headed. Their victory leaves the conference race tied between three teams.

3 Clubs Tied for Loop Lead at End Of Week's Fight

Texas, Baylor and Aggies End Week With Perfect Record

At the end of the first week of play in the conference baseball race, three clubs are tied for the top with perfect records, while the other three clubs are wallowing in the mire of the cellar looking upwards with a faint gleam of hope in their eyes, hoping for a change in the weather next week.

Texas, Baylor, and A. M. are the three clubs riding on top of the world at this stage of the game, while Rice, T. C. U., and S. M. U. are the three clubs languishing in the "lower depths." But the world may be turned topsy-turvy before the curtain is dropped in the last days of May.

In their opening win over the T. C. U. Horned Frogs, the Steers looked fair. In the first game, they bumped Walker and Chappel for eight hits and six runs, while Johnnie Railton was holding the Toads at bay with four safeties and three tallies. Pinky Higgins led the Steers that day with two bingles out of three trips to the platter, and turned in a great game in the outfield. The next day Rob Ell Cox let the Longhorns down with seven bingles, but the locals accounted for nine runs. The Toads collected ten hits and four runs off the varied offerings of Browning, De La Fuente and Peeples. Pinky Higgins again led the Steer artillery, clouting two doubles and a circuit blow for his total.

The Baylor Bears uncovered a new pitcher in Stearns, and this rookie stopped the Ponies in their second engagement after Fuzz Douglas, their right-handed veteran, had tamed the Mustangs the first day. The Bears unlimbered a heavy batting attack on the Long pitchers to come through with a pair of wins. The Bruins appear to be the biggest threat that will fall across the path of the Longhorns.

The Aggies pounded the ball hard to hand the Rice Owls a pair of good lickings, and stamp themselves as a powerful contender for the loop title. The heavy runners carried by Countryman last season almost sank the Steers in the last game of the 1928 season.

All in all, it looks like the three clubs, now undefeated, will fight

NEW GRID PLAN ACCEPTED BY HEAD

At a meeting of the Interscholastic League state executive committee last week, a part of the League's new football plan was adopted, and it was voted to bring the plan up for further consideration at the next meeting, Thursday.

The new plan will be ready for submission to Interscholastic League schools early in April, according to Roy Henderson, athletic director of the league. At the meeting last week, five schools in District 12 were placed in District 11.

FROGS' NETTERS MEET DRAKE NEXT

Special to The Daily Texan.

FORT WORTH, March 30—Following their 4-2 win over the Sooner Aggies, the Toad netters settled down to work for their match with the Drake netters who invade Fort Worth Tuesday. The Toads were forced to the limit to win from the Oklahomans, and face stronger opposition in the Drake team.

It is out for the title, despite the fact that Dutch Meyer has declared his 1929 club to be the best he has ever handled.

Kansas Relays Drawing Old Victors Back

Special to The Daily Texan.

LAWRENCE, Kans., March 30. All universities and colleges which sent winning relay teams to the Kansas Relays in 1928 will have entries at the seventh annual relays at the University of Kansas Memorial Stadium here April 20 to defend their titles.

Winners in the university class relays were: Kansas, quarter-mile; Northwestern and Texas A. & M. tied for first in half mile; Northwestern, one mile; University of Missouri, two-mile; University of Illinois, four-mile; University of Oklahoma, distance medley.

In the college class relays the winners were: Oklahoma Baptists, half mile relay; Kansas State Teachers of Pittsburg, Kansas, one-mile and two-mile relays; and Wichita (Kansas) University, distance medley relay.

Competition in the various relay races will be strong again this year and it is far from certain that winners of last season can repeat in the same events.

Universities already indicating intention of coming with teams include Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, and Northwestern of the Western Conference, Missouri Kansas, Oklahoma, Nebraska, Kansas Aggies, and Iowa State of the Big Six Conference; Drake, Creighton, Oklahoma A. & M., Grinnell and Washington, of the Missouri Valley Conference; Texas and Texas A. & M., Notre Dame, Colorado Aggies, Utah, Nevada, New Mexico, Wyoming, and probably several of the other schools of the Occidental College of Los Angeles.

AGGIES MEET WACO CUBS TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY

Special to The Daily Texan.

COLLEGE STATION, March 30.—Coach Bob Countryman's Texas Aggie diamond charges will meet the Waco Cubs of the Texas League in a two-game series at Kyle Field Tuesday and Wednesday April 2-3, and will close the week with a single game April 6 with the Notre Dame nine, now on its annual invasion of the South.

In their previous appearance against a Texas League team this season the Aggies battled the Houston Buffs, winners of the Texas League and Dixie championship, to a 4-4 tie in a brisk eleven-inning affair which was called on account of darkness.

The Aggies' game with Notre Dame will be their last on their own diamond until April 19 when the T. C. U. Horned Frogs will come to College Station for a two-game series. On April 12-13 the Aggies will engage the Texas Longhorns at Austin in two games, the first of the season for Coach Countryman's men away from home.

Mrs. Eugene McDonald is visiting her parents in Houston this week-end.

Batiste Adoue, pledge of Phi Delta Theta, left for Dallas Saturday to spend the week-end at his home.

Miss Rosalie Godfrey, business director of Littlefield Dormitory, left Friday for a week-end visit in San Antonio and Kerrville.

Fred West and Jack Todd spent the week-end in San Antonio.

Phi Kappa Psi Entertains With Formal Dance Friday

Phi Kappa Psi entertained with a formal dance Friday at the Country Club, honoring the district council of the fifth district of the fraternity which is meeting in Austin.

Among the honor guests were: Harold G. Townsend, national president, and Mrs. Townsend, Frank J. Merrill, representative of the executive council, and Henry S. Griffing, archon of the fifth district.

Palms were featured in the decorations. A color scheme of deep red and dark green was carried out.

What Do You Know About—

By J. C. WATKINS

1. Scarface Al?
2. Graf Zeppelin?
3. War Machine?
4. "I'm Alone"?

Scarface Al Capone: "First in war, first in peace, first in the heart of the Chief of Police."

Chicago history tells you that while Al's name has been connected with every major crime in that city for several years, he has only been tried for one charge, and then escaped conviction. Now, however, he is being held by Chicago police for quizzing on the St. Valentine's Day massacre.

Capone was promised immunity if he would leave his Florida mansion and return to the "Windy City" for questioning. A physician testified that the former bootleg king was too "ill." When Capone finally came, it was discovered that the physician had sworn falsely, and now Scarface Al is under arrest.

This year's trans-Atlantic flying season will get off to a good start May 10 when the Graf Zeppelin will make the first of two round trips from Germany to the United States. The purpose of the trip, says Dr. Eckner, is to establish the feasibility of trans-oceanic air travel and to train the crew for a proposed round-the-world flight.

You will soon have some idea of the efficiency of this Callista war machine, when the rebels receive their long-awaited chance to-day or tomorrow to destroy its mechanism.

The scene of the struggle: Desert sands near Rellano, between Escalon and Jimenez; country highly hostile to the federals.

Preliminaries: The federal expeditionary force of 18,000 men under General Almazan yesterday advanced from Escalon upon strongly entrenched rebels at Belano. Strategists assert that the rebels are now through running; that they are ready to fight. The next three days should determine the outcome of the war.

While up at Naco, Sonora, federal troops under General Gonzalez remained under cover awaiting the long-expected attack by rebel forces, 10 miles away.

Whatever became of Lindbergh?

Visitors to Fort Worth and Dallas report the presence of the "Bagdad," Texas' most "What'ho" right club, located halfway between these two cities. A $15 cover charge, a chorus of beauties, and rhythm furnished by the best band in the southwest are mentioned attractions.

When waters of the Gulf of Mexico closed over the good rumship "I'm Alone," drowning one seaman, investigations became general. The boat was owned by Canadians, and an American coast guard cutter was responsible for the sinking. British protested; American authorities upheld their rights—what was to be done?

Nothing, it appears. Yesterday's announcement was made that charges against the crew of the rum-runner had been dropped, and justification of the act would be settled among proper authorities.

Missing every Willing miss,

Hating those

ONE-EYE BENTLINE

SYNOPSIS—

One-Eye Bentline discovers Seraphina Tibitha Smith in the cabin of a ship which he and his pirates have captured. He insults the lady who tells of her fiancé who is taking his beauty sleep in an adjacent cabin.

CHAPTER IV — In which One-Eye has the Pleasure of Meeting and Dispatching Harry Hopkins Horst.

Promptly upon the receiving of this astounding communication of the fair damsel that her lover was aboard this very boat, One-Eye Bentline became a man of action. Previously he had been, as it were, merely playing a game of chess with the beautiful lady as a pawn but now was the time for something to be done. He hailed two particular homely pirates, Coffin Head Henry and Gallows Bird Jones, and told them to bring the young man aboard if they had to hog-tie him.

A scuffle was heard soon after they entered the cabin which was followed by an ominous silence and then the cabin door burst open just as if someone inside were in a hurry to get outside. Between the two loathsome ruffians was the handsome Harry Hopkins Horst who had more conquests of the feminine sex to his account than any ten other men in the British Isles. He it was who had caused the steadfast and not easily perturbed Seraphina's heart to skip a couple of beats.

"Put him to the torture," said One-Eye Bentline grimly. Seraphina mercifully fainted rather than behold the hideous spectacle. Harry's handsome and smooth flesh was whipped into ribbons by a cat o' nine tails as he hung from the pardam by his thumbs. Then he was forced to walk the plank with his hands tied behind him, his feet tied together, and his eyes bandaged.

When Seraphina awoke, after another dousing of bilge water, the cruel waters had closed over the head of her beloved.

"Why, little Seraphina," said One-Eye exactly as if he had been formally introduced. "You took exception to our innocent joke. We placed your lover ashore as you slumbered on the deck. You, we shall keep with us always."

And little Seraphina believed him because she was unused to guile and sin.

Footnotes on Ex-Students

By FAYE FOOTE

Ex-Students' Association Reporter
E. E. Brown, who received his bachelor of arts degree in 1918 and his master of arts degree in 1920, is with the Fleischmann laboratories in New York City. He is in the department where they do research work and where they investigate fermentation. Must be an interesting job, especially the latter half of it.

Dr. Robert J. Joplin of Cleburne, who received his bachelor of arts degree here in 1923, recently made the highest grade in the United States in a physiology test given by the national board of medical examiners. His grade was 95. After leaving the University, Joplin attended Harvard Medical School at Boston where he received his doctor of medicine degree in 1928. He is now serving his internship at the Massachusetts General Hospital in Boston and is connected with the department of pathology and bacteriology. While on the University campus, Dr. Joplin was a member of Delta Tau Delta, Rusk, Texan reporter, Kane Klub, Pre-medical society, and the Y. M. C. A. cabinet.

Kyle Ward, Jr., who received his bachelor of arts degree here in 1923 and his bachelor of science in chemical engineering the same year, has changed his address from Hercules Technical Club, Kenvel, New Jersey, to Pension ur Kurfursterdam and Leibnitzstrasse, Berlin, Germany. Yes, that is all of his address. I am not sure but that I think that is the German word that you always sneeze instead of pronouncing.

William Morris, who received her bachelor of law degree Christmas, has returned to Galveston to enter the law firm of Stewart and DeLange, of which her father is a member. She is also associated with her uncles and cousin in the Stewart Title Guaranty Company of Galveston.

The following clipping is reprinted from The Oil Weekly, published at Houston. The dates of graduation have been inserted:

"It is interesting to note the geological man-power the University of Texas has put into the industry within the past few years. Texas 'exes' who saw fit to take a fling at a stack of geological books, using the so-called midnight oil, and to count rocks and remember them by name and age in a wooden shack laboratory on University Hill at Austin, are rapidly running up their percentage in Texas and other fields. There's Tommy Cox (College of Arts and Sciences, 1921) of Beeville, Texas, who mixed geology and football in school. He's now with Phillips Petroleum Company in the field, working out of Aspermont, Stonewall County, Texas. Bill Milton (College of Arts and Sciences, 1924) a native of Austin, now with Mid-Kansas Oil and Gas Company at Abilene, Texas. Dave Harrell (College of Arts and Sciences, 1922-1924) another Austin boy who got his book-learnin' at the University of Texas, with Shell Petroleum Corporation's geological department in southeastern New Mexico. And Ed A. Taegle who, before studying geology, learned something of the profession of throwing rocks, is now with Ohio Mexico Oil Corporation at Cerralvo, Nuevo Leon, Mexico. A subsidiary of Ohio Oil Company, this concern is doing wildcatting on a large basis on a number of massive Mexican concessions. And then there is Leonard McCollum (College of Arts and Sciences, 1920-1924) who, after hitting the San Antonio territory for a spell under the guidance of "Slim" Barrow (bachelor of arts degree, 1921, and master of arts, 1923) with the Humble Oil and Refining Company, was given charge of the

FIRING LINE

MORE ABOUT FRATERNITIES, SORORITIES, AND STUDENT POLITICS

"W," in Thursday's Firing Line article, says that the bloody shirt will be again waved by those that have axes that need whetting. The writer begs to inform "W" that he has been in college for almost seven years and has never been a candidate for a student office. The writer thinks that the peace that "W" wants is not tranquility of mind but lethargy of political activity. The records of the past show that the fraternities have been the ones who have profited by lethargy among the students. "W" knows that the day the Barbs on the campus hear the clarion call to arms that fraternity domination in student offices will come to an end. Lethargy among the students makes it possible for the Greek letter political cliques to continue in control of the student government. Peace! Peace! The writer hopes that there will be no peace until the students of the University of Texas take over the management of student affairs. Our banner should ever be unfurled as long as our student government is run by a minority group.

Perhaps the writer does not know so very much about what goes on in the fraternity circle. But the writer remembers one case where a prominent member of one of the fraternities was forced to withdraw from membership because he refused to support the candidate whom his fraternity was supporting. Does "W" deny that political trades are made among the fraternities around election time? The writer would like for "W" to present a roster of the fraternity candidates for office, who have not made it a point to tell the boys that were in the fraternity houses that they were members of a fraternity and seek their support partly, if not totally, on that basis.

The editor of The Daily Texan in his "Good Morning" column in Wednesday's Texan said that the fraternities were able to elect so many men to office either because of a lack of interest among the voters or because the non-fraternity men voted for the fraternity men whom they thought were better qualified. It is admitted that lethargy plays its part but the writer does not think that the fraternity men have ever been better qualified for office than the barbs have. Of the 364 students that were on the honor roll of the University of Texas for the first term, only 13 lived at fraternity houses and only nine lived at sorority houses. There were 14 sorority girls at S. R. D. the first term that "got" on the honor roll. (Mr. Mrs., or Miss "W," does that look as if the fraternities promote scholarship? Of the 16 fraternity men on the engineering honor roll, only four stayed at fraternity houses. Of the 47 fraternity men on the University honor roll for last term, only 13 stayed at fraternity houses. The writer would like to know if "W" considers that evidence of promotion of scholarship among the fraternities.)

Speaking of other qualifications, the writer would like to know if inability or a lack of a desire to keep the University rules are qualifications for office holding. Of the 24 fraternity men, who held office during the first term, seven have been placed on social probation and some two or three of these on disciplinary probation for violating the rules of the University.

Three of the fraternity and sorority office holders during the first term were placed on special observation for failing to pass in their school work.

"THE IRON MASK"—Douglas Fairbanks, and when Douglas Fairbanks comes to town nothing else counts; this is his latest, being further chronicles of the Three Musketeers with Fairbanks again as the redoubtable D'Artagnan; it talks, and plays all week. At the Queen.

"THE DUKE STEPS OUT."—hot shot, being William Haines and Joan Crawford in the famous Saturday Evening Post story—it plays today through Tuesday. "STRANGE CARGO"—all talking—Wednesday through Friday. "THE WILD PARTY"—Clara Bow in an all-talker—starting next Saturday. At the Majestic.

"THE SINGING FOOL"—Al Jolson's singing classic returns for a full week's showing; be sure to see it—today through Friday. "IN OLD ARIZONA"—the first outdoor all-talker, and a good one—starting Saturday. At the Hancock.

"FOUR SONS"—Sunday and Monday. "RED LIPS"—Tuesday only. "WIN THAT GIRL"—Wednesday and Thursday. "THE RED DANCE"—Friday and Saturday. At the Texas.

"THE GIRL FROM GAY PAREE"—Sunday and Monday. "JAZZ MAD"—Tuesday through Thursday. "THE GRIP OF THE YUKON"—Friday and Saturday. At the Crescent.

THE IRON MASK

AT QUEEN 7 DAYS

Douglas Fairbanks is at the Queen all this week in "The Iron Mask," his latest picture chronicling the exploits of the Three Musketeers, himself again playing D'Artagnan. And it is a talking picture. Everybody will see this one—why say more?—B.C.L.

DUKE STEPS OUT

NOW AT MAJESTIC

"The Duke Steps Out" at the Majestic, and Zowie!—the tracks he leaves behind him! It seems that Bill Haines just keeps on adding sex appeal to that "smarty cracker" personality of his; in fact, the whole cast of "The Duke Steps Out" acts and looks 50 per cent better than I have ever seen any of them—excepting, perhaps, Joan Crawford's work in "Our Dancing Daughters." However, her role in this picture is very much like the one she had in "Our Dancing Daughters," though possibly not quite as vivacious. Even Karl Dane is cleverly comic while his face maintains an almost human resemblance; if evolution continues, he may show a spark of intelligence in his next picture.

The music score is splendid with perfectly adapted and synchronized effects. There's absolutely more college spirit put into this film than exists in any college anywhere, and was there ever a co-ed like Joan?

To be frank there isn't much this show lacks. Could the cast be improved upon? Could anyone want any more wit than Billy

AT HANCOCK

AL JOLSON is at the Hancock.

SINGING FOOL

ON AT HANCOCK

The Hancock theater offers for almost a full week the most popular picture in America for the past several months, "The Singing Fool," Al Jolson's marvelous singing picture which is even yet gaining more wide-spread popularity with this black-face entertainer's characterization of the "man who was singing, yes, but assuredly no fool." Meaning that as a singing picture, this one can't be beat. Ever heard "Sonny Boy"? Like it? Yeah, we expected that! Then you now have an opportunity to see and hear the song emitted in all its original splendor with Al Jolson as the papa singing it like his heart would break to little Davis Lee as Sonny Boy. Don't miss it.

The picture tells the story of a young cabaret singer who falls in love with a female who sees a chance to use him for a lunch ticket, dallying with her own lovers on the sly and neglecting the son of their marriage like nobody's business. This is little Davis Lee, the kid that made such a sensation when the picture appeared here in its former run. Disappointed in love and marriage, the singer hits the skids and all

Haines can furnish? And incidentally, the subtitles are whoopies. There are ball games, petting parties, road house orgies, and action that is action. For added attraction there is a talking comedy. Please see this one and see something good.—B.B.

GAY GIRLIE' AT CRESCENT TODAY

"The Girl From Gay Paree" is the section of cinematography which will flicker across the Crescent theater screen today and Monday, being a peppy story with Barbara Bedford, Lowell Sherman, Malcolm McGregor, Betty Blythe, Walter Hiers, Margaret Livingston, and a host of other warm numbers taking important parts. It's a yarn about a Poor Working Girl forced to do anything but kill to eat, the worst, however, in this case being to impersonate a member of the Follies Bergere.—X.Y.Z.

WHITE TO WORK ON PLANS FOR M. E. BUILDING

$180,000 Structure to House Modern Shops

Plans for an addition to the Mechanical Engineering Building amounting to approximately $180,000 are being worked out by R. L. White, University architect. The addition will house the engineering shops, which are to be moved from their present location to give room for the proposed Chemistry Building. The contemplated addition is to extend 200 feet west from the present Mechanical Engineering Building. It will be of the same type of construction as the present building, being a one-story structure with a saw-tooth roof. Mr. White and his assistants are working on the general layout for the shops, and the electrical engineering students are placing their specific layouts on the general plans.

Mr. White is working on the plans so that he may have them in a preliminary shape by the first of the week. They will be then turned over to the Herbert M. Green, LaRoche and Dahl Company of Dallas, who will complete the plans. The completed plans should be ready for the Board of Regents to approve at their next meeting April 22.

run lead. Vandenburg walked, and Oliphant popped to Walker on an attempted sacrifice. Wanita hit an easy one to De La Fuente, who threw to second, and Hopkins dropped the toss, all hands being safe. Kadison, bespectacled second sacker, singled to left scoring Vandenburg, and all runners advanced a base on the throw-in. Schuett was an easy out, and McAleece hit an easy to Mike, and the rookie let it dribble between his legs, while Wanita and Kadison counted. Jacobs then sent a long fly to Ford.

The Steers counted a run in each of the last four innings. In the sixth, they counted on three singles by Rhoads, Hopkins, and Leach, and in the seventh, a single by De La Fuente, an error by Kadison, and a one-py blow by Rhoads chased across one tally. Singles by Hopkins and Leach counted in the eighth, while Hughes' single and Higgins' double counted the winning marker in the ninth with one gone.

The Northwestern nine looked good in their work, but the Steers kept picking away at the offerings of their hurlers to cut down their lead, while De La Fuente was hurling nice ball to hold the visitors in check. Mike hurled a steady game, and had his backing escaped that sixth inning ascent, the rookie would have never been behind. In only one frame did the ent Constitution have been made by us only after long deliberation, and we believe that they should be made as proposed.

CHANGE PLANNED IN CONSTITUTION

May we, presuming perhaps upon our affection for the product of our labors, suggest to the Assembly that the proposed Constitution be submitted to the student body in two divisions, one, the Constitution as revised without the revisions in the Board of Publications, the other, the new charter for the Board of Publications. By so doing, the danger of defeat of what we confidently expect to be the non-controversial Constitution will be obviated, while at the same time the student body can vote definitely on the proposed changes in the Publications.

Respectfully yours,

ALUMNI GROUP WILL CONVEENE HERE TUESDAY

Organization History Work Given by Miss Snow

W. L. McGill, president of the University Ex-Students' Association, will deliver the address of welcome to the district conference of the American Alumni Council, which will meet at the University Y. M. C. A. April 2.

Miss Florence Snow, president of the American Alumni Council, will respond with greetings from the council and will give a history of alumni work.

Papers will be presented on alumni questions by Texas alumni secretaries. E. E. McQuillen, secretary of the association of former students of A. & M., will talk on "Our Methods of Financial Support." Miss Louise E. Willis, alumni secretary of Baylor University at Waco, will speak on "What Our Alumni Office Does in Relation to Undergraduates." Miss Ruth Knox, secretary of the ex-students' association at C. I. A., will read a paper on "The Organization and Maintenance of a Former Student Directory." Other fundamental topics such as alumni magazines, student loan funds, and alumni funds will be discussed by various secretaries.

Wilfred B. Shaw, secretary of the Alumni Association at the University of Michigan, will be the principal speaker at the afternoon session and after his speech will lead a general discussion on various problems relating to alumni work.

This is the first time that Texas colleges have been given an independent conference. Last year Texas was united with the southwestern group at the University of Mississippi. Texas has since been named as the tenth district of the council.

"Texas is fortunate in having as a guest two outstanding alumni secretaries of America," said John A. McCurdy, secretary of the Ex-Students' Association of the University. "Mr. Shaw is known as the 'dean of alumni secretaries,' and the importance of Miss Snow is shown by the high position she holds in the council."

Miss Snow will go to Louisiana from here.

Gene Worley and Brandon Rawson of Houston are visiting at the Delta Theta Phi house.

Richmond Campbell, Delta Theta Phi, is spending the week-end in San Antonio.

Mary Frank Smith, Gamma Phi Beta, who received her bachelor of arts degree at the University in 1928, is visiting at the Gamma Phi Beta house.

Caroline Mottley is spending the day in San Antonio.

MODERN PROBLEMS TOPIC SATURDAY

James B. Trant of Louisiana State University.

In the absence of Charles N. Gould of the Oklahoma Geological Survey, the paper on Oklahoma was read by Chester T. Lay of the University of Texas.

A paper on the industrialization of Texas was read by Frank K. Rader of S. M. U. Manufacturing of various articles was discussed by Mr. Rader, such as furniture, shoes, textiles, glass, and paper. The speaker described Texas as a speculation area, and declared that industry had not shifted from the east to the south but had rather spread to the south and west as well as to the north and east. There is no appreciable shift in industry, he said.

General discussion followed the reading of the papers, with interest manifest in the possibility of the development of a wool manufacturing industry in Texas, and an outline of the difficulties involved in the establishment of such an industry.

"The State Legislature," was the general topic for discussion by the government session at its meeting Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in Garrison Hall 3.

Presided over by Professor A. T. Prescott of Louisiana State University, the meeting heard first a paper on "The Louisiana Legislative Assembly from 1896 to 1923" by Professor O. D. Duncan of L. S. U.

"The land problem is primarily a problem of land utilization," said Professor C. A. Wiley of the University in an address before the agricultural economics session Saturday morning.

"The problem of land utilization in the southwest comprises every phase of the problem in the entire United States, because of the variety of soils and climates in this part of the country," Professor Wiley said.

Other talks made to the agricultural economics session were: "Land Utilization in the Southwest," Professor J. A. Watson of Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College; "Operations of the Texas Cotton Growers Finance Corporation," Professor V. P. Lee of Texas Agricultural and Mechanical College, and Harry Williams of Dallas and others.

"The Problem of Short-Term Credit in the Southwest" was the subject discussed by Professor B. M. Gile of the University of Arkansas and Professor R. L. Hunt of Texas A. & M. in papers read at the meeting of the agricultural economics section Saturday afternoon.

At the government session Saturday at 10 o'clock, Professor Taylor Cole of Louisiana State University read a paper on "The Louisiana Police Jury." The police jury system of Louisiana is similar to the commissioners' court and county government in Texas counties.

Following the reading of this paper, Professor W. R. Stephenson of Simmons University discussed the paper and general comment was made upon it by the members. It was said that the system of local administration in the states is still a dark chapter of the government.

"This will be rather a feast of un-reason for during the course of my lecture I will be obliged to murder or execute 12 men," said Professor F. V. Scholes, of the University of New Mexico, in beginning his talk to the history session. Professor C. W. Hackett, chairman of the session, had previously introduced Professor Scholes and informed the audience that they might expect a "feast of reason."

Professor Scholes spoke on "Church and State in Seventeenth Century New Mexico as Illustrated by the Rosas Episode." The early history of this state was a series of struggles between the Catholic and royal governors. Governor Don Luis de Rosas played an important part in this struggle and his administration is taken as an example of what occurred in those days, Scholes said.

"Type of Farming Analysis" was the subject treated by Professor C. A. Bonnen and Professor S. A. McMillan, both of Texas A. & M. College, at the Tuesday afternoon session of the joint convention of the Southwestern Political and Social Science Association and the Southwestern International Relations Club.

Dr. W. P. Meroney, professor of sociology at Baylor University, discussed the real causes of divorce, and gave a proposed classification of these causes in his speech to the sociology division of the Southwestern Political and Social Science Association Saturday morning. The major divisions of Dr. Meroney's classification of family tensions included the health of the members of the family, the economic questions that arise, social standing, inter-family relations, stereotyped ideas on the part of husband and wife, cultural differences, and the change of relations brought about by advancing age. This classification was compared to the legal causes of divorce.

HOSPITAL LIST NOW AMOUNTS TO SEVEN

Students in the hospitals number seven, according to the University Health Service.

Elizabeth Brady, Joe Wells, and H. B. Lind are in Seton Infirmary; on the St. David's Hospital list are: Garner Surginer, Mrs. Gladys Miller, Robeson Barker, and Ted Mayborn.

Helen Wood has been in Bay City for the past few days.

ALPHA ALPHA GAMMA HAS REGULAR MEET

Members of Alpha Alpha Gamma, honorary architecture fraternity for women, held a regular meeting at the home of Goldwin Goldsmith, professor of architecture, at 1902 San Gabriel Street, Friday night at 7:30 o'clock.

Professor Goldsmith, who is head of the department of architecture, read several selections from a number of books.

GRADUATE SCHOOL FACULTY TO MEET

The Graduate School faculty will meet Tuesday, April 2, in room 172 Main Building at 4 o'clock, according to Dr. H. W. Harper, dean of the Graduate School.
