Dear Vice-Chancellor,

Thank you for your very kind letter of the 16th. It never occurred to me that the settlement ~~of the~~ with the Society of Antiquaries involved any ^{particular} reasonableness on my part, but I do most warmly appreciate what you say about this, and also your sympathetic advice all along. I now feel an immense relief that I can get on with the ^{work} job without a perpetual overhanging anxiety.

With much gratitude,

Yours sincerely,

W.B.
