

RECEPTION IN HONOR OF NEW PRESIDENT

Informal Meeting Held at Y. M. C. A. Many Old Songs Sung—Cream and Cake Served—Room Decorated.

Dr. W. J. Battle entertained the faculty with an informal reception at the Y. M. C. A. last night, in honor of Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Vinson. In the receiving line were Dr. Battle, Dr. and Mrs. Vinson, Dr. and Mrs. Benedict, Dr. and Mrs. Harper, Mrs. T. U. Taylor, Mrs. W. S. Sutton, Dr. and Mrs. A. Caswell Ellis.

The section of the "Y" was decorated with pink calla lilies and gladiolas. The pink design was also carried out in the cream and cake that was served to the guests.

An enjoyable feature of the program was the singing of old songs, which were selected by the host. They included "Old Man Moses," "Auld Lang Syne," "Loch Lomond," "University Hymn," "The Eyes of Texas," "Good Night, Ladies," "Three Blind Mice," "John Brown's Little Indian," "Row, Row, Row Your Boat," "Scotland's Burning," "Gaudeamus Igitur," "By Heroes Planned," "Jolly Students," "To Texas," "The Quilting Party," "Bonnie Doon," "Old Folks at Home," "Where, Oh Where."

AUSTIN C. OF C. WANTS 50 STUDENTS FOR S. A. CAMP

The Austin Chamber of Commerce has undertaken to pick 150 men by Monday night for thirty days of general military training at Fort Sam Houston, San Antonio, beginning June 10. The Chamber expects to select fifty of these men from among the University students.

The purpose of this camp is to train some of the most intelligent citizens of the country to be officers in the voluntary army subject to the call of the President in case any emergency should ever demand a call for volunteers. Each man will undergo a month's hard general military training such that if his services were ever needed he would be able to command a body of troops. This plan proposes to guarantee that there will be no useless loss of life due to a lack of efficient officering, as was the case among troops who never left American soil in the Spanish-American War. It is also a fact that there are not enough officers in the United States at present to more than officer the regular army. This camp, in addition to a number of similar camps over the country, is designed to remedy this shortage.

The Chamber of Commerce is especially anxious to have a complete list of those desiring to attend by Monday night. All students interested in this encampment should call the Chamber of Commerce or see either Frank Lyons or Jean Thweatt. Engineering students are especially desired, and it is important that all who are desirous of spending a month of their summer vacation in a method that is not only highly laudable but also in the reach of almost every able-bodied man should turn in his name immediately.

A. & M. AND S. W. TIE.

Special to The Texan.

Brenham, Texas, May 12.—In one of the best games ever seen on the local ball lot, the Southwestern Methodists from Georgetown and the A. & M. ball sluggers played a nine-inning tie game this afternoon. It was called on account of darkness. This concludes a series of collegiate ball games played here during the Maifest celebration.

SENIOR ACADEMS WILL BE ACTIVE REST OF YEAR

Wood Names Committees to Arrange Boat Ride, Class Day Exercises and Raise Students' Loyalty Fund.

In an enthusiastic meeting last night the senior academics laid plans for their class activities for the remainder of the session. Committees were appointed by the class president, Orville Wood, and after the business was over refreshments were enjoyed. The following are the committees appointed:

Committee on arrangements for annual boat ride: W. C. O'Donnell, chairman; Purcell, Hawkins and Chas. Qualia.

Refreshments for boat ride: Madge Pryor, chairman; Carolyn Hopkins, Helen Jones and Margaret Stokes.

Committee on University loyalty fund: Louis Boswell, chairman of boys, T. E. Hayden, W. C. O'Donnell, W. Hawkins, Carpenter, Nauman, J. L. Shepherd, W. Swenson, Alva Carlton, Herbert Thomason and Purcell; Lucille Robinson, chairman of girls, Madge Pryor, Roselle Gould, Ruth Kennedy, Ada Pearce, Ruth Rose, Ruby Smith, Roxie Weber, Margaret Stokes and Belle Works.

Committee on senior clock consists of two teams, as follows: Team 1—Louis Boswell, captain, Alva Carlton, O'Donnell, Swenson, Pat Nunn, Madge Pryor, Roselle Gould, Roxie Weber, Margaret Stokes; team 2—E. D. Norment, captain, W. W. Hawkins, Nauman, Purcell, Clifton Morris, Lucille Robinson, Carrie Hopkins, Louis Megee, Mary Longino, Ada Pearce.

Class day committee consists of O. W. Wood and Louis Boswell, together with representatives of the Cap and Gown.

Class day marshal: Joe Andrews.

CIVIL SERVICE EXAMS NEXT WEEK

The Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce has announced a large number of examinations to be held on May 16, 17 and 19. The following positions will be filled by the successful candidates: Clerk to commercial attache, tariff assistant, expert in commerce and finance, assistant to expert, commercial agent. The salaries range from $900 to $2500 per year. Though most of the positions are in the foreign service, a few of them are in the bureau at Washington. Many of the better paid positions in the diplomatic and the consular service are filled by men who have served their apprenticeship in one of the positions which are now open.

Students interested in these examinations are advised to make application immediately. Those who desire more detailed information or would like to have assistance in making out the application may consult me in the office of the Business Training School Saturday, from 4 to 6.

J. ANTON DE HAAS.

COLLEGE SECRETARY NAMED.

Acting upon a petition from the students composing the Daniels fund committee, the board of missions of the Southern Methodist Church have elected Rev. C. G. Hounshell to the position of secretary of colleges, which office was at the same time created. Rev. Mr. Hounshell will have, among other duties, that of visiting the various colleges of the South with the view of putting student volunteers in the foreign missions field.

It is thought this petition of Texas students received favorable consideration from the board chiefly because they were the first college students to support a student volunteer.

WOMEN'S COUNCIL MAKES REPORT

(By Mary Longino)

The function which the Women's Council has sought to fulfill during the past year has been to take care of breaches of the honor system, to unify the girls of the University, to enable them to feel their responsibility toward the University and toward other girls, to foster class spirit and to devise plans which would make for a saner social life.

The first event of the year was College Night, given by the Women's Council and Y. W. C. A. It was held Saturday night of registration week and was an attempt to introduce the freshmen to college life, to give them a broad perspective of college activities and to make them feel comfortable in the company of the oftentimes awe-inspiring upperclassmen.

The next attempt was a freshman party given at the homes of the faculty. The freshmen met in the Woman's Gymnasium and went en masse to the place they had been assigned. The party was quite a success.

Seven cases of breach of honor have been brought before the Council for trial.

The point system has operated to prevent a few capable girls from being overworked and also to give other girls more chances for development of executive ability.

There has been one business meeting and for the first time recorded there was a quorum at the first call, and this meeting was indeed a success, not only from the standpoint of attendance, but from what its results were.

The constitution of the Women's Students' Association was amended for the first time. This amendment provides for an organization committee which is to keep the girls of the University in touch with information of interest to the student body. This committee we feel to be one of the most vital organizations in the University, and we believe it will fill the much-felt need of a means of drawing the women students into closer relations with each other and to a knowledge of University affairs.

"Y" CAMPAIGN BRINGS RESULTS

Yesterday was a banner day in the Y. M. C. A. $5000 campaign. Between noon Thursday and the same time yesterday the total number of subscriptions received was raised from 336 to 445, and the total amount secured went from $1673 to $2255, making an average of more than $5 for each subscription.

Captain Otis Nelson was again in the lead for the Academic Department, raising $252. Captain Dan McCrummen came second for this department with $92.

For the engineers, Captain Carlton Bailey led and Captain W. C. Blair was second. In the Law Department Captain E. Y. Boynton was in the lead and Captain E. F. McFadden was second.

Only three more days of the campaign remain. Six-thirty Monday evening is the closing hour. The campaigners were much encouraged by yesterday's results, and the work is being continued with renewed interest and determination. It is expected that the full amount will be secured by Monday evening.

LECTURES NEXT WEEK.

A series of popular lectures on "Some New Phases of Evolution" will be given next week, the 16th, 17th, 18th and 19th. Drs. D. A. Casteel, I. M. Lewis, J. T. Patterson and C. S. Yoakum will lecture on the above dates, respectively.

TEXAS WINS IN SEMI-FINALS OF TOURNAMENT

T. C. U., Baylor and Texas Taking Part in State Intercollegiate Tennis Contest—Finals to Be Played Today.

Men representing the University of Texas won out in the semi-finals in tennis singles in the State intercollegiate tennis tournament here yesterday morning and afternoon. This morning Texas will play T. C. U. for the doubles championship.

Teams representing Baylor, T. C. U. and Texas are taking part in the meet, and although it looks as though Texas will make a clean sweep of the tournament, the meet this year is closer than any State contest of the last few years.

The results of the first round in singles are as follows: Tomlinson (T. C. U.) defeated Moore (B.) 9-7, 6-4; Bradley (T.) defeated Morrow (B.) 6-3, 3-6, 7-5. In the second round, Thomas (T.) defeated Tomlinson (T. C. U.) 6-3, 3-6, 6-3; Bradley (T.) defeated Perkle (T. C. U.) 6-1, 4-6, 11-9.

This leaves Bradley and James Thomas, both of Texas, to play off for the championship in singles of the State tomorrow afternoon. Neither Thomas nor Bradley were at their best yesterday afternoon, and Bradley won his two matches with great difficulty.

In the doubles contest, Texas drew the bye, and so Baylor and T. C. U. played the preliminaries. In a close match, Tomlinson and Perkle of T. C. U. beat Morrow and McDade of Baylor, 6-1, 8-6. Jones and Pickens for Texas will meet them this morning for the State doubles championship. Jetton, assisted by Purcell and Alderson, refereed the matches.

WOMEN INSTALL NEW OFFICERS

The newly elected Women's Council and Assembly were installed at a meeting of the Women's Students' Association yesterday afternoon. Reports, found elsewhere in today's Texan, were made by the committees of the Council and Assembly of 1915-1916.

New officers installed were: To the Council, Eugenia Welborn, president; Pauline Wherry, first vice president; Myrle Sowell, second vice president; Margaret Stewart, treasurer; Ewing Reynolds, secretary. The new Assembly members are: Anna Muckleroy and Belle Works, graduates; Madge Davis and Corinne Flood, seniors; Elise Bumpass and Mildred McLaughlin, juniors; Vida Corbin and Eleanor Sykes, sophomores.

LITERARY SOCIETIES ACTIVE.

In honor of its new members, the Sidney Lanier will give a picnic at Mount Bonnell on May 27. The committee in charge of the Bartholomew booths at the Pageant has not yet reported the amount made.

The last meeting of the Reagan was purely a business one. Officers were elected and plans for the following year were discussed. The society is contemplating as a subject for the programs of the new year a study of folk lore. Following is a list of the officers: President, Jane Dawson; vice president, Kathleen Molesworth; recording secretary, Marjorie Field; corresponding secretary, Ruth Rose; treasurer, Marian Robertson; critic, Agnes Ledbetter; parliamentarian, Ruth Rose; sergeant-at-arms, Sarah Brooks; reporter, Romah Cass; representative to intersocieties, Alma Giesecke.

BLANKET TAX IN FAVOR WITH MANY STUDENTS

Proposed Amendment Soon to Be Voted Upon by Student Body. Dr. R. A. Law Strong for It.

Public opinion among all the students and faculty seems almost unanimous in favor of the amendment to the constitution of the Students' Association providing for a students' activity fee. It is declared to be the best plan for uniting the entire student body and encouraging and developing spirit and an interest in the University.

Dr. R. A. Law, chairman of the School of English, declared himself heartily in favor of the proposed plan. He stated, however, that he did not think the Regents should adopt the plan unless it was heartily supported by the students in the coming election. He declared that it enabled the poorer students to participate in student activities, which they would not be able to do if required to pay higher prices, and that it would put the burden of supporting student activities on the shoulders of the entire student body. He also suggested that faculty members be allowed to take advantage of the saving, by paying the $6.50 fee, and enjoying The Texan, Magazine and athletic exhibitions. He pointed out that there would necessarily be some students who absolutely would refuse, or be unable to pay the fee, and some way to excuse them would have to be devised.

W. H. Butler, president of the Education Department, expressed himself heartily in favor of the amendment and declared that he had heard no opposition from the students of his department.

The general consensus of opinion seems to be that if the proposition is heartily endorsed by the students it will be recommended for adoption to the Regents of the University.

NEW PASTOR FOR BAPTISTS.

Dr. Charles E. Maddry of Raleigh, N. C., has been chosen as pastor of the University Baptist Church for the next year. Dr. Maddry has for some time had charge of one of the largest churches in North Carolina, having a membership of 1200.

Dr. Maddry has planned to reach Austin June 4. He will forego a vacation in New York, previously planned, in order to be here this summer and arrange for regular work to begin next September.

Besides being a graduate of the University of North Carolina, Dr. Maddry holds the D. D. degree from the Baptist Theological Seminary of Louisville, Ky. He has had considerable experience in his line of work. He is thirty-nine years of age and has a wife and a small daughter.

THE CHAMPION OF THE POOR STUDENT AND THE CO-ED.

A certain student has offered us a lengthy Firing Line article in which he opposes the blanket tax on the grounds that it would be unjust to the working student and the co-ed, and to those who do not care to read "some little local paper."

"But you don't subscribe for The Texan and would never see your article if it were printed," a member of the staff said to him when he presented the article at the office.

"Oh, yes, I would," he replied. Some of the fellows get the paper over at the boarding house, and I always read it."

We get just a little bit weary of such opposition to any worthy enterprise by the parasite—the student who enjoys but never pays.

Not only has this particular person read during the whole year a paper which somebody else, probably no abler than he, paid for, but he now has the presumption to offer to the paper which he will not support an article which it will cost The Texan at least $2 to run.

Again we say that the working student will not object to the blanket tax. The opposition comes from him who out of sympathy for the poor working student and for love of the University, which he would not have known as a rich man's school, is too anxious to let the poor boy and the rich boy, and the boy of moderate means, or anybody else, pay or refuse to pay, so long as he forgoes none of his parasitic advantages.

Self Convicted.

"I contend," says the gentleman referred to above, "that all students buy season athletic tickets, subscribe for The Daily Texan, and contribute to the support of the other items provided for in the proposed tax who can afford or care to do so." The writer of the article either isn't able to pay for The Texan, or doesn't care to pay for it. If the first is true, he confesses his willingness to enjoy that which, because of lack of means, he doesn't pay for; if the second is true, he confessedly doesn't care to pay for that which he uses. In either case he turns his own argument upon himself. The article in question can be found at the Texan office. It will remain out of print until considerably curtailed, or until it is paid for as advertising matter, or is presented by a student who has not declined, after being importuned many times, to subscribe for The Texan.

FIRING LINE

THE PROPOSED BLANKET TAX.

The blanket tax has for its purpose the combining of the expense of various activities into one fee, which it is claimed will amount to $6.50, and force every student to pay this fee before he matriculates, just as at present he is required to pay the medical and other fees before he can matriculate.

I maintain that at present all students buy season athletic tickets, subscribe for The Daily Texan and contribute to the support of the other items provided for in the proposed tax who can afford, or care to do so. Then why force the tax upon those who for any reason satisfactory to themselves they would not care to buy? I contend further that if this proposed tax is adopted it will work an injustice and hardship upon at least four groups of students:

First—There are a great many students attending the University who, for financial reasons, would be an injustice to force this extra expense upon them.

Second—There are quite a number of students who come to the University seeking mental training, different from that which is to be obtained from watching an athletic contest, or reading some little local paper which they did not have the time to read, and for other reasons satisfactory to themselves they would not care to be taxed this extra $6.50.

Third—Then we have a large number of students whose afternoon periods would be taken up in laboratory work during the time that the different athletic games would be played.

Fourth—Then the young ladies who would be forced to pay this fee would have to attend a great many of the games by themselves; that is, if they attended at all. Now, I contend that for either one, or more, or all of the above named reasons, this tax should not be adopted. Some claim that we should be "sporty," and have athletics and other things equal to some of the large Northern colleges and universities. Now as for myself, I am not opposed to having athletics, and the other things provided for in this proposed tax, if we get them by any other means save the one of forcing such support upon everybody regardless of whether he is able or willing to support it. If our athletics has reached that point where its support must be forced upon the students, does it not appear that our athletics has ceased to be sport, and has become tyranny?

SPORT SQUIBS.

With A. & M. losing to Southwest yesterday, it looks like Texas had a cinch. One more game places the flag beyond the reach of any other possible contestant.

Milton Thomas has proved to be the Longhorns' greatest winning card on the slab this season, having six victories to his credit.

Ray Williams has been a busy man around the initial sack this season. He has handled 174 chances—more than any other player.

Both Milton and Sellars have annexed large totals of strikeouts, the southpaw having sixty-six scalps hanging from his belt and our speed king sixty-three.

Jack Keltner, with forty-four assists to his credit, enjoys the distinction of having tossed out more men than any other player.

"Frosh" Carmichael has established an enviable record for his debut in college baseball—he has pitched the Longhorns to victory four times.

An error was made in computing the stolen bases as announced Thursday. Maxey Hart has pilfered seven sacks and it is seen he is thus one of the leading base stealers.

Mrs. W. A. Taylor has fully recovered and will resume charge of the house she formerly occupied, 2103 Nueces street, September 1, and requests young ladies to come and secure rooms before close of school. She will have ladies only, for rooms and board. 516

COLLEGE NOTES

(By J. K. Karchmer)

Wisconsin.—In a lengthy article, Dr.
Carl Russel Fish, professor of history, calls on the students to prepare to come to their country's aid. He says in part: "It is up to students to take the lead if the nation calls." He ends by saying: "When the nation's course has been decided, it is time for university men to take the lead in making it effective. If the country calls for men to fight, they should respond.
Equally should they respond if it calls for men for the less dramatic task of preparing to fight. Aim straight.
Don't be a streococcus."

Indiana.—A committee of students is working on a plan for a student self-government system for this university. The committee is meeting with success and it is possible that some definite action will be taken at a meeting of the student body which will be held soon.

Johns Hopkins.—In the annual South Atlantic meet of the Southern Interscholastic Association held at Charlottesville, Va., last week, this university won third place, capturing 17½ points. Virginia came out first with 79½ points, and Washington and Lee took second place with 23 points.

Amherst.—"The graver menace to America," said Professor H. A. Overstreet of the philosophy department of C. C. N. Y. in the invitation address to the Phi Beta Kappa last Friday night, "is the distorted translation of Darwin's theory of evolution, which is so prevalent among the people of our country today. The job of the scholars now is to bring America to herself, to show this fallacy, and to point out that the wealth of a nation depends not upon exploiting other nations, but in insisting upon fair play and the maintenance of peace." Professor Overstreet closed his address by urging scholarly men to force the truth of peace before the people, wake them to action and warn them "from the path they are treading in ignorance."

South Carolina.—On March 27, for the first time in the university's recent history, the students of the graduate courses met and effected a class organization. The University of South Carolina has one of the largest graduate classes among Southern universities.

Wisconsin.—The co-ed edition of the Cardinal came out yesterday (May 12) and nearly 2000 papers were sold. The regular subscribers did not get their papers. The men only had one page of the issue. The Cardinal is an eight-page paper.

Candidate for President Students' Association

A man familiar with student problems and University needs.

A man who promises to direct student effort to constructive reforms.

RAYMOND M. MYERS

Politics, as such, has more than received its due attention in the past. A POLITICAL RING seeks to DOMINATE all student affairs, even to the office of President of the Students' Association.

Myers promises to direct STUDENT ATTENTION and STUDENT EFFORT to the solution of STUDENT PROBLEMS. He has NO POLITICAL BOSS to whom to account. He can represent the WHOLE STUDENT BODY, for he is receiving the BEST SUPPORT of all factions.

MEADE F. GRIFFIN

Barb Nominee for
PRESIDENT OF STUDENTS' ASSOCIATION

The candidate who is closest in touch with the student body as a whole and is best able to respond to their desires. Probably has a greater number of personal friends than any other man in school, and therefore will have the confidence and support of more students than the other candidate.

Griffin favors giving the defendant the right to be represented by counsel in trials before the Students' Council. Believes in making the Council more of a judicial body and not both a prosecuting attorney and a jury.

Griffin has had actual experience on the Students' Council and is the man qualified to carry out the reforms that are needed to better the Honor System. His opponent has never served on the Council. A man who has never served on the body that administers the Honor System can not know the real defects in the procedure of the Council and the remedies needed.

Loyal students will vote so as to insure a sound business administration and a closer relationship between each student in the University.

STAFF NOMINEE

for

MANAGING EDITOR OF THE TEXAN

The opponent of the Staff nominee for Managing Editor of The Texan had an advertisement in The Texan yesterday in which he continues to dodge the real issues and fails to show his superior ability for the particular position of Managing Editor of The Texan.

INDORSEMENT BY THE TEXAN STAFF:

We, the undersigned members of The Texan Staff, indorse the candidacy of Silas B. Ragdale, the staff nominee, for Managing Editor of The Texan.
