A.T.C. BAND PLAY FOR R.A.F. PARADE

A unique honour has been paid to the No. 114 Ruislip-Northwood (Middlesex) squadron, A.T.C. by a Polish fighter squadron. The latter were having a special parade but had no band, so they called on the band of the Ruislip-Northwood A.T.C., who, honoured, fulfilled all the demands made on them. Indeed, they did so well that they earned the commendation of the group captain in charge of the station and of the Polish commander.

The cadet in charge of the big drum did his job so thoroughly that he burst the skin. However, that matter is to be satisfactorily settled - the officers of the R.A.F. station immediately offered to pay for the damage.
