JOINT INDIA WAR COMMUNIQUE

The following joint war communique No. 54 was received in London from India this morning:-

Yesterday, February 20, Royal Air Force Blenheims, escorted by fighters, attacked Aungbala and Sinbaik on the Mayu Peninsula.

All bombs fell in the target area.

Later other Blenheims bombed several enemy occupied villages north of Akyab.

In the Lower Chindwin our Hurricane fighters shot up railway engines, trucks, bullock carts and a paddle steamer.

In the Kaladan river area small river craft were attacked and sunk.

All our aircraft returned safely.
