Dear Henryk:

You have not answered my letter of November 2, 1966, inquiring about your work on oysters. I had hoped that I might see you at the GSA meetings, but evidently you could not come. I had a pleasant visit with Gordon Rittenhouse and Bob Perkins.

Typesetting on bivalves continues to go ahead steadily. Are you intending to send me the oysters?

With cordial personal best wishes and greetings of the season,

Sincerely,

Raymond C. Moore
