—Special to The Texan.

Fayetteville, Ark., May 8.—Baylor won her seventh straight victory of the season here today by noosing out the Arkansas Razorbacks, 4 to 2.

The game yesterday between the two teams was rained out. They play again tomorrow.

Baylor further strengthened her hold on first place in the Conference as Texas University, in second place, lost to the Mustangs.

Texas went wild again yesterday, but it was the wrong way. Twelve blazing errors, not to mention many frightful boneheads, by the Longhorns, gave Southern Methodist University the second game of the series, 6 to 2 and cost Texas University very heavily in the Conference baseball race.

Fired with the ambition to win by the presence of Captain Forrest Runnels of Center, Texas, in the box the Mustangs played ever-hustling baseball. True they did not make but one earned run, but they came back strong after their comic holocaust of Monday and fought all the way.

Stollie on Short Stars

Logan Stollenwerck, all-Southwestern halfback, was the biggest Mustang factor in the Crimson and Blue victory. He had a wonderful day on short, cutting down impossible chances that were labelled base hits and covering them into outs. He handled 14 chances all the way from third base to second base with only one bobble, and in the last of the ninth he went back into left fielder's territory and grabbed King's fly to end the game. And at bat he connected safely three times out of five trips to the plate.

However, with all of the brilliant play of the Mustang short stop the most sensational fielding play of the game goes to Herman Odom. In the seventh inning he raced over back of second base and robbed Lawrence Reisor of a clean hit, and tossed out Sanders at second.

Leissner Relieves Eckhardt

Oscar Eckhardt opened on the mound for Texas and pitched fair baseball, but the miscues of his teammates were too much for him. After giving up six hits and six runs he was replaced by Captain Rube Leissner, who held the peppy Nags to four hits and no runs.

Captain Runnels who hurled for the Mustangs, had control on the mound for his team. And that spells the keynote to the scarcity of Texas

SUPPORTERS OF DEAN WILL CALL FOR NEW COUNT

Smaller Number of Votes Polled Than in Last Year's Election

By Dick Scurry

In the hottest election seen on the University campus in recent years, Rube Leissner was elected President of the Students' Association for the coming year by a majority of 136 votes over his nearest opponent, Nowlin Randolph, while Lawton Gambill won out over Charlie Dean in the race for Chairman of the Men's Council by a majority of only 8 votes. Two recounts were necessary in determining who had the majority of total votes cast. One recount was necessary in deciding the office of managing editor of The Daily Texan, Ray E. Lee finally winning over Jack Logan by a majority of 146 votes, after Bran Pool had been eliminated.

According to statements issued Tuesday night by supporters of Dean and of Randolph a recount of the ballots will be asked in view of the fact that the final count was so close.

Closest Election in Years

The election this spring has been the most exciting and closest witnessed at the University in many years, according to Jim Beverly, who had charge of the polls. The total number of ballots cast was not as large as last year, there being only approximately 2000 this year to 2800 last year.

Most of the other offices resulted in decided victories for the winners. Eldon Dyer was elected vice-president of the Students' Association by a majority of only 117 votes over his opponent, James Gibson, but there were only the two men in the race, which gave Dyer the majority in the first count.

Agatha McLarry Wins

In the first recount for Chairman of the Women's Council, Daisy Jones was eliminated and Agatha McLarry was elected over Lucille Williams. The members to the council who were elected and in the order of their standing on the final count are, Lavonia Baker, Kathryn Shipp, Judith Porter, Francis Little and Margaret Duncan.

The men elected to the Men's Council are Atwood McDonald, Law; John Mayfield, academic; Francis Wilson, Education; R. B. Pratt, Engineering; and John White, graduate. There was very little voting for men's councilmen as there were only two of the representatives who were opposed, McDonald being opposed by Pressler as law representative and Pratt by Southern as engineering representative.

Mary Jourdan Elected

In the race for editor of the Longhorn Magazine, Mary Jourdan won over Genevieve Aron by a majority of 350 votes. The race seemed in doubt for a while but Jourdan's lead was gradually strengthened, giving her a decided victory over her opponent.

Three of the candidates for office were unopposed. Henry Fulcher was elected editor of the Texan, polling the largest number of votes that were cast for any candidate. Lewis White was elected editor of Cactus and Marjorie Thompson, secretary-treasurer of the Students' Association.

Arno (Shorty) Nowotny was re-elected cheer leader, and B. F. (Shorty) Mayer and T. T. Word his assistants.

Eligibility of Gambill Will Be Decided Later

FANTASY TO BE STAGED FOLLOWING CORONATION AT MEN'S GYMNASIUM

"Gate of Dreams" to Be Given for Her Majesty's Entertainment

Immediately following the Queen's Coronation at the Men's Gymnasium, May 10, a fantasy called the "Gate of Dreams" will be held in entertainment of Her Majesty. The story is that of a mortal child who has been chosen to see the wonders of the nature and story-book world for one hour. Interpretation of the Mother Goose Nursery will be given by dancing girls, the first number on the program being done by eighteen girls who are known as "Weavers of Fantasy."

Early in the program, a butterfly dance will be given by six small girls; Emma Morehead will sing "The Butterfly." This will be followed by the characterization of the Nursery rhymes, Ada Maverick taking the part of Old King Cole, and Humpty Dumpty being featured. Martha Sullivan will give a Blue Bell Dance, and a Primrose Dance trio by Anne Marshall, Dorothy Lorch and Anne Williams, led by Francis Graham, a French doll dance by Hester Anderson, a dance of the flowers by Carrie Phifer, Delfina Gomez, Maelean McGill and the Primrose trio, will complete the ceremony. The story ends when the child's hour in wonderland is up, and the Dream Garden disappears.

FINAL ANNOUNCEMENTS OF QUEEN'S BALL MADE

Only members of the royal court will appear in full dress. Other men are expected to wear either tuxedos or white flannel trousers and dark coats. Young ladies will wear evening dresses. No flowers will be sent except to ladies of the court.

Due to the large attendance expected at the Ball, huge letters will be placed around the Gym and men will be able to locate their partners under the letters with which their names begin.

For information to those wishing to fill their programs out, the partner dances have been specified. Dances one, four, eight, and twelve will be partner dances, and four will be the cotillion.

ATHLETIC TRYOUTS

Coach Clyde Littlefield announces that try-outs for Sigma Delta Psi, honorary athletic fraternity, will be held in three events on Clark Field at 4 o'clock this afternoon. The try-outs will be held in the 220 yard hurdles, the pole vault, and the baseball throw, and in several other events if time permits.

BULLINGTON HERE

Orville Bullington of Wichita Falls president of the Ex-Students Association, who returned a few days ago from a tour of Europe, has notified officials of the Fortieth Anniversary Celebration that he would be here Thursday, Friday and Saturday. While in Austin he will be the guest of Max Bickler, president of the Austin Ex-Students' Club.

ATHLETE TO BE DETERMINED

Upon the completion of the track season this week-end at the Conference meet at Stillwater, Oklahoma, the track meet to determine the best all round athlete in the University for the Bellmont Cup will be staged. It is planned to hold the meet, which includes seven track events the coming week, provided nothing interferes.

Weymouth Will Be Next Chairman If Gambill Ruled Out

The ineligibility of Lawton L. Gambill and Charles Dean, candidates for Chairman of the Men's Council, has not been definitely decided by student officials, but the matter will be taken up at once and probably will be put before the Assembly for interpretation, according to a statement issued by Katrina Kirby Tuesday night. James Beverly, who was in official charge of voting, authorized the recounting of all votes cast for these men, and Archie Gray stated that the matter would be investigated immediately.

In case these two men are declared ineligible, John Henry Weymouth, next highest on the ballot, will be declared elected.

Gambill Not a Senior

The basis for the charges of ineligibility of Gambill is that he will not be a senior next year. This is one of the qualifications for the office. Dean's ineligibility is based on the fact that he could not get a statement from the registrar to the effect that he had during the past semester passed the required amount of work. In view of the fact that Dean was not a student in the University during the term preceding that in which the election takes place, he could not obtain this statement.

The controversy came up as a result of a protest made by the supporters of Gambill as to Dean's ineligibility which it is claimed was attempted about two weeks before the election. Immediately Warren Hicks, acting on behalf of the supporters of Dean, issued a protest as to the eligibility of Gambill.

Informal Reception in Honor of Visitors Will Be Given Friday

In honor of all guests attending the University, a reception will be held at the Woman's Gymnasium, Friday afternoon from 4:30 to 5:30 o'clock. Representatives from various student and faculty organizations of the University will be in the receiving line.

The committee in charge of the reception consists of Miss Edna McDaniell, of the Woman's Faculty Club, Dr. J. L. Henderson, of the University Faculty Club, Katherine Cochran of the Co-Ed Council, Ira J. Allen and Lloyd Martin.

Musical organizations in the University will furnish entertainment for the informal affair. The reception has been scheduled so that the guests will be conducted immediately afterward to the Senior Swing-Out.

LAST MINUTE PROTESTS

The Texan desires to voice its disapproval and condemnation of the tactics used in making protest as to eligibility in the race for Chairman of the Men's Council. Even if it be granted that one candidate, or his supporters, had the legal and technical right in the particular instance to call into question the right of an opponent to run for the office, it seems to be a matter of bad grace and unsportsmanlike attitude to wait until a late hour on the day before election to take such a step. Especially does this seem true when it is considered that the cause for the candidate's ineligibility, if any, was well known to the parties concerned for at least several weeks prior to the election day. The delay until late Monday in having the candidate declared ineligible inevitably resulted in muddling the political water and leaving the situation on election day very confusing to the voters, and, in addition, engendering considerable undesirable feeling among the partisans.

The Texan has no desire to criticize any individual or officer, but merely to point out the undesirability of the unfortunate situation which arose Monday night and continued through the election day. After candidates have once been certified as eligible to run for the offices and the official ballots are printed, no protests or questions as to their eligibility should be considered prior to the election. Those who claim grounds of questioning the candidate's eligibility should be forced to make such protest in a reasonable time prior to the election so that an adequate and fair hearing on behalf of both sides may be had, or else they should have to reserve their objections until after the election when they might urge such protests as grounds of disqualifying the candidate from assuming the duties of the office.

The Texan believes that this process would be very much fairer to all parties concerned, including the voters, than to permit last minute protests as to candidate's eligibility. Protests made at an unreasonably late hour, such as the day before the election, should not receive any consideration until after the election. The Students' Assembly should adopt regulations to prevent the recurrence of similar disputes in the future.

A REAL LITERARY MAGAZINE

The decision of the Board of Publications to issue an official comic magazine for the University next year marks a wise and proper acquiescence in the desire of the student body for a humorous publication. There should be no doubt that wholesome, irrepressible humor has a real place in the University; and, in addition, that a magazine to serve as a humorous medium should be issued under the same responsible student control, as exists in the case of the other campus publications.

Sigma Delta Chi, honorary journalistic fraternity, is to be commended on its valuable work in promoting the cause of a University comic; and especially should be appreciated for its unselfish willingness to forego the privilege of issuing an already authorized comic of its own in order that a better and bigger official humorous magazine might be issued through the greater facilities and resources of the Publications Board.

Considering all phases of the situation, the decision of the Publications Board to issue a comic and also to retain the Longhorn Magazine as a medium for strictly literary endeavor was a wise action. The University should have some means of encouraging the writing of prose and poetry of the better sort. In retaining the literary magazine, however, the Publications Board should go further by re-organizing the present Longhorn Magazine so that it will not conflict with the new comic, and also will really develop into a magazine of strictly literary purpose.

During the past few years the editors of the Longhorn have worked valiantly and sincerely in commendable attempts to accomplish what The Texan believes is the impossible: the issuance of a magazine that would be popular and at the same time occupy a purely literary field. The result often has been that the Magazine has been neither popular nor literary.

If the Longhorn Magazine is to serve its real function as the medium for the better literary expression, it should be radically changed, both in arrangement and contents. Instead of there being an attempt to issue a "half-breed," the whole emphasis should be placed on the quality of the stories, essays, and poems that are contained in the publication. The arrangement of the strictly literary magazine should be plain and simple, with illustrations used very sparingly, if at all. A re-organization of the Longhorn along this, or similar lines, would result in the legitimate and proper development of a strictly literary magazine of the highest type.

"Seven Wonders of the World," will be opened as one of the side-shows to be conducted in connection with the Varsity Circus on Clark Field. The show will also be opened before and after the pageant Friday night.

The first feature of the show will be the "Trifling Three," known throughout University circles as very entertaining vaudeville performers. Bess Nichols, Wilma Kirkpatrick and Mabel Mansell, compose the caste of this trio.

In addition, the "Great and Well-Known Snake Charmer" will not be missing in Varsity's side-shows. One of the reptiles he will charm is reputed to be twenty-four feet long. The customary magician with his miraculous tricks and performances will also be found in the "Seven Wonders of the World."

The Fat Lady, who relates to her unbelieving audience how she attained to such tremendous proportions, will also be brought for the Celebration side-show. Shuffling Sam will be another feature of the "Seven Wonders of the World."

runs. It was Runnels' second victory this year over the Steers, having beat Texas in Dallas.

"Smu" made three tallies in the third. Stollenwerck led off with a triple into right that Captain Leissner and King watched fall between them. Runnels scratched an infield hit and Stollie counted. Bishop bunted safely. Thompson sacrificed Runnels to third and Bishop to second. Runnels was out at the plate on Bedford's roller to Smalley. Kibbie booted Sanders' grounder very badly and Bishop and Bedford scored.

More Bad Baseball

The Mustangs made another run in the fourth. Eckhardt messed up Reisor's grounder, and he was safe at first. Eckhardt threw wild to second on Payne's effort and all hands were safe. Allen picked Reisor off second for the second out, but Stollenwerck scratched a hit through the box, and Eckhardt walked Runnels to fill the bases. Smalley's error on Bishop's grounder allowed Payne to come home.

S. M. U. ran their total to six in the fifth with two more runs. Kibbie erred on Bedford's grounder, Sanders sacrificed him to second. Eckhardt passed Reisor, Bedford and Reisor pulled off a double steal, the former going to third and the latter to second. Leonard cracked a hit to center and Bedford scored. Leissner fumbled the ball and Reisor tallied on the same play, ending the scoring for the Mustangs.

Texas Scores Two in Fifth

Texas made their only runs in the fifth. Allen singled through short, but was out at second on Eckhardt's roller to Stollie. Kibbie drove out a triple that bounded over Payne's head in right, Eckhardt scoring. Kibbie came in on King's sacrifice fly to center.

B.A.'S ENTERTAIN WITH BANQUET FOR MERCHANTS

Dean Bell Suggests New Plan for Senior Students

Entertaining in honor of the Retail Merchants of Central Texas, the Retail Merchants Association and the Retail Credit Men's Association were hosts a banquet sponsored by the School of Business Administration, Tuesday evening at 7:45 at the University Commons.

The program of the evening consisted of speeches and impromptu talks by the guests interspersed with various musical numbers by the "Texettes," the Scottish Rite Dormitory orchestra. The principal speaker of the evening was Dean Bell who outlined a co-operative plan for seniors in the school of Business Administration. His plan was to allow the seniors to work in pairs, one of the students going to school while the other got practical experience in his chosen field of work. In this way seniors would spend two years instead of one in their senior year.

Mrs. R. E. Bewley spoke on the credit system used by Austin merchants which is one of the most effective in the South. The program was concluded at 11 o'clock with the "Eyes of Texas."

LONGHORN BAND GIVES THIRD MUSIC CONCERT

Program Consisted of Classical and Popular Numbers

Members of the Longhorn Band presented the third program of Austin's third annual music week, Tuesday evening in the Junior High School auditorium. Burnett Pharr led his men in a typical band program of classical and popular numbers.

The program was as follows: "Battle of Shiloh" (Barnhouse); "Faust Selections" (Gounod); "Nellie Gray" (Smith); Flute solo by H. A. Cory; "Quality Plus" (Holmes); "Opera Mirror" (Tobani); "Uncle Tom's Cabin" (Lampe); "Eyes of Texas."

The Band played this short program with the same smoothness of tempo and finish of execution which have characterized its concerts this season. In particular, the Gounod composition showed the well-organized ensemble performance of the Band and the balance of tone as it is distributed among the various sections.

Wednesday evening in the same auditorium the Men's Glee Club, under the direction of Lester Brenizer and B. Peeples pianist, of Dallas, will give the fourth musical concert of the week. Mrs. Peeples was formerly head of the Institute of Applied Music, and is well-known in Texas for her musicianship and the large number of pupils which have studied with her.

MUSICAL REVUES

About 50 per cent of them consist of clothes, or a LACK of them—and the other percent in scenery and singing in various degrees of goodness and badness.

The KIWANIS learned something from their revue —90 per cent of the Kiwanians, as a ticket selling aggregation are about as efficient as old King Tut.

Off the stage, as on, it's what the eye sees that counts at least at the start and often at the finish. The show was worthy of better patronage.

"Sure-Fit" is a cap with a high average in class room exercises

Perhaps we might better say Inter-Class Room Exercises. We mean the jog in the rain between Econ B.1 and Logic F.4.

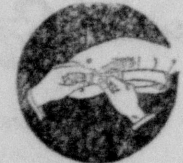

It will rain, these Spring days, and the faculty will insist that you attend classes, even if you have to get wet to do so.

This is a cap you can "let out" when the water contracts it, and "take in" when it dries and expands. Besides you can have it in waterproofed style to keep your head dry.

Aside from these features, it's a cap that can stand on its own merits, stylish and good-looking. The only ordinary thing about it is its price—there is no extra charge for the features.
