

ALFRED C. LANE
22 ARLINGTON STREET
CAMBRIDGE, MASS.

Jan 3 - 1939

Dear Dr Stenzel: -

I thank you for your letter
I thank you for your letter

I have by the way a reprint
I have by the way a reprint
of C. Diener's "Die Bedeutung
of C. Diener's "Die Bedeutung
der Zonengliederung für die Frage der Zeitmessung in der Erdgeschichte." ^{Neues Jahrbuch} N. F. B. B. XLII

65-172 (1918). I never studied it very carefully. I never studied it very carefully - the last page discouraged me

weitere Versuche zur Lösung weiterer Versuche zur Lösung feiner Probleme von biologischer Seite aus den oben

^{amplified} ^{grinders} ⁱⁿ ^{the} ^{quartz} ^{Program} ^{volume} careful grinders in the in quartz Program volume."

I am quite sure you are right that ^{diastemes} ^{and} ^{stylolites} ^{and} ^{interruptions} of
stylolites and interruptions of ^{sedimentation} are an ^{important} factor so that ^{sediments} would tend to be ^{unimpaired}
less to be unimpaired.

Yours truly
Alfred L. Grew

But what I meant to write was that if you haven't ^{Diener} handy and would like it, I will gladly send it.

I might want to use some of your second paragraph in ^{next} year's ^{report} and ^{not} ^{less} ^{impaired}