GRAND REVIEW FEATURES MARCH SECOND PROGRAM

DISCHMEN MATCH STRENGTH WITH ALL-STARS TODAY

Baseball Fans Get Chance to See Pre-Season
Exhibition

BIG LEAGUERS WILL PLAY

Bib Falk Will Appear in Field;
Frank Gibson Will Catch

Billies Disch's Longhorn baseball team will get its first test Friday at 4 p. m., when it meets the Austin All-Stars at Clark Field.

And from all indications it ought to be a real ball game too. The All-Star team is composed of several players who have spent the winter in Austin. Players of national fame on the diamond. Frank Gibson, of the Boston Braves will play. So will Varsity's pride, Bib Falk of the Chicago White Sox and his brother Arthur. Cedric Durst, who has made good with the St. Louis Browns, will cavort around one of the outfield positions. Roy Fruth, will guard the keystone sack. But the fans will be given a chance to see some of the future Rangers who will uphold the honor of the Capital City in the new league. Kreighbaum will be stationed at the hot corner and Schiefer will do the receiving. Probably all of the pitching for the All-Star aggregation will be done by future Ranger hurlers.

Will Test Varsity

So much for the All-Star line-up. The thing the University stude is most interested in is now the Longhorns will stack up against this sort of a bunch. That remains to be seen, but predictions are that they will hold their own. They have the advantage of having had a bit of practice back in January to offset the disadvantage of less experience.

Mr. Disch plans to send two entire teams into the game. He has divided the squad into two teams that have been opposing each other regularly. Both are of about the same calibre and the showing they make tomorrow will go a long way toward determining which outfit will have the honor of being called "first string." All of which means that every man out there in the Longhorn uniform will be fighting for his place on the team, which, in turn, means that the fans will be able to form a pretty good idea of how the 1923 Varsity team will stack up after watching the game tomorrow.

The pitchers will be held to three innings each and will likely be pulled before serving that long unless going mighty good. This will insure the fans getting the chance to look over at least three of the hopeful hurlers on the Longhorn squad. Who they will be was not announced but each team has been assigned two or three.

There will be no admission to the game, all the fans have to do is go in and select a seat that suits their fancy, which ought to be something of a drawing card itself.

The Line-Ups

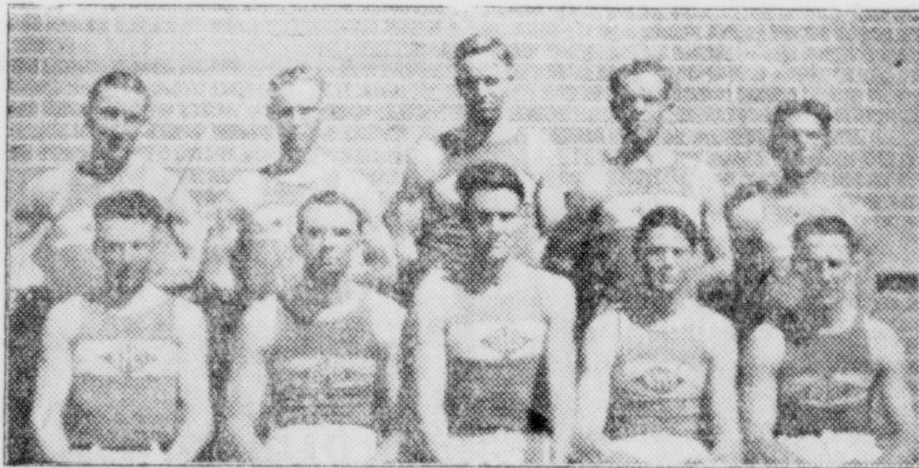

The two line-ups for the Varsity entry and that of the All-Stars follow:

Varsity: Kibbie, ss; Smalley, 3b; Leissner, rf; Ward, cf; Odom 2b; Falk, 1b; Eckhardt, lf; Allen c; Clements and Allen, pitchers.

King, cf; James, lf; Leissner ss; Auler 2b; Smith 3b; Clift 1b; Moore rf; Cox, c; Curtis, McCalla and Ord, pitchers.

All-Stars: Gibson, 1b; Fruth, 2b; Kreighbaum, 3b; Wickline, ss; Falk, Bib and Arthur, Durst and Webb, outfield; Schneiffer and Gibson, catchers; Davis, Webb, and Lind, pitchers.

Shiner Enters Third Meet

Shiner has entered a basketball team in every state interscholastic championship tournament held to date. The players who will represent Shiner on the court today and tomorrow are: Monroe, center; Brusch, Prebst and Busch, forwards; Mikulik, Emken, Henkhaus and Tasler, guards.

Sixteen High School Cage Teams Begin Tournament For Championship Friday

Preliminaries Start at at Men's Gym at Nine

Sixteen high school teams will draw for places in the third annual state interscholastic League basketball tournament at 9 o'clock Friday at the Men's Gym.

The preliminaries begin when Dr. W. M. W. Splawn delivers a short address of welcome. Officials of the tournament will then announce the necessary regulation under which the tournament is held and the matching of teams will begin. The first game will be played sharply at 10 o'clock. The remainder of the day will be taken up in deciding who will engage in the semi-finals Saturday. The championship game will be played at 7:45 Saturday night. After the game Lieutenant Governor T. W. Davidson will award the trophies.

Judging Committee

The committee on the All-State Selection consists of Berry Whitaker, George McCullough, Al Deviney, Clyde Littlefield and Lee Dittert. The games will be refereed by "Chile" Granger, R. Albright, H. J. Ettlinger and Clyde Littlefield. This is the third annual Basketball tournament held under the authority of the Interscholastic League. These tournaments have stimulated basketball throughout the State according to Roy E. Henderson, who is in charge of the athletics of the league. Over 13,000 players have taken part in the elimination games. El Paso, San Antonio, and Shiner are the only teams that have attended every tournament. Stephenville has attended two years out of the three.

The official program is as follows:

Friday

9: a. m.—All teams assemble at Men's Gymnasium. Twenty-fourth and Speedway, dressed in basketball suits. A word of welcome, by Dr. W. M. W. Splawn. Announcements. Arrangement of schedule. Picture.

OKLAHOMA AND TEXAS AGGIES MEET STEERS FOR WRESTLING BELT

Conference Grappling Tilt Will Begin at 4:30 p. m.
Friday

Wrestling team representing the Oklahoma Aggies, the Texas Aggies and the University will compete for the Southwestern Conference grappling championship at the third annual conference meet which opens at the Men's Gym Friday afternoon at 4:30. Due to conflicting events, the preliminaries of the meet which were scheduled for Friday night in the Woman's Gym have been changed to 4:30 p. m. Friday in the Men's Gym. The finals will take place Saturday at 4 p. m.

While the Oklahomans are generally touted as superior to either of the Texas entries, Longhorn prospects have taken a great turn toward victory since its recent win over the Wildcats. The Oklahoma matmen have not lost a match in three seasons.

The Texas Line-Up

In the 115 pound class, Texas will be represented either by Albert Nash or Larry Frazier. Frazier probably getting the call. Nash represented the University in the Oklahoma A. & M. meet and lost his match, while Frazier won his contest in the Texas-Aggie meet last week. In this weight Texas A. & M. will probably use Welch.

Olen Turner is probably Texas' best bet in the 125 pound class. Turner has shown a marked improvement in the last few weeks and Coach Roy McLean is expecting him to offer more opposition to the Oklahoma Aggie.

In the 135 pound class, Texas will enter Fred Ford. Ford has shown great form so far and defeated Stevens of Texas A. & M. in the dual meet with the Aggies. Ford is expected to win a second place, if he does not carry away the meet.

Keen, captain of the Oklahoma A. & M. grapplers, seems to have the 158 pound title cinched. Campbell of Texas, who has suffered one defeat at the hands of the Oklahoma Aggie, is determined, however, to offer the Oklahoman more strenuous opposition this time. Campbell threw Rudd at College Station last week, and he will probably oppose the same man in Friday's contest.

Craddock Is Favorite

Walter Craddock, the Varsity heavy weight contender, will also be opposed by the same men that he has already thrown, and heavy-weight honors will probably be carried off by Varsity.

The Athletic Council announces that student blanket tax tickets will not be accepted as admission to the matches, as the tournament is under the direction of the Southwestern Conference and the receipts will go to the Conference treasuries. Admission to the preliminaries will cost 50 cents and to the final matches 75 cents.

Rumors Of Frosh Attack Are Rife Late Last Night

Rumors that the freshmen would make a well organized and carefully planned attack on B. Hall, sophomore stronghold at 2:30 this morning freely circulated over the campus at a late hour last night.

Information regarding the attack procured from captured frosh were to the effect that attacks from the east and west would be made simultaneously. The freshmen were said to be gathered at Lake Austin waiting until the appointed hour.

Ambulances, trucks and ice-cream had been sent to B. Hall, supposedly by the frosh, last night as a warning of the attack. The soph fortress, however, was reported to be well prepared for any emergencies.

ANNUAL PUSHBALL AFFRAY IS LEAD FORENOON EVENT

Twelfth Contest Takes Place at Breckenridge Field at 10:30 p. m.

For the twelfth successive time, the annual pushball contest between the sophomores and freshman classes will take place Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock at Breckenridge Field, east of the campus.

Sophomores will meet at B. Hall at 9 a. m. to prepare for the contest, it was announced Thursday night by the sophomore president. At the same hour the freshmen will gather in front of the Law Building.

Dope Is As Usual

The freshmen, as usual, are confident of victory over the sophomores, but if history repeats itself, things will run heavily against them. A pushball contest has been won by the Frosh only once since its introduction in 1911. This solitary win for the freshmen came about four years ago. In telling about this contest, some of the old timers attribute the victory to a fair referee, while others will not admit that any such defeat of the Sophs ever occurred. The sophomores who will take part in today's contest have very little to say about the price of fish on the day's market. It is rumored that they are well organized and are thoroughly prepared to uphold the honor of the class of '25.

Frosh Black Faces

The sophomores will not wear any distinctive mark or regalia, but the freshmen plan to black their faces so that they may know each other, and, incidentally, recognize the Sophs. Both classes will wear old clothes and tennis shoes, as no contestant wearing hard soled shoes will be allowed in the game.

Austin Ex-Students to Banquet Friday at University Cafe

Nearly three hundred are expected at the Austin Ex-Students' Banquet to be given Friday evening at 7 o'clock at the University Cafeteria. Tickets for the banquet will not be sold after noon on Friday.

The following program has been arranged:

Vocal Solo, Mrs. Reuter; Dance, Miss Fisher's Class; Violin Solo, Miss Bessie Knox Kintner; Selections by the "Heavenly Choir"; "If I Were a Legislator," "Disgraceful Shacks," "Prexy's Leaving Texas," "My Lizzie," and Piano Monologues.

Membership in the "Heavenly Choir" has been limited to those who have never sung and those who are obviously unable to sing.

Judge Jim McLendon will be the toastmaster of the evening, and several prominent ex-students will respond it is rumored.

DANCING CLUB WILL OPEN NEW STUDIO SATURDAY

As a formal opening of the new studio which has just been completed in the basement of the Women's Building, the Dancing Club will hold a studio evening on Saturday, March 3, complimenting their friends. However, because the space is very limited, the members of the club have issued invitations without which admittance to the affair will not be obtained to their friends.

BANTEL WILL ADDRESS TAMPICO EX-STUDENTS

E. C. H. Bantel, assistant dean of the School of Engineering, has gone to Tampico, Mexico where he will speak at the ex-students banquet to be given there today. There are about two-hundred ex-students in Tampico.

INDEPENDENCE DAY PROGRAM

Morning

9:15—Assembly at Flag Pole.
9:30—Cannon Salute.
10:30—Pushball Contest at Breckenridge Field.

Afternoon

2:15—Grand Review, University Avenue.
4:00—Independence Program, front Main Building.
Evening
7:45—The Round-up, Women's Gym.

CLIMAX WILL BE REACHED IN BIG LOYALTY PARADE

All Varsity Will Join in Big Jollification Beginning at 2:30 p. m.

Carrying banners of all sizes, and accompanied by the Varsity Band, thousands of students graduates, seniors and freshmen, will march in the huge March 2 parade to begin from the south end of the campus, Friday afternoon at 2:15. The parade will be the climax of the strenuous day of jollification and the morning's pushball contest, and will express the spirit of loyalty to the State and the University. It is expected that several hundred co-eds will enliven the parade with banners and becoming regalia.

Parade Forms At 2

The parade will begin to form at 2 o'clock. Banners will be given to the students as they assemble. The Cowboys will be in charge of the formation of the line, and will direct the line of march down University Avenue, hence to Congress Avenue by way of Nineteenth Street, where features will be given. Each section of the parade will have a separate yell or song which will be yelled or sung as the parade moves along.

Program to be Held

Following the parade, a program will take place in front of the Main Building, in which Senator H. L. Darwin will deliver the Independence Day speech. Earl Racey will read Judge Lewis' address, Major Bell will speak for the students, and the Band will give selections. Dean Townes of the Law School will deliver the faculty address. The presiding officer will be Archie Gray, president of the Students' Association.

Salute Begins Day

The firing of the salute and the raising of the flag will be the opening events of March 2. Succeeding them will be a general pilgrimage to Breckenridge Field where the classic struggle between Soph and Frosh will be waged.

Round-up Dance

Concluding the day's celebration will be the Round-up at the Woman's Gymnasium, beginning at 8:30 o'clock. A general good time is assured by the committee in charge of the celebration. A dance will conclude the occasion at 12 o'clock. Students are asked to wear their regalia to the dance.

MEDICAL STUDENTS PROTEST NEW RULE

Medical students are protesting against the recent ruling passed by the medical school faculty concerning the raising of the passing average to 70. At a meeting of the Student's Association of the Medical School, a committee was appointed to appear before the dean of the school and plea that this ruling which is to go into effect October 1923 should not apply to students who have entered the medical school under the present catalogue.

The passing average at the medical school is now 60, and the raising of this average to 70 is in line with the policy of the school this year to eliminate those who are unprepared for the work.

EX-SERVICE MEN TO MARCH TODAY

All ex-service men in the University are requested to march with the University Post of the American Legion in the parade Friday afternoon, it was announced Thursday by the University Post Adjutant. Ex-service men will gather at the head of University Avenue at 2:30 p. m.

UNIVERSITY OFFICERS AND DEPARTMENTS TO MARCH IN BIG REVIEW

Theta Sigma Phi To Sell Eats At Push Ball Fight

Theta Sigma Phi, Mister Nono Schutze, pilot of the campus milkery, et al, will succor the wounded and hungry on Breckenridge Field today with coffee, doughnuts, chewing gum and what not.

From dope on hand, it seems that Theta Sigma Phi, honorary journalistic sorority, is undertaking a drive for funds to carry on campus journalistic activities. "Breakfast on Breckenridge" Field will be sold instead of the usual tags. In view of the fact that the sorority is better equipped with typewriters and erasers, than coffee urns and cash registers, Mr. Schutze came to the rescue with the necessary equipment. Among his other late philanthropic activities, is the donation of a forty dollar milk bottle to B Hall, and several electric light globes and letters from his sign to the general student body.

SHELBY GOES TO PARIS

Prof. T. H. Shelby, director of Extension in the University of Texas left last night for Paris, Texas, where he is scheduled to deliver two addresses today at the annual meeting of the North Texas Teachers Association in session in that city.

LONGHORN BAND WILL MEET

Members of the Longhorn Band will meet today at the Law Building at 2 o'clock in full uniform, it was announced Friday night.

Editorials

As the University is observing today, March 2, as a holiday, there will be no Texan issued for Saturday.

BIRTHDAY OF TEXAS

Loyal Texans everywhere today are celebrating the anniversary of the Lone Star State. Eighty-seven years have passed by since the heroic Texas pioneers issued the Texas Declaration of Independence which, with the fervency of its language and the righteousness of its cause, is a close rival to the Declaration of Independence of the United States in the sphere of democracy and free institutions. The writer of the Texas Declaration, George B. Childress, has been forgotten; Old Washington on the Brazos, the first Capitol of Texas, and even the house in which the momentous document was signed have crumbled and disappeared; the fifty-seven patriots who subscribed their names to the instrument and then fought valiantly for independence and free government have gone to a well-earned reward; and the nation which they founded and nurtured has lost its national identity. Yet, Texas still lives as a commonwealth of democracy; and, as one of the greatest stars in the Union constellation, its future becomes brighter with every passing year. A state like Texas which was established by freemen who refused to submit to tyrannical government, military despotism, and infringing liberty has a foundation of principles, ideals and faith as impenetrable as Gibraltar.

It is not strange that on this natal day of Texas school children of the State and the students and alumni of the University of Texas should hold their most pretentious celebrations. The cause of education and of the University have been indelibly intertwined in the history of the state. Among the other important grievances against the Mexican government, the Declaration of Independence emphasized the following: "It has failed to establish any system of education, although possessed of almost boundless resources (the public domain), and although it is an axiom in political science that, unless a people are educated and enlightened, it is idle to expect the continuance of civil liberty or the capacity of self-government." In order to remedy this defect, the first Constitution of the Republic declared that it would be the duty of Congress "to provide, as soon as circumstances will permit, a general system of education." Thus, it follows that March 2nd is not only the anniversary of Texas political independence, but also the birthday of public education in this state—that Texas from its very birth has been pledged to a progressive and efficient system of public education, in all its ramifications.

When the declaration of Independence and the first Constitution espoused the cause of a general system of education, these documents included in their terms a great State University, as the subsequent acts of the legislative body clearly prove. Following the general principle, the Congress of the Republic in January, 1839, took the first direct step for establishing the University, when it set aside a tract of land in Austin for the campus of the future institution and appropriated fifty leagues of public land for university education. It is only appropriate, then, that on this anniversary of Texas Independence, students and alumni of the University, whether at home or in foreign lands, should join together to celebrate the momentous event which laid the foundation of general education and of the University of Texas.

Eighty-seven years have elapsed since Texas declared its independence with one of the chief counts in the indictment against Mexico being the failure of that country to establish a public system of education. Texas now has greater resources than did Mexico in 1836, while the wealth of the State is as boundless as ever. Yet, even in these days of progress and advancement, Texas has not established an adequate and efficient system of public education throughout the State. There is no need to enumerate the pitiable condition of the rural schools, the handicaps of the grade and high schools, and the disgraceful equipment and physical plant of the University. That Texas stands thirty-ninth among the states in educational matters, while the University buildings are far inferior to those of similar institutions in other states should indicate clearly the discrepancies between the present system and the plans of the fathers of Texas.

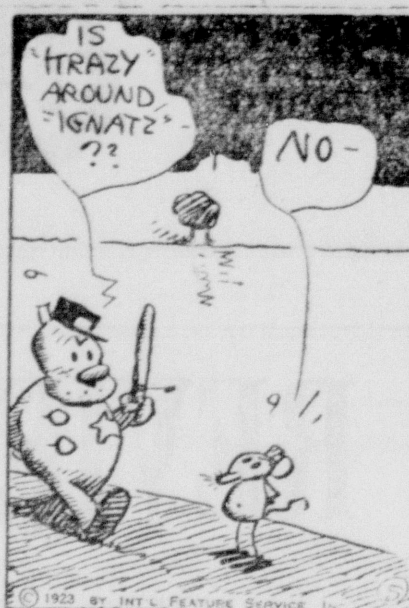

The present Legislature is demonstrating a most generous and enlightened attitude towards the cause of public education and of the University. Like the signers of the Declaration of Independence they realize that "unless a people are educated and enlightened, it is idle to expect the continuance of civil liberty or the capacity of self-government." With the development of this sentiment throughout the State, the system of education may reach the high standards set by the founders of this commonwealth.

GREETINGS TO THE LEAGUERS

The University is glad to welcome members of the Inter-scholastic League basketball teams to the campus for the state championship tournament today and Saturday. These players who have fought through many contests in order to represent their sections in the State Meet well deserve the honor and recognition which now are theirs. The University spares no effort or expense in promoting the welfare and progress of the Inter-scholastic League activities, because it has faith in the work and aims of the organization. The University and the League stand for the same principles and ideals—honesty, fair-play, clean sportsmanship, and intelligent citizenship. The University invites the Leaguers to make full use of all the facilities of this institution, so that their visit here may be enjoyable and beneficial in every respect. Regardless of the outcome of the contests, the University is confident that the various teams will take their victories or defeats like all true followers of clean sportsmanship.

Queen

"The Stranger's Banquet," that striking American novel of a great shipyard written by Donn Byrne, has at last come to the screen and will be seen at the Queen for the rest of the week.

The story is a thrilling and dramatic romance amid the busy yards of a great shipbuilding concern. The founder, Shane Keogh, leaves the fortune he has accumulated through the yards to his two children, John and Derith. There are many "strangers" who wish to feast at this golden banquet and the story is of their partial success and final frustration. The romance in the building of mighty ships has been caught in this film and made the vivid background for a very human, emotion-arousing drama of American life.

Majestic

It is generally conceded that the two essential things necessary to the success of a minstrel performance are first, the comedy and second, the music. Much of the success of the latter is due to the choice of conductors. This season Neil O'Brien has secured as the leader of the band and orchestra for his great American Minstrel Company which is to be seen here tonight at the Majestic Mr. Edward Cupero. Mr. Cupero, in addition to having served a long apprenticeship with various minstrel organizations, including those of Lew Dockstader, George Evans and O'Brien himself is something more than the ordinary conductor. He is not only an instrumentalist of much versatility and accomplishment but is an all around musician, having been educated abroad and is a composer of no mean merit.

Hancock

In "Heroes of the Street" young Wesley Barry fights his way through to the exciting end, sometimes with fist and muscle, at other times with brain, but always with plenty of nerve and pluck. The story is about Mickey Callahan, son of a police officer.

From a happy-go-lucky boy Mickey becomes a lad touched with the pathos in his home following the sinister murder of his father. An unusual love story of the stage is blended with the mystery element.

Buster Keaton in "His Wife's Relations" is also on the bill.

FACULTY OFFERS CITY REMEDY FOR PROBLEM OF BAD WATER SYSTEM

Council Has Not Yet Acted on Resolutions

In an attempt to remedy the inadequate and impure water supply of Austin, the general faculty addressed a set of resolutions to the City Council, urging the council to take immediate steps toward the installation of a modern rapid sand filtration plant, which in the opinion of the faculty will insure a plentiful and healthful water supply for the city.

It is understood that the city council has not yet acted on the resolutions of the faculty, but action is expected to be taken within the near future.

After reviewing the present source and inadequacy of the water supply, and commenting on the impurity and inadequacy of the water supply—the impurity which is indicated by a series of tests carried on in the University laboratories over a period of six years, the faculty petition discusses in detail the proposed development of a new supply. Much weight is given in the address to the city council to the fact that the report of the remedy proffered by Dr. E. P. Schoch and Dean T. U. Taylor tallied with the proposed remedy of the Kansas City water engineers who surveyed the Austin problem. In both reports, according to the faculty, the same solution, namely, the installation of a rapid sand filtration plant, was given as a solution of the situation.

Visual Aids in Teaching Will Be Indispensable to Schools of Future

"Photography, like printing is now one of the practical arts; and visual aids are an instrument of civilization just as books are," says Dr. J. J. Weber, head of the division of visual instruction.

"A few centuries ago we taught without the aid of text or reference books. No teacher would do it today. A decade hence no progressive teacher will teach without the use of visual aids. Lantern slides and moving pictures will be an inseparable part of the technique of teaching."

able part of the technique of teaching. "Every teacher in the State should be using visual aids as freely as she uses textbooks."

Bureau of Extension Has Summer Courses in Industrial Training

With the idea of increasing the field of service of the Bureau of Extension of the University of Texas, the instructor training courses in trade and industrial education are offered, according to Miss Laura Murray, head of the trades and industries division. During the summer session these courses will be given and it is thought that they will be of special interest to managers, employers, foremen, school executives and teachers.

Such subjects as trade analysis, lesson planning, practice teaching, and the history of industrial education are included in the instructors training class.

ROMNEY'S BASKETBALL TOSSERS DEPART FOR TILT WITH MUSTANGS

Robertson Is Yet Unable to Play in Position in Quint

The crippled but fighting Longhorn five will leave Friday morning for Dallas where it will tie up with the S. M. U. Mustangs in a one night session. The men will leave on an early train and will get to Dallas several hours before the game.

Coach Milton Romney will take seven players on the trip and Manager Moore. Captain Peyton, Schurhard, Barrett and Eason will be the forwards and all four of these men are fighting hard but Peyton is the only one who hits the loop regularly. Keen or Curtis will work at center against S. M. U. while Swenson and Ragland will be the guards.

Locals in Shape

All of the Longhorns making the trip are in fine shape and they will give the Mustangs a merry battle for fight. Bobby Robertson, however, is still out with a bad ankle and it is not known yet whether he will be ready for the A. & M. clashes.

Keen a new addition to the Longhorn squad from the Engineer team, has shown up mighty fine in practice the past week. This boy set a fast pace in the Rice games but he had trouble finding the basket. If he can start hitting the loop he will give the S. M. U. guards lots of trouble.

The Mustangs are going to have a job breaking through the Texas guards, Ragland and Swenson. Both of these husky boys have given their best regularly and they are sure to give a good account of themselves.

After many long practice sessions Coach Romney has rounded his crippled players into a semblance of a team. The one redeeming feature of the Texas five is the splendid fighting spirit shown.

Senior Laws Will Begin Wearing of Official Regalia

Senior Laws will appear in the official class regalia Friday as a result of a regulation passed at a meeting of the class Thursday morning. The regalia will also be worn every Tuesday and Friday for the remainder of the session.

In order that the regulation would be enforced the president appointed the following as a vigilance committee: H. P. Green, E. W. Bruce, D. W. Stephens, J. Lee Dittert, Major Bell, W. A. Messer, H. C. Duke, A. B. Coffee, Archie Gray, and H. P. Kucera, with Robin Tate, sergeant at arms ex-officio chairman. Plans for the entertainment for the seniors during the spring term were presented to the class, and met with approval, definite plans will be adopted at a later date. The class voted to instruct the president to make arrangement for the big class picture that is left in the Law Library.

Faculty Cager Team Administered Defeat by Varsity Quintet

Upsetting all the dope, the Varsity co-ed basketball team consisting of girls picked from the various class teams decisively defeated the faculty team on which the Physical Training instructors and other faculty members played to the tune of 29 to 15. Since the girls represented several teams and had never played together before, the outstanding feature of the game was the excellent teamwork displayed by the Varsity team.

The lineup was as follows:
Varsity: Mina Bennett, Winifred Anderson, forwards; Cleo Ritchey, Mary Campbell, centers; Myrtle Mathieson, Katie Rae Hall, guards.
Faculty: Gertrude Roth, Adele Kimm, forwards; Josephine Budd, Henrietta Pore, centers; Helen Saum, Josephine Schmid, guards.
Referee: Hiss.
Umpire: Norton.

CO-ED P.T. CLASSES WILL MEET NEXT WEEK

All women students will meet their regular physical training classes on Monday and Tuesday of next week, according to the physical training instructor. Rumors concerning the cancellation of work in physical training during dead week are incorrect, and those registered in the work are advised to meet their classes.
