LAST STUDENT RALLY BEFORE
A. & M. GAME WEDNESDAY NIGHTJOHN KEEN WILL BE ONLY SPEAKERThirty-Minute Meeting Begins at 7:15 at Men's Gym

The last psychic wave of "For Texas I Will" spirit will be directed by students toward the Longhorn team Monday night, when the last student rally is held in the Men's Gym at 7:15.

John Keen, an ex-student and member of the Athletic Council, who is now advertising manager of the Austin Statesman, will make a short talk. He will be the only speaker, and the rally will last only thirty minutes.

The Monday rally will be the last for students only, Bob Payne, yell-leader, said Saturday, as the Wednesday night rally will be presided over by ex-students, with prominent exes as speakers. "We've got to come out 100 per cent strong at this rally," he said, "for the team will be looking to us more than to anyone else for its will to win spirit."

BETA ALPHA PSI
INITIATES FOUR

Beta Alpha Psi, honorary accounting fraternity, held initiation ceremonies at the Stephen F. Austin Hotel, Thursday, and initiated the following: C. P. Sheffield, Ignacio Garza, and E. M. Harris. A. C. Up-leger of Waco, chairman of the State Board of Examiners of Certified Public Accountants, was initiated as an honorary member.

Following the initiation a banquet was given in the east room of the hotel, C. D. Simmons, vice president of Beta Alpha Psi, acting as toast-master. Dean Spurgeon Bell of the School of Business Administration welcomed the new members and outlined the purposes of the organization. He was followed by Mr. Up-leger who gave a talk on the work of the Certified Public Accountant and the ethics of the profession.

Admission into active membership in the organization requires a high scholastic standing, and an interest in the accounting profession. Each applicant is required to pass a rigid examination upon accounting theory and practice, auditing and business law.

Turtle Club Working on Stunts for Deep
Eddy Exhibition

Although cold weather puts an end to swimming for the most co-eds, the Turtle Club, according to Juliette Pagenstacher, thinks the colder the weather and the water the better. The Turtle Club is at present working up new stunts and games for their largest event of the year, an exhibition to be given in the spring at Deep Eddy.

The Turtle Club is concerned not only with swimming but also with other activities. They are sponsoring the Red Cross Drive. By their efforts many subscriptions have been secured but before the end of the drive on Wednesday they hope to increase their subscriptions greatly.

REGENTS SUSPEND CAR
RULING AT UNIVERSITY

Action Taken So That Better
Solution May Be Worked Out

Because of the confusion existing in the minds of many regarding the status of the automobile regulation at the University, Dean L. H. Hubbard has given to The Texan the following statement:

"At the request of President W. M. W. Splawn, the Board of Regents recently suspended the automobile rule. This was done so that the student body and faculty may have further opportunity to study such regulations and to work out something which will meet the situation in the University of Texas. Through the proper channels the students and faculty are being called upon to consider the situation and to formulate such a rule as may be desirable and practicable of enforcement."

RANGER TO BE ISSUED ON THANKSGIVING DAY

Former Students Have Made
Contributions to Home-
Coming Edition

Plans are being made to distribute the home-coming edition of The Texas Ranger, comic magazine, on Thanksgiving-Day, according to Morris Midkiff, editor. Many jokes, cartoons, and poem have been submitted by and poems have been submitted by this issue, it is stated. Mildred Connor of Dallas, has contributed two cartoons; Polly Thompson of San Angelo, has sent in some poems and jokes; and Julian Brazelton of Tyler, last year's editor, has designed the cover.

Letters were sent to the members of the staff of the Coyote, the University humorous magazine from 1908-11, asking them to submit contributions to the Thanksgiving issue. Several contributions were received from them.

SMITH TO CONDUCT CHAPEL

W. A. (Block) Smith will have charge of chapel service this week.

Singers selected from the University Men's Glee Club will render special numbers at the Monday morning exercises.

The services are held throughout the week, except Sunday, in Main Building 157. They begin every morning at 8:35 o'clock.

DEBATE TRYOUTS
DRAW NUMBERS

Three Will Be Selected to Represent Texas Against Oxford

Intercollegiate debate tryouts met in the Law Building auditorium at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon and received their numbers for the tryouts to be held December 5. The speeches on that occasion will be limited to five minutes and there will be no rebuttals. There will be seven judges and three men will be selected to debate against the Oxford team when it comes to Austin. These three selections, along with the next nine selected, will enter the final tryouts January 20.

The order of the tryout December 5 will be as follows: J. M. Bashara, R. W. McDonald, M. Wise, Gordon Marsh, B. Woodall, Edwin Davis, Joyce Cox, Ty Cobb, G. D. Sansing, Paul Bledsoe, J. R. Hamilton, J. P. Hart, J. A. Gscho, W. Hughes, Raymond Gerhardt, Ed Gossett, C. B. Beard, B. A. Shanblum, M. O. Rogers, T. A. Rouse, Glen R. Lewis, S. A. Crowley, Wilson Calvin, E. A. Mather.

RECEPTION PLANS
MADE BY CO-EDS

Council Pledges Aid in Receiving Thanksgiving
Day Guests

The Co-ed Council met Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Dean of Women's office, at which time plans for the Thanksgiving Reception were discussed. By vote of those present it was decided that all girls of the University would pledge themselves as hostesses for the occasion. The girls are to be distributed through the building.

Members of the Y. W. C. A. cabinet will be in the Y. W. C. A. room with Miss Spears and faculty members. Seniors and sophomores will be in the Girls Study Hall, juniors and freshmen in the Y. W. C. A. reading room and W. A. A. girls in the office of the dean of women.

The checking room will be in charge of the Reed Music Society, Ashbel Literary Society, Turtle Club, Newman Club and Orchestras.

At the south entrance of the Main Building guests will be met by members of Orange Jackets, Women's Council and Student Assembly.

JOURNALISM STUDENTS HAVE GOOD POSITIONS

The Journalism 12 class is making progress in their work according to W. D. Hornaday. There are forty-seven in the class, with about an equal number of men and women.

As an illustration of the practical benefits derived from this course, Mr. Hornaday said that 80 per cent of his former students have good positions; some being located in New York, London, San Francisco, and many other places.

THREE BANDS TO LEAD

Cowboys, Orange Jackets,
Regents, and Others to Participate

Governor Pat M. Neff will deliver the dedication address at the formal opening of the Texas Memorial Stadium at 1:45 Thanksgiving Day. The Longhorn-Aggie game is set to start at 2:30, and all of the ceremonies will be completed by that time.

The dedication procession will form at the south end of the stadium field promptly at 1:30 p. m. The procession will move forward to the stands on the field at 1:45 p. m.

The complete program, with the order of procession, is as follows:

1. Procession.
  2. Invocation by the Rt. Rev. G. H. Kinsolving.
  3. Dedictory address by Governor Pat M. Neff.
  4. Raising of the United States and Texas flags.
  5. Star Spangled Banner.
  6. Salute to the colors.
  7. The Eyes of Texas.
- The order of procession is:
1. A. & M. Band.
  2. Freshman Band.
  3. Longhorn Band.
  4. The Texas Cowboys.
  5. The Orange Jackets.
  6. Governor Pat M. Neff, Governor-elect Miriam A. Ferguson, Bishop Kinsolving, President W. B. Bizzell, President W. M. W. Splawn.
  7. Board of Regents of the University of Texas.
  8. Faculties of the University of Texas and of A. & M. College represented by their deans, and the representatives of other institutions.
  9. Athletic Council of the University of Texas, staff, and coaches.
  10. Officers of the Students' Association, members of the Students' Assembly and Councils.
  11. Officers of the Ex-Students' Association.
  12. The group of thirty-students who inaugurated the stadium movement.
  13. The Board of Directors of the Stadium Association and other stadium officials, including architect, superintendent, and contractors, and chairmen of local stadium campaigns.
  14. Texas and A. & M. cheer leaders, former cheer leaders, former captains of athletic teams, and members of the T Association.

There is in the career of Ruth Cross, who is visiting the University this week, much to encourage that large body of students who are working their way through school and to stimulate to continued effort those who can see no immediate or early reward for years spent in building a broad foundation

MISS CROSS ENGAGED IN HER FAVORITE
PASTIME OF INTERIOR DECORATING

Success of Ruth Cross Came
After Years Spent in Labor,
Study, and Constant Writing

Ruth Cross is a Texas country product, reared in the cotton farming district of Lamar County, which she depicts so accurately in the opening chapters of "The Golden Cocoon." In her childhood her father was a country doctor, with a large practice and the small pay of most country doctors, but she was given a high school education at Paris that won for her a scholarship in the University of Texas and fired her with an ambition for higher education. Coming to the University with limited funds, she found it necessary to "teach awhile and go to school awhile," but that only deepened the coveted degree and made it all the more to be prized. While at the University her eyesight failed to such an extent that she had to engage other students to read to her, but that handicap brought about the exercise of greater concentration in whatever she undertook.

Miss Cross has been visiting last week in Paris, Dallas, and Galveston, which will be used as a background for her next book, 30 chapters of which are already written, and which will be published next August.

Seniors may get cards Monday which will be necessary for admittance. Seniors will distribute the cards in the Main Building, the Law Building, and the Engineering Building Monday. Students other than seniors will be admitted for $3.50 and Austin people will pay $1.00. The charge is necessary due to the large expense of bringing Miss Cross to Texas from New York by the Students Association and the Ex-Students Association. Tickets will be on sale at the Co-op Monday.

ENGINEERS TO MEET

The American Society of Civil Engineers will meet Monday night at 7:15. Major Cook of the United States Geological Survey will talk on "The Steps Taken in Making Geological Surveys."

Major Cook has been in the service of the Survey Department for many years.

OUT A. & M. 33-42

El Paso Runner Negotiates
Four Miles in 19 Minutes,
57 1-2 Seconds

Sandy Esquivel, youthful harrier star from El Paso, blossomed into his full possibilities as a runner yesterday when he negotiated the four-mile Texas course in the record time of 19 minutes, 57 1-2 seconds, as the Longhorns won their second successive cross country title, the first time that a Southwest conference team has turned that trick. The Orange quintet easily outclassed the field, five of McLean's team finishing among the first eleven.

By yesterdays victory the Longhorns reversed tables with their strongest rivals, the Texas Aggies, who on their home course the Saturday previous had administered a defeat to the Orange quint 24-31. Had yesterdays engagement been a dual contest the Longhorns would have been victorious by exactly the same score, but with one S. M. U. Mustang coming in before the last pair of Aggies, the Longhorns were enabled to finish nine points ahead of the runners 33-42.

By placing men fifth and seventh the Oklahoma Aggies held their score down to 63 and placed third, S. M. U. came in fourth with 78 points and Rice placed a pitiful last with 128.

Royall ace man of the Texas Aggies, pushed Esquivel hard until the very end. The two entered the home stretch with the Aggie leading by inches but Esquivel managed to nose him out before the finish. Not very far behind was Captain Coale, who also lowered his old course record of twenty-one flat. Captain Gillespie of the Texas Aggies was next and Meadows of the Sooner Aggies was fifth. Following are the first fourteen men.

1. Esquivel, Texas.
2. Royall, Texas Aggies.
3. Coale, Texas.
4. Gillespie, Texas Aggies.
5. Meadows, Okla. A. & M.
6. Hooper, S. M. U.

SMALL NUMBER OF STUDENTS REPORT

Response in Last Stadium Campaign Not as Great as Expected

MCGILL ASKS FOR ACTION

Sigma Eta Chi and Penny's Lead List in Second Day Pledges

Though two of the four report days of the Each One Get One Campaign have already passed, the total for the campaign Saturday night stood only at $1647 and the number of those making reports only 55, an increase of but 14 over the total Friday. This means that approximately five per cent of the $30,000 has been raised and that about one and two-tenths per cent of the student body have assisted in raising the sum.

"To put this campaign over in the big way in which it should go we must have more pledges and have them quick," Wm. L. McGill, state chairman, declared Saturday. "The total for this great University is pitifully small as it now stands in this last campaign, this being in startling contrast to the splendid showings made in the earlier campaigns."

Two substantial pledges were reported during the day, however, one being an organization pledge and the other from a downtown firm. Sigma Eta Chi, the local chapter of which has been installed since the first campaign, announced through Herbert Craft its organization pledge of $500. The employees of the J. C. Penny company pledged $100 as their contribution to the stadium.

An editorial printed recently in the Houston Post-Dispatch is reported by Harry L. Cross, stadium worker who returned Friday from Houston, to be causing much comment in that city. The editorial is directed at the ex-students, declaring that they, as a body, should be feeling "a bit

THALHEIMER AND BELL TO MEET TUESDAY IN CITY TENNIS FINALS

Veteran Will Match With Against Youthful High School Star

Louis Thalheimer and Berkley Bell, youthful Austin set star, will meet in the finale of the annual city tennis tournament Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 on the Varsity squad courts. By virtue of his win over Albert Love, 6-4, 8-6, 6-4, in the semi-finals match, Bell won the right to meet Thalheimer for the city title. Thalheimer defeated Wilkerson in straight sets, 6-3, 6-2, 6-4.

The finals promises to be one of the best ever played in a city tournament. Varsity versus high school, Thalheimer captaining the Longhorn squad, while Bell leads the Maroons. Young Bell's climb to the finals was a surprise to many of the court followers, as he faced a hard draw, defeating Lloyd Gregory, former Longhorn racketeer, Terrell Sledge, Varsity court man, and Albert Love, another Longhorn racketeer.

Thalheimer won his right to the finals easily, downing all opposition in easy fashion and displaying his best only when pushed. In Bell, Captain Thalheimer will meet a worthy opponent, as Bell plays a tantalizing chop game, difficult to drive and hard to return. The Longhorn net man will have to extend himself to win a decisive victory over the high school lad.

On account of conflicting engagements, the doubles have not been run off as fast as was first expected. The semi-finals will be played Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 and the finals will be completed Wednesday. Results of today's matches are as follows: Thalheimer & Wilkerson, 6-3, 6-2, 6-4. Bell & Love, 6-4, 8-6, 6-4. Only one doubles match was played. Funkhouser and Love & Wilkerson and Hightower in a loosely-played match, 6-4, 6-1.

Departmental Cross Country Meet Will Be Staged Friday

The departmental cross country meet will be held Friday, December 5 on a two and one-half mile course. Respective departments may enter as many contestants as they wish, and the first three men finishing for each department will figure in scoring. The team scoring the least number of points will win the meet, according to Berry M. Whitaker, director of intramural athletics.

Intramural Teams to Have Use of Gym

Beginning after Christmas, each contesting team of the Intramural basketball leagues will be allowed full use of the gymnasium for two, one half hour practice periods weekly, by applying to Berry M. Wittaker, Director of Intramural Athletics.

Intramural basketball this year will be divided into three leagues: Fraternity league, which will include all fraternities in the University; Departmental League, composed of all departments; and Independent League, recruited from boarding houses, dormitories, or any independent University faction.

The fraternity playing schedule, which will be given out at the meeting of the Intra-Fraternity Athletic Council Monday, will begin Monday following Thanksgiving, and each fraternity will play two games before Christmas, and three after Christmas. Departmental schedule will start immediately after Christmas holidays, and departmental games will be played on Saturdays, as certain raises for Varsity matches. Independent League schedule will also commence soon after Christmas.

LARGEST CROWD IN HISTORY TO SEE OLD RIVALS BATTLE

By Victor Emanuel

Even though the Longhorn-Aggie clash is not the title battle this year, and even though the Orange has no chance whatever at the pennant and the Maroon only an outside one that will depend on three games resulting in a pre-arranged fashion in which two will be upsets of the dope, the eyes of the Lone Star state and of eyes of the Lone Star state and of the annual Texas-Texas A. & M. clash Thanksgiving; and it is expected that the largest crowd that has ever witnessed an athletic contest in Dixie will be present at the dedication of the new Texas Memorial Stadium.

According to athletic director L. Theo. Belmont nearly 32,000 seats have already been sold for the big clash and it is expected that by Wednesday night the entire capacity of 35,000 will be disposed of and only standing room be remaining. This is one season, the first since 1919, that the Texas Aggies will enter the clash a heavy paper favorite. Man for man the Aggies have perhaps the stronger team. They have perhaps the best defensive line in the conference and a backfield that leads the circuit in scoring even though it has fallen down in critical stages. Opposed to this the Longhorns have the most in and out team in the world, playing good ball one Saturday and indifferent the next. The brightest spot in the Longhorn season is the 7-7 tie with Florida, probably the strongest eleven in Dixie, and on that day the Longhorns could have trimmed any eleven in the conference except possibly Baylor. But on the following Saturday they played miserable football against Rice and as a team their work against Baylor could hardly be called brilliant.

COMPARATIVE SCORES GIVE BIBLE'S ELEVEN HUGE EDGE

Comparative scores, which mean little as proof but are excellent analogies for illustration show that the Aggies ought to have all the better of the argument. The rivals have five opponents in common this year and against each of them Dana Bible's team has the best record. The Aggies defeated Southwestern 54-0; the best Texas could do was twenty-seven points. The Aggies smothered T. C. U. 28-0, fifteen points more than Texas could pile up. The Aggies trimmed Rice 13-6 and Rice severely turned tables on Texas 19-6. The Aggies tied S. M. U. 7-7 and Texas lost to the Mustangs 6-10. Only one team has defeated the Aggies, Baylor, and the Bears trimmed the Longhorns much more decisively 28-10.

It must be admitted however that in most of the games the score does an injustice to the Texas eleven. In many ways the Longhorns played much better football against T. C. U. than the Aggies did always having the game in their control and allowing the Frogs but one earned first down. Likewise any breaks at all could have turned the Mustang-Texas game upside down, for while the Mustangs outplayed the Longhorns there was not as much difference between the play of the two schools as between the Mustangs and the Aggies, still the Aggies managed to get a tie. The Aggies overwhelming margin over Southwestern is due to the fact that this year it has been Bible's policy to run up huge scores in early games as a means of developing an offense that failed notoriously against Baylor and S. M. U.

BOTH ELEVEN'S TO PRESENT STRONGEST LINEUP OF YEAR

Everyone agrees that it will be a stronger Longhorn team that will enter the Turkey Day clash; likewise a stronger Aggie team. When Bible and Stewart began to see that they had no real chance for the conference title they began to tie up their bag of tricks for the big Thanksgiving clash. Not that, either mentor might have won another game, but Texas could if necessary have scored an extra touchdown against the Horned Frogs while certainly Bible did not show everything he had against T. C. U. and Rice, a policy that might have proved disastrous in the latter case but for Heisman's hasty judgment.

Included in the Aggie line-up will be Allison, one of the best ends in the conference; Waugh mentioned prominently for all conference tackle; Dansby, Brazelton and Forgason who rival the famous Baylor trio of Sisco, Walker and Biggs for the best line center in the conference.

Mule Wilson according to Jinx Tucker of the Waco News-Tribune, will deal the Longhorns as much misery as Marley is expected to give the Aggies. The big back is the best punter in the conference save Pittman, and is also a star line buck-er accounting for eleven Aggie touchdowns including those against Sewanee and S. M. U. Then there is the shifty Kishi, a great ground gainer and defensive back and the speedy Berry at quarter who by overtaking the fleet Bedford on the Aggie one yard line saved the S. M. U. game for his team. Also Mit Dansby, who can pass and punt is not to be forgotten.

Added to this the Aggies will be keyed to the highest pitch fighting for their Captain Silent Miller who broke his leg early in the season and was unable to play just as the Longhorns were fighting for the crippled Bluestein.

The Longhorns will have their regular eleven in action for the first time since the Phillips game. Day-vault is almost certain to start at guard allowing Stewart to shift Matt Newell to end where the speedy line-man really belongs. Captain Jim Marley, who needs no introduction as a line plunger, Stud Wright, brilliant punter, passer and field general and Slover, yielding to few at his specialty of interference and at receiving passes will compose three quarters of the backfield and it is rumored that Stewart is preparing a surprise in the person of the fourth man. According to Doc it may be anybody from Schhardt to Stallter and back again.

Both elevens have a chance to make a hitherto rather drab season a partial success. Of course the Aggies as favorites must win but Texas can call a real fight for moral victory although Doc Stewart is hoping for more than that. It is safe to predict only that the game will be a fight and the writer believes that if the Longhorns score first they will win.

CAMPUS CHURCHES TO HOLD JOINT SERVICES THANKSGIVING DAY

Special Program to Feature
Sermon by Rev.
DuBose Murphy

Five University churches will combine in holding joint Thanksgiving services Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the University Presbyterian Church, with special invitations extended to student and to student visitors. Rev. DuBose Murphy, rector of All Saints Chapel, will deliver the sermon and the University Methodist Church choir will give special music. All of the five churches will be represented on the program, although detailed plans are not yet complete, according to Rev. Lawrence Wharton, pastor of the University Presbyterian Church and in charge of preparations.

Churches who will take part in the joint service are the University Methodist, Baptist, Presbyterian, Congregational, and All Saints Chapel.

Other campus churches will hold services featuring special music and sermons on appropriate themes either today or on Thanksgiving Day. St. Martin's Lutheran Church announce a Thursday morning meeting at 7 o'clock with Rev. F. G. Roesner in charge. The University Church of Christ will have "Thanksgiving" as the topic of discussion at Wednesday evening prayer meeting at 7:30 p. m. The Christian Science Society will

Will Parade up Congress Avenue on Morning Before Big Game

On November 27 the Aggies will migrate to the Capitol City of Texas, the scene of the dedicatory exercises that will grace the opening of the gigantic Memorial Stadium of the University built in honor of Texas students who served in the War. Four special trains will bring them to Austin where by their presence they will lend fight to their football team.

They will leave College Station at 7 o'clock and arrive here at about 10:45.

Upon arriving at the station here, the corps will detain and march down Congress Avenue to the Capitol. The cadets will not carry arms and will march in columns of platoons.

They will leave Austin, defeated or victorious as fate may decree, 7 o'clock that night. hold Thanksgiving services Thursday morning at 10:30 a. m., and St. Paul's Lutheran Church also announces a Thursday morning meetin.

JIMMIE'S JOYS HERE WEDNESDAY

Will Play for Thanksgiving German Wednesday Night

The annual Thanksgiving German will be given at the K. C. Hall on Wednesday night before Thanksgiving. It will last from 9 until 1, and perhaps the most important feature of the affair is the statement, given out by Arthur Mueller, president of the German Club, that Jimmie's Joys orchestra will furnish the music.

This will be the first appearance of this orchestra here since rush week, when they played for two of the Germans, and their coming will be especially appreciated by the students and ex-students.

WE WELCOME THE EX-STUDENTS

Ex-students have started coming in for the Thanksgiving days, and during the week there will be thousands of former students to return to the forty acres. In a way, the present students are guests and the alumni are our hosts. During this week should not welcome the thousands of visitors as strangers, but in the spirit of friendliness a guest extends to his host.

AMONG THE WORTHWHILE QUALITIES

The Cap and Gown banquet Friday night was one of the most and interesting affairs held at the University in a long time. The seniors classified their celebrities and named the girls were most to be admired, best natured, wittiest, done most exas, most scholarly, most original, hardest worker, etc. The seniors believe the greatest of these honors is the one who has done for Texas, which went to Miss Rachel Dunaway. It is to be that the seniors elected the best natured girl, which honor to Miss Joyce Garrett. To have a good disposition is something to be prized very highly, and it deserves prominence among the qualities a girl or boy can possess. Miss Dorothy Fisher and Miss Ruth McMillan tied for the most original girl. Originality deserves to rank among the quality most to be desired, too. The Cap and Gown of 1924-25 has a bevy of remarkable girls.

CHURCH ATTENDANCE

The story is told that one time a preacher delivered a series of sermons on church attendance and was severely criticised by members. They told him he was talking to the wrong crowd should deliver his lectures on this subject to people who do not go to church. If a church fails to have large and interested congregations, it is the fault of the members and it is not because the world is growing worse. When we have a guest in our fraternity or sorority house, we try to make him feel welcome and at home. We are willing to show him almost any hospitality to make him feel good and want to return. The way to make the go-to-church movement a success is for members to make the visitors feel welcome and happy that came. If a visitor is properly welcomed at any church, in probability he will return the following Sunday. Fishers and officials at University churches are very cordial and hospitable, but it is also the duty of every member to stop shake hands with the visitors. If a church member does not treat the student next to him, he should introduce himself, treat cordially and interestedly, and make him want to come back. If members would do this, our University churches would be crowded every Sunday.

FATIFICATION

The Lass-O (C. I. A.): Now that Thanksgiving approaches, many of us are beginning to wonder how much dieting it will take to make that 26-inch waistline look comfortable in that size 24 dress. You can depend on the girls to be wondering how they will look after Thanksgiving dinner, when they forget the palatable part of Thanksgiving, but even if they combine with that thought the doubt as to whether they will look as good after Thanksgiving dinner, when they forget the restrictions of their diet schemes, as before they sat down at a savory meal. Would young gentlemen of the same age have any qualms concerning their looks after dining with energy and persistence? They would not. If they found their waistlines too tight, they would loosen them and forget it. But when a girl has a twenty-six-inch waistline she would rather deplete her than accrete her measurement. There never was before a war on fat as now rages in these sovereign States. Nor ever so much fat to be warred on. Under the terms of the luxury age, with automobiles to prevent walking and mechanical equipment to save arduous housework, the woman of America taking on embonpoint alarmingly. Alarmingly at least if waistlines are undesirable. But are they? Why the rage against fat? In some portions of the world, the fatter a lady is, the more beautiful she is believed to be. Why not? There are no principles in beauty. There is no more reason to regard the fat as being a beautiful type than to regard the stout as being a beautiful type. Is it not indeed something of good fortune for a lady to have just enough adipose tissue from year to year to fill up the lines that might otherwise make tracks on her face?—State in the Dallas News.

panion to a wealthy acquaintance. But all these things were merely a means to the greater end of writing something that publishers and public would gladly accept.

All those long years she wrote, wrote with the assiduity of a musician struggling for mastery of musical art; and all that while her manuscripts were being returned, bringing with them a consciousness that she had not yet made good, but never weakening her determination or lessening her faith in her ultimate success. Although she sold a pitifully few short stories and wrote a scenario that found a producer and attracted some attention, it was not until "The Golden Cocoon" was issued by Harpers that she began to see something of the realization of her dreams in reward for years of incessant struggle.

When at last "The Golden Cocoon" found a publisher, the public, which is nearly always slow to accept at its full worth an author's first book, was quick to recognize that it was the work of a master of the art of story writing, and at once Ruth Cross stood forth among America's favorite fictionists. Nine-tenths of what is called genius is merely steady application to the task in hand, regardless of all retarding obstacles and tempting diversions.

Series of Dances, Formal Affairs and Receptions on Social Calendar

Delta Taus to Have Breakfast Dance at Country Club; Exes Plan Roof Affair Thursday

Thanksgiving festivities will be ushered in with a series of dances and receptions, beginning with two dances on Wednesday, the All-University dance from 9 to 12 at the Women's Gym and the Thanksgiving German from 9 to 1 at the K. C. Hall.

The calendar for the week shows that all the Austin amusement halls and all the campus will be the rendezvous of many University entertainments. Hardly an hour will be wasted, the merry-making beginning on Thanksgiving morning as early as 6 with the Delta Tau Delta dance at the Country Club.

The reception will be from 8 to 10 on the first floor of the Main Building. The Ex-student dance from 9 to 12 in the morning at the Austin Hotel Roof, promises to be a well-attended affair judging from the reports received from exes who will be here for "Home Coming Week."

The only night affair on Thursday is the ball at the Driskill from 10 until 2 o'clock.

Friday's affairs are four in number, two at fraternity chapter houses. The Delta Delta Delta sorority tea-dance will be from 4 to 7 at their new home.

Acacia entertains at the chapter house with an informal dance. Skull and Bones will have a dinner dance at the Country Club. The K. C. Hall will be the scene of an extra German from 9 to 12.

Saturday's events are made up of three night dances and one tea-dance. The Kappa Alpha Thetas will entertain from 3:30 to 6 o'clock at the Country Club.

Phi Sigma Deltas are giving a formal dance at the Country Club from 3:30 to 12. The German Club dance and the All-University dances on Saturday will complete the social calendar for "Turkey-Day" week.

Skull and Bones Enliven Pre-Med Dance

Living up to the program forecasted it, the Pre-Med dance held in the women's Gym Friday night from 9 to 12 o'clock, furnished all the rigors of soul, writing of spirits, gooseumps, chilblains, delirium tremens, other phases of epileptic contortions that could possibly be brought out by having a "dead un" lead the grand march.

Among the flickering shadows afforded by the cleverly concealed lights, with skull and cross-bones glaring from every corner, Jack Reed glided to his place at the head of the column of potential Mayos, waiting his fair lady's pleasure. The agony and despair of a jilted bridegroom alone could equal that of the courageous Reed when the lady in question did not appear. Alas! It seemed that he would have to surrender the extreme honor bestowed on him in being allowed to trip the light fantastic, when lo, to the stately measures of a funeral dirge, six of his brother medics appeared in the stances bearing between them the ill-tale black pine box, containing the remains of his lady love. Accompanying them in all the grimness suitable for the occasion, others of the pre-med body, armed with hammers, saws and pumps, feeling for their brother in despair, sought to vivify the damsel. The wonders of modern science were soon exploited in the person of Miss Helen as emerged from the depths of the box and took her place at the head of the fainting Reed.

Then, to the lively strains evoked from the strangled instruments by Jives Gardner's veterans, disciples of Jazz tread the polished boards in riotous cotillion formations, death struggles and wrestling matches. To further ensnare the unsuspecting attendants, the committee headed by Hunt provided serpentine and miffetti. Sponsors and chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Williams, Mrs. Wright and Mrs. Glendora.

Janier Edmunston of Crockett, will be at the Sigma Chi house during Thanksgiving.

Phi Beta Phi will entertain with a dance on Monday in honor of Miss Anita Bass of New Orleans, who is the province president of the territory.

Marjorie Duffy has withdrawn from the University and returned to home on Long Island, New York. She is a member of the Chi Omega sorority.

SMART FOOTWEAR

Starred by Fashion

"For afternoon, dainty strap and gore effects are the thing," says Dame Fashion and emphasizes her remark with a star. For informal dress occasions she stars gleaming Silppers of gold and silver; while for walking, tailored pumps, oxfords and straps win her star of merit. All these smart styles are represented here.

Patent Shines Bright

Almost deserving a special star all its own is footwear of glistening Patent. For it may be worn with propriety on so many occasions. Simple patent pumps with pert bow-ties, patent gore Silppers, and dainty strap designs are smart for street wear, yet are quite the thing for afternoon affairs also.

SALLY FIELDS IS HEADLINER MONDAY

Stan Stanley Also Stars on Vaudeville Bill at Hancock

A little bit of everything—dancing, opera, jazz, singing, comedy and athletic feats—is combined to make the vaudeville program that opens at the Hancock Monday one of variety. The bill that snaps into action, has according to advance comment more variety than any other bill that's been down this way thus far this season.

One of the foremost violinists deserts the concert tour for vaudeville. Duci de Kerekjarto is the violin virtuoso who has covered himself with glory and medals for his bowing.

Stan Stanley, who styles himself as "Nature's Nobleman in the Theater," is another bright spot on the diversified program. Stan is a favorite in vaudeville. He'll be remembered here for his spontaneous comedy combustion.

The speed of the bill is increased with advent of Sally Fields on the stage. Fiss Fields is a ragtime girl—a dancing singing comedienne. Syncopated melodies have made Miss Fields a favorite.

Evelyn Phillips is a dancer who has a comedy vein. In her act this season she is assisted by Eddie Simms and Joe Devaney.

One of the big laugh spots on the Hancock program tomorrow is filled by McDevitt, Kelly and Quinn, who offer "The Piano Movers and the Actress." It's a laughable sketch that introduces a couple of piano moving clowns and an actress.

LOIS WILSON IS STAR AT QUEEN

"The Covered Wagon" Returns for Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday

A cast selected absolutely for type was chosen for "The Covered Wagon," a James Cruze production for Paramount of the famous Emerson Hough novel which will be on view at the Queen Theater next Monday.

Lois Wilson plays the heroine—Molly Wingate, a typical girl of the frontier days, beautiful, big of soul and with the bravery and stamina that the wild experiences of the caravan times demanded.

James Warren Kerrigan is seen as Will Banion, the intrepid leader whose sterling qualities win through in the face of impending disgrace and hold the heart of Molly despite the efforts of a rival to blacken his character. The rival, Sam Woodhull, is portrayed by Allan Hale, noted screen villain. Mr. Wingate is played by Charles Ogle, noted member of Paramount Stock Company and Mrs. Wingate by Ethel Wales.

'CLASSMATES' TO SHOW AT MAJESTIC

Richard Barthelmess Starring Last Three Days of Week

"Classmates," the latest picture produced starring Richard Barthelmess, will be presented at the Majestic Theater on next Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

"Classmates" takes its plot from an outstanding stage success. As a play its dramatic love story packed the theaters of America for many seasons. And what a story for the screen artistry of a Barthelmess with his wistful, playful, gallant moods and flames of white-hot spirit. The boy's bashful adoration of the girl who does not know—his dream of West Point, that he may become a hero and win her—his dream realizes—his triumphs as a cadet and his wonderful moment with her. Then sudden misunderstanding—unmerited disgrace—and the scene shifts to a dramatic situation in the tropical jungle—hardships and heroisms—which win back the girl.

THEATER CALENDAR
Hancock—Vaudeville Bill,
Majestic—Marion Davies in "Yolanda."
Queen—Lois Wilson in "The Covered Wagon."
Texas—Jackie Coogan in "Daddy."

'MANHATTAN' TO SHOW AT QUEEN

Richard Dix Will Be Star With Jacqueline Logan

All who enjoy real fast-moving action-drama will be right in their glory when Richard Dix's first Paramount starring picture, "Manhattan," opens at the Queen Theater on Thursday for a run of 3 days. The story is an adaptation by Paul Sloane and Frank Tuttle of the novel, "The Definite Object," by Jeffery Farnol.

The star has the role of Peter Minut whose great-great-grandfather purchased the island of Manhattan from the Indians and Peter is all for giving it back to them. "There might be some life in the old town then," says he.

"THE COVERED WAGON"

"The Covered Wagon" starring Lois Wilson and Warren Kerrigan will show at the Queen Theater on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

This is a famous picture having a historical background which is well worked out.

'YOLANDA' STARS MARION DAVIES

Will Appear at Majestic on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday

The first Marion Davies picture to be released since "Little Old New York," in which she achieved one of the biggest successes in the history of motion pictures, is a screen version of Charles Major's romance of the daughter of Charles the Bold, Prince of Burgundy, "Yolanda." This photoplay has been looked for a 3 days' showing at the Majestic Theater and will have its initial screening on Monday. In "Yolanda" she reveals a charm of personality, a resourcefulness in technique, a mastery pan-tomime that even surpasses her work in "Little Old New York" and "Knighthood."

In this romantic masterpiece of the cinema art, Miss Davies is said to achieve new heights in her subtle characterization of the charming Princess Mary of Burgundy, daughter of Charles the Bold, who whimsically impersonates the character of Yolanda, a burgher maid, in order to test the sincerity of the love of her impetuous admirer, Maximilian of Styria.

All-University Thanksgiving Ball, Driskill Hotel, Thanksgiving Evening, 10-2. Capacity positively limited 500 couples. Tickets at Co-op $3.00. Buy yours now.

DOROTHY MACKAIL COMES TO HANCOCK

"Mine With the Iron Door" Is Adapted From Wright's Novel

When the motion picture theatergoers of Austin go to the Hancock Theater next Thursday, Friday and Saturday to see Sol Lesser's production for Principal Pictures of "The Mine With the Iron Door," adapted from Harold Bell Wright's latest and most popular novel, they are going to see their favorite film actress, Dorothy Mackail, in a new role.

Heretofore this popular young star has appeared in roles where she wore for the most part beautiful costumes and gowns of the most up-to-date model. But in "The Mine With the Iron Door," in which she has the featured feminine role, Miss Mackail has abandoned the ballroom costume for clothes of the "open country."

BIETER RETURNS FROM CONVENTION

Texas Delegate Makes Report on National Meeting of Sigma Delta Chi

Definite action toward the establishment of an endowment fund for the Quill, official publication, and granting of charters to groups at the University of California and Drake University, Des Moines, Iowa, were the outstanding features of the tenth annual national convention of Sigma Delta Chi, profession journalistic fraternity, according to A. J. Bieter, delegate from the Texas chapter, who has just returned from the convention at the University of Indiana.

Thirty-one universities and college chapters were represented by accredited delegates, and there were delegates from six alumni chapters, Chicago, Pittsburg, New York, Indianapolis, Des Moines and St. Louis.

Bieter Serves as Chairman

The first day of the convention was taken up largely by work in committees. Bieter of Texas served as chairman of the committee to audit the books of the national officers. At 5 p. m. the convention was entertained at tea by President and Mrs. Bryan of the University of Indiana and were then guests at a banquet given by the University of Indiana chapter of Sigma Delta Chi. In the evening the delegates were entertained at a dance given by Theta Sigma Phi, women's journalistic fraternity.

Committee Reports

On the morning of the second day the convention began consideration of committee reports. At noon the delegates were luncheon guests of the Indiana students union.

On the last day of the convention a short business session was held in the morning, preceding the first address by Willis J. Abbot. He entitled his address, "Headlining Happiness," and expressed the belief that the more conservative type of paper would be the ultimate American standard.

Convention Adjourns

At 11 a. m. the convention adjourned to Indianapolis, where they were guests of the Indianapolis papers at the Lincoln Hotel. The election of officers and their installation was the final business of the convention. Following the final session a sumptuous banquet was given by the Indianapolis Times, and the Star and News provided a theater party at Keith's.

Ex-Student News

BY DOROTHY ANN FISHER

The University of Texas is now in its forty-second year. More than 10,000 have received degrees from the University; more than 20,000 others have attended the different schools and colleges who did not continue until they obtained degrees. All living ex-students should return they could not possibly be accommodated unless for convocation the new stadium, which they and their friends have so generously rected. The ex-students returning to the campus will doubtless agree at the University has entered upon a new era. The stadium is concrete evidence that the University is to receive the financial support of her sons and daughters. The Scottish Dormitory and the Helen Mary Dormitory, beautiful and altogether serviceable, promise substantial and helpful aid from friends of education, many of whom have had the privilege of being students. The legacies of the late Mr. Littlefield point the way to greater wealth which may be rendered by the University. The completion of the Biology Building awakens hope that a real building program may be financed, and in the near future carried to completion. The more than 5,000 students attending the University prove its popularity. The increasing number who are registered for graduate degrees assure us that we are rapidly developing a graduate school, and that it is possible to make the graduate school one of the most useful in the country. The faculty and the present student body rejoice on this Thanksgiving to welcome the ex-students of the University, and to join them in thankfulness to an all-gracious Providence for the increasing prosperity and growth of our great State and the increasing influence and usefulness to our State of our University.

W. M. W. SPLAWN.

WILLIAM FAVERSHAM

William Faversham and Margaret Anglin, both prominent stars of the legitimate stage will appear at the Hancock on Wednesday evening in "Foot-loose" a comedy by Zoe Akin.

'FOOT-LOOSE' TO COME TO HANCOCK

Margaret Anglin and William Faversham Will Appear Wednesday

Undoubtedly the high water mark of the dramatic season in Austin will be reached with the appearance of Margaret Anglin and William Faversham at the Hancock Theater Wednesday evening in the Zoe Akin drama, "Foot-Loose." The joint appearance of two stars of such importance in a play by a brilliant author, is a combination so rare as to intrigue every theatergoer who appreciates the best in the theater.

While Miss Anglin and Mr. Faversham both won their first distinction with Charles Frohman's famous Empire Theater Company, in New York, his is the first season that these two artists have ever appeared together on tour.

Starting at the age of sixteen, Miss Anglin played many leading roles with the Empire Company, her first success being registered in Bronson Howard's "Shenandoah," and her greatest in "Mrs. Dane's Defense."

Mr. Faversham played his first roles in "The Younger Son," "Sowing the Wind," "The Masqueraders," "The Importance of Being Earnest," "Under the Red Robe," "Phrosia," "Brother Officers" and "Diplomacy."

MENORAH TO HEAR FABER

Rabbi M. Faber of Tyler, a former regent of the University, will address the Menorah Society at its regular meeting this afternoon at 3:30 in Temple Beth Israel. Rabbi Faber has announced that the subject of his talk will be "Life." Rabbi Faber, who is chairman of the Tyler Board of Education, has three children who are ex-students of the University of Texas.

Visitors are invited to attend this afternoon's meeting, according to Morris Wise, president of the society.

RAGNOTS DEFEAT OVER-CONFIDENT FROSH TEAM 12-7

Two Touchdowns Come From Ragged Playing by First Year Men

SMALLEY MAKES LONG RUN

Stallter Shows up Well as Individual Star of Game

Ed Bulestein's Ragnots gained a 12-7 decision over Coach Clyde Littlefield's hitherto undefeated freshman in a listless, raggedly played game yesterday afternoon. The improvised Ragnot line outcharged the overconfident frosh forwards throughout and while the yearlings gained more ground it was due to their overhead attack which with Clyde Littlefield doing the passing as in days of yore proved strong enough at all time to advance the pigskin in midfield by the Ragnot secondary defense always stiffened in time to prevent a score. The lone freshman touchdown came late in the last quarter on a nine yard cut-back by Littlefield. The Ragnots started an argument as to whether the pigskin was over or not with the result that Referee Holton autocratically awarded the extra point to the frosh.

The two Ragnot touchdowns came from very poor work on part of the freshman safeties coupled with the Ragnot forwards carrying out the old principle of follow the ball. In the second quarter Stallter, punted sixty yards to Allen who fumbled, Neblett recovering and running fifteen yards for a touchdown. In the third period Gambill let one of Stallter's punts roll by and Trammel pounced on the pigskin on the one yard line. It was the frosh ball on their one yard line and Gambill punted out of bounds on the ten yard marker. After several passes proved unsuccessful to make the distance Stallter sidestepped through the frosh line for eight yards and a touchdown. On both occasions goal was missed.

Stallter was easily the individual star of the game, punting and passing well and getting away for several long gains through the line. A forty-five yard run "Red Grange style" by Dewey Smalley in the third quarter was the only spectacular play of the day.
