PRIZE OFFERED FOR ESSAY ON "TOLERATION"

Catholic Organization Will Give $25 Prize—"Religious Toleration" Is Subject—All Students Are Eligible.

The Newman Club, an organization composed of the Catholic students of the University, announced yesterday that it will offer a prize of $25 to the student of the University writing the best article on the general topic of "Religious Toleration."

The offer is open to all the students of the University. The article must be from 1600 to 2000 words, and the winning article will be published in the University Magazine. The articles are to be handed in to the editor of the Magazine at his office not later than March 1, and are to be signed with a nom de plume. Accompanying each article must be an envelope with a slip therein, showing the nom de plume and the real name of the person submitting the article. These envelopes will not be opened until the best article has been decided upon.

The judges to decide which is the best article will be appointed from among men prominent in the University, and they will make their decision public on March 10.

EFFORTS MADE TO FINISH SCHEDULE

Telegrams Were Sent Yesterday to Six Colleges—Tennessee Declines Because of Distance.

In the interest of a game to be played on Clark Field next fall, telegrams were sent yesterday to Kansas A. & M., University of Kansas, University of Alabama, University of Colorado, Colorado A. & M. and Colorado College. Attractive offers were made in each instance. Answers to the telegrams are expected by Monday evening.

A telegram and also a letter was received from Tennessee State University yesterday, telling the same old story in regard to a game with the University in 1915. The length of the trip from Knoxville to Texas is assigned as the reason for refusal to accept our offer.

Following is the letter received from the chairman of the Athletic Association of Tennessee State: Athletic Council, Texas University:

Dear Mr. Bellmont—We appreciate your invitation to play the University of Texas in Austin next year, but it is not our policy to take such long trips. The council has not been consulted in this matter, but I feel sure they would not agree to our meeting another so far away.

Thanking you for your interest in the matter, I am, Yours very truly,
H. E. BUCHANAN.

A guarantee of $2000 was made the University of Tennessee, and a promise to arrange a game with Southwestern University, which would guarantee the visiting team half that amount.

AUSTIN HAS EASY SAILING—DEFEATS HOUSTON, 21 TO 0

Game Featured by Collins' Long Punts—Austin Wins With Straight Football—Captain Litterst Star of the Game.

In one of the most exciting and hardest fought "prep" school games seen here this season, Houston High went down before the mighty onrush of the Austin team on Clark Field yesterday. The score was 21 to 0. Austin showed their superiority in every department of the game with the exception of completing forward passes. In this Houston had the edge, making six successful passes out of thirteen trials, for a distance of 90 yards, while Austin completed only one for 30 yards out of seven trials.

Austin depended solely on straight football and clearly showed better generalship. Long dashes around ends and plunges through the line were frequent.

The first touchdown was made after a fumble by Houston on the 20-yard line. Clarke went five yards and Brawley took it over with a 15-yard buck through the line.

The second came as a result of the only forward pass that was completed by Austin.

Clarke intercepted a forward pass on Austin's 40-yard line and ran sixty yards for a touchdown, which ended the scoring. Clarke kicked all goals. For Austin, Clarke and Brawley were the outstand satellites in ground gaining, while Collins averaged about fifty yards in his booting.

For Houston the whole team put up a great game in defensive work, while Litterst, the smallest man on the team, was by far the best man both on defensive and offensive.

SUNDAY SCHOOL STUDENTS.

Bishop Lambuth, who was announced to make an address on yesterday, will make the address today at 9:30 in the Y. M. C. A. auditorium. great treat is in store for you. All Sunday School students and others interested are urged to be present. A

FRIARS ANNOUNCE NEW MEN—4 LUCKY

Senior Society Announces New Members by Banner Bearing Monk in Relief and Names.

On a small, neatly made banner bearing the figure of a black-habited monk in relief, which hung in the rotunda, yesterday appeared the names of the four men—Fred R. Cotten, Charles I. Francis, Raymond Myers and Jesse R. Wilson—who have been elected to membership in the Friars, the honor senior society.

This unique method of announcement has never been used before. Heretofore the men were informed of their election personally, and no public announcement was made.

"DOCTOR" HENRY PICKS ALL-TIME ALL-STAR TEAM

Alcalde Containing Article Appears Tomorrow—Members of Faculty Write "If I Were a Student" Series.

"Doctor" Henry Reeves' choice of an all-time all-star University of Texas football team is contained in the chief article of the November Alcalde, which will appear tomorrow. The November number will also contain a series of articles by faculty members on "If I Were a Student." Another series of letters by Harry Peyton Steger, probably the wittiest and most picturesque of the lot, will likewise appear.

"Doc" Henry's article, besides containing his All-Star selection, also includes many reminiscences. He recalls the Chicago trip and the great 5 to 5 Vandy game on Clark Field, together with the 6 to 0 victory over A. & M. at Houston.

The following is an excerpt from one professor's article on "If I Were a Student:" "I should be seriously opposed to the present practice of using the freshman class as practice material for student assistants, tutors and numerous inexperienced fledglings who are calculated to 'spile' many horns and a few spoons. I should protest most vigorously against the present method of instruction in History 2. Trap shooting with dry lectures is great sport for everybody except the 'shootees.'"

Another says: "If I were a student here I would not register until Wednesday of the first recitation week, and be a gainer by about $52.17."

In one of Steger's letters from Baltimore he refers to one of the former University co-eds as follows: " * * * 'who is and has been for a long, long time my Heaven and Earth and Flower Garden and New Suit of Clothes and my Cheese Sandwich and all of those highly symbolical things.'"

The Alcalde this month has features galore. Besides those already mentioned, there is a thorough, understandable article on the causes and evolution of the present war, and some of the personal experiences of Professor Bantell, who was marooned at Munich for two weeks after the mobilization was ordered; some delightful reminiscences of the very early days of the University, when Texas was the "Ultimate Thule of civilization," and a sort of companion piece dealing with life at Oberlin College.

RUSTICUSSES LEAD INITIATES MERRY CHASE, THEN FEED

Lead New Men Down Congress Avenue in Reuben Costumes—Banquet Held at Driskill—Witty and Original Speeches.

After leading their eight initiates down Congress Avenue attired in regulation reuben costumes, the Rusticusses wound up the affairs of the day with their thirteenth annual banquet at the Driskill last night.

At every corner on the march down the Avenue the new men yelled lustily: "Hayseed! Hayseed! Pumpkin! Squash! Rusticusses, yep, by Gosh!"

Several witty and original speeches were made during the banquet at the Driskill. The program follows:

Noises: "Ay Rakin," T. Edgar Johnson; "Never Hitch Behind the Plow," Loose; "Pride in the Barnyard," W. Somerville; "Efficiency of Naught," Douglas Johnson; "A Good Fertilizer," Frank Loftus; "Razin' Chickens," Luck; extempore, Teddy Reese. Address by P. E. C. representative, Montgomery.

Faculty Members Will Be Present at Meeting of Teachers in San Antonio, November 27.

Many members of the faculty will take advantage of the holiday on Friday, November 27, to attend the State Teachers' Association in San Antonio. In fact, the holiday was voted by the faculty largely because many of the instructors desired to attend the meeting of the teachers.

SCRUBS WALLOP KINDRED TRIBE AT GEORGETOWN

Methodist Scrubs Hold Shorthorns to Standstill in Three Quarters. Touchdowns Rain for Brief Time—Score, 33 to 7.

Special to The Texan. Georgetown, Tex., Nov. 21.—On Snyder Field this afternoon the Texas Shorthorns crushed the Southwestern Scrubs for a 33 to 7 score.

The Shorthorns rushed the Scrubs off their feet in second quarter, McMurray and Baker making a touchdown each, and Secor scoring twice. Williams kicked two goals and Secor one. The half ended with the score 27 to 0.

The Scrubs held the Shorthorns to a standstill during first, third and fourth quarters, with the exception of the last two minutes in the last period. Watson passed to Nolan, who returned 35 yards for a touchdown and kicked goal. The Methodists scored in the early part of the fourth quarter when Watson passed to Brewer, who ran 40 yards through a broken field. Watson kicked goal. Officials—Referee, Rix; umpire, Hudson of Missouri; linesman, Walker of Texas.

SHULER ON FOOTBALL.

Mr. Shulder will preach a special sermon at the University Methodist Church to students on the subject, "Is Football to Become the Open Air Poker of America?" He has issued a special invitation to the Athletic Council and Association to hear this discussion, and says he hopes every member of the football squad will be present. The position that Mr. Shulder will take in his sermon will be that the present tendency to bet on football, if persisted in, will finally kill the game.

EX-PRESIDENTS ARE ROOTERS.

Former Presidents Roosevelt and Taft sat on opposite sides of the Yale bowl yesterday in the game between Harvard and Yale, each rooting for his alma mater.

RUGBY IN CALIFORNIA.

In the twenty-fourth annual Rugby football game between Stanford University and the University of California last Saturday, Stanford played the faster game and won, 26 to 8.

CHAPEL NOTICES.

After the singing of an old Chapel favorite, effort was made to sing Kipling's Recessional to music not very well known. The ladies of the Y. W. C. A. are learning the words and music for a thanksgiving service next Monday, consequently most of the ladies present knew the music and sang it. The words, of course, are beautiful, and the tune is quite in keeping. The singing closed with one stanza of "America."

The Scripture reading, led by Dr. Mather, was taken from Psalm 90: "Lord, thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations." "Thou turnest man to destruction, and sayest, Return, ye children of men." "So teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom." At the Monday song service Miss Helen Higginbotham will be the soloist.

STAYING WITH IT.

Along about this time, we suspect, some of us who came down with not much more than we needed to get by the registrar-auditor combination at the first of school, are beginning to feel the pinch of "hard times." The laundry man wants his pay because he needs his commission to help pay his own landlady. The shoemaker won't patch those shoes until he gets sight of a real dollar. The instructor in the most exacting course is the one who can't understand that a man who stays up nights working for enough to eat, is naturally a little dunderheaded the next morning. It looks as if everything is going to the bad, and all a fellow has to hang on by is his eyebrows.

Cheer up! If the boat goes over the falls we are all in the same one. There are men in the University who haven't had breakfast for two weeks. They are not worrying about it. If you ask them, they'll tell you they like it better that way. The truth of the matter is they have to like it. But they don't quit. They have forgotten how to quit. Honestly, don't your little troubles look small beside the recollection of these?

Stay with it. Hold on till the handles comes off. That is what we mean, or rather, that is what we ought to mean, by those often misused words, "Texas spirit."

HELPFULNESS.

There are two kinds of students, as The Texan has the chance to see them—those who take the paper as a graft to be tolerated and those who look upon it as an institution which is due all the co-operation they can give. Naturally, we get more pleasure out of the latter class. For instance, when we asked the student sign man, McCaskill, to bring out the "presidential extra" to the University from the printshop down town, we expected to pay him for his time and the use of his motorcycle, but, lo, and behold, he swelled up and said he wouldn't take a cent. He was doing it to help The Texan and not for money. We certainly couldn't have thought any the less of him if he had taken what he had assuredly earned, but

TEXAN YEAR AGO TODAY

Faculty rejects the proposed plan of granting a two-day holiday at Thanksgiving.

Communication comes from Dallas, saying that the Notre Dame team is busy getting all the dope they can on the Texas team.

At break of day many students had formed in line before the ticket window, to get tickets for the Turkey Day game.

then, again, we can't help thinking more of him for doing as he did. You see, we don't get treated this way often, and when we do we appreciate it all the more.

THE DAY OF REST.

The University man's Sabbath is a dreary failure as a day of rest. If he be a churchman there is Sunday school and preaching to take up his morning, there is Y. M. C. A. to split his afternoon half in two, and with the young people's organization and preaching to absorb his evening hours, his Sunday is as busy as any other day in the week. If the student, as too many of us are, be a Sunday crammer, the only difference on that day is that he has time to read the paper and write home. In either case the rest feature of the day of days is a deception and a myth.

It must have been some such observation as that which suggested these remarks that has turned the attention of the authorities time and again to the five-day schedule. We have heard it said unofficially that were it not for fear that students would abuse the privilege by misusing the grant, the University would make the change, adopting Monday as the weekly holiday.

Whether he realizes it or not, the average man needs the time to stop and see where he is. He needs the time to keep up with current events. He needs time to fix up his rooms and maybe sort out his socks. He needs an afternoon to walk the restlessness out of his legs. As a result, he does these things on Sunday, because that's the only day he can fudge on without getting marked up with a cut on the class book.

FIRING LINE

quently, all contributors in the future must restrict their articles to 300 words.

Holy Mike!

Of all the pedantic and puerile, not to say weak and foolish, articles that ever came out in the firing line, if that of the "Philosopher" don't take the cake, gentlemen, I resign.

To give a good send-off to the article, the writer of the articles of the much abused dance says: "I do not claim that my view of the matter is perfect." Truly, this was a generous admission. But we would like to know what in the name of common sense is his view? After divers and painful perusals of the aforementioned several columns of space filler, we concluded this was the gist of the Philosopher's reasoning:

1. The dance is not wrong because ethics says so. Ethics also says, we suppose, "if the individual desires to dance, it is his and nobody else's business." Comment superfluous.

2. The Legislature is the moral criterion of Texas. Good night!

3. The dance is democratic, because only one seventy per cent or so "soreheads" don't dance. Grano-zooks!

4. Fourthly, either you do dance or you do not dance. (Very concise and convincing in faith). If you dance you go with dancers and are not good friends to the nondancers. You are excluded from one group or the other, "but I have just as many friends in one group as in the other."

These remarkable premises (?) having been stated, we are told that by following these laws we can arrive at a solution of the dance question.

GOING SOME.

Oh, Gee!

In day before yesterday's Firing Line Mr. Henry J. Casey favored The Texan subscribers with a lengthy article on the "Tango Twist Club" or the "Fond Embracers' Organization."

DIRECTORS HAVE TABOOED FLOWERS

German Club Directors Deny Themselves Right to Send Flowers for Thanksgiving German.

No director of the German Club will be permitted to send flowers to the girl whom he intends to take to the Thanksgiving german, and are pledged to induce all others not to send flowers. The president only has this privilege.

This sentiment has been growing in the University for several years, and the directors of the German Club decided that it had attained sufficient strength to be recognized by them. The movement has been encouraged by the women students for some time, and many of the sororities have passed rules strongly disapproving the use of flowers.

The directors expressed the hope that the students of the University in general will follow their example in this matter.

given by the "higher ups" of the University. Oh, gee! Why does a "guy" want to cry like this? Now, if they would fix a Thanksgiving reception to suit Henry Casey or organize an "Anti-Embracers' Club," he would never attend.

The writer of this article does not care about dancing, but it hurts him to see Mr. Casey crying about such a thing. Someone might whisper to this moral champion that his remarks about University students having "Embracers' Clubs," etc., hurts the University more than a well conducted reception which is attended by the best people in the State—except Mr. Casey.

Do not use the subject of dancing for political purposes. Mr. Casey, you say this is a "broad question." O. K. Then leave it alone.

LONGHORNS

We advertised that we would press one suit free for each Longhorn who played in the Texas-Mississippi game, and also an extra suit for each man who scored. Friday, when the Texan adman called we had not received any orders from the following players: Jordan, Neilson, Kelso, Scott, Blaine, Carlton and Wimmer. Phone 3327, either Saturday or Monday, and we will call for your suit or overcoat.

Due to the fault of the Texan adman, the coaches were not included, and we wish to have Coaches, Allerdice, Patterson, Ettlinger, Bellmont and Disch phone us Monday for a free press.

Thanksgiving Emergencies

Yes. Sure. Thanksgiving will be here this week. Are you prepared? Well, you may think that you are, but you will likely think of something the last minute which you had overlooked. We realize that you are working pretty hard, and do not have much time to devote to your preparation. That is why we are making these suggestions. You can stop by and spend a few minutes pleasantly. We enjoy your company.

If you find at the last minute that you have neglected something we will help you out. We carry a full line of fancy Neckwear, Stickpins, Tie Clasps, Cuff Buttons, Shirts, Collars, Underwear—we told you the brands last week—Socks, Supporters and anything else that a college man needs to wear. If you are in doubt as to whether we have it, just phone us.

You will need a Mackinaw, a Raincoat, an Umbrella, or probably something else before you go to the game. We will fix you up so you can enjoy the Game, the Reception or the German.

You will have to have that suit pressed, and probably there is a little mending that needs doing. Telephone us, and we will send around for the suit. We will attend to your wants as soon as you tell us.

DIVERSIFIED RECEPTION

ENTERTAINMENT FOR EVERYONE.

Last year it was enacted by the Students' Assembly that a Thanksgiving Reception be given on the Campus, a democratic affair that everyone should attend. In accordance with this bill the committees wish to present the following:

If you dance, come and dance.

If you would like to mix with your fellow students and learn to know them better, come to the reception at the Woman's Building.

If you want to greet our loyal alumni, who return to see us, meet them at the reception.

If you like good music, come to hear our Varsity Band play Varsity airs and the American Quartet sing the latest popular songs.

If you enjoy the spectacle of the poetry of motion, see the Castles in their graceful presentation of the modern dances.

If you delight in real oratory, if you are in sympathy with what were our troublesome Reconstruction problems, if you enjoy tales of adventure and exciting experiences, hear Judge Simkins in his Ku Klux Klan lecture.

If you are at all curious, you should see the special surprise.

And finally, if you like to eat, come and get your part of that

GUESSES GALORE.

Little Dope on Wabash Makes Any Score a Good Guess.

$10 Macanaw Offered.

When Moore & Morrison announced a prize of a $10 Macanaw to the first student bringing a correct guess of the Texas-Wabash score into their store, interest in the event from the standpoint of points scored was wonderfully stimulated.

Opinions vary, evidently, as the guesses so far run from 13 to 7 up as high as 73 to 0, and still the right guess may not be in. Weather conditions, the effect of a change in climate, different styles of play, all add to the confusion in attempting to arrive at a reasonable prediction.

Select your Christmas presents now at Caswell & Smith's sale. Make a small deposit and they will lay it aside for you, and you may get it any time before Christmas.

MR. THOUGHTFUL STUDE.

Your paper recently ran a managerial squib to the effect that the merchants and enterprises of Austin make your splendid little daily possible, and urged you to patronize those who advertise in it. We wish to call your attention to a misapplication of this policy. The laundries of Austin patronize your publication more liberally than outside agencies, they offer absolutely guaranteed work; they give you quicker service; they extend to you favors you can not expect from out of town agencies, and yet some of you thoughtlessly patronize out of town agencies. Possibly you will say you do it because it is helping some student who is working his way through school by means of acting as agent for one of these out of town agencies. The laundries of Austin will gladly give any such student the agency for a local laundry and arrange his commission so that he can make just as much by representing a local laundry as by representing an out of town laundry. Is it fair to ask our support and then not support? Do you believe in reciprocity? Then let's "tote" fair.
