

5/6/42 - No. 2

Air Ministry No. 7194

AIR MINISTRY AND MINISTRY OF HOME SECURITY COMMUNIQUE

A single enemy aircraft last night dropped bombs on a coastal town in East Anglia, causing a small number of casualties and damage to houses.

Bombs which fell from other aircraft at various points in coastal areas of North-East England injured one person and caused only slight damage.

One enemy aircraft was destroyed.