THREE MEN WIN "T'S" IN NOVEL GYM EXHIBITION

Wm. Deatherage, J. R. Tennison and C. C. Kelly Are Awarded Letters By Judges—Comedy and Skill Pleased Audience.

In the annual Gymnasium exhibition and contest staged in the auditorium last night, the University Gym team entertained an appreciative audience with an excellent exhibition of the team's work for this year. The men that were judged to be the best gymnasts were Wm. Deatherage on the mat, J. R. Tennison on the horizontal bars, and C. C. Kelly on the parallel bars. These three men were awarded T's by the judges. A large crowd was present and applauded enthusiastically. The individual work of Mr. Henderson, S. L. Williams, and D. Lown was especially good. Williams in his "fiery" torch swinging was very spectacular and was enjoyed time and again.

A bit of comedy and burlesque was introduced by Pennybacker and his youthful acrobats. These three kept the audience in a constant roar of laughter and were encored time and again.

The judges for the contest were L. Belmont, Bower, and Broad.

Music was furnished throughout by Messer's orchestra.

The program:

1. Overture—Orchestra.
2. Wand Drill—Selected squad.
3. Parallel Bar Exercises—Gym

4. Youthful acrobats.

5. Horizontal Bar Exercises—Gym

6. Torch Swinging—S. L. Williams.

7. Advanced Tumbling—Gym

8. Hand Balancing—Mr. Henderson.

9. Juggling—D. Lown.

Announcement by judges of winners of three letters.

WOMEN TO DISCUSS SELF-GOVERNMENT

Meeting to be Held in Study Hall Tuesday—Speakers and Subjects are Named.

Several months ago there were sent out questionnaires on Self-government to the leading women's colleges of America by the Present Day Club. The material thus collected has been worked up into a usable form, and will form the basis of discussion at the next meeting of the club, which will be held in the Girls' Study Hall Tuesday from 5 to 6. The club was thought that a large number of girls would be interested in the questions, and so is inviting them to attend the meeting on Tuesday.

The following phases of the subject will be discussed:

Self-government in Women's Colleges: Can it be a Success?

1. "What Does it Mean?"—Alice Hudson.

2. "Is it a Success in the U. of T."—Nell Baker.

3. "Has it Been a Success Elsewhere?"—Rose Zelosky.

4. "How Can We Make it a Success Here?"—General discussion with

Miss Vannerman, Corinne Flood, Helen Brandenburg, Ada Pearce as moderators.

Dr. Carleton Bell, professor of the Art of Teaching, in the University, has accepted a position in the faculty of the Summer School of the University of Tennessee at Knoxville.

He will give courses on Child Behavior and Adolescence, and conduct a series of round tables on "The Practical Significance of Educational Measurements."

BEN GREET WILL PLAY ON CAMPUS ON MAY 3 AND 4

Popular Woodland Troup to Render Three Shakespearean Comedies in Out-of-Door Performances in Austin.

Ben Greet and his company of Woodland players will present three of Shakespeare's plays on May 3 and 4. "Twelfth Night," "Taming of the Shrew," and "The Merchant of Venice" are the scheduled performances.

Ben Greet and his company need no introduction to the people of Austin. Last year they delighted three large audiences with their rendition of "As You Like It," "The Tempest" and "A Mid Summer Night's Dream." These plays were presented under oak trees near the Law Building, where a temporary stage had been erected. The slope of the campus at this place makes the out-door theater and ideal one.

Ben Greet has for the past twenty-five years presented Shakespearean plays both in England and America, and he has assembled the best company of actors possible.

Last year Ben Greet, in the role of "Bottom" in "Midsummer Night's Dream," was especially pleasing.

TEXAS DEBATERS LOSE TO MISSOURI

Telegram from T. V. Smith Tells of Defeat of Negative Team at Columbia Friday.

Columbia, Mo., April 16. The Daily Texan: Inglorious and unanimous defeat. SMITH.

Such was the telegram received early yesterday morning, telling with the characteristic modesty of the Texas representative, the outcome of the Texas-Missouri debate, in which Thomas V. Smith and Virgil T. Seaberry represented Texas, upholding the negative of the Minimum Wage. Coming on top of the Colorado defeat here, the news cast a gloom over the ranks of the local followers of forensic activities, as it was felt that the Texas negative team was an unusually strong one. Speculation was rife all day among the students as to the outcome of the debate, and when the result was finally announced, it came as a surprise to many. Public Speaking men, however, were unanimous in the opinion that the defeat must have been anything but "inglorious," and that the Texans went down with flying colors before an overwhelmingly strong opposition. "The team that beat Smith and Seaberry" said a prominent Public Speaking man in commenting on the debate, "must have been of world's championship caliber."

GLEE CLUB ELECTS.

Hubert Wheless was elected president of the 1916 Glee Club at a meeting of that organization held at the Y. M. C. A. last night. Walter Lawrence was chosen vice president, Buford Jester manager, Luckett Cochran assistant manager, and Clarence Lehman secretary and librarian. A vote of thanks was accorded Mr. Jester for the efficient manner in which he has managed this year's club.

HOLIDAY CHANGED.

In response to a petition from the Students' Association, the General Faculty at its meeting on Tuesday last, voted that the holiday in honor of San Jacinto Day should be changed from Wednesday, April 21 to Friday, April 23, in order that the members of the University may accept the invitation extended to them to attend the Battle of Flowers in San Antonio. (Signed)

W. J. BATTLE, Acting President.

LOT PARTY TO BE GIVEN TUESDAY BY Y. W. C. A. MEMBERS

Girls of University are Invited to Attend Annual Jollification. Unique Stunts Are Kept Mysterious Secret.

A "lot-party" will be given by Y. W. C. A. Tuesday evening at 6:50, and all the girls in the University are invited to attend. At least once every year, Y. W. has a jollification of some sort on Y. W. C. A. lot at 2306 Guadalupe, and these festivities are always very popular. This year, the plan of entertainment is kept a secret, but rumors are circulating that the four seasons will be impersonated by various cabinet members, who will perform "stunts." Whispers are being heard asking the question "What is your favorite day of the year?" and the girls are warned to decide this momentous question before coming to the party. Miss Annie M. Reynolds, chairman of the Secretarial Department of the National Board of Y. W. C. A. will be in Austin on the day of the party and it is thought that the lot-party may be in compliment to her. At any rate, there are sufficient attractions promised to insure a record-breaking crowd, even for a Y. W. party.

NEW MOTOR IN GYM.

When the motor that is now being installed in the gym for the purpose of running the dryer of the uniforms of Varsity athletes, the drier and cleaner will be completed. This will be about the time the baseball team will return from its invasion of Texas territory.

The cleaner is to be used for the football uniforms in particular. The machine will be run by a motor which will first beat the dust out, and is heated by steam which evaporates the sweat.

With the old fighting spirit, that stood them in such good stead last year, regained, the Texas Longhorn baseball club, led by Coach Billie Disch, will leave tonight on a reserved sleeper for Houston, where they play Rice Institute in the first game of the trip.

"The big crowd that followed the team to Georgetown to help us in our hardest game, has put lots of pep and confidence into the team that will help them on the trip," said Mr. Disch. "We have a hard schedule on this trip," he continued, "but I expect the boys to come back with at least a majority of the games won."

The number of games to be played on the trip is nine, of which seven are with S. W. I. A. C. teams, the other two being with T. C. U. of the T. I. A. A. Coach Disch says he expects the hardest games with the old Varsity rival, A. & M. However, he expects a hard game with Rice, which team he says has been playing fast ball this year. After the games at College Station the team goes to Waco, where the Baptists are played a series of two games. The team will proceed to Fort Worth for a battle with T. C. U. They will return home April 28.

Coach Disch has not decided whom he will start on the mound against Rice in the first game, but the twirlers who will be taken are Cone and Bailey, the old standbys, and Thomas and Winston, who have shown such good form lately. With these men along, the pitching department will be well taken care of, says the coach.

The men who will take the trip are: Anderson and Hart, catchers; Cone, Bailey, Thomas, and Winston, pitchers; Williams, first base; Monning, second base; Gambrell (capt.), short; Fowler, Hooper, and Cartwright, outfielders; Ezell, utility.

STUDENTS WANT MAYS ON TRIP

Petition to Have Probation Dismissed is Being Circulated.

A petition, asking that Dick Mays be relieved of probation and be permitted to make the trip with the baseball team, was circulated about the campus last night. Students, realizing Mays' value to the Varsity nine, were eager to sign the article.

The petition asserts that, since some of the men suspended for thirty days on account of the freshman-sophomore rushes of March 2 were admitted into school before thirty days had elapsed—Mays should be excused from his probation that he might lend his services to the Longhorns.

FOOLS.

"Think you can beat it?" said one of the onlookers.

"I am going to beat it, or it is going to beat me," replied the man at the machine as he inserted another nickel and pulled the lever. Did we say "man at the machine;" well, we want to amend it and say "fool at the machine"; then we want to amend the amendment to "fools at the machine," for there was a line of them waiting their turns. Turns for what? Why, their turns to spend their hard earned money for the pleasure of pulling a lever and watching one nickel after another disappear. Sometimes the nickel brought forth a package of cheap chewing gum, sometimes a handful of rings which might be inserted for more chewing gum or more rings. At any rate, the man at the machine invariably gave it up as a bad job after he had gone broke, and let the next man in line have the pleasure of inserting nickels and watching them disappear.

There are two ways in which these men might have more profitably spent their time: first, in trying to throw aforesaid nickels across Lake Austin; secondly, in working out a little problem in economics something like this: if a syndicate can pay approximately two hundred dollars apiece for these machines, put them in the field, bear the expense of their up-keep, and then make a profit; why does the man who puts nickels in them always get rich—nit?

Verily, verily, it is a wise saying that says, "This world is full of fools."

PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRY.

Students at the University of Texas might practice the "patronize home industry" plan more than they do. There are students who will go to every show that is staged at the downtown theaters, and come back home nine times out of ten, crying that they did not get their money's worth. Yet, when a local talent play is put on, they will say, "I know it is going to be good, and I would like to go, but I cannot spare the cash." Why not give the downtown shows a second choice once in a while?

The Barb and Frat teams have reported for spring practice. However, they will do nothing but light signal practice for the next two weeks.

From the results of the oratorical and track events of Friday, it seems, that at least, we are able to "lick 'em," if we cannot outwit 'em.

Go to church, you lazy loafer; go to church, you greasy grind.

PROFS. GO TO MEETING.

Five University professors, S. L. Brown of the Physics Department, Alexander Duessen of the Geology Department, L. W. Sackett of the Department of Education, F. McAllister of the School of Botany, and C. S. Yoakum, of the School of Philosophy, are planning to attend the meeting of the American Association for the Advancement of Science in San Francisco, August 2-7, 1915, where each of them have been requested to read papers.

Professor S. L. Brown will read a paper before the American Physical Society entitled, "The Applications of the Thermal Properties of Oxides." Prof. Duessen will read before the Section of Geology of the Association a treatise on, "Pisolithic Deposits at San Antonio, Texas." Prof. Sackett is preparing a paper entitled, "A Survey of a School System by the Buckingham Spelling Scale," for the Association for the Advancement of Science and one on "Some Aspects of the Problem of Sequence of Topics in Beginner's Psychology," for the American Psychological Society. F. McAllister will report the results of his investigation of "Sex Determination in the Liverworts." C. S. Yoakum will report before the American Psychological Association on "Practice in the Complication Experiment."

FROSH INDOOR BALL.

Beginning next Monday the different sections of Freshman Gym will contest for superiority in indoor baseball. This game has been played by every class for the past few weeks, and as a result of this practice a close contest is expected. Each game will consist of seven innings, and will begin promptly at 5:10.

ON THE FIRING LINE

An Unfounded Assertion.

Since the nomination of Mr. Roy E. Hawk for managing editor of The Daily Texan, it seems that there has sprung up considerable opposition to him. Indeed, it was stated in yesterday's Texan that there are three men whose names are being mentioned for the place in opposition to Mr. Hawk. Among these names is that of the undersigned.

In yesterday morning's Texan we find this statement: "The names of S. G. Baggett and L. C. Brady were being urged last night for managing editor, while still others were offering the name of Rex G. Baker. Each of the three men said that they would be willing to withdraw in favor of either of the others."

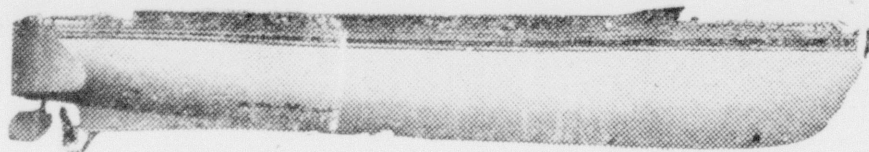

Now, I do not know who authorized the use of my name. Neither do I know who is responsible for the statement that I am willing to withdraw in favor of either of the two men whose names preceded mine. The truth of the matter is that I am not a candidate for the position of managing editor of the Texan or any other kind of position. I had and still have no intention of running for any office. Moreover, I have never said that I am willing to withdraw in favor of Mr. Brady or Mr. Baggett. How can I withdraw when I am not and have never been in the race?

I hope the person responsible for the above mistake will correct it.

It might not be amiss to state that I am inclined to support the nominees of the staff. Certainly I shall support Dan Williams with my vote and influence, for he is by all odds the best man available for the place. Having the good of the Texan in view, I shall not yet commit myself as to supporting Mr. Hawk. I believe there are stronger men available for the position. Among the stronger men are Mr. Wood and Mr. Hibbard.

But this much is certain, I am not a candidate for the place and am not going to be.

The Texas Chapter of Delta Chi held its annual banquet at the Driskill last Tuesday night. Prof. C. S. Potts had charge of the toasts which were given as follows:

"The Resurrection of the Private Corpse," Ben L. Parten. "I Deign Not, Oh Thou of the Fizzlehead," Dick Fleming. "Sonnets and Neutrality," Gordon Simpson. "Ex parte Daily Texan," Robert Skiles. "The Joys of Freshdom," Roger Guthrie. "Select," Judge Tarlton.

The faculty who are members of the fraternity, town alumni, the active chapter and pledges were present.

Star Gazers Meet
Popular Astronomy 214 met at the home of Dean Benedict, the instructor of the class, for observation work Friday night. The craters and the great sea of of the moon; Sirius, a bright star seven miles distant; the constellation of Orion; Saturn and a satellite of that planet were the objects of observation. Only one ring was seen about Saturn. As this meeting was the first one for observation work, it was very interesting to the fifteen members of the class.

Kappa Tea.
The Kappa Kappa Gamma fraternity entertained with an informal tea Saturday afternoon from 4 to 6 in honor of Mrs. Hayler, Mrs. Bybee and Mrs. W. E. Long. The honorees are Kappas who have recently moved to Austin.

The house was very effectively decorated with blue bonnets carrying out the fraternity colors. Fruit salad, ice tea and nut wafers were served during the afternoon.

The invited guests included the active members of the chapter, the alumnae, pledges and the Kappa mothers.

Faculty Reception.
The University Ladies Club received in honor of the seniors Tuesday afternoon from four to six at the Faculty Club.

The color motif used in the rooms was pink, this was carried out by the use of profusions of pink Killarney roses. At the door the seniors were tagged by Miss Bewley and Miss Phipps. Mrs. Chas. Taylor passed them into the reception hall where Mrs. Helen M. Kirby presented them to the other faculty ladies.

A delightful salad course was served in the dining room.

Theta Luncheon.
Kappa Alpha Theta entertained Saturday afternoon from 4 to 6 in honor of her patronesses and the ladies of the faculty. The house was beautifully decorated for the occasion, a color scheme of pink and green being used. Pink shaded flowers and ferns, while festoons of smilax covered the walls and stretched in ropes in the reception hall, enclosed the musicians. In the dining room, in which about a centerpiece formed of a huge basket of carnations, leading by tulle streamers to tiny baskets of sweet peas, pink shaded candles glowed, refreshments of iced tea, sandwiches, mints and wafers were served. From 8 to 11 the Thetas were home to members of the sororities and fraternities.

ALL Classes ALL people ALL the Time
USE THE STREET CARS.

The mission of the street car is to afford the maximum of transportation service at the minimum cost. Proof of this is manifested in the numerous classes of people who use the street car all of the time. It is surely an indication of good judgment. The street car is the connecting link between suburbanite and urbanite. It eliminates thoughts of distance—worry of delays and loss of time. The street car does more: It is a positive means of economy to the man with a family whose income does not permit of his living in localities where house rent is prohibitive. It gives him all the conveniences without the expense. These are good points to bear in mind.

CLOTHING FOR FALL.

Interesting Forecast Predicts Decided Changes.

Here is what the April Haberdasher says about Fall fixings for men: "Plaids, which are so popular for spring, will have continued vogue in autumn and there will be greater evidence of color in suits, especially blue, purple, brown and plain."

Listen to this if you please. "The new suits are low and very little shaped, the lapels are narrow and long. The vest is exceedingly low cut and the trousers are both loose and pegged."

"We call the young fellows' attention to these items," said Mr. Morrison of Moore & Morrison. "In order that they may make what use of it

DILLINGHAM'S

CHAPEL NOTICES.

Father Ross closed yesterday a most excellent course of talks to the students in attendance upon chapel during the past week; his talks were much appreciated, if one can judge by the crowds present each day.

Continuing the subject of eternal happiness and how to obtain it, he said that it came through doing the will of God and that the foundation of knowing the will of God was the ten commandments. He pointed out, however, that the ten commandments do not give us the means of meeting every crisis. How else are we going to know the will of God? What is going to direct in each emergency? Only do we come to know what to do and say in each case by constantly doing what we know he wants us to do and by keeping in such close touch with him that we feel his presence. In other words, we must always be in the company of the Holy Spirit.

At the Monday musical program we expect to have the victrola.
