

Tuition Raise Seems Likely

By J. C. GOULDEN
Texan News Editor

House Bill 126, which would raise tuition at state-supported colleges to $50 instead of the present $25, goes into committee hearings in the Legislature Tuesday afternoon, with apparently little opposition in sight.

Representative J. O. Gillham, of Brownwood, one of the bill's six sponsors, told The Daily Texan late Saturday that he had heard very few legislators speak unfavorably of the bill.

"About the only opposition I can foresee might come from the several University students in the House," he said.

The bill has an emergency clause that would speed it through committee hearings and to a possible early vote in the House.

A public hearing on the bill will be held at 3 p.m. Tuesday in Committee Room 2 in the House of Representatives.

Any person desiring to voice opinions on the bill may do so by registering with the Clerk of the House Committee on Education before the hearing begins.

The $50 tuition was called for by Governor Allan Shivers in his "State of the State" address early last month. It is designed to give Texas colleges more money for their rising needs.

Strong support given Governor Shivers by the conservative bloc in the House indicates that the bill might have comparatively easy sailing.

The bill also has been approved by UT's president, Logan Wilson, who terms the $50 tuition "not unreasonable."

Washington Exes Invite Longhorns To D.C. Round-Up

Texas Exes in Washington can't come to the University for their annual celebration March 2 so they're taking the University to Washington.

It may not be the entire Forty Acres, but three representatives have been chosen to make the trip.

Barbara Booz, University Sweetheart; Marilyn Bronson, Aqua Carnival Queen; and Fred Whitaker, juggler have been invited already.

These three and possibly others will be in charge of the program for the Texas Ex Club of Washington, and while in the city they'll enjoy a whirlwind tour of the capital. Congressman Frank Ikard is program chairman.

While in Washington the girls will be guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Miller at the Mayflower Hotel. Whitaker will be the guest of Frank Oltrif and stay at the Carlton Hotel.

Mr. Miller and Mr. Oltrif together with Congressman Homer Thornberry are on the committee promoting the program.

The trio will leave Austin March 1 and fly to Washington. They'll return on March 3 after a reception in Speaker Sam Rayburn's offices and the program. They will also be entertained by Senator and Mrs. Lyndon Johnson and Senator and Mrs. Price Daniel.

Bluebonnet Belle Judging Monday

Announcement of the 60 Bluebonnet Belle semi-finalists for the 1955 Cactus will be made in next Sunday's Daily Texan, following judging of the 90 entrants.

The 90 entrants will be judged from 2 to 5 p.m. Monday and Tuesday in Journalism Building 305. The selection of the semi-finalists will be made by Dean Jack Holland, Jitter Nolen, Jerry Wilson, Shirley Strum, Miss Doris Coulter, Gale Adkins, Claude Allen, and Janice Bourdon.

The semi-finalists will be presented at the Round-Up Review.

Senior Receives ADS Scholarship

James E. McCutcheon, senior advertising major, has won the $50 Alpha Delta Sigma scholarship for the spring semester.

Floyd J. Lofton Jr., president of ADS, professional advertising fraternity, made the announcement Saturday. The winner was selected on the basis of grades, all-around advertising ability, and participation in fraternity activities.

The judges were the ADS officers of last semester. A junior advertising major and Daily Texan advertising salesman, Fred D. Burden Jr. was runner-up.

Coffee Meetings Planned by Frosh

The Freshman Council plans to have regular Thursday coffee times beginning February 10 and ending March 24.

The council, which is composed of the entire freshman class, gives the frosh on the campus a chance to get started in student government, to meet other freshmen, and to get acquainted with the Forty Acres.

Various campus organizations will sponsor the coffee periods with each one having a theme. The first program or theme will be devoted. Another coffee will be devoted to Round-Up films.

Dick Chalmers is president of the council and John Barnhill is vice-president. Other officers are Betsy Elliott, secretary; and Spencer Blain and Sonia Shames, co-chairmen of the activity committee.

Ed Botifour and Manuel Hall are co-chairmen of the entertainment committee while Dick McCollum and Patsy Henry are in charge of publicity.

Dance lessons will again be offered by Texas Union this semester. Bill Brown, instructor, has announced that registration will begin Monday at the main desk of the Union, and that classes will start Thursday in the Main Ballroom.

The fee is $4.50 for six hours of instruction. However, the first ten girls to sign up for each section will be admitted free. Ballroom, modern swing, and Latin American dances will be taught.

Registration for the Texas Union billiards tournament closes Monday at the Union Main Desk, and the first eliminations get under way at 7 o'clock that evening. There is no entry fee.

UT Edges Hogs, 75-74

By MIKE QUINN
Texan Managing Editor

Texas was thankful for two things Saturday night: rain and a Longhorn basketball victory that snapped a fifteen-game losing streak.

The Steers dumped Arkansas 75-74 in a one-overtime heart-stopper in Gregory Gym as sure-handed Raymond Downs collected 41 points—fifteen of them at the foul line for a new University free-throw record.

Coach Slue Hull turned to five sophomores to carry the burden after the half ended with the score tied, 34-34.

Downs, Ellis Olmstead, Mack Burk, Norman Hooten, and Bill Groogan turned in a great second half. Hooten was booted along with Hog Terry Day with 20 seconds left for a slight altercation over a foul by Day.

Philip Kidd, in for Hooten with Texas in front 67-66, missed both shots Hooten had been awarded and Downs missed a technical (one of two he missed). Carroll Scroggins made Arkansas' technical shot and it was 67-67 with 20 seconds left.

Arkansas got the top, and Pete Butler worked for a hook. Olmstead moved in beautifully and blocked the shot with three seconds left and the clock ran out before another play could begin.

At the overtime jump, Arkansas got the tip and worked for a shot to open the five-minute "after game" affair.

They missed and Texas took over with Groogan hitting a push shot with 50 seconds gone. Downs drove for a crisp 40 seconds later after Arkansas failed to score and it was 71-67 Texas.

Norman Smith made two free throws off Downs, and Arkansas trailed by two, 71-69. Olmstead picked up one charity toss with 2:10 gone for a 72-69 lead.

Butler got a tip-in 35 seconds later, but Groogan netted a free throw for a 73-71 Texas lead with 3:10 gone.

Jerald Barnett got the free toss back fifteen seconds later, but Burk moved to the foul line for two shots and two points to give Texas a three-point, 75-72 lead, with 40 seconds left. Barnett made a jump shot with five seconds to go but it wasn't enough and the "Horns" were in.

Olmstead turned in his best performance of the year, getting seventeen rebounds and twelve points. He went all the way and did an excellent job blocking several Butler hook shots to hold the big man to eight points.

Oddly enough, it was at the foul line that Texas won the game. Arkansas outdid the Steers on field goals, 26-25, but the home team hit 25 charity tosses to 22 for the visitors.

Norman Smith was the top scorer for the Hogs with 20 while Day hit fourteen before being ousted with Hooten.

Tachen Islands Being Evacuated

7th, Chinese Fleets Move in Operation

TAIPEI, Formosa, Sunday, Feb. 6 (P)—American and Nationalist Chinese fleets were putting to sea Sunday to evacuate the Tachen Islands fifteen miles off Red China's coast, following orders from President Eisenhower and Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek.

Chiang issued orders to General Liu Lien-yi, the Tachen garrison commander, to withdraw following receipt before dawn Sunday morning of President Eisenhower's order from Washington for the US Seventh Fleet to assist in the operation.

Vice Admiral Alfred M. Pride, Seventh Fleet commander, sailed on his flagship, the cruiser Helena, shortly after 9 a.m. Sunday (7 p.m. Saturday, EST).

The news sent a throb of excitement through official and military quarters but the general public remained unaware because it came too late for Formosa's Sunday newspapers.

The evacuation, which may take as much as fifteen days, will remove 15,000 of Chiang's troops with their arms and equipment from the two Tachen Islands 200 miles north of here.

It will also take as many of the 15,000 civilians as want to go. It will also remove handfuls of troops and civilians from some of Chiang's satellite holdings nearby.

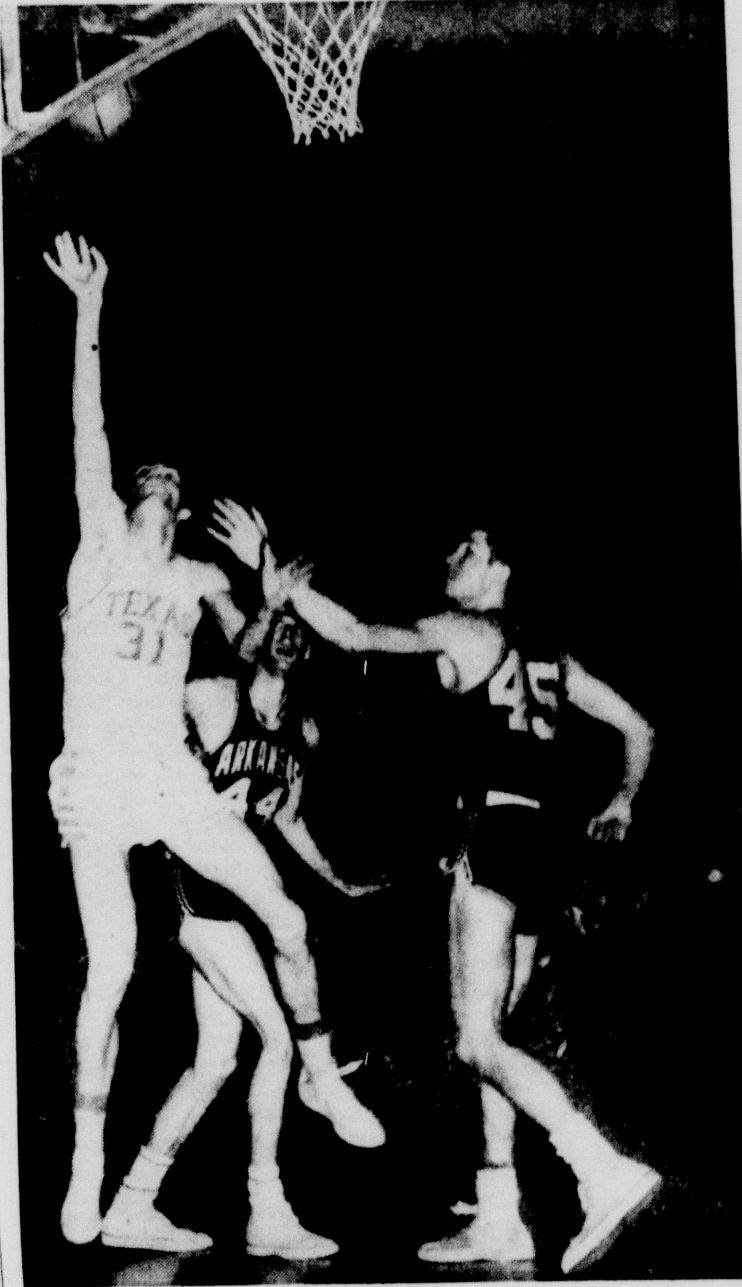

Tradition Broken; Co-Eds Join Band

The Longhorn Band will have a feminine touch Monday night for the first time in its history. M. H. Crockett Jr., band director, and the band council have invited coeds playing flute, oboe, bassoon, or French horn to join the band for the concert season.

In the past the Longhorn Band has been limited to men students, but the band council has parted with tradition to improve the concert band's instrumentation.

Director Crockett said there is no red tape involved in joining the band. "Just come to rehearsal," he told coeds.

Mr. Crockett urged anyone interested in band work—male or female, new or old students—to attend the first rehearsal of the semester at 7 p.m. Monday. He will outline spring plans for the band which will include performances at Round-Up, the San Antonio Fiesta Flambeau, and the remaining basketball games as well as campus and out-of-town concerts.

RAYMOND DOWNS sinks two points on a tip-in during the second half of the basketball game against Arkansas. Downs led Texas to its first Southwest Conference victory of the season as he scored 41 points, fifteen of them on free throws for a new record. Buddy Smith (44) and Norman Smith (45) strike a "discus throw."

Fourteen Clergymen To Speak For REW

Fourteen men are scheduled to visit the University as the main speakers for Religious Emphasis Week, the Religious Emphasis Committee announced Saturday.

The men, representing major faiths, will arrive February 18 and will be available to any group planning a retreat for that week end and for the REW activities February 20 through 24. They will be available for afternoon and evening meetings.

They are the Rev. Charles Albright, associate director of the Newman Foundation at Wayne University in Detroit, Mich., and associate editor of The Newman Review; the Rev. Roald Braulick from St. Paul Lutheran Church in Taylor; the Rev. Harold Brown, minister at the Memorial Christian Church in Midland.

Also listed are the Rev. Sam Botkin, a Congregational minister and national executive secretary of the YMCA; the Rev. David Currie, minister of the First Presbyterian Church of Texas City; Dr. V. E. Devadutt, professor of Religion at Ohio Wesleyan University.

Dr. Hayden Edwards, minister of the Polytechnic Methodist Church in Fort Worth; Rabbi Isadore Garsel, civilian chaplain at Carswell AFB and Wolters AFB and Rabbi of Congregation Ahavath Shalom in Fort Worth; and Nathaniel Griswold, Peace Education Secretary of the Southwest Region of the American Friends Service Committee will also be on campus.

Others who will speak during the week are the Archbishop of San Antonio, the Rt. Rev. Robert E. Lucey; Dr. Joseph Mathews, who teaches Christian Ethics at Perkins School of Theology in Dallas and was formerly pastor of the Broadway Temple Church in New York City; the Rev. Ralph Miller, whose major field of interest is the application of religion in business; and Peyton Short, the regional executive of World University Service.

Any group that would like to hear one of these men during the week is asked to call the Religious Emphasis Office (6-9031).

About 200 student tickets will be available at the Gregory Gym box office at 7 p.m. Wednesday to $15.60 Blanket Tax holders, for the Fred Waring show. The extra tickets are being offered by the Cultural Entertainment Committee because of the increased seating capacity of the bleachers in Gregory Gym.

No more advance tickets to the Fred Waring show are available at the Music Building box office.

PT Sectionizing Announced

Sectionizing for physical training for freshmen and sophomore women will be held Monday and Tuesday, Miss Anna Hiss, director of physical training for women has announced.

US JETS CLASH WITH MIGS

TOKYO—US Sabrejet pilots, under orders to fire when fired on, shot down two "Russian-built MIG-15's" and sent six others scurrying back to "Communist territory" in a clash over the Yellow Sea Saturday, the Air Force reported.

Whether the attackers were Russian or Chinese was not made clear in a brief report on the air action, biggest since the Korean war.

None of the Sabrejets was lost, a spokesman at the base said.

STEVENS TO RESIGN?

WASHINGTON—Secretary of the Army Robert Stevens was reported by Pentagon friends Saturday to be planning to resign, following the footsteps of John G. Adams, who quit as Army counselor Friday.

Campus motorists fumbled in their glove compartments for operation manuals Thursday and Friday and turned to the paragraph on windshield wipers. Surprisingly enough, after their long rest, most of them worked.

Anyway, it's been raining for almost three days now and at 8:30 p.m. Saturday 2.80 inches had fallen at Austin Municipal Airport.

It all began Thursday as a tornado warning was posted in the Austin area between 2 and 5:30 p.m. Since then Central Texas has had a pretty good soaking, up to four inches in places.

Tea-sippers took the first 24 hours of it in their stride with a few coeds dropping complaints about "suedes" being ruined or permanent being straightened out. Other than these minor rumblings everyone went about the regular business of the campus.

However, Friday was another tale. Just about everyone had forgotten the need of precipitation by that time and the gripes flowed.

California Dean to Lecture

Physical Sciences Dean William G. Young of the University of California at Los Angeles will give a series of technical lectures Monday through Friday at the University.

He will speak Monday through Thursday at 4 p.m. in Chemistry Building 319 on chemical research involving allylic compounds. His Friday lecture on that subject will be at 3 p.m.

Reading Sudents To Sign Monday

The Testing and Guidance Bureau is offering an eight-week non-credit program in reading improvement to all University students who wish to improve their reading skills. Those who are interested in participating in such a program should report to Garrison Hall 1 on either Monday or Tuesday at 3:00 p.m.

The Reading Groups meet three times a week, Monday, Wednesday, and Friday, for fifty minutes. The hour at which each group will meet will be announced when the student is assigned to his group.

Phenomenal Frosh Cop Seventh, 97-83

By NICK JOHNSON
Texan Sports Staff

Texas' remarkable Yearlings put on a torrid last minute rally Saturday night to send Lon Morris Bearcats to defeat, 97-83, in Gregory Gym.

It was the seventh victory for the Yearlings this season without a defeat.

The score was knotted, 79-79, with only six minutes to play when the Yearlings pulled away from the taller Bearcats on two goals by Kermit Decker and Kenneth Horowitz. From that point a semi-freeze drew seven Lon Morris fouls, and the Yearlings made eleven free throws to put the game on ice.

Until that time, however, the contest was nip and tuck with neither team holding a commanding lead. The score was tied nine times and the lead changed hands six times during the game.

John Shaffer was the big gun in the Yearling attack, scoring 26 points and turning in a fine performance under both boards. His 26-point effort was his high for the season.

Yearling Kenneth Cleveland turned in a spectacular defensive performance, time and again stealing the ball and breaking up Bobcat scoring opportunities. The bespectacled Coleman product scored 19 points, second only to Shaffer for the Yearlings.

Three Lon Morris players scored more than 20 points in the losing cause. Big Kenneth Roach, 6-7 center, and guard Billy Tubbs netted 24 each, and little James Emerson added 23 points.

The Shorthorns started slowly, trailing 17-24 after ten minutes. At that point Shaffer and Cleveland put goals back to back to put the Yearlings on their feet.

With Shaffer and Cleveland leading the way the Yearlings tied the score at 36-36 with five minutes to go in the half on a jump shot by Bobby Puryear. The Yearlings took the advantage and walked off the court with a 50-46 halftime lead.

The two teams played on even terms in the second half until the Yearlings' final rally that gave them the victory.

Steers Win, 75-74, In Home Thriller

Despite Downs' 41 points it was a definite team effort—and mostly sophomore at that. Groogan's scrappiness brought the crowd to its feet on numerous occasions.

Mack Burk, after a shaky start, swiped a couple of Arkansas passes and went the court's length for craps.

Aside from a wet field on occasions (the roof was leaking) the game was played under ideal conditions as the fifteen-game losing streak was broken.

The Game in Quotes . . .

GLEN ROSE, Arkansas coach: "It was a good game, okay, the kind the spectators like. A tough one to lose, though. This boy Downs looked great."

SLUE HULL, Texas coach: "This one did our feelings good. We needed it."

RAYMOND DOWNS, Texas center: "We outthrew 'em. Olmstead worked good under the back boards."

ASSISTANT COACH WALLER . . . a broader background

Waller Named UT Grid Aide—Quits Auburn

Charlie Waller, offensive backfield coach at Auburn, Friday was named assistant coach at Texas. His appointment by Head Coach Ed Price fills the vacancy created by Eck Curtis, who resigned December 18 after eight seasons.

The 33-year-old Waller comes to UT after five years at Auburn, where he assisted in the building program that made Auburn one of the SEC's top grid powers.

He will report to duty Monday, when the Steers open spring drills. The Texas job "is an advancement financially for me," Waller said Friday. He also said he thinks the post will give him a broader football background, since the Longhorns meet such teams as Oklahoma and Notre Dame.

Waller, a graduate of Oglethorpe University in Atlanta, coached both the split-T and the Bear-T, two modes of attack which the Longhorns combined successfully against TCU and A&M in late 1954 games. His backfield also did an expert job of running the famed "belly series" popularized by Georgia Tech.

Waller's 1953 backfield at Auburn led the Southeastern Conference in total offense. His 1954 ball carriers crushed Baylor, 33-13, in the "Gator Bowl" game January 31.

Before coaching at Auburn, he served four years as head coach at Decatur, Ga., High School, where his teams won 43 games, losing three and tying one. He coached two state titles and in 1949 was named Georgia's high school coach of the year.

Waller is the second coach to be named to Texas' staff since the 1954 campaign. Mike Michalske, former all-pro lineman who has served at A&M and Baylor, was appointed two weeks ago.

Others who will assist Price in the drills which open Monday are J. T. King, Ox Emerson, Bully Gilstrap, Ed Kelley, and Bobby Layne. Layne, the great quarterback with Detroit's Lions, was signed for the spring training period.

Africans Lead Okies Over Steer Tankers

By O. L. MOORE
Texan Sports Staff

Oklahoma University's swimmers, led by a group of South Africans, splashed their way to a 52-32 victory over Texas' tankmen Saturday.

In a preliminary match, the Houston YMCA dumped the Texas freshmen, 38-33.

The Sooners' South Africans—Melvyn van Helsing, Peter Duncan, Lin Miering, and Graham Johnson—showed a style of swimming that couldn't be matched by Texas.

Helsing gained high point laurels with his first places in the 200-yard backstroke and the 150-yard individual medley. His 2:16.6 in the backstroke event was better than the Southwest Conference record of 2:17.9.

Duncan's 4:48.7 time in the 400-yard freestyle also bettered the SWC 4:53.6.

Miering offered his efforts in the Sooners' winning 300-yard medley relay, while Johnson, holder of the 1,600-meter British Empire title, led the field in the 220-yard freestyle.

Not a South African but another sure winner for the Sooners was Tom Kehoe, who took first place in the 100-yard freestyle and the 50-yard freestyle.

Texas, outnumbered in first places, 8-2, picked up their victories in the diving event on the precision skills of Richard Lawler, and in the 400-yard freestyle relay. The Texas relay team unofficially broke the SWC 3:39.6 time in this event with a winning 3:39.4.

The results:
300-yard Medley Relay: Oklahoma's Miering, McKinney, Hudack. Time: 2:54.7.
220-yard Freestyle: Johnson, Oklahoma, first; Duncan, Oklahoma, second; Neal, Texas, third; Hadden, Texas, fourth. Time: 2:09.4.
50-yard Freestyle: Kehoe, Oklahoma, first; Dillman, Oklahoma, second; Fennick, Texas, third; Johnson, Texas, fourth. Time: 0:23.5.
100-yard Ind. Medley: van Helsing, Oklahoma, first; McKinney, Oklahoma, second; Anderson, Texas, third; Medenilla, Texas, fourth. Time: 1:34.4.
Diving: Lawler, Texas, first; Gilbert, Oklahoma, second; Million, Texas, third; De Jong, Oklahoma, fourth.
100-yard Freestyle: Kehoe, Oklahoma, first; Patterson, Texas, second; Fennick, Texas, third. Time: 0:52.1.
200-yard Backstroke: van Helsing, Oklahoma, first; Baker, Texas, second; Perkins, Texas, third. Time: 2:16.6.
300-yard Breaststroke: Coppock, Oklahoma, first; Anderson, Texas, second; Englehardt, Texas, third. Time: 2:42.3.
400-yard Freestyle: Duncan, Oklahoma, first; Hadden, Texas, second; Johnson, Texas, third. Time: 4:48.7.
400-yard Freestyle Relay: Texas' Patterson, Bull, Fennick, Neal. Time: 3:39.4.

The Meet in Quotes . . .

KEN RAWLINSON, Oklahoma coach: "My boys were fresh from a 47-35 victory over SMU Friday. It looks like it's going to be mighty close between SMU and Texas for the SWC championship."

HANK CHAPMAN, Longhorn coach: "Oklahoma was tough and our boys had a little stage fright, but I think they performed well against such stiff competition."

Sports in Brief

Dane Sets New Mark; Mr. Santee Wrestles

NEW YORK — Gunnar Neilsen, the bouncing Danish pressman, smashed the week-old world indoor mile record Saturday night by racing the distance in 4:03.6 in the famed Wanamaker Mile at the Millrose Games as Wes Santee and Fred Dwyer finished in a wrestling match.

A capacity crowd of 16,000 in Madison Square Garden went wild as Neilsen hung on for ten laps, then in the finale rushed to the front and won by ten yards.

Dwyer, who tried to pass Santee on the inside of the track at the last turn, was bumped off, then set out in pursuit of Santee, who only last week set a world record of 4:03.8. Three yards from the tape Dwyer lunged at Santee, grabbed the Kansas University speedster around the waist and almost flung him toward the boxes on the side.

Dwyer struggled across the finish second, but was disqualified and Santee awarded the place. Bob McMillen of the Armed Forces, who came up fast, was right behind the leaders.

TINSLEY OUT AT LSU IN MAJOR SHAKEUP

BATON ROUGE, La.—Louisiana State, in a shakeup of its athletic department, Saturday fired Head Football Coach Gaynell Tinsley and announced the retirement of Athletic Director T. P. Hard.

The vote on both actions by the LSU board of supervisors was unanimous.

Track Meeting Set

Track Coach Clyde Littlefield is calling a meeting of all men going out for the UT track team Tuesday at 4:15 p.m. in the dressing room of Memorial Stadium.

Frosh Moundsman Signs With Denver

Jim Bronstad, 18-year-old right-hander who was to have been one of the top two pitchers with the Texas Yearlings this spring, signed a contract with Triple-A Denver of the Yankee chain here Thursday.

The former Paschal of Fort Worth ace was looked upon as a great prospect.

Scot Talks of Church's Duty

By PRISCILLA WALKER
Texan Women's Staff

"The primary objective of the Iona Community is to speak to the needs of the whole man," said Dr. George F. MacLeod Friday evening in the auditorium of the Baptist Student Center.

The visiting Scottish professor emphasized that this should be the work of the church today. Dr. MacLeod said that while preaching salvation in the streets to 400 unemployed men, he began to wonder if Christianity could mean much to them.

"Here I was with an income, a pension for me after I retired. I had security and safety, yet I was offering to the unemployed safety in the arms of Jesus," said Dr. MacLeod.

"That is thin stuff to say to starving men," he continued.

In the industrial areas of Europe men are plagued by nakedness, starvation, and bondage. The bondage of the European and, to some extent, Americans is unemployment. In an actual situation of adversity the acceptance of Christianity is more difficult. Forty out of a 100 in the suburban areas of America attend church; in the industrial areas of Europe 40 out of 1,000.

The reason for the rejection in England, Scotland, and the other countries is that the working class considers the church for people just above their level.

"We must include the economic, political, and social aspects of man in our sermons. The churches of today ignore and shun all problems of man other than the spiritual. They only wish to save souls," said Dr. MacLeod.

Dr. MacLeod founded the Iona Community in 1938. It is a body of men, both ministers and craftsmen, married and unmarried, who, while continuing in their ordinary professions in the world, are seeking the deeper meaning of Christian community to apply to the problems of our modern age.

THE University Woman

By RUTH PENDERGRASS
Texan Women's Editor

I don't know how other people are, but whenever it rains, I get in a reminiscent mood and start thinking back over a lot of things. And one of the things I've thought about during this three-day rainy spell was the term "University woman."

When I first came to the University, three and a half years ago, I thought it sounded so odd to hear the term, "University women." Since I was just out of high school, "college girls" seemed a much better way to put it.

Even now, the term, University women, does not always seem appropriate. For instance, I would never say, "the women where I live." It's "the kids at the house." And wonderful kids they are, and wonderful times we have. Like the "pajama" party we had at 11 o'clock one night. It was a circus theme, and we all dressed up in circus costumes, and gave a skit where every girl was depicted as some side-show.

And there were cookie-baking parties we threw during finals, when everybody was so darned tired of studying that we were all giddy and laughed and giggled even if we did have two finals the next day.

There is a time, too, when the word "co-ed" is appropriate. That's for campus life, and for coffee dates, and for taking a coffee break at the Union at 10.

When a girl gets dressed up for a dance-date or a Drama Department play, she takes on the role of "young lady." Charming in her high heels and low-necked dress, or smart in her dressy suit, she is the same as any 18- to 21-year-old the country over.

But all these taken into account and added together, the average girl on campus lives up to the phrase, "University woman." In fact, there are many situations when only this term fills the bill.

University women do much besides play, go to class, date, and party. They think, they consider philosophy, they work, and they plan for the future. And they are more than kids, or co-eds, or even young ladies as they do it.

Campus problems are given careful thought both individually and in-groups. If you have talked with a group of girls at a retreat—whether it's the "Y," church, or sorority retreat—you know what I mean.

"How can we find a bigger God?" "What can we do to help orientate freshmen, transfers, foreign students to campus life?" "Is there any way to distribute campus leadership?" "How can we best prepare ourselves to be useful citizens of our community?"

These are just a few of the serious problems to which University women give serious consideration—and it is in considerations such as these that the college girl gains her full stature of "University woman."

Voters Meet Monday; Plan Conference

Campus League of Women Voters will meet Monday at 4:45 p.m. in the International Room of Texas Union.

At the organizational meeting plans will be shaped for the Inter-collegiate Campus League Conference to be held on the campus February 12. Eight Texas colleges plan to be present at the annual conference.

Any woman student is eligible for membership in Campus League. The League was organized on the University campus in 1941 by Dr. Anna Hiss, director of physical training for women, to promote understanding and participation in government.

The Campus League annually sponsors Stump Speaking, which gives candidates in Fall and Spring student government elections an opportunity to air their views, and an International Tea for foreign students on the campus.

Laredo Club Meets Tuesday

The Laredo Club will meet Tuesday in Texas Union 311 at 7:30 p.m. Students from Laredo and surrounding towns are invited to attend this meeting.

National President Visits SDT's

Mrs. William Katz, national president of Sigma Delta Tau sorority, is visiting the local chapter this week end. The visit is part of a tour of chapters, which includes those in Oklahoma, Texas, and California.

A dinner honoring Mrs. Katz will be given Sunday at 6:30 p.m. at the Terrace Dining Room by the sorority. Pledges will give a breakfast Sunday morning.

Burn More Books? Topic of Forum

A University librarian asks, "Shall We Burn More Books?" as the second of seven discussions on "Threats to Freedom" held every Sunday at 10 a.m. at the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs Building.

The open forum is sponsored by the Unitarian Church of Austin. Sunday's speaker is Sam G. Whitten, lecturer in library science.

Jane Is Mortarboard Leader And Dave Is Number 1 Spur

JANE MAXWELL
"My friends are my main interest," says Jane Maxwell, president of Mortar Board and of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. "Mortar Board is an honorary organization for senior women leaders," the quietly efficient girl explained. "Our main objectives are to consider campus problems and try to find solutions for them."

Just for pleasure Jane enjoys listening to music and traveling. Quite traveled in the Western Hemisphere, she lived in Mexico when a child, and practically learned to speak Spanish before English. But Jane has always wanted to go abroad and she finally has made definite plans to go to Europe this summer between graduation and the beginning of her first semester of teaching next fall.

DAVE WILLIAMS

As the lanky young fellow with a crew-cut hairdo sat down at the table to be interviewed, his face displayed a crimson-tinged blush and he said with an uninhibited grin, "I'm really not a very colorful character and there probably won't be too much to write about."

But after talking to Dave Williams, president of the Spurs, it was evident that this self-appraisal was not entirely indicative of the true nature of the friendly chemical engineering student who holds the highest office in one of the most active honorary service organizations on the UT campus.

Dave is 22-years-old and a senior. He has been a member of this group since 1953.

Outside hobbies or other interests are pretty much held to a minimum for Dave since his studies and work with the Spurs keep him busy daily.

DAVE WILLIAMS and JANE MAXWELL

Jere Bone Heads APO

The men with the blue and gold arm bands who told you where to go during registration, are headed by a serious young man with a low voice and lake-blue eyes.

Jere Bone, new APO president, lists Cowboys and Texas Club as his other campus activities. He is a past president of the Christian Faith and Life Community.

President's of six University service organizations were chosen as this issue's "Students of the Week."

His hand resting on a familiar bright orange ballot box, the 20-year-old senior sat behind the APO office desk in room 305 of the Student Union. He is five feet ten inches tall and slender; his blonde hair is carefully combed.

He named his activities, adding that he plans to attend medical school in Des Moines after graduation this spring.

Jere's past activities in service organizations should well qualify him as leader of this busiest of campus service organizations.

Friar President Is a Legislator

He's a second-year law student, and has a University Unrestricted Parking permit on the windshield of his car.

He likes hillbilly music, wears a stetson at a rakish angle, owns a pair of multi-colored cowboy boots, and "talks like a Texan."

Zeke Zbrank is the newly elected president of Friars, senior men's honorary organization. He is also at present a member of Phi Delta Phi honorary legal fraternity, Mica, and Texas Club.

"I'm a member of the House of Representatives," he grinned and winked, "I guess you might say I work there."

Zeke received the Mike Flynn Citizenship trophy, awarded each spring for campus good citizenship, in 1952.

Mary and Peppy Aid UT

MARY DANNENBAUM

"Mary, what time is the meeting tonight?"

"I know you're tied up with OJ's, Mary, but couldn't you possibly be on our committee, too?"

Mary Dannenbaum, one of the busiest girls on the Forty Acres, is president of Orange Jackets, an honorary women's service organization; president of the Ecumenical Council; on REW steering committee and the "Y" Cabinet.

She is also, in spite of her tight schedule ("I always seem to be five minutes late") and numerous activities, one of the friendliest girls on campus.

That is because, as she herself says, "I just like people. I guess they are my hobby; I don't have time for any other one."

Mary, who is from Houston, is a speech education major. She plans to do student religious work or high school teaching.

MARY DANNENBAUM and PEPPY DIAL

PEPPY DIAL

Preston (Peppy) Dial and a well-known organization called the Cow-boys are practically synonymous to those of us who are familiar with both. Peppy, a capable, active young man, is president, or foreman, of that honorary service group.

For quite some time Peppy has been making his mark around the Forty Acres. In 1951, after receiving a BA degree, he entered the US Air Force and remained there until 1953 when he returned to the University. In October of last year he received a law degree.

At the present time the short, curly-haired student divides his time between the various activities of the Cowboys, his work in the Texas Supreme Court, and continuance of study toward master of law.

Anna Russell Cavorts Through Many Moods

"Shucks, Podner, ain't you got no saucer lips?"

"Come back, little Sheba, come back!"

"Why, Dean Doty?"

"Those B-Tax photos are so unflattering!"

Anna Russell Misses Colleague By Coming to Gym Monday

When Anna Russell puts on her musical satires at 8:15 p.m. in Gregory Gym Monday, she will only be missing by two days one of her old colleagues—Fred Waring. The rubber-faced Miss Russell was one time a guest on Waring's television show.

Waring plays here Wednesday at the same hour and place. Both are brought by the Cultural Entertainment Committee and both are free to Blanket-Tax holders. Students may present their $15.60 B-Taxes at the door to see Miss Russell.

Waring's show is not the only one Miss Russell has graced with her buffoonery—there are many more TV shows, concerts, night clubs, Broadway stage, even solo spots with pop orchestras.

The lovely Miss Russell is now playing the witch in the Technicolor release, "Hazel and Gretel." When she did the same role in the New York City Opera production, the New York Times critic said, "She made an altogether imposing witch. Her skin was a bilious blue, resembling nothing so much as a mackerel that has been left too long in the sun."

John Chapman of the New York Daily News called her "the most repulsive broomstick jockey I have seen." Though no one can predict what she will do in her appearance here, she has done the following routines before:

Bizet's "Habanera" as a hoo-down.
Lecture-demonstration on French horn technique.
Psychoneurotic popular singer.
Local celebrities attending the Art Show.
Wagnerian soprano screeching on funeral pyre.
Tone-deaf singer.
How to get along in a crowded streetcar.
Interpretation of Wagner's "Ring."
Etc.
Admission price for non B-Tax holders is $1.50, previously announced as $2. Children's tickets are 50 cents.

Ex-UT Organist To Play Tuesday

Arden Whitacre, an organist who gave concerts widely in Europe, will appear in Recital Hall at 8:30 p.m. Tuesday. Mr. Whitacre was one time a member of the organ faculty of the University.

One of the younger organ virtuosos, he has studied in Europe with the great master Flor Peeters since leaving the faculty. He will play the Prelude and Fugue in B Minor by Bach, Chorale-Prelude by Buxtehude, Prelude and Fugue in G Major by Bach, and Chorale No. 3 in A Minor by Franck.

After intermission he will play Litanies by Alain, Berceuse (24 pieces) by Vierne, Prelude and Fugue in G Minor by Dupre, and Variation sur un Noel by Dupre. Tickets are 75 cents, and may be purchased at the Music Building box office.

Recorder Concert To Be Wednesday

The tape recorder will be used as a musical instrument Wednesday when Dr. Vladimir Ussachevsky gives a free lecture-demonstration in Recital Hall at 4 p.m.

In November of 1954 his composition for tape recorder and orchestra (called "Poem in Cycles and Bell") was performed by the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, Alfred Wallenstein conducting. This unusual composition was written by him and his research partner, Otto Luening. The same week it was played, he gave four lecture-demonstrations at the University of California.

Anna Jackson Plays Piano Recital Today

At 4:30 p.m. Sunday Mrs. Anna Jackson, special instructor in music, will present a piano concert as part of the Faculty Concert Series. She is a pupil of Dailies Frantz, professor of music.

First on her program is Bach's English Suite No. 4 in F Major, from which she will play Prelude, Allemande, Courante, Sarabande, Minuet I, Minuet II, and Gigue.

Then she will present Sonata, Opus 109 by Beethoven, Allegro ma non troppo, Prestissimo, and Andante molto cantabile ed espressivo being included.

After the intermission, she will play Schumann's "Carnaval," which is often cited as one of the most colorful and vital piano works of German Romanticism.

"Carnaval" is a particularly symbolic piece written in 1835. Subtitled "Little scenes on four notes," it is built around the four notes A, S (German for E Flat), C, and H (for B). These four letters spell out the birthplace of the girl he then adored, Ernestine von Fricken.

Radio House Adds Programs

Two new radio programs have been scheduled by Radio House for the spring semester. Beginning Tuesday KTXN will carry "Trail Blazers for Texas" from 10:45 a.m. to 11 a.m. and "A World of Wonders" from 2:30 p.m. to 2:45 p.m.

Free Movie Monday Is 'A Tree Grows'

"A Tree Grows in Brooklyn" will be the Texas Union free movie shown at 7:30 Monday evening in the Main Lounge of the Texas Union. Based on the novel by Betty Smith, the film stars Peggy Ann Garner, Dorothy McGuire, Joan Blondell, and James Dunn, who won an Academy Award in 1945 for his role as the father.
