CONSTRUCTION PROGRAM LAUNCHED ON FIRST OF UNION TRIO

ASSOCIATION OF EXTENSION GATHERS HERE

President Benedict to Give Address of Welcome

9 SESSIONS HELD

First Conference of Group South of St. Louis

The fourteenth annual conference of the National University Extension Association will begin at 9 o'clock Monday morning, May 13, with registration at the Driskill Hotel. The association is composed of 42 of the leading universities of the United States, 32 of which are state universities.

The address of welcome will be delivered by Dr. H. Y. Benedict, president of the University, at 9:30 o'clock Monday morning. The response will be given by C. D. Snell, dean of extension of the University of Wisconsin. After this will come the address by T. H. Shelby, president of the association. The program from 10:30 o'clock to 12:30 o'clock is divided into "Extension Organization," "Research Work by Extension Divisions," and "Interchange of Extension Courses."

The second session will begin at 12:30 o'clock Monday with a luncheon. From 3 o'clock until 6 o'clock the guests will be taken on a ride, including a visit to the Division of Extension building at the Little Campus. At 6:30 o'clock the visitors will be guests of the Austin Chamber of Commerce for a barbecue at Barton Springs. The third session of the conference will be held at Barton Springs beginning at 8 o'clock Monday night.

The fourth session, beginning at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, will be given over to travel studies and round-table discussions. Luncheon at 12:15 o'clock with the Austin Rotary Club marks the fifth session. The sixth session begins at 2 o'clock with a talk on "A Critique on Methods of Building Up Class Enrollments" by T. L. Kibler, director of extension at Ohio State University. At 2:30 o'clock a meeting of all the committees will be held. A program of entertainment and a reception by the President and faculty will close the day.

Wednesday is the closing day of the conference. The eighth session will be held Wednesday morning, beginning at 9 o'clock. Reports of round table conferences will be made, as well as reports of special committees, and reports of standing committees. The ninth session, held Wednesday afternoon, will close the conference. At 1:30

EDUCATION COUNCIL MEETS FRIDAY AT 5

The Primary Council of Education will hold its last meeting of the year in the form of a picnic at Barton Springs next Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Students in the council who have done practice teaching in the Austin schools this semester will have as their guests the teachers under whom they worked.

A short business meeting will follow the picnic, according to Lattie Mae Kilpatrick, president of the organization. Transportation will be provided by the council, and arrangements may be made with Margaret Bridges at the Scottish Rite Dormitory, or with Lattie Mae Kilpatrick, it was announced.

T. W. GREGORY TURNS EARTH FOR NEW GYM

Orange Jackets, Band, And Cowboys at Ceremony

WORK BEGINS SOON

Moody and Benedict Take Part in Program

Turning the first shovel of earth on the spot where the new Auditorium-Gymnasium will be erected, Colonel T. W. Gregory, chairman of the University Union campaign, and ex-student of the University, formally launched actual work on the first unit of the Union project Friday afternoon. Governor Dan Moody, another ex-student, formally "received the Auditorium." Colonel Gregory was introduced by President H. Y. Benedict, also an ex-student of the University.

The dedication of the field, where soon the massive structure will stand as a monument to Texas' pride, marks the beginning of the realization of a dream. Simultaneously with the dedication ceremony, the first load of lumber for the new building arrived, and was unloaded during the ceremony.

The Cowboys, Orange Jackets, and the Longhorn Band paraded prior to the ceremony. The Cowboys, under the direction of Foreman Jake Looney, were largely responsible for the arrangements for the afternoon.

The spade with which Colonel Gregory turned the sod of Jordan Field, was presented by W. H. Richardson of the Richardson Hardware Company, ex-student of the University, and was autographed by Gregory, Moody, Benedict, and members of the Athletic Council, and will be placed in a trophy room of the new building when completed.

President Benedict in a short preliminary speech pointed out the fact that 47 years ago the first cornerstone was laid for the University.

A sketch of the progress of the Union program was given in a speech by Colonel Gregory. He expressed hope that the University would soon have facilities to entertain presidents as of yore, that the best talent in musical and oratorical lines could be adequately entertained; and that the campus would have a place where the students could gather for almost any form of recreation.

Gregory pointed out that the University had had no adequate facilities for public gatherings since the old auditorium in the Main Building was condemned 15 years ago.

He also stated that there were 7,800 subscribers to the University fund, 800 of which were not students of the University, or ex-students. There are living approximately 49,000 students and ex-students of the University, which fact indicates that about one-seventh of the ex-students have rallied to the support of their Alma Mater, he said.

Governor Moody spoke briefly in appreciation of the work of Texas' students, and stated that he hoped that some day he would be in a position to materially come to the aid of the University.

SENIOR GIRLS HAVE BANQUET AT CAFETERIA

Sanderson Delivers Address of Welcome

Senior girls were honored at the annual banquet given by the Y. W. C. A. Friday night at the Cafeteria. Grace Sanderson, incoming president of Y. W. C. A., gave the welcome address. Marian McDowell, outgoing president, was toastmistress.

Carol Chandler gave a vocal solo accompanied by Everetta Love.

"The Senior's Rainbow" with its seven colors representing seven qualities of life was presented with Marian McDowell as the artist, Helen Roberts as "Pur-pose," Jean MacMullen as "Occupation," Mary Virginia Chick as "Truth," Cornelia Gregory as "Growth," Mary Wisdom as "Out-look," Anita Riedesel as "Love," and Virginia Rich as "Devotion." Group singing of "Follow the Glean" completed the program. Decorations were baskets of flowers in pastel shades and green candles.

Sigma Delta Chi Pledges 'Sprout' White Feathers

Pledges of Sigma Delta Chi will wear dress suits to classes today and will balance feathers behind their respective right ears. They will carry large note books. The neophytes will have charge of the editing of The Daily Texan for Sunday.

J. C. Watkins will serve as issue editor. The other pledges will hold the following positions on tonight's staff: Brian Spinks, theater editor; Thurman Covey, "Good Morning" columnist; Kenneth Fink, "What Do You Know About" columnist; Bill Dyer, "Campus Buzzard" composer; Jack Kreuger, capital correspondent; Wilburn Van Fleet, sports editor; David Hall, society editor; Albert Nibling, Charles Devall, and Dale Miller editorial staff.

Formal initiation services will be held Sunday at 3 o'clock. The pledges will meet at B. Hall and await further instructions from the initiates.

UNIVERSITY TO RECEIVE GIFT WITHIN YEAR

McDonald Will Nears Settlement When Heirs Paid

Executives of the McDonald will have paid off all the contestants of the will and progress is being made toward turning the money over to the University. The Regents will have approximately one million dollars at their disposal for the erection of an observatory. The executors have a year in which to turn over the money to the Regents.

There is some personal property to be disposed of, in which is included a library of about one thousand books. It has been suggested that several hundred of the books be placed in a small library as a memorial in the new McDonald observatory.

Facts About Former U.T. Students Who Now Fill Solon Chairs

"I didn't belong to any kind of organization while I was in the University and I haven't joined any since, except the Democratic party," said Representative Adrian Pool of El Paso. He is now serving his sixth term in the House of Representatives.

BILL SHUART HOLDS 33 VOTE LEAD IN TOTALS

Over 40 Votes Thrown Out in Final Ballot Check

HATCHER ELECTED

Most Popular Athlete Race Still in Doubt

Robert Payne and Spurgeon Bell were tied in the race for president of the Students' Association after a check of election irregularities was made Friday. A special election will be held Thursday, May 16, from 8 to 1 o'clock to determine the race, according to Byron Skelton, president of the Students' Association.

"There is no law or by-law in the Constitution of the Students' Association authorizing a special election to be held, but a case like this has never come up before and a special election seems to be the only way to handle the situation," Skelton said.

The final check of the ballots caused about 40 or 50 votes to be thrown out due to students not in school having voted, student-voting twice, and students signing fictitious names to ballots.

It is not expected that the votes being cast out will affect any race other than that of the president unless it is the race for the most popular athlete and the secretary of the Students' Association. The final vote on the managing editorship of the Cactus gave Willard Shuart a lead of 33 votes over his opponent, James Rutland.

In the report of the election returns Wednesday an error was made in stating that Mary Hatcher was not elected to Woman's Honor Council. The winning candidates for the Council are: Josephine Pollard, Dorothy Kelly, Mary Hatcher, Bessie Kilgore, and Mareta Talbot.

NEWMAN CLUB TO HOLD LAST MEET

The last meeting of the semester for the Newman Club will be featured by the annual communion breakfast to be given at Newman Hall Sunday morning at 8 o'clock. New officers will assume their duties at this time, and two scholarships for the coming year will be announced.

A program will be given after the breakfast, consisting of an address by Lieutenant Governor Barry Miller; a talk, "A Message from the Ex-Newmanites," by Miss Miriam Gerling; vocal selections by John Quinn; and violin selections by Jimmie Webb.

P. E. CLUB ELECTS
A president of the Physical Training Education Club will be elected at a meeting Wednesday, May 15. A short business meeting will be held and a program has been arranged.

The meeting will be held at 7 o'clock in Main Building, room 15.

1. Flaunt with cupid?
2. "Heretic Pastor?"
3. Gilbert elopement?
4. Norris Refused?

Won't they ever grow up? A man 84 years old squandered $150,000 on a flapper, and his children are up in arms over their aged sire's flaunt with cupid. The judge to whom they appealed has refused to interfere, saying that man has a right to seek a mate.

A precedent in liquor arrests was set in Aurora, Illinois, when a woman was arrested on a charge of buying intoxicating liquor. "It sets a precedent, not only for Illinois, but for the nation," the state's attorney declared. Illinois has a law that forbids the purchase of intoxicating liquor.

P. B. Ford, justice of the peace at Abilene, has married his 111th couple.

Cameron's much heralded "heretic pastor" may be chosen as the pastor of the University Congregational Church. He will preach a trial sermon here Sunday morning. The pastor, the Rev. H. G. Kenney was recently ousted from the pastorate of the Cameron Presbyterian Church. Formalities of entering the pastorate of another denomination will be simple, as Dr. Kenney has no denominational strings tied to him. It is known that two other Congregational congregations in the state are making an effort to "call" Dr. Kenney.

Six Kelly Field cadets at San Antonio are under disciplinary action as a result of charges of low flying, "hedge-topping," and "roof-kissing" lodged against them by City Manager Adam Johnson of Austin. For two nights this week aeroplanes flew at an extremely low height over Austin at twilight, one of them passing over the campus.

A most unusual event: a Hollywood elopement. This time it's John Gilbert and Ina Claire, and Greta Garbo who was thought to be altar-bound with the popular beau brummel, and Gene Markey, popular writer, are left "holding the bag," and absorbing heart pain.

They were just acting, but the battle became so real that 37 Austrians wearing old French and Bavarian military uniforms were in the hospital with wounds they inflicted upon themselves with bayonets. They were extras in a motion picture.

A one-day sympathy strike by 130,000 students in Mexico belonging to the National Federation of Students will be instituted next Monday in support of the law students at the National University of Mexico City who oppose recent changes in examination methods.

The Rev. J. Frank Norris has been denied the use of the city park at Memphis, Tennessee, by city officials to speak on the "Catholic Question" before a Ku Klux Klan gathering. "I'll speak, and hell and high water can't stop me," Norris replied to the denial. "We will hold that meeting and give them unsharpened hell," was his ultimatum.

4 STUDENTS MADE LAW QUIZMASTERS

Four students have been selected by the faculty of the University School of Law as quizmasters for the summer session of 1929 and for the long session of 1929-30. It was announced Friday from the office of Dean Ira P. Hildebrand. Two student assistants in the law library to serve for the same length of time were also named.

The students who will act as quizmasters are: John T. Maginnis, Leslie Eyril, Charles Russell, and Robert Reeves of Sherman.

Those who will be student assistants in the law library for the summer session of 1929 and the long session of 1929-30 are Thurman W. Adkins and Robert Elkel of Sherman.

SWING-OUT

Oh, pass me a bluebonnet chain,
My dear
To wrap around my dome
I'm clad in a dress both white and sheer
And gauzy as sea-foam.

Oh, I am juvenile junior, my love,
And you are a graduate
So lift up the chain and give it a shove
And drape it o'er my pate.

Next year I promise by all that's good
To do the self-same thing
I'll stand exactly where you stood and if it is possible for any place on earth to be likened to Paradise, Mrs. Meng thinks these islands are eligible. Mrs. Meng knows about these islands intimately, having been stranded there for 11 months with her husband and a Hawaiian youth. They went to the islands on a research trip, and the ship that they had expected to call for them did not return, due to the superstition of the Japanese seamen.

Fish and coconut milk prepared in a variety of ways was the chief diet of the castaways, after about eight months when the food supply ran low. "The waters were infested by man-eating sharks, but since no human life was on the island, and sharks don't eat human flesh until they have gotten a taste for it, they were easily frightened away. An ordinary cane knife was sharpened and carried for protection when wading or swimming from one island to another," she said.

There are no mosquitos and no bacteria, hence no disease in the islands. A balmy breeze, and a reef or coral that keeps off the storms, are also among the islands' attributes.

Mrs. Meng met W. D. Hornaday, now director of publicity of the University, in Honolulu, and from him received her first help as a writer. She has since had many articles and stories published in leading magazines. Still, she maintains she is an amateur.

Legislative Highlights

Texan Capitol Correspondents

The Wallace-Duvall bill creating a three-member board of pardons and paroles to replace the present prison board, was passed to engrossment by the House Friday afternoon, after efforts to have the measure declared unconstitutional by Representative Jack Keller of Dallas failed. The purpose of the bill, according to its supporters, is to abolish the "sob-stuff," which has prevailed under the present system of dealing out pardons and paroles. In explaining the measure, Representative John W. Wallace of Teague told the House that the bill would serve to parole more than 500 worthy prisoners, whom the Governor did not have time to investigate personally, and who were thus forced to serve out their full terms at State expense.

That the bill providing for a state board of education, consisting of nine members, which was engrossed in the Senate Thursday afternoon by a vote of 16-11, may fail of final passage when it comes up again Monday, was the prediction of several Senate members.

In the event that the measure does pass the Senate there is a strong possibility that it will be killed in the House, since that body already has declared itself opposed to the Senate bill. One of the duties assigned to the education board, which the bill is attempting to create, will be to consider the financial needs of the state institutions of higher learning and to make biennial reports to the board of control.

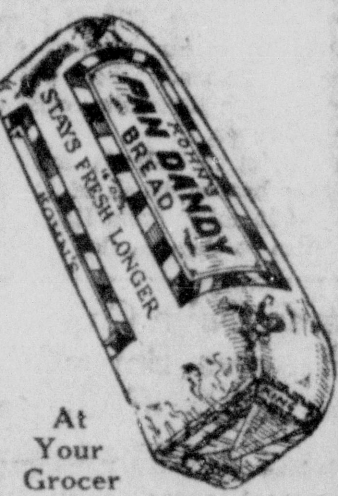

Work on the report prepared by the land office investigating committee on the conduct of land Commissioner J. T. Robinson of leasing University of Texas oil lands, was finished Friday afternoon and it is virtually certain to be filed when the House and Senate reconvene Monday morning. The report is based on testimony taken in the regular session by the land office investigating committee, headed by Representative Fred Minor of Denton.

The House voted unanimously to accept the invitation of the senior class of the University. Members of the Legislature and their families were invited to attend the Senior Swing-out.

VERSUS MEET POSTPONED

The final meeting of the Versus Club, public speaking organization, which was to have been held Friday, was postponed because of lack of attendance. The meeting has been called for next Friday, May 17, at the Texas Bible Chair. This will be the last meeting of the present school year, according to Gartha Lena Morgan, president.

Spring housecleaning hint for Husbands

RADFORD paused in the upstairs hall.

"What!" he exclaimed, "not through yet—"

From amid the chaos of housecleaning, Mrs. Radford looked up in exasperation.

"Get that coat off and help me put up this bed," she ordered, wearily shoving a stray lock of hair back beneath the towel about her head.

"How do you expect me to be through? I can't clean the upstairs, and spend the best part of the afternoon downstairs talking over the telephone, can I? I've been up and down those stairs forty times."

Radford had weathered many spring housecleanings. Wisely, he pulled off his coat and began to roll up his sleeves.

"I think," he observed sympathetically, "that an extension telephone up here in the hall might save steps and—"

"Then suppose," interrupted his wife grimly, "that you order one for me tomorrow."

Required Courses on Constitutions Discussed

Recommendations for carrying out the recent statute requiring the teaching of a course on the Constitutions of the United States and of Texas are now on the desk of Claude Pollard, attorney general of Texas.

Dr. H. T. Parlin, dean of the College of Arts and Sciences and chairman of a special committee on the institution of the course, presented to the University administrative council a list of questions which, after suggested amendments, he was empowered to refer to the attorney general for an answer.

Mr. Pollard is expected to interpret the statute; after his reply is received, definite work will go forward to place the course in the University requirements for degrees.

Note—Current shows reviewed in this column will be listed in the order of their entertainment value, as judged by the Theater Editor of The Daily Texan on the basis of his own standards of criticism. The best show in town will always be listed first and so on.

"SPEAKEASY." All the turbulent life and activity of a great city given a thorough recording by Mr. Fox and his celebrated Movietone. And whatever that producer may lack in quality, he makes up for it in variety. First it was "In Old Arizona." Then it was "Hearts in Dixie." Now it is "Speakeasy." And he has 46 more coming up. There is in this picture the roar of the subways, the din of the Broadway traffic, the deafening hammering of riveters who are forever rebuilding the city, the cheap jazz of the speakeasy, the smack of leather in Madison Square Garden, the barking of revolvers, shrieks, yells, catcalls, boos, and 20,000 people blood-mad. In other words, there is action. Opens at the Hancock today for a week.

"THE DIVINE LADY." Corinne Griffith as a flirtatious court beauty of a century and a half ago. She gets Lord Nelson down in his box. A love drama, with color and atmosphere. Interesting without doubt. The Battle of Trafalgar is seen, as Milton Sills says, "through the thick haze of black smoke." Sound. Temperament. And anything else you look for. Opens at the Majestic today.

"WOLF OF WALL STREET." A somewhat overdone and poorly done picture of Wall Street bears and bulls right in their own lair and pasture. George Bancroft gets hard with Bacalanova and casts her out on the cruel world, all on account of an indiscretion on the part of a wife he couldn't find time to take care of. Paul Lukas fools around and looks reserved. And he gets more than he is expecting in the end. Nancy Carroll goes into hysterics and turns the hell a loose. Bravo, Texas for the last times today.

"CLEAR THE DECKS." Rather amusing comedy by Reginald Denny, but not nearly so good as it would be if it were all-talking. The parts in which the lines are spoken get over easily with any audience. But the other, which moves along on the crutches of tubercular subtitles, is childish. Two of the best Vitaphone acts in some time. Harry Horlick and his Gypsies do some of the most perfect violin work I have ever heard recorded. And maybe you don't know that there is real music in a piano accordion. In that case you should hear Guido Deiro, Queen for the last times today.

"THE MELTING POT." A play by Israel Zangwill and the Curtin Club. Burt Dyke raves through several acts of declamations. And he doesn't sound any more like a Russian Jew than you do. The gesture on the part of the organization is admirable, but decidedly it is not a play for collegiate consumption and execution. Last time tonight in the S Hall studio, 8:15.

"SHOWBOAT." Albert Nibling saw the preview Thursday night. Then he comes back with the following review. Incidentally, I thought I would make a good press agent, but I've found my peer. He is hereby recommended to Universal Pictures, Public, and the Queen theater for a life-time pension. And he says he hasn't run out of adjectives yet. This is it:

"Show Boat"—emblazoning a new era in talkie art—poignant, intense, immutable—as mighty as an epic, as tender as a poem, as big as life—that is 'Show Boat,' Universal's new panoramic spec-

CURTAIN CLUB
IMPROVES ON MELTING POTThird Performance of Play Praised by
ReviewerBy MADELINE JAFFE
TEXAN THEATER STAFF

The Curtin Club play, "The Melting Pot," by Israel Zangwill is improving with age. On the third night of its performance the members of the cast gave the best interpretation of the play of American ideals and platitudes of the four-night run. The audience appreciated with ready laughter the clever lines of the minor characters. But the unrestrained emotional tensions were greeted with indifference and at times snickers by the spectators.

Zangwill had a fine conception of America as a melting pot for all nations, a place where all races would be blended into a superman, the American. The theme is a fine one for great emotional crises of a nation, particularly during the last war. But for times of peace and prosperity, the fine idealism of Zangwill gets turned into sentimentality.

Burt Dyke, who plays the lead as David Quixano, an erratic Russian violinist, who lives in a world of noble thought in a free land of America, has a most difficult role to play. Despite the stiffness of diction, Dyke gave a sincere interpretation of the over-sentimental role that is unparadigmatically impossible. He played to the huge American flag and gesticulated nobly to Ellis Island in the true histrionic manner. Barnett Shaw, as Mendel Quixano, depicted the cultured old Jew with an understanding that marked his acting as superior to that of the average amateur. The subtle pathos of the Jew clinging to the past, hopeful yet doubting the future, was shown in the interpretation of his role by Shaw.

Fred Meredith captivated the audience again Friday night with his Herr Pappemeister, the gruff but genial German orchestra conductor. He played in character throughout with no noticeable slips in accent. Mary Aden Everett received applause which was her due for clever acting in act three, as the Baroness Ravendal. Other minor actors whose parts were well-done were: James Cumley, the fallen Russian Baron Ravendal; Mary Jo Young, the impudent, likeable Irish maid; and Seymour Hootkins, the old Jew-tacle of humanity—humanity with the sham torn off, its heart bared, its passions unfettered. And above all, Laura La Plante and Joseph Schildkraut know how to act. What characterization—what beauty of scenic effects—what harmony of musical accompaniments! It is an old story, about a river and life, and driftwood, and love, and hate, and sin, and narrowness, and bitterness, and beauty, and poverty, and death, but somehow differently told, somehow ringing above the mediocrity of melodrama, the sameness of colorful extravaganza. More tomorrow.

Entertainments by Austin Friends

Mrs. Leon Green of New Haven, Connecticut, whose husband was a former member of the University law faculty, was entertained by Mrs. R. W. Stayton at a bridge party Wednesday afternoon.

The house was decorated in spring flowers, and a pink and green color scheme was used. The card tables were covered in green, and dainty tallies were used to lend a dash of color. The refreshment course of cherry nut ice was served in green meringue cups.

Mrs. Green was presented with a guest prize, and Mrs. John Hallen and Mrs. Joe Rowe received high and low scores, respectively.

Mrs. A. P. Brogan entertained Mrs. Green at breakfast Wednesday morning.

Mrs. Green was honored by Mrs. John Ross and Mrs. G. R. Bennett at lunch Wednesday.

Tuesday morning, Mrs. Ira P. Hildebrand entertained the wives of the members of the law faculty at her home. Bridge was played before the luncheon was served at 12:30 o'clock. Mrs. Green and Mrs. L. L. Click were honor guests.

FACULTY CLUB PICNIC HELD THIS AFTERNOON

The University Faculty Club will hold its annual spring picnic this Saturday afternoon and not Friday as was announced Friday.

ish grandmother of David Quixano.

Virginia Griffin, the feminine lead, gave a somewhat cool characterization to the proud, aristocratic Vera Ravendal. In the third act, by far the best part of the play, Miss Griffin does her best acting.

The New York skyline and the Statue of Liberty set for the last act was planned by Harold Jensen, who proves himself a true stage designer. To Miss Pelham Elliott goes the credit for the excellent make-up of the men actors, including Seymour Hootkins, who looked the old grandmother.

SOCIAL CALENDAR

The social calendar for this week-end is as follows:

Saturday, May 11
Littlefield Dormitory informal dance at the dormitory, 9-12 o'clock.
German at the Woman's Gymnasium, 9-12 o'clock.
Tejas Club open house, 8-11 o'clock.

Dr. Frank L. Jewett has general charge of the entertainments.

A feature of the preparations is a challenge issued by the department of psychology to all other departments of the University suggesting a horseshoe pitching tournament. Contests in baseball and swimming will also be held. A supper will be served, and dancing will follow. Each member attending has been asked to call Mrs. Frank Jewett before 10 o'clock this morning.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

Rice 10, S. M. U. 5.

TODAY'S GAMES

S. M. U. vs. Rice.

The Ponies are evidently trying to set a record for errors committed in one season. They pulled 11 boners yesterday against the Owls, the second time this season they have made 11 errors in one game. Their total in the error column has been pretty high in the other games this season.

When the Texas Tech Matadors were in Austin this week for a pair of games with the Saints, few people were aware of the fact that the chap playing second base was the younger brother of one of the greatest shortstops in the game. F. N. Rigney is the Matador keystone guardian, and Topper Rigney is the big brother. F. N.'s ambition is to follow in the footsteps of Topper, and has started right.

This Nigger McCarver who is wearing the colors of Howard Payne is one more cinder path artist. This youth ran four races yesterday afternoon and broke four records, but was forced to share one of them with Joe Lillis of Austin College. McCarver won the 100-yard dash, the 120-yard high hurdles and the 220-yard low hurdles. He and Lillis ran a dead heat in the 220-yard dash.

Joe Lillis of Austin College and Bartlett of Simmons were the only men who had the honor of breaking the record and then breaking their new record. Lillis broke the old mark in the broad jump on his first try, and then bettered his new mark on his next jump. His third try was better than the old mark, but under his new mark by several inches. Bartlett broke the mark in the javelin by two inches, and then shattered his new mark by three feet.

There'll be a fast time on the cinder paths at S. M. U. this afternoon when the express trains and speed demons of the conference take in after each other in the conference track meet. Chuck Bracey of Rice and Cy Leland of T. C. U. are doped to have a merry chase in the century and furlong, and everybody is looking for fast times in the 440 and 880 when Daniels of Texas and Hodges of A. & M. race each other in the quarter, and Guffin of Texas and Brunson of Rice settle their grudge in the half.

They dug up about six square feet of dirt yesterday afternoon, and work started on the Auditorium-Gymnasium. Plans are for this structure to be completed in 225 working days, and will be ready for the 1930 basketball season.

Now that the intramural baseball season is over, it won't be long before we'll be springing our all-intramural selections. As soon as Tiny Gooch and Otto Rode turn in their teams, we'll be ready to go.

All athletic activity will soon come to a rest in the Southwest Conference this year. Today ends the track, and tennis will be brought to a close next week when the conference meet is held in Austin. Golf will be brought to a close at the same time in Fort Worth. The baseball season will end a week later.

PONIES KICK ONE TO OWLS, 10-5

Special to The Daily Texan.
HOUSTON, May 10.—The Rice Owls showed amazing endurance and patience here this afternoon to take the opener of their two-game series with the Ponies by a 10-5 count in one of the most weird exhibitions of baseball ever witnessed in Houston. The win was the sixth of the conference season for the Owls, who have been in there mauling up things for the rest of the loop this season.

Score by innings: R H E
S.M.U. 110 911 010—5 11 11
Rice 192 303 10x—10 19 4

Cadets Place 11 Men in Today's Finals

Special to The Daily Texan.

DALLAS, May 10.—The results in today's preliminaries indicate that the fight for the 1929 conference track title will be between Texas, A. & M., and Rice, with the Cadets being favored to win. The Aggies placed 11 men in today's preliminaries, while the Steers sent seven into the finals and the Owls placed four. The Porkers, who were given no consideration by the critics, placed three men, and Baylor and T. C. U., two each. The Ponies trailed the field with a single entry.

None of the men winning today's heats exerted themselves, saving all their strength for the finals Saturday afternoon. The Aggies placed at least two men in each event, and Texas will have two men in all save the 100-yard dash and 220-yard low hurdles. No Texas thinly-clad placed in the century, but Mondrik sailed through an easy heat to place in the low hurdles.

The main events will get under way Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with the field events getting under way half an hour later. Full teams from every conference school had arrived in Dallas tonight and predictions were rife, with practically everyone favoring the Aggies to win the meet.

Those who qualified this afternoon in the various events were: 100-yard dash: Bracey (R), O'Neil (A&M), Emmons (A&M), Leland (TCU), Graham (A&M), Harris (B).

120-yard high hurdles: Baldwin (T), Lambert (A), Slocumb (A & M), Dixon (A), Mondrik (T), Harlan (A&M).

220-yard dash: Bracey (R), O'Neil (A&M), Beaty (T), Leland (TCU), Wilkey (T), Emmons (A&M).

220-yard low hurdles: Mondrik (T), Slocumb (A&M), Donally (S MU), Harlan (A&M), McElreath (B), Lambert (A).

440-yard dash: Daniels (T), Hodges (A&M), Hamilton (R), Tracey (A&M), Lankin (R), Westerfeldt (T).

SWIMMING CLUBS TO GIVE PAGEANT

"Neptune's Crystal," the annual pageant of the Turtle and Turtle Clubs, is scheduled to be held at Deep Eddy Tuesday night at 8:30 o'clock. The pageant will represent the time extending from the discovery of America through the present day, illustrated by the different dives and strokes. Races will also be staged.

Harold Dybwad, director of the Austin High School band, will conduct a musicale in connection with the pageant.

Preceding the pageant, the Men's Swimming Club will give a short exhibition.

There will be no admission charge and tickets are now being distributed at the main office of the Woman's Gymnasium, according to Miss Janet Isabel Wood, instructor in physical training.

NETTERS SWEEP TCU GAMES 6-0

Special to The Daily Texan.

FORT WORTH, May 10.—The Longhorn tennis team continued its undefeated record by beating the T. C. U. net team six matches. The wind was very strong and hampered the players considerably. In the number one match, Berkeley Bell defeated John McDairmid 7-5, 6-1.

Lewis Ferguson defeated Ewell 6-2, 6-2. Earl Taylor defeated Weir McDairmid 6-3, 6-3. Lucien Lacoste defeated Fox 6-2, 6-2.

In the doubles matches the first doubles match furnished thrills for the afternoon, as John McDairmid and Ewell forced Bell and Ferguson into an extra set before the Steers could win score of match 6-3, 7-3, 6-2.

Taylor and Lacoste easily defeated Weir McDairmid and Fox 6-1, 6-2.

M'CUTCHEON WINS FENCING CONTEST

W. Calhoun McCutcheon, pre-law, won the University fencing championship in the intramural tilt Friday afternoon. In the first round Shaw forfeited to Ihrig and Bromberg defeated Passmore.

In the second round Usher defeated Ihrig and McCutcheon defeated Bromberg.

In the finals McCutcheon won a decision over Usher, thereby winning the University championship.

After the contests, Doc Ekdahl presented a gold medal to McCutcheon.

Miscues Cause of Downfall of Leary and D.K.E.'s

A last-inning rally on the part of the engineers in which they took a two-run lead to unknot a tied score decided the University baseball championship yesterday afternoon, with the Ales winning from the Delta Kappa Epsilon nine with a 6-5 score.

The game was a see-saw affair from start to finish. The frat team took an early lead in their part of the first inning when they hopped on Ridings for a couple of hits and the same number of runs. Errors played a large part in the scoring of the tallies. The count was soon tied and at the beginning of the seventh inning both teams had scored four runs. The engineers, first up in the last inning, found Leary for three hits and a couple of runs. A rally on the part of the Dekes fell short of tying the score by one run, and the championship went to the departmental team.

Summary: Three-base hits, Driscoll; two-base hits, Ridings, Driscoll, Walker, Shearer; bases on balls, off Leary 1, off Ridings, 2, off Schmidt 5; struck out by Leary 13, by Ridings 5, by Schmidt 8. Hit by pitcher: Driscoll by Leary. Passed balls: Birdwell. Wild pitch: Ridings. Pitcher's record: Three hits, four runs off Ridings in two and two-thirds innings. Winning pitcher, Schmidt. Umpire, Rode.

HOWARD PAYNE COPS TEXAS CONFERENCE TRACK TITLE

In an orgy of record-breaking, the Howard Payne thinly-clad swept the Texas Conference track meet yesterday afternoon to cop the Texas Conference title. The Howard Payne crew started the record breaking in the mile run, and the Southwestern relay team brought it to an end when they clipped six seconds off the old mark. Sandwiched in between these two performances were 11 other record smashing performances, and only two of the marks which were on the books at the start of the meet were left standing.

Nigger McCarver, Howard Payne ace, and Joe Lillis, Austin College star, had a merry chase for high point honors and individual record breaking performances. McCarver smashed three records himself, and tied with Lillis for a fourth, while Lillis shattered the broad jump mark on his first try, and shared honors with McCarver in the 220-yard dash.

The Howard Payne crew piled up 77 points, and Simmons trailed in second place with 36 1-2 points, and the Kangaroos came hopping home third with 22 1-2 points, 18 of which were garnered by Lillis. St. Eds was fourth with 14, and Southwestern trailed with 12 points.

The fast track speeded the boys up, and they shattered every track record except the 440-yard dash, and all field records with the exception of the discus went by the way.
