RESULTS THIS WEEK

Baylor 15, S. M. U. 1.

GAMES THIS WEEK

Today and tomorrow at Austin, Texas vs. Rice Institute.
Friday and Saturday at College Station, Baylor vs. Texas A. & M.

Rice Institute's Owls will be here today for the first game of a two-game series against Coach Disch's Longhorn baseballers on Clark field. The second game will be played tomorrow.

As Baylor University's Bears strengthened their hold on the top position in the conference standings today and yesterday by taking two straight from the Southern Methodist University Mustangs at Waco, a defeat of the Longhorns by the Owls either game today or the contest tomorrow would be a blow to Texas' hopes of the conference championship of almost fatal nature.

Owls Pitchers Strong

Rice has two crack pitchers in Eddie Dyer, a great pitcher and a hard hitter, and Melton, peg-leg twirler who defeated Texas A. & M. at College Station recently. Texas fans are still talking about the 2-0 defeat which Dyer handed the Longhorns on Clark Field two years ago. S. M. U. and A. & M. both beat Dyer this season, but both times it was errors behind the Owl twirler and lack of offensive strength of the Institute team that lost the game.

Dyer Works Today

Dyer will probably work today. Coach Disch will in all probability make no chances, and will send either Babe Leissner or Manny Ponsford, as two best twirling bats, to the box for Texas.

Nowlin Out of Game

Jim Nowlin, Varsity third baseman and one of the hardest hitters on Coach Disch's nine, will not be in either Rice game. He is now in Arizona on business, but will join the team in time for their Southern tour next week.

Teddy Lyons, the Baylor Bears' crack twirler who held the Longhorns to three hits at Waco recently, allowed the Mustangs only one hit Monday afternoon, and shut out the S. M. U. team. Tanner had little difficulty in winning the second Bear-Mustang game yesterday afternoon, while the S. M. U. pitchers were easy for the Baylor bat wielders.

PAN-HELLENIC MEETS

Discussion of the advisability of establishing a system of preferential bidding for all sororities, formed the chief feature of a meeting of the Woman's Pan-Hellenic Council held yesterday afternoon. No decision was reached, but another meeting will be held next Wednesday at which final action will probably be taken according to Kathryn Anderson of Brownwood, president of the council. Mrs. A. B. Onken, national president of Pi Beta Phi, made a short address.

FOB AWARDS WILL BE CONFERRED ON TEXAS DEBATERS

Ten Men Will Receive Distinctive Trophies This Year

All representatives of the University in debate and oratory will, beginning with this year be awarded a specially designed watch fob with an additional bar for each subsequent year that a student is selected on the debating team to be known as a "T" and gavel, according to Dr. E. D. Shurter, who stated that this award was agreed upon at the last meeting of the Public Speakers Council and that an order has been sent to an eastern firm for a limited number of the medals.

These fobs were awarded for the current session to the following: Major T. Bell of Tenaha; Roy C. Coffee of Paradise; Judson C. Francis of Austin; James R. Hamilton of Austin; William Madden Hill of San Antonio; Henry S. Kelly of San Antonio; Frank K. McGee of Weatherford; Earle M. Racey of San Antonio; Felix A. Raymer of Austin; and J. P. Watson of Baton Rouge. Dr. Shurter also stated that, in keeping with the instructions of the Council, negotiations will soon be entered into with regard to a debate with Harvard to be held sometime next year.

SPRING RECITAL IS GIVEN BY PIANISTS

Sixteen Pupils of Mrs. Peebles Play First of Two Annual Recitals

Beethoven's "Pastoral Symphony" and the "Military Symphony" of Hayden, together with two groups of piano solos, were performed in the first of two annual piano recitals. Tuesday evening in S Hall by sixteen pupils of Mrs. Katherine Peebles, head of the Institute of Applied Music. A capable and serious interpretation of the Beethoven symphony was given by Mary Bell Granger and Ruth Buchanan at the first piano, and Isabelle Powell and Mary Gullette at the second piano, while Manon Griffith and Mildred Hughes at the first piano and Cleo Ratliff and Nettie Lewis at the second piano performed Hayden symphony with considerable abandon and vigor.

"The Fauns" (Chaminade), "Epilogue" (Heller), "The Brook" and "Autumn" (Heller), "Ride of the Valkyries" (Wagner) and "In the Mountains" (Grieg), were played by Carrie Mae Hamby, Maude Hill, Desie Dancy, Mary Bell Granger, and Mary Elise Mulkey, and Rebecca Barr and Cleo Ratliff, respectively. Esther Wacker performed Dvorak's "On the Holy Mount," and Gladys Gray played "Romance" (La Forge). Sincere study was rendered in the several performances. The second recital will be given next Tuesday evening in the same place and at the same time. Works of Hayden, Tchaikowski, Mozart, Bach, Grieg and Gounod will be presented on the program.

GIRLS' GLEE CLUB WILL SING AT COMMENCEMENT

Under the direction of Miss Elfreda Littlejohn, instructor in music, the Girls' Glee Club of the University is preparing to furnish the commencement music for the University this year. The club is also practicing for a concert to be given during the spring term. There are some fifty University girls in the Glee Club.

At a recent meeting of the club, Margaret McCord of Dallas was elected president; Helen Rockwell of Austin, vice president; Eugenia Marshall of Hearne, secretary and treasurer; Anne Marshall of Hearne, librarian; and Ina Williams of Dallas, reporter.

SILOS OF B. HALL GET COAT OF PAINT

Workmen are at present engaged in painting the two fire escapes of B. Hall. The silo to the north wing has already received its coat of brilliant red pigment, while the avenue of escape for the south wing has had about one-fourth of its quota.

It is said that the work is being done to render the exterior more attractive to freshmen to make up for the unattractiveness of the interior.

MISS JORDAN LECTURES ON HISTORY OF SILVER AS USED FOR ORNAMENT

Representative of Gorham Company Talks to H. E. Classes on White Metal

Discussing the history of silver as a substance for ornaments and for utensils, Miss Margaret Jordan of the Gorham Company lectured to the students of the home economics department, at 8:30 yesterday morning, at the D. E. shack.

Silver, according to Miss Jordan, was not used by the ancients as ornaments, gold being the favorite metal for this purpose. The Hebrews used the silver for adorning their temples as did the ancient Greeks and Romans, but for their cups, plates and other eating utensils the bare ornamental gold was used.

The inhabitants of western Europe of the medieval period were the first to use the white metal in preference to the yellow for all kinds of personal ornaments as well as table utensils. During this period a large and powerful guild of silversmiths who were very skillful in their trade played an important part in the industrial life of the continent.

When Queen Elizabeth began the use of the fork in England silver firmly established itself as the material for all ornamental utensils and it has held its predominance until the present day.

Miss Jordan pointed out the economy of buying silver knives, forks, and spoons of a standard pattern and of sufficient weight to wear for many years. Household silver of this kind, she said, is the most satisfactory and serviceable in the long run.

LONGHORNS WIN ALL MATCHES IN TENNIS AT WACO

Woodson Wins Other Set for Bears—Texas Wins Other Easily

Special to the Texan

Waco, Texas, April 18.—University of Texas tennis players won all six matches of their dual meet against the Baylor University Bears here this afternoon.

The Longhorn players were in great form and took every set, but one, Woodson winning a 7-5 set from Lloyd Gregory, captain of the Texas team, by showing a spurt of exceptionally strong play. Gregory won the first set 6-2 and the third set by the same score. A sustained spurt by Woodson during the second set was well met by Gregory, but the Bear racket wielder finally won the only set victory of the day for the Bears.

In the singles White of Texas defeated Cleveland of Baylor 6-4, 6-1. Gregory beat Woodson 6-2, 5-7, 6-2. Hilliard of Texas beat Wood of Baylor 6-0, 6-0. Brown of Texas beat Buckner of Baylor 6-4, 6-0. In the doubles Gregory and White beat Cleveland and Wood 6-3, 6-2, and Hilliard and Brown beat Wood and Gregory 6-4, 6-2.

Etta Gilbert, of Austin, junior academic student and candidate for Bachelor of Arts degree in June 1923, has authorized the announcement of her candidacy for the office of chairman of the Woman's Council for the session 1922-1923.

During her three years in the University, Miss Gilbert has been prominent in almost every phase of campus activities. She is a member of Ashbel Literary Society; Kappa Alpha Theta, Y. W. C. A., and W. A. A. She has been, for the past year, president of W. A. A., holds a T and has twice won the gold turtle in the Turtle Club. She will be a member of the woman's gymnasium staff for the coming year in the capacity of assistant instructor in swimming.

Miss Gilbert has made an enviable scholastic record, having been on the first or second percent of the honor roll every term since she entered the University.

Miss Gilbert bases her candidacy on a thorough familiarity with University life and campus problems. As regards the recent ruling of the Attorney General concerning Austin students, Miss Gilbert agrees to place herself under the jurisdiction of the Discipline Committee.

ALUMNA DIES

News has been received of the death of Mrs. Blanche Neville Hatfield of Waco. She received the B. Lit. degree from the University in 1897. While here she was president of Ashbel Literary Society, and assistant editor of the Longhorn Magazine.

LITTLE BUSINESS TRANSACTIONS BY REGENTS TUESDAY

No Action Is Reported Taken on Building Program for Main University

NEW INSTRUCTORS NAMED

Dr. James Granted Leave of Absence—Meeting Dates for Board Changed

By Harold Young

Accomplishing very little, the Board of Regents met yesterday morning in the president's office from 10 a. m. to 5 p. m. The total membership of the Board was present with the exception of L. J. Worthington, of Fort Worth, who was forced to be absent on account of illness.

The building program for the coming year, which was expected to form one of the main topics of discussion of the meeting, apparently received little attention. Nothing on the plans of the board for new buildings could be learned, with the exception of the fact that H. M. Greene of Dallas had been named as the architect for the University. He is to be under a contract, the terms of which will be decided at a later date.

Name New Instructors

The appointment of new instructors for the University composed the greater share of the Board's work. Mrs. F. M. Stewart was appointed as an assistant in the package loan library of the bureau of extension. M. W. Graham of the University of Missouri comes to the University of Texas as an instructor in government; and Miss Fernand Cattilan, who at present is an instructor in S. M. U., has been appointed as an instructor in romance languages.

There were also two new professors named in the medical school at Galveston. Dr. H. V. Atkinson has been appointed as associate professor of pharmacology, and Dr. C. C. Gault has been named as professor of physiology.

Absence Leave Given

Dr. H. J. James of the department of government has been granted a leave of absence extending through the fall and winter terms of next year. He will spend his time in Brazil studying the system of government of the republic of Brazil.

Beginning with the next scholastic year the board will meet five times during the year. On the last Tuesday in October there will be a meeting in El Paso, and on the last Tuesday in January a meeting will be held in Austin. Again on the last Tuesday in March the board will meet in Austin and on the second Tuesday in May the board will meet in Galveston. The board meets once more in Austin on the last Tuesday in June.

Pictures of Early Classes Hung in Law Building Corridor

During the past week pictures of the senior law classes since 1885 have been removed from the basement and hung in the corridor of the Law Building. It has been the custom that the picture of each succeeding graduating class be hung in the Law Library, and to make more room the older pictures have been removed from time to time and stored in the basement. Some of the pictures are in bad condition, needing new glass or frames, and plans have been made to write letters to the members of the classes represented in these pictures, asking that each send a small sum to pay for repairs.

These pictures will be of especial interest to alumni of the school who return for a visit from time to time and desire to see the picture of their class.

CURRIE SPEAKS TO CABINET

The Freshman Cabinet and Bible class of the Y. M. C. A. met Monday night for its weekly session in the auditorium of the Y. M. C. A. The meeting was addressed by Thos. W. Currie, the organizer and teacher of the Bible class.

ILLINOIS TRACKMEN EASILY OUTCLASS LONGHORN TEAM

Texas Fails to Make Any First Places Against Northern Stars—Final Count Is 114 to 16—Stinnett Makes Best Showing

By Carl Swartz

Outclassing the University of Texas Longhorns in every event, the University of Illinois track and field combination won a 114 to 16 victory over the Orange and White yesterday afternoon on Clark Field. Rain fell all during the meet, making the track slow and the footing uncertain for the field events. In spite of the rain, however, some good marks were made.

Texas failed to capture a first place and won but two second places, both of rather meaningless calibre. One of these seconds was won by George Pendergrass in the 120-yard high hurdles, after three men of the five who started were disqualified. Smith scored the only other second place won by Texas by taking second place in the high jump. As Illinois entered only one man in this event—Osborne—and he won the first place honors without removing his training sweater and pants, there is no cause for Longhorn enthusiasts to puff out their chests because of this second place.

Angier, the Illinois team's crack javelin thrower, threw the spear 183 feet, 5 1-2 inches as he complained of the uncertain footing out in the middle of Clark Field. He has a mark of 200 feet in the event, and was participating in his second collegiate meet. Carlson of Illinois won second place with a throw of 157 feet. Bully Gilstrap, the third man in the event, got third honors.

Beaumont Stinnett, Texas dash man, made the best showing of the day for the Longhorns when he ran a pretty race in the century, the opening event of the meet. Stinnett held the lead for much of the distance, but Ayers and Asher both nosed ahead of him in a thrilling finish. Ayres made the distance in 10:1.

Loop Outclassed

Red Loop met more than his match in the mile, although McGinnis, the best miler on the Illinois team, was sick and unable to participate. Loop started out in front, but Patterson, Wells and Wharton of Illinois all drew ahead of him as the close neared. Patterson, of Houston, former Texas A. & M. star, finished first, but was disqualified for shoving Loop. This gave Wells of Illinois first, Wharton of Illinois second, and Loop third.

McNatt of Texas ran a good race in the 440-yard event, but Sweet and Schlappizzi finished ahead of him. The race was run in 52 seconds on the slow track.

Trout Ineligible

Trout, crack Varsity two miler, was declared ineligible because of scholastic reports just received, and did not appear in the meet yesterday and will be ineligible for the next two weeks. As Loop ran in the mile, Grimes and Muller were the only Texas entries in the two mile. Wharton, Scott, and Swanson of Illinois soon got far ahead, and continued to add to their lead over the Texas runners, although the three Illinois men remained bunched throughout the race. Wharton won the race in the good time of 9 minutes, 52 1-5 seconds, Scott was second, and Swanson was third. The race was one of the most interesting of the day, because of the excellent showing of the visitors.

Sapp of Texas was leading in the high hurdles when he got tangled up with one of the barriers and lost out. Johnson and H. S. Wallace were also disqualified by knocking over the hurdles.

THE RIGHT TO KICK

Were the faculty by some unprecedented emotional outburst of mercy to decide that henceforward and forever more there should be no such thing as a foreign language requirement, one is moved to wonder what substitute students would find to use as their chief object of complaint. Beyond a doubt something would be found to supply the need, so that even if all studies were done away with, there still would be the athletic council about which to dispute. And if in turn athletics were wiped off the map, there would still have to be some unknown something or other about which to protest. For the student is always and inevitably a critical animal; and he can always and inevitably find a moon for which to cry. The situation always will be such as long as there is any conflict between idealism and the non-perfectibility of matter.

John Palmer Gavitt of the New York Evening Post, writing in the Harvard Crimson, warmly defends that most Malignant of courses, English 1, or as it is known at Harvard, English A. To those who have ever spent any time damning some instructor who made a common split infinitive, an ordinary hanging participle, or a traditional comma blunder reduce an A theme down to D or worse, who have plodded stolidly along on some uninspiring description of "An East Woods Picnic Ground" or "The Main Building by Moonlight," who have illustrated all known varieties of argument and reasoning on some such faraway subject as "The Need for Conservation in the Salmon Fisheries of Northern Norway," or who have with utmost futility attempted to equal Maupassant's "The Necklace" in a short story written between classes or after 11 o'clock at night, to all these this defense will come as a surprise. They know.

Mr. Gavitt bases his argument on the three elements which, as Charles A. Dana once told the students of Union College, are essential to education:

First, that a man shall be able to see accurately, to recognize exact distinctions and true perspectives; as Matthew Arnold said, "to see the object as in itself it really is."

Second, that he shall be able to communicate to others what he has seen as it lies in his own mind in all its setting and meaning.

Third, that he shall know how to find out what he does not know and needs to know. This means not only going to headquarters for your information, but—even more important—knowing where headquarters is, and how to get there!

A general survey of these, Mr. Gavitt thinks, can be got from English A, which he would rather call the "Foundation Course." Therein lies its value.

Now if all these really came from English 1 as it is, there would be far less objection to the futility of the course (even now there are comparatively few who object very strenuously to the course's being required); for with all their much advertised lack of adequate preparation for college work, and with all their reputed hatred of anything which requires intellectual effort, most students would take a marked interest in such a course. It would do away with what makes English 1 as unpopular as it now is in many cases; for the notion which ruins many a class is an impulse against which no normal human being can work with a willing spirit—an idea of wasted effort. Give your student something to do whose purpose he can see, and this so-called "cussedness" will disappear.

ANOTHER ALEC

Members of the business administration department start out under a handicap in selecting a patron saint. Were the days of beer gardens still upon us, they might easily emulate the engineers and rescue their leader from the haunts of seekers after pleasure. Or they might indulge in the only kind of celebration which can account for an imagination that would conceive of such a creature as Perigrinus. As things are, however, they must devise in sober contemplation some sort of symbol, of just what kind remains to be seen. And since we have grown too civilized to indulge in the department rushes that took place of yore, it remains to be seen further what sort of traditions will be built up around it.

(Editor's Note: Pete Clark, who used to contribute regularly to the Texan, is back on the campus for a day or two and has turned in to the office a few verses. Here are two.)

"Her Husband's Trademark" is now running at the Majestic.

As a trade-mark to show that her husband is both a successful financier and a successful social climber, Gloria Swanson is decidedly a success herself. There has probably never been a role created which was better suited to show off the distinctive beauty and charm of this star, for she wears the most gorgeous of clothes, head-dresses, and jewels, and is placed in surroundings that are wholly in tune.

In addition to this, there is a good plot to the play, in which the husband gets found out for using his wife as a lure for his shady financial schemes, and a former sweetheart of hers comes back and gains her regard again.

Longhorn Band Will Be Personal Escort for Queen of Fiesta

Assignment of the Longhorn Band as special escort to the Queen of the Battle of Flowers Friday, was announced officially yesterday by officers of the Battle of Flowers Association. On Thursday night the band will play at the review of the court, and will afterwards be guests at a reception given for the members of the court. Friday the Longhorns will head the extra division in which the Queen and the Court will ride in parade.

This place has heretofore been held by a Shrine Band, thrice the size of the Longhorn organization. To occupy such a place is a very high honor to be accorded a college band.

Not all those have been chosen who will make the trip, was the announcement of Director Burnett Pharr yesterday.

The band will leave the Co-op Thursday by Union Bus Line at 1:40 p. m. and will arrive in San Antonio at 5 o'clock.

ALUMNUS IS MOCK JUDGE

J. N. Shields, an alumnus of the University who is now a practicing attorney at Grand Saline, Texas, presided as judge at a mock trial held by the Hildebrand Law Society Monday night. The question involved the ownership of a married woman's property.

After the court, Mr. Shields told some personal experiences as a lawyer to the members of the society.

For smart sports style—campus wear or away for the summer—you need a smart slip-over sweater. Individual models at the Bluebonnet Shop.

VAN HEUSEN

the World's Smartest COLLAR

THE difference between the VAN HEUSEN Collar and ordinary collars is not merely that one is soft and the others stiff.

The VAN HEUSEN Collar is as stylish as it is soft; and as comfortable as it is correct.

Ordinary collars depend upon stiffness for their style, and upon crispness for their comfort.

The VAN HEUSEN Collar tempers its style to the shorn neck.

Ordinary collars have as little consideration for a neck's curves as a round hole has for a square peg.

If your dealer cannot supply you with the VAN HEUSEN Collar and the VAN CRAFT Shirt (a soft white shirt with the VAN HEUSEN Collar attached) write us for address of one that can.

"Well dressed men take off their hats to the VAN HEUSEN Collar," wrote a leading haberdasher.

But it's even more significant that they bare their necks to it.

Nine styles, quarter sizes 13½ to 20. Price fifty cents. Will outwear half a dozen ordinary collars.

INTER-DEPARTMENTAL TENNIS SCHEDULE TO INCLUDE HOT MATCHES

All Entrants Must Sign up Before April 21—Preliminaries Begin April 24

Inter-departmental tennis has received a considerable boost this year in comparison with last year, for seven department teams have already signed up for the class competition.

From all indications there are some strong teams already entered for the net tournament, and with several departments yet to be represented, quite an interesting display of intramural racquetting ability is contemplated. All entrants must sign up for the tennis competition by April 21, as the preliminaries will begin on the 24.

Following is a list of the entries already signed up: Payne and Gardner (Law), Smalley and Mitchell (Freshman), Thomas and Patton (Sophomore), Harrison and Hume (Pre-Med), Brewster and Todd (Freshman), Schumaker and Woodhead (Business Administration) and Martin and Bragg (Business Administration).

ILLINOIS TRACKMEN EASILY OUTCLASS LONGHORN TEAM.

down too many, and S. H. Wallace won and Pendergrass got second.

Collins and Chandler of the Illinois team tied for first place in the pole vault at 11 feet. The athletes' hands were slipping on the pole badly, and they decided to leave the winner undecided. They made good showings, in spite of the slippery poles.

Osborne, Illinois' only entry in the high jump, took that event in easy style. He did not have to take off his training shirt and pants to eliminate the two Texas jumpers, Pendergrass and Smith, jumping higher than the Longhorns could go while wearing his white pants and jersey. He also won the broad jump.

Tom Dennis, Longhorn shot man, was the second Varsity man who was made ineligible by the scholastic reports just received by the athletic officials. Illinois made a clean sweep in this event.

The Longhorns will meet the Louisiana State University Tigers on Clark Field Saturday afternoon in a dual meet. Little is known locally of the strength of the Tigers.

The summaries:

100-yard dash—Ayres (Illinois) first; Asher (Illinois) second; Stinnett (Texas) third. Time 10:1.

One-mile run—Wells (Illinois) first; Wharton (Illinois) second; Loop (Texas) third. Time 4:32.

220-yard dash—Ascher (Illinois) first; Fitch (Illinois) second; Ayres (Illinois) third. Time 22 4-5.

120-yard high hurdles—S. H. Wallace (Illinois) first; Pendergrass (Texas) second. (Sapp, Johnson and H. S. Wallace disqualified). Time 16 seconds.

440-yard dash—Sweet (Illinois) first; Schlappizzi (Illinois) second; McNatt (Texas) third. Time 52 seconds.

Two mile run—Wharton (Illinois) first; Scott (Illinois) second; Swanson (Illinois) third. Time 9:52 1-5.

220-yard low hurdles—S. H. Wallace (Illinois) first; H. S. Wallace (Illinois) second; Sapp (Texas) third. Time 27 1-5.

880-yard run—Klopper (Illinois) first; Yates (Illinois) second; Hawley (Texas) third. Time 2:3.

One mile relay—Illinois first. Time 3:32.

Pole vault—Collins and Chandler of Illinois tied for first, Johnson (Texas) third. Height 11 feet.

High jump—Osborne (Illinois) first; Smith (Texas) second; Pendergrass (Texas) third. Height 5:3.

Broad jump—Osborne (Illinois) first; Johnson (Illinois) second; Hackler (Texas) third. Distance 21:8 5-8.

Shot put—Cannon (Illinois) first; Coughlin (Illinois) second; Carlson (Illinois) third. Distance 33:3.

Discus throw—Carlson (Illinois) first; Coughlin (Illinois) second; Ward (Texas) third. Distance 123 feet.

Javelin throw—Anger (Illinois) first; Carlson (Illinois) second; Gilstrap (Texas) third. Distance 183 5 1-2.

FRESHMAN RUNS HALF MILE IN TWO FLAT

Jim Reese, freshman track star, ran the half mile in two minutes flat yesterday afternoon on Clark Field, during a practice race.

The freshman, whose stride is one of the prettiest ever seen on a Southwestern Conference track, made the first quarter in 58 seconds, and the second quarter in 62 seconds. He was running easily at the finish. Varsity track fans are counting on some broken records next year when Reese is eligible for the Varsity track combination.

SCENES OF BOLIVIA WILL BE EXHIBITED

Through the courtesy of the Pan-American Union of Washington and under the auspices of the Austin Pan-American Round Table and the University Public Lectures committee, scenes of Bolivia will be shown on the screen at the Y. M. C. A. auditorium, Monday evening at 8 o'clock.

The pictures will show the superb Andean scenery, scenes on the Lake Titicaca, views of La Paz, the capital, and other cities, and views showing the economic and cultural development of the country as a whole.

Mr. Robert Crosby, who will have charge of a luncheon conference of the Austin-Pan-American Round Table on Bolivia at the Driskill on Monday, will preside at the entertainment Monday evening.

NEW PLAN FOR VESPER SERVICES IS INITIATED

Conducted in the open air according to the newly-arranged plan for the rest of the spring, the Y. W. C. A. vesper services were held Monday at 7 p. m. in the grass court between the Woman's Building and the Woman's Gymnasium. Porter Lou Calhoun was the leader for the evening.

Except for the usual hymns the entire program consisted of an interpretation of the twenty-third Psalm, by Alexa Rhea. After declaring her belief that it was "the perfect acknowledgment of God's care of us," she explained each cause and related its personification of a shepherd's care of his flock.

About thirty girls were present at the sunset devotional.

FRATERNITY TENNIS

Winning consistently, Lambda Chi Alpha defeated Acacia Monday in two sets of tennis. The Lambda Chi team was composed of Leissner and Smalley; and Acacia was represented by Foster and Potter. In each set the score was 6-0.

HORNADAY WRITES ON LABOR IN FAR EAST

In the January issue of the Trans-Pacific, a magazine of international service covering the Far East and Australia, and published in Tokyo, Japan, appears an article by W. D. Hornaday, director of publicity and instructor in the department of journalism of the University.

The article bears the title, "Labor Shortage Means Huge Loss to Hawaii."

It deals with the movement for admission of alien workers to Hawaii, and the labor situation affecting sugar which is back of the movement. Material for the feature was gathered by Mr. Hornaday while he was a delegate to the Press Congress of the World, held last fall in Honolulu.

SAMMONS WINS MENTION FROM BEAUX ARTS CLUB

Edward House Sammons of Austin, student in the college of engineering, recently received honorable mention by the New York Society of the Beaux Art Club on a drawing submitted to them. Announcement of the mention was made in a letter to S. E. Gideon of the school of architecture. The drawing submitted by Sammons was a design called an "Italian Agraftito Cascade."
