

ROTC Inspection To Conclude Today

A pouring-over of major records, files, and facilities, equipment, and classrooms, and a courtesy call on President T. S. Painter Tuesday at 11 a.m. will officially end the annual two-day federal inspection of University ROTC units.

The inspecting team Monday watched a special drill given by the Army, Navy, and Air Force ROTC units. The units passed in review before the board of inspecting officers, composed of Lt. Col. J. W. Murray, of TCU; Lt. Col. Laughlin from the Fort Worth high schools; Lt. Col. C. L. Hilton from the Texas Military District; Lt. Col. Van Zant from Fort Sam Houston; Lt. Col. Van Fleet of the University of Houston; and Major Frederic Gehring from the Galveston high schools. The team is headed by Lt. Col. Edward H. Dillon, professor of military science and tactics at Rice Institute.

Monday the board of visiting officers visited ROTC classes and, towards the end of the hour, popped questions at the cadets. The questions were taken from previous tests and covered such subjects as the natural resources of the United States, the fundamentals of hygiene, and the various parts of the M-1 rifle.

Lt. Col. Dillon and another officer, as yet unannounced, will call on President Painter at 11 a.m.

Precinct Model To Run Tonight

University students can see a mock neighborhood precinct convention Tuesday at 8:00 p.m. at the Allan Junior High Auditorium in a preview of the regular convention Saturday.

The model convention will be sponsored by the University Young Democrats. Bill McKnight, club president, says it will be complete, even down to the final decisions, which will not be in the script, but will depend on the actual tally of club members at the convention.

Each faction will be represented by a speaker or floor leader. The floor leaders will be responsible for bringing supporters to take part in the convention. The voting outcome will depend on which side has the most supporters, just as in a real precinct convention.

Tom Affleck, campus Discreet leader will speak for the unattached delegation; Welby Parrish, secretary, for Senator Richard Russell; Don Kennard for Senator Kerr of Oklahoma; Gayle Garner for Averill Harriman; and Bill McKnight for Senator Estes.

Other members will take part in the issue of a party pledge, the election of convention officers and delegates to the county convention, the adoption of resolutions, and other matters that might arise in a precinct convention.

Painter Selects Naming Group

4 Deans Compose New Committee

A committee on committees for 1952-53 has been appointed by President T. S. Painter.

The function of the committee, consisting of J. A. Burdine, W. P. Keeton, B. E. Short, and L. L. Click, is to recommend personnel for the various standing committees of the general faculty and through the deans, the committees of the schools and colleges for the coming academic year.

In his letter to the committee members Dr. Painter made two suggestions. The first, to give due consideration to the older members of the faculty who have carried a heavy burden of committee work, and lighten their load. And the second, to give the younger men on the faculty an opportunity to learn something about the problems which confront us and to take part in their solution.

In attempting to follow these objectives the committee will welcome suggestions from all concerned.

Deadline Today For Spur Award Nominations

The deadline for submitting Silver Spur Award nominations has been extended to 5 p.m. Tuesday.

Nominations, together with a list of qualifications, may be submitted by any group or organization to the office of the Dean of Women.

Any woman student who has completed 30 hours with an overall C average is eligible to apply for the trophy given each year as recognition to the girl who participates most in the field of service to the University.

A committee of five, including three faculty members and two students, will select the recipient of the award.

The Silver Spur trophy, given for the first time last year, will be presented at Swing-Out Friday.

'Your Family Ties Inspire,' Shepperd Tells Czechs

People of Czechoslovakian ancestry have proven themselves examples of Americanism, John Ben Shepperd told those at the Czechoslovakian Folk Festival Sunday in the Union.

Mr. Shepperd, Texas secretary of state, emphasized that Czech family ties were an inspiration to this country at a time when one-fourth of its marriages are ending in divorce.

"You are a religious people, and as such you are a pillar of strength in an irreligious age," he declared. "But most of all," he continued, "in my associations with you I have found you to be sincere, honest people who do not think it is old-fashioned to believe in justice, honor, and decency as rules for everyday living."

It is a very good thing, Mr. Shepperd said, that people bred by Czechoslovakian culture should get together to keep their heritage fresh and alive. He told the group that celebrates with the Czechoslovakians.

"Those who made the United States a great nation were not of one nationality, one language, one creed, or one culture," Mr. Shepperd told those at the Folk Festival.

Gen. Ridgway Replaces Ike As NATO Chief

Gen. Mark Clark To Succeed June 1 As Far East Head

WASHINGTON, April 28 (AP)—President Truman appointed Gen. Matthew B. Ridgway today to succeed General Eisenhower as Supreme Allied Commander in Europe to build up defenses against the threat of Soviet aggression.

The President also announced: Gen. Mark W. Clark will succeed Ridgway as United Nations commander in Korea and as Commander-in-Chief of U.S. armed forces in the Far East.

Gen. Alfred M. Gruenther, Eisenhower's chief of staff, will continue in that post under Ridgway.

The appointments are effective June 1, when Eisenhower is to off his uniform and return to the U.S. to bid for the Republican presidential nomination.

The five-star general is due to make his first home speech at Abilene, Kan., June 4.

Eisenhower heard the news of the appointments while on a farewell tour of British troops under his command in Germany.

"Things will be in good hands," he said. "We could not do better."

Eisenhower hailed the Ridgway-Gruenther combination as "the finest American services can produce for the European command."

Macdonald Says Steel Grab National Threat

By GEORGE WIESER

Dr. Malcolm Macdonald, professor of government, expressed the view Thursday night in a Young Republican Club meeting that the action of President Harry S. Truman in seizing the steel industry threatens the fundamental American principles of government.

Dr. Macdonald outlined the steps that have transpired to date in the government action in the recent steel strike threat.

The contract between labor and management in the steel industry ended in November of 1951. Negotiations brought no results, so the Wage Stabilization Board took over the talks and granted the unions a wage raise of 24.3 cents.

The union then accepted this settlement, but the forces of management stated that this decision was unfair and impossible.

Labor has been saying all along that the other industries were better paid, and that steel was far down on the list in comparison to the coal industry, which averaged a rate of $2.42 per hour.

Management desisted from accepting this settlement, for they felt that they would have to raise the price of steel $12 a ton to compensate for the increased wages. The government, however, would not allow a raise of more than $3 a ton.

A stalemate set in, and the union was to strike on April 8. On April 7, President Truman took over control of the steel industry, and put Secretary of Commerce Sawyer in charge.

Pharmacists Hope To Move in May

Except for the transformers for the air conditioning, which are expected within the next few days, the new Pharmacy Building is practically ready for occupancy.

Dean H. W. Burlage announced Monday. "The library furniture is being moved in now, and we plan to move in around the last of May."

The Pharmacy Building is 169 by 71 feet, four and two-thirds stories high, and has around 40,000 square feet of floor space for laboratories and classrooms. Final cost on the building will be close to $1,300,000, not including equipment.

The building was approved by the Board of Regents in February of 1949 and work was started in May, 1950. By November of that year the roof was poured. Construction has taken two years.

For the first time in 50 years the College of Pharmacy will all be under one roof.

Present enrollment of the College of Pharmacy is 412 regular students. Fourteen more are doing graduate work.

Fred Korth Nominated For High Army Post

By the Associated Press

President Truman Monday nominated Fred Korth to be Assistant Secretary of the Army, succeeding Earl R. Bendetsen who was promoted last week to undersecretary.

Korth, a Fort Worth attorney, has been deputy counselor of the Department of the Army since March 21, 1951. During World War II, Korth served as a staff officer with the Army Air Corps.

Korth attended The University of Texas and George Washington University and began the practice of law in Fort Worth in 1935.

He has served as state president of the Texas Young Democrats.

Gus M. Hodges, professor of law, who was a classmate of Korth's, recalls that Korth was a well-liked person and was active in student affairs while at the University. Korth attended the University from 1930 to 1932.

Oliver N. Bruck, 1931 graduate of the University, succeeded R. L. Phinney as Austin postmaster.

After graduating from the University in the midst of the depression, Mr. Bruck kept his part time job with the Post Office. He is the first career postmaster for Austin. Bruck's wife also attended the University and their son, Norman, is now a student here.

Business Machines On 3-Day Exhibit

Business administration students will study latest accounting techniques in a series of demonstrations of accounting and business machines beginning Tuesday in Waggener Hall 301.

During the three-day exhibit, 26 of the latest model adding, bookkeeping, accounting, and microfilm machines will be shown from 8 to 12 a.m. and 1 to 5 p.m.

Dean W. R. Sprigge of the College of Business Administration said the program is designed to introduce junior and senior students to the latest methods used in performing accounting tasks.

All students are invited. Schedules of the exhibits are posted in Waggener Hall. All demonstrations will be repeated at least three times.

Texas now leads the league by two and one-half games.

Scarborough, who defeated Rice in Houston Friday, 13-5, now has won six and lost one in Conference play. Three double plays and a heady defense all the way around were the antidotes which helped Luther over the humps.

The Mustangs got ten hits, but only twice could they make their bingles co-operate for runs. In the ninth the Red and Blue had men on all three sacks with none away only to see their comeback nipped in the bud by a double play.

With two walks and a double loading the bases pinchhitter Don Donovan struck out and Tom Ballinger, 455 hitting center fielder with a triple and double to his credit, clinched the Steers seventh league triumph with a high bouncer to shortstop Joe Tanner, who started the double play via Robert Towery who fired to first for the game-ending out.

SMU scored once in the first pair of runs in the seventh on three safe blows. Ballinger led off in the ninth on two hits and tallied the first inning with a triple against the left-field fence. Hal Haynes walked and Fred Freeman grounded out to short, scoring Ballinger.

Joe Whitley then hit a ground ball to Tanner and the "Mudcat" fired to third baseman Jimmy Dan Pace to catch Hal Haynes in a run-down, which ended with Pace tagging him out.

Charles Galey was the next man up for SMU and rifled the hit to right that probably would have scored Haynes. Neil Neilson then grounded out to Tanner to end the inning. SMU's two-run seventh was started off by Ballinger with a double to center. Freeman singled to left after Haynes popped out but Travis Eckert's throw home held Ballinger at third.

Whitley's Texas League into left scored Ballinger and Galey's long fly to left scored Freeman. Neilson helped history by repeating his first inning performance with the third out.

Texas had its big inning in the second with four runs which gave Scarborough a lead he never relinquished. Tanner walked to open the inning. Paul Mohr singled to right and Ronald Spradlin's bunt to the pitcher forced Tanner at third.

Eckert then singled to right to score Mohr and knot the count. After Benton's bunt hit loaded the bases two runs crossed the plate when shortstop Haynes threw wild to first on Scarborough's grounder.

Pace scored Benton with a whistling grounder to left. Towery was out on a sacrifice and Kelly grounded to Haynes. The Longhorns scored single runs in the seventh and eighth. Texas's hit total was ten.

This little witticism was labeled "Top Most Secret" in the Forty Acres Fodder Box.

It seems there is a factory in Kentucky working 24 hours a day manufacturing the front ends of horses to be shipped to Washington for final assembly.

A rather verbose reporter on the Texan was reprimanded recently for his long-winded stories. The other day he wrote an obituary:

John Doe looked up the elevator shaft this morning in the Ritz Hotel to see if an elevator was on its way down. It was. Age 24.

Longhorn Golfers Edge Owls, 3.5-2.5

Able defending their Conference golf title, Texas linkmen virtually clinched a tie for first in the current race by turning back Rice, 3 1/2-2 1/4 Monday on Austin's Muny Course.

With but one match to go, the Longhorns' record is now 25 won, 5 lost. Only SMU, which has its finale Tuesday against Arkansas, and A&M are within striking distance.

The Ponies have won 19 and lost 11, so the best they can hope for is a tie with Texas, that occurring if the Steers are blanked in their last outing, and SMU in turn blanks Arkansas.

The real chips may go out Monday when A&M clashes with Texas here. If the Aggies hand Baylor a blank Tuesday and sweep past the Championship Tilt Slated Wednesday

Newman Club and Sigma Phi Epsilon posted semi-finals softball victories Monday night to earn the right to oppose each other in the intramural finals Wednesday night.

Newman Club squeaked past Brunette House 2-1 in the night's ranking upset. Larry Coughlin sprinted home to score an unearned run in the eighth inning that decided the tilt. Fitchers Dudley Thompson and Ken Conoley hooked up in an old-fashioned hurlers' duel, and they struck out a total of 34 batters between them. Thompson, though he came off second best, notched a pair of singles, and his bid for a home run was fowl by a matter of inches.

C. B. Sumrall, "Mr. Softball" at the University, pitched the SPE's into their habitual surroundings, the championship finals, by turning back a determined Oak Grove nine, 6-2.

Sumrall struck out 12 Grovers. In Class B play, Delta Tau Delta clipped Tut's Tomb, 6-1, and Westminster beat Oak Grove, 12-4, to move into the championship bracket.

Class A's final game will be at 7 p.m. Wednesday, and the Class B boys are scheduled for 5 p.m. the same day.

Steers Win Tennis Title By Downing Mustangs, 5-1

By DICK WILLIAMS
Texas Sports Staff

Texas' Longhorns successfully defended their Southwest Conference tennis crown by smothering SMU, 5-1, Monday afternoon on Penick Courts.

The five victories, three in singles, and two in doubles, gave the Longhorn netters a 27-8 season record. A&M with an 18-6 slate watched their chances for the conference title evaporate as Texas defeated the Mustangs.

A clean sweep by the Aggies when they meet Baylor Saturday would still leave them three matches behind the Steers.

Longhorn Coach D. A. Penick will send his reserve squad to San Marcos Tuesday afternoon to battle Southwest Texas.

A strong contingent of Miami University netters will arrive in Austin Wednesday for an encounter with the Texas squad. The Florida crew perennially has one of the finest college tennis teams in the nation.

THIS WEEK'S SCHEDULE
Friday—Rice at TCU at Fort Worth.
Saturday—Rice vs. SMU at Dallas; Baylor vs. Texas A&M at College Station.

Julian Oates breezed through Dan Stansbury of SMU to take the number one singles contest, 6-0, 6-1. The final outcome of the match was never in doubt.

Despite an early 5-1 lead in the first set, Bill Harris dropped an 11-9, 6-0 decision to the Mustangs' Walton Miller. The erratic Harris never regained his form after faltering in the opening set and was easily subdued by the former Highland Park netter.

Longhorn Charles Bludworth experienced occasional lapses in his usually steady play, but was still able to slip past Rod Williams of the Ponies, 7-5, 6-4, in their number three singles match. Bernard Gerhardt, fresh from his triumph over Bob Lovett of the University of Houston at River Oaks last week, blasted SMU's John Boggs, 6-2, 6-4. The stocky Longhorn fell behind 4-1 in the opening set, but quickly racked up five games and the match.

Oates carried his partner, Harris, to a 6-2, 6-4 victory over Stansbury and Miller in the number one doubles tilt.

Although the Steer tandem wrapped up the first set without any trouble, Miller and Stansbury hopped off to a quick 4-1 lead in the second set. When Harris began finding their mark, he and Oates spun off five consecutive games to capture the contest.

Bludworth and Gerhardt methodically defeated Williams and Boggs, 6-1, 6-3, in the afternoon's finale.

University Honors at Stake As 'Mural Thinlies Go Today

By JIM MONTGOMERY
Texas Sports Staff

A classy field of intramural tracksters will scrap it out for University honors this afternoon in Memorial Stadium, as the 1952 meet nears the end. University champions have already been crowned in the shot put, high jump, broad jump, and softball throw.

With scores based on places in these four events, Delta Kappa Epsilon and the Blomquist Swedes are leading the pack into the University finals with 10 points each. The Rinky Dinks have 6 1/2 points, and ATO has garnered 5. These points are given for University, not Divisional places. Point standings in the four divisions are not available as yet.

Several fine performances have been turned in so far, although no 'mural records have fallen. Perhaps the top feat was Kappa Sigma's sparkling 44.8 quarter mile relay. This is only 7/10 of a second off the record set in 1947.

Easily the best individual effort came from Longhorn halfback Don Barton, who bored a tunnel through a strong headwind to take the 100-yard dash in 10.2, run an anchor leg on the Rinky Dinks' victorious sprint relay quartet, and win the broad jump for the second straight year.

Alpha Tau Omega's Bob Rowland flipped the 16-pound shot 41 feet to cop first place in that event.

Jimmy Babb, who must feel more at home with his feet off the ground, won the high jump with a stratospheric 6-3, then broad jumped three inches past the 21 foot mark, only to see the aforementioned Mr. Barton beat his mark by a scant inch on his last leap.

Right now, Kappa Sigma's thinly-clad look to be the boys to beat for the University title. They have posted the best times in both relay events, which would earn them 16 points, and also loom as a threat in the 220. This would give them a total of 21 points, and that could be enough to win.

However, the Rinky Dink entry cannot be underrated. The meteoric Barton and his mates might turn the trick, or if they fail in that, they could knock the Kappa Sigmas out of enough points to enable a third party to carry off the marbles.

Events will begin promptly at 4:30 p.m.

The 'mural softball derby is right down to its last gasp, with finals set for Wednesday night. Wednesday will also feature finals in tennis doubles and horseshoes.

Entries for swimming close on Wednesday. Competition this year will be in six swimming events plus diving. The medley relay, featuring 100-foot breast stroke, back stroke, and free style will open the meet. Next come the 300-foot free style, the 100-foot breast stroke, the 100-foot free style, the 100-foot back stroke, and the 400-foot four man relay.

Diving will be from the 10-foot board. The two required plunges are the swan and jack knife. Two optionals are allowed.

Simmons to Start For Phils Today

CHICAGO, April 28 (AP)—The pitching arm of Curt Simmons, fresh out of Army khaki, is due to get his first 1952 major league test against the Chicago Cubs Tuesday—after a rain-prompted respite that may have helped iron out a few kinks.

The young Philadelphia Phillies hurler, released from Army service three weeks ago after his return from Germany, was to oppose the Boston Braves in the first game of a twin bill Sunday.

Both contests were rained out and manager Eddie Sawyer of the Phillies re-carded Simmons as his starter for the first of a two-game series with the Cubs.

Second Time a Charm?

When the Assembly went on record Thursday night in favor of an increased Union fee bill, it was traveling familiar ground. Prior to last year's session of the Legislature, the Assembly had passed a similar measure.

It was unfortunate that the Union fee bill—which had been thoroughly endorsed by the students through student opinion polls, student referenda, The Daily Texan, and their Assembly—was poorly handled and didn't get introduced in the Legislature. Approval of the legislators is necessary before any compulsory fees can be raised.

Now, with the Union's needs more pressing than ever, student initiative for a more modern student union is again being shown. Various campus organizations passed resolutions favoring the fee boost and several others are bringing the matter to a vote very soon.

It is significant that students realize the function of their Union, which can be an integral part of their educational process if it is given a fair chance.

Union expansion, in recent years the subject of much talk, is currently well beyond the idle conversation stage. A forceful Union expansion committee is working the desires of students, University officials, faculty, and exes into plans for modernization. Such plans can become reality only through an adequate Union fee, which at its present level of one dollar creates serious program deficiencies.

The obvious needs and wants of the students should get determined backing by the Administration. University higher-ups should push this project in the Legislature next year, and they should push hard.

Howdy Week End

This week end has been officially dubbed "Howdy Week End" on the campus. "Howdy" ribbons will be given out by the thousands and worn by campusites to greet visitors.

Sure hope "Howdy Week End" goes over better than another stunt requiring student co-operation. Remember Western Day during Round-Up?

Round-Up Committee Holds Post Mortem

By RUSS KERSTEN
Times Editor

Round-Up this year was a whopping success from just about any angle, but a few flaws need to be corrected by Round-Up time in 1953.

Yesterday afternoon the Central Round-Up Committee, of which the writer is a member, held its annual post-mortem on the big thing and agreed that there are several problem areas:

1. Float building time at the stadium the night before the Friday parade was a mite uncontrolled. Misconduct was said to be almost exclusively by onlookers and not by float workers, however.
2. Regulations governing chaperoning of girls working on floats and rules allowing girls out unusually late were abused in some cases.
3. The $300 limit on float expenses, which was raised to that figure this year as an experiment, needs to be studied. The committee and its technical staff knew of no violations, yet there was some concern over the amount of extra time put in when extra money is available. The committee felt that any trends toward lavishness should be braked.

4. Several floats were destroyed, and there was no insurance to cover the loss. Dean Charles Roberts, committee member, said next year's committee should require insurance on all floats.

5. Conduct of a few thoughtless parade participants drew unfavorable comment from onlookers. John McCurdy, committee chairman and alumni secretary, said "they forgot they were representing the University."

No rules were adopted by the committee, which met merely to rehash Round-Up experiences and to make recommendations for the 1953 committee. As a whole, the committee felt that the problems would be minimized by fully informing the student body of all rules next spring. You can't anticipate everything, McCurdy said, pointing out that "a few things arose that had not been anticipated, because they had not happened before in just that way."

Of the many hundreds of comments he has received, McCurdy said, nearly all were highly favorable. A few were displeased with some phase or other of Round-Up, but the average person "was happy with the whole affair." Those remarks line up with campus comment, indicating that the week end of fun and splendor had plenty of zip.

WHEN, TEX? Jitter Nolen, just back from the annual national convention of student union bigwigs, says the Texas Union is somewhat of a standing joke. "Say, Tex," some of the others would tell him, "When are you going to get a new union?" He said it's been going on for a dozen years, before he took over as Texas Union director.

Be Counted

Are you the type of citizen who likes to howl privately but isn't willing to attend a precinct convention to be counted in public?

If you are that type, you're forgetting that the precinct conventions represent your big chance to take part in selection of your party's presidential candidate.

Take time to attend a precinct convention Saturday. It's your crucial opportunity in a crucial election year.

Time Runs Out

Memo to student government heads: Would a meeting between all incoming and outgoing student officers, together with the Deans of Student Life, Men, and Women, be beneficial in evaluating the past year and looking clearly at the next year?

It appears that such a meeting, if one could be arranged, has possibilities for interesting exchanges of ideas. Could be that it would prevent some false and unsure steps, too.

Cincinnati Administration Cancels 'Fixed' Convention

By JOE L. SCHOTT
Times Exchange Editor

In a political expose last week the Cincinnati News Record explained to its readers why the Republican mock convention had been stopped by the administration.

It seems that in contacting possible speakers last summer a designated committee ran smack into a man who said he thought it was a fine idea and that he would be glad to give his support and cooperation providing that the convention be fixed so that Senator Robert Taft would win the presidential nomination.

This development completely disheartened the committee which had not thought of running into the grim reality of politics with all its sordid and grime quite so soon.

As things developed, this request was not at all merely a friendly suggestion. Our political friend went on to contact the president and the board of trustees at the school really "fixing" the convention—fixing it to the extent that the convention plans received the administration veto and were stopped immediately.

SIGN HERE... Last year somebody in Madison, Wisconsin tried to find how many people would sign the Declaration of Independence if it were passed around in the form of a petition. The majority were timid and unwilling to sign.

Now we have a reverse situation.

The Penn State Daily Collegian circulated a petition reading: "We give the bearer of this petition permission, upon receipt of our signatures, to hang us by the neck until dead."

This clause was buried in the middle of an otherwise ordinary petition.

Of 165 students approached, 81 signed it.

CLEAN RACE The rowing team at Cornell University was stopped cold last week by a whirl of suds.

A prankster had poured some Vol soap into the practice tank.

MUSIC Colleges next year will be offering plenty of business to name bands, according to Variety magazine.

A survey of band bookers showed that many colleges have increased their budgets and are in the market for such top outfits as Ray Anthony, Elliott Lawrence and Les Brown.

Variety believes that the new enthusiasm for name bands is due to the younger age of the average student, as compared to the average student age four or five years ago.

Former GI's weren't so interested in social life, the article said.

FREE A poll by Texas Christian University to learn just why students select a particular school drew this reply from one freshman:

"They sent me a free catalog."

PET? There were all those arms lying around limp and dead and the girls at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house didn't like it and phoned the police.

The cream of Berkeley's (California) police department rushed to the second story porch of the sorority and there were eight arms.

Attached to an occupant. The police removed the 30-pound monster and dumped it in the bay.

What the coppers had to say about the fraternity that had a "ship wreck" dance wasn't recorded.

TAIL TALE All tail tales don't originate in Texas, it seems.

Here is one from a Paris, Texas, wholesale hardware merchant who said it slid into Texas from the slopes of the Rockies:

"A new hybrid of beef cattle has been developed in Colorado. The breed is called Bearford, a cross between a bear and a Hereford."

"The final development of the cross makes the Bearford five-eighths bear and three-eighths Hereford. Thus the bear instinct predominates."

"This has its advantages. One, the hide is suitable for fur coats. Another, the animal hibernates in the winter, thus saving high-priced food concentrates."

"There are drawbacks, too, and it is here that the cowboy finally meets his match. He is subject to many slaps when he tries to get the animal out of trees for branding at roundup time."

NATIONAL RECORD University of California at Los Angeles has knocked the national collegiate record for blood donations for a loop with a grand total of 1,179 pints collected.

The University of Texas previously held the championship with a record of 1,114 pints.

Awards were given to the men's and women's living groups and campus military services who gave the most blood on a percentage basis.

COMPANIONS A survey among Illinois coeds revealed that one-third of those interviewed sleep with stuffed animals. Most of the rest kept teddy bears and the like around for decoration.

Firing Line

Shrewd Analysis

TO THE EDITOR:

I believe that The Texan editorial writer for Sunday hit a new low in bad taste by offering up the sarcastic commentary on Billy Graham. Even though the writer does not personally look with favor on Graham's method of appealing to mass emotions (as I personally do not either) his statements, beginning "Two kinds of religion are being offered in Austin today. One is available in churches this morning and evening..." are far from comprising a shrewd analysis of the situation. In attempting to give a lofty denunciation of Barnum and Bailey practices, the writer succeeded only in establishing the reader's repugnance for such a display of journalistic incompetence.

—ELROY BODE

Religious Maturity

TO THE EDITOR:

Thank you for your editorial concerning the two types of religion available in Austin last Sunday, church religion and Ringling Brothers, Barnum and Bailey type.

Dr. Blake Smith has said, "Christianity is not a way of doing certain things; it is a certain way of doing everything." As I attended the circus Sunday, I could not help thinking, "Is this the way?"

Your treatment of the Billy Graham spectacle in Austin has been very level-headed. The fact that the student leaders at the University have not been over-enthusiastic in their support of the campaign is an indication of the religious maturity of University students. The non-committal attitude of The Texan Editor and other leaders has done signal service in strengthening the position of theologically sound religion on the University campus.

—BILL BLUMBERG

What Comparison?

TO THE EDITOR:

In reference to the editorial, "Two Kinds Today," that appeared in The Daily Texan, April 27, 1952, I would like to know the basis on which the comparison was made between Billy Graham's evangelical service and Ringling Brothers, Barnum and Bailey.

—SID HOLLAND JR.

Reyes-Hoppin Recital to Be Second of Series Thursday

Angel Reyes, violinist, and Richard Hoppin, pianist, will give a sonata recital in Recital Hall, as the second of a series of benefit concerts for the Fine Arts Foundation at 8:30 p.m. Thursday. The first concert by The University of Texas String Quartet was applauded as one of the finest presented in Austin.

Reyes and Hoppin will play

"Sonata in C" by Hindemith, and "Partita No. 3 in E" by J. S. Bach. For unaccompanied violin, the "Partita" is considered one of the greatest compositions ever written for that instrument. Closing the program will be Beethoven's "Sonata in C Minor." Written for the Emperor of Russia, it has been described as "a musical version of an attack by a regiment of the Emperor's guard."

Money from the concerts and donations to the Foundation will be used to provide scholarships for deserving young artists, improve facilities in the departments of the College of Fine Arts, and to provide a traveling fund. Tickets are on sale at the Music Building box office.

Radio Guild Will Hear KTXN Station Manager

Frank Stewart, station manager of KTXN, will be Radio Guild's last speaker of the year Wednesday in Union 315 at 7 p.m.

PLATTER PARLEZ-VOUS in the making, as Co-Ved's Wife of the Month, Andree Owen, puts her French on tape for listening sessions. A soft-spoken but energetic brunette, Andree is homemaker, student, a double part-time employee on the Forty Acres.

Busy French Wife In 'Beautiful Texas'

By CAROL CRENSHAW

We wonder... If you were over 8,000 ocean miles from your homeland; if you did all your own housework, washing, ironing, and cooking; if your husband were a student in the University, with a part-time job; if you had two part-time jobs on campus, along with a full-time one of caring for a four-year-old son whom you taught to speak both English and French... would you still have time to take courses toward a university degree?

The answer is found in a Co-Ved's Wife of the Month, Andree Owen, a quiet, energetic, conscientious, and (how you say?) "tres jolie."

Andree had lived the early years of her life in a small village in Normandy. In 1945 she met Byron Owen, who managed to get his army discharge in France after the war.

"My parents thought I was too young to marry, so Byron went to school for a year at the University in Paris," laughs Andree. "We were married in June, 1947, spent a month in Paris, and now here am I in the States."

As a working student, Andree's courses are sandwiched between her jobs in the cataloging section of the Main Library and the listening sections of the Romance Languages Department, where she makes recordings in French. Andree takes a few courses each semester as she finds time for them.

Her husband, who has already completed a degree in Classical Languages, will get bachelor's degrees in both electrical and mechanical engineering this June. Andree hopes to continue her studies whenever they go until she has earned a degree of her own.

When she first came to this country, Andree knew little English other than that she spoke with Byron. Now she speaks it almost as well as her native language, though both are marked by the same charming French accent.

Her small son, Michele, who also knows both languages, is just recognizing that there is a difference between the two. At the nursery he attends he heard the children speaking of their "daddies" and thought he should have one too. Since his mother and father are "Mama" and "Papa" (with accents on the last a's), he assumed the children meant someone else in the family.
