

July 16, 1942

Dr. Kenneth E. Caster
Geology Department
University of Cincinnati
Cincinnati, Ohio

Dear Dr. Caster :

The jellyfish are quite common in north Texas, and there are several collectors who have slabs of the material. Their addresses are enclosed. I am sorry not to have been able to answer your letter sooner. It is because I was out in the field and did not have my address file available until now.

Sincerely yours,

H. B. Stenzel, Geologist

HBS:ALC
Enclosure

Eugene Elmer Davis, 8736 Purdue, Dallas, Texas

R. A. Grimmer, 5139 Denley Drive, Dallas, Texas

Fred T. Moseley, 4352 Livingston Ave., Dallas, Texas

J. H. Renfro, 2801 Samar Avenue, Fort Worth, Texas